Alone

I never thought of were you would want me to be.
Left alone please rescue me.
Collect my thoughts, listen to my crys, help me get past were the pain lies.
Be my sayvor take my hand, yes i trust you what dont you understand?
Dont let me fall or crash and die. Be my joy dont leave me dry.
Pull me up and scream my name, and please take away the pain.

Past

The steady putter of the rain, the hope of sun but the faint puddels lay.
Unsighted happyness undoubted trust, no rythem but combusted lust.
The gray overcomes bethrown the trees.
Running pipes power drains sliden dreams.
Comfort moments charted last, save the rain anbd drwn my past.
