...Dead Body Walking...

You set there smiling in my face
Acting as if you know me well While you know nothing about me
Or what I have been throw
Do you know how many nights I cried?
What happened to me when I was five years old?
Do you know how many times I faked a smile?
How many secrets I hided inside?
No one sow me crying before They don't know that my tears had fade long time ago
I have no tears left inside
No feelings, no emotions
I am just a dead body walking
I have no goals in life to achieve People ask (why you don't care?)
I stopped caring long time ago
Since no one cared about me before Life is not fair and I know that But I knew that too early
I am just a dead body walking
I know this dead body will never be alive

103 poems and you didn’t notice

He said that he heard that I wrote beautiful poems
He asked me if I can write one about him
He doesn’t know that all my poems have been about him
I never forgot to mention you in any line 103 poems and its all about you man
You must be so blind to not see how much I love you man
I think I’ll blow up now
And say it in your face Because am tired of writing it dawn
Am going to say it so loud 103 poems and still you didn’t know Maybe am so good in hiding it Or maybe you are so blind…

17years old people always look at me asking themselves why is this 17years old girl sad why she look so un happy they come to me telling me you are just 17, you are akid you still dont know any thing about life or about it problems i look at them i want to asnwer them but i dont but i still think that they are the kids and they know nothing about life they think if you were 17 that means you still small and stupid what i have been throw in my life can make you 100years older it can make you 100times wiser and million times sadder

About ME! ! !

People always see my writing Trying to understand
Is this girl in love?
Or she is in pain
Trying to know what’s going-on in my head Trying to understand my body language
Trying to read my eyes
But you going to find nothing in those eyes
I’m a puzzle that everyone thinks they can solve But am full with codes just like the Vinci code
They never sow me crying
So they start asking Is this a human been Or she’s a machine
I’m a creature that no one can handle
Yap that’s me

All I do is thinking of you

All I do is thinking of you
Thinking of ways to get you Thinking of your wonderful smile
Your jokes that make me laugh
I just want you to notice me
And not think of me as just a friend
I know I love yes I do
It's not just a crash no its not All the little things I do
I do them for you
I know I blush when you are around
I can't helped because I tried before One look into your eyes makes me fly Hearing your voice makes me high
You are my medicine when am sick
You are my strength when am weak
I just want you to know that I love you &I wish if there were away for me to tell you I do

aliyah aliyah

always on my mind

I think of you all the time
24/7 in my mind
I always see you in my dreams
I miss you even If you were in front of me
I can't explain what I feel I think am about to loss my mind
You are like a dream came true
Or a gift from god to me
Maybe you are an angel Dressed as human Because that how you make me feel I wish if it was easy as it seems to be Telling you all this without being scared
I know you are scared too So let's fight our fears together

aliyah aliyah

am going crazy(and every one knows)

Am going crazy
And I know that Trying to act normal
While every one knows there is some thing wrong
I can hear them whispering Saying that girl is crazy
So by acting normal I was just fooling my self I never knew what normal is
And I believe no one in this world dose So we all are crazy some how

aliyah aliyah

Amazing love

She is in love but she can't be with him
He is in love but he can't be with her
There is many things comes in between Culture, religion and many other things
But still they see love in each other eyes
They can't sleep at night Thinking of each other Dreaming of each other Kissing, touching doing every thing that lovers do Just thinking of each other hurts
They both ask them selves Is this love worth all this? !
They both got one answer
Yes, they going to fight Fight for this sweet, sweet love

aliyah aliyah

and I wonder if you wonder...

I know I said I already forgot you
I said I managed to stop myself of missing you Who am I lying to?
My heart is aching for you
My hands are longing to touch you My lips are thirsty to kiss you My arms are yearning to huge you
I have been so lonely lately
I just can’t move on Even though I’m trying to Keep my self busy all day
Keep my mind busy too
To stop my self of think of you But who am I lying to It doesn’t pass a second Without you running my mind
So I keep wondering Wondering if you feel the same Wondering if you wonder too

aliyah aliyah

As I look at the mirror

As I look at the mirror
Asking my self Who's that girl looking at me?
It not me
It can't be me
Am sure it's not me
I see sadness in her eyes
It can't be me
Where did my smile go?
Is the smile hiding from my face?
I wonder where the happiness left
Who's that girl who's looking at me?
I remember I used to be so happy Am sure that this girl she's not me

aliyah aliyah

baby boy

U r the only 1 who knows how much I care 4 u
U know that I would even die 4 u
Leave every single thing n this world
And be with you
U know how much I like u
Even if I said I like u this much ( ) I'll b lying U know I like more much than that Baby boy u know u r my life
And I know u wish if I could be your wife
And have that happy ending
Just like any body else
But some times I wonder would haters let us have that They always interfere in every thing we gat Baby boy u know that you are the only one I gat
So if u ever leaved me
U would find me in your heart

aliyah aliyah

Baby we shine just like a start

Your love for me is real That’s why we shine
Just like a bright star
We shine, we shine
The thing between us is real
I can feel it baby
I know this is the deal
You are my beginning
And you are my end
That’s why we shine
Yes baby we shine
When we are together
I know this was meant to be It’s like I was lost
And now I know where I belong
I belong next to you
I belong to your heart
That’s why we shine
Baby we shine

BEAUTIFUL

For the first time I feel beautiful
I feel like a human again
I was dead and now a live
I swear I can feel my self breathing
I can hear my heart beating
For the first time in my life
I smile without sadness in my eyes
It's like I was born again
And I love the life am living
I am happy and you can see it
I stopped faking smiles
Because now I have reason to smile
A new page in my life
No more tears from the past
I have been reborn
Its like am a child again Learning how to smile, to love,
To walk all over again
I feel beautiful inside and out
No one going to break my spirit Because am not the same

aliyah aliyah

Been lost lately

I just have been feeling lost lately
Don’t know what to do
I am losing control
Should I let my mind control me?
Or I should let my heart take the lead
Please come and save me
Because I have been lost lately
I’m not kind of person who takes advices
But now trust me ill take anyone’s advice
That’s how desperate I am
But wait a second
How you going to help me
If I don’t know what’s wrong with me
How you going to fix me
There is so much mess in my head
Wish to be dead
Wish I never knew you Wish you never knew me
Don’t want to break your heart
So please don’t break mine
But just I have been so lost lately Hope you going to understand

Broken Heart

The day you left me
Was the day I grow old
My other half died with you Now my friend’s wonder why I don’t smile
You said you love me
So why you making me cry
I’m bleeding and dieing from the inside
My heart is broken to million pieces
Hope you are satisfied
As am writing this poem hope it makes you smile How dose it makes you feel after knowing this That after all you did, I still have space in my heart to forgive
What can I do am madly in love with u
And the only person made me cry Is the only person who can make me smile now

aliyah aliyah

Cant fall in love

All I wanted is to fall in love with you
All I wanted is to spend then rest of my life with you All I wanted is to love you
Is falling in love some thing so hard to do It is so difficult and I can't force my heart to Why I can't fall in love with someone as wonderful as you
You are so kind so sweet
But why my heart doesn't beet when am around you Why when you are far I don’t hear my heart calling you
I don’t think am in love with you
But why I have this strange feeling for you
I don’t think I need love to continue doing what we do I like what we have yes I do
This strange feeling is what keeps us tighter This strange feeling is what makes us like each other..

