A Bank Teller Name Crystal

When I go to the bank
My heart throbs
My heart beats fast
When I see a teller Whose name is Crystal When I want to get some money
She is sweeter than honey When I deposit some cash
I get the transaction so fast With a beautiful smile and radiance on her face
She has delightful presence Who is she?
You know!
You guessed it right Cheerful Crystal!

Adam and Eve Apple Fantasy

I am bored Adam
I am bored Eve
Let's walk together in the garden
It is afternoon Adam
It is afternoon Eve
Our tummies are empty Let's have something to eat
It is beautiful garden of Eden How wonderful the fruit trees!
Adam look honey
This beautiful Apple tree
No Eve this is the knowledge tree Look Eve there is sign in the sky Can't you see?
Lord command 'Don't eat from the apple tree'
Ha Ha Ha
Who is that?
I am serpent of the garden
Listen Adam
Listen Eve Go pick the big apple from the tree Adam my honey
Do you hear me?
My stomach is aching go get me this delicious apple Eve I would not disobey the Lord
Oh Adam
Oh Honey
Ooh Adam
Ooh Eve Something happened after we ate the apple Go Adam get some Fig leaves Adam Let's rest under the shaded tree Adam let's have babies

Albert Einstein Dreams

The great scientist Albert Einstein
Born in the land of river Rheine He dreamed to live in peace harmony In this great land of Germany
There was some turmoil that took place Adolph Hitler came along at fast pace
He rose quickly and seized power
He declared himself as fuehrer Albert Einstein fled to Austria
He worked at patent office in Vienna Scientific enquiries was his passion
He thought to combine rules of nature in some fashion
He introduced the theory of relativity Master piece of physics and mathematical complexity
He came up with a famous equation Tying mass, energy and speed of light in simple relation It can bring humanity to salvation or nuclear war annihilation

Apples Eia Eia Ooh

Sir Isaac Newton ate an apple
Eia, eia oh
The apple was yummi it filled his tummy
Eia, eia oh
Sir Isaac Newton said with all certainty
The apple fell because of nature force
He called it gravity
Eia, eia oh
Adam and Eve walked in the garden
They ate an apple from the tree
Eia, eia oh
What happened after that is for me and you to wonder?
ponder? and enquire?
Eia, eia oh
Robin Hood shot the apple Straight with an arrow
Eia, eia oh
He stole from the rich and gave to the poor
He felt no sorrow
His exploits were legendary
Eia, eia oh
Robin Hood stories always told Yesterday, today and tomorrow Some admire and some abhore
Eia, eia oh
Dr. Jolly Beans of Sweden Gave his patients advice Eating an apple a day Will keep the sickness away
Eia, eia oh
Old granny cooked apples She made hot cider and gave it to snowman
Eia, eia oh

Are You Buying me a Dress or a Diamond Ring?

Love is a game
Everybody has an aim Come Kiss me honey I am your beautiful bunny oh sweet darling Are you buying me a dress or diamond ring I love you and you love me Come sit on the couch
Do not be shy Come closer Touch me as you wish Act like big boy But gentleman Remember there is Some boundaries and some limits So come for romance for some fun
And tell me baby Are you buying me a fancy dress or a diamond ring?

To your garden
To our pleasure

Autumn Months

The Autumn Months
The month of September lazily have arrived and soon will roll by the autumn will be crowned with great splendor when nature splashes its beauty like bride at the wedding night the colorful foliage will be in panoramic display There will be trees that shed their leaves like hot tears saying farewell to the summer months it is the year life cycle that revolves like a carousel in an amusement park we are going for a ride

Before You Go Away

Kiss me good bye Rekindle the love that once touched our hearts Gaze at my eyes Bring the memories of time passed When songs of happiness played on the harp
The memory of love that swept us like the waves of the ocean
The love that nourished our souls
The love that was adorned by roses and flowers So before you go away give me a kiss give me a hug Shake my hand and say good bye

Careful Falling in Love

Don't fall in love and get hurt
Be vigilant and resist
It is easy to fall in love
It may not be easy to get up again
You may be caught like fish in the net Swim far, swim fast
Don't be trapped
Be careful and make right decisions But foremost don't rush and regret

sherif monem

Cast Your Sorrows Away

Do not let your sorrows hamper your way
There will be sunshine tomorrow When the clouds of darkness fade away
There will be happy days Songs and dances Cheers and glances
The roses will smile at you
The birds in the sky will sing for you Do not have grimaces Wipe the sadness on your face Because tomorrow will be a beautiful day

Change

Change
There is beginning
And there is end
There is day, there is night
There is moment of birth
There is moment of death Nothing ever, ever certain Nothing will remain
It is mystery of nature
It is mystery of universe Nothing will last forever
This may bring happiness
This may bring sadness This is the story ever told Read the books of history Look around you Have anything never changed?

