Breakaway

Everyday I wish upon a star
Hoping the end isn't that far,
Lying to myself every-things going to be okay,
Wishing there won't be another breakaway.

With a fake smile,
Forcing myself to say,
I really am okay.
Letting them hear the words they want me to say,
Taking another chance without completely fading away.

With brothers and sisters crying by my side,
Telling me how they let things slide.
With mother and father misunderstanding the things we say,
In reply, they tell us how we should obey.

It's interesting how things turned out to be,
It's no longer one happy family tree.
Oh how I wish things could be,
Without letting each other set ourselves free.

Though there are sometimes we agree,
But who knew what it would turn out to be.
If known things could be worse,
Why play the game and not get divorce?

Changing

Seasons always changing,
But my heart never stops from bleeding.
Feeling the painful sorrows that means nothing to no one.
Trying to find my dead soul that have been lost,
But instead I found myself lost in the dark,
Where my long lost heart have been torn.
I just wish, I was never born.

Free My Mind!

Dropped so many tears that there's no more tears left to cry.
Wish and pray that one day I'll be able to fly
And keep my head up very high.

How my family really knew what I was going through,
But yet didn't do anything which is very true.

It's been couple of years,
I haven't spoken my mind,
I knew I was being very kind,
But just couldn't hold it on,
Cause it was messing up my mind.
So now I can't be that kind,
I'll have to now free my mind.

Friendship

My eyes gazed into your eyes,
Searching for the love that doesn't exist,
Wondering...
Will this friendship and love of mine will remain safe?
Or will it break down into little pieces of a broken mirror?

Hole Inside My Heart

Deep inside my heart there's a hole,
A hole where it seems to be burning by the fire of hell,
And explodes like a volcano.
It seems to grow like a plant,
Die like a rotten mouse,
Seems to be unpredictable,
And can't be expressed in any kind of ways,
And when these feelings shows up,
Who knows?
Anything can happen.
But however,
It can maybe be change if I decide to give myself the chance to prove that I'm worth of something.

Leaving

Things happen for a reason,
And I'm sorry I'm leaving,
Your my hardest good-bye,
I love you,
I won't lie.
You're my life,
My everything,
But you're hurting me more than anything.
I'm sorry,
I gotta go,
And I don't think I'm coming back,
So run for her,
Just don't forget that I always had your back.
I love you!

Lonely Girl

It was a cold, dark, rainy night,
The lonely girl was laying down dropping tears as she cried out loud,
Calling out for help which nobody seems to hear,
Feeling the fear that seems to be always coming toward her,
Wondering will it be the day of her death,
Or will she be able to find the happiness that she always wanted?

Making Love

Laying in a bed,
Where there's only you and me,
Filling in the empty love that means everything to me,
Bring out the sad feelings that includes you and me,
Having some thoughts about you marring me.
Baby, having you by my side means the whole to me!

More Than Just A Friend

Your more than just a friend.
Your my life, my everything,
And I want you more than anything.
So please Baby,
Don't refuse my love,
Your my everything that can keep me above.
So come with me,
To the world of happiness,
Away from all the saddiness,
And you can trust me,
More than anything in this world so wide,
And so did i cried,
Of you going out with another girl.
But now,
I know for sure,
That you will one day be mine,
and we will shine.

Need To Hear From You

Having had any contact with you for a while.
Is this one of your new styles?
I always wanted to keep my smile,
Which I didn't have for a while,
And don't know how my broken heart will heal without you being not so real.

It's hard to not keep in contact with you,
And that is something that you already knew,
Which is not like a regular blue,
It's deeper than your own clue.
How I wish you knew,
How long I need to hear from you.

Pain

Gathered like the storm,
Are the ways my life is leading,
Never the less my soul stops from bleeding.
Trying to find the way out of the pain that always seems to rain.
Pushing away the pain that never seems to last.
It's always a blast,
And I fall back to the past.

Relationship Lasting Forever

I always thought our relationship of lasting forever.
But what you did wasn't very clever.
It has broken my heart forever.
I've never thought it would be over.
Now it's more colder...
Because I've grown older...
And need someone more closer...
So please don't make it more worse,
And let's start a new life starting all over.

Silent Sorrows

My eyes brimming with tears,
MY heart gripping by fears,
A storm in the sea,
A hundred wounds I endure,
But I still remained silent.

Strange are the ways my life is leading,
And as far as I can see...
There's only loneliness for me,
All I have are my memories.
Like shards of a broken mirror,
I am shattered a heart broken girl.
In agony,
I suffered the tyranny.
I tolerated the painful sorrows and yet I still remained silent.

Thank You

Thanks for being my best friend,
For the things you've done for me,
Not only for the things you've done,
But for also being there for me.

You were very kind and supportive when things were right and wrong,
I just can't explain how much love and care you have won.

When there were no shoulders that I could've cried it on,
Your shadows were always there to carry me on,
And everytime I cried out your name,
And you were miles away from me,
You've heard my voice and hurried running towards me.

You've helped me out in every ways that a best friend would do,
I'm really am grateful to have a good friend like you.
Thank you!

This Is Me

You can see a smile on my lips,
Read the happiness in my eyes,
Laughing throughout the days,
But can't read the sorrows in my heart.
However the sorrows in my heart,
Can maybe be change if I decide to give myself a chance to prove that I'm worth of something.

Truth

Telling you the truth about how I now feel about you,
Wasn't the same feelings that I've felt about you.
It is now different,
But it isn't my fault,
I tried to at least like you,
But it didn't seem to work.
So now that I've told you the truth that have really hurt alot,
But it can hurt more if I've told you a lie.
So telling you the truth was a really good thing to do,
But it wasn't meant for us to be,
So I really had to set you free.

You Said

You said you love me,
But all you did was hate me.
You said you care for me,
But all you showed me was that you dislike me.
You said you'll always stay with me forever,
But you meant to say that you'll leave me forever.
You said you need me,
But you really meant was that you didn't want me.
You said you'll always say hi,
Never good-bye,
Than how did you say bye,
Not only for now,
But forever?
You said you'll never let tears drift down my cheeks,
But all you ever knew how to do was make me cry.
You said you'll never leave me alone in the dark,
But all you ever did was left me alone in the dark.
You always did the opposite of what you said.
