Ravi Sathasivam()

I am Ravi Sathasivam, living in Colombo, Sri Lanka all my life. I have been married to my beloved wife Tara for 25 years and blessed with two sons Sanjay and Suresh. My wife and my sons are my life and I love them so much.

I am an auditor in a industrial catering company. My poetry writing began few years before, although it had in my mind for a long time. So far I have written nearly 325 poems and it gives me so much enjoyment. I believe poetry is part of our soul and best way to share emotions. My poems are very simple and deep in thoughts. I am observant of every aspect of life surroundings - happiness, faith, sorrow, pain, disappointment etc...and create them on paper.

I hope my poems are warming your heart.

A Beautiful Day With My Love.....

When the sun rise in the morning then you shine like a brighten lady When the moon set in the evening then you look like a beautiful lady When I go to bed in the night then you twinkle like stars
When the cool breeze touches me then I take care of your love When you are under my arms then I tell you how much I love you When I say my night prayers then I thank God for giving you to me When I close my eyes to sleep then you rest your head on my chest and listen to my heart beat says you are mine.

The President of Sri Lanka Mahinda Rajapaksha is as fearless lion of Lanka A complete courage and determined mind has made him a great leader of our land
The most valuable thing in our life is to earn experience where he has mastered this on his own
He took a great deal of courage to stand up fight for terrorism and brought our land at peace
The value of human life in our country has been resorted again by him with highest sincere and respect
The world words will no longer make him feel discouraged or scared, he does the

His courage is not only measured in victories also to over come the struggles that at times in our country.

So, many leaders has come and go, their is no one like him who loves our nation

Not only a great believer of Buddhist philosophy also a great follower of Lord

A Garden Of Flowers.....

A garden of flowers are grown for the Eden of love
There are so many lovely flowers are grown in this garden Only each flower will attract us with its own beauty
All the flowers are swarming, gracefully and clamor on the earth
Each flower could open our heart to feel the love of nature Flowers in the morning mist with crystal dew drops make us to see the light of the God shine from heaven When the rain falls from the sky, Mother Nature makes them grow widely
When I walked in the garden, I smell the sweet aroma from their petals When the darkness covers the garden with shade of night then the moonlight shine on all those flower's petals with dew drops When all those flowers are in your hands, you will feel the world for the moment And love for the flowers in all her splendor grand, my heart at rests more.

A Great Couple Whom I Ever Loved.....

In all the world, there's no one like my father and mother - in-laws They known to this world as a great couple Although, they were no more with us today but their memories will cherish in our heart forever Their lovingness and kindness can not be matched Their absence shows us how important they were They did their best for us and to others
They taught us the value of love
They taught us the value of life
They taught us the value of family Not only they taught good things to us but also set so many good examples to us My heart knows how much I miss them today My little children looks at the sky and thinking they will come back soon, not knowing the nature's call But their blessing will live with us forever
I thank God for giving me a great in laws
And let me pray for their soul to rest in peace

A Great Soldier Yet To Be Seen.....

The day when I met you
Your attitude impressed me in my mind and heart You are known to everyone as a great yesterday soldier for our country.
You were distinguished soldier, an officer, a man among men.
You are the most valuable gift for our country
Your contribution to the World War II is unforgettable.
Your Knowledge on military is a precious gift for our young soldiers.
You loved our country and you did the best for her.
Today, you are away from us, living by yourself Your marched forward legs are stands still today.
You be the best what ever you are and where ever you are.
But the love you have shown on us will cherish in our heart forever.
As bible says LOVE is patient and kind and let that faith surround you.
You are a great soldier for the all time and yet to be seen

A Jungle Can Not Be A Jungle Without Them.....

God created this beautiful universe for us He created beautiful animals and birds for us to love them while we live A jungle is never be a jungle without them Their roaring and singing voices are the rhythm of the jungle
The sun and the rain always blessed them They live with nature and they get what ever they wish from her They are more beautiful when we see them living with the nature.
The nature brought them and allow the nature to take them back other than kill them by hunting Let us thank God for giving these beautiful innocent animals and birds for us and let us take care of them from the hunters who kill them.

A Peace Of Mind...

When I wake up from my bed in the morning
My saturate eyes open slowly and welcomes the morning sun
Then I feel warm and comfortable at peace of mind
The morning smell of the earth reminds me my childhood
The wetness of flora brings me cool breeze.
I was born in this universe with peaceful nature around me Then, I always felt that I was a star on my own brightness.
Learned, the love and kindness brings me a peace of mind Learned, the prayers for God brings me a peace of mind Learned, the help for helpless brings me a peace of mind Learned, the life of peace brings me a peace of mind
When my saturate eyes close slowly and welcomes the silent night Then I fall sleep comfortably at peace of mind while praying God to have another peaceful day.

A Poem For You...

I write a poem for you today, to get a place in your heart for ever A poem that could tell you my love for you I write my poem with emotion and affection for you to understand my deep thoughts for you A poem to love and a poem to understand its soul
A poem to enjoy and a poem to understand its happiness
A poem to think and a poem to understand its way of life
A poem to learn and a poem to understand its content
A poem to sing and a poem to understand its melody
A poem to cry and a poem to understand its sorrow
There are poems I have written but this is specially for you
The poem could tell you how important you are for me
There are words comes out freely from my mind to write poem

A Prisoner's Tears...

My tears stream down from my soul
When I become like a bird in the cage Now, this steel cage is my place to live Entombed within four walls of the prison this is the man made hell for criminals Now, I regret what I have done with my life Yes, I did wrong and my God punished me Life in prison can not be explained Everything to do with sinister punishment and retribution.
No one should not come here.
So stay out there without commit any type of crime Now, I am far from my home town and no one here or there to listen my story either When I think about my family, my heart is breaking into two I made my wife and children to suffer in their life Who will feed my family and take care of them
I should have thought of all before I came here So, has my peers and a judge and myself everyday sitting here wasting my life away.

A Soldier's Cry On Christmas Day....

A soldier's cry on Christmas day....

I Live far away from my home in the military barracks Where I have given one bed room cabin to live myself.
I live there alone myself in my cabin and my loneliness is kills me most of the times I know the Christmas is also around the corner and It's keeps my heart beat with thoughts and tears.
Since, I have locked up myself in the barracks due to my work
I miss my home known as sweet home with love and loved ones
I miss our family get together with dine and dances.
I miss to watch our dearest kids make fun and run around the house
I miss carols and candles aglow in the night I miss to see hearth fire blazing and well lit Christmas tree
I miss to see stockings are hanged on the mantle Always, the true meaning of Christmas shining in my mother's eyes
And its counts the value of love thrown in to our family What a wonderful time to be with my parents and my siblings to celebrate Christmas night.
But I miss all those beautiful memories begin here alone in my barracks
But, we are the soldiers who take care of our nation round the clock And tell Santa to" Carry on Santa, it's a Christmas night, all secure now and our kids are awaiting for you" Merry Christmas

A year has been passed since I left home Again my life become lonely in the military barracks
My life without you, left me with only tears
I know that you never want to see me in tears
But it's been so hard to be here without you When I am away from you, there is part of me dying and I don't know where to hide my tears Although, the distance has kept us away but your memories keep on speaks to me Always, It tells me that our love is to be loved No one makes me feel the way you do No one loves me so much the way you love me When I am stay at the door of your heart then I feel your inside flames that's burns my soul Oh my love, let God speed my love and bring me again into your arms soon.

All I Want, Is To Love You Forever....

How can I explain about my love to you when I have no barrier to feel your love How can I write about my love to you when I have no words for your love You taught me how to love you with my heart and how to purify your love with my soul My love for you is simple and deep with affections and every day flowing towards you with happiness Loving you is something that comes easy from my heart and the reasons to love you more for your kindness Your love keeps me strong and brighten my soul everyday and I cannot be myself without you being close to me You always hold me when I am down with tears and clutch me when I am down with pain Now, All I want is to love you forever and is to grow old with you.

Ravi Sathasivam

Always, I Pray For You.....

When I wake up in the morning Then I look at the heaven and pray God ' bless me and bless everyone I love'
As you are my close friend I always think of you and say prayers that Lord would bless you and keep you free from care I pray everytime for you because I am yet to see a friend like you I pray for your happiness that could hold in your heart for ever I feel so warm and happy inside my heart when I pray for you I wished it all of you because no one deserves it more I am sure, God listens to my prayers for you and keep you in his safe hands.

Always, My Feelings Are There For You...

When I dream about you then you are there with me
When I woke up from sleep then you disappear
When I gazing at you in dream, my life fading from my veins
I wish you understand my feelings of inspirations My loving words will make you understand what you really mean to me I have stolen your heart and soul even with out your knowledge Please do not ask me why I love you so much because I have a reason to trust you and love you My feelings are growing stronger on you with every moment
My heart glows, when I think of you I don't know if you will ever feel the same about me When I wake up in the morning you are my first thought and you are the last thought in my nights You are my soul's light which makes my life bright You are beautiful in so many ways when I feel for you You being a part of my life is so special to me And that's what I always expect from you because always my feelings are there for you Always, Praise God.....

When the morning sun rays sparkling through the mountains
When God's blessings starts showering from the heaven
When His divine light brings us brightness Then praising God for all his wonderful creations in this world God is always great and He protects us in every way we need.
When we sing His glories, find peace guards our heart
When we read His precepts, find our soul is purified
When we follow His footsteps, find our life sails with happiness
When we hear His words, find our wisdom full of knowledge
When we pray Him, find we are at His mercy When we have His blessings, find our life is protected from all evils We cannot see God with our eyes but He listens to our prayers and blesses us So, let us pray His glories to live a better and spirited life in this world

Your love can not be forgotten either your heartfelt and tender embrace My love on you is a genuine express and loving memories can not be erased Today, I miss your gentle touch with care and my heart awaken your sweet smile Your loving words always ringing through my ears and kept my heart telling me the beauty of love My soul is traveling through your life and brings

An Old Man's Crumbles.....

I am an old man and no matter I say or do.
But still I am living with my stubbornness heart

I have complications with health history and hospitals always welcome me

Sometime, my heart beats so hard and my veins are twisting me mad
But still I manage to do my work on my own

My walking stick is great support for me
If not, I would not able to stand on the road

Sleep brings me nightmares with forecast scenarios but when I wake up in the morning I feel nothing but freezing body and feet

My memory is failing and my soul is falling My head is turning and my life is shortening

How do I spent my youthful life all these days?
Well, nothing much to tell about it because I am not married either.

I really love to recollect my good old days but my memory of tears kept them away

Youth become major and old become gold. So they say But sometimes I wonder where do I find my way around

Before I go to bed, I keep my ears in the drawer, my teeth in a glass of water and my both eyes on the side table

When my sleep overtakes me, I don't hear anything, my teeth don't feel cold and I don't see anything either

I get up each morning and reset my bones from my sleepy body Later I pick up the news paper to read world news and sad news these days

If my name is missing in the obituary column, thanks God I am not dead
So I continue to do my work as usual till the day ends.

As Long As I Am Alive.....

Always, your soul reside in my heart
Our love is not like gloomy, bright like sunshine
We share our wonderful feelings without hesitation
I immerse you completely into me when you give me yourself
You purified my soul and brought out my emotions
I never knew that your love will bring out my real life There's so much love unfolding from my heart and its need your love to free from my loneliness Sometimes its aches because we are far apart Sometimes tears slips down my face because your part of my bed is vacant and kept me sad A kiss on my lips could wet my heart with heaviness I will always love you even when the rain wash me out or the sun burns me out or the winds takes me away As long as I am alive, my love for you will not die

Ravi Sathasivam

At This Moment.....

At this moment means a lot for me

The moment when I saw your face

My heart felt silent and your words felt great to me

I felt that love rules the world and not only that moment

You showed me what real love could do to keep me happy and you fulfilled by dreams with everything that I have today

From this moment I felt you are mine and I can promise anything to make you happy with my love

When you wrap me in your arms, never felt alone and you made me to understand the value of love

Like the moon dance between the clouds and the sky

I dance between your heart and soul with my emotions

When the nights became like a romantic world to me then I felt my moment with you like my dream come true

From that moment your image is deepen in my heart and want to clutch you in place where you feel enlightened

Like an ocean wave your kisses wet my lips every time while my foot prints leave mark in the sand with shyness

From this moment there is no one else I could see other than our two hearts together and love that sets free

These are the moment I want to be with you for ever

Because Of Christmas Day.....

When the December comes When the white snow cover our lands
My heart is filled with joy because this is the month for Christmas
When the carols are being sung
When the Christmas trees are brighten the house
When the stockings are overflowing under the tree When everyone's face is glowing to open the gifts
My heart is filled with joy
When the cities are decorated with lights
When the snow flakes are softly falling on my head When my family dance and walk around streets
When our friends visit our home for dinner
My heart is filled with joy
This blessed Christmas joy within our hearts and celebrate throughout the world to observe the birth of Christ

Because, Music Is My Eternal Life.....

When there is a song about love then the music does become a soul of my heart When I hug the melody of music then I feel the spirit of words, traveling with me When the voice of music passes in the air then my ears are listening to its harmony When I close my eyes and feel the rhythm of its music then I dream an angel of its music goes around me Melody is my love and the eternal music is my life
The music has its own story that plays with amazing emotions and I can hear its beautiful song with touching rhythms Let it be symphony, classic, jazz or hard rock but everyone loves music which has only one language in this universe that has known as Sound of Music.
Anyone who has no interest themselves in music is nothing but dead bodies on the ground.
Because music is my eternal life.

Because, Tomorrow Never Be Mine.....

My Lord, I know tomorrow is not my day and yesterday had gone as dream but today I am here and let me have your blessings.

My Lord, I know tomorrow is not promise to anyone and yesterday promises had gone with faith but today I am here and let me have your divine light shine upon me

My Lord, I know tomorrow will not come as I think and yesterday had gone as I thought But today I am here and let me have your shelter to protect me tomorrow

My Lord, I know tomorrow your percepts can not be heard and yesterday it was heard with divine words But today I am here and let me have your lesson to guide me tomorrow

Ravi Sathasivam

Because, You Are My Life.....

The stars are bright in the sky
The moon sails through the sky
The cold breeze freezes my body and the nights are hurting me without your love My tears are not stopping without seeing you and my lips are getting dried without your kisses My loneliness is playing in side my heart and your love is holding strong place in my soul I dream about you day and night with hope and can not be explained how I feel your love Your memories only break through my head
I miss your love that comes from your heart
I miss your soul that gives me a life of love My life could change when I meet you My loneliness could vanish when I kiss you My happiness could grow more when I touch you I am not a great poet to tell you how I feel about you But I just want to tell you what you mean to me Because, you are my life with heart and soul

Ravi Sathasivam

Because, You Love Me So Much...

My life without you is meaningless
I need you every night beside me Your affection could bring me endless love Your kindness makes my life worthwhile Your gorgeous face makes my eyes open wider Your cheeks drive me impatient Your lips make my tongue wet and longing Your every tender touch makes my soul free from pain Your beautiful body makes my heart open widely Your hugs and kisses make my life complete You're the light that brightens up my day
No one can take your place in my heart
And no one can loves me the way you do Yes, I made right choice by giving my heart to you Most of all I love you because you love me so much

Ravi Sathasivam

Before I Love, I Lost My Love.....

I remember that day when we came to know each other
We had a good chat and shared with all our views That day and night, I could not sleep and kept on watching all those stars in the sky and thinking of you The moments we shared were so special and unforgettable
You were so shy and young to say or do anything about it I felt that I was in love with you I want to tell you that how much I love you I want to tell you what I feel for you I want to tell you that when I think of you my heart twist inside
But at that time I thought it was to soon to tell you Since I was working in another city, I could not meet you My days have past with your loving thoughts I was counting my days to get back to you and tell you what was stored in my mind for only you I felt my warm of love with you would melt the winter snows Suddenly I received a message from your friend that you had an accident and died in the hospital I was so shocked and a tear runs down my cheek
My dream with you was shattered and everything I believed is not here, you have gone to heaven
I know deep in my soul that I will not see you until it's my time Before I start my love with you, I have lost my love
Now I sit all alone in my room as memories unfold May be you might hear my cry and beating of my heart in pain forever I miss you my love where ever you are always

Call me, when you are alone
You know your voice will make my day
You know how much I wait to hear your voice
You know how much I feel for you
You know you can shun my loneliness
You know I listen to you through my tears
You know my tears brings joy to me
You know my heart has grown big You know your heart is pressed with me
You know I have so many wishes in my heart
You know I am sitting here and thinking how to start
You know I want to send my hugs to you You know I love you forever in so many ways call me again and again when you are lone

Ding Dong Church Bell.....

