Again

Give pause cause my heart died yesterday, But today i ow I will lie telling you im i tried to fall asleep all i could do is i'll leap and take a dive for you.

I will try to be happy for you, But all i do is cry, Because I can't lay in your arms and look you in your i can do is cry and try to live i'snt a ending to a sad love song.

This moment will someday begone, Because together we you I will stay strong and I wont let you be gone for too long.I try to rewrite this sad love song, But the lyrics have been lost to long ago.I cant let you go.I will show you i'm the man you once believed, Because without you I can't be me.I'll do anything to see you darkest and sweetest me to life again.

Scream and let me out I want is a chance to start over again.I'll do what I can to win your over again.I'll do what I can to win your over again.I never will live
again

till i'm smotheed in my sweetest sin.

Alone

My soul is in pain and its driving me really insane. My heart has nothing to gain, but pure untouched pain and my heart is slowly being slain.

I was willing to give it a try, but it just came back and spit me in my crying as I write I wont lie I see no more the cold darkness of the night's.I guess I'll be alright to be alone to never have someone I can call my own. I have been done wrong be4, but I wont lie this hurt worse then any other would be the same if I slowly was going blind I cant keep her out my in a real bind its like I have Been forgotten in time. I guess in the end all that will stay is a dime and the ambition to get paid.....

Angel Of Death

when u left me I lost a part of me and that was the heart that u took from me. I wanted to be with u.
you said u couldn't love me well. Then let me be and fills my misery never to leave me be. it will slowly consume me. I cant even live without you, but you said I didn't even know you. I'll never be free to love again ill be consumed in nothing but, pain, sorrow and not looking forward to tomorrow..even though you lived far away, But you still managed to steal my heart away. I shall forever pay for loving an angel, but she was an angel of death. I have nothing left but my misery. I lost all of me when I couldn't see her, but I really thought I was meant to be with her. I didn't know she was here to steal my life from me. You didn't believe in me.
that I wanted us to forever be, but I see you just wanted to take my heart away

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Blues

I've given up on my dreams and now all i do is cry myself to sleep.
I've screamned your name in the middle of the night as i fell the deep bite of the kinves cutting into my whole bodys geting so cold and i sold my soul to the love was fake as fools gold.
I geuss that make sense since i'm a fool to ever think i could be loved by said all i did was use you and i don't know what i did to lose you.I geuss we are no longer two and thats the reasson i love singing the blues.....

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Dead

You stole my heart only in the end to slowly rip it soul returns back to the darkness turning back to black as coal once more.

My existence is cracked like my ing you could love me, But your heart is the words I said mean nothing, Because like your dead.I take back everyword.A cord haggng me letting my head start to ng me with ng me apart

all over again as my love for you is like me, Dead.....

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Death

Your brakeing my heart as time goes by i fell tears fall from my eyes.
I fell like im gonna die, because now all i do is cry and i fell that death is near.I close my eyes with no fear.I wipe the tears from my eyes and i stand to deny the reaper.I don't fear the creature, because he will not take my dear sweet angel.I will stop you grim will is deeper then this fait is tied with me i will get on my knees and beg him please don' me instead, because without her i rather be wat i said as he touch me i sundenly fall dead he drags me 2 my death drags me underneath the earth. I take my last breath as i am surrounded by death.....

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Destiny

You make me feel warm all over. I want to make this last forever. I never want to give up this feeling and I'm willing to always fight for you, because I always will spend my nights with you. Your love is so bright it chases away the darkness from my light...

I would be torn in two without you. I would sooner die than forget about you and your warmth you give to me. I want you to always be with me. Without you I'm like a blind man. I can't see. She could be the one maybe the one I'll marry and we have a son. I love your warmth like that from the sun...

I believe we are truly meant to be and you have to be destiny.....

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Every Moment

Every moment I'm in constant torture. Every moment is sheer bliss. Every moment is another wish For another moment of this tourniquet. This turns and twists my soul. Your kindness turned my Heart of coal. Purifying my heart and turning it to gold and holding me together, Keeping me
From falling apart every moment I wish for us to have another last kiss. Every moment without You is another tear on these pages. Another tare at my very existence. Every moment with you Is my reason to exist? I miss seeing you smiling for me. I won't believe were not meant to be.
I am crying for you out of need. Every moment with you is fate. Every moment without you.
I hate to be alive and it's driving me insane. Killing me with the pain, But I fight for another Moment of your love. Every moment I wish for the same thing. For you to be my everything again.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Faithful