Chocolate for lovers Chocolate for you Chocolate is sweet

Lose my senses
Just thinking of you So enjoy the chocolate Wrapped with love for you

Close the door

Close the door after me I will not be coming back again I will be traveling in a world of unknown Flying in darkness
I can' t see My senses will be numb
I will be sinking in oceans
I will revive and float again
I will be twisted around Vanish in the space
I will not be coming home again

sherif monem

Cold Winter Night

It is cold, cold, cold
As you imagine it can be There is no sun
The blanket of darkness hangs in the air
The thick clouds hug the skies above
The chilly air fiercely blows
One feels numb
No hot summer nights
No spring and flowers
No autumn crispy nights
No birds singing and cheering
It is winter night
It is the cold winter season

sherif monem

Cry Hubby Cry

Cry, cry and cry Cry, cry darling

Turn your back

Dance Waltz With Me

Let us listen to The music melodies of the blue Danube
Holding hands in hand swirling around across the ballroom floor Let's have fast footsteps and delightful tab Let's listen to the clarinets and flutes to the wondrous tunes filling our hearts Let's float with the music and dream We are on boat streaming down the river

sherif monem

Dancing in the Moon Light

Dance, love and romance
Turn the music and let's dance Pour the Champagne in the glass
The moon is singing a serenade Listen to the music melodies and the happy tunes Hold your partner closer Float around and tap your feet Follow the music soft beat Wake up dreams Look at the silver bright moon the lucky diamond stars The panorama lights lightening the dark skies feel the night chill the cool breeze Dance bit closer feel your partner body warmth
to the late hours of the night and the wee hours of the morning Let the joyful time rolls Hope it never ends

sherif monem

Darkened Dreams

My dreams had darkened
There is anger
There is pain
Let me drink the cup of sorrow Let me feel the bitter taste
The hurt that still lingers
The wounds that did not heal
I can't do anything about it
I Just get consumed
In a flash
I wish I vanish
In a flash
I wish I disappear

Darwin

Darwin was cool dude
He believed monkeys are our cousins
We have common ancestors Millions of years ago
He explained surprisingly All species came about through evolution It was a  revolutionary idea it brought tremendous protests
The clergy did not like it a bit They fought it with tooth and nail
To our days this brings controversy Some have accepted heartedly Other sneer at it They swear by God it is false and a heresy

Day At The Beach

Mimi is my Lolli-pop sweet heart Me and Mimi will never set apart
We spend the day on the beach

The sky is bright and blue
The Sea is sparkling azure
As far as your eyes can see

Mimi is dressed in pink bikini
Oh' teeny weeny

Mimi is a melody a song of happiness and cheer
We run together holding hands

We twirl around and fall on the sand

We get closer exchanging hugs smooches and kisses laughs and whispers time passes lovely as fairy tales

The Birds fly in flocks Watching over happily flapping wings singing and swinging

How beautiful it is

Deep of The Night

When deep of the night you have lost sleep Are you thinking of me?
Does your feeling in love have took hold of you?
Do you feel awakening from bed and calling me?
Do you wish to fall asleep but you can't?
Wait before the day twilight's you will feel exhausted and you fall asleep
At the morning rise I will call you awakening you from your dreams and just say 'I love you too'

Divorce it is Over

Divorce is the end of it
The right decision
It is blessing
No more misery no abuse
You are now free
The shackles of despair broken
You are looking for new life You fulfilled your obligation You raised a family
Now the time to go Love have been long lost
There is no more communication Your spouse shows hatred Your spouse shows disrespect
The happy times are distant far away Lost in the realities of the day Now look around You will find a new love Life is short
It is not to waste
It is treasure
Don’t look back Look forward For new life you will embrace

sherif monem

Do Not Cheat on Me

I give you my love
I fulfill your desire I give you comfort when you are tired I open my arms to you when you need me
You are jewel of my heart Love me sincerely Love me abundantly
But don't cheat on me Don't drift
Don't go stray
My love will not be forever Fight your temptation
I am here for you
But I will be gone
If you follow your whims and cheat on me

Do You Really Love Me?

