i write all my poems, iv been writting sense 8th grade only 2 years as of 12-1-10 a stary sky given for love

Me in her laid there in the thick tall grass and watched the sun fall out of the sky and into darkness, and i said to her, i wish the sun does not leave beacue once it does i wont be able to see her beautifal face, sadly the sun hide from my hopes, so as we laid there staring up at the clusters of stars, and in the corner of my eye i cought a glimpse of a shooting star and on that star i wished to see my loves beautifal face again, for every night untill i die, and to always have her in my arms. ill give every star in the univers to have this wish come true, and we drifted asleep giggiling and laughing, when we awoke she looked up at the sky and saw nothing but darkness but in her hands she held the stars and once again i could see her beautifal face, and i got to spend every night of my life seeing the most amazing sweet gril of my dreams, untill i died, but than something happened i wasnt expecting she was there in heavon, with that smile on her face that warmes my heart every time i see it, it felt like a dream full of fluffy white cotton candy, and every kiss we had was like are first, a kiss like that cant even be dreamed of, but maby it was a dream? you decide.

ALIVE (m)

Light shinning in through the deepest darkest cracks, Shutters open,
like my dreams Re-awoken,
Chasing after what cant be caught,
you give me something iv always sought,
Flowers blooming on a warm spring day,
Hearts molding like the Softest clay,
The smell of flowers and newly growing grass,
That feeling you give me that always lasts,
These memories that we will always remember,
December has gone and past,
And now The time is here,
the day is ours,
Time for fun, love, excitement, joy, warmth and caring, but most of all it's time I'll get to spend with you,
Vasting in all feelings but blue,
And now I get on my knee,
Asking you to spend forever with me,
Sliding it around your finger,
the shiniest most beautiful ring,
The time is here,
The time is spring.

All about u

You are cuter even know that's not a word, but there are no words to describe your beauty

Jacob Gifford

beatin with a bat

my heart,
has no pulse,
as beatless as the dead,
and as soft as clay,
but as broken,
as shattered glass,
when will that girl come along who puts my heart back together and makes my lifeless soul breath love once more.

Jacob Gifford

Blood turns to acid when mixed with hate

It’s dark and cold in this room, the feel of cracked busted wood floors against my skin as I’m thrown against it and millions of long splinters pierce my skin and blood ripples out of the little pain ridden holes, and falls into the cracks, but no sound of drops come from the dark never ending oblivion were my dreams are lost to never be found. It feels as if my heart runs cold, my mind runs blank, my stomach turns to fire, and my vomit turns to blood. The walls are closing in around me till the life is squeezed out of my soul. My bones cracking and crunching, my blood draining out of me and burning the darkest most vial red, my heart pounded stabbed crushed and beaten until no pulse is herd, till feelings were nothing but fear and pain, now I’m left in this dark corner alone and crying cause no one has come to save me from this hell!

Jacob Gifford

Brought back to life

You make the sun shine
when the skys are black,
my heart is filling with feelings of wack, I'm sick of all these lies,
worries, and why's,
I'm just going to close my eyes, pulled down by forever imprisoning darkness, only saved by loves soft kiss, pure happiness and bliss.
Your the sweet ember of life,
you spark a flame,
and yes I feel the same.

Jacob Gifford

Choosing love

Don’t decide love by what the person has or what the person looks like, pick love by how that person makes you feel, but don’t push a person out of your life just because of 1 bad thing they do, instead help them with that problem, and turn it into something good.

Jacob Gifford

Don’t let me drowned in your own sea

What’s it feel like to be loved?
What’s it feel like to wake up every day, with the Most beautiful girl in the world laying beside you?
My heart had turned the darkest shade of blue,
It felt like bullets had pierced on threw,
Life was living under a dim light,
And threw my pains, I could only bare the slightest screams,
Ropes were rapping around my body as my internal clock stuck midnight,
And all my dreams,
Were lost in an endless empyreal of hate than remorse.
And I felt my life had finished its course,
But than my angel came from unknown light,
That appeared in the night,
And my heart begin a new flight,
When I see her face,
That smile,
That feeling of sublime,
Those open arms waiting for me,
I wondered, what she sees in me,
When I star into her eyes, I’m lost sailing on the longest sea,
And life stops abruptly at that second,
And I wish with my soul, that she will never leave,
And I believe, that I will never again grieve,
Because my heart yearns to be with hers,
And at that time only one thing occurs,
My life has started anew
And I can only utter three words,
I love you.

