Yours To Keep

Our love is strong, our love is great
My heart is always yours to take
My breath is gone, my heart it aches
But when you speak it all fades
Your voice is sweet, your kiss may break
But my heart is always yours to take
To hold, to love, to cherish, to break
My heart is yours to take
Our love is great, our love is sweet
My heart will always be yours to keep to keep, to cherish, to love, to hate
Will you keep my heart safe?
My heart is yours and yours is mine
To keep, to hold, to love
I promise to cherish it and hold it dear
To hold, to love
To always keep near
I'll hold you close and never let go
Forever and always
I'll love you so
