I Drank Poetry

Bartender

Pour me some more

Let me stumble through the back door

Let the police

Smell the poignant aroma of rhythm and blues

Collide with my Genius creative expression

Handcuff me for resisting being silent

Check my breath for the bubbles of a drunken poet

Spitting up words and rhymes

Expressively with profanity of poetry

Charge me with intoxication

Verbal sensation

Before the judge

I plea guilty

Poetic confinement recommended

On the walls I write art

Painting out the graffiti of the prisoner's thoughts

And colouring with poetic expressions

Bartender

Pour me some more

Until my cup overflows

I just can't get enough

Let this liquor become embedded in my arteries and lungs

Let it be in my very DNA

Let it flow through my blood and veins

Through my heart and mind

Let it be hypnosis for my dreams

I drank poetry and it tasted delicious.

Talk Shakespeare To Me

Talk Shakespeare to me

Thouest my love
Flattering like a sparrow
Chirp and sing
Melodies
Then thou art
Take this love
And let us travel
Like travelling musicians
Breaking down
China's wall
Rebuilding Berlin
Asleep we lie
In the kings palace
Take this heart
As if we were
Romeo and Juliet
Underlying passion
If we must die
I wish to die
In love
Holding you
With clutch hands
Like sinking titanic
Whisper
Soft
In my winters heart
Slowly
Take me into a trance
Like a summers night dream.
