Love And What It Is! ! !

Love is patient and kind,
it is never jelous,
love is never boastful or selfish,
it does not take offence,
nor is it resentful.
love takes no pleasure in others' sins,
but delights in the truth;
it is always ready to exuse, to trust, to hope and to endure whatever does not come to and end.
the are three things that last,
faith, hope, and love and the greatest of these is love.