Ding dong church bell.....

When the sun rises in the morning then the church bells begin to toll in the tower These church bells are the voice of God
They make people to assemble to sing the Divine praises

Ding dong bell, Ding dong bell
Its a divine sound of a church bell in the village Calling people to come for prayers and telling people to have faith in God
Ding dong bell and the sound carries all the way

These church bells sound remind us the love of God and make us to believe that we belong to Him Bring our God above to have mercy in our soul and let the spirit to make strong in our heart

Its a sound of a church bell in the village Calling people to come for prayers
and telling people to have faith in God
Ding dong bell and the sound carries all the way

Distance Love.....

Is it easy for me to love you when you are far away from me My heart is calling you always but the distance keeps us away Although, we never met each other But I found your love crystal clear We have built our love with our hearts And we are there always for each other If I have wings, I will fly to you across the ocean and lands to be with you If I could be with you, my pain would fly away
If you hug me, my depression get away
You have captured my heart and soul
And I have nothing to give you other than love It doesn't matter how far away you live but I need you beside me now, other than you make me live as a lonely man.

Do Not Drink Alcohol And Drive.....

A beautiful day brighten by a blue clouds
The smile of the sun lighten by its rays Happily walking on the pavement of the road Watching different vehicles that over crowd the roads My eyes are catching a little boy try to cross the road and knocked by a vehicle and thrown down to the street Rushing to him and holding him in my hands
He was crying for his mother with stricken fear
My heart was broken in to pieces with sad and sorrow Waited for ambulance that took long way to come Looking at the sky and asking God to save this innocent child Then I saw his mouth tremble followed by blood oozing
He died in my arms without seeing his loving mother
I could not hold my emotion any more, my tears rolled down
The driver of the vehicle was in drunken state and watching Will he allow his own son to die like this way on the road Will he remember this day and think everyone as his sons Is there any difference between criminals and him?

Don'T Cry For Me.....

The time has come for me to say good bye to you I want to stay with you for ever but I can not do so because a distant voice called me to come My painful life is going to be end with relief because there is not much left for me now I know my love, your heart will not accept my last journey but where ever I am, my heart will be with you with grace
If you want to see me then just look up the heaven
I will be looking at you always with my soul in tears.
I know its going to be hard for you but your life must go on I have lived my life with no regrets because you have given me everything that you had I will remember you, for through your heart that my soul live on The sickness that I had not only made me tired but also gave you sleepless nights and painful dreams You have tried your best to serve me and bring me back but my fate won against your wish and love But now you don't cry for me, live your life happily till you reach me. I will be waiting for you my love.

Dreaming Of You.....

When the night comes along with cool breezes then I close my eyes and dream of you I found your love through my dreams and want to live together in a life that is so prime I can imagine us together in the garden of love Holding your hands and feeling your lips while opening your heart widely with my key of soul Your love carries me to the heaven above where my soul has been wrapped in to it My heart is burning inside me to make love with you in many ways you want We are apart now but very soon we will be together Till then let me dream of you with my heart and soul Let all our dreams come true tomorrow for us to hold each other so tight without loneliness Let us to take the courage to show how much we miss each other and love each other Let me cherish with you all the wonders of my life and surely I can wait for you to be mine forever

Earthquake.....

How can our mother earth can be so cruel?
Why she is shaking, quaking, crashing our earth and destroying our belongings and our loved ones Is our mother earth become violent because of human against nature or human made sinful world?
What harm our little children did to you mother earth?
Why you made their life crushing with the debris?
Do you see mother earth our people rolling on the ground and beating their chest and shouting and crying for their lost ones?
Is this the way you want to kill us when we love you so much?
Today the oceans become cruel and they create Tsunami Today the winds become horror and they create Hurricane Today the rain become pitiless and they create flood and earth slips Today mother earth also become violent and you create earthquake and our beautiful cities and towns are turned into nothing but cemetery Let the heaven send us peace and strength to help those suffering Let us pray today for those who died and got injured
Let us pray God to make this world the peace of heavenly blessings Elephant Is A Majestic Animal.....

They walk like a majestic, behave like gentle animals Elephants are known as the biggest mammal on earth Let it be cultural or any other ceremonies they continue to play their common role in them.
Raise their trunk for trumpet Wag their tail and ears to chase flies and squirt water These gentle giants that tread the earth.
Always like to wallow in the mud and love to immerse themselves in the water for long hours They show great affection for one another and take care of their young ones very dearly Not only they are sensitive animals by nature but also have a great memory Although, they are useful to human in many ways but also they are killed for their priceless tusks.
They are great animals in the jungle and parade like a majestic.

Evergreen School Days.....

Our evergreen school days will not come back again From the nursery to high school we learnt the best and the best that taught by our teachers Our school life was full of cheers and lived with full of mischievous but the discipline was maintained well We sang and danced without thinking of our future.
We spent money without earned them When the school start after the vacation we meet our friends happily and welcomed new friends dearly We played all the games and we won many games with out care of sun or rain Many years have been gone today we live different parts of the world but the memories of our school days will live in our hearts as ever green days.

Everything, I Want From You.....

Many nights, many dreams brings me nothing but scream Feels so lonely and dull without you Want to laugh, want to smile and want to walk many miles with you Want to kiss your lips, want to hug you and want to display my devotion on you Want to steal your heart and Want to play with your love Want to promise my soul never to be part Want to tell you how much I love you and how much you are mean to me.
Yes, everything I want from you

Gamble A Curse To Human Life.....

You work hard for your survival
You earn hard money to live
And life becomes hard when you gamble.
Those casino centers are decorated with beautiful structures and artifacts while eye catching ladies are walking around to steal your game Your mind and head are washed out when you are there and you return home with your empty wallet Those casinos are making profit by gaining your hard earn money Gamble is the same as alcohol, eventually it will destroy your family life Don't make your family life go stray and lifeless
You have God given duty and goal for your life Make his wisdom come to your soul
If it is done then there is a great future for you.
Stop gambling and save your hard earn money

Global Warming Is A Warning.....

Mother earth is faltering due to global warming

Today man -made chemicals causing ozone depletion

Thousands of species becoming extinct due clearing of rain forest

Poisonous gases and spillage emitted daily from factories and Mills

Receding of Coral reefs due to global warming threat to marine life

The mess created by our own hands, threatening the very existence of human race

Man has woken up is it too late, and still no answers.

Man's threat to nature has dire consequences by Mother nature

With the earths volcanic eruptions, earthquakes and earth slips Mother nature is angered

With the interference from Man with Mother nature, can the world survive?

Global warming and chemicals has taken its toll on Mother Nature, and scarcity of Water.

Can the world be saved against this wanton destruction by Man?

Humanity should band together and curb violence against mother nature

Allow mother nature to recuperate and heal by growing more trees

Respect God's gift of nature without causing further damages

Educate people to save the world from utter destruction

Advise people to use alternate source of energy to bring change to the environment

Energy efficiency could also be obtained by educating people to create awareness

Fossil fuel from gasses should be done away with due to carbon emissions

Let Mother nature take care of waste products by re-using it to grow.

Let all the people of the world band together to heal mother nature for the future generation

God Is Existing.....

What an awesome love for us from God He has created this beautiful universe for us and given a beautiful nature around us to live with it.
He has created all plants, mountains, sea, water, the rain, the snow, thunder, lightening and all creatures for us God has created us specifically to have a relationship with him God has given us everything without our deserving it.
We can not see the air but we breath to live
We can not see the wind but we see the trees are dancing
We can not see God but He lives with everyone's heart
He is an art of Omnipresent, Omnipotent, and Omniscient He is the light of the heaven and the earth and He illuminate our souls with divine light to show us the power of love Through Him this world came into being and nothing came except through Him Let everyone live life as God intended for us to achieve our potential as spiritual beings and hold to the truth with ourselves as to the only truth that God is existing.

Ravi Sathasivam

God Is Great..... and he has shown us the meaning of the love God has created a man and a woman and he has taught us the value of family God has given us beautiful children and he has given us the guidance to teach them God has given us the beautiful nature to live and he has given us the beautiful animals and birds to care them God has given us the faith to live strong and he has shown the way to help others God has given this beautiful universe to us Let us thank God for all his creations and promise him that we live the way he want

God's Gift - Nature.....

When the beautiful morning comes The rays of rising sun kiss her When the garden of nature open its heart
The garden of flowers hugs her to welcome
When the trees dance to tune of wind
The birds singing to the nature's choir
When the gentleness of nature is filled pleasure
Then the earth get wet with weather
When the nature forgets its vastness
Then the God shows her how big her place on earth Let us thank God for his creation and given us eyes to see lovely gift - Nature

Ravi Sathasivam

God's Gift.....

God has created this universe for us
A beautiful gift of universe that we behold now He is the creator of all things that grow in this world
He has given us life with nature that provide us with water and food.
He spread sunshine in the blue sky and planted trees and green grass across the land Either God did not make our universe ugly or dirt nor our human life to be bland
He has given us much more than we expected Today his gift was a seed and tomorrow that would produce a great harvest
He made our life peaceful through his gospel teaching When troubles and sorrows come our way then he opens his heart to protect us in every way He is there for us to flood our soul with happiness and give us more strength to our heart to pray hard God will make our life complete with love and harmony but we have to do is receive them with faith on him.

God's Love Is The Most Valuable Gift.....

God loves you and me with an everlasting love
He has drawn us with His loving kindness God wants us to love our enemies and do good to all and nothing to expect anything in return Because He will reward us with His love and mercy God's love is the most valuable gift to obtain from Him His love is very different from human love.
It is unconditional love without feelings or emotions His love is beautiful with divine power and peace God's love is a vision of our life and power of nature God is love and His wisdom and faith lives in our soul God's grace is freely given to us and let His love come in God truly is the comforter and we have to pray Him God loved our universe and gave His begotten son Jesus Christ and told us who ever believeth His son should not perish, but having everlasting life.
Because of love for us, God's son Jesus Christ gave His life on a cross at Calvary.

Ravi Sathasivam

God's Love.....

Oh my God, you are so great Let all your creations on the earth give you praise Let your spiritual power fills our earth with love
We always worship you with our inner spirit and truth
And give us your strength to hold on you forever Life without your love bring nothing but agony and pain Those who have faith on you will live a righteous life and you will be rewarding them with a garden of love Oh my God, we have no fear when we have your blessings Your love radiates our life with harmony and joy Let your greatest gift of knowledge fill our hearts and soul and save us from all the sins that's created by Satan Let your divine spirit purify our mind, body and soul and bring us lasting peace and happiness in our life Let your power make freedom reign within our land and let it bring relief those who suffer from painful life Let us pray together the Lord's prayers and walk through the world as a peace of mind

Gone With The Wind.....

When I walk along on the ocean shore my old memories swirling in my mind Recollect my days when I was with you We held our hands and walked together while your head rest on my shoulder While cool sea breeze touches on us While the splashing waves wash our feet While the rushing water roll over the rocks While the fishermen with sail boat fishing in the sea
While the ships and trawlers sail in the deep sea While the sea gulls wheeled and shrieked in the sky
While the hawks hover on the wind While the sun slowly disappear in the sky On those days everything made me beautiful because you were near to me But today I see everything remains same as it is except your love and soul that's gone with the wind.
Your sudden death brought me shock and tears Today, you made me alone and I miss you so much Let me pray for your soul to rest in peace.

Good Morning My Love.....

When the morning sun rays wake up me from my sleep
When the fresh crisp air blow through the windows
When those birds on the tree chirps and welcome a new day When those flowers on the trees have turned their face high
When the church bells call for prayers in the morning Then I wake up and think of my last night dream with you and rush to my telephone to say you 'Good Morning My Love' My days never ever start without talking to you in the morning nor my life never sail smoothly through out the day Your sweet words being to light up my day my love and your morning kisses will make my heart sunshine ever Having you in my life will bring me the mountain of happiness and the love you shower on me is like a silver brightness I can not explain the love I have for you and my days are not enough to love you either My love is as strong as it is true from morning to night Let me tell you again 'Good Morning My Love ' and thank you for you being attached to me love

When the moon sails in the sky smoothly
When the twinkling stars shine in the sky
Let my love sleep tight and peacefully

When I talk to you in my dreams
When I feel your loving words that echo my ears When memories of the day run through my mind
Let my love sleep tight and peacefully

When the angels surround you in the night When the prayers showered on you for blessings
When my love express you how much I miss you Let my love sleep tight and peacefully

Birthdays comes and goes in every year but few remains with us as golden memories Its a special day to celebrate with loved ones Although, the years carry our age away but every aged year brings happiness into our heart Life is full of ups and down, weary or teary but life goes always with smile instead of frown The candles have been blown off to say good bye to old year and then the cakes is cut to say welcome to new age The birthday song sung to forget the world and the birthday wishes keep pouring to live more When the birthday gifts are overflowing on the table and impatient face is glowing to open them.

Hello, My Little Angel

Hello, Is that my little baby on the phone Say angel now, hello to your father I know you are so tiny and cannot talk I hear your cry noise flushing my ears
Now, I am far away from you my angel I'm missing you everything day in and out Sending my kisses through phone to you I lost my chance of the presence at home to hug you When your tiny fingers and toes are swing in the air
There is no other greater thrill for me than to watch you Often, I see your picture and feel like I should run back to you
You are so cute little my angel and I love you so much Your mama will take care of you while I'm gone off to work she make sure you will breath, keep you warm and safe I know, remembering how gorgeous you are how proud we're to have you as a blessed child in our family

Hidden Love.....

When first I met you,
I found my love was true.
We grew up with such faith and care,
With me wanting you always by my side.
You made me believe in love,
But circumstances took us part and we walked our different ways.
Today, you are married and blessed with children and live a happy life like myself.
Frequently, I recollect my days, when I was with you,
You made me so happy,
You shared everything with me,
You comforted me with your love,
You took such care of me
And you treasured our love
Yes, I was deeply in love with you.
Until now, no one knows what was stored in my heart.
Yes, I still love you and that love is hidden in my heart.

Ravi Sathasivam

Home, Sweet Home.....

There is no place like home in this world Home sweet home where I always live so happily A light from the sky seems to bless us there and God's love is spread all over there How happy when you sit with loved ones and to see their faces full of love smile How nice to sit near our parents and great parents and listen to their old stories that bring us lessons too Our garden full of greenery and the flowers are bloomed to give us pleasure All those birds on the trees singing gaily to give us a peace of mind Our pets run freely in and out of the house and keep us busy to watch their naughtiness When I look at the mountains in their great splendor that blows with cool breeze that give us healthy life Our neighbors are dear and so helpful without fear An exile from home, bring nothing but sadness Because home is sweet home.

How Do I Know That You Love Me.....

How do I know that you love me
How do I know that you need me
When I want to see you then you vanish
When I want to talk to you then you remain silent Tell me, what should I do for you to earn your love

Chorus:

Its a time for me to hold your hands
Its a time for me to express my love
Its a time for me to love you with passion
So, tell me my love what should I do....

How do I know your love is larger than the ocean
How do I know your feelings are so stronger than iron When I want to tell you about my feelings then you feel shy
When I want to know our marriage then you think so much Tell me, what should I do for you to please your love

Chorus:

Its a time for me to hold your hands
Its a time for me to tell my love
Its a time for me to love you with passion
So, tell me my love what should I do....

I

Just because I am not with you now, our love is not dead
You may think I kept you away without any reason forever Neither my soul has not lost nor my heart has died
I am sure you will know that without you, I am not alive
How I will forget your love that is showered on me all these days You gave me an umbrella when the sun was burning on me
You gave me a shelter when the rain was pouring You gave me your love when the moon sailing in the sky
You gave me your heart when I was helpless and sad You gave your lips when I was in my tears and sorrow
I loved you yesterday with my great heart I love you today with my great expectation and tomorrow I will love you with full of hope You are the one that completes me with love Remember, I am born for your love only.

