ashley greiner(11/19/92)

well, i dont have a lot to put here because i'm not that old. lets see... i lived in rialto california. it was pretty scary there. i was kind of a tom boy but i played w dolls. now im far from a tom boy. im a cheerleader. i've gone to two elementaries, one junior high, and now im in high school. im not going to say which high school cus i've prolly already given out too much info but anyways. im still alive. i've written all of my poems by myself. im a pretty complicated person w/ a pretty simple life. um, i hope u like my poems!

Back Together!

Best Friend Joe

im supposed to come to you if anyone makes me cry but what if it was you, you were the guy

you didnt mean to hurt me but you did really bad and i know you still care but you made me really sad you are still my best friend and will always be but i think we need to talk this over but its not quite eye to eye that we see i still love you joe and always will maybe we need a break from all these harsh feelings we feel

Best Friends And Boyfriends

I want to meet someone new A new friend or two

Maybe a boyfriend
Who has a heart to lend

Maybe a bestfriend
Who makes my bad day end

I do already have bestfriends who I love with all my heart
But I want another who can play another part

Im just really bored and I dont kno what to do I just want a guy who I can call my baby boo

Freshman To Sophomore

This year
Went by so fast Everything keeps Going into the past

I had so much fun
And met lotts of new friends
I just hope
That no friendship ends

Im going to be a sophmore And im very excited for that Im just waiting to see what comes Like hitting a ball with a bat

So lets party it up And drink that [[soda]] down Lets do anything That will keep away a frown :)

If You Don'T Like My Poems

If you dont like my poems
Then dont effing read them!
No one said u had to
And as for your rude comments, dont leave em.

I say what I feel I feel what i say
So if you dont like what I write Just effing go away!

I hope I made my point Im not trying to be mean Now I'm ready to go to sleep And have a nice dream

Life Is Rough!

Im just ready For everything to end
I just need reassurance
I just need a friend

Im sick of all this stuff
Thats going on right now
No one understands My head is saying ow

Should i go anorexic?
Should i cut my wrist?
Maybe i shouldnt do anything Maybe i should by a dress

I kno i wont do those things So dont worry, im too cool All i kno is I dont want to go to school

Just like i said before,
Im sick of all this stuff
I just need a boyfriend Dang, life is rough!

My Coach For Cheer: (

What gives her the right
To say that stuff to me?
She made me feel horrible Isn't she supposed to be helping?

She embarrassed me
In front of the whole team
So told her that my mom said i had to leave And she asked if I was lying

I technically was But she made me very mad
She just had no right
She made me sad! !

New View

Since last night
I have a new point of view
Of life
And of anything new

I try and keep positive In every single way It's finally starting to work
Like a beautiful sunlight ray

So you should do the same No matter how bad things may get I just know its working for me
It will help you too i bet

Rain, Snow, Sucky Poem

Why can't the sun Come out this day?
It is just So very gray

I hate the rain
It sucks so bad
It just makes me
So darn mad

I like the rain
When im inside
But since im not
The sky looks like someone died

Now it's probably gunna snow
And that is fine
I like the snow
It's all mine

When theres snow
There is no school!
I love that!
Its so cool!

This poem sucks
So I am done Well now im going to Go have some fun.

ashley greiner

Sad Thoughts

seperated by one wall but can hear it all wants to cry but has to lie dont want to hear have lotts of fear

ashley greiner

She Is Done

She is done with the world
She is sick of this shit Nobody likes her
And she's stuck in a fiery pit

They all call her names Like a whore and a slut
They call her a bitch
And say she looks like a nut

They will all soon find out That she took her life
And she bled to death Cus she used a knife

Now what will they say?
Will they even feel bad?
They should have some sympathy What about her mother and dad?

If only her parents knew! !
They could have stopped all this mess Now what they have
Is one child less

ashley greiner

The Hurt Of Names

she called me that and it wasnt right it makes me mad makes me want to fight its not who i am its another person thats a hurtful name shes so dumb

she called me immature but shes the one starting rumors super mean im not going to play her game

ashley greiner

Things Are Complicated! !

everything is so complicated and things are starting to change i dont kno what to do no more everything is going to rearrange i dont kno if im going to like it but i guess ill just have to give it a try nobody said it would be easy i just dont want to have to lie so please help before its too late i dont want to make the wrong decicion i dont want to become fake

ashley greiner

Waiting

The woman in that bed
Has tried to wait all night
Her baby is on the way
So she keeps her legs tight

Her husband is trying to hurry
To get there before its too late She is starting to worry Why couldn't it have been born late?

Yay! !
He made it!
Now everybody got their way!
And it only took a bit.