Jacob Gifford

Every day is a new day

Every sky’s a brand new sky, uncanny once again,
And every kiss, a brand new kiss, new one, no matter when.
And every love, a brand new love, new cherished every day,
Through lips and heart may slowly age, the awe-struck boy will stay.
And I will vow again and again to love you each day of my life,
As though each morning were the first we rose man and wife.
Just as meadow washed by rain is relit by the dawn,
Just so our love, as we grow old, will each day be reborn.

Jacob Gifford

Follow One's Heart (m)

Let not one’s conniving thoughts, and wondering eyes steer oneself wrong.
Let not the words of others cause your sorrow, and eternal loneliness.

Believe in only your heart and soul, follow them like the North Star, and listen closely to what they have to say, they shall never steer you on a lonely path.

One may believe they have been guided wrong, but their heart is only guiding them on the path set forth before their life, these misrepresentations of love,
are there as blockades on the road to finding one’s true love.
Without these blockades, one would not learn how to overcome hardships, and endure through the fights, forgetting the harsh parapraxis words, and eventually becoming a lover of intense passion and intimacy.

Jacob Gifford

Freedom

I’m a weed on
A cliff, I hang out with An eagle, but maybe the Flowers are the weeds.
I’m free and they Are not, I cling to rocks,
They cling to a pot of dirt.
When there is an earthquake
I will be safe but the flowers
Will not. They are plucked
And put into jars of water
They will die, but I will Live free and long.

Jacob Gifford

Giving Up What Was For What Is (m)

I fell in love with a beautiful girl,
She soon became not only my world,
But she became my life,
Than my wife,
And now my everything.
I would give up anything, for her!
I would give up my soul,
My past and present,
I would even give up me,
Just to have a future with my lover,
Cause I love her!

Jacob Gifford

I be god

If I help thy too much,
Thy will become nondependent,
But if I do nothing at all,
Thy shall loose hope.
but when I do things rights thy wont be sure if I'v done anything at all.

Jacob Gifford

I couldn't ever love anyone else (m)

My skin poured red,
It Felt like swords had stabbed me dead,
Love was a word,
I never herd,
Or said,
I'm sick of being alone in my cold bed,
My views on life had been blurred,
I walked this earth blinded by dread,
Pain and fear was all I knew,
But than I meet you.
Your an angel,
In every way your own,
You makes me feel not alone.
All I do,
Is think of you,
You are my baby boo,
you make my days better when I'm feeling blue,
If I lost you,
I don't know what I would do.
But I know you're my baby,
And you would never hurt me,
And I hope this
Has made you see,
That you're my world,
And I would do anything to be with you.
I want to hold you,
Squeeze you,
Please you
Be with you
Now,
Forever,
And always.
The way you
Look into my eyes,
Tells me there will Never be any lies.
I hope to spend forever,
With the one I love.
Please don't ever,
Let me go,
I don't want to say good bye,
But I promise I'll be back so please don't cry.
If you're reading this laying in your bed,
Imagine lying with me,
Putting your head,
On my chest,
Closing your eyes and drifting into the deepest rest,
Goodnight my sweetie,
Goodnight my baby,
Goodnight my dork,
Goodnight my lover
Goodnight and sweet dreams

Jacob Gifford

I Didn’t Mean Too

If I had a rose for every sorry,
I’d have picked a whole field.

I’m sorry for all I have put you through,
All I can say is thank you,
For the good times you gave me.

I’m sorry for lying,
Now I can’t stop crying,
I feel like I’m dying,
I can’t stop trying,
To get you back.

And hold you in my arms,
Your face against my chest,
I’m so blessed,
To ever know you.

I want to hold you,
Kiss you,
Squeeze you,
Tickle you,
But most of all,
I want to always be with you,
I’m sorry Bre,
I wish you could see,
How much I still like you.

You put my heart back together,
You promised me,
You would be with me forever.

