I Saw An Angle Cry's

Hey i just looked in to sky my eye was so tied'
but then i still had a search
I don't see nothing less than
'AN ANGLE DRYS' yeah i saw an angle cry's
I just have look in the face of that angle
I saw that face of the girl who left me

Ever since I have been waiting to see your face,
But I guess you have gone to a different place.
Now your memories is all that I have with me,
My heart is broken into tiny pieces underneath.
But I will wait for that time to finally come,
When I will meet you, take you with me and run.
Till then my heart will long for you my dear,
Everyday I will pray that you come back to me here.

I promise to bring magic in my life alive once again,
I will not let you ruin it more and give me so much pain.
My life is only mine, and you ruining it for me is not your right,
I will fight you out of my heart till the day you're out of sight.
i don't know why your cry my angle, u left me not i am. so why you still crying.
i saw an angle still crying..
