Impressions

I've seen people come into my life
Some left impressions in my mind
Others left impressions on my heart and soul,
For those who don't know
What true friendship is like
Will never appreciate my worth,
But those few
Who left their mark on my soul
Will always have my trust,
Only they can fully understand
How precious true friendship is,
There's a bond between us few
Nothing can ever break the bond,
There are a select few
Who changed my entire life
Because of them
I can live another day
I'll never forget
How they left a big impression on me
They couldn't even begin to imagine
How much they mean to me
I've seen people come into my life
Some of them left without saying goodbye
While others came into my life
And left their mark on my soul and heart!
