the truth about me is in my poems

Bird Is Ready To Leave

love is a part of life magical feeling thats apart of your heart it comes and goes just like a bird that becomes an adult who is ready to leave home we are not ready to leave home but we sure can make it if not we will fly back home and ask for help even though we grow old things can stay between us nothing can change that moment were we hatch from our eggs and grow to fly away from home

Death Of A Friend

the halls are filled with people laughing smiling knowing the pain rises through me walking slow i grabed my shirt tears flow slowly difference between the heart of a life and the heart of a soul has passed through my veins the death of a one you love hasnt complete a life you cry
i cry the moment when you see the face of a soul that rises to the skys has a moment of time where you can make a difference to that one watching over you when you know that a dream has left you can never know what is to be wrong the face i lye awake staring at is gone the memories has past but the forgetness is never forgotten

(my love has left the earth but is now in my heart and is never to be forgotten)

Ending Relationship

the memories
the secrets
all the time we spent together gone like dirt washed away never did i once back down until that day

i saw the girl i knew the part the lie's and smell you brought back here i knew from the start that long distance isnt the start

I Love You Dear

Your the only guy that i can trust

Love

and say i love you dear write me a story how we met and ill write one to that comes to mind every minute every moment

you saved my life

you've opened my eyes to so many million things in your way

Theres one way to get to you is love never fades

I'll do anything

Love Thee

You make me smile like a thousand suns You make life an easier place to be Your love, heart, and soul showed me the way You keep me safe down in your arms
The veins peel through your skin like a lightning bolt
And yet
I never know what you really want The hurt burns like fire
The hurt stings like knives My heart is stabbed Broken in pieces
But still There's never a moment of silence without thoughts of you Love what a word
What a thought
Your kisses so sweet like you Your heart so loving you can't break through But do I love thee?
Yes
More than light
More than life!
I hold my words down under Does he see what I feel?
No pain can hold me down Love is most powerful...

Mixtures

Life is a secret that no buddy can tell music is a wonderland of serious thought many things of secret memories is never forgotten when the trust of the open mind is away of thought

Sensible thought can say wide things hurtful dreams are away brushed far and wide the sweet kind heart in the mind but
a nasty winder of laugh and smile can brake the trust of yours and mine

Not A Mistake

the life i wish to be happens to be with me fame fortune and books all the dream a girl to have my dreams have crushed down the drain
my heart poors for my dear tears run down my face did i make a mistake?
the larger it gets the more people know the life in me is a mistake i wish to take away
did i wrong think this memorie of dreams
yes
the one night i wish i could see the world better then this people stare laugh and mock as the see me in the halls bouncing the tummy all around but that day at the hostpital a new dream began to rise

That Guy

makes me wanna sing makes me wanna laugh makes me feel safe
can sense when im sad sense when i really need him sense the way when i dont wanna be
holds me tight when im scared holds my hands to make me warm and holds my heart like love
knows what i like knows what i care for knows me
i know i care
i love
That guy
