Weakness is a sin, softness is a power, infatuation a disease, love holy flower.

A Good Soldier

When there is no fight to fight, a good soldier does not sits idle, he keeps on sharpening the edge of his sword for the next title.

A praise

Oh my lord! you are a queen of a kingdom, beautiful people like you are born seldom, a treasure from God's diamond studded chest, and out of those chosen few you the best, you go with fairies and they look like maids, you the divine one and they at best your aides, for everything there is a start and a peak, and through you the beauty's foremost speak, someday back in time the mortal's will travel, to see you the miracle, the wonder, the marvel, and of the countless lost after having seen you, i am one of the helpless dreaming and praising you.

At The Touch Of Your Love

At the touch of your love, i have become a poet, and nothing more i seek from you, now a days whole of my time, goes into thinking,
for this beautiful gift, how could i repay you.

At the touch of your love, followers have blossomed in my heart, and day and night,
with their sweet fragrance, they keep on cheering me,
and i keep on thinking, for this sweetness in my life, what could i share with you.

At the touch of your love,
my heart and eyes,
have opened to a new dawn, and i am able to see the life, in the ways i had never seen,
and i keep on thinking,
for this newness in my life, what new could i present to you.

At the touch of your love, i have become admirer of life, every moment now i am happy, and i keep on seeking, more and more light and life, and for this transformation in me, i keep on thinking, what could i do for you.

Bad Hair Cut

Today morning when i saw myself in the mirror, i came to notice that something has gone wrong, then after inquiring myself for few seconds, i found that the fault lies with the barber, who has cut my hair too small and too short.

last time i came home with same type of cut, when i was kid and that was eight years back, and my parents were so furious to see me like that,
that the barber would have definitely got a slap, had they have access at that time to the poor chap.

To me it may look ok and to friends it may look cool, but i think they will say the same that u look like a fool, and now with only one more day to go before i leave, i don't think my hair are gonna anyway improve.

but lets hope this time they will appreciate the change, and they will understand that things never remain same, and rather than getting furious at me and the poor barber, they will say that even with this spurious cut i look nice and sober.

Devil and Disease

The devil and disease are all around you, till you are strong they do not touch you, the moment you go a little weak, they get inside you and crush you.

Sunny Mittal

Do it in such a way

Do things not too many,
but just a few,
and do it in such a way, that nobody else can do it like you.

Don't Waste Food

Hundreds and thousands have toiled under the scorching sun of summer, to grow the food which so comfortably we eat.

think of food as the fruit of labor of thousands of hours, rather than just rice and wheat.

millions die due to lack of food, so is their fate, but we are lucky to have every time enough in our plate.

we may never go to the fields to produce the food, but my friend 'food saved is food produced'.

so lets take a vow today to put in our plate only that much which we can eat, so that even a single single grain may not go waste.

Sunny Mittal

Every beautiful face i see

Every beautiful face i see, something of you in that appears to me, and i wonder, whether all beautiful faces have something in common, or while making more beautiful faces GOD looks to thee.

Sunny Mittal

Every time something happens

Every time something happens, something i realize about myself, something's which i can control, something's which i cannot help.

Faith And Love

Faith is the thing which keeps us living, and love is the thing for which we keep on living, when faith is shattered we start to die, and when heart is broken we long to die.

First thing first

Do first thing first, otherwise everything goes into dust.

From Nothingness We Came, Into Nothingness We Shall Pass

From nothingness we came, into nothingness we shall pass, and this life beautiful, is for only few years alas!

Yesterday night my neighbor's, heart beat for the last time, tomorrow you may no longer see, me sitting on the garden grass.

and with each passing moment, we keep on breathing this air, until we have no more left, in our life's lovely glass.

but for only a few of the days, i lived in peace and harmony, while for the rest of the days, i busy was in the race to amass.

but from today i take this vow, to live each day with utmost class, to seek happiness in all little things, to have often whole hearted laugh.

So that when it is time to go, to death i can no longer say no, i know that i have lived enough, and happily i can declare 'ok to last'.