How do I tell you about my feelings with you Oh my darling I am longing for your feelings
There are feelings in my mind can not tell you I feel sad that we live so far away from each other All I can do is write all my feelings onto pieces of paper and I can tell you how much you do means to me When I think of you my feelings twist inside me and turning into tight and tangled with your love Oh my love nothing is sweet than your feelings and want to feel your breath on my neck again.
Let my eyes feel your love through your eyes
I did not choose my love, love choose me Because your love is shown in me with faith I feel your love has no boundaries with me and allows me to carry you to the silent land There I want to hold my feelings with you till the end.

You are the moon that brings romantic evening
You are the heart that beat like a clock
You are my strength that makes me to climb Everest Where ever you go, I want to be with you What ever you do, I want to admire you When ever you need, I want to fill with you How ever you say, I want to be alive with your love
So, I just called you to say that I love you so much.

I Know Your Pain...

I know your pain in your heart
Why do you want to hide from me?
Your life is something I care for it When your heart is full of pain
Then my tears roll down my cheeks Because I love you so much I have to keep on writing to you then I will not loose you I have to dream about you everyday because I know reality will kill me with tears Nothing is rich in this world when I have you
The journey of life must be lead without fear Sometime it ends as alone and nothing to worry
But when you are lonely then think of me I will bury your sorrows and make you happy.

I Love Mother India.....

From top of the mountain Himalayas down to the Indian ocean, mother India is known as heavenly blessed country in the world.
She is always looks a most beautiful country on earth while nature hugs her.
Her mountains are covered with beautiful flora while beautiful fauna walk freely in the jungle Her valleys are flowing with water from heaven and roll down to the ocean which is picturesque blue.
Her citizens are friendly, kind and hospitable and never fail to show their love and faith to foreign visitors Years have been passed but her cultural and traditional values are still alive as was during golden days.
Eminent professionals are building her to the top of the world while her hands are stretched to accommodate any refugees Her love and affections reflects in Taj Mahal Her Scientist makes her proud by technological inventions
She is a great mother on this earth who loves and cares for her people in return her people showing their faith and love to mother India

I Love My Country Sri Lanka.....

On top of the mountain, God sits on Adam's peak Throwing his heavenly blessings to our nation Blessed our country known to the world as the Garden of Eden.
When our mountains are covered with beautiful flora
When the fauna walk freely in our jungles When our valleys are flowing with water from heaven
When our ocean is picturesque blue
When the nature hugs our nation Blessed our country known to the world as the paradise on earth
When our people show their love and faith
When our people are gentle and kind Blessed our country known to the world for her hospitalities.
Surrounded by all of these blessings God wants us to love one another and live happily together surrounded by faith and trust.
Let us obey his words and build our country as a beautiful Sri Lanka

I Love My Pen.....

I love my pen.....

My pen is my best friend Cause, he is the only one that knows about me well I am holding on to him from my childhood
He plays with me by words and art works
My pen is my library where my knowledge has grown He always listen to me and draw beauty lines on paper
He is always there for me through thick and thin
He feel sad he cannot speak to me
But his words are mesmerizing me.
Sometimes he is wired and makes me crazy too
Most of the time my thoughts are occupied with my work
He helps me out with his importance and creative.
Sometimes he plays like greatest of soft instrument
At the same time, when he disturbed he becomes like mightiest weapon Anyone who wants to attack me, I use my pen as shield as a worrier.
My pen is a great person to live with.
I love my pen.

I Love You So Much.....

My heart can only picture you other than anyone Its a hidden place where I have stored you with love
I can see your smile
I can hear your voice
I can feel your touch
I can learn your love
From all those thoughts, you appear beautifully Our love is so strong and hard to be apart Although, you are far away from me and I cannot hold you in my arms but I hold you inside my heart There is much more to tell you but my pen holds me tight with sorrow because you are not near to me I write with tears and say you ' I love You So much'

Ravi Sathasivam

I Loved The Way You Loved Me.....

It was a mid night and I woke you from your sleep
I held you tight in my arms while you murmur.
I soaked my love with your lips and opened your heart for my love to get into your soul.
I felt in my mind whether or not I should be allowed but your heat made me to understand that you are ready You cared me with your love which I never felt before You were like a princess stood with your passionate love
I was set free to have your love however I wanted
When I heard your beautiful words, my heart kept beat hard I let go all my love on you that I had stored for you My secret of love had written in your heart with my pen
I loved you the way you loved me with much understanding No matter what wonders my love have seen you But these memories will never leave me.

I Miss You My Love.....

Silent night, walking all alone on the beach while bright moon light falls on me and thinking of my beloved wife.

We may be miles apart from each other but our love and affection bring us close to each other.

I know it is not easy to love someone from a distance but my thoughts brings us together

Her love blended with sincerity and I find it hard to define.

Dreaming my love is wonderful and it makes me so happy.

I feel she is close to me always and walks beside me.

I can hear that she calls me and doesn't give up on me.

Forgives my mistake and always invite me in to her hearts.

Loves me for who I am. She quits my fears and raises my spirits.

Always say nice things about me, Understand me, values me.

Her soul with love strengthens me and my heart reminds me how much I love her and how much I miss her.

I Miss You On Net.....

When I log on my computer
I always look for your mail Because your mail makes my day No one else has never touched my heart the way you have done My inner feelings stirs in my heart when I read your mail Ever since I met you on net
I felt you are a great friend of mine My emotion touched me hard when I spoke to you on net Today, I don't find you on net
I don't know what has happen to you Although, you don't speak to me on net but you are in my thought constantly My heart is grieved when you left me
All that I want you to know how much

I Want To Fall In Love With You.....

I want to fall in love with you Please don't ask me why I do this to you Because your heart melts my heart and drives into my soul.
I think this is the time for me to make love with you I am yet to know about you well my love but I am sure your love will make my heart warm and happy How my heart beats will tell me about you when you are not in my arms.
How can I explain you my love onto you when you far away from me So, come to me with your open mind and let me take you in my arms
Let me explain you how much my love I have stored for you in my heart Please believe in our love and believe in me
I will promise you that you will be my princess in my house forever.
Now, I can not be without you because now you are the one that completes my life and my love onto you is so much mean for me Now, my soul belongs to you and will forever be yours Oh my God please speed my love and unlock my treasure love buried deep in my heart for her.

I Want To Hug You.....

When I am alone thinking about you,
I want to hug you forever.
Whenever my lips utter your name,
I want to hug you forever.
When my eyes begin to see you, and my ears hear your voice,
I want to hug you forever.
When my heart calls you And in my imagination, I am holding you,
I want to hug you forever.
When I have that special moment with you My love begins to flourish and when my body touches yours,
I want to hug you forever.

If I Don'T Hear From You.....

How do I live without being hearing from you What will I do if you don't come to me I feel my heart has lost its soul without being with you Is my love lost its way without being reaching you

My life will become a prison if I don't hear from you and my love become a waste if I don't touch you I will never love another like I do love you now and I promise to never lose faith in you

If I don't hear from you then I feel my love is lost
If I don't hear from you then my heart feels sad
If I don't hear from you then my life is not worthwhile
If I don't hear from you then I feel my eyes close for good

Oh my love, open your heart and take me in and bring my love into your soul that can hear from you forever

If I Were.....

If I were the sun, I would brighten up your day make your dream come true like a sun shine and you will live with happiness for ever

If I were the moon, I would sail along with you Bring you the garland made of stars and you will feel your love never be sad

If I were the wind, I would blow you a kiss Bring you romantic love in your heart and you will free to hold me tight without shyness

If I were the rain, I would wash your sorrow Bring you happiness that shower like waterfalls and you will see your tears vanish for ever

If I were the cold, I would touch you gently Bring you loving breeze to hold me closely and you will see my love for you is greatly

If You Are Not Close To Me.....

Can I start my day without you my love Your absence in my house dries me out I have become my own shadow in my house and its makes me to draw in a ocean of sadness Day after days and night after nights my thirst of love brings me nothing but tears I silently think you from a distance and I feel your love throws at me with helpless If the ocean were not in love then the waves will have no strength If the sun were not in love then the lights will have no brightness If the moon were not in love then the nights will have no romance If the wind were not in love then the music will have no voice So, my love if you were not close to me my life will be in dreary.

Is It All Over My Love?

Is it all over for good my love
Why do you want to leave me Did I hurt your heart with my hard words or my love is not enough for you

Chorus.....

Tell me my love,
what have I got to do to make you stay with me Tell me my sweet heart,
what will I do without your love
So many stars are shining far away in the sky
but you are the only one star that shine in my heart

Is it all over for good my love
Why your heart does not trust me Did I hurt your feelings with my broken promises or my love become poison for you

Chorus.....

Tell me my love,
What have I got to do to make you stay with me
Tell me my sweet heart,
what will I do without your love
So many stars are shining far away in the sky
but you are the only one star that shine in my heart

Streets have been decorated with colourful lights Trees are covered with snows flashing dusting People are dashing with carols singing about With holiday cheer, filling everyone hearts with joyful night

It's a Christmas night for you and me
It's a Holy night for everyone to worship thee Jesus Christ was born on this day to save us Blessed night with peace showers everywhere

The stockings were hung by the chimney with gifts Santa with smiling face dancing near a fire place Music is playing, happiness is filling and everyone wishing each other To remember that the greatest gift of all is Jesus Christ was born on this day

Its Impossible To Love Another.....

Those were love days when we were together
Our love was set so free to love each other Those were the happiest days in our time
Our life was worthy and full of enjoyment Our love thirst was unlimited and filled with joy
You and me were dancing with the wind and shinning like stars in the sky Your heart was playing with my soul and shared the secret of love Being in love with you was such a great feeling You loved me so and I loved you too Today, you are no more in this world Death had stolen you and left me alone
My tears can not stopped for you Each moment that I spent with you was a special to me forever Can I love another, even I try hard Will another love fill my soul like yours Cause I know, its impossible to love another

Jesus Christ, I Thank You For Loving Me.....

Jesus Christ, I thank you for loving me.

I have come to church to say thank you Jesus for loving me and caring me.

Yesterday, I was living with my life without listening to your valuable precepts.

I have not visit to the churches to keep my soul purify.

As a result I have earned lots of sins which took me to the hell and my life was miserable

Today, you brought me into your light of heaven where I can see your endless love and kindness

Yesterday, even when I was bad, you loved me without hatred because of your peace of mind

When your hands were stretched towards me, I walked away without holding your hands and kissing them

Your unlimited forgiveness bring my tears like a rain and I thank you for all you have done to me.

My Jesus, if not you I would have been an incomplete soul which would have end my life in the hell of suffering

Although, I don't deserve your blessings that you bestow upon me but you only can show me the way to live happily.

Jesus Christ, I thank you for loving me and caring me.

Jesus, without you I am nothing in this world nor without your love, I will have no strength in my soul

Jesus, knowledge can not be wasted in your kingdom of wisdom nor your guidance can not be stopped within limits Jesus, you have died on the cross to save my soul and want to wash away my sins to make me perfect.
Jesus, my savior thank you for being there at all times

When the full moon spark its brightness on earth
When the silent ocean waves throw its sand onto the shore
When all those seagulls hover in the sky
When the lovely night brings you close to me

When the sound of music is passes us in the air
When the cool breeze dances in the mountain's valleys
When the mid night flowers throw their fragrances

Let Mother Nature To Take Care Us.....

God has heavenly created our universe with beautiful flora He has grown so many trees with variety of gardens in it These trees are looking at God everyday and never fail to worship him in the morning These trees are some way or the other very useful to human beings These trees are balancing our nature by breathing carbondioxide and giving us oxygen to live healthy life.
When the nature is dancing with trees
The rain pour from the heaven and fills our mountain valleys to give nation water It's takes years to grow a tree but it's takes only a day to cut down If we want our mother nature to take care of us then let us grow more trees without cutting them down.

Ravi Sathasivam

Let My Country Awake.....

When the mind is set without fear
When the word speaks without lie
When the heart is free from dirt
When the knowledge earns without waste
When the hatredness dies without curse
When the love lives without trouble
When the freedom showers without crush
When the nature hugs without anger
When the heaven throws its blessing without limit
When the silent march forward to the freedom
Let my country awake.

Let the morning bring freshness for me
Let the sun bring brightness for me
Let the gentle breeze bring softness for me Let the nature brings beauty for me
But let my heart always reminds me of you

Let my day pass without problems
Let my work complete without errors Let my thoughts scattered without pain Let my wishes come true without barrier
But let my heart always reminds me of you

Let the sun disappear slowly in the sky Let the moon appear slowly in the sky
Let the stars start twinkling in the sky Let the night birds hover in the sky
But let my heart always reminds me of you

Let My Heart Hold You Forever.....

I hide you deep in my heart to love you more My love can tell you, how I filled with dreams of you When I dance with you, your love lifts me higher to the sky Your hugs and kisses made me feel our love is so true
When I met you first, I did not guess what I am When I am in your arms, I did know what you are Love can be loved in so many ways as its lighting the heart But your love is melting my heart to mix your love in my soul Day or night, it doesn't matter for me now
All I need to show my love and be there for eternity
I am your wealth in your soul and your love is my beauty in my heart Your kisses are enough to take away my tears
You are my life, heart and soul that's forgets never forever Until then, let my heart hold you forever till my end.

When all those stars in the sky will lose its shining When the moon in the sky will lose the brightness
When the sun in the sky will lose his power of light
But still let my soul praise you my Lord in everyway

When the gardens of Eden has lost its beauty
When the mountains has lost its valley of rivers
When the ocean has lost its picturesque blue But still let my soul praise you my Lord ever more

When all those sorrows has throw out into the bin
But still let my soul praise you my Lord forever

Let The Time To Tell Us.....

I realized now that only time can tell us when we will meet and be together soon I will wait for you patiently till our time come You are a special person for me with true heart and I am sure that I will reach you at right time I will always see you in dreams and hug you with joy but I have to wait for my time to make it reality No matter the distance keep us apart now but the time will bring you to me soon with feelings At the moment your memories brings me happiness but my loneliness kills me without you being here Waiting for the time anxiously to be in your arms Waiting for the time earnestly to be in your soul Waiting for the time honestly to share your love Let the time to tell us when we will be together

Let You And Me Live Together Forever....

Take me away with you my love
Let us go far away where the world is silent Hold my heart close to your heart with love Let us feel the beauty of love in our soul
When those stars make romantic nights Let our hearts melt down with our deep emotions
When those nights bring moonlight on our body Let us cover and roll with our 'love blanket'
When those trees dance with evening breeze Let us dance with our world of dreams
When those ocean waves rolling high with sound Let our heat waves touch our body with our feelings
When our arms around each others and makes us comfort Let us give ourselves to each others for the endless love Till those gates of the heaven open for us Let you and me live in this world together forever

Life Without God's Love.....

Our God knows what's best for us
He gives us the wisdom to search truth
He gives us knowledge to learn heights of Heaven He often tests our faith with him and also he gives us reward when he is pleased He gives us strength and courage to live happily He does not hurts needlessly but his every pain is followed by rich gain He will make our life hard today but tomorrow God will bring sunshine to us His love can not be matched with anything His divine love makes our soul to feel peace of mind
He is there to help us when ever we are in troubled When our relationship with God is great then he acts like a lighthouse to guide us to his path Life without God's love will lead into hell.

Little Innocent Orphan Angels.....

No parents to love them
No brothers and sisters to hug them No relatives to take care them
No toys to play for them
Living on their own in the darkness of the world These are little innocent orphan angels have no one to hear their plea Their silent tears stream down their faces Their heart is melt to cold Believe winged angels are the guardian for them and they are sentenced to eternity Happened to be born and waiting for someone to love them Happened to be born and waiting for someone to care them Happened to be born and waiting for their bright future Everyone speak so quick about them but slow to act Let us save these children from the darkness of the world and give them hope and bring them to bright future.

Lord Jesus Christ, is the King of Kings.
He was born in to this universe many years ago.
He came to this world to free us from all the sins
Many years have been passed since His death
But still His knowledge and wisdom are more alive His blessings will protect us every time we pray Him
If you are in trouble then He is there to help you If you are sad then He is there to wipe your tears
If you are sick then He is there to care of you If you are miserable then He is there to make you happy
If you are not safe then He is there to give you shelter
So, remember Lord Jesus is always there to take care of us He loves everyone in this world and he only wants us to follow the words from our father in the heaven

Lord Jesus Christ Is There For Us.....

