Cielo Dela Cruz()

'I have fallen in-love in many ways, but have experienced too many pains.
I am a hopeless romantic person, always dreaming of a happy ending and beautiful fairy tales...but this dreams never come to reality for me....
No intention of searching but just to mend and keep what God's love within me.'

Let it be 90% God's will and 10% my will!

After Pain Loneliness

How to trust when you felt the pain of betrayal?
How to share happiness when it was taken away?
How to care when you had never felt it with someone?
How to listen when you had heard so many lies?
How to believe when faith was not shared?
How to love when I am so scared?

I wanted to be loved
I wanted to love
I wanted to share
I wanted to care
But how could I, for I had forgotten it because of all the pain
And in me, loneliness binds me.

Appreciation Of You

Your eyes show's honesty
Your smile warms me deeply
Your words comforts me
And lift my soul to bliss

Your hand reaches to my soul
To ease the pain and console
Your heart never fails to listen
And feel my mixed emotions

Your presence lightens up my day
For guiding me in all ways
You gave your time without restraints
To rescue me and help me through
I never needed to call for you
For you were always there

I could only imagine what will it be like
To be standing beside you
With all your glory and all
For me to say thank you
And give you Praises!

Decision

After a long wait I heard your voice
I felt happy in a second
But it fades away after a minute
As you throw hurting words away

I calm down and just absorb
Every words that's piercing me like a sword
You never said sorry but you kept on hurting me

You blame me for what you've done
You blame me for what you've said
You blame me for what you think
You blame me for what you dream

Then I realize a tear went down my cheeks
For though you are hurting me
I am still hoping that we could pass these through My mind say stop and let him go
My heart say stop and give myself a rest
My conscience says go and don't stop
For he is my other half which I have to fight for

I want the pain to just go and fade
But you inflict me more when I stay
I yearn for us to work out
But you expect me to jut bare all things through

How Could I

How could I define love
When I have given it a million times
But pain is returned to me intentionally

How can I dream of true love
When I have seen how my love have been thrown away
Much faster than they thought of inflicting pain

How could I wait for love
When time was not even given from the start
And ending was always seen before it happens

How could I feel trust
When it was just a word of promises
That he planned to destroy it any way.

How could I feel secure
When he expect me to give it to them
And for them to take it away from me

How could I feel support
When I was obliged to do it myself
And for them to watch me fall

How could I feel passion
When he just need pure pleasure and not wanting the connection

How could I ask for happy endings
When they intended it only to stay In love with themselves and not dare to share.

I Kept On Thinking

I kept on thinking
Is it hard for you to understand?

I kept on thinking
Is it difficult for you to feel?

I kept on thinking
If I honestly deserve this?

I kept on thinking
Should I always beg and say please?

I kept on thinking
Will there be someone for me?

I kept on thinking
Is this really what it seems?

I kept on thinking
Do I really have to wait?

I kept on thinking
Could I ever stop the pain?

I Want To Feel

What will it feels like...
For a warm hug and a sweet kiss
Every first minute of the morning

What will it feels like..
For an assuring smile
If doubt's occupy's my mind

What will it feels like...
Hearing a silly joke
For you to hear my unending laugh

What will it feels like..
Someone adores me
And assures me of his love

What will it feels like..
To run on someone's arms
To protect and cuddle me

What will it feels like..
To make love to the same man
To the man I said my vows to

What will it feels like..
To have a relationship that is not perfect
But in every angle it is honest and true

Loneliness

It's nine o'clock in the evening and here I am
Scanning my mind to set my feelings free
As much as I wanted to keep it inside me
But everyday a tear falls on my cheeks.

I yearn for this day that I would be strong
To face all life alone
I yearn for this day that I would not hold to someone
I yearn for this day that pain will be gone
And no one to inflict it again

How I wrote so many lines to define a Broken heart
How I wrote so many lines to define
My past
But still ...and still... loneliness I feel
For still I am waiting
For true love which I hope is real.

My Story

Is it fulfilling to hurt someone?
Is it satisfying to lie around?
Is it rewarding to deceive?
Is it gratifying to see her shed a tear?

Love is humility
Love is giving
Love is forgiving
Love is enduring
Love is trusting
Love is a guarantee

Defining it never includes pride
Defining it never includes lie
Defining it never includes fear
Defining it never include impair

But how and why?
This defines my story.

Please Teach Me

Please teach me to move on
For me to live alone
Please teach me to stop yearning
For me to strive more
Please teach me to stop looking
For me to stop wanting
Please teach me to stop loving
For me to stop hurting
Please teach me not to trust
For me to stop dishonesty
Please teach me to be sturdy
In my heart, mind and body
I ask for you to teach me
For I always deny reality.

There Is This Feeling

There is this feeling
Holding for a hope..
There is this feeling
Strong to dream of...
There is this feeling
Overflowing within
There is this feeling
Longing to be seen
There is this feeling
I wanted to share
There is this feeling
Needed a pair
This is a feeling I am so scared of
For it builds me but destroys me within

What I Need To Do

I have given you my trust
With all my heart and all
I entrusted you my love
Without any doubt, and gave it all

All honesty was given
Though it sometimes hurts you more
All effort was done to save it all
But is it still, worth fighting for?

Willingness and hope
For us to settle, is there within me
But will it work, if it's only me doing the compromising
Time and affection is still felt by you
But will it be enough to endure us in the future

You say I love you and I miss you
I had heard it so many times
But is there the sincerity in it all
For action speaks louder than words

You dream of a good future
When the future does not include me
You wanted to forget the past
When the past includes me
You wanted to feel my love and affection
When the warmth of your love,
You seek to give to someone new
Is it still right to hold on to you?

Please let the hurt and pain go away
For my mind can't think of any way
To reach you and make you understand
That loving you is breaking my heart in all ways.

Why Want

Why do I still want?
When you could hardly feel yourself
Because of the deep pain of a broken heart

Why do I still want?
When promises of love
Is being broken unconditionally

Why do I still want?
When you are taken away from your safe place
And just left you alone and forgotten

Why do I still want?
When love is so painful...
When trust is always forgotten...
When passion was gone away...
When dreams are broken...

Why do I have to want
For someone to love me...
For someone to guide me through...
For someone to look at me and say I love you...
For someone to hold me tight when things
Aren't going right...
For someone to protect and fight for me...
For someone I'll share my everyday...
For someone who'll cherish with me all the struggles in life....
For someone to be with me forever....
And to make our love a miracle

Why do I have to want
When this dream and wishes I have is just a painful struggle

When shall I see?
That fairy tales are not real
And definitely not for me! ! !