Jacob Gifford

I hope you remember me

My love for you will last forever,
Your skin against mine,
as soft as a feather,
This love can last threw any weather,
Your hands in mine,
Fingers tangled like twin,
Hands running threw hair,
Trying to make u aware,
Of how much I love you,
You and me together all night,
Holding you so very tight,
When I'm with you
Everything seems all right,
Your beauty shines
Like the brightest light,
You made my heart soar like a kite,
And fly like a bird,
My heart so high,
But when you said those Words my heart fell straight outta the sky,
Why did you have to lie,
Why did you have to make me
Sigh, cry, and want to die.
My heart hit the ground,
pieces flew all around.
You smashed it to dust,
And left me to rust.
As I laid there bleeding, watching her get smaller and smaller till no more,
I looked down at my shattered remains, I saw a piece of her heart, and a piece of mine missing,
So we could remember the Times we spent kissing,
I yelled to her hoping she would hear,
As 1 more hot tear,
Rolled down my check
Good bye my angel,
and good bye forever.

Jacob Gifford

I’m here to stay

Despite the doubts and troubles, that you have gone through,
There is no doubt about are love.
Though many now change partners when they want to,
You’ve found your one and chosen not to move.
In doing so, you’ve given me a picture
More beautiful than the most persuasive lecture,
With far more force than any rule or law.
So much you’ve given me!
Yet what you’ve given of love, time, money and concern,
Is less than what I’ve seen as you have striven
To make your life a lesson I might learn.
I’m grateful for things you did and do,
But even more, for what you made of you.

Jacob Gifford

I’m weird, get use to it

When most people speak of death,
They hold there breath,
I’m not the kind of person that has fun,
In the sun,
I like the dark,
It gives me that special spark,
I like the night,
I like to fight,
I like to cut,
My gut,
Some think I’m a nut,
I can’t help it that I like to sleep,
Through the day and stay up all night,
It’s what keeps, me sane,
Some times I make my mom weep,
Because I’m a creep.

I play with knifes,
I wouldn’t doubt if I took some lives,
I know I’m not going to have a wife,
This is my way of life,
And your not going to change me

Jacob Gifford

I'm still here waiting (m)

I'm sorry for the day
I had to leave,
But you got to believe,
It wasn't goodbye,
I promise I didn't lie,
I'm still here waiting with open arms,
Waiting for my baby,
To come back to me.

Her soft lips pressed against my Neck,
Lovers first lock lips,
On the back deck,
Holding her so very tight,
Getting that feeling
When you know everything
Is exactly right,
Willing to sneak out,
To see them at night,
When you know your father Is going to find out,
But you don't care,
Cause your willing to stand up and shout,
To the world,
That you love that special person.

That's the feeling I get when I'm with you,
Nobody makes me happier,
Nobody makes me smile more,
Nobody makes feel the way
I do, when I'm with you.
When I'm feeling blue,
Your there, on my side,
Pushing me till I get threw,
Your making love feel like a sweet sweet ride,
You fill me with butterflies,
On the inside.

As I kiss up your neck,
I whisper in your ear,
You say what was that,
I couldn't hear,
I said I love you,
And I swear it's true,
You say I love you 2,
And I'll always stick to you
Like glue,
Good you push me to do things I didn't think I could ever do,
You make me more than I could ever be,
You make me shine,
You make me, me.

Journey of Love

Journey of love
I released a dove
Into the sky it took my love,
 To the above,
It dropped my love from the moon,
It should have floated like a balloon,
But it fell and fell and fell,
until it wentStraight to well,
you know.

So I sent a lizard,
Across the sand it slithered,
 It made it almost there,
 But a man didn’t care,
 He ate it for breakfast.
I was so feed up,
So I went my self.
The journey was ruff,
The hills went up and down,
Even around.It thundered, haled, and rain,
But that didn’t stop me,
 I still came.But now I’m here,
My dear,
And forever I will be yours
And you will be mine.
The only one I will ever love,
The only one for me,
The one I will never forget,
The beautiful one.

Keeping Me Alive

She picked up my head,
Out of a puddle of dread,
I regret a lot of things that I have said,
Some times I ask why aren't I dead,
But than I think of her,
And bad thoughts are obscured.

