i might not be the best in poem writing but i try and i enjoy it for me i find myself and express myself in poetry cause poetry to me is my peace and i am in a world of my own in poem writing i enter a world of my own were i have control of what ever seems to happen and how it happens because its my own world

Works:

none yet hoping to publish soon

a day like no other

Sitting alone with nothing to do
My thoughts I tend to set free
While my heart starts to long for you
And my body begins to wish you were right beside me

You being close to my side becomes my greatest wish
I than start to ponder for your gentle touch
My lips wanting your passionate kiss
As my ears listen for those three words that mean so much

For today seems to be a day like no other
Where all I seem to do is think of only you What tends to happen around me I have no bother?
As what you make m feel is my dream come true

yolandey breedt

A hearts song

In the silence of the night
Were the sky is lit up by the magical moon light
I listen to the music were heart and mind play to the same beat
It is there in my own world were you I meet

Longing just for one last passionate kiss
This seems to be my hearts lifetime wish
Missing that soft gently loving touch
With feelings that mean so much

Than warmly you pull me near Whispering softly you tell me no longer I need to fear
As the love we share is completely true
And my life will never be without you

Gently your lips lock with mine
And our hearts and souls entwine
Were we make that life time promise to be In the world of only you and me.

yolandey breedt

a lover's confession

In your eyes I find myself completely lost
Your gorgeous smile some how warms my heart
To you I'd give my life no matter what the cost
As long as no longer we so far apart

Close to I am longing to be
As a life without you I refuse to know
You truly are the better half of me
And every day my love for you tends to grow

With every gentle touch a greater desire
And each passionate kiss a granted wish
Where souls secretly begin to admire
As two bodies slowly and romantically start to entwine
When for sure I will steel anther kiss
Just to seal the deal when I make you only mine
And this my dear is a lover's true confession

A Special Moment

At night I lay in great wonder
As I feel my hearts longing
My thoughts filled of you in great ponder
For the desire of your loving…

Silently my heart beats to a new romance
As I allow my feelings to take a chance
To allow a different kind of love
That is sent on an angel wings from heaven above

As I lay wondrously by your side
Were the passion of feelings abide Tenderly a magical world I enter
Where everything is sweet and tender
Than softly I whisper to you My hearts song that seems to be true

yolandey breedt

A World Of Wonder

What world do you find yourself in?
Where can one begin?

Is your world full of worry and stress?
Were you find everything a complete mess

Can your world be one of only sorrow and pain?
As for some reason you find nothing to gain

Or is your world full of greatness and wonder
That makes your life filled with only fonder

So what world you living in
In which world do you choose t begin

Well for me I'm in a world of my own
A world of wonder

yolandey breedt

announced fate

My eyes filled with a different fire
As my heart grows with an unknown desire
Possessed by mixed emotions
Giving into all the true devotions

As I start expressing all my fears
With the cost of unseen tears
While I realize this battle I have lost
Softly I lay down now
For some reason death announced my vow

Gently some how I close my eyes
As I accepted my decided fate
While my soul on angel’s wings flies
And I have taken my last breathe
My body alone on the soil lies
As I come to know a life I once lived

Than as the wind blows
Like dust i disappear

Broke

Laughter and love
Happiness and hope
All filled a heart once made of gold....
Trust and respect
Guidance and care
All
 Lived in this place we once called home

Now threes
 Silence and ponder
As we wake alone
Hunger and loneliness
As the laughter is gone

All we had now suddenly gone
Our house...our hearts...
Abandoned....broke
Weariness now fills us all
For the one who filled our souls...
Who took us in when we had nowhere to go...?

Now threes empty halls
Were so alone...
Our house...our home...
Abandoned.....broke

But the memories are stained Pressed into stone
Can never be erased.....
Our house our home was once full....
Has spirit lives, as his Soul moves on *

OUR HEARTS....our home
Will forever stay strong*

yolandey breedt

cold is the soul alone

Cold is the soul
As her body lay stiff
Bare and alone
As she’s abandoned all of her once known strength...

Broken and lost
Wounds can’t be repaired
As the girl once known
Is now forgotten
In the aching cold mist...

Numb to the core
Fingers lost, wrists slit
Eyes aware but turned to stone
As she lay there dead
Beaten and all alone...

Night wind howling
The forest no home
Cold is the soul
Bare and alone...

dead is my love

Long has it been forgotten!
A life of passion and romance and passion I once knew
Were love magically grew
And never was there a dull moment

But now no longer are my eyes filled with desire
When I see a guy I dream about
Now my heart no longer burns like an undying fire
How could I all of a sudden grow so cold?

Were did I go wrong
Was it all the pain I've been through?
Or was it all those that I caused pain
Why is that feeling I once knew gone

Is it normal am I the one to blame
Am I the loser in this love game!
I need to know it's driving me insane
Can romance and passion really fade away?

