Angela Firkin(November 22,1964)

I am a 41 yr old married grandmother of 2 (soon to be 3) . I work in an emergency room as a Unit Coordinator. I have 2 boxers. (dogs)

My husband works for a local high school.

Grieve Not For Me

Grieve not for me as I pass from this life
For I am embarking on a journey into a land of Great beauty and joy.
And thou I am sad to leave behind my family and friends,
I will not grieve.

As I enter into this glorious land, I go with the knowledge
That we will all meet again on those golden shores.
So look to each other for comfort
For my comfort is coming from my savior.
He awaits me with open arms to guide me on this
Wondrous journey on which I am going.

As my eyes close and my chest rises for my final breath
REJOICE
For on this day I shall be in heaven
