A Memory Of...

A memory of...
Those summer shadows
Hiding upon the lawn
A memory of you

A memory of...
Actors on film
And a young actress at play
A memory of you
A memory of you

A memory of...
Sculpting our days
Away from the clay
A memory of you
A memory of you
A memory of you

Against Your Altar

I'm standing near the edge of the mountain
My arms reach out to your altar
I'm waiting for your arrival

Against your altar

The henna blossoms have faded
That are painted on your altar
I'm waiting for your arrival

Against your altar

You can keep the stars forever
That adorn your altar
I'm waiting for your arrival

Against your altar

Appion Way

The light came on through his window
Anger! A presence on the television
He stood on the corner of Appion Way
I don't have the thirst for killing

All beneath a burning heaven
A marriage to bury this hell
Seven billion men in my garden
And on the cover of the magazine a dandelion

Shut the door on the darkness
What the hell is happening here?
Destroy the enemy within yourself
And walk out the door alone

Flower Of The Prairie

Arrival in the valley of the sun
I see the mountains burning
A drink of water filled with fire
For my flower of the prairie

If you want me to cry
Tell me to cry
Don't force me to tears

The ocean waves to the children of summer
Do you hear the silence of the moon?
We'll feast between the two horizons
And shed these tears of stone

If you want me to cry
Tell me to cry

Aum

Listen

Arise from the sound of creation

Goodbye, Farewell

Hello Chaos!

Hyaline image, distortion of peace

Invisible soldier on Othello's board

Voiding the world of emptiness

Goodbye, farewell

Devine inspiration sheltering her reason

Send out rendering service

Surrender nothing, knowledge nor

Does her myth play the metaphor?

I see the fire

Are you the flame?

I've seen the future

Are you to blame?

A warning to Venus in Polybius square

Denying the void between the season and the century

Kissing the myth only history will believe

Goodbye, farewell

Pharaonic Empire with no mother tongue

Priori queen of dynamic shadows

Fellow servant removed from grace

Is sovereignty the sun?

Removing the curtain from humanities eyes

Straighten the circle upon fragments of time

Does Chaos have its' end?

I Am Faithful

To the sound of a drum
The rival moves forward
It is the Art of War

I am faithful
Syhlet City
Lazzaro

A bouquet of fire
Calm the fragrant towers
Now the lights go out on the moon

I am faithful
Syhlet City
Lazzaro

I Love You

I will be waiting for tomorrow, forever
I think it's time to let you go
Or we'll be waiting on forever, forever

I love you, I love you
I love you, anonymously

Are you sitting by the phone waiting for me to call you now?

I love you, I love you

Call me now
It's all up to you, I love you

But the writing on the wall
I don't think I know you at all
I think I'll love you, anonymously

Ichthyes

It is the birth of immortality

Crawl across the water
My father is the ocean
Who is your radiant mother?

To the sound of the drum
The rival moves forward
It is the art of war
I am faithful

Snipers open fire on the golden temples
Buried beneath the orchid garden
Her butterfly wings bloom in the winter
Buried beneath the gardens water

To the sound of the drum
The rival moves forward
It is the art of war
I am faithful

The ocean exist in my memories
Avenge the blood of his throne
So forfeit the ferryman
I have no memory of sin

I love this time of precedence

In The News - Lowboy

Baptized by the water, not in a body bag
On a marble road across the river
Is where they pierced the cities void

I won't forget what I saw that morning
The Mayor sitting V.I.P

A father and a confidant
No ripple of deception found
It's the first snow of the season
And the problem won't go away

I saw him in a good place
And it breaks my heart its cold tonight

Ivory Tongue

A rite of transformation
On these streets of beautiful vines
I finally have your attention but I don't even know your name

Ivory tongue
Get your gun
And follow me

Thunder child from the canyon land
A thousand stars are born
Immortality is forever
As we build a new Rome

Ivory tongue
Get your gun

Kiss

Unfinished romance
Kiss between the scenes
Your pleasure so soft
Your heaven so sweet
Enter your ocean
Enter your sea

Patience And Time

I was wishing for longer yesterdays
You were wishing your days away
Somewhere lost between patience and time

Where tears for your garden of flowers grow
I will stand alone with you
Somewhere lost between patience and time

I wish that I knew what you needed from me
Even when my eyes are closed
I know what you do for me

Where tears for your garden of flowers grow

Pen Strikes Paper

Pen strikes paper
Strike fear in man
Man strikes God
Strike the serpent's hand
The hand strikes the pen
Strike the paper again

Red Hollywood

My rose is in the garden with the eyes of a dove
Her tears flow like a fountain
In Red Hollywood

Take me home to Red Hollywood

A symphony of stars tattooed across the sky
The rain falls down as heaven cries
In Red Hollywood

Take me home to Red Hollywood

I'll have your heart wherever I go
So take me home to Red Hollywood

Revolution

The sun is setting in the West
Is it voiding the East of light?
Does it equate to the night being evil?
Or only void of light?

Until the Earth has completed one revolution,

The author orders Chaos!

Saga

The snow falls in Eden
As the waterfall sits by the stream
The waves dance in the water
As I hand you a rose tattoo

My blood is in the rose
That lives by the stream
Our time is held by a grain of sand
As I hand you a rose tattoo

It's all about your story
That hides behind the past
It's all about what is said in the stars
As I hand you a rose tattoo

Its midnight by the waterfall

Silhouette

Three arrows fly in single file
The wind blows in waves of abundance

Here comes their silhouette!

The Web Of Life

The web of life
The truth in lies
The veil before Apollos eyes

Turn Away

A story told by simple tears
You are shelter from the rain
These silent rumors tell temporary lies

Turn away, don't go

You said it in a whisper
And cried it in a song
Your tears removed the temple stars

Turn away, don't go

A star kissed by the sun
You turned me into bronze

Turn away, don't go

You turned away and whispered
You will never know

You Write The Melody

Please don't leave me alone tonight
It's the smile behind your eyes and
I get to say good morning one more time

You write the melody

When memories are laying by your side
You dream to pass the time
You write the melody

Stretching out my arms as you cry
I'm proudly standing by your side
The rain never falls far away from the sky
I'll forward my heart in conclusion
