A Woman And A Question Mark

such a persistent question mark that seeks to find an answer.

An answer that will not accept a scared and lonely question mark.

The only way to attract this answer to emerge, is by bringing it against a solid, fearless question.

So place before the question mark a solid, clear sentence, thus giving no chance and leaving no choice the answer will be forced to come in spoken words or silence.

Express yourself, don't hesitate don't let a lonely question mark to maintain your pain.

Craven Killer

Passing through your life you found no-one to love Trapped within your mind you've developed fatal scars.

In your eyes in your cries vengeance for the world nothing else makes you feel as if you were God.

Craven Killer, Craven Killer, Craven Killer,
sharp deadly sight you are lost in your lie.

Craven Killer Craven Killer Craven Killer Craven Killer.

Every day and night you have deadly hideous thoughts seeking for the moment to become the hand of Lord.

Now you know you're alone nothing left for you and the only thing that stays is your vicious rule.

Craven Killer, Craven Killer, Craven Killer,
sharp deadly sight you are lost in your lie.
Craven Killer.

Bloody thoughts have covered your mind, you cannot avoid the stream of your crime.
Sharp and pointed knives you all time hold and you are ahead to rip of some throats.

Craven Killer, Craven Killer, Craven Killer, Craven Killer,
sharp deadly sight you are lost in your lie.
Craven Killer oh no Craven Killer.

And in your heart and in your mind burning flames you feel.

And in your heart and in your mind steaming iron you feel.
And in you heart and in your mind burning flames you feel.
And in your heart and in you mind there is devil. Yes he.

Cyber Gods

In the dead of the night After minimal thought Your wheel chair rolling To the very same spot

Electricity power
All the fuel you need
And in front of the rays Doing your damn solo things

Under the invisible hand
Of an artificial mom

Under the ferocious stand
Of a superficial god

And the night has come
And the cyber gods attack
And the night is lost
With the cyber gods

After serious time
Of a visional search You detect in the flashing
The "messiah" church

She is here for your joy
And of thousands more Gift of hyper realms Goddess of the hardcore

Under the invisible hand
Of an artificial mom

Under the ferocious stand
Of a superficial god

And the night has come
And the cyber gods attack

And the night is lost
With the cyber gods

When the ritual is finished And you are ready to go With your head to the ground
As in always before

Giving thanks to an item Giving curse to your soul
You wish you embraced Of a truly living god

And the night has come
And the cyber gods attack
And the night is lost
With the cyber gods

Cynical Love

It is not your fault cause you've got those eyes
It is not your fault that I'm mesmerized,

It is just the fault of "love".

The deceptive story of a man who loves The confusing lie in a woman's heart,

Bring the darkness in my eyes.

The illusive hope for a better state
The attractive death trap of a bitter faith,

Take my mind and lead the way.

When I realize that I have been fooled Myself quickly I try to pull,

Just to find that I will fail And my heart will stay in pain Always doing the same mistake My fear is the constraint.

Fawlty Way Of Loving

First caught into my eye then passed into my mind, drifting in thoughts not too far headed straight to my stiff heart.

Seemed as if dreams would come true getting me out of dead loop, false hopes took me by the hand daydreams, illusions, lost man.

Sadness, depression, dead lock forming a kind of brain block seeking for understanding unrequited loving.

In State Of Sickness

Never expressive always defensive everything within his mind is always offensive.

Never consistent always so distant practically insecure for ever resistant.

Limerent phase all time the case mesmerised from her sight her beautiful face.

In state of sickness
keeping his secrets deep inside his silent soul so lost in his weakness.

On Your Horizons

Love is in your eyes pain in my heart, wishing you were mine someone else you have.

Waiting for a smile sun to rise with it, at the same time lies will be revealed.

Life seems not fair
dreams in vanity
tears in my eyes
and I'm leaving again now.

Life seems to bear
greatest pain of all,
and I don't know how just to say that I love you.

I am still in fears even though I know, loving you in vain brings my heart to snow.

Watchin' every tear dropped onto the ground laughing at sometimes lost but never found

Life seems not fair
dreams in vanity
tears in my eyes
and I'm leaving again now.

Life seems to bear
greatest pain of all,
and I don't know how
just to say that I love you.

On you horizons, I tried to find my soul but you have sent me, your night shadows and ghosts.

Life is here life is now live it or forget it Life is here life is now
love me don't betray me.

Seeking For An Excuse To Fail

While the answer's plainly clear and the road so simply near,

I insist to cover the eyes and defendless meet the ice, of the cold and frozen mind that eliminates the fact.

In complexity I strive to construct a solid pride, but as surely this will fail and the fear will just remain,

I foolishly sustain the erratic hope that craves an excuse for me to catch.

Sexuality

When you grow up you discover that you are doomed on your own.

So you try to find what will be your pride what will save you from snow.

Then you move ahead this to implement just to feel plain sorrow

Cause the one you found knocks you to the ground says you are not what she sought.

Sexuality sexuality so much fear, so much pain.

The Road So Dark And Endless

I hate to bother you I hate to trouble you I hate to see you sad
That's why I stay away

I love to hear you laugh
I love to see you in joy
I love to know you're fine
That's why I stay away

Wishing you were mine
Is not ever enough
Your heart is not a clockwork toy

Imagining you are mine
The only fault I take
The road so dark and endless.

What Do You Want?

What is it that you seek But you can never find,
Is it the glory of the world Is it only the money?

Is your desire for love
That drives every try,
Is it your purpose to fulfill Your dreams and to have pride?

Do you wish for power
To be the first above us,
Or simply quiet you want To live alone among us?

If you don't know what you want Your search for it is endless, First you must learn how to walk
And after make the first steps.

When Love

When love is love then it is love.
When it is not love then it isn't love.

Young And Beautiful

Young and beautiful
You have come just to bring on the rainfall,

Young and beautiful
Your wish my command
On a duty call.

If you asked for a star
I would ride upon the sky
For the brightest one Reaching far

If you asked for the sun
I would bring you all the sky
To salute with your smile Every star

Wings of silk and gold Solar crown on thrown Raise your hand and guide me Spread your voice empower me

Throw your light on darkness Chase away the sadness Let your wings to open Come and fly above me.