Cheating on him

Texting each other all the time
Calling each other all the time Can’t believe that I forgot that I already have a man
I just can’t under stand
I thought I was already in love with him
But you made me fall in love with you Now I don’t know what to do with my man
I promised that I’ll b faithful
I promised I won’t break his heart
He is probably out there thinking of me Thinking if I missed him as much he miss me What if he knew I’m here, writing about other man?
I can’t do this
I have to stop this He doesn’t deserve this

aliyah aliyah

Cold feelings

Do I run in your mind?
Like the way u run in mine
Do you suffer at night?
Can’t go to sleep
Does your heart beat fast?
When ever you see my face
Or hear my name
Do you because I do all the time
It hurts that I can’t tell that Why you are so blind Open your eyes
And you will notice
How crazy I am about you Just open your eyes
And you will see...

colors of life

Life doesn’t always comes in pink
It has many other colors
Some times it seems so black
And some times it looks white
Life doesn’t always treat you right
And it's not always so bright
So don't you frown or be sad Because that’s the rule of life

confused

one day i wake up happy one day i wake up sad one day i smile other day i cry

some times i wish to be dead some times i thank god am still alive some times i give some times i take some times i laugh loudly some times i cry silently some times i thank god for this happy healthy life some times i ask god why he brought me to this life

aliyah aliyah

Confused about you

I’m so confused right now It’s the first time someone makes me feel this way
I don’t know if I like you And I don’t know if I don’t Sometimes I feel that I need you But when you are around I don’t Am so confused about you
I like the way you make me feel
But when you near I want to run away
I know it’s strange
And I know that I’m confusing you too

aliyah aliyah

Did you really worth it?

I have been waiting for you Days and days, weeks and week,
Months and months, years and years
But as you see is am steel waiting
I remember when you said
That only death can tack us apart
Maybe you died
And your soul is searching for me
It had to travel from country to country
Just to find me
Maybe it did
And its here next to me
Looking at me writing this poem Wishes if he could just tell me
That he is here next to me Wishes if he could just touch me..
Or maybe you are alive
And thinking of me too Thinking if I changed
Or am steel the same
Do I steel remember you?
And the promise we made
Maybe no
Some times I just wish if there is away we could connect Connect by our thoughts maybe
So I imagine you asking me ``HOW ARE YOU`` and am answering
And we talk and talk and only talk
All this 6 past years, I just wished to see you But do you really worth it?
All this wishes, all this year, all this poems
All this nights, all this tears, all of this DO YOU REALLY WORTH ALL THIS?

Done looking back

Am done looking back I'll just look fwd
Put my eyes on the goal
Done feeling sorry
No more thinking of the past
Kiss the pain good-bye
No more sorrow
I'll lead my self from now on Done to be lead by my past

aliyah aliyah

Don't act blind

Hey baby stop playing around
You know I love more than any thing
When you are around all I do
Is staring at your charming smile
I have to be with you
I’m crazy about you Please don’t do that Don’t turn your face
Give me a chance and I’ll show you Show you what I’m about Am ready to do any thing for you Please don’t be so blind
Please don’t act blind
You know am here for you
I love you
I care about you
I need you here by side
Am lonely and I know you feel the same So lets be together you won’t fee lonely any more

aliyah aliyah

don't know why you love me! !

I don’t know why you love me
And I never treated you right
You still love me
Even thought I talked behind your back
You still in love with me
Even thought I never loved you back
I don’t know why you loved me
Even thought you knew I was never your friend
I don’t know why you still in love with me Even thought after you know all that

aliyah aliyah

don't play with my heart

Stop acting as you love me
Stop playing with my heart
Every time you come around
I know you are just playing around But something inside of me Makes me believe your sweet lies Every time I manage to forget you
You manage to come back
And as always you break my heart
Please go away, don’t try to stay I’m too wake to say no
Too wake to leave you Even though I know you are playing But I keep believing your lies

aliyah aliyah

Eyes On Me

I know you are with her
But am sure you r thinking of me
You proved your point
So now come and live with me
I see u walking the street with her
But I swear your eyes are on me
So baby stop pretending Come and dance with me
Your eyes are rolling
All they search for is me
Hey stop searching
Here I am, come and get me
Am all yours, and u r all mine
So come and have fun with me

aliyah aliyah

Few people know's me

Few people sow the real me
And you was one of them
You took out the best of me
And made me what I am today

Few people sow what’s inside of me
You under stood me very well
And took away all the pain

Few people under stood me
And am thankful for have you by my side
You hear me when I speak
And care about what I think

Few people knew me Knew me as you do
I used to wear a mask
But you are the only one who sow what’s under that mask
You believed on me Am really thankful for having you

aliyah aliyah

Flashing my dignity

I hate my self after every time it happens
What hurts me most that I have could stop it back then But I didn’t and am paying back for that It cuts me every time I remember and it brings so much pain
Knowing that I was stupid that I couldn’t even end it Now that I can’t stop thinking about it
I figure out it wasn’t all my mistake
My memories goes back, I wasn’t the only person to blame
I was just a kid back then
Now as I grow up I have to live with shame
I flashed my dignity in the toilet
And I have to learn how to live with out it Smiling & pretending like nothing have happened wont fix a thing Friends have told me to forget about it
It doesn’t worth’s all this pain
But they don’t know what have happened
So please stop giving advices that I don’t need

aliyah aliyah

Free Women

All I know that I was never ready to be any ones girl
So how about being some ones wife
I’m free women
I like free life
It doesn’t mean that I don’t love you
I do love you
But I want to love you with no stress
I’m free women
I do what I want to do
And go where I want to go
I live my life in very easy and simple way
If any one wants to disturb
I live them right away
I used to have a complicated life
Many secrets I hold inside
I wasn’t happy
And some how I lost my childhood for that I don’t want to go back That’s why I’m free women now I live simple and easy life

aliyah aliyah

From best friends to enemies

I was stupid that I forgive u in the first time Stupid that I did the same in the second time
And the same many other times Finally I sow the real you
I sow the ugly side of you U wasn’t the friend u acted that you are
I was stupid even to call you my friend
I was stupid that I even trusted u with my secrets
You was never real
For you maybe I was just a deal
A strange person that u wanted to know
And after you did u left away
What did I do to make you treat me this way?
After I trusted you turned to be this way I don’t need you any more

aliyah aliyah

god forgive me from the sin asking god to forgive me from the sin asking god with an eye full of tears