I wonder do you really love me
I wonder do you really care
In your eyes lays a mystery
My eyes can't see
In your heart there is a secret
I wish you reveal
When you giggle
I am swept by wonderment
In oceans so deep Please tell me
So simple and sweet
Do you really love me?
Do you really care?

Dreams Come and Go

Dreams flirting in my heart Dreams flirting in my soul They hold me
When I see the garden of roses
They tease me
When I see the mountain highs When I see the blue skies
They visit me When I see the ocean's waves rushing to the shore Dreams sound in my ears
When I see the birds singing Flapping around the bushes and trees Dreams come and go abound
When I see the beauty in the world
I feel it,
I cherish it When  joy of life overwhelms me and captures my being

Eroica, Eroica, Eroica

Beethoven Third Symphony
A Beethoven master piece
The First Movement
The music starts softly and sweet Picks soon with full force In charm awakening
With the orchestra in full display Loud with majestic power
We are overwhelmed
No place to go
We are exhausted
He relieves us now
With soft melody that follows
He has master command
The music comes quick in flurry with persistent repetition
We are whipped with emotions
The music comes back again and again In fresh successive succession Like a boy coming hurriedly in the field
The tunes comes back Haunting us in familiar rhythm
It is over and over again Filling and nourishing our soul
Some sound comes again
From far away Like someone we knew Calling us softly, Gently and beautifully Racing and touching our heart
The old familiar tune Comes back and back again Teasing us
With power
Hurriedly closing on us
The music casts some sadness
The familiar tune comes back Full of charm

Second Movement
A faint sad sound
So sad
Like funeral procession
The same tune comes back dressed in sadness
Revival the music comes strong

Third Movement

The old tune revives back In full force with energy

With tunes of warning and destiny Some sadness tunes Goes deep in our hearts Crushing us Dwelling in us again Mercy

Fourth Movement
The movement with so elegance In a while So Happy tune finally appears A relieve The tune comes back again
In happy setting
It is getting louder
And majestic
A new tune Taking us by surprise
The tune dominating all We are taken to the wilderness in Now where we go
We need guidance
Nibbling music
The music has died out
The faint tune in the back ground Oh revived a hurried tune it comes back all in force, strong oh the main theme bringing joy the music instruments bring announcement talking to us in language we do not understand then it is all beginning same thing all again
to a loved tune strange change of music curious steps like a sleuth and echoing drum beats as the end nears very joyful music comes along to wipe the stress of past harsh suspense tunes the music crashing

the trumpets are loud the old tune comes teasing us like flute in prairie Mysterious tune
Like the awakening of the morning
So melodious and deep Going fast like streaming river And there is The calmness of early morning
What we expect Leaving us in expectation
The orchestra in full force
The repercussion instruments In control
The French horn Angry music comes in warning
A new tune born tune Sad melody
Music comes like small wavelets in the ocean
The old tempo Comes back in hurry and energetic Like celebration
Like walking in the woods Beautiful soft tune
It is all over
The symphony in all power

Exit

I reached the end of the road
The flickers of the past enters my mind
It was a great life
I passed the obstacles
I fulfilled the dreams
There were hardships
There was time of agony
It was not all bad
There were moments of happiness
There were moments of joy
It looks the road I passed has been long What remains seems short
When I exist?
I would not know?
All what I know is to say good bye
To say I wish everybody well

Fell In Love With Three Women

II am in love Love with three women Everyone has reason to love Love twisting my heart
The pain and sorrow do not go away
It is unbearable
I Have to pick one woman
There is great confusion
So what is the solution?
I was not careful When I ventured into the game of love I thought the love of three women would not stick I blame it on my foolish heart that fell in the three women trick

sherif monem

Field of Roses

Roses in the Field
Swing, swing in vanity Oh queens of beauty and gaiety Sing, sing together in chorus
The song of love and emotions

Fighting Death

Life is all about fighting death
It is an amazing game
That has familiar end Strive hard to delay the fate Be healthy and follow the rules
Do your exercise
Jog and go on the tread mill Eat healthy food Vegetables and fruits
You can have meat to your heart desires Abstain if you are veggie No much cookies, cake and doughnuts Do not scream for ice cream
You can have a scoop or two Enjoy the opposite sex
With all the trappings and pleasures Life does not need to be mundane and drab Be careful and follow
The right religion
So when you meet your creator
You will go to heaven
And not get pushed to You know? hell
If you believe in cosmos Pray that you will cruise Safely in space
And not get sucked
Into a black hole

