1 Wish

if you had 1 wish what would it be money true love just to be happy nah i dont care bout those things if i had 1 wish it would to be to escape these dark lonely halls of my life i walk alone in these not knowing were ill end up hopefully one day ill come out into the day and just fall from the skies into your arms

A Castaway

I'm a lost soul a dark lonely shadow of a person
forced to live his life out in solitude it's because of times like these I was forced to a life of evil society cast me out so I vowed to make them all pay!
and pay they did!

Anzac

Say not that they are dead who fell By Anzac's storied Cove.
The better of them shall dwell Within the land they love.
And though they fell by Lonesome Pine 'Neath Northern stars, apart, Their home lies southward of the Line,
In Australia's heart.

Beach

you n me were happy on the beach sitting on the roof top feeling the blaze of the sun as it strikes us we just lay there think of nothing all day with a kiss along the way today was one thing the night coming up is another the sun sets and spreads its orange love over the water n land i see it glance as it falls comes out the moon the lights light up as we can see the city its beautiful to see the stars moon n the city so shinning bright just like your eyes as i glance into then i say one thing then fall asleep your beautiful

Dad

I lost more than a toy car or a teddy i lost a loved one who stood and fought for me who has taken care of me who did more than i suspected didn't go to pubs every night and got drunk and didn't remembering anything he was a serious yet funny had his good and bad times but i guess he's not coming back to hold me when I'm scared to help me when I'm confused to tell me to stand strong when i fall most of you people are lucky that you got a dad but most people don't care but I'm proud to be my dad's son

Goodbye Blue Skies

goodbye
i will never see the freedom anymore i won't taste the fresh air as i use to when i use to run with you but now since i lost every thing and im behind bars now i say
for the last time

Happiness

happiness can only be found if you search for it like a vicious blood hound
is just like love just to get it you will push and shove
is just a door you open it up you just want more
grows like trees it gets really big but dies in the breeze
is what i could never find so i went to the dark to sit and hide

Hiroshima

as the Japanese finally took the advantage to bomb pearl harbor without notice the Americans had decided to declare war now it has been decided that japan has met their fate with a few tone bomb landing there goes Hiroshima and Nagasaki with the cloud so high many people shall die and die they did with no hope they had surrendered so now we know not to do something so harsh again

I'M Affraid

My life is so complicated and frustrating Sometimes I just feel the need to scream I hate this life that I live Someday I wish I could wake up and it would all be a dream

At night it's so hard to sleep
The only thing that can make me smile Is knowing you're alright And thinking of you holding me through the night

I would give anything just to spend one day Even if it doesn't last I would go back to that day so everything would be okay

Most of my life is spent trying to please you It seems that everything that I believe in you don't I wonder if you have felt the way I do

Not a second goes by that I am not thinking of you in some way When I look into your eyes I get butterflies
I never know just what to say

I am so afraid to be myself I am afraid you wont like the real me So I try to be someone else

Without you in my heart I feel incomplete Without you I am falling apart Your dark long wavy hair
As it blows in the wind You stand there
It makes my heart mend
From all the past heart breaks

It's All Counted

you swear that our love was true you swore you'll never hurt me again you say things i didn't want to hear but know if you add them all up

Just Plain Ol Tears

presence

i feel your touch or just in vain

Love

what is love can love be explained can you use words is it real let me tell you now its real but the sad thing is you dont know it till you have lost it it breaks your hard and sometimes shatters it you cant repair love once its gone you will never find it again

Love Is Right

hell is a place were people do worng if not convinced by the lord if people say i will go to hell for loving you in my own way of doin things with you than shall i go to hell if not proven right nor i will be proven wrong because you n me baby we will live for ever so no rules or regulations shall interrupt our love any more

Moon

o moon up so high so beautiful so white i glance your beauty and break down and cry

you give me the light just enough to see my love your stars are sparkling just as white as a dove

good bye my love
as i hand you roses
just a kiss just one more

i see the real beauty of the moon

My Arms Are Lonely

im here crying i feel like im dying for your the cure of the missing disease that i have been searching for i miss you in my arms i miss ur kiss and laughs

for my arms are lonely for your hugs

our passionate nights were fun wish i could go back to the days were we laughed and stared at the night sky without a care but im alone im waiting for the day for your return i will wait a thousand years just to see a smile once more

My Best Mate N War

as we march side by side up the dusty track on the hill we here gun fire as i get down i here the moaning people that have been shot i see blood every where for it is brutal all i hear is screams of the wounded the medics risking there life's but i saw my mate my best mate that had been shot i cry in anger and rage i see him dying so i run for it in the high hills i reach to the top that was the day i finally understood