Happy valentine

Don’t know what happened 2 my heart
Strange feeling came to me when I read text message Saying happy valentine
I wished 2 reply but no credit left n my mobile I stared in your message for a while I couldn’t take it out of my mind
How did you remember 2 wish me a happy valentine?
I swear before I received your text massage
I was watching your profile Saying oh my god this guy is still fine
It’s obvious that you still have feelings for me
And I still have feelings for you
But I know that isn’t enough Because me and you we aren’t meant to be

aliyah aliyah

Hate this feeling

I don’t know what to do
I never been in this kind of situation before Never thought I’ll like some one this much Oh lord I think am in love
I don’t know what to do about it Should I tell him what’s on my mind
Or shut my mouth & let things go with the flow
This never happened to me before
Not in this way
It have always been them not me
I hate this feeling and I don’t know what to do

aliyah aliyah

He still loves her

He still lives in the shadow of her death
He still lives for her last breath
He still loves her as if she’s still alive
He still collects the aches of her last steps She’s still remain in his heart
She left remarkable touch in his life
He lived for her
And he was ready to die for her
He still remembers her last words
How would he forget?
And “I love you” was the last words
He really loves his wife And he still lives in the shadow of her death

aliyah aliyah

He stopped loving me

You stopped loving me
I can see it in your eyes
You don’t any more like me
I can feel it when we talk People say it’s normal
It happens to all couples
He stopped loving me
And you are telling me not to worry
If you just know how much he means to me
He means more than the words can say
When he is far my heart stop beating That’s how much he means to me
And you are telling me not to worry
Please tell me what happened
And how I can fix this Please don’t stop loving me...

Hey baby stop crying because today is anew day Hey baby stop crying because there is no more pain

Hiding a secret

The pain is almost too real
I can’t stand it any more
It hurts and makes me want to cry
Some times I wish to die
Nothing worth’s hiding this secret any more Hiding this secret makes me sad
I can’t hide it any more
You can see it clearly in my eyes
That’s its killing me
And I don’t know how to deal with it
I thought with time I’ll learn
But I was wrong
I can’t hide it any more
I can’t stand it any more

aliyah aliyah

HIS TEARS

i sow him crying but i didnt ask why he thought its becasue i dont care but it was becasue his tears told me every thing in every tear was like amillon of tears inside of it his tears touched my soul and made our souls dance thogher so we started to sing that sad song but i stoped singing when his tears touched my hand it was like some one is touching my heart but in soft way it was afeeling that made me chang but i stoped feeling that when his tears touched my arm it was like asoft hand touching me but i stoped feeling all that when he stoped crying

I can live without you

I thought without you, I won't have a life
I thought without you, I won't live
I thought without you, I would die
I remember the day I said you are my life
I said without you, I can't live Because you are my air, and without you I cant breathe
I said you are my water and my food
I said you are my every thing
My love, my one and only Look at me now
Where are you?
I don’t know, and I don’t care any more
I was wrong when I thought that I can't live without you Cause look at me now
Am living just fine
Smiling and laughing all the time
Am having a good time
Am living just fine

aliyah aliyah

I can’t wait

I can’t wait for the day I’ll be in your arms
I can’t wait for the day I’ll see your face
I can’t wait for the moment I’ll hear your voice
I can’t wait for the second I’ll cry in your shoulder
I can’t wait any more Because I miss u. miss you badly

aliyah aliyah

i cant be the one for you

It’s the first time
Some one cares in this way
It’s not like there wasn’t any one before But you are different and you know that you are You care so much
You are series and real
I don’t know what to do with you
I don’t deserve some one like you Because you know am cold
And in love games am never good Why you fail in love with me
It’s not like I didn’t worn you before
You know I don’t want to break your heart
You are too good that I can’t do that I told you before that am not able to love
Because I have so much hatness in my heart
I hope you going to find someone else
Some one better
Some one going to be in your side Because I can’t be that person for you…

I miss our late night calls

I miss our late night talks
I remember how much I used to like them Waiting for your call

I miss our late night phone calls Your voice, I really liked it Your sleepy voice

I miss our late night chats
Every time I want to close the phone
You say one more min, baby one min

I miss our late night conversation
When I end up sleeping
And you in the other line just hearing my breath

I miss all that

aliyah aliyah

I need 2 hate you

You broke my heart once
You broke my heart twice
But I still love you
I still care
I tried to get you out of my mind
I thought it will be easy
After all the things you have done to me
I was wrong
Because my heart still beats by your name
Every time I try to hate you
I end up loving you more Tell me what you did to me
I need to hate you
I need to get you out of my life
You drive me crazy
I end up every night dialing your number
You broke my heart once
You broke my heart twice
But I still love you

aliyah aliyah

I scared him away

I think I scared him away
He doesn’t text me or calls me any more
I made him think that I don’t want him any more He doesn’t know that I never been good in expressing what I feel Check my poems and you will know how much I like you boy Every poem I write I end up writing about you boy
I know you need to hear it but you know that’s the way I am
It’s a bad habit and for you I promise I’ll try to change
If you just know how much I like you boy
You would wish if I would be forever yours
You are the only thing that runs in my mind
I think of you 24/7

aliyah aliyah

I still think of you

It have been 3years now
And still I can’t get you out of my mind
Every day, every minute, every each second I just can’t get you of my mind
I know nothing much happened between us
Maybe that’s why am thinking of you a lot Think of what could happened
Some how I felt like you are my one
My one I always waited for you Why you had to leave
I’m lonely now, and I can’t go on with my life
I’m still like the way you left me
I don’t smile any more

aliyah aliyah

i waited for too long

You told me to wait
But I have waited for so long Waited for the day
For the day that every thing will go right
The day my smile will look so bright
I can't remember the last time life treated me right
It have been a long time since last time I had a great time
Am not complaining
But I had a difficult life
I have been promised that every thing going to be aright
I have been told to not worry
And every thing going to be ok
It has been a long time and am waiting for that Am not complaining
But I had a difficult life
It's not easy to live my life While you have pain to hide
And smile to pretended But am still waiting for that one fine day

aliyah aliyah

I want back my life

I go back to my mind
Think of my life
With tears in my eyes
Wonder how I reached here
I was so happy back then Living my life
What happened to all that It’s like I lost it all
And I want it back
It’s like my smile have fade away
I’m tired of crying all day
But it’s all I can do It’s all I can do lately
I have nothing left
No friends, no love
No family to stay by my side
All I have is tears in my eyes
I want back my life
So give me back my life

aliyah aliyah

I was in the top of the world

Strange this world we are living
It's so strange
In a moment you feel like you are in the top of the world Living the prefect life
With the prefect family and having the perfect friends Every thing is going right
Nothing is wrong
Smile's and laugh's is all I can hear
And happiness is all I know
I can't even ask for more