Going to Meknes For Asmae

Hillary Clinton Ambition

Hillary what great ambition
She wanted to be POTUS of the nation
She dreamed to be president
She ran grueling campaign
She knocked opponents in succession
She met finally with one remaining hurdle
A tough guy from her city of Chicago
His name Barack Obama They ran neck to neck for a while His slogan was 'Yes We Can'
He mesmerized the crowds
As the race progressed
He streaked ahead
He won the race
He won the prize Hillary Clinton had her place In history books
Her name will be engraved As the first lady Who almost reached the top

sherif monem

Hitler Story of Terror

Hitler his name was tied To the twentieth century
He was the ruler of Germany Risen at times of anarchy
He caused great wars and horrors
Lot of killings, mayhem and devastation Germany was strong industrial base Excelled and became super power Hitler intent was to conquer
He invaded peaceful nations Poland close neighbor caught his attention Poland territory was seized Britain and France soon reacted They gave Hitler an ultimatum Get out in 24 hours or we will declare war Hitler was in a mess
He relied on his foreign minister advice Britain and France will stay aside They are weak and will not dare How foolish and fool he was!
Hitler ignored and acted stubborn Day after the spark of WW II was ignited Britain and France declared war Events followed in a hurry One country after another fell victim Alas mighty German armies marched through Europe Some countries resisted some countries surrendered Hitler had no limits to satisfy him Hitler attacked the Soviet Union
He though it is easy fish to swallow Years passed and many battles were fought Millions of people were killed through Europe Homes, towns and cities were burned Flames of fires went higher and higher Hitler did not flinch Hitler did not care
He detested humanity Things at last turned around His armies were defeated at the eastern front Million and more of his army was captured
The Soviet Union gave them blow after blow They German army lost battle after battle
They started retreating
The Americans got involved directly At Normandy the allied troops landed Nazi Germany total defeat was near In May 1945 it was all over The city of Berlin was sliced and captured Hitler had no place to run
He contemplated suicide

He shot himself with a pistol Eva Braun the ever female companion
Ended her life with cyanide capsule Their corpses were soon after burned In the grounds of the chancellery buried A dark chapter of humanity ended Another page of agonizing human history written

Hold Me Tighter

Throw your arms around me firm and tight Let's touch cheek to cheek Whisper sweet words of love all we utter and speak Release me and let me be free try to catch me hiding behind the bushes and behind the trees
I will run farther Try to catch me little be harder
I will lay down near the lake we will rest and enjoy the breeze Come over Get closer Hold me tight back again kiss me softly Whisper words of love softly in my ears

Honey Did You Tell Me The Truth

Before you married me Did you say everything the truth?
Is it too late now if you had lied to me?
You said your ex- you left her because she cheated on you!
Is this really true?
I am faithful to you
You said you will work hard
You will make lot of money Now your pay check does not stretch
It does not last to the end of the week Before you married you promised to finish your education Study and get the college degree now you come home sit on the couch and watch TV So what else you had promised? be truthful
Did you lie to me?

Human Race Long Journey

The human race is continuum that keeps going New generations keep born Other generations are gone
The human race has long history It is amazing where it came from?
From hardship survival living Fighting nature and perils to advance societies and conquering space
The story of human race is remarkable It is driven by sense of bond, intrigue and discovery facing worries and solving mysteries The human race early living history was meager and primitive living in wilderness and caves facing dangers and threatened by wild beasts The final outcome, the human race triumphed achieved dominance and ruled the world
It was never easy journey or fair sail Progress did not come all of sudden It took thousands and thousands of years for advance few steps Hunger and disease took their toll Forces of nature brought havoc Storms, thunders, lightning and drenching rain, Gail,  wind and mighty quakes brought panic, horror and fear As the people settled around the valleys and plains cities, towns and societies were formed Tribal and nations eventually went to wars Atrocities, killings and massacres were sad order of the day Religion came along Trying to explain the mystery of our existence
It brought along mix of peace and destruction
The story of human race has not near finished With billions of people now living Nobody knows what tomorrow will bring?
New challenges every day arise What successes will lay ahead?
for the never ending new generations to tell tell me your wish II will fly like butterfly Landing near you