Lord Jesus is truly the great Son of God
He was born into this world to protect us
He is our Lord, Saviour and King of Kings Our belief in Him brings peace to our mind
When we have a faith, we will learn His wisdom
When we have trust, our soul will be full of glory
When we believe in Him, we are truly blessed When we pray to Him, we are at His mercy
When we seek shelter under His wings, we are safe
When we are in trouble, He will be there to help us Always remember, life without purpose is barren indeed There cannot be a harvest unless you plant a seed.

He will protect us each time we go to Him Let us therefore pray to the truly Son of God who died for everyone of us.

Lord, Forgive Me For My Sins....

I am sorry my Lord, forgive me for my sins
I did not come to you as early as I thought My love of material world kept me away from you But now I realized the value of your goodness Please bless and accept me in your shelter

I did not listen to your precepts that presented to me
My evil soul kept me away from you

Lord, When You Sit On My Throne....

When I was sitting on my own throne
I felt that I was a worthy and proud man I did not realize the power of God and I did many sins Even, I did not invite my Lord in to my heart Neither visited churches nor listened to HIS precepts Cause, the Satan was ruling in my heart
I was amazed with material world other than spiritual world
My life was struggling with pain and endless worries Now I realized the value of God and HIS love Since I offered Lord my throne, I became free from all the evils from pain, worries, lust, greed, anger, egoism etc.
HIS shelter gave me heaven and HIS precepts purified my heart
When I lift my head and stretch both my arms to the sky and being to pray my Lord, my tears begin to fill my eyes because I heard my Lord say, 'your sins are forgiven and I remember no more but I still love you as a man as you are' God is great and HE is there to wipe out sins and to give us wonderful life in this world. Have a faith in HIM and earn HIS blessings to live a peaceful life in this world.

Loss Of Life.....

When the faith is lost in the heaven
Then the peace will become an enemy in our soul
When the love is lost in our heart
Then the nature of behavior become full of sins
When the knowledge is lost in the school
Then the nation's future will suffer from wisdom
When the kindness is lost in the nation Then the people of the nation become immoral
When a home is lost its brightness of life
Then the family will suffer from mantle agony
When the nature is lost its beauty
Then the pleasant green pastures become like a dessert land
When all those prayers are kept away from God Then the tears of life can not be cured

Love For Ever.....

My heart is singing for you My eyes are watching you and can not get enough of you You could kiss me, hold me and make your love come true but no matter what you do I'll never let you go Don't let my heart remain silent Turn my heart to speak to you If there are stronger words to express then let me know what I feel for you Till then I will keep my dream until the day that you come to me.

When the night comes
I find difficult to sleep
You are in my dream
I see you and I feel you Although distance keeps us apart
But love knows no distance
I feel you are close to me
I really miss you and want to hold you No matter how many days until I see you again but you are always near my heart Without you I am nothing
My heart is singing love for you
You know you are my heart and soul
I know our dream will come true one day

I know that you love me with your soft heart and I can hear your heart beat tells my love Can you hear my heart says love you forever and makes my breath catch with your soul Missing you and feeling blue most of the time

Falling in love with you gives my heart happiness

Believing in your heart gives me strength and makes my heart strong to forget you not Telling you to hold all my secret in your heart

Love, Allow My Soul To Live Happily.....

I have born for you to get your love that I deserve
I love the way you loved me with your inner feelings You took me to the world beyond our imagination and showed me love is to be loved You are a gift of my soul that never fly away from my heart Even a bird in the nest has her partner in the nights but I am without you so many nights with painful tears Today, so much I miss you day by day and night by night Dreams come and go but our love here is to stay in reality No matter what happens in my dream but life without you is nothing but shattered dreams You are a beautiful lady that I have not seen yet and you are anchoring me deep in your heart with love Please do not allow my love become a patient in my life Cause, my heart will crack down into thousand pieces if happens So, let me lose my love within your heart for my soul to live happily in your heart forever.

Love, Is Not A Game.....

When those two true hearts meet with love then their relationship is blooming in their souls When those souls of two bodies meet with hearts then there is a new life appearing to take care My love is a small world in a big ocean and the whispering wind on the shore blows me away Any foul game on love can be lead into drown for good Because love is not game to play with emotions Although I can not promise you a life of wealth but I can promise you a life with love and care When you feel sad then I will dry your tears and I will be your savior when you are helpless All I want you to be mine as I live my life Our heart and mind can not tell two different things other than one thing to live with true love My love on you is not a game.

Love, You Are Not Here With Me.....

When I awake from my bed in the morning then I see morning sun shower with his rays and welcome a newborn day I smell the fragrance of the flowers
I see morning dew falling down from the leaves I can hear the bird's chirps and bee's hum but love, you are not here with me to welcome my day

When I pass through the mountains and vallies I can feel the nature touches me with cool breeze
I can see the greenery cover all over the mountains
I can see the flowers bloomed lavishly in the mountains I can see the stream water gurgles from the mountains
but love, you are not here with me to welcome my day

When the sun welcomes the moon on the sunset then I feel my heart illuminates and brights my soul
I feel each nights your love touches my heart and soul
I feel we should share our life in this world with love and care I feel you are the queen of the night sky that keeps me alive but love, you are not here with me to welcome my day

Love.....

Both heart and soul are the dance of love Lovers feel charm within them while loving There are lovers create a new world with passion They do gently and beautifully to achieve the value of love although their aim will be one to the same soul Love has no time limit or cause but its to be loved Everything could be beautiful by the power of love Love could be a sincere where it could bring loyal The qualities of love reflects in many ways and even the dreams could come in reality The love could share with lots of feelings and the secret of it can not be known either Love can not be made without love and care Love can last life time and it could bring happiness Life without love brings not only frustration but also mantle agony.
When God draws the curtain of love then there is light that brighten our soul with love

Meditation.....

When the heart suffer from the pains
When the body surround with evil venom
When the mind away from the thoughts
When the Satan starts ruling our soul
Then you become a prisoner of your own soul Although, no one has the power to destroy a soul but it could make you suffer with evil doings These things could be eliminated through spiritual power by doing meditation and prayers.
Meditation has the power to heal the pain of soul and bring peace of mind and new life to us Just sit or stand in a comfortable position and few slow deep breaths through the nose in and out and keep eyes close to think of God, brings you all the way to a peace into your mind and soul.
The meditation can draw essential force of love in to one's life and could bring out the richness of faith We should not forget that meditation belongs to a comprehensive body of teachings including ethics and wisdom

Merry Christmas For You And Me.....

Merry Christmas for you and me.....

Merry Christmas for you and me
Even on this day of love for all The very best time in the whole of the year And filling everyone heart with joy and happiness

When all those first snowflakes begin to come down When all those trees are dancing to the wind whistles
When the carols and candles aglow in the night When all those stocking were hung by the chimney with gifts
When Santa Claus visits to all those kid's houses with his gift bag Let the holy night blessed and shower with peace every where

Far away in Bethlehem, a baby boy known as Jesus Christ was born on this day And the peace was felt by all who heard His name and from onwards Christmas Is celebrated throughout the world to observe the birth of Jesus Christ.

Miracle Of Your Heart.....

I love your miracle heart to sooth my soul
I want to wrap you in my arms with love

My Angel, I Love To Watch You Sleep.....

When the night comes then your voice calm down When the moon begin to sail in the sky then your eyes are closing down to sleep You fall asleep while dim light illuminates your room
I love to watch you sleep my little girl
You sleep like a little angel within your dreams Your hair falls both sides of your face and your hands folded in to the blanket Your pillows and bunnies are speard around you You breath soft and low while your innocent heart beat slowly to the merry tune I love to watch you sleep my little baby When I want to kiss you to say good night in your sleep then you toss your head and stretch your little body and turn around sleep again while holding your pillow God brought you to me and given you as his gift and today you are the greatest treasure in my life Someone to laugh and dance and sing in my home
I love to watch you sleep my angel

There is a miracle called in friendship That miracle of friendship brought you as my dearest friend I have so many friends but you are the only one impressed in my mind and heart I know you are the most valuable gift for me and it's my pleasure to have you as my dear friend Your friendship is a precious gift to be cherished and natured Your friendship is reflect on me who you are There are so many friends come and go but precious friend like you I can hold on it You are like a star very far from me but I know you are there for me I can remember some one told me that 'Friends are born but not made'
Yes, we are born for each other Let me be what I know best

My Darling, Thank You For This Love.....

Silent night, now your eyes are closed my love Without any worries you sleep deep in front of me
You have left me alone and my heart is weary and sad My tears are the only left now on your silent face Since you have gone, my life is gone for me Feel my nights are very painful and lonely without you Left with cold without your arms around me to warm Sometime I feel fear that my symptoms will fade I kept my prayers each day would pass living in your love but you made me to understand no man can buy death Now I sit here and recollect my days with you and my love for which I have given my all to the one who I loved the most
The love you have shown on me can not be repaid or matched
But I only can pray the heaven to take care of your soul Someday I shall find you in the heaven, then our souls unite Till then I can only think and dream of you until I reach you But my tears will not stop for your love my darling.

My Dream Girl.....

Once, when in my deepest thought With my eyes closed tight for a while I dreamed of a girl, who loved me madly
And she came into my world, with a smile.
She brightened my life with her passionate love
And pierced my soul with her spear
When she touched me, I felt it so soothing As she whispered 'I love you my dear'.
Her fingers gently combed my hair
And she taught me the meaning of love
As she shared her beautiful treasures with me
My heart began fluttering like a dove,
It was then that I knew for certain,
I really was truly in love.
When I woke up It was just but a dream
And my heart was filled with much sorrow Of course its not the end, because there's always another tomorrow.

Looking forward to end my fear
But life seems to be endless journey

I want to bury my worries forever
I want to draw the power from my soul
Looking forward to end my tears
But life seems to be endless journey

My Ever Loving Brother Deva.....

The moment you were born
We were all happy to see you
You were precious gift to us from God
My mother held you in her arms
You were charming and we named you Deva
We hugged you a sign of affection and love
We hugged you a sign of little loving baby
You were growing up as special person
We took so much care about you But your death brought us a great shock
I asked God why did my brother have to die
Our tears of sadness still roll over our eyes
And sad for our mother who believes you are still alive
I know when nature calls one has to leave this world On that day I will meet you in the same world where you are But till then my tears will not stop for you.....
My ever loving brother Deva.

My Ever Loving Dog Bruno...

My ever loving dog Bruno....

Yesterday you were with us with your strong feet Today you no more with us as heaven called you It broke our hearts into two and we're feeling so blue
We have just lost him the pain is hard to bear
What a wonderful dog he was and so vigilant at our house His lifted ears, swelling chest, bright eyes made him so smart dog His barking voice echoed all over and made fear people to try to get in our house illegally.
He was sometimes calm and sometimes violent then listened to us dearly
He was a great watch dog we ever had in our house
He was a part of our family and kept us happy all the time He was very fond of my children and love to play with them at any time Although, he was an animal as 'They say man's best friend'
He had a very an understanding soul, the way he protected us His loss has brought my wife and sons to tears, cannot bear the sad feeling Dogs are lovely gift from God to the human as faithful animals for us to love
I miss my loving dog Bruno and my tears will not stop for him Until it's my time to see him heaven.

My Friendship With You Forever.....

Sitting out in the garden in reverie, admiring the valley of desert sand, here known as nature's best.

Just thinking of you and my mind is filled with passion.

My heart is thinking why your friendship is essential to me?

Yet to see your beautiful face

Yet to hear your beautiful voice

Yet to know who you are?

Although, I speak to you through the computer but my words are coming from bottom of my heart

Although, we are separated by such distance but our heart bring us close to each other

The friendship that you have shown on me, is living in my heart and strengthening me to continue my friendship with you forever.

My Full Moon Night...

When I look at the night sky
I see the bright full moon sails in the sky When the moon light falls on me then I feel you are near me When I think of my life and happiness then I think of you always my love
When I am with you I know That I have everything in my life When the mighty moon is gathering light then your love is paced from my heart When I groaned with your love then you shower me with your trust When I know that you have my heart then my soul sails like a moon in the sky.
And let our love never be alone.

My Gift Of Wedding Anniversary.....

Since we married, our journey of life was pleasant and sailed without any trouble

We know the day when we started our life

We were close to each other's hearts as a good life partners

But there were days we had gone through pain in our life because no child had born to us for a long time.

You were very upset about me and tried to keep me away

You thought that I am incapable to give you a child

You treated me with unpleasant words and miserable life

Those roads were very hard for me to travel but I did it Because my faith and love made me to over come all those obstacles

And today we are blessed with a baby boy and he is a God's child

When I see my child's face then I forget all those mistakes and pains that's you have given to me.

And still I treat you as my wonderful and loving husband

Since, eighteen years have been passed and our wedding anniversary is due to fall shortly and let us pray God to give us long life

And let us forget all our past life of bitterness and look for a life that will take us a joinery of LOVE with our ever loving baby.

My Heart Beat.....

There is nothing sweeter than your love nor the power of desire that I have for you When my emotion dance with your soul then I surrender into your arms for your deep love Your love makes me complete deep in my soul and makes my heart beat to play with your love tune My heart beats because of your love and affections and my soul is strong and alive because of your care As the daylight fades, your thoughts being to beat my heart and the sailing moon make her way through to dream your love I wish there was a way to hear your heart beat and want to tell you the feelings I hold only for you in my heart When I am with you then my loneliness is stepping away and my love continue to grow strongly every day in your heart You bring happiness into my heart and we are mean for one another
You are a true love and me want to be loved by you till my end

My Heart Is Filled With Joy.....

When I wake up in the morning
When the earth gets wet with night dew
When the cool breeze touches me
When the birds chirp in their nests
When the animals flock together for grass
When the church bells rings for prayers
When the fishermen sail boats return to shore
When the farmers walk to their fields
When the children swinging their hands and go to schools
When the people get ready to go to their work When our mothers take charge of house work.
When the loved one longing to meet each other My heart is filled with joy and happiness.

and kept a place in my heart only for you

My heart is singing only for you my love and let those melodies sound true in your deep heart Take me away to your world of love my angel and I have planted with many rose flowers for you Come along with your love to my garden my honey and show me the way you want to garland me

No matter how far you are or where you are No matter how much space between us
But I will wait for you with hope in my heart
My love still lonely and search for your soul

Waiting for you to hear your soften voice Waiting for you to get your huge hug

My Heart Is Yours...

Ever since we shared our love
I have been flying in the sky in a dream of love My love life still echoes in my heart loudly
You mean more to me than you will ever know I gave my heart to you filled with love
This is me and my love that always fly around you My soul spills in your heart and blended with love
The beauty of your heart will last with me forever
You are someone special that I think world of me
When you touch me, my heart makes me silent
When you share your love, my heart makes me happy When your arms around me, I trust you completely Before I have asked anything from you You have already given yourself to me and made me understand that 'my heart is yours'.

My Heart Never Dies For Your Love...

Our life is sailing in the rugged ocean Although, love brought us together but distance has kept us away due to our obligations that hold us at bay Our love was searched at so many nights but many boundaries blocked our way I know my heart never dies for your love either, affection will not grow weary I will store your love in my heart and carry on with my tears without you being close to me It does not matter how many miles we may be apart but you will always hold a deep place in my heart I miss you more than ever now I love the way you make me feel I know our time away seems like an eternity but my heart will wait for you till you come back

Ravi Sathasivam

My Heart Will Keep On Calling You.....

When I am alone
I think of you and our love Those days were beautiful and yet to come again
My heart can not forget you When you were close to me
You made me so happy
When I walked along with you my every step kept me alive
I realized love has so much power That power will immerse me in your heart
When you hold my hands
I felt out stretched towards you When your head rest on my shoulder
I felt you shared your passions with me Today we are far away from each other The time has separated us without any reason and you have built your own path without me But where ever you are my heart will keep on calling you

Ravi Sathasivam

My Imaginary Love.....

When I close my eyes then I see you are with me and feeling that I am in your arms holding me tight Want to love you so much and want to be with you as much and want to feel your every touch on me But when I open my eyes then you are not there and sadly known as it is my imaginary love All I see your eyes through my heart and my soul gets your picture of your love then my pen being to write a poem of my imaginary love I wandered through the mountains and searching for your love and I wrote your name on the rock to prove that you are mine Thinking about you someday having you here with me
Do not know when but till then its my imaginary love
The magic of imaginations creates an image in my heart about you and brings your secret love with my imaginary love Let my imaginary love to be continued till you become into my life as real.