Sunny Mittal

Give And Take

There is not much that we can take from the world, but we can give a lot to the world, there is not much we can take away from the world, but we can leave a lot with the world, and best of the best are not the ones, who have taken most from the world, but are the ones, who have given most to the world.

Sunny Mittal

He Was A Lonely Boy

He was a lonely boy,
who grew up shy and coy, quit the world one day, but nobody ever knew why,
he was a lonely boy...

Had a few mates to play, but no to all he would say, would sit silent and pry, when alone he would cry
he was a lonely boy...

Always used to stand apart, keep everything in his heart, to no one he would talk, howsoever hard one may try,
he was a lonely boy...

From something he was hurt?
or someone broke his heart? nobody got any clue ever, why he had red hue in the eye,
he was a lonely boy...

I am a wanderer, i am a wanderer

I am a wanderer, i am a wanderer, i belong to every place, every place belongs to me, all are one and the same, just with a different name, they all are home to me.

I am a wanderer, i am a wanderer, i understand everybody's song, i can sing anybody's song, i need no annotations, as i understand the emotions, no song is now odd to me.

I am a wanderer, i am a wanderer,
i have no friends, i have no foes, still thousands my heart knows, i don't give in to love, from hate too i have risen above, i like people as they choose to be.

I am a wanderer, i am a wanderer, like the ever free flowing air, a moment here and than elsewhere, i have no one to keep and care, no one waits for me anywhere, wandering is all of the life to me.

I am a wanderer, i am a wanderer,
I am a wanderer, i am a wanderer...

I hope as a friend you understand

I will match you as much as i can, i will be with you wherever i can, but i hope as a friend you understand, there is limit in what man can do for man.

If At All

If at all the heaps of wealth should take us, that should be towards generosity.

If at all,
the praises showered should fill in us, that should be feelings of humility.

If at all,
all the experience should teach us, that should be more and more simplicity.

If at all,
the strength should provoke in each of us, that should be solidarity and humanity.

If at all,
the love should sow in each of us, that should be seeds of empathy, sympathy.

If at all,
the God could preserve in each of us, that should be purity and sincerity.

and If at all,
at the end we could take with us, that should be heart full of love's genuinity.

Infa Song

This is an infa song,
for the family to which we all belong, in the welcome of the days ahead, in the memory of days that have gone.
This is an infa song...

we like the place, we love the place, for us it is a home away from home. we are never ever gonna leave this place, as to it, for forever we belong.
This is an infa song...

Challenges and challenges are on the way, but challenges are with what we like to play, its not gonna easy to be on the top, but we will stay as we all are so strong.
This is an infa song...

work hard, we play hard, we drink hard, never ever bored, we laugh and sing. and now when we have already done so much, we just wanna keep on moving rocking and singing.

and that's why for u all i sing this song which i call an infa song... for the family to which we all belong.

Just Like The Days When I Used To Be A Child

The desire is intense,
the passion is wild,
just like the days,
when i used to be a child.

The eagerness to learn, the will to burn,
are again as bright,
just like the days,
when i used to be a child.

i know i can do it, i know i can achieve it, the confidence is just right,
just like the days,
when i used to be a child.

neither i fear from anyone, nor i lack the courage anymore, i am always ready to give a try,
just like the days,
when i used to be a child.

i have lost all the pride, no traces of ego in me anymore, i am humble again with simple smile,
just like the days,
when i used to be a child.

Knowledge

Have the knowledge, learn about the things, but become not prisoner of a cage, seek to fly as if it were your wings.

Laugh And Cry

A Laugh is the gentle blow of a wind, which cools down the heart for a moment, but a Cry is the rain which washes away, the dirt of pain off the heart forever.

Sunny Mittal

Let our dreams be our guide

Let's not on greed's horse we ride, let our dreams be our guide.