I am Lonely

The days are long
The nights are dark
I am lonely at heart
I am at home alone

Watching the clock
No friends
No company
No one knocks on the door

I gaze at the sky
I look through the window For the birds to sing to cheer my soul

The pages of life flipped one by one My loved ones have departed
I am harvesting the pain

sherif monem

I am Sorry Darling

Went back home

sherif monem

I Feel Falling In Love

I feel  I am falling in love
You are in my mind all the time
There is something called love fever
When I loose sleep about you all night When your image flirts and follows
When I miss sourly your presence
When I yearn to be with you every moment When the thoughts of your laughter rings in my ears Your smiles and cheers

So happily forever

I have abandoned my love to you

No suffering, no sorrow, no pain
No summer wind and no pouring rain My love to you is not reciprocal I will not bow down

Without Kristi
There are darkness fills my heart Kristy brings me joy

I love you unconditionally
So you know
I will have the sign for you Every place you go
I will have it Even if I go to Tibet or mountain Everest
So I love you
And you remember that Any place you go

I Surrendered my heart to you

Cherish it and be faithful to me Do not fool around
Be like straight arrow

Guard your eyes
Do not go stray Watching other women and flirt God of love Cupid is keeping track of you You misbehave
He will give my heart back to me

Jenny, Jenny, Jenny
Honey, honey and honey Jenny is sweeter, sweeter than flavored ice cream she is chocolate and vanilla kissed together Taste it and feel a million Jenny is rose in the garden Budded between lilies and flowers Jenny is the song of my heart Played with melodious harp I gaze in her beautiful face,
I feel joy, joy and all sadness disappears with no trace

What am I?
Jiji is hunting my heart Arrows of love thrown at me I run but I fall on my knees JiJi hear my sigh and plea
I want to sing
I want to be free
Oh your last arrow has landed I am in the field of love stranded Jiji come closer and see I am in your love nest trapped
I have been captured In your arms I will surrender

The day is bright
The angels I can see My heart is dancing
My breath is sweltering

Joy of Life

It can be a reality
Some may feel it
Some may miss it Joy of life is wonderful to experience This may be the locomotive That propels you in the journey of life It makes happiness enshrined in your days It may make you feel you want to live forever
There are others Who may have some
Their pain lingers
So joy of life
and one wish
cherish it someday

the falling rain

we whisper love Kissing in the rain

I met a lovely rose She smiled and said 'good morning'
I said how wonderful charm you have!
She danced and said 'come nearer'
I said how beautiful fragrance you have!
She said 'come touch me my dear'
I said 'oh how beautiful touch you have'.
She said 'hug me, I am lonely'.
I picked her from the branch
She said 'oh you killed me darling'
The dew on her petal was her tears
I sighed 'no what I have done'.
'Wipe your misty eye's'
''The lives of roses are too short'
I looked at her kissed her hugged her and said 'good bye'

Tapping on the window

The lights in the room flickering
The wild animals howling
I want to run
I want escape
The door is locked I am stuck

Is it bad a dream?
Am I hallucinating?

Makes the flame get hotter
The way you giggle adds fuel to the fire
I am full of desire I ask for mercy and have kisses
To cool the fire
Hugs that will extinguish the fire

Life is a mystery
and we may never will for our existence depended on it
when life began?
How long ago?
to find the ever elusive answer
a precious stone in the vast desert
Life began
Before Adam and Eve
In lush garden with fruits and trees Ages and ages ago
Desolate, sad and there was no life Life began in the deep oceans or in land There come the shrubs and bushes
The animals and beasts arrived
The fish of all sorts
The birds roaming the sky How proud we humans?
We are here celebrating our triumphal spectacular journey with all vanity and pride

sherif monem

Nature Love

When the sun sets and says farewell for the day
gather obscuring the night stars
batters the soul
the elusive quietness about to change A mighty loud thunder rocks the ground the heavy rain pours from the sky the rain bangs on the windows slams the roof the arcs of light illuminate the dark skies the serenity of the place has shattered
a night drama
when the nature fury withers the morning will come soon

Murmuring and scorching Ghosts came from the earth

The good ones were escorted by angels
The misdeed ones were gathered by demons

It is another cold day of winter
The snow is falling every where far away as the eye can see The tiny flakes tossing in the air
The snow covering the trees and shrubs the alleys, streets and parks Every thing is painted white
The beauty and elegance are in display When soon it is over The kids will go out and play They will throw snow balls and having fun
Some will love to chisel sculptures and snow man
Time for dinner Every one at the table
time to relax Mammy and Daddy will get warm at the fire place Reading a book or watching the TV The kids will gather around joining company
What a happy time!
There is certainly a joy that can be found In a snowy winter day

Asking help from heaven

Do I give my heart to you?
Do you truly love me?