In another second I feel like am in the bottom of the world
Every thing goes wrong
Nothing seems right
I ask my self what went wrong
I tell people' I was in the top of the world; I swear I was in the top of the world' But no one can believes that lie :)

aliyah aliyah

I won’t stop dreaming

I still dream that you will come to me one day
And say all the things I wish you would say I still dream that u will say that u used to think of me
And you couldn’t take me out of your mind
You saying that I was the one for you
And if I would forgive you for coming too late
I still dream of you and I’ll continue dreaming Even though it hurts me to the core But I’ll still dream and keep on dreaming

aliyah aliyah

I’m sure it’s love

I don’t know what to say
And what to write
Its just I’m losing my mind
And am losing it over you
I think I’m in love
No am sure it’s love
And I’m trying to ignore that But it won’t work for long Because it started to show

aliyah aliyah

if i could write apoem that, , if i could write apoem thats going to stop the hate in this world i would start writing it now

if i could write apoem
thats going to stop the sadness in this world i would take all my life to write it

if i could write apoem
thats going to stop the pain in this world i would throw every thing in my hand and write this poem

aliyah aliyah

if i just can live that, , if i can speak, and tell the world about my story about whats in my mind all the thought, all the things i have been through all the things i have seen, all the thing i have heard if i can do that bravely with out fear if i just can do that if i just can live one clear day aday without fear, aday without problems aday away from all this if i just can live that day, , , , , , ,

aliyah aliyah

If one day

If I wakeup one day Without finding you next time
I think I'll cry, I think I'll die
Me and you we are one
So without you, what I'll be?
If there is no you, there will be no more me
You know I always liked you
You know I always loved you
You are my life
You are my every thing
So please don't leave

aliyah aliyah

I'm the one

Am the one who blow it all
Am the one who broke it all?
Said things that I couldn’t do
And now I’m the only one to blame Never thought thing will end up this way Thought I’ll be in top till the end Forgot to ask, forgot to care
Now no tear or word to say That would stop you from going away

aliyah aliyah

Islam is beautiful

We pray when we are scared
When we are worried
When we are in pain
When we are in need
When we are in grieve
When we are lost
And need to be found
When we are lonely
And Allah have been there for us
In all times Allah listened and helped But why don’t we share that good time
That Allah gave
Why we forget to thank Allah
Why we just remember in our bad times
We are a generation that surely needs to think Think of that we do Think of our steps
All the mistakes
Before it’s too late Tooba is easy
If you really mean it
Islam is wonderful

aliyah aliyah

Islam is the light

Am following the light
And Islam is that light
I was in dark and never seen the light
But now I can see it
And it’s too bright
I can even hear it
It’s calling us
Every time I get a step closer
I feel better inside
Nothing is more easer that following the light
So lets all follow the light
Because I have been in dark before
And it doesn’t feel good As am here now
I feel lighter, I feel better
You don’t know how much it changes you Until you see it, feel it and understand it

aliyah aliyah

IT HURTS

It hurts when I think of you
It hurts when you ignore me
It hurts that I can’t have you
It hurts that I still love you
It hurts that am still waiting
It hurt when I see your face
It hurts when u touch my hands
It hurts to see you sad
It hurts to see you cry
It hurts that I can’t do a thing
It hurts that I can’t help you

aliyah aliyah

It’s MCT

It’s MCT

The place I was born
It’s MCT
The place I belong
It’s MCT
The place I lived all my life
It’s MCT
The place I wish to die in
It’s MCT
The place I’ll miss if I leaved
It’s MCT
The place I can’t ever forget
It’s MCT
The land of green
It’s MCT
I can even kiss its sand
It’s MCT
The place I have always been
It’s MCT
The place that makes us shine
It’s MCT
The place I can’t even think to leave
It’s MCT

This poem goes to my city MUSCAT

aliyah aliyah

It’s not easy to let go

Some times it’s not easy to let go It’s not easy to forget
When you love some one Please let them know
Or one day you will talk
And it will be too late
I know it’s not easy to forget about you But I don’t have some thing else to do

just dont

No I cant be that girl you want me
No you can’t change me
Oh really you cant
And don’t say that you know me well
Cause its UN true
If you really do then tell me what’s my fav color Don’t tell me black or white
And don’t think of pink
As I told you
You don’t know me well
You even can’t answer simple Q
Then don’t say you know me well Don’t try to make me your girl Because am not and I won’t Don’t try to make me as you sow me in your dreams
JUST DONT

JUST FRIENDS

You told your mom about me
And I told my friends about you
But we still say that we are just friends

When my phone rings I hope its you Every where I go I hope you will be there
But we still say that we are just friends

When ever we meet my heart beets
When ever we meet we can't stop holding hands
But we still say that we are just friends

I call you my husband
You call me my wife
And we portended as it's just a silly game

late love

Am I in love?
Or am imagining that How come that I am in love with the guy I used to hate yesterday Could this really happened
Or I am just dreaming
How come that I feel jealous
Jealous of that girl that’s he holding her hands Why I care to know if he loves her or not Or either they are friends or more
Why my heart beats when ever I hear his name
I can't be in love with the guy I used to hate yesterday
Why do I care if he still has this thing for me?
It has been long time and am sure he forgot about me
Why my heart is burning me after I rejected him
Why I want to run to him now Yesterday he was just a kid in my eyes
What made him look like the man I dream of now?
Why am falling in love with him
Why after he finally decided to forget all about me Why do I love him and I know it's too late to have him

aliyah aliyah

Leaving to night

I don’t want to be the one who always makes u smile Tired to be the one who stays until late night Making sure that you are okay, you are fine Tired to check on you, as if you a small child
I can't be the strong one between us Tired to see you weak
Tired to make you feel better every time you are dawn
I can't see crying any more Sorry I can't be that person any more
I have no power left
No tear no strength
No hope for a new beginning
With you am old, with you am cold
With you I have no hope in life
Sorry but am leaving you tonight
Find your self other girl to turn her life to hell Sorry baby but am leaving tonight

aliyah aliyah

LIFE

Life doesn’t always comes in pink
It has many other colors
Some times it seems so black
Life doesn’t always treat you right
And it's not always so bright
Because that’s the rule of life

life is short(enjoy it)

I could cry
But wouldn’t notice
Because you are so blind
With your hatenes
Can’t you relax?
And take a moment Realize the things you have Before you loss them too Life is beautiful
So why all that anger
Holding on with the past
You want to revenge
You won’t live forever
So enjoy the time you have You should see thing
From a point of view
If you can’t
Then see them as the way I do
It’s okay to cry
But it’s okay to smile too
So why crying
While you can be smiling

aliyah aliyah

little girl crying every night asking if it was right a little girl getting hurt

nothing seems right people started asking whats wrong with the little girl no one knows whats wrong no one botherd to find out poor little girl she had to suffer by her owen lonlly little girl she didnt know who to trust she thought it was okey little girl have grown up all the memories have coming up but this time she under stands she thinks its too late to ask for help so she decided to cover it up a good friend found out and started to write this poem about the little girl