Sunny Mittal

Life is a mystery

Life is a mystery,
comes from future,
runs in present,
and goes to history,
life is a mystery.

you like it, you love it, but you never know when its gonna ditch you. you plan it, you try to control it, but you never know where its gonna take you.
that's why they say,
life is a mystery...

you like something and you go crazy for that thing, day or night, sleep or awake beside that u think nothing, but as the life goes on and things keep on changing, you start to like and look for a new thing, and that something for which were once crazy, becomes a history,
life is a mystery..

you keep on going easy day and night, until one day start to have a doubt and u ask, from where i came, where i am going? , then you run here and here, but u get the answer nowhere, and from that day u cry out loud,
life is a mystery...

Loneliness

Loneliness is a blessing for those who want to pursue something great, but a curse to an idle child, for his play who needs a mate, for a scientist with time it may open some inventions gate, but may kill a lover for his beloved who no longer can wait, in the end it all depends upon our state, that how it will taste.

Love the life

Stop yelling at life,
and start loving it,
and it will give you, more than you expect from it.

Mistakes

There are mistakes, about which a human does not knows, and he is forgiven, if he commits any of those,
then there are mistakes, about which a human already knows, and he hurts his fate, when he commits any of those,
and this is where all the difference, lies between wise and fool, between learned and a child in school, the holy would never repeat something wrong, while the stubborn would keep on hurting, his feet on the way from the same throne, and this is how and this is why, while some men and women, keep on rising and earn heavenly fame, while the others would, keep on falling and put themselves to shame.

Mystery

Intelligent i was never, intelligent not now i am, intelligent i may be never.

Passion made the way easy, passion is still making it, passion will pave the way.

Mind never had shown the way, mind is still not doing it, mind may never show the way.

Heart had always done the duty, heart is still doing it, heart will always light the way.

Never ever i had achieved, even now i am not achieving, never ever i may achieve.

I am having whatever God gifted, i am getting what god is gifting, i will get whenever god will gift.

i never understood what is going on, i still don't get what is going on, i may never get what is going on.

mystery is what it used to be, mystery still everything is, mystery i think it will always be.

Oh bright star, oh bright star

To Rajat Gupta.....
Oh bright star, oh bright star, somewhere else you should have landed, somewhere else you should have ended, but now where you are,
Oh bright star, oh bright star.

you reached the heights of success and fame, where a handful have etched their name, but today how lost you are,
Oh bright star, oh bright star.

friends and foes equally revered you, a many looked as a role model unto you, still many can't believe that mistaken you are,
Oh bright star, oh bright star.

May god give courage to you, to forgive yourself and to renew, and come back again as a shinning star,
Oh bright star, oh bright star.

Sunny Mittal

Oh My Friend Never Leave That Girl

Oh my friend never leave that girl, because that girl is crazy for you, even in your wildest joke you never say to her that i will leave you, believe me such is the height of her love, that in a day she will die without you.

never ever even think of leaving her for a girl that may a look far more beautiful than her to you, because in whatever condition you may go to her, she will open her arms with love to accept you.

For whole life she will revere you like god, day in day out she will care for you. in your tough times even if everyone deserts you, like an armor she will stand for you. and in your days of agony, pain and suffering with her love and affection she will heal you.

You are all over in her and everywhere she sees you, and all her days she must be praying to be with you.
Now even if you take a gun and fire all six at her, with each of your shot she wont moan louder, for many more lives death should come like this, with love in her eyes for u she will say to you.

Life has given me a few chances to understand, and that is what i think she is and will be for you.

Opportunity

I keep on preparing harder and harder everyday, I know someday opportunity will knock at my door, and to such an extent i want to be prepared, so that to her i could say you need not to search anymore.

Sunny Mittal

Realization

How shall peace be upon me, when i don't live as asked by thee, how shall in my heart, a picture of yours i see, when i cannot keep, my heart of passions dirt free, how shall your guiding light, my eyes see, when i have turned, a blind eye to thee, how shall my judgements, be error free, when i don't listen to my conscience, by which you speak to me, how can i say that i love thee, when i cannot do, the bare minimum you ask of me, how i can i be ever happy, when i have lost all touch to thee, but i know you always and shall always love me, all need is to turn back and come back to thee.

