Dream

If I would be a kite,
I would aim higher as its flying higher and higher.
If I would be a flower,
I would spread my fame as its sweet smell.
If I would be a sea,
I would be as calm as its water.
If I would be a river,
I would mingle with everyone as its water.
If I would be a pigeon,
I would spread message of peace all around the world.
If I would be a mirror,
I would reflect your image as you are.
If I would be a book,
I would gives you knowledge which makes you great.
If I would be a lamp,
I would keep lighting your life.
If I would be a ferry,
I would pass you from world.
If I would be a proper human,
I would do all the thing and I will.

Friendship

Friendship Is connection of two hearts,
One may being our life's part.
It is precious relation, no hazitation,
It is preternatural, it is production.
Friend can read our eyes and mind,
There should not be secret of any kind.
True friendship will be life-lasting,
If there is a good understanding.
There is frankness, it is god's blessing,
Without friend life is nothing.

Love

What is love?

Love

is the feeling in which we are taking great care of someone.

Love

is the feeling in which we can feel the joy of life.

Love

is the feeling in which we may sacrifice without thinking to get.

Love

is the feeling in which we can say many thing withot uttering a word.

Love

is the feeling in which we forget every thing of this destroyable world.

Love

is the feeling in which we can't stop our tears while missing someone.

This is the experience of love not defination because love can't define and mesure.

My Mother

Oh! Mother
Whenever I fallen, you got me up.
If I goes wrong, you point me right direction.
You are so loving.
You are so caring.
If I am sad, you cries.
My happiness makes you smile.
You are so sweet.
You are so kind.
You can read my mind.
You loves me since seen me unconditionally.
You are so powerful.
You are so energetic.
Your blessings are always with me.
You present with me every moment.
You are so beautiful.
You are an angle.
There is no-one can replace you ever.
Your love is infinite.
You are God for me.

Punish others? ! !

Is the man have right to Judge others? ! !

What Is The Relation

Whenever I close my eyes, your pretty face appears
Why I feel always yours presence with me here.
I can't justify what is the Relation between us?
Why your thought brings smile on my face
Why I used to talk with myself always
I can't justify what is the Relation between us?
Why face of mine being lightened when you smile
Why my heart cries when you becomes sad
I can't justify what is the Relation between us?
Why am I ready to defend whole world for you
Why am I feeling happy to meet death with you
I can't justify what is the Relation between us?
Why time spent with you makes it remembered
Why I want to spent my whole life with you
I can't justify what is the Relation between us?