Eyes as cold and blue as ice,
Beauty makes me so enticed,
Super human strength,
Ill go to any length,
To keep her in my arms.

I love her smile,
I'd run that extra mile,
To see,
She makes me so happy.

Light glistens off her skin,
My heart made of tin,
But somehow she got in.

And now I don't want her to leave,
She made me care,
And now I'm not scared,
To show my sweet side,
I have only lied,
Once,
When I told her I didn't love her.

Mine Forever (m)

Body and mind, trapped in a cage,
Heart and soul, filled with rage,
Losing control,
Breaking down,
Giving up,
Eyes blinded,
Filled with tears,
Loss of sight,
My heart slashed open,
With an axe,
Broken,
Bleeding through the cracks,
Feelings flying on a kite,
String cut, lost in flight,
But just as I was about to give in,
An angle showed me the light,
A girl named Miranda,
That I dream of at night,
She breathed, breath, back into my body,
Made my heart beat once again,
Warmth filled every vein,
Felt like dancing in the rain,
Her beauty could not compare,
She loves me, and I'm aware,
I love her, and she knows I care,
Her soft sweet voice gives me butterflies,
Between me and her, there are no lies,
Her cute little smile makes my day,
When I look into her beautiful eyes,
I just don't know what to say,
She will always be
My baby,
My sweet heart,
My cuddle buddy,
My cutie pie,
My one,
My only,
My guardian,
My angle,
My Miranda,
Through thick and thin,
Good and bad,
I'll never let go,
I'll never leave,
No matter what,
Forever and ever,
She'll always be mine,
Forever and always,
I love you Miranda.

Murder

He who kills a soul, l is as if he killed the whole world.

He who kills, is a victim of his own self

Jacob Gifford

My girl

I fell in love with a girl she came from only heaven knows
But my Lord above I must've needed her together we built a small humble home
And now I want to hold her tight, every night, that's all I want to do is to satisfy her for the rest of my life,
It's just the kind of thing I thought
I'd never ever end up and do,
But somehow my outlook's changed since I found myself with you,
How I love her
How I need her whenever she walks on by oh by,
Oh Lord above I tell myself must be an angel in disguise,
But now I must say my goodbyes,
To the one I love, My girl.

Jacob Gifford

my true love

If you didn’t love me
I don’t know what I would Do I probably would jump
Out of the sky,
Or poke out my eye,
I would even try to fly
I hope I don’t die.

You might be misunderstood,
Thos people should, not judge
You like you’re from the hood,

I see you threw a lens,
I know we can be more then friends

Jacob Gifford

Natural Disasters

When the earth quacks,
 and the forest shakes,
 the animals run and cower
But when it’s all over the earth is covered in dead trees and leaves,
We can’t help it, its nature wild and crazy.
Ware ever we go it will be something.
But pollution is killing it destroying it,
 and so soon it will be gone,
And people will feel like they did something wrong,
But there is a solution to the pollution,
 It is a challenge that we will all have to take so be awake and be ready

Jacob Gifford

One Candle Lighting My Whole World

You’re the wings of my angel,
You’re the breath I do not have,
Cause you took it from me,
You’re the light to my dark empty hall,
You’re the tears I could not ball,
You brought me to my feet,
When I could only crawl.

You laid your head against my chest,
You and me laid there at a rest,
I couldn’t be any less than blest.

I want to hold you in my arms,
Running my hands up and down your body,
Feeling your warm breath against my skin,
The feeling of love that somehow got in,
That warm fuzzy feeling through my veins,
No more worries, no more pains,

Goodbye my baby, “will I ever see you again”,
Maybe,
Tomorrow will be another
Day,
But I promise, my feeling for you will never go Away.