My Internet Friend.....

Sitting front of my computer and waiting for your mails When ever I hear from you my days are brighten No body has ever spoke to me the way you do Even our friendship exists through the net
Though I have not seen your face
I have not heard your voice I don't know who you are But I know what ever you say that's comes from your heart I have pictured you what I think of you perhaps you too have done it I thank you for considering me your email friend
I am glad that I met you Now you are my best internet friend

Ravi Sathasivam

My Internet Love.....

My internet love.....

There are so many friends come and go on the net but you are the one I ever loved I can remember the day how we met
I have yet to see your face and hear your voice
But I felt that you are a great friend of mine Our friendships were grown up with understandings but my emotion touched me hard to fall love with you My inner feelings stirred in my heart with happiness when you accepted my love with your loving heart Although, we are separated by big distance but our hearts start to speak the truth of love Now, I believe the time will bring us together soon to make our dream of love, sharing life and making a family Today, you have made me realize life is great and for that I will love you until my last journey My desire for you is never ending and today my mind, body and soul are engulfed with your love

My Life Is Nothing Without You.....

When I met you in the garden of love You were as beautiful as rose garden Like an angel you have touched my soul and I am fortunate to have you in my heart

Chorus.....

My life is nothing without you and my life changed when I met you You promised me that you will not leave me

You are the special person who walked into my life and the love we shared nothing else could compare So many sweet memories of you is flashing in my heart But now all I can do is sit in the dark and cry

Chorus.....

My life is nothing without you
and my life changed when I met you
You promised me that you will not leave me

My feelings are gone away with you and made my life is lifeless without you More than anything in this world I loved you and I wish one day you will realize my love on you

Chorus.....

My life is nothing without you
and my life changed when I met you
You promised me that you will not leave me

My Loneliness.....

My life in this world is better when you are near to me
When you are far away from me then my life is miserable
If you do not come soon then I may lose my way I want to hold you, touch you and hug you But now only my eyes are filled with tears without you The stars are shining in the sky brightly but my home will not shine without your love When I stay lonely by the sea then I am filled with sorrow as I recollect my days with you When I wake in the morning from deep sleep then I realized your love showered only in dream Being away from me, I have stored your love in my heart
But I am sure you know what's in my heart that tells you I am longing to hear from you soon, missing everything Waiting for your arrival to end my loneliness.

My Lord, Let Me Stay Close To You....

My Lord, you chose to die to set me free You have paid with your blood for my eternal debt and walked away to the death to set me free from all the sins.

My Lord, I must confess that burden of my life seems to be lighten day by day Because you guided the right path I thank you for your gift of faith and love because of which I live as a faithful and decent man All I remember my first day to the church When I knelt down and want to pray then I show your eyes that was looking at me and you made me realized how much you love me even though I was away from you all those days I felt your both stretched hands want to hold me I realized I was wrong but you did not stop loving me My tears rolled down from my eyes to say ' I'm sorry' Then I learned how much you are dear to me
When I walk out of the church, then I was a new man for ever Because your love and kindness showed me the way to live Thank you Lord for your son Jesus Christ, my Redeemer

My Love And My Dreams.....

My love on you is full of understanding with no shy
My dreams are like a moon that sails in the sky My sincere love is shared between you and me with grace and feel so warm to have your life in my soul Your love is connected through my soul and heart and accepting me, for who I am with great respect You make my heart and soul happy always You make my life strong with your feelings and passions
When your eyes look at me then my pains starts melting When your lips touch my lips then my worries vanish
When you hug me hard then my soul belongs to you only Every nights I sail with your dreams to the heaven and keep my feelings locked up tight till I reach you Every day I wait here to show my love to you and you will always be secured in my heart and soul even the distance that keeps us apart.

My Love Is Lost.....

There is a pain in my heart that brings tears in my eyes
I am sad because my love hurts me My love, like a sky without clouds, like a river without fishes and like an ocean without waves
I am sad because my love left me alone
The stars in the sky are not glittering
The moon in the sky is not sailing
The cool breeze is not touching me I am sad because my love don't care for me
The truth always become lie
The love always become trouble
The understanding always become fail
I am sad because my love don't trust me
The thoughts in my mind become waste
The dreams in my heart cannot be fulfilled
The life in the world brings me an emptiness I am sad because my love need me no more

My Love Story.....

Where do I start my love story
What you want to know about my love story How can I tell about my sad love story
When I start to tell then my tears roll down
She was there always for me like an angel
I could hold her in my arm
I could hug her with my heart
I could kiss her tenderly She gave her unconditional love with passion
She was the world to me I have walked with her every moment and the mountains and oceans opened their heart for us What a wonderful day when I was with her Those days were the best days of my life But till the Satan separated me from her I did not know that her sickness will end her life She can not see the tears in my eyes neither the pain in my heart that cries for her everyday My love story ends into an incomplete story.

Ravi Sathasivam

My Love, Remember Me.....

I can remember when I met you Love become more than you could love me Your taste of kisses made me to feel so high Life without you become no meaning for me

My love, remember me when I am gone away
You cannot hold my hand any more Though, my heart be still as loving you
But gone far away from you into the silent land

I can remember all those loving words you told me Love become an everlasting dream of you Your taste of beauty made me to hold your passion Soul without you become no life for me

My love, remember me when I am gone away
You cannot hold my hand any more
Though, my heart be still as loving you
But gone far away from you into the silent land

My love can not be hidden without your love

Chorus.....

and make your love with softly whispering Days are gone, my love on you never gone and it will live with me wherever you are

When I look up at the stars in the evening
My nights tell me, you are so beautiful Although, you are not close to me
My love can not be loved without your love

My Love, How Can I Forget You.....

How can I forget you in my life when you have given me your life in my soul How can I leave you in my life when you have given me so much love in my heart How can I think anything other than your love when you have given me a big room in your heart How can I sing a song without your melody when you have written a meaningful love in my book How can I love anyone else other than you when you have given me your endless love How can I love a love without your love when you have shown me the beauty of it How can I see your shadow without your light when you have lit my life with love every day Let whatever world go around with me but I never ever forget you.

My Love, I Am Crying For Your Love.....

You said to me that you will be there on that day but when that day came then you were not there for me So much love showered and so many promises were made but nothing worked on my way because you had gone
My love, I am crying for you because my love turned blue

The heaven stolen you from me and left the memories only Though your soul vanished in the sky but my love never dies for you I tell those angels how much I love you and care for you and ask them to make your soul always happy till I come to you
My love, I am crying for you because my love turned blue

Looking at your photos and wish you were here with me Crying for your endless love which become the end of story
I will not see you again but your memories will stay for ever Now my heart fighting against a raw pain for the lost of my love
My love, I am crying for you because my love turned blue

Ravi Sathasivam

My Love, I Am Sorry To Hurt You.....

I am sorry to hurt your feelings my love
I should have kept my promises as I have told you But I don't know the reason why I did wrong to you I felt sad when I show your tears rolling on your cheeks I know you are very upset over me and don't want to talk to me either If you feel that I had hurt you by unpleasant words then please forgive me and accept my sorry Do not stop talking to me my love
If you do so, my heart will burst into thousand pieces You know how much I am in love with you and without you my loneliness will take me to hell Always, there is a special place in my heart for you where my love for you is so passionate and true No one can melt my heart like you do nor clutch my soul to give me new life like you My love, please talk to me again and I promise your love in my life will be pleasant until my end.

Ravi Sathasivam

My Love, I Never Do Anything To Hurt You.....

I never do anything to hurt you my love
I am just telling you my feelings for you You have right to ask me anything from me and my love is there for you to understand Sometime I don't know what to say or do but my life without you is meaningless My lonely life kills me and want you always near me but distance keeps us away for a while Your heart is as lovely as diamond and bright my heart beneath canopy of the blue sky Each day you light the beauty of love in me and I return my love to you with faith and true.
Although, each of our soul become one but our time is thin to fulfill our ocean of love My heart is always think of you but until we are together soon it will keep on crying for you I miss you so much though I talk to you everyday But blood should not flow before the wound appears For that you better be here with me before my heart melt.

My Love, Take Away Your Tears.....

I felt your tears in my heart when you cried my love.
Your tears of sadness are the most painful to shed
When you are worried, I am more worried than you Because your tears could bring my heart sad forever

All I can say to you is...

I will not forget the first day I met you I have thrown my love into your heart to feel so good
The sound of your voice has fluttered my heart into cool
My love for you made into ocean pool

My love, take me away with you
Now, I can not live without you
Life is there for us to live so much
I have let myself drawn into the dream world of you

Let your heart remember me on how much I miss you Let your soul remember me the way I feel for you Let your love remember me your absence causes me so much pain Let your thoughts remember me where ever you are

My love, take me away with you
Now, I can not live without you
Life is there for us to live so much
I have let myself drawn into the dream world of you

My Love, When I Love You So.....

When I love you so, then I look at your eyes Love can be anything when you are in my arms
My love, I love you more than anything in this world Let me get into your heart to give my love that I have

When I love you so, then I feel your body language Love can be more than a love when you love me so My love, I love you as much as you could do Let me get into your heart to give my power that I have

When I love you so, then I hear your heart beats Love can be true when you touch me with your soul
My love, I love you the way you love me Let me get into your heart to give my life that I have

My Love, Where Can I Go Without You.....

My love, where can I go without you and what can I do without your love My new day starts thinking of you and want my dreams to come true without lost

My love, where ever I am, I see only your heart and where ever you are, I want to fly over there My life is beautiful when I fall in love with you and my soul speaks my love into your heart truly

My love, forever I want to make love with you and forever I want to be in your arms without time limits My world wants your love and you are there to give me and your love wants my life and I am there to give you

My Love, Why You Worry?

The cry of your inside heart, I can hear and there is no brightness in your face either Your eyes are red and dropped with tears You can lie me by saying nothing wrong but now I have known you so long You are my soul made where my love is stored
I can not see your heart is tearing with your pain
You should not hide anything from me I am here to help you in every way you want Because I love you so much and care for you Being inside four walls does not bring you anything Unless, you open your heart and speak to me I can heal your burning sorrow with my love
I can bring you out from hiding behind your loneliness Remember, my love on you is an endless ocean and I will sail along with your sorrow and pain until your heart is fills with happiness and joy

My Loving Daughter.....

A treasure and blessings for us from our God to have you as a wonderful and sweet daughter You bring us a special joy and charm and fills happiness around our home Your smile does brighten our days and set us free Your hugs and kisses make our hearts melt
There is no life without you and you are everything to us Years have gone so quickly and brought so much changes in you But your every experiences have left us to remember you forever
We are proud to be your parents and its the best ever we have felt Sometime you make naughtiness and we go crazy but silently we enjoy when you tease us and others
You are the beautiful child we brought you on this world for reason To love and teach you right from wrong and protect from sins
No matter what, God will keep us together forever That will be the best of our family can be.

My Painful Dream...

My bed and pillow will tell you about my dream
That I see you every night in my dream You don't know my pain that I go through without you being close to me Always, your face appear in my dream and ends as dream with painful of thoughts Living with your imagination love kills me little by little I cannot seem to leave your thoughts behind Because my love on you like an ocean and cannot be erased You came into my life with full of love and affection and planted a seed of love in my heart Now you have gone so far away from me while allowing your seed of love to grow wild on me.
Although you have sworn me that your love is true but today you made me nothing but dream of you Until, I see you again, my tears will burn my cheeks and my hand will clutch my heart with pain.

Ravi Sathasivam

My Painful Life.....

There are days, in my life was filled with emptiness My heart leaked from pain and washed away with sorrows
When I was young, I did not get what I want in my life At times I was alone and felt with madness and my tears dropped and were wet into my pillow.
My life had no stairs or ladder to climb up nor sailed smoothly to the destinations
My life was hopeless and helpless like a man without liver Life, without life is nothing but shattered dreams At night, moonlight brightens me across the window but no one close enough to hug or care for my feelings Nothing can be done and I have to live with my destiny of life I watched others who had everything in their life but it did not bring me jealousy other's than lost in my life Even a smile on my face was far away from me Happiness kept me away and darkness hugged me closely So many broken promises have played deep in my life and the outcome results was made me to feel so terrible They say ' You can live the life you were born to live'
But what can I do when I was born there is no life in store for me Today, what I have learnt is accept your life and live with it without counting the hatches for nothing.

My Playful Dog Lassie.....

My dog's name is Lassie
She is faithful and lovely dog She is brown in color and she has a beautiful brown eyes.
She is very fond of my children
And she plays with them all the time
She is intelligent and strong dog She can understand me very well and obey my orders truly When no one's at home then she makes home miserable that she starts to roam.
If she gets caught by me by doing any naughtiness at home then she covers that with her innocent smile
She only wants our love and care Although, we paid her for small price but she is a priceless dog for me She lives with us as a part of our family.

Ravi Sathasivam

My Rose Garden.....

My love is like a rose garden grows in beautiful nature They are beautiful and rare to find Let it be red, pink, or white but I take care all of them tenderly When I go out to the garden and touch the dew upon the roses
And I breath its fragrance
My heart and soul is filled with passion The smell of our roses permeates the air and they make their mother nature proud I do not allow anyone to pick my roses because they are more beautiful when they dance to the tune of winds Come and live in our garden of roses and praise God for his lovely creation of nature.

My Silent Heart...

Someone from somewhere loves me
I don't know who is she?
But I can understand since her soul is filled with love
I can hear her heart crying for me
But I have no wings to fly to her She sends her love through the winds Hoping that it will reach me
But I can feel that she is in love with me
The reasons no one knows What is stored in her heart?
But my love for her is such that Can not keep my heart silent.

Ravi Sathasivam

My Son, Your Mother Left You And Me Alone.....

My son, your mother left you and me alone and she had flown to the heaven by leaving us in hell Has she forgotten our love for her?
Her smiling picture on the wall brings me nonstop tears
There is no light or brightness in our house now Her care for us brought beautiful life and loving nights
But now she left with us miserable life and torturing nights
I am sure she is watching us from the heaven helplessly My son, your mother have tried to fight with death and she want to keep us alive with her love and courage but the heaven gates were opened for her and she felt helpless I remember the day you were born son Your mother held you in her arm as a precious gift from God
We had lots of plan for you and you were growing up greatly Now you are only five years old and she left you and me
My son, as long as I live in this world I will take care of you and give you fatherly and motherly love and make her soul happy by up-bringing you as a great man.

Ravi Sathasivam

My Sweet Little Baby.....

My sweet little baby, when you were born into my life you made me to forget my worries and strife I can recollect the day your mother and me met and we prayed God to have a lovely little baby like you Our God pleased with our prayers and given you to us Now, I daily thank God and forever will be in his debt Today you are such a precious child who bright our home I see your two tiny feet that cycle in the air and your tiny hands are pulling your hair.
Your sweet little face brings joy to us and we forget the world
When I get up in the morning then you are fastest sleep
When I say good night then you don't allow me to sleep
You want me to hold and tucked up against my chin Your mother wants me to write a poem about you but what can I write about you when you are the poem You are my shining star I reach to hold you around and hugs you with my love that I have blessed for.

while the sun set across the ocean my desires for your love brings me lots of pleasure and leave with a great thoughts on you

My Wonderful Mother.....

I thank God for giving me a wonderful mother
She is the spirits of my house
Her charm of love is always there for me Her lovingness and kindness can not be matched I know how important of her presence at home I never forget her difficult days that she has gone through to bring me up When I think about her sleepless nights and struggle, my tears roll over my eyes With all the struggle and pain she showed me the right path to live in this world I want to repay everything what ever I owe her but I know there is nothing great enough to repay the greatest mother on earth.
I only ask God to allow her to live long because she is my wonderful mother.

and shower its fragrance and makes nature proud When the trees leaves oxygen for mankind starts dancing to the tune of wind When the birds sits on top of the trees and singing to the nature's choir with happiness
When the fauna in the jungle sets free to live proudly When the stream water gurgles from the mountain and when wet earth makes barren land fertile When the farmers glorify the nature with happiness and start to cultivate food for the nations When the sun sets behind the green mountains and the moon start to light the nation
When the nature forgets its vastness
Then the God show his creation on his earth.

Nihal (Baila) Samarasinhe.....