Raise doubts and some fear
I am always thinking What the future will be bringing Only time will all tell Before in blind love I fell That you are sincere and hold me so dear

Sweet Love
Now Became Lemon sour Bitter, bitter Every hour
I tried hard
I played my cards
My luck was blank
I missed the track
My love is gone
I lost the fun
I packed my luggage Rode the carriage Looking for love in new land

Tears of Sorrow
Will the tears wash the pain?
Will the happy times that rolled by be back again?
Will the morning lights shine again?
Will the pain remain
The taste of life is sour With tears soaked in the eyes Will they console the injured soul?

Thanks for the flowers and roses

Thank you for the flowers and roses
The message reverberates
For the flowers and roses you sent Everyone tells story of happy moments we spent as we walked down by the beach Holding hand in hand together Exchanging sweet kisses and affection Getting splashed by the little waves as they crash and hit the shore
they are special remembrance to keep
for the lasting joy
on the beach sands Looking into my eyes dreaming and gazing to the sky

The hot summer had passed by
The trees are adorned with colors like bride at wedding night
The swift flurry of wind passes by greeting autumn The trees branches swinging in joy and ecstasy All in heart filled harmony
The golden sun in the blue sky
on the pastures, valleys and hamlets
and the autumn melodies

The Bus Stop

Waiting at the bus stop wondering when the bus will come?
Will it be tardy and late?
Here far away
I see it coming Humming and in hurry now is it 55 or 57?
Oh there is a line to get in Wait for folks to get out Find some coins pay your ticket
Try to find a seat Oh there is an empty seat all race to win the prize Sit and relax
and enjoy the scene
mount out and wave to the bus good bye

The End of the Road

I  reached the end of the road
How I have arrived?
I do not know
It was a long journey Chiseled with stone Paved with rocks
In midst of roses and flowers
I was driven from one stage of life to another In mysterious way
The clock of time kept moving It never stopped
Now I see myself
At the end of the road
The upping stage of life
I can't return back Now I can see a hazy sign flickering in the midst of the fog Exit planet earth Entrance to heaven
Welcome to the unknown world

The alien invaders are seen They are approaching the earth
The dark clouds hanging
The lights went off
In the streets there is commotion
The radio and TV announcements
The earth have been invaded Fires in the cities Crews picking the sick and wounded
The serine of vehicles going to hospitals
The air full of smoke
The fire fighters trying to put off the fires Strange objects appear flying over the city Sounds of crackling machines
in other parts if the world
The rail roads knocked out
The airports shut down
There are flames in the harbor All different colors lights flash in the sky
lightening the low clouds
The sounds of the aliens air vehicles Buzzing and getting louder
They are flying lower and lower They are in great numbers
The aliens have landed
The earth have been occupied

The Journey of Life

It was long journey
It will not be long before it is over
It is the story since the beginning of time It was told in every generation Every one endured it Every one passed through it What you can do?
When the cup of life is near empty?
Do you know?
When it will happen?
When signs of life wither away?
When there will be tears and cries!
Will you hear it?
Will you feel it?
When nature will consume you!
When you vanish!
When you will be no where.

that seems had betrayed us and rolled much fast one wonders and feel awe for the moments of life that do not come back all flashes in mind at the shadow of your smile

When your son departs
He leaves and travels To distant land

Accept life as it changes
To new realities

Traveling the fast lane of life
No slowing, no whoops and no stops Passing the high ways and by ways in flash

Passing small cars, big cars, vans and trucks

Viola Crushed My Heart

Viola crushed my heart
and slipped away
To the far country of New Zealand
To the Hawke's bay
I gazed at the dark skies
I counted the stars Waiting for a comet that saw Viola
I sailed the oceans
I fought the high waves
I met hurricanes for Viola who crushed my heart

When I am gone far away Nobody will cry
No one will shed tears
My cold body
Will be for nature to reclaim
The sun will rise the next day
As it did for million years
The clouds will fill the skies
The rain will fall and moisten my grave
Our pitty lives are small waves That hit the ocean shores and soon it disappear So when I go away
Nobody Should cry
Should shed tears