Jacob Gifford

Pure war

We have had many wars before
So you can't ignore this war,
Because this one will truly be hard core,
You can say goodbye when death
Comes from the sky, why oh why,
Luckily we have our allies,

So pick up your guns and cease,
The peace, this is the place,
Where the human race, will clash,
So embrace, for a long and hard
Race, we can't be a disgrace, sprout your wings and fly

If you truly have a spirit, for Fighting you should be able to hear it,
So you better thrive, for life to stay alive,
So let's take the spear of war and throw it
Around the world to create fear, and chaos.
Iran, will have a plan, to dropp a bomb on Japan,

There is no salvation, for those nations, that Can't hold there foundations, there will be starvation in this situation,
And it will be their termination, of their civilization,
We will tear down there station, of operation,
And our motivation, will be a strong formation,
Of nations, earth has never seen such a dark era
And it won't ever again. Us humans just bleach the Earth red. Once we open the gate of war their will Be no closing it, it will be too late to save are fate.

For we will die along with our planet because of Those who adore war, and had to create nuclear Bombs that will destroy everything, those people Believe that they can achieve world domination
By destroying even the innocent. Their will be no Survivors. Because these people lives don't Matter they will hand over as many as it takes
They only care about winning the war,

So say your prayer because their going to Declare, war, it won't be rare if you see someone Die, in front of your eyes, I won't laugh if you Cry my lad because you wont live a day over 5.
I assume doom will come soon.

Reborn Light (m)

Lightning, thunder, flash, flicker, boom bang,
Darkness flooding every vein,
Hearts broken in the rain,
Lovers part, souls bare vial pain
Destroyed art, giving up once again,
Why when things are great does Everything have to fall apart?
Didn't think I'd give life another spin,
But a women all her own promised something better,
A Savior, an angle, a guardian,
She saved me from the worst sin,
The day I meet her, I made it be that a new life begin,
I will never let go,
I will never give in,
I will never give up,
I will never stop loving her,
I know she feels the same for sure,
Because I asked her,
And she told me "I will always love you, no matter what,
Through thick and thin, good and bad, sick and health,
Poor and wealth",
When she said that something deep inside me,
In my heart and soul,
Told me she was the one,
The only thing I could utter was,
"I trust you"
She then smiled at me and said
"Thank you"
I realized trust is the greatest gift you can give anyone,
We than drifted asleep,
Her warm body against mine,
Legs and arms coiled so tight there was no escape,
As I looked at the clock I noticed it read 11: 11 and I wished she would never let go.

Jacob Gifford

she is everything i want and more

As sweet as sugar,
But as tough as nails,
I'm always the first one too cry,
Close my eyes and sigh,
IV only seen her cry,
Once when she realized,
She opened her heart for me,
And now she loves me,
And I love her,
She grasped my lips,
With her soft embrace,
And like an angel,
Mad my pains erase,
She is the one,
who makes me smile,
Makes me laugh,
Makes me love life,
She is my world,
And no one can take her from me,
Grab my hand hold it,
Garb my wings and make me fly,
Grab my heart and make it yours,
Forever yours, as long as u don't brake it,
Into the smallest pieces of sand,
Small enough to slip out of your grip,
But I know u wont,
You'll put it back together and make it work again,
Grab my soul keep it by your side,
Yours and mine entangled,
Twisting and twirling around each other,
Dancing the dance of love,
Forever and ever, the girl who
Is as sweet as sugar,
And as tough as nails,
Is mine.

Jacob Gifford

Spring, Summer, Fall, Winter (m)

Soft fluffy Snow fresh on frozen ground,

Green grass, and newly blue blooming buds bulging from all around,

Days becoming longer, heat growing stronger,
Birds and animals making their beautiful sound.

Trees becoming bald and brittle,
Swaying in the wind like evil puppets,
Scaring the children dressed in creepy, crazy, wild, and exotic costumes.
The feeling of death creeping over everyone, everywhere.
Barking in the distant,
Could only be a blood thirsty hound.

Lying on a frozen landscape,
Looking up at the falling white oblivion,
Millions marching in all working together to drowned the green army,
Giving up and going dormant realizing there is no escape,
Plants and animals, wrapped, chained, and bound.

Every Year, season, month, week, day, hour, minute, second, leading into the next, all the way till that last tick of the clock, when my pulse goes numb and faith is lost in an endless internal dark void.
Stop! Go back!

Every year, season, month, week, day, hour, minute, second, I will get to spend with the most beautiful girl in the world, Miranda! Beauty unimaginable and sweeter than a panda, every second, minute, hour, day, season, year, decade, century, spent happily with her till the day my pulse goes numb and I drift off into a bright, white, light for eternity with my sweet lover in my arms!
That's my life season by season, spent in happiness, bliss, and virtue forever and ever! Forever and always! And I wouldn't have it any other way.