Yet to see a man like Nihal Samarasinhe Although, known to dear and near ones as Nihal but he was known to his close friends as BAILA.
A good planter of yesterday is no more with us today but his fond memories will cherish in our heart forever His absence shows us how important man he was Not only he was a great rugby player but also a good coach for younger generation Neither problems worried him nor pain ever hurt him He never expressed his sorrows to others but his words were enough to make others laugh
He was a king by heart and led his life of his own
He never hurt anyone either spoken evil about others
He was stronger believer of 'Laughter Is The Best Medicine'
He imparted same belief in others to live the life Though not a frequent visitor to Church, God heard his silent prayers
Our heart knows how much we miss him and tears keep rolling down
But he walked through the heaven gate with a smile Let us pray for his soul to rest in peace.

No Matter, If You Say Good Bye...

I have not changed myself since I met you
We have been together for some years I loved you more than anything in this world
Our love started with understanding and promises
But today I feel you are going away from me

Sometime I wonder about what you say to me Sometime I wonder that you are really in love with me Sometime I wonder about what will happen tomorrow Sometime I wonder that your love will die
But today I wonder that my love is still alive

No matter what you do but I will still love you No matter what you say but I will still listen to you No matter how you feel but I will still hold you No matter where ever you are but I will be around you But today no matter for me even you say good bye to me

Now, Its All Over...

Don't look so sad my love, now its all over I never thought that my love will end with grief When you walked away from me for good my heart cried for your lost love Now, where do I carry my feelings at last The day I was with you for your love that can not be found any more in my heart
The day I was with you for our honeymoon those feelings cannot be found in my present life Don't come back to me my love, now its all over Stay wherever you get better love showered upon you I have given you what ever I could I have walked with you the distance that I could I have shown you my love as much as I could but now I am alone and left nothing for me Don't think of me my love, now its all over I will walk to the land that no one knows and be there without hearing your loving words any more.

Oh My Love, Your Love Kills Me Now....

At the end of the day, I am left alone in my room
And you are not here to share my love with me Distance keeps us away and my heart become empty
I wipe my tears day by day while I think of you

Chorus.....

Oh my love, your love kills me now
My heart grieves everyday and night
Oh, how so much I need you by my side to have your love with me Distance may keep us apart but my love always hold you near my heart always

You are the only love for me and our love is so true I love you in many ways because your love is perfect and so beautiful in every way

You came into my life and made me complete I could feel your love from the distance with touch of your soul in me everywhere

Chorus.....

Oh my love, your love kills me now
My heart grieves everyday and night
Oh, how so much I need you by my side to have your love with me Distance may keep us apart but my love always
hold you near my heart always

Oh My Dream Go Away.....

I dreamt of you so much and that's enough for time being and let me have your reality that will play in my heart tenderly I am already late to embrace your arms around me and to give my body for physical sentimental touch All these days I kept my thoughts positive move because I want my dream come true one day.
The days have come now that I want to be near you There is a place for us where we stay in chosen path Sometimes the paths are long, short and rough but always end as a beautiful world for us I want to see your charming beauty in the moon light and I want my nights to cover with silky clouds Let my loneliness go away while I step into your world and let those music play melodies while you hug me Let your arms around my shoulder with your finger touch and let our dance roll on the floor with passionate love Let your lips lock my lips with your inner feelings and let your heat burn my thrust for move love Oh my dream go away and bring me reality with love

Oh My God, Please Stop War In This World.....

Oh my God, please stop war in this world and bless us to live in this world peacefully No one wants war in any part of this world nor no one wants to live with strife with anyone The pain and suffering of our innocent people can not be spoken nor can not be count their sorrowful death The stubborn world leaders live with safe and secure but the innocent people are dying for nothing The war brings not only destructions and diseases but also death of innocent human beings Our hearts are broken when we see so many families mourn and cry for loved ones while crocodile tears shed by some leaders Life can not be brought back but why did they die for?
The white dove's wing has been cut into two pieces and the name of peace has been written with human blood The destruction of weapons are become human's safety tools and cultivated lands are become play ground of war Oh my God, please help our world and bring PEACE.

Oh' My Mary, Will You Marry Me?

Chorus.....

Oh' my Mary, will you marry me?
My nights are so crazy
and love without you I feel so lazy
Tell me my Mary, will you marry me?

When I was little as a boy then I saw you like a little angel We played and danced together and we felt that the world was not known to us

When I was grown as a teenager then I saw you like a charming girl We talk and walked together and we felt that the world was not enough for us

Now I have grown as a man and I see you like a beautiful lady I want to tell you how much I love you and I want the world to know that you are mine

Chorus.....

Oh' my Mary, will you marry me?
My nights are so crazy
and love without you I feel so lazy
Tell me my Mary, will you marry me?

Oh Peace, Where Do I Find You.....

Oh peace, where do I find you
I search you everywhere in my country but I could not find you Oh peace, our countrymen love to have you in their hearts but now your presence is not there to have a peaceful life.
Oh peace where do you go and where can I find you I see our mothers tears in my country more than rain has poured I see our nation's charming beauty is lost and its taken away from many acts of hate
I see our people wandering like broken arms to recover their lost freedoms
I see our people beautiful brotherly smiles lost where anger knows no boundaries I see our people often plant a seed of peace to grow smoothly but often its burn like a wild fire to the ash by our leaders We are yet to free from political terrorism and thugs in our own country and they have trapped us behind shelter of broken promises and blatant lies Always, life seems to be enjoyed with another man's hearts pain Oh peace, what have we done to you for you to keep us away within reach
If our country is peaceful, it will blossom like a flower
There is nothing more precious than peace in this world But peace without justice will not make any nation peaceful because injustice is the enemy of peace So, let us find peace where ever it is there within our reach in our minds and hearts

Oh, My Love Katrina.....

Yesterday I didn't know who you are But today I know how beautiful you are Your heart touched me to the bottom of my longing soul Your caring thoughts had made me cuddle the wings within you

Oh, my love Katrina where have you been Why are you so far away from me
My life gives me a lesson thorough your loving words
You've loved me so much, to love you where ever you is very easy

Tomorrow I don't know how you are But today I know how smart you are Deep down inside my heart, you hide somewhere and echo warm and vibrant with all your love

Oh, my love Katrina where have you been
Why are you so far away from me
My life gives me a lesson thorough your loving words
You've loved me so much, to love you where ever you is very easy

Oho my love, rest your head on my shoulder and let my arms hold around your neck tight When you are close to me, my heart full of love and your warm soft words will make me so crazy When I kiss you, my heart begins to melt and a bridge of love is built between us with passion

Oho my love, rest your head on my chest and let my arms hold around your shoulder tight When you touch me, my body feels full of energy

Our Baby Boy....

When your mother was crying in pain, I took her to hospital, then I heard your mother's loud scream along with your soft cry Your mother brought you into this world as an angel.
You were lying next to your mother innocently
My son, your cry brought tears of love in my eyes
When I looked at you first my heart filled with happiness
You were looking very healthy boy
You were trying to look at me through your fresh new eyes I saw your tiny legs were rocking in the air and your tiny hands were clapping for me I gave one of my fingers to you to hold and you held me tightly and you want to kiss my finger too When I wrap you in my arms I felt that my dream come true
We waited for you so long and your arrival made our house lighten God has listen to our prayers and given you as his gift.
I will be watching you growing up and teach you all the good things You will be learning all the best and I am sure that you will show me your best when you wear your cap and gown on your graduation day.

Our Duty.....

God not only create a man and a woman but also their duties towards mankind along with that Men and women meant for one another and live together in truth and love.

God loves anyone who serve one another in difficult times
We must be honest with our duty with competence and integrity and fight to end all forms of evil temptations and sins
The problems could arise in every way even you are truthful towards your duty but it has to be tackle in the same manner and at the same time the root of problems to be uprooted at once If we do not perform our duties towards human society then our faith and love will be end with sad and sorrow

If husband does his duty towards his wife then she will make their family proud

If father does his duty towards his children then his children's future will flourish

If a leader does his duty towards his country, then his countrymen will reap the benefit.

Simply, Your duty is your God and serving to mankind is your blessings

Our Love, Is To Be Loved....

When the day comes then we see each of us
When the night comes then we dream each of us
We find our love still beautiful and strong in our hearts Our love is not lost at day or night but kisses take away our tears Our love still grows in us as beautiful nature pleased Our love is unbridled and flows with happiness and care Our love understands our ways and builds strong in our heart and mind Our love brought our soul into purpose and hope Our love mean so much to us and express our deep gratitude Our love is with laugh or cry and happiness or sadness but never apart Our love is beautiful love and its to be loved.

Our Love, Within Four Walls...

I want to be alone with you within four walls
We could make our love story within these walls
We could share our love with lots of feelings without no one knowing our inner secret My heart is aching for your love and want our dreams to turn into reality within these walls Your kisses could make me passionate and we could enjoy the art of love making Your hugs can bring our hearts closer and we could be happy with our love within these walls
We could love each other for many years within these walls
But our love will be spring for ever within these walls
These walls could hear our voice and watch at us
But it keeps all the secrets within these four walls.

Our Sweet Little Girl Olivia.....

Olivia is our sweet little girl with her charming face
She dances like a butterfly and swim like a fish
She talks like a parrot and act like a grown woman
She laughs with joyful heart and attracts us with her sweet smiles
She sleeps like an angel floating in the clouds
She is like a candle of the house who keeps everyone in illuminate
She is an intelligent little girl with so much enthusiastic with her lessons
She is such a brave girl brings love and strength to our house
She loves her papa and mama with plenty of kisses shared She fights with her sisters but she love them so much She always plays with her friends and sometime drive them crazy too
She is our sweet little girl who keeps us happy with her actives.

Papa, Why You Left Me Alone.....

Papa, I am still ten years old child
I know you were a great soldier at all times Although, I have been looking after my grandma, but you have taken so much care for me There is no lack of love or affection from you, ever since my mama gone to the heaven When you take me to the beach, I use to walk behind you and tie my feet with your feet thinking one day I will be a strong man like you But when two soldiers came home with national flag and gave to my grandma saying you will never return home My eyes filled with tears and sorrow broke my heart
The Lord has taken my precious papa way to heaven When you left home I gave you a red rose with love but you returned me a poppy rose with sorrow Now I have neither papa to play basketball nor mama to kiss and hug
I know it will remain empty but I have to fulfill your dreams Papa, my love is always with you, even you left me alone

Please Release Me And Let Me Go.....

Please release me and let me go
So, I will not love you any more
There is a world waiting to love me again I can live there with out your love any more Then, I will be freed from my pains and grief's forever
So, I will not feel your love any more

Please release me and let me go
So, I will not love you any more
There is a voice waiting to sing for me again
I can hear without being dancing with you Then, I will be freed from my sad and sorrow forever
So, I will not hear your voice any more

Please release me and let me go
So, I will not love you any more
There is a heart waiting to love me again
I can love without you being close to me
Then, I will be freed from my suffering and worries forever
So, I will not cry for your love any more.

Save Our Children From Slavery...

Our beautiful children are forced to hard labor by some of the evil people on earth And they kill their soul.
Those little hands are holding hard tools instead of holding school books Those little hands are touching dirty sand instead of their mother's hands They listen to their evil men called masters instead of their school teachers Struggling for their bread at infant stage instead for the struggling for their career Mothers are crying for their children and want to save them from their darkness of future Many years have been passed but not single year has been cared for them Because of our careless leadership our children are still living in slavery Let us join together and save our little children from the hell of slavery.

Say, No More To Alcohol.....

A poison never taste good, so as alcohol
There is no difference between alcohol and poison.
Poison kills you immediately but alcohol is known for slow poisoning God has created grapes garden for you to taste its juice but you have turned those gardens in to wine yard Alcohol is a bad lover which gives you a tight hug only one time and make you slave for lifetime Think about last night when you returned home fell out of the car and crawled in to the house Screaming over your beloved wife and abusing your lovely children That makes your home nothing but hell You not only make your heart weak but also your loved ones
It is not too late and you can make your life worth living Love your family and do not allow your family to go stray.
Give up alcohol and say no more.

Ravi Sathasivam

Saying No.....

When I met you first Your charming personality attracted me
With your sweet words fallen in love with you Your knowledge motivated to think of you Your kindness brought me close to you Your beautiful smile every time crossed my mind Then we became good friends.
Our friendship made me fall in love with you I believed you are the one I need you for my life
When I expressed my love to you You rejected it by 'SAYING NO'
My mind was confused and confidence shaken The energy of my heart was depleted and I felt my heart become lifeless Is it easy to walk away from you with out your love Can I say good bye to you with out tears from my eyes Do I have the strength to accept your word 'NO' My love and feelings no one knows except my heart and soul.
Will my heart stop thinking of you? I don't know.

Ravi Sathasivam

Shattered Dreams.....

God, heavenly thrown his blessings to you on your wedding day And you have promised him ' I do'
Your loved one wished you all the best And you have promised them to be a great couple Life is a lesson and you have to learn it Pain and struggle are part of life you have to face it When you complete your life with these principles then you have completed your oath ' I do ' Today, you have chosen a different path to live Making both lives miserable and want to end with divorce It is easy for you to live away from each other but painful to your children to live with grief The day will come then you will remember when you struggle with pain without your partner in your life stemming from divorce and when agony will make you handicap Divorce is not a solution and live happily with your partner without removing your ring.

She Is Inside My Heart.....

Bright night, sitting in my garden While moon light falls around me
I am thinking of my love who is away from me
A beautiful night without her, hurts me a lot My lonely life without her make me sad
I don't know what I will do without her I am sure my life will be left lonely
She know how much she means to me She gave me her love and taught me the value of it I learnt that love has no limit from her and allow it to grow bigger and bigger in my heart Now, I can not stay any more without my love I want you to be together always and forever All, I know is that we should not be part because she is the only one inside my heart.
And my love for her is true.

She Need Me No More.....

Once upon a time there was a lady called Emu Who loved me very sincerely with her soft heart
She was my life and lived with me for five years She did everything to me what ever I loved for But today she need me no more with fault reason

She was my woman and walked away from my heart
Now, she made my life miserable and left me alone
Love was no meaning for her and memories are gone stray Will she ever feel my love with her was unconditional

There are days I shed my tears for her How many times in the silent nights I felt for her She was my love and cared me for five years
She did love to me when ever I needed
But today she need me no more with fault reason

She was my woman and walked away from my heart
Now, she made my life miserable and left me alone
Love was no meaning for her and memories are gone stray
Will she ever feel my love with her was unconditional

and remembers your good thing that have been done Let it be whoever is but thoughts are always great

Sometime, someone from somewhere wanting to steal

Let it be whoever is but love has its own freedom to share

Sometime, someone from somewhere dreaming of you and feels your love runs through their heart Let it be whoever is but allow your heart to meet with their soul

Sometime, someone from somewhere wanting to kiss you and wants to feel your warm lips comfort them Let it be whoever is but let their love speak through lips

Sometime, someone from somewhere wanting to love you and wants to feel your soul in side them Let it be whoever is but allow the love to fulfill its thirst

Son, Say No To Drugs....

You are born as a beautiful child.
Your parents had a dream to make you a wonderful and worthy child They did their best for you with their struggle and pain.
Now they have pain in their heart to know you are taking drugs
Their worries and pain in their heart you can not see The tears on their face, you can not wipe They have loved you and taken care on you.
Why should you take drugs
These are bad for you and kill you slowly
They make you crazy and lazy Your cough will take your parents breath away Your ruin health will kill your parents slowly
Not only you ruin your life but also your parents Say no to drugs and save your life Say no to drugs and take your parents worries away Say no to drugs and save your nation's future
You have dream and make it come true

Sorry, I am so sorry my love. I hurt you without any reason Your tears made my heart cry. Why I did to you that I don't know Forgive me! I am so sorry my love

Sorry, I am so sorry my love. I scold you without any reason Your pain made my heart to think My cruel heart suspects you for nothing
Forgive me! I am so sorry my love

Sorry, I am so sorry my love. I did not mean to hurt you When you cry then I cry more than you Because I love you all my heart and soul
Forgive me! I am so sorry my love

Sorry, I am so sorry my love but again I made your tears flow once more Now, I promise you that I will not hurt you again Forgive me! I am so sorry my love.