Oh how I long to feel that love again
With every passionate kiss a granted wish
How I desire to feel that forgotten love I knew Where I felt loved each and every day

And passion and romance filled my soul and heart
As a love between two people kept on growing strong
And nothing could ever take them apart
How I miss all of that as now dead is my feeling of love.

destiny

Light of my life,
So calm and peaceful in every way,
Magically full of faith and hope you tend to strive,
Making a fresh new start to the dawn of each day,
Gently luck you send a pone angels wings,
Giving me the strength & courage to keep me going strong,
Taking hold of all the unbreakable strings,
Balancing equally all the right and all the wrong,
Wonderfully close to me you choose to be,
Lady destiny is what I call you.

yolandey breedt

Emotion

As our eyes passionately meet,
For a moment as one our hearts beat,
And the world magically fades away
Were all our problems tend to go astray,
That loving smile you have somehow completes me
Allowing me to set my feelings free
Somehow in all you do
Makes me realize I've fallen for you.

fire of anger

Deep inside of me a fire of anger burns
 This fire of anger yearns

This fire of anger is my shield
It’s become my daily need

It’s making my heart and soul bleed
This fire of anger has taken over all of me

It’s slowly becoming my desire
Keeping my mind burning like fire

It’s that voice inside me that just wants to scream
This fire of anger is haunting my every dream

It’s like a deep secret hidden, unknown, unknown one I can’t seem to find Making all I once felt, trusted and loved slowly fade away

yolandey breedt

If Only

if only i knew what your mind was saying and understood what your heart was feeling than i would not have to look into your eyes and wonder if you feel what i do i may not know what i wish i knew as you leave me constantly fighting with all the voices in my head and all the emotions in my heart that keeps me wondering if only if only if only if only i really knew what you were feeling

In a moment of nature

I walk through the stillness of the valley
With the wind brushing gently through my hair
In my surroundings natures magical sounds I hear
And silenced is my hearts deepest fear
In my soul I sense peace taking over me
As through new views natures beauty I see

As I continue in the stillness
My mind begins to wonder to a world I call my own
Were the winds whispers softly in my ears?
And all natures' songs can be heard
It is there were I find my true self
And magically for a moment all my troubles fade

Life

Life has a strange way to make you learn
As there’s always something your heart tends to yearn Sometimes all you desire long for & dream
Will keep you swimming up a river stream
Yet every day is a fresh new start
And yet it goes by so fast like the beat of a heart
Life is full of ups and downs
It’s what you make of it that counts,
What you choose to do,
Give or take will, make or break you
So enjoy life take it day by day
As you’ll never know if tomorrow ever comes.

yolandey breedt

Loving only you

The magical color of your eyes
The romance in every kiss
Giving me a stomach filled with butterflies
Granting my every wish

The gentleness of your touch
The passionate way of making love
With feelings that mean so much
Making me believe you were sent from heaven above

The comfort of you holding me
With a love that feels so strong Making two people meant to be
In a world were nothing can go wrong

A life time we share
Till death do us apart
With so little time to spare
With you forever in my heart

A promise I make
All these feelings are true
Nothing I intend to fake
As I truly love you.

My ambition

My ambition in all I do take it on with pride
NO MATTER WHAT LIFE GIVES OUT TO ME OR HOW HARD IT MAYBE I ENJOY THE RIDE
While we will NEVER KNOW IF TOMORROW WILL EVER Come
Today is the day I take flight and Soar in the sky like Falcon

As I start to walk on my path of great freedom Forgetting what my past may hold
Remembering that my life is more valuable than any Dime or gold
Finally I know my true ambition and I set it free

As I recognize the deep and true person I can be With pride upon my heart I announce the real me
ALWAYS GOING OUT OF MY WAY GIVING MY BEST IN ALL I DO
Keeping in control if anything should happen to me or you

But preventing whatever maybe as well as I know
As envious people in my own world start to grow
To me those people can bring no harm
Because of my own way to magically charm

My Dad

You are a wonderful dad
And my best friend
Even though at times you make me very mad
I know for me you'd fight till the end

At times it may seem I never listen to what you say
You never seemed to give up on me
Your words of wisdom always put me on the right way
And you've taught me from girl to what a woman should be

I might of used these words very few
But my dad I want you to know I really do love you

yolandey breedt

my stupid poem

Sexy I may never be
But that’s something that’s never bothered me

My mind in tune! YEAH RIGHT!
As I don’t go out to pick a fight

Looks I might never have
But as for personality, YES MAKES ME BRAVE!

