

Poetry Series

Cheryl Beresford
- poems -

Publication Date:

2019

Publisher:

Poemhunter.com - The World's Poetry Archive

Cheryl Beresford(11th July)

hello my name is cheryl i am studying a childcare course in college in my spare time i write poems and do other activities

i have been writing poems for the past 3 years i have wrote about 23 poems in total

A Friend Like You

Everyone deserves a friend like you,
You are so fun to be with,
and you are such a nice and considerate person you touch my heart with your kindness your always there for me you are like my sister
i wish everybody had a friend like you

Cheryl Beresford

Do You Remember

Do you remember when your grandchildren was born,
Do you remember picking me up from infants,
Do you remember at christmas when you gave everyone their presents,
Do you remember those precious meomries

I remember the day you fell ill, it upset all so much especially nan, she tried to hide her emotions to show she was being strong for you, she didnt want to lose you neither did we,
but no-one lives forever,
you will never be forgotten

Cheryl Beresford

How Would You

How would you react if i told you i loved you,
Would you laugh and brag to your mates Or would you say i love you to How would you react if i said i needed you would you go off with your mates or would you stay and be caring How would you react if i said i was pregnant with your child would you leave me and never come back or would you stay with me How would you react if i said i was dieing and i wanted to spend my last moments with you would you walk out and leave me to die or would you hold my hand and say ill never stop loving you

Cheryl Beresford

We All

We all wished you didn't go,
we all miss you so,
now we have all reached a bad low,
we all love you so,
i was only seven,
how could i understand what death meant.

We will always love you,
we can never forget you,
you were always there for us,
whether it was through good times,
or bad times.

Cheryl Beresford

When Our Lives Changed

The day you fell ill,
It upset us all so much,
and i can never forget that day,
The last time i saw you,
I made you a get well soon card, and i hope you read the card before you passed while the angels were guiding you on your journey to heaven, I had a week of school,
and isolated myself from the world.
The 25th february was when our lives changed.

Cheryl Beresford

You Were There

You were there for me when i thought no-one would be,
When i felt alone you was there, whhen i needed a friend to talk to about my problems you were there,
i would do same for you, this is a promise ill never break so whenever you need me ring me or text me and ill be there for you just like your there for me

Cheryl Beresford