To The One Who Stole My Poem

I had this poem
it was a particular poem made many cry
told my story

to the person who is using my account which i used to post my poem which had been deleted from my computer and only existed here in cyberspace to this person who added his/her poems to my name i hope you, as a fellow poet understand how a poem nursed is not dissimilar to a child i lost my child, my poem.

if you have it please put it back the name was 'father' if you deleted it please write a poem in this poem tell me that you have i just need to know if my baby Poem is dead forever or if it lives on your hard drive