LONELY

I feel so lonely
With out you
I feel so lonely
As I let all my people go Just to be with you
For you I let every thing go
And I didn’t care
Because I knew I had you by my side
But where are you now?
I feel so lonely now
I lost every thing now
My family, my friends
And I lost YOU
But I can never ask you to be back Because I sow the real you now

aliyah aliyah

Longing for you

I’m longing for you my love
Why you want to walk away
After all we have been through Now you want to give up on us
Love is about the up’s and down’s
So don’t worry about the fights That’s nothing comparing to our love

aliyah aliyah

loving you

Loving you is like looking at my self in the mirror
While am you and you are me Loving you if some thing makes me move on Forget my past and live my present Loving you is inspiring me to do beautiful thing
Just like you inspired me to write this poem
You are some one so special and so real I'll never do any thing to lose you You make me so thankful for having you by my side

aliyah aliyah

Magic writer

Am the writer who going to write about the truth Am the writer who going to write about the things you went throw Am going to take all the pain out of you
And make magic to it and make it go away
Am the magic writer
I was born in the magic city Where every one was smiling and happy
Where every kid had their own magical talent
I had the talent to write about people’s pain
And I could take it away Because am the magic writer

aliyah aliyah

Mama

I know you always trying to make us look good
You don’t want us to have same as your childhood Mama I know u are trying and I’m thankful for all things u did
You will always be in my eyes and I know am in yours Mama you know I love you more than everything
And am sorry for all things I did Mama keep smiling I love the way you smile Mama don’t you ever cry
Nothing in this world worth’s my mama’s tear Mama I know you are working so hard
But you should know that one day will be rewarded Prophet Mohammed said Jana is under mama’s feet
And he is right that why I collect the sand after my mama’s feet Mama you know I always try to make you proud of me Mama you should know that you raised a good kid
So you should always smile and say hey that’s my kid…

MEANT TO BE TO TOGETHER

Am going to be in your side
When the storm goes hard
Am going to be in your side
When things go bad
I won’t let you face all that alone
Because u will find me near your side
Am kind of girl who going to look into your eyes
And say the words you always wanted to hear
I don’t fool around
I never play games
I’ll always love you until the end of your lives
If love was food no one would be hungry
Because I was going to feed them with our love
I don’t need to take a picture of you Because I have it right here in my heart
And I have frame it with red blood
You know you have the most cuties face
And for you I’ll be your cute thing Am ready to sacrifice anything to be in your side
I love the way you smile
And adore your voice in the phone That looks you give it’s killing me
The way you smell brings back to life
I love everything in you
It’s like I was born for me
I know we meant to be together

aliyah aliyah

more than afriend

I had a friend; he was different than my other friends
He was special, and close
He acted different, different than the human beings
He was like an angel that god sent to earth Sent it so I would have abetter life He wasn’t like any body else he had his special thoughts, his special mind, his special acts
He made me feel special
He made me feel like am the world to him
He made feel like am the reason why he lives
He made me feel special
And I liked that I liked that feeling so much
He was so special and unique
He was all I needed
All I dreamed about, and even more
I couldn’t even ask for more
He was so completed
I had theory that no one in this life is completed
But I do now
And its you
Now this friend is gone, one mistake made me see him wrong
Made me forget all the good things he did to me
Made me forget that you were the special friend for me
I always called you a friend but I knew you were more Always called you a friend but we acted as we are more Always called you a friend but in each others eyes we sow more Always called you a friend even thought we wanted to be more
You have been more than a friend and we all knew that Now this special friend is gone And I just can't carry on

aliyah aliyah

moving on

Tears on my pillow
As am missing you
And it hurts so badly
Missing you this way
I just pray for the pain to go away
I promised not to cry
But my tears broke the promise
The say time heals the pain
But the more time passes
The more pain I feel inside
I pray to get the strength
And be strong It’s time for me to move on

aliyah aliyah

aliyah aliyah

my guy

I want a guy who knows how to treat me right Knows what to say and say those words right
A guy who cares about what I feel
If I was dawn he’d raise the world to let me out of tears
A guy who knows how to treat a lady Calls me every morning telling me I was the first thing crossed his mind Cares about the little things that I like A guy who makes me feel as am his world
A guy that I can feel that he loves me just from the way he looks at me Hope that one day ill find my guy

aliyah aliyah

my MR right

He was MR right
He had every thing on his side
He was a cute guy
With two cute brown eyes
He knew what to say
And always said it right
He knew what I like
And made sure I get it fast
He was so fine
And he knew he was He made me feel
As the prettiest girl in the world
The reason for my smile
The shoulder when I cry
He never made me feel bad
Seeing me smile was his goal
With each day my love for him grow
He was an angel sent by god
Am glad that I have u by my side
You are my gift in this life

aliyah aliyah

new hope

A new hope have been born today
A new star have joined us today
A new baby girl came to our world today
You made us smile
And give us a new dream
I wish you a happy wonderful life
A life full of happy moments

aliyah aliyah

No more pain(revenge)

I lived so long in dark
Now I think I can see the light Lived so long in pain
Now it’s time to heal the pain
Many have told me to forget
But I learnt forgetting is not the key
No more tears in late nights Because am not a shamed any more
It wasn’t my fault from the start Am not going to live in your shadow any more Am not going to live in pain any more Am not scared of you any more
No more nightmares
The little girl have grown up now
I’m not scared, I’m not ashamed
So am not going to hide my face any more So tell me who’s scared now?
Is it me or you?
Isn’t weird how karma turns the roles!
When the weak becomes strong
And the strong becomes weak Don’t you like the game more now?
To know how it’s like to be in my place
How it felt and how it hurt
All the pain that you made
All the damage that cannot be repaired
Now it’s all coming back to you Because it’s time for revenge
And am going to make sure You will be hurt

aliyah aliyah

no one dares to be the frist to cry every one is looking at that empty bed but no one dares to be the frist to cry you can see them stoping those tears to fall dawn you can see them faking these smiles it have been years since you left but your mom still puts 7plates in the table with the hope that you are coming back one day she knows her lil daughter is eating dinner up there but still she with the dream of seeing her her agine every one remembers you, every one miss`s you but no one dares to be the frist to cry every night your mom wakes up and cheaks your bed if you are there it just hurt knowing that you arnt coming back but no one dares to be the frist to cry

aliyah aliyah

oh i need you by my side

Oh I can’t get you out of my mind
I cry every night
I miss you and I need you

Oh I keeping thinking of you all the time
I see the picture of you in my heart
I love you and I can’t live without you

Oh you keep running in my mind
Just like a song that I can’t stop repeating it
I hate you for making me love you

Oh you was mine and now you are hers
She keep telling me how great you are I had you and now I lost you

Oh I don’t know what was wrong with me back then I wanted to say yes but I said no
Now you don’t belong to me any more

Oh you was the only man I truly loved You loved me when I needed no love And hated me when I needed you love most

Oh I just need you by my side...

aliyah aliyah

One man can do a lot

One man can change your life
One man can change the world
One man can help the society
One man can do a lot
If you just believed that you could If you tried then maybe you would

aliyah aliyah

One question WHY! !