Saint and a Fighter

The Caliber of a fighter is defined by, how many blows he can take,
and still one to his enemy he can give, and the nobility of a saint is defined by, how many offense's he can tolerate, and still the offender he can forgive.

Say no the first time

Today to give you company, i take with you one peg, tomorrow you may say one more, just one more extra leg.

And slowly i start, drinking too much of it, can't stop even if i want to, because i am addicted to it.

Than God forbid, fate curses me, something unfortunate happens to me, and having no other solution, this becomes my heart's pains ablution.

Finally one day when i come to senses, i see while walking my feet shambling, the world which i had build for myself, i see how day by day it is crumbling.

Now you may say i am overreacting, i am making too much fuss out of nothing, but my friend why to step on that way, which may ruin your world someday.

so please take this foul water away from me, and never ever offer it again to me, and i hope you will be as much friend to me, as you were before i said all this to thee.

Secret Of Work

work is not useless, work is not mundane,
it is not listless, it's not burden and pain.

it is by our choice, what we make of it, when we don't put our heart and our soul into it.

And the root of it lies in, when confronted with the voices, we listen to the outer one, suppressing the one coming from within.

when we start listening to people, telling us what we should do, rather than choosing what our heart is willing us to do.

otherwise the purpose of work, is to bring our mind to ease, it is a path to unite with God, and rest in an eternal peace.

And our lord has shown the way, in the holy book when he says, work just for the work's sake, caring not about fruits you make.

Offer everything as a selfless service, and than one day you shall see, your work brings to you eternal joy, and with each offering you becoming free.

And so we should choose the work, which we will do even if there is no pay, which rather than crushing us, makes us look forward to each day.

now you may say what if i am not getting, the work i want to do each and every day, and the answer to it lies in lives of, people like Jobs who eventually found their way.

And the day to start finding out your heart, is not some distant tomorrow, it is today, make all effort to get what you want, and may the lord bless you on your way.

Stages of Life

When we are a kid we have to cry for everything, When we are a child we have to ask for everything, When we are young we have to work for everything, and When we are old we have to reach for everything.

Success's Sweet Fruit He Is Bound To Taste

A man with firm faith, who can keep patience,
and is free of all haste, who thinks actively,

who acts pro actively,
can work merrily till late, who moves ahead of the world, but still runs no race, constantly keeps away the hate, who knows it is ok to fall, but has will to stand again tall, and is eager to write his own fate, success's sweet fruit, today, tomorrow or someday, he is bound to taste.

Sunny Mittal

The fight worth fighting most

Many a fights man have fought, many a fights man will fight, but the war worth waging most, but the fight worth fighting most, is fighting the demons within you, to weed out all the negativity, to kill the lust, anger, greed, pride, jealousy, hatred, animosity, so that the one god shines in you, and in the battle no one gets hurt, still there is the greatest victory but, you have killed what truly was not you, you have found who truly are you, and with the holy light shinning in the spirit, there is nothing but peace, happiness for you, and with each man having won himself, there will be no need to win over someone else, and thus all wars will come to an end, except the one in which man tries to win himself.

The history boy, the mystery boy

The history boy, the mystery boy, has decided to bid us goodbye, always full of energy and enthusiasm, quite a source of inspiration and joy,
The history boy, the mystery boy...

Not contented with living it small, wanna make it big, touch the sky, looking for a merc, drives a Hyundai, ready to step in the shoes of a big boy,
The history boy, the mystery boy...

he is not just good at something, he is almost perfect in everything, still regards others opinion as high, he is quite a humble and polite guy,
The history boy, the mystery boy...

May at your new job you excel, you be the one who can best sell, and in each moment of your life, there is abundant happiness and joy,
The history boy, the mystery boy...

The Land

We push the land back with our feet, and it moves us forward into the street, and i wonder who can be more generous than it is.

There Used To Be Days

There used to be days, when i was a witty and humorous guy, that i could make people laugh, until they start to cry, and i would often create stories filled with such a humor and joy, that everybody would ask me how can u do it every time oh boy.
There used to be days....