Jacob Gifford

Sunny On The Other Side (M)

Let not a rainy day,
cast a shadow upon your garden,

Let not your worries be over your head,
Let not others downfall be your upbringing,
Let not anger define your character,
Let not greed entangle like vines,
Let not life loose it's meaning,
Let not love be lost to lust,
Let not your passion fade away.

Let not your book have few pages,
Let your book become a novel,
And in that novel, control the outcome.

Keep your gate open to the seeds of life,
And inside those gates, dreams will bare the sweetest fruit.

Let only the sun,
 cast a shadow upon your garden.

Let rainy days inflict the greatest growth.

Let your garden shape your life,
Let your garden become a jungle.

Jacob Gifford

Thank You For waiting

As you read this you will smile,
As I sit here and wonder for a while,
Wondering why u want to be with me,
Wondering do I really make you happy?
But than you see me staring, smiling, stuttering, lost for words,
You smile back,
And my stomach fills with butterflies and birds.

Our lives are completely different and crazy,
I sit around being fat and lazy,
And you got your three little devils and your house of horrors.

But it doesn’t matter,
Cause ill do anything to be with you,
Ill do anything to hold you every night for the rest of our lives,
Anything to make you happy,
Anything to make you giggle,
Anything to keep you as my love,
You’re my angel, you’re my dove.

I can tell you what you mean to me, and how special you are,
I can write my love for you in a poem,
I can stare into your sweet eyes and tell you that I won’t ever let go,
But you got to feel it, you got to know,

The feelings I have for you,
Can’t just be said,
If I lost you,
Id probably dropp dead,
I give you my heart,
Please don’t tare it to a shred,
You truly are a work of art,

I hope my words have made you see,
That I love you, but I have one last question.

Will you go out with me?

Jacob Gifford

The best moments of my life

Every time my lips are around yours,
I kiss u like there is no tomorrow,
Even know,
When I'm with u,
Time stands still.

Jacob Gifford

The Greatest inspiration

This is for the ones who mean the most,
who are the greatest inspiration, who are the hardest to let go.
They will sit by your side, and listen to every word you say,
without judging,
without criticism,
and without turning their back on you.
They will teach you the greatest life lessons, what's good and bad,
and what it's like to loose someone you dearly love.
In my life I have learned many truths, and in my eyes,
the greatest way to prosper, especially in the hardest of times,
is to love them,
cherish them,
live in their wisdom,
and hold them close to your heart.

In memory of best friend Rico, who I will always LOVE.

Jacob Gifford

The Pain Is Worth It! (m)

If ones heart has never felt hurt
Than ones heart can never feel love.
Ones heart has to be shattered before ones heart can be put back together.
That person will pick up the pieces and make ones heart whole.
That person will show passion, love, and an eternity of happiness.
Those times when we feel we can't be more broken,
We have to pick our selves up knowing the one Is still there waiting.
They will make all the pain, suffering, and anguish worth it,
They will prove too you that you will never have to feel that pain again,
And that this is forever!

Jacob Gifford

Unyielding Passion (M)

Your eyes so gorgeous and green,
Your lips so soft and sweet,
Your hair so curly and beautiful,
Your belly so warm and soft,
Your affection so sweet and caring,
Your arms so tight and loving,
Our love so perfect and everlasting!

My baby, I stare so deep into your gorgeous green eyes and I promise on my life!
That I will spend forever with you!
I will never let go!
I will never hurt you!
I will hold you in my arms every chance I get!
I will always truly love you with all my heart! And not an ounce less!
I will be your guardian, your protector, your everything!
If I could only have one thing in this world, I would most definitely choose you!