As I watch my life passing by I have to stop and ask my self
Why! !
I ask my self that question so many times
That sometimes I wonder if would ever know Why! !
People come and people go People die and some reborn Some change to better
Some change to worse
Why! !
Am still in the same place
Don’t want to grow
Don’t want to face the world
Why! !
Too scared to be someone
I rather be no one Too scared to be someone’s friend
Or someone’s girlfriend
I rather be lonely
Than being just me
Why! !

aliyah aliyah

Perfect man

Always waited for the perfect man Never knew he was never alive
In my heart he always had place
In my mind he had the perfect shape
My heart always waited for the perfect man Reality told me to forget about him But my heart told me he is there some where Waiting for his perfect girl
Some how he lost the hope of meeting her
So he decided to be just like any normal guy
Not so perfect
And I lost the hope of meeting the perfect man

aliyah aliyah

pure pain in his eyes

i want to feel your pain that pure pain, the pain you are hiding yes i want to feel it i want to be your other part to be your other half i want to know know what you are hiding behind that sad eyes that looks, that wired smile i really want to know i can feel pure pain in that eyes and i want you to share that with me yes, share it with me if you dont mind

aliyah aliyah

Raining

As it was raining over me
I sow the flash of my life infront of me
I sow it clearly infront of me
All that days, all the nights
All that tears, all that pain
I sow it clearly
As it was raining
My soul have been renewed
And have been washed
I felt the peace
With every dropp
I felt so nice, I felt so clear

aliyah aliyah

SAVE ME

I live in this big world
But still I don’t feel that I belong here
There is no place for me here
No one under stands me
I'm falling but no one can see it
I'm crying but no one can feel it I'm screaming but no one can hear it It’s a big world but no one is here for me
It's me against the world
It’s a full world but it seems so empty to me
I'm falling apart and I need some one to pull me up I'm in a dark room and I need someone to switch on the lights I'm lost and I need to be found…

scared scared of tomorrow and whats going to bring scared of lossing you

She doesn’t know why

She knew he never loved her
But she didn’t really care
She knew he was never meant for her But she didn’t really mind
She knew with him
She will never smile
She knew with him
Her heart will die
But in the end she accepted him
And she doesn’t know why
She never knew why she did And until now she’s trying to figure out

aliyah aliyah

Silent love

I think am n love and am madly n love
I think am going crazy, crazy in love Loving you is some thing else Some thing I can't control on And I can't stop
It's taking my mind, my thoughts and my time
But in the end your love worth all that
And we both know that I can see it your eyes that you love me
And you see it in my eyes too
I have feelings for you, as the way u have for me too
I know am going crazy
But am enjoying it Enjoying loving you in silent
And I know you enjoy it too Cause it different than any love
Our love is for real
Our love is true
That’s why I love you But some times I want to hear it too

aliyah aliyah

since i knew you, , ,

since i knew you
and i know how to hate
and i know how to show my anger you changed my kindness to anger and my smile to sadness you changed the light to dark and da white to black, , ,

aliyah aliyah

SORRY

Sorry
But I died before today, I died long time ago
I died hundred times befour

Sorry
I lived in silence for a long time
And am stilll in pain
I tried 2 get out of all of this

Sorry
I lived an age older than my age Million times older

Sorry
I always took people’s pain and made it as mine
But I always ask my self, until when am I gonna do this

Sorry
Sometimes I run from my self
Like the way someone runs from people who bothers them

Sorry
Everytime I ask my eyes to let me sleep, just for today
But they say (Sorry, we wish we could help you)

Sorry
To my heart and to my soul, because I let you surfer through all of this SO SORRY! !

stop and save me

Opened my eyes
Found my self alone
No one with me
I have been thrown in the road
And no body with me
I don’t remember what my name is Or what’s my story
Am just alone
And no body is feeling me
Am just alone
And no body to hear me
Can u hear me calling you?
Please stop and save me
I need you to know
Know who I am
I need you to know
Know what my story is Please stop
Stop hurting me
Please stop
By that you are killing me

aliyah aliyah

Struggling for us

I hate seeing you fighting
I can’t take it any more
I hate seeing you crying
You are sad all the time
I know you are trying
And you can’t continue Another day for you
Is another struggle
You have no strength left Sometimes you ask yourself Why are you still taking all that While you can simply leave
And have relief
But I know you think of us
Well u can be relieved
We won’t blame you for that

Take me to Ithaca

Take me to Ithaca
It’s the place I want to be Where there is no sorrow
No pain, no rain
Take me to Ithaca
Where it’s going to be Only you and me
Yes you my fairytale
The one I’m sure
I’ll meet one day
Take me to Ithaca
To my fairytale land Where everything is colorful
And beautiful
Take me to Ithaca
Where I’ll kiss the pain good-bye
And live happily ever after with my love

Ithaca is the place where you go to after you been through pain or problems

aliyah aliyah

take me with you (when you die)

The day you die
I want to die with you
The day you leave
I want to leave with you
They day u says good-bye
I want to be there with you
The day you cry
I want to be the one who cries with you
The day when you will be alone
I want to be around you
The day you will be sad
I want to be the one who comforts you
I want to be your first, your last Your beginning, your end
And be your every thing
Your voice is my strength It's where I get my power from Your eyes is what I am living for Your looks it's what worth to die for I love you and I aint going to hide it any more

aliyah aliyah

aliyah aliyah

tear, paper and I in alonely dark night alonely tear rolled out and touched this paper every one was sleeping at that night that lonely tear was my only company for that night it was me, the tear and the paper the three of us wanted to do history to show that world things differnt things, things you never heared or see before it was only the three of us that night only the three of us

aliyah aliyah

Tell me how it's like…

Tell me how it's like to live
And to know you don’t have future
You don’t have tomorrow
Having no dreams, no wish's
Tell me how it's like to live
And not to care about tomorrow Wasting your time like that
Who are you to think you don’t have a future Because every one has one or owns one You don’t have the right to do that You aren't hurting your self but you are hurting us…

tell me you love me

Tell me you love me
Tell me you miss me
Tell me I have been running in your mind
Tell me you love me
You know I love you
You know that you have always been my life
Now it’s hard for me to eat
Hard for me to sleep
Hard for me to breath
Knowing you are far away from me
I hate to admit it but am weak Am weak with out you here Love is stupid
Love is hard
And it’s messing with my heart
Nothing seems nice
Nothing seems beautiful Since the day you were gone