Often i would tell things in such a way, and often i would act in such a way, that nobody could resist to laugh, however hard they may try, and even if it would be late for the day, and even if i would be done for the day, people used to hold me by hand, and they wont let me say good bye.
There used to be days....

While i was cruising really very fast, one day something happened that almost broke me apart, and in those few hours of storm, i lost whatever wit and humor i ever had, i thought the things would improve, but nothing happened as the days passed by,
and i the witty and humorous guy became a silent and shy guy. but there used to be days...

now nobody laughs at my jokes, however hard i may try, and in such a despaired state i am, that for myself often i cry, But my heart says to me, keep on giving a try, life would flip again someday, and people would again start to laugh at my jokes, whenever any i will say, but till now only i can say that there used to be days...

To My Sweet Little Town

Oh my sweet little town, Shinning like a diamond in the king's crown like a glorious past i have left you, for most of the time i am not with you, and if the things continued in the same manner, someday i may leave you forever, and may not comeback to you ever, but that is not what worries me, what worries me more is, what will happen to you? , if everyone like me deserted you, will you be left with a few old men and women, who will be wiped away by death and then?

will all the shops in the bazaar go shut? will there be no people in the beautiful mansions and small roadside hut? will the fields everywhere lay forever barren? will you just become passing caravan's tavern? will there be no kids to play in the high school ground? will the temples also become silent and you will be devoid of any sound? will then no train halt at our place?
will the wild bushes eat up the busy bus stand space? will then your name also be taken away from you? and then even on most detailed maps there wont be any place for you?
Ah! this will be too much for you, a death too untimely for you, no no no this cannot happen, no no no this won't happen, hold on hold on,

let me catch my breath, let me come back to my on, every bit of which you own, i will never let this happen to you, i will be the savior for you, the day you see the first signs of such thing, make the morning air your messenger, and blow it towards south in full swing, and no matter whatsoever happens i will come back and stay with you, and i will urge the people not to leave, and ask them too to be with you, but if nobody agreed, then alone i will accompany you, in the mornings i will plough all the fields, each season i will sow them with, fresh wheat, rice, marigold, sunflower seeds, i will open all the shops, and i will sing in your temples till with pain my throat starts to choke, and in the noons i will go to places, to talk to the far living human races, and i will urge them and i will plead them, to come to you and to be with you, and if some folks do come which i am sure will come, a place more beautiful than you, where on this earth will get someone, than everything will be again fine, like old days with happiness you will shine but if the things did not go our away, then this will be the homage which to you i will pay, with my old tired and sunken hands, i will write with my blood the story of your unfortunate fate on the whole land, then a place of pilgrimage definitely you will be,

and if that is what is our fate let it be.

To The Leader

You are inspiration for us to perspire, that we can achieve whatever we desire, that no goal is too far if we truly aspire, that we must always march forward with passion and fire, that the ways are tough to make us strong not to tire, that till the aim is achieved we shall not retire.

Sunny Mittal

When you yourself know that you are right

When you yourself know that you are right, its nothing to worry because you can fight, it does not matter how dark it is outside, because you are guided by your inner light.

Sunny Mittal

You Can Never Raise Yourself Much, By Comapring Yourself With Others

You can never raise yourself much, by comparing yourself with others, today you are trying to outdo someone, tomorrow you will be bothered, by the achievements of some other.

You will be happy and bloat with joy, on the day when you beat the people, about whom you have started to bother, but then you will feel sad and doomed, when you will be outdone by the others.

just sit and think for a moment, would the world have seen great works, of Einstein, newton and wright brothers, had they spent all their time thinking, how many fish today caught their neighbor.

from where Picasso, Vinci would have produced, such beautiful and great works of art, had their mothers and fathers always, kicked their butt and pushed them, to follow and to be like someone other.

Great scriptures and great men always say, true success always comes to those, who follow their heart with faith and courage, work with patience, passion and diligence, while treating and helping everybody as brother.

and moreover at the end of the day, will you still count that as success? though living in a grand mansion, but inside of you still burning with, the fire of animosity, hatred and anger.

Sunny Mittal
