In My Heart

In my heart I see many people who I love.
I feel loved from others.
I feel a chance to free myself and love others.

In my heart I wish the right guy would come for me.
I wish I was still a little girl inside.

I hope I make it to my future.
To have a small family,
a great job, and the best years of my life.

In my heart I picture what I want in my life.

In my heart I am who I am and nothing else.
Just myself...

My Dream Guy

My dream guy is tall, dark, strong, good looking, sensitive, funny.
And he loves me for who I am, and nothing less.

My dream guy would never ignore me.
He would cherish all the moments we have together.

His name would be David.

He knows what I like... he knows what I want.

He will always feel special to me.
And I would treat him the same.