aliyah aliyah

the end of the story

the story have been told the rumors have been heard the truth have been seen the dreams have been broken so i guess this is the end
the end of the story

aliyah aliyah

The rumor about two kids

We were small
We were kids
We lived in a hood
That was rumor about two kids
The rumor said 'aliyah loves Adam
And Adam loves aliyah'
Heard that a lot
In a time I didn’t know what love is? !
He was 7 and I was 6
He used to call me 'minne mouse'
And I used to call him 'Mickey mouse'
That was in a time, that darling and honey never made sense
He used to take me for rides in his bike
And I used to take him in my tree house Played with dolls and made fake tea
Just like the way little girls used to play
But one day every thing changed Don’t know what happened to that rumor
And I don’t know what happened to the two kids Its was a great story and it was a great love

aliyah aliyah

there is apain inside of me

there is apain inside of me apain that is so strong so strong that it leads to hate hate the day i was born

and its growin up so like atree and the water of this tree is tears tears that wont stop

apain that changed me to other person aperson who likes sadness more than any thing else

apain that makes me wish to die wishing for that badlly just like the way alil kid is cryin to his mom, he wants that toy but this time its me cryin to god, i asking for death! !

aliyah aliyah

they think am in love

Every one says am lucky While am not
They say they are happy for me While I don’t know they are happy for what
He thinks am in love
I look at his eyes and I can't tell him am not
He thinks he is the luckiest man on earth
He thinks he is in love with the simplest girl on earth
I want to tell him the truth but I can't
I thought it easy to tell him, but his eye makes me screed Screed to tell him the truth
He thinks am in love
Should I continue lying while am sad
Or should I tell him the truth and break his heart
He is the kindest man on earth
Why can't I just fall in love?
Why should I be so cold?
Cold as ice

aliyah aliyah

Tired

I'm tired to write about my past Tired to write about my pain
Tired to write about how much I got hurt Tired to write about how many nights I cried Tired to write about that little child Tired to write about how many time's I tried to forget Tired to write about you
So I promise you that am going to stop writing about all that above
And I'll live my life like I never did before Happy and thankful

aliyah aliyah

TIRED TELLIGN PEOPLE ABOUT YOU

Tired to write about your smile
Tired to write about how many times you make me want to fly Tired telling people about how great you are Tired of mentioning you in every conversation I have Tired to write about how many times you made laugh Tired of describing you, telling them how cute you are Tired of telling my friends about your voice that makes my heart beat Tired of telling them how you make me blush Tired of trying making them to under stand about how good you are Tired of telling my family about the good heart you have Well am tried because they will never under stand
I think they have to meet you by them selves So they would know how amazing you are…

aliyah aliyah

aliyah aliyah

too late

They tried but it was too late
They cared but it was too late
They cried but it was too late
No one could help the little kid Because every one knew it was too late Her heart was broken
And broken hearts stays broken until the end
She was alone and no one helped Every one knew she was just a little kid
No one knew what’s wrong with the little kid
But everyone knew there is something wrong with the little kid
She tried but no one cared
They tried but it was too late
She cried but no one cared
They cried but it was too late

aliyah aliyah

Too late to say it

I tried to hide it but I couldn’t
I don’t think I can hide it any more People sow it in my eyes since long time
And you are the last one to notice
I think there is no use for me to tell you now
As long as you are with her
Why you want to hear me saying it now
And I know you won’t do a thing after I say it It’s better for me to keep quiet
And leave with all dignity I still have left I can see her smiling when she’s with you Make sure to give her the happy life
The happy life that I wish me and you would have I swear I’ll try to move on
And I won’t bother you any more
No more text msgs or calls late at night
As long as you are happy with her Then that’s enough for me to move on

aliyah aliyah

u have found your one

I heard that you have found your one
The one who going to make you settle down
And make you want to stop playing around
I think she’s kind of a lucky woman
To stop you from fooling around
I heard that you are really happy with her
And you are even thinking to marry her I’m glad that you have found her And she’s there by your side

aliyah aliyah

UnLeasH THe FeeLinGs

I used to be scared of the idea of getting old Am not any more
Because I know am going to get old with you
You are kind of men that make’s me feel That I can accomplish any thing
If you are by side
I can face the whole world
You are kind of men that make’s me wake up every night
And thank god I have you by my side
You are kind of men that make’s a girl blush
And for no reason you make me smile
You are kind of men that would open the car door for me Not because you loved me, but it’s just because that’s the way you are You are kind of men that I would let meet my parents and friends
You make me proud that I am your girl
You are kind of men that I can keep your pic in my wallet
And I have you photo all over my place
You are kind of men that I can imagine my self married to I can’t believe am saying this Because I have always been scared of the idea of getting married You are kind of men that make’s a girl just change

aliyah aliyah

wall of shame

Behind the wall of shame I hide Behind the wall of shame you will find me Hiding my self Covering my face
Don’t want to be seen
Behind the wall of shame
Where no one can see me
No one can hear me
Behind the wall of shame
Where people put the blame
I’ll be behind that wall
If you ever decided to search for me

aliyah aliyah

What is between us?

Never been sure by what's between us
And never had the chance to know
Never been sure by what's between us
Some say its love, I say it's less Some say its friendship, I say its more Never knew what was between us
And I was sure you didn’t know either
We both liked what was between us
We didn’t know what we should do
Be just friends and our hearts asks for more Or be lover and we going never be sure, , ,

aliyah aliyah

What is?

What is life, and what is living?
If we going to live it like this

What is love?
If we don’t even love our selves

What is happiness?
If we don't even know how to smile

What is friendship?
If we don’t know how to keep one

What is childhood?
If it have been stolen from us since along time

What is peace?
If we see hate in every one's eyes

aliyah aliyah

What life gives us in return?

