Fought Against The Time

I knew, I felt
I really knew my life
I really felt my life
It wasn't bad my life

Only, coz' of my hope
For got an happiness
Only, coz' of my selfish
I was afflicting in my life

However, all of it'd already passed
For now, and for forever
It will I knit anymore, these tangled threads
For I create alike an alive bridge later

When You Are Hetting Here

In your face, there are a light of moon
There are so many beauty made
I couldn't say anything, if you're in front of me
Just a smile that i could present to you

In your eyes, there are much happiness
You've touched my soul with lovely
Your presence has given new atmosphere
Throw away all of the depressed and fear