My Fishies

i see my fishies swimming so happily and joyfully in the crystal blue waters just like it use to be with you n me

we were once happy and know you have left me in the crystal blue seas and turned me and the ocean to grey as now my world has turned into black n white for now i must leave you in this horrid so called world so goodbye and good riddance i take one more glance and my happy fishies it puts a smile on my face as i pull the trigger goodbye my happy fishies

My Soul Aint Set Free

In my dreams my silent screams They set me free and let me be I sing myself lullaby's with lonely crys Going Thur changes that only I see

Please let me go my way let me stay I give my love while you turn away Theres nothing to do but think of you I spend my day alone this way Tomorrows dreams I'm alone it seems Changes I see there not from me I see my souls not free Where did you go your love I don't know

My Univers

dark, lonely and cold are the main things u will feel then tourcher through the wounds that your loved ones have left for you to repair coughing dizziness and hatred are symptoms of the heart broken you feel anger and demise as you will see through my eyes the window of my universe

Nimmitable

in the great mountains of NSW in Australia lies a little town where the sun shines so bright the snow falls so beautifully and white where the brumbys ride proud and free and the trees sway to the sound of nature

Mt Kosciusko in the distance stands up tall as you can see where the river flows to where the railway tracks follow to the forest hollows where the great man from snow river was born i feel so low

R.I.P Emily

you were once apart of a family a cherished member at 16 only so young so much to do life was only the beginning but not the end don't know why you grab the rope was it because you couldn't find any hope you were loved by everyone that knew you don't know why you had to leave now why not later it would have been much better i didn't really get a chance to see you it was 4 hours away to see you but only last night it took 5 minutes now i can never see you once more not even to say hello

Rage

rage runs through veins like poison you do anything to get rid of it but only one pays the price is the one you love the most more you ignore it the worst it gets until you cant handle it any more it explodes

next minute you'll see the gates of hell and the devil himself you have realized were you went wrong

Simple Things

the simples things are the most hardest to find so i spent my days searching for them so my whole life i had missed till i stopped now i found everything and lost the main thing which was you

The Dark

the darkness has slowly risen over to cover all the happiness even all the joy in the world people that are happy aint if they were happy as they seem why do i always notice them crawling back from were they came from my world has been like this not knowing what will happen maybe just maybe one day i will seek this so called happiness and find you untill then im here in this dark cold corner

The Door

as i hear the door close behind me i know somethings wrong so i turn around i see your face in dreadful tears it reminds me off the memories of the pain i caused you it leads to the dark secrets that haven't been revealed and the dark stormy nights when i kissed you and left just before i hear the door close one more time

The Extent

I lived life to the extent the adrenaline
the power the force most of my days spent on the drag strip on the side lines waiting with my dearest girl friend the car plowed into the fence which had taken her away from me

I cried when she left me i still hear her voices in my head i still feel the tears she cried over my shoulder the soft touch of her hands now when i go to the drag strip i sit in the same spot every time i go there still hearing her sweet voice still feel her tears that she dropped from her dark ocean blue eyes still feel the soft hands touching my shoulder trying to calm me down from that day she left me

The Last Goodbye

how come its always the last goodbye the easiest and when it's not the last goodbye it's the most hardest

Is it because we know there gonna come back to the last kiss we had or is it we always know how the trail ends of that same track just like the paper back novels how they always end in romance but not all the time it doesn't for me the last good bye was the hardest and the last kiss was the kiss of death and that good bye was a curse now it shall haunt me for the rest of my life

The Mower

as i rip the cord like there was no tomorrow i hear my mower yelling as i did something to trigger it i rip the cord once more it starts to groan like it doesn't want to move as i move along the mower is eating the grass i hear it jug over and over it stops and throws it out i finished the mowing i needed a rest as it was like a fight to move a boulder through the jungle i sit down it's staring at me like it was saying it had beaten me

The Sailor

as he waves good bye the boat set sail to waters so dangerous but yet so precious as it sparkles
in his eyes just as he realizes that he may not come back theres no point of crying he gets up and bares the pain he jumps out and swims back he trys and trys with his last bit of breath

Time

as time goes by so does these days the weeks
the years theres not much time left as i have to accomplish few things and all i got left is to do is to be with you

World Is A Crule Place

im so sick of racism im so tired of sexism why can't we just get along dose it really matter if your black or white dose it really matter if you are a boy or girl dose it really matter which side your on people shall yell out stupid things people fight for the wrong reasons war over what drugs religion

that's why i stay here locked up in my room ignoring the outside world because of one thing the world is a cruel place