So many days come and gone Will any day be good without your love Oh my love, you are the star that guides my life
I will hold you in my heart till my end Everything in you is so immense and beautiful I promise you now, I will give all I have It's not who you are to the world but it's who you are to me Loving you is something I can not explain
But my words can tell you how much you mean to me

Take a journey to the mountains and feel your inspiring breath of the fresh air there There are beautiful valleys that's curve everywhere and feel your nature love that's blushes while you are there

Stretch your arms over the mountains and feel those skies just over there There are white clouds that's sails everywhere and feel your nature love that's smiles while you are there

Sing your songs over the mountains and feel those melodies that echoes everywhere There are so many birds that's flies here and there and feel your nature love that's hugs while you are there

There are so many greenery that's shower everywhere and feel your nature love that's takes care while you are there

Tears Of Broken Heart.....

I remember the day I met you My heart was filled with joy
From that day you mean whole world to me I enjoyed when you walked along with me I enjoyed when you hold my hands
I enjoyed when your lips blew soft kisses
But I never thought my dreams will turn blue When you left me and I travelled my journey alone
You took away all my dreams with you I was left with broken heart and shattered dreams
You were my lover, friend and partner
No matter how long I was with you But a broken heart is hard to mend My heart knows how much I loved you My tears spills the bin how much I cared for you Still awaiting to hear your voice again Hoping to hold your hands again
Now I have learnt that love starts with a smile grows with a kiss and ends with tears.

Tell Me, When Will I See You....

My day runs like a train
The time slips fast from me or steals My imagination on you keeps me in the dark
The distance keeps me away from you Tell me, when will I see you?

My nights are lonely and fills with sorrow
The stars are not shining in the sky
My thoughts are scattered without plans
The tears fills my eyes blue without you Tell me, when will I see you?

My heart is not cherished without you in my arms
The love feels no peace in my mind
My words keep me away from my pen
The silent night covers me without happiness
Tell me, when will I see you?

How wonderful to kiss your lips with hopeful How wonderful to get your heart with love How wonderful to see your soul in me How wonderful to laugh with your sweet words How wonderful to hold you tight and kiss gently How wonderful to fly with you to the dream land How wonderful to drive you through the mountain valleys How wonderful to be with you within four walls How wonderful to give you what you look for How wonderful to hug you and keep you in my arms How wonderful to wear our wedding rings on our wedding day How wonderful to bind your love to last for ever

The Beautiful Birds.....

The beautiful love birds sit on a tree and sing a song of spring with ecstasy love Their chirps bring early morning delightful and the nature of garden open its hearts for them Their melodies ripple through the jungles and make all the trees dances to their tune They are beautiful with their variety of feathers and they fly high while let out a tweet Their unlimited freedom kept them happy for ever and they don't depend on anyone for their food They build their nest well in the trees to protect them and they take care of their young ones with affection They can be trained to become friends of human but they should not be kept in the cages without their freedom When the season changes to the winter then they flock together to other part of the world to find food and shelter These birds are great creation of God and I long to see them with anticipation.

The mountain valley is the place of nature's gift Through out the season it shower with beautiful nature
When you stand in between the mountain valley
You feel that the heaven blesses you dearly
You feel that the greenery hug you tightly You feel that the cool breeze touches you tenderly You see that the water falls roll over violently
You see that the trees dance to the tune of wind smoothly
You hear that the birds sing nature choir happily

The Blind Man On The Street....

The blind man on the street....

He never saw the world but he understands the world through his eyes
He can not walk without his white cane and dark glasses but his spirits keep on racked him with pain
Some time he accompany with a dog to kill his loneliness
When not wearing his special dark glasses He was always looking saddened with his red eyes and pleading to the people on the street for money When I see him then my heart becomes very heavy and I'LL throw few coins into his bowl that he holds every time I see him no matter how many times I see him in a days time He earns few dollars everyday to fulfill his hunger and thirst Some people tell that the blind men have no eyes but he can see far more than us.
Because he sees everything through his heart and mind
He touches us and tell about our personality He can touch any money and tell how much it is But he has to suffer for rest of his life without being able to see this world where he has born from nothing Like known as a shadow knows his shadow, so he lives as no one shadow.

The Church Bells

When the church bells ring loud in air then its says God is not dead; nor doth he sleep and its call everyone for prayers When the spiritual hunger looking for worships then the church doors are opened for blessings When the people goes to church for prayers then they praise God for his lovingness and care When the glorious church bells sounds like wild then the evil spirits frighten and run away while When the bells rung on such occasions then its brings gospel message to everyone When these bells have always had a place in Christmas songs then those songs become melody These bells are rung in many cultures to mark such as prayers, weddings and funerals.
Let the church bells jingling and tinkling always to bring peace on earth.

The Day, When I Met You.....

The day, when I met you.....

I shall never forget the day I met you.

I was the luckiest man on earth when I was with you on that day

When I met you, your eyes were attracted me like diamonds.

Your beautiful smile made my heart melt.

Your graceful walk on the beach made me crazy.

Knowing you for more than ten years but all those days distance is kept us away.

I did not get a chance to meet you other than our net conversation only kept us going more alive.

When I met you my happiness was fleeting and my words escape from my lips.

At that moment I felt that angels are real and dreams do come true.

When I met you I felt my love for you is very beautiful.

I don't know what else to say when I met you but I felt you take my breath away.

Before I met you my life was like a cart without horse and when I met you my world become more beautiful.

I feel now everything is changing for the better and my love on you become more stronger than ever before.

Today, I want you to hold my heart close to you.

Today, I want you to know how much I love you and care for you

Today, I want you to know how much you really mean to me

Today, I want you to know my life without you is meaningless.

Today, I want you to know you are mine and I live for you.

I love you for ever and ever

The Gift Of My Real Friend Vicki.....

I have found you in the net as my dearest mate
A friend is one of the nicest thing to happen to me On the day when I spoke to you then we felt that our friendship should continue without an end Since we both are writers and our poems narrates each others beauty of our language Your kind words on my poems has given more strength to my pen to continue writing more poems I am grateful to you for your encouragement Yes, I read your poems and feel your thoughts on them They are beautiful poems which come out from bottom of your heart with happiness or sadness but your pen words make me feel its worthiness Today, your friendship is not a shadow on me but a piece of heart that hold me as a gift Thank you very much for being my friend, Vicki

The Great Heros - Our School Teachers.....

Those school days, when I was a student Remembering my days with my wonderful teachers Teaching lessons for us was not difficult for them But learning lessons from them was a tough task of our life
They taught us the best and we gained the best Our mistakes were dealt with understandings Our mischievous were forgiven and directed us to right path
But the discipline was maintained well from top to bottom
They behaved as teachers and also dear friends
They accepted our respect but also our love to them
They imparted knowledge which was rich in quality Not only they took care of our studies but also our future career We knew someday we have to say goodbye to them with broken heart
But we always remember those fond memories spent with them Let me thank God for giving us wonderful teachers during our school days

The Invisible Wisdom Of God.....

Do we know the truth of heaven and our God's love?
Do we understand the knowledge of invisible wisdom of God?
We must understand that God's wisdom rests on the foundation of spiritual practice of compassion and love Learning spiritual power and prayers could make us to realize the truth of heaven and God's love We all born with God's love and care at the beginning and the problem arises how to remain till our end Our spiritual journey starts with understanding on God's trust and continue with perception of God's precepts till the end The spiritual perfection could be achieved not only by meditation but also teaching others to reach the knowledge of wisdom That is why God appointed wisdom as his goal for mankind God loves his people and enjoy their knowledge in wisdom and he feels proud of his rational creation on earth Our choice is live with the wisdom to delight in God or choose path of that leads to miserable life on earth.

The Mad World.....

I want to live peacefully in this world but this mad world never allows me to do so When I wake up in the morning the sun doesn't arise
When I go to bed in the night the moon doesn't shine
The stars neither twinkle nor do the night birds hover Today, the church bells are ringing for the gay weddings and not for the opposite sex couples when they marry either The dogs and cats are playing cheerfully where as men and women are playing devil games that ending their life in hell The hatred politicians are coming back to power again and again and with their bad ruling, our poor masses are suffering and shedding their tears Today, the deadly weapons are freely available in the market and even the innocent school children are not spared for their life
The father wanders at next door and the mother looks at back door wanting out and their children are miserably looking to find the love they're missing at home The music is no more melodious and its lyrics are weird words or meaningless that the dictionary can't even find their meanings.
The say love is blind which is true because today its does not matter who comes in or goes out.
Is this a mad world that we all are living in today?

The Nature's Wonderful.....

When the early morning sun breaks through the darkness
When the night tears dew spill morning from the sky
When the nature's tears raindrops pour down to the earth
When all those trees dancing in the breeze beside the lake
When all those daffodils and lavender fill the air with fragrances
When all those butterflies and bees fly high in search of honey
When all those wild mountains river are rushing through the valleys
When all those beauty of waterfalls grab heart of a nation
When all those mountain hills carpet with its greenery wonders
When all those innocent animals grassing on the hill sides
When all those bird's flight, as they climb and hover in the sky
When all those wild animals freely walk around the jungle
When all those seasons spring, summer, autumn, winter fill our heart with cheer.

When all those trouble hearts, the nature become a smooth healer
When all those pleasant of natures make their own display Oh, my God, I praise you for all your truly gift of the nature's wonderful

The Sound Of Music.....

The sound of music gives us so much emotions and that plays a melody deep in our heart greatly All the sound on the earth are like music and the music brings love and enjoyment to our life Music expresses universal language of the world and brings people together where ever they live The music is the best gift of God to all of us where its fills our soul with peace and mind with creativity Every music has its own rhythm and it's creates a great sound of music Music in the mountain brings peace in our heart and music in the ocean fills our soul with love When I hear the sound of music then I begin to write a song as a soul of music If you don't love the sound of music then your soul will be unsung Because music can put life in to a dead man

The Struggle Of Life.....

The battle is not over, either the peace is not dead Between the struggle of life is a pain in the world The objects are not achieved either the struggle have brought triumph Between the two walls of hatred, life still found horrible
The games are played in the battlefield with human life while God is kept as an Umpire In the battlefield men grapple each other and die and bring glory for his country just for nothing We are human creature and our life is a great mystery
And day to day we are living with paralyzing fear Our life is so much of struggle without peace and sweeping with confused thoughts.
We travel different journeys with different paths Our journey is either short or long but never meant to stay for ever But during our stay we have to find a peace of life and it is only possible through the Kingdom of Heaven.

There Is A Pain In My Heart.....

Somewhere in my heart, there is a buried pain
Can not be shown to anyone whoever even cares for me I keep my feelings under wraps without showing my tears
With whom I can share my pain and ease my suffering
No one in this world will know what has stored deep in my heart Sometime in the night my pain awakens me from my sleep
And bring back my old memories from the hell of pain me more Life without life is like being in the dark Wondering why my life is not that fair Today live with hopes and tomorrow die with no hopes to see ☐ When life proves to be no simple goal then each pain is added to my heart Life is like an hourglass and there is an end to it So in our life there is an end to it but when God only knows!

There Is A Song In My Heart.....

There is a song in my heart and I want to sing it for you in the misty night No one will ever know what I have written for you because it has been written with my heart only for you Let us be alone when I sing my song for you and let the melody of my song echo in the sky I want our world to sleep deep when I sing for you then only my song will get into your heart softly My nights are not enough to love you nor my songs cannot be sung without you I sing with my heart to tell you how much I love you I sing with my soul to tell you how much I miss you My song will wipe your tears away and immerse my body into your arms for thirsting love These feelings of loving song come when I am only with you and let my love song, sing in your living heart forever

There Was A Boy And There Was A Girl.....

There was a boy and there was a girl
They lived together and sing like love birds Their songs are like a surging sea that roll over in our hearts many times

Where ever they go, there will be a song from them They could make you happy with their love songs or they could make you cry with their sad songs
But they will sing songs for you and me with their hearts

Where ever they go, there will be a crowd for them They could make you to dance with their love songs or they could make you to feel with their sad songs
But they will make happy you and me with their songs

Where ever they go, there will be a love from them They could make you fall love with their love songs or they could make you tear with their sad songs
But they will make fall you and me in love with their songs

There was a boy and there was a girl

They Are Great Firefighters.....

The firefighter's stories hold many sad memories
The lives that they save is immeasurable in value
They work round the clock to save the nation
And they do their best to protect us from tragedies When we see them going home from fighting fire they look exhaust and the smoke overwhelms them They are wonderful human beings who save lives from tragedy
And their strength of spirits lead them to do or die
They are always dedicated to their job and do their best Their determination to the nation keeps us safe When they leave home they carry prayers from their loved one's When they don't return their home is filled with their loved one's tears The firefighters are the brave people on earth and they risk their life for someone else happiness Because their heart is made of precious gold.

They Are Refugees In Their Own Country.....

No land for them to go. No body care them either They are known as refugees in their own country War brought uncertainty in their lives and made them to live in refugee camps forever They travel long distance along the road with their hand cart of chattels while their tears rolling over their eyes Parents are thinking about their children's future and children hate to see their parents suffering Many years have been gone and nothing has been done
The war is still going on without any improvement Because of our careless and adamant leadership the innocent people are still living in refugee camp They are victims of diseases, accidents, violence, poverty kidnaps, rapes and cruelties towards humanity Let us join together and save these innocent people from the hands of uncivilized people on earth.

Today, You Are Everything To Me.....

I love you not because what you are but also for your deep love and thoughts for me Your love fills my heart with meanings and bring my emotion melting in your arms When you are close to me then my worries disappear and exchange of our love makes my heart strong I didn't know the power of love until it showered from you and you made me to understand what is love and be loved Today, I am falling in love with you every single moment Your heart leads me to your thoughts and senses and tells me to tie my heart at night with yours When morning comes then I wake up with your thoughts and I recollect my dreams which I have buried with you Brings me a smile on my face and rushing to hold you and find my day is not enough to be with you in love Hope you will understand that I cannot live with out you and today you are everything to me.

Tsunami, The Killer Waves.....

When the news of tsunami came crashing to me my heart felt with sorrow and was reckless insane Unbearable to see our beautiful villages and towns were destroyed and left our dreams empty and drained Can we wash away our tears running down when the killer tsunami washed away our land Can we walk through the beach sand again where our loving children were taken away by tsunami Can we hold the sea moans its hunger and prey while stealing our souls in the depth of our loving hearts Can we put this blame on our Lord who is our saviour while arrogant ocean struck down us with flint Can we scold the nature that betrayed us while thousand of lives did claim Can we rise our lost loved ones again from the sea when the ocean became calm Is there neither any judgment nor courtrooms to argue but God knows that the nature has won

Twinkle, Twinkle All The Nights.....

When the bright sun is set in the sky
When the dew start to fall on the earth
Then the little stars are twinkling in the sky Still no one knows what they are But its illumination makes night bright as diamonds
So many songs have been sung for them
So many stories have been told about them
But all our imaginations are still sailing in the sky When our little children see them in the sky and they never fail to sing 'twinkle twinkle little star' Since they are bright and tiny spark lights traveller in the dark but they are known as larger than earth and distance is a lot Till the sun rise, twinkle twinkle all the nights.

My love onto you has no barrier to loving you It's a unconditional love to love you more and more Your unconditional love sets me free to dance with your heart and soul and keeps me an essential part to my existence in this world Once, you were stranger to me but my eyes never has failed to look at you either Days have been passed, our souls have indeed became one Your love become more purest and has given me with sweetest kisses onto my lips.
We have found our love so true and turn into unconditional love for us
Your heart cares me and your love always shares within me
We were brought together with unconditional love and never we will be a part Let our unconditional love continue to grow in our hearts

Until All Our Life Is Sailed Through.....

When the springtime comes then all the trees are green and supple So, I feel your love with freshness

When the summertime comes then all the sky is clear and blue So, I feel your love warm

When the Autumn time comes then all the leaves' colors are changed and drop So, I feel your love with blowing wind

When the wintertime comes then everywhere snow is falling down So, I feel your love cool

Oh my darling love me always until all our life is sailed through until you taught me and made me happy You have brought the meaning of love into my life Today I miss you so much with painful heart

I never forget your true love that showered on me No matter how far you are right now but nothing in this world can bring for me your love So much unconditional love you have given me
I wish I will be in your arms again and kiss you gently Lying beside you and touching you softly
When I close my eyes then I listen you heart beat
When I think of you then I see your smiling face
When I feel sad then I hear your words giving me strength
I want to walk with your shadow because I will not disappear
I want to whisper your name in the wind because it will echo

Always, praise the God and thank HIM for HIS beautiful creation

What Is Faith And Belief?

