Feelings

Like the tears from your unforgettable parents Unbelievable, but undeniable, unexplainable. Because it runs so deep it gets hard to sleep at times it may seem to fade until the next day it comes back twice. It was before hard to ignore you struggle to smile and move forward... Then one day it becomes too much and you give in... U run away looking for a better god's plan you stray. To make a path of your own not thinking...Falling, Lowering, and Sinking... So you take another drink to drift. A smoke to get a Higher Lift... Giving up your greatest gift... LIFE! ! So caught up you don't think twice. Going so fast, you miss the answers that were so clear Just follow your heart don't let it get you you'll see things will turn around and you'll be Wearing the mighty crown. You don't have to be the weeping clown... Surround yourself with people. Who care and accept you for who you are... Then revealing of your destiny won't be far... So get out of your fast passed car, And breathe in the fresh air the best things in life have no price Live your one and only life... Life is full of surprises so we have to be ready For what ever god throws at us. We got to be thankful for what our parents give us Every sweat that falls from them should be more running away doing suicidal cause they don't deserve the think it doesn't hurt them but it does "Quiero que se oyan lo que digo" Our fathers taught us pride and mothers taught us love, passion, faith, loyalty! ! You do the math...I did it so now it's your turn! ! !

the name-0 is kandiiholiic...&gt; kathiie. && i like alot of things. i like how i am not perfect. i like music. i like when the bass is loud and booming. i like dancing. i like being stupid. i like how there is at least one person i can TRUELY count on. i like to be funny. i LOVE to laugh. i like chocolate. i like how i can play around and not get hurt. i like that i can laugh at myself. i like not being serious all the time. i like smiling. i like my life so far. i like some of my past. i like how i learn something new everyday. i like how i am a forgiving person. i like how i DONT worry about things. i like how im not resentful. i like how KRAMA works. i like that im not a jealous person. i like how everything falls into place eventually. i like how i am able to do anything i want. i like how change works sumtimes. i like how we can alwaez restart to a new beginning. i like how memories are always there. i like how memories always take me back to those good times. i like hwo a smile can hide any true emotion. i like how we dont live to PLEASE other people. at least [I DONT.] i hate that NOTHING lastz forever. i hate how i can forgive, but not forget. i hate that i believe in having -regrets.- i hate not being able in go bak into the past and change thingz. i hate that we do thingz that we DONT mean to do. i hate that some people put others down to make THEMSELVES feel great. i hate change. i hate ppl who are two face.i hate the fact that truly, everyone is ALONE in this world. i hate liarz. i hate how the truth is NEVER ther. i hate how a life can be shattered by WORDZ. i hate people who judge other people, and not know one thing about that person. i hate people who are into themselves. i hate how people keep going after something that isnt going to work out. i hate how even if we do try our hardest, in the end- it wont matter. BUT I DO LIKE HOW THEiR CAN ALWAYZ BE A SECOND CHANCE.

Realityy

people see a Mexican and think that we don't belong here and that we ruined the united states. some see a Mexican with tattoos and say oh he or she is a criminal or they see 1 Mexican getting arrested by the police the think all Mexicans are the same... well guess what were not we are all the same... and the whole ILLEGAL ALLIEN thing is dumb cause we are not aliens we are Mexicans and we Mexicans have names. some think that because were not from here we don't belong here but the truth is we come here to have a better life... so many people think we are lazy people but some are and some aren't because we work in the field... some may say what does that have to do with anything well it does because look at what you eat and ask yourselves who gathers it from the ground who plants it or who cut the meat or who kills the animal so we can eat it... so the next time you go to Mc Donald's burger king or subway or Wendy's or where ever look at who's cooking your food....=]