Jacob Gifford

Walk This Earth With Your Hands In Mine (M)

Don't ever let go,
Don't ever give in!
Hold me close,
Hold me tight,
Hold me every day,
Hold me ever night,
Tickle me,
Squeeze me,
Cuddle with me,
Love me forever,
Love me always,
Take my hand in marriage, and life,
Take my hand in barring our children,
Take my hand in Good and bad times,
Take my hand in sickness, health, and death,
Take my hand in Heaven,
Take my hand for all eternity!
You will always be my goddess,
You will always be the hottest,
You will always be my sweet heart,
You will always be my baby!
I sware by the moon and the sun!
earth and the sky!
Heaven and hell!
That I will always love you!
I will never let go!
I will never give in!
I will hold you when you cry!
I will hold you through the good and bad!
I will hold you in sickness, health, and death,
I will take your hand in marrige and life,
I will take your hand while baring our children,
I will take your hand in heaven,
I will take your hand for all eternity!
Take my hand Through the journey of love!
And I'll be right by your side holding your hand through it all!
I promise!

WAR

What is the point of fighting?
There is no winner

What is the point of fighting?
People just die

Why do we fight?
Even through the night

Boom, boom, boom,
Bombs mines and missiles

There is shrapnel,
Earth and blood
Flying everywhere,

All the wars we have Ever had combined
Will not have as Much mass destruction

As these one, WWIII

We can’t ignore this war,
We have to close that door,
Before, it’s too late,
We probably only have about 4 or 8, more years.

Jacob Gifford

We have to stop the war

The world is sore,
From having so many wars,
You can’t just stuff it in a drawer,
 It is going to wash up on are shore,
 And when it does it will be so hardcore,
 You won’t be able to ignore, It anymore,
 It’s like were looking for,
An open door,
 That we will have to prepare for,
Once more,
It will hurt like a cold sore,
 I can’t take it any more,
What is the answer to this war?
 Is it lying on the ocean floor?
We need a man who can make a plan that even a monkey can understand,
Hopefully this plan will come soon because if it doesn’t there will be consequences

Jacob Gifford

We have to stop the war (pt.2)

The Introduction, to reproduction,
Of destruction, is inevitable.

Even if we fight to stay out of war we Will be dragged in by our hair,
I swear, you won’t have a prayer,
Some might think it is unfair,
But the enemy doesn’t care,
This is a very strong affair,
So let’s stop playing solitaire,
And prepare, so were not unaware,
That we are in trouble,
So be aware, that we might have to declare,
War on another country, I smell gun-powder
In the Air.

Jacob Gifford

what I want from love

I want kisses,
I want love,
I want fun,
I want a big house,
I want a fast car,
I want Fame,
I want Fortune,

But I got love, and it was good enough for me.

Jacob Gifford

what is love to you?

Love is you and me
Love is forever
Love is beautiful
Love is commitment
Love is a battlefield
Love is in the air
Love takes patience
Love is fun
Love is like a boat, you and me have to keep it floating

Jacob Gifford

what is school like?

School is like a prison
We can’t leave,

School is like an island
We are all trapped,

School is like a pie
It is good at first until you reach the crust,

School is like a toilet
It is full of germs,

School is like a salad
You have to put something on it to make it better,

School is like a stupid cat
It never dies,

School is like a garbage truck
It smells, it’s big and you can here it from a mile away,

School is like a baby
It always needs your attention,

School is like a shark
It just keeps chasing,

School is like going to jail
You never want to go back,

Jacob Gifford

what is the point of life

What is the point of life if it is just disappointments?
What is the point of life if we are just going to die?
What is the point of life if we just get divorced?
What is the point of life if we just get in trouble?

What is the point of life if we are just sad?
What is the point of life if we just fight?
What is the point of life if we feel pain?
What is the point of life if we just hurt each other?
I know what the point of life is!
the feelings i have for the one i truly love.

You'll Never Know How Much I Love You (m)

My love for you will infinitely grow,
I promise I love you with all my body, heart, and soul.

When I feel your skin, at first touch,
I get this feeling, like I mean so much.

I love the way you smile,
I love that special feeling you give me,
That always lingers for a while,
No one but me will ever see,
How sweet my baby can be.

I love the way we cuddle at night,
Don’t worry baby, don’t feel fright,
Put your head on my chest, and I’ll hold you tight.

I love the way we kiss,
Lips so soft, fills me with bliss.

I’ve loved you with all my heart,
Right from the very start.

I hope you take my words for true,
I promise, I’ll always love you.