What life gives us in return?
We just suffer all the time
No one under stands us
No one even give us time
We do our best but we get nothing in return Dose life desrive all this Or we are just giving it more than we should
What life gives us in return?
A lot of pain, and tears every night Sorrows and morrows all the time
What life gives us in return? ? ?

aliyah aliyah

what you going to do what if you was like every body else what you going to do when you find out that that special person isnt special at all he is just like every body else not special like the way he act

what you going to do when you find out that and find out that too late

aliyah aliyah

When I'll be a mom

When I'll be women
I want to get married
Have my own house
Have my own kids
Kids that I'll love from the bottom of my heart Kids that I'll teach
I'll teach them how to love, how to care
How to be strong I'll teach them how to be confident
And be some thing in this world
I'll help them to achieve there dreams I'll tell them about the real world
And how they can survive
I'll them teach them how to help others
And to like each other

aliyah aliyah

When love fades

If I still want you
And you still want me too
Then why we acting this way
Fighting is all we know now
And I can’t afford losing you Can’t you how much I need you How much I love you
And how much I care
So why can’t we stop fighting for a while Hold hands and kiss each other as much we can I thought u were the one I really want to know what’s going on If we still love each other Then why you acting this way

aliyah aliyah

when love hurt us

Dose love always has to hurt us in this way
Do we have to feel like fire in our hearts?
Do we have to feel all this pain?
Love is not great, it's not at all Because it's hurting me, hearting me like hell Why I always fall in love with once I can't get Dose it has to hurt me this bad
Why love always have to take our dignity
And leave us with nothing Nothing except feelings
Stupid feelings, which make us can't control any thing
I have many Q that won't have answers
Because love is some thing no one can under stand it People who used to understand it have been gone since long time

aliyah aliyah

Where are you when i need you

Here I am
So sad so blue
Every one is trying To cheer me up
Yes that’s sweet
But where are you
I thought you would care
I thought you would like me to share Share some of my pain with you
But I was wrong

aliyah aliyah

Who am I

Who am I?
What I used to be
Was I born this sad?
Or life turned me this way
Have I ever smiled?
Smiled without faking it
What happened to me?
Can you tell me?
Because I can’t figure it out
The voices inside my head
Are telling me something Things that I don’t understand But I believe these voices
They are my voices
The inner me
That’s trying to guide me Guide me to what I am
The me that I don’t understand But with the hope that I'll one day

aliyah aliyah

Who am I?

As am breaking my rules
As am breaking my promise
I turned to some other person
Please the UN pleasurable
I did what I said I'll never do
Where is my believes right now
I remember when I was strong
I was like stone
Never cared about others opinion
Because I had one by my own
What happened to that strong girl?
Why she isn’t strong any more
She turned to who she used to hate
And it's too late to go back But it's never let for me to be ME

aliyah aliyah

who are you?

Who are you?
Who is this person that I'm writing my poems to?
Who is this person who took my mind?
And my thought
And made every poem I write goes about him
Who are you?
Who do you think you are?
To make go crazy in this way
If you can just tell me who you are Even deep inside of me and I know who you are

aliyah aliyah

why me?

every one is here with me every one is depending on me
why me?
i cant handle it any more i feel like i cant make it any more i wanna cry cry so loud i wanna scream scream with all voise i gat its hard living in silent its hard living in pain

aliyah aliyah

Why you changed?

So much pain I see in your eyes
So much sadness I see on you Your smile has fade away
Everything in you is fading too Tell me what washed your smile away
What have made you change this way?
Is it life what made you change?
Didn’t I teach you to be tough?
Saying no to life
Because it going to keep on hurting you

aliyah aliyah

words am writing to you

This is all of my words, words am writing for you,
I dont know if you are going to recieve them, and I dont even know if you are born to see the words am writing for you,
I dont know if your alive or dead...
I dont even know if you exist!
all I know is that i miss you, its strange how am missing you without meeting you, are you going to be the same as you were in my dreams! ?
or are you going to be diffrent! ? or maybe I met you but I never knew I did But how could I know! ?
Because I have a letter, a letter from my heart, and I have to give it to you it has words, great words.. because its all what I've got, WORDS! !

aliyah aliyah

would you come back

aliyah aliyah

YOU

Sometimes my hand shakes when am with you It’s not like I’m afraid but I think I like you Sometimes I freeze when I’m around you It’s not like am cold but I think I like you
I know I want to be with ypu
And with no one else I’ll be near except you
You make me sing I love you
And when I’m alone I miss you U know I’ll never say I hate you
You know how much I adore you
It’s going to always be about me and you
You know I can’t live without you
If you were down I’ll be there beside you I want you to know I’m here for you

aliyah aliyah

You don’t deserve me(set me free baby)

I know you don’t deserve me
Because you keep on hurting me
I know you aren’t doing it purposely
But you keep on hurting me Causing so much pain
So many tears
Please baby leave me
You know I can’t leave you Set me free from my misery
You know how much I love you
And I keep on forgiving you Why you treating me so bad
Why I keep on coming back I’m a good girl
And I deserve good things
You know that too, I’m sure Why you like seeing me crying
With you I feel like I’m dieing
With each day am struggling
So why don’t you set me free
And leave me
You know I can’t leave you
So you please leave You don’t deserve me

aliyah aliyah

You don’t love me any more

You don’t call me any more
You don’t text me any more
Do I matter to you after all?
Because I don’t think you do any more What happened to the love?
What happened to the days?
I thought it will last
Why did it end so fast?
I thought what we had was real
So tell me what the deal
To you I was just another girl
To me you was the world

You forgot that you had a girl
A girl who always used to take care of you
She couldn’t sleep if you wasn’t fine
A girl who loved you more than the world itself
A girl who never left you alone
But you left her alone
You forgot that you had a girl
A girl who used to look into your eyes
And she knew she will be okay
Now she’s searching for your eyes
She knows one day you will be back Because no one loved you like the way I did But it will be too late

aliyah aliyah

you love her, you dont love me

Every time we fight
You go back to her Telling her how it feels How much its annoying u
Being with me not her Sometimes u look at me
And you just wish if I was her How many times I caught you Talking with her in the phone
I don’t know what makes me stay Maybe the kids or I just don’t know Maybe I’m still with the hope That one day you will love me Just like the way you love her…

this poem isnt real, , just made it out nothing of this have happend

aliyah aliyah

you make me feel good

you make me feel good feel good about my self you make me feel good feel good about my life you are the light of my life and the sun of my day the reason of my smile and the reason why i want to wake up every day you make my heart beat and you make my soul dance when am with you i forget about the world and it problems i heard and read about romeo and julite but i dont think they reached to our love not even close you make me wanna smile today and make want to smile every day you made me abetter person and you made me what i am today

aliyah aliyah

You, me and table for two

You, me and table for two
That was sweet from you
But when are you going to under stand I never was yours
We never meant to be together
We never meant to live that love story
We never meant to be for each other
I know we shouldn’t be together Because you aren't the one who moves my feelings
No you aren't
And you know that You can see that in my eyes
That you aren’t the one in my eyes
You aren’t the one in my heart
Because my heart still empty
No one have reached there yet
And I know you try so hard to be the first who reaches there You had your chance and now its time
Time to say good-bye
Because am tried of lying at you Acting as I have some feelings for you While I don’t
And I know you are tired too Tired of not getting the same love back So good-bye

aliyah aliyah

your human angel

i know you are gone but am sure we going to meet in other life when you going to be my man and am going to be your girl agine

aliyah aliyah

Your love changed me

Look what your love made me do
Writing poems and listening to love songs
I was a person with no feelings at all
I was so cold
Just like a stone
Look what your love made me do
Changed me from inside to outside Your love made me a better person now After you changed me
Where are you
Why did you leave after you changed me?
That’s it I have to stop writing about you