Although, we say that a man with faith can win the world without trouble But faith is believing something is not seen
We do exercise believe in faith everyday But believing in reality is more truth than faith We cannot see most things that we have faith even they are existing like a faith in God.
When we become lack of belief in ourselves then we become nothing but weakening in our soul Most of the people dream to have something and they want them to come true within their faith They don't want to achieve them through belief in reality.
Some think faith and belief are part of evolution
It is true that success in life need to have both faith and belief but belief is the way of searching for the truth or reality Faith is known as trust on something but absence of proof
But belief is built with knowledge and a reality is proofed.

What Made You To Think Me Want To Leave You?

Your question shattered my hopes and dreams broke my heart in two with your hard words.
How can you think that I want to leave you and run away
Is my endless love for you is dead or you want me to die I did everything possible to win your heart and shown you how much you mean to me and fall in your dreams
You don't trust me the way I trust you You don't feel comfortable with me and the way I do You don't think of our love the way I think of our life
All these days I treat our love and soul are one All these days I thought that without you no life for me
All these days I gave my unconditional love to you Tell me now. what made you to think me leaving you You think without you my life will be happy
You think without you my heart will be finding peace
You think without you my love will be bloom like flower Why my love, you kill me with your hard words Why my love, you bring doubt and worries on me Why my love, you don't understand my true love on you

When I Kneel Down To Pray.....

When I kneel down to pray then I only think of the God above us My both hands are stretched out wide and my eyes are closed when I pray for Him God, I know you are there for us therefore, I have no fear when I am close to you God. I know the prayers can not be answered unless they are prayed therefore, I have no strifes when I pray of you God, I know prayer brings my life worth living therefore, I have no worries when I follow your precious precepts God, I know the church gives me a shelter of peace therefore, I have no loneliness when I am under your shelter God, I know you will accept my prayers and bless me therefore, I have no more tears rolling on my eyes God, I know your mercy is everlasting and the truth lives on us therefore, I have no fail in my life when I choose your path to live.

My worries go away when I look at your eyes
My pains vanish when I look at your eyes
I can see the truth of love that lies on your eyes
I can see the faith of soul that holds on your eyes
I can see the warm of life that lives on your eyes Let me see my love through your eyes and this will make me feel that my life with you is great for ever.

When I See Your Tears.....

My heart beat stops inside my soul
When I see your tears falling from your eyes Your tears burn my heart with your bitter words and your weeping wound brings me sorrowful world You need healing for your weeping wound that's pain you and I am here to give you relieve from your pain with my love Like the cloud caressing an innocent bird in the sky
I will hold you tight in my heart and wipe your tears with love Weep not my love, for my heart will fall away from my soul
When I look at your tears then I make you comfortable and when I am alone then I think of your tears and cry Your heart may have many reasons to cry and feel sad but my heart is for you to find the happy words to tell you I love you so much and you know that I do Let make your tears of joy in my eyes with understanding love and allow me to feel the passion of love on your lips You mean the world to me, love you for ever

When I Walk Alone.....

When I walk alone, I think of you my love
When I walk alone, I walk with broken heart
When I walk alone, I walk with sadness
When I walk alone, I walk with my silent tears
When I walk alone, I walk with my sorrow
When I walk alone, I walk with my sad memories
When I walk alone, I walk with my shattered dream
When I walk alone, I walk with my hands lifeless Love never walk alone but you made me walk alone You promised me that you will walk with me forever but you made me walk alone with my tears forever
When the heaven stolen you from me yesterday
All your promises are gone with the wind Today, You made me walk alone with out you my love and I promise you, I will walk alone till my journey ends

When I Walk In The Rain.....

When I walk in the rain
Then I praise the nature for her goodness
I can see the tree leaves turning green like grass
I can see the flowers with bright colours
I can see the barren land gets wet with water

When I walk in the rain
Then I hear the roaring sound of thunder and lightening
I can see all birds on the trees sit quietly I can see no animals on the road walking I can see all the ponds gets filled with rain water

When I walk in the rain
Then I listen the wind whistling like a melody I can see all the trees dance to the tune of wind
I can see the rain water rushes down to the stream violently
I can see all the farmers are happy with their gain.

When I was with you
You treated me as a great friend
Even when I am missing you with all of my heart, I never forget you

When My Soul Loves Your Heart.....

I have your heart within me that keeps telling me love story every night

God has given us love as the best medicine to purify our hearts and soul with affections

When your heart and my soul touch each other then there is no room for sadness

When my eyes close for sleep then my soul awakes and kisses your heart

When your heart plays music with my soul then the melodies hover like nightingales

When your heart is longing for my love then my soul is belonging to beautiful nights

When my soul loves your heart

then its not only what your heart for but for what my soul lives with you heart

Ravi Sathasivam

When The Night Welcomes You And Me.....

When the night welcomes you and me
And another day is called for romantic evening Our love is shared with each other thoughts and always brings us as a special occasion

When the moonlight splashes in the dark while those stars spark like diamonds When the wind touches us with softy tune while the nights music just remain as right

I take you in my arms and hold you with hopes Together sharing our dreams to come true Your kisses are long and deep with heart and makes me to understand, you are mine forever

When The Rain Drops Fall On My Head...

When the rain drops fall on my head
Then I feel the greatness of the nature
When the heat on earth vaporized
Then the clouds above makes the rain

When the rain drops fall on my head
Then I see the farmers are full of cheers
When the rain water roll on the ground
Then all the barren lands turns to green

When the rain drops fall on my head
Then I see the rain water runs down the mountains
When the rain water preserved in the built dam
Then there is no poverty on the land

When the rain drops fall on my head
Then I know the God sends it for us
When we do not go against the nature
Then the rain drops fall on the earth for ever

When The Rain Pour.....

When the dark clouds cover the sky
When the storm roll on the sky
When the thunder roars in the sky
Let the rain pour from the heaven

When the flora blossom in the mountains
When the fauna dance in the jungles
When the valleys flows with rush water
Let the rain pour from the heaven

When the earth get wet with water
When the farmers smile for happiness
When the country flourish with food
Let the rain pour from the heaven

When Will I See You Again My Love? ...

When will I see you again my love
Days have gone and your presence is still absent
The pain is so deep in my heart without being with you I miss your sweet voice and not hearing your soft breath
There is no music of love or happiness here without you
The emptiness of darkness is built around in me Leaving nothing but your thoughts are in my heart
My soul can reach you where ever you are there But my love can not reach you unless you are close to me
My nights have made me wept and no one here to wipe my tears away
You are forever with me in my thoughts and my dreams
I am waiting here for your undying love Tell me my love, when will I see you again.

When Will It Be Begin Again?

I can remember the day I met you You spoke to me with true heart Your words brought me close to you We were very best friends from that day
Our friendships lead into fall love each other Then we were married under the shelter of God
We were wished and gifted by each and every one Our new life started with unforgettable memories
As a husband and wife we did well towards our family
We ran our house wonderfully and full of commitment We gave the best to our children in every aspect We watched them growing up with enthusiasm
Our children did their best in their studies and set free
We were witnessed when our children got married We showed them right path of life with love and care
We were enjoying with our grandchildren with full of fun
Now, you have left me alone and gone to the heaven Leaving me by the side of your grave yard with tears When will it be begin again? May be next birth

When Will We See Our Peaceful World Again?

When will we see our peaceful world again?
When will we see our people with smiles?
When will we see the freedom of all people?
Our present world is burning with lost for love
The crimes and destructions are dancing to the evil's tune God's anger and mother nature's disturbance cause this world to die day by day.
Innocent people are helplessly trying to protect their owned land with stone and strings from their enemies But they are gun downed to death without judgments Unwanted wars are spread all over the world and bring their nations to get hatred towards each others
The word of peace always has been written on the river and washed out into the ocean with blood Hope become hopeless and life become lifeless Having lost faith in heaven, turning the world into hell Let us pray to prevail peace in this world very soon

When You Touch Me.....

When you touch me, my heart beats at the sound of your love
I love the way you hold on me I can feel your warmth
When you hug me, my heart tells my soul that you are mine
When your lips touch my lips, my soul is in heaven
When I am in your arms, I hear nothing but your love beat When your arms wrapped around my shoulder then our love blossoms in like a new spring When you touch me in the places never touched, want to be a part of your life for ever When I put my heart in to your heart, its become a ever lasting soul
When you touch me, it secure my doubts and release my fears
When you touch me, I feel your presence when I am lost
When you touch me, I feel that you are there to heal my pain Without you and your love, there would not be a lasting love.

When Your Lips Touch My Lips.....

Your lips could make magic with my lips and teasing my lips with your groan love Prolonging the pleasure for as we love each other and my body is entangled with your love soul Your kisses could relieve my heart pain and bring the passions to grow inside me When we walk in the cool breeze in the night and you will become my possession to hold you tight Even the moon shower his blessing on us with sight and my gentle stroke never fail to make you flight My love for you is greater than infinity and my kisses are sending waves of delight through my lips Your eyes tell me of your hunger for my love and your groan voice make me to understand your desire Then my soul being to sing with pleasure

Where Do I Begin My Love For You...

Where do I begin my love for you My heart is a flame from a very strong feelings when I fall more in love with you I see my life is so cruel without being close to you I know Love is harder to accept than to give But I am sure you'll accept me unconditionally My darling, when you stay calm without no words my heart feel so lonely and hurts me so much How do I know your loving me or pretending you don't love me My heart is belongs to you only, the one true love in my life
The hardest thing about dream is to find your love for me
And love is strange thing that's leaves me alone without any destination Many sleepless nights brought my eyes red with a wet pillow
When I saw you, your eyes made me more attracted to you
When I talk to you, your smile makes me crazy for you
When I think of you, my heart made me to fall in love with you There's nothing I want more then to love you and be with you.
So darling, please break your silents and accept my love for you

Where Your Love Has Gone....

What I have done to you, tell me for you to run away from me I loved you and cared you so much You hurt my feelings and broken my heart I know you can not say why because my love for you is true You told so many nice things about me yesterday But why today you left me in tears and walked away
What I have done to you, tell me
When you hold me close
where your love has gone
When you walked along in the nights
where your love has gone
When you touched my lips
where your love has gone
Today you have erased everything from your heart and made me alone

Ravi Sathasivam

Because there is no love without you Till I met you there's loneliness in my heart But today your love changed my life to feel better
You have taught me the meaning of love
So, I have learned that love is to be loved by you I loved the dance of your eyes when you look at me
It tells me how much your love is cherished for me Oh, my darling you have touch my heart and awake up my soul

Ravi Sathasivam

Why My Love?

When I recollect my days with you I remember you and me sitting on the beach Holding our hands with love while sunset down I felt warm when I rest my head on your chest for a while I heard your heart saying me 'I love you'
I felt so good and I dreamed my future going to be filled with love
But following day you came with heart breaking story
I never thought your heart will become a nightmare for me
And your words are pierced in to my heart like a knife
How can you love someone when you hold my hands Don't you know how much loved you and cared you Your love and your words are so meant to me My tears from eyes will tell you how much I miss you You have given your heart to some one who you think love you more than me.
You can leave me but remember my tears never stop fall down my eyes for you and my heart never stop saying your name all the time.

Ravi Sathasivam

Why You Are Far Away From Me.....

The day I met you, you have touched my heart
And I pray God for our love will never end for ever.
Today, you are far away from me and left me alone Although, an ocean keep us apart thousand miles away but in my thoughts, you are always close to me
No matter how far you are or where you are but our love and affection are not far from each others Your loving words are still whispering in my ears Your heart touches every part of my soul Your love immerses me with wonderful feelings Everytime when I think of you the flame of my heart lights up Yes, the flame is specially for you. Because its true love My words speaks about how much I love you But my tears will show you how much I miss you Sitting with my cross legs on the shore of an ocean and waiting for your return.

Ravi Sathasivam

Why You Don'T Understand Me.....

I try to make you understand how much my true love on you but why you don't understand me
I try to make you understand my heart how much cry for you
but why you don't understand me
I try to make you understand how much I care for you
but why you don't understand me
I try to make you understand how much I need of you
but why you don't understand me
I try to make you understand how much I want to hold you tight
but why you don't understand me
I try to make you understand how much I need your hugs
but why you don't understand me Now you understand the love in my heart for you is more precious than gold and make me understand your love is true

Ravi Sathasivam

Why, You Have Stopped Talking To Me.....

There is a pain in my heart,
allowing me not to live long.
Because you have stopped talking to me
All these days I lived for you.
All the time, my heart beat only for you When your hands hold me tight and hugged then I melt into your arms with love.
Your kisses ran through my nerves and made my heart strong with my soul You made everything to fall deep into my heart and that made me to believe you are my life partner forever I thought our dream will come true, but without any reason you have stopped talking to me
I never thought that I will be crying with my feelings to the end My pain you can be lighten by talking to me again.
Ever since the day you have stopped talking to me, my heart kept me in reverie I will wait for you until the day ends for me and you will have my heart with tears.

Will My Wish Come True?

Ever since I met you, we lived like friends and our friendship was such can not be broken We grew up with lots of affection among us and that's lead us falling in love Today you mean so much to me I need your love like bees need honey and like flowers need sun and rain.
Even though we are living apart from each other my heart always keeps your memory lingering Never fear tomorrow what will happen to us but till today I live with your dreams.
Day by day our lives goes on as usual with or without our future but our love brings us fairy tale everyday My days pass with out you being near to me But you surrender in my arms while I dream
No one love me so much as you do and you are unique in many ways
You have accepted me as I am and fills your love forever
Now all I have to ask myself, will my wish come true?

Ravi Sathasivam

Without You, My Love Doesn'T Exist....

I need you when the night

I need you when the bright moon is sailing in the sky I need you when the cool breeze is touching my body I need you when the mountain are heavenly throwing its greenery I need you when the trees are dancing with the wind I need you when the water falls are touching my feet I need you when the nature surrounds and hugs me I need you when my heart is warming and calling for you Without you in my life love does not exist Come and drown in my heart and burn in my soul.

Ravi Sathasivam

Without You.....

Always feel alone, with out you Waiting alone in the darkness, with out you Walking in the rain, with out you I am nothing but a shadow, with out you What can I do, with out you I don't know how to live, with out you Life has been cruel at times, without you How can I have love, with out you How I will know true love, with out you When tomorrow starts, with out you When the sun rise and not find your love My eyes filled with tears with out you Don't leave me and go, for I will fall with out you.

Would You Fall In Love With Me?

Would you fall in love with me?

I need your love to make me strong

My arms are widely open to accommodate you in my heart

My words are not enough to express my love for you

Oh my love, remember is more than I say I love you

Would you fall in my love with me?

I need your hugs and kisses to make me filled with light

I dream of having someone to hold me

And when I found you then I found myself great by your side

Oh my love, remember is more than I say I love you

Would you fall in love with me?

I need your heart to understand my love for you

Your love is a treasure but I need your love

Because its only can give me to complete my life

You Are My Soul.....

You are my soul that gives me a light in to my heart
You shine my way to bring me back from darkness
I found my love entwined with yours in many ways
Now, I want you and aching to be near you You are my world that soaks me in to delight
I found your soul is my companion and guide Without your soul my life would have been meaningless Yes, there are nights I wake up and cry for you, because I want to immerse me in your arms to keep away my tears Our love is beautiful and known as one soul that's live forever
No matter what ever the consequence but my heart is only for you Even, after my death I will continue to love you I strongly believe that we shall live forever with our eternal life I could feel your soul within me and secret love held close in the night Together we are in one soul and nothing can tear us apart.

Your Shadow Is Your Beloved Wife.....

When you married your wife you have promised her to take care till you end Marriage is a fulfillment of dreams With these promised dreams she stepped in your house as a beautiful wife She held your hands with her dreams
She gave her heart to you with love and faith
She walked along with you when you had hard time She gave you everything what ever she had Today you made her dreams shuttered Today you made her heart suffer with pain of love Today you made her walk along with pain and struggle Today you made her eyes dim with salty tears Today Your unfaithfulness made her life miserable Today you live with out her love and shadow Today your heart is refusing to accept her as a wife But one day you will realize her value and her faithful love when you struggle with your pain and the agony that make you handicap.
On that day you will realize your wife is your shadow that holds on you