To take a chance in all I do, MMMMM!
Well it’s worked because that’s why I still have you

If you like call me miss way to silly
As this poem is how I found my sweet heart Billy

yolandey breedt

secrets

We live in two different worlds
But together our worlds become one
Those around us don’t understand
Because we have our own language

Even though our words are few
In our eyes are endless stories
Our actions are different
But our minds keep the same secrets

Although we are two different people
Our hearts beat to the same melody
We have different desires
But we share the same dream

To feel and understand that special emotion we call love
So we can share it with that one special person in our life
Who understands everything about us the good and the bad?
And who will never give up on what we built together

yolandey breedt

Short messages

As you lay peacefully asleep in a magical place
U tend to dream I send the kisses
Of the angels on the wings of a dove
To protect and cover you with all my love
Take care sweet dreams
& remember I will love you always

In your eyes I find my strength to get up each new Day to take on every new challenge that comes my way
In your touch I find my reason for giving love
A second chance with all my words that Mean so much in every passionate kiss
I find my everlasting wish
You mean the world to me
So I know our love is meant to be

Angels from heaven above
Sending kisses & hugs on the wings of doves
Protecting all those that I truly love
Guiding them from wrong 2 right
Watching over their every move
Reminding them every day
That to me they mean the world
Making sure they always know How special they truly are So thank u angels I appreciate your help
These people dear to me & deep in my heart
Are the ones I love & can’t live without?

Still In The Darkness I Lay

As I lay silently in the darkness
I enter a world of the unknown
Around me I hear that silent song
Were a love is slowly grown

As passion fulfills my every desire
Silent is my song silent is my song
As deep within me I'm warmed by a calming fire
As I feel your gentle touch

Gently in my ears you whisper soothing words
And so my song become my hearts melody
Were I find myself lost in a world of you and me
As I begin to build you as part of my life's remedy

Silent is my song silent is my song
As you become my every dream come true
Were I lay still in the darkness
Constantly thinking of only you.

The Unanswered Question

When you look at me
What do you truly see?
Am I the one roaming your every fantasy?
Or am I the one who will never be!

Do I some how fulfill your every need
Or do you see me as the desire to your greed,
In some way do I complete you?
Am I the person you can't see through?

Can I be the friend you trust?
Or do you look at me with eyes of lust?
Was I the reason for your dream come true?
Do you see me as the one who will break your heart in two?

So tell me what do you see?
How can you set your emotions free?
Can I be your first passionate kiss?
To grant your every wish

Am I that hidden desire?
Willing to make your heart beat like a deadly fire
Awakening a new type of passion and romance
Being that taken and given chance

Once again when you look at me
What can you truly be?
So ends the question
Of a hearts unknown confession!

Thoughts of you

Every day that goes by There’s not a single dull moment with you
You’ve become my daily strength
Because of all the silly things you do

Somehow you bring out the best in me
Your magical smile becomes my emotional comfort Teaching me the way life should be
Your name beating strongly in my heart

Not a moment goes by without you in my thoughts
Slowly you become my only desire
In your eyes I see a world where we secretly meet
Were the passion of us is burning like a everlasting fire

My life without you I never want to know
As you are that one person I have been waiting for Sent to me by the Gods above
Put on this earth for me to always love

yolandey breedt

When you are no more

When my eyes are shut
I still tend to see your face
Where my body is dead
Your touch is still well known
As you begin to fade away
Your smell still surrounds me

As my mind is filled only with your memory
Deep in my heart your legacy still lives
Though you are no more
Apart of you still embrace strongly
You may be out of sight
But I know you are always there watching over us

I know you finally found your peace
You put up a good fight
You are dearly missed
But it’s ok we will be just fine
So enjoy your world of paradise
Rest assured you’ll always be remembered for all your greatness

yolandey breedt

Who am I?

I am the 1st sunshine that kisses your check
I am the annoying head ache that never goes away
I am the pleasure of the bite in your favorite junk food
I am the reason for your every mood
I am the unsung melody of you hearts song
I am the scale that balances your right and your wrong
I am the unknown person haunting your dreams
I am that voice inside you that wants to scream
I am the wound that never heals; I am the scare that never fades
I am every part of you
I am who I am, I am me!

Wonderous Is The Rain

Gentle is the rain
As it softly falls
Calm is the earth
As its thirst is met
By the sweetness of the rain drops
That it hungered for so long
Satisfied is Mother Nature
As once again she is brought to life
And her beauty becomes once again known
Were the magic of her ways are well grown
And enjoyed by so many

Wonderful is the rain as it falls
Like a forgotten romance
Were love is given a greater chance
And the hunger for passion is discovered
As two bodies warmly unclothed entwine
That’s when two souls make that promise
To forever allow two hearts to beat as one
Magical is the sound of the rain
Silent is the world as the rain falls
Not a single person to be found
All is well and calm as the rain softly falls.

Words Of A Mother

Your faces as pure as heavens angels
Your smiles that take away all the bad
In your eyes I find peace and never feel sad
As the pleasure of you in my life brings only joy

You and your brother complete my life entirely
Giving me the strength to take on each new day
My life has changed I am well aware of
But to me I would not have it any other way

The wonders and purity that shines in you
Makes me believe in a life that's true
The joy you have when you see me
Those magical kisses you give set me free

Every day that goes by how wonderful you tend to grow
My life without you I can never know
You and your brother to me are my dear angels from above
Given to me to always protect and never stop to love

Making this my life time vow
To take good care of you till my very last breathe
Yes my babies I mean till my death
Mommy will always love you no matter what I promise Always remember that these are the words of a mother.