I'll be faithful to you and only
You. I will stay faithful to you.
I know that I truly love you.
This is some the thing you.
Make me do. Especially.
Causes you make me love you.
I will stay faithful to you. I Must stick with you. Our love Is so true. You know it too. I will Stay faithful to you and only
You. I will always stick with You.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Fright

I scream your name at night. My eyes full of tears and fright. From the sight of the lonely night. I'm losing sight. Cause I'm so full of fright. I cry at the sight of the ever lonely night. Cause she is in sight when I look at the night. I'll cry all night with that sight. Because without the light to my night. I'm full of terror and fright. Like a baby born without sight. I will always scream your name in fright. Because she is the light to my darkest of nights. Because I'm full of fight on that night. My heart is losing the fight.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Gold

I believe you truly love me and I'm sure you've been sent to me from above. To lift my Soul. My love you are more precious to me than gold. I will always treasure you Even when I grow old. I will always love you. I have fallen in love with a woman with a heart of gold. I pray our love Will never grow old. You warm me up when I'm cold at night. I will love you even after My dying day. 'I do' is the most precious words I can hear from you. 'I love you.'
makes Me want to say 'I want you.' Every time I hear you say my name. My love is growing with everyday I spend with you. I Learned what true love is. The night I meet you. My baby, my boo, my girl I want to marry you.....
All you have to say is I do.....

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Heart

All the words I've said. I meant. Where has your heart went.....is 'That' the reason for all those sad love songs? Was 'that' what they really all they meant? ?

I thought you were heaven sent, But your words were just a bent way of saying sorry for all you've done...I should of known better to think I won the love of an angel.

When I have always been the loser at love. When push came you were to weak to shove.12 weeks of love wasted from me.3 and a half wasted from you. I wonder how you could do this to me and my FRIENDS! ! ! □

Now I will never let you in my heart again.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

How I Am

I can't name one to be happy for. I have no one who adores me for me...It's so hard to endure and I had it all, But I fell.

It's all ng to live for.I pour my heart and soul into my writing. Is this life really worth trying for? ?

I sometimes think I would be better off dead. It might be hard to understand how I can say this, but I wish the words I said before were true.

Do you really know me or you need me to show you how I am. How I'm doing?

Bad. I'm so sad.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

I Do

I love you. I promise you that I'll always cherish you. Through thick and through.
Girl I hope you understand I wana marry you. Have a few kids with you too and call you my boo. I can't wait till we say I do, because I adore you, I do wana be with you and I do wana be your lover too. I can't wait till the first time we slip under the covers. I can't wait till you're the mother of our child.
It's my faith to be with you and I love it too, but not even close to the way I love you and I hope someday you'll say I do too. I can't wait till we both say I do.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Lied

You lied and said you'll love me till I die. Now all I do is cry. You lied and said your love died long ago,
But how can that be so when we made such perfect harmony. I never wanted us to die, but you lied once again and caused me nothing but pain, but pain Everything's driving me insane, because it reminds me of our love and sometimes our pain. I am nothing once again. You said I'm dead to you. I cried through my lonely nights. You lied and you lied and always fight with me. How can you end it all? We were meant to be.
I couldn't believe you've done nothing, but harm me. How could this be that my destiny is to be alone.....?
You lied again and you said you loved me too. You don't even know what love is.....you lied and I cried.....

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Light

My life could be ended by a knife or even in the middle of a fight.
I might be out of sight. But listen cause while I'm in flight I watch Over you all day and night. But don't cry that night and don't lose Sight of the true and only light. Don't let terror and fright scare away you're light.
Let it shine bright you're true and only light.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Love

Love is commonly referred to as just a four letter word, but there so many other ways to say it.

Intoxicating to your very soul. Is another way of saying love, Brotherly love is another way of saying it.

No man is possible of taking it, but it's pretty easy to be faking it. Easily mistaken for lust for one another.

Love is learning to trust each other, but love is also about understanding one another. Love is about believing

In one another. Love is how we fell when we get lost in eachothers eyes. Love is always worth a try. Love is worth Trying for eachother. For love people would die is much more than just a plain four letter word. Love is

The ties that bound us.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Loves Reasson And Emaning

Love is beyond everything and for love man can do anything, Love is in every person place or thing. Love never doesn't cost a thing.
Love is bound for sacrifice of many different things. Love will surface for anything and everything. True love will survive any fall Or answer any call. For love anyone will answer the call for war. Love is a gift that is above any mans understanding. Love is always Worth the fight. Love is inextinguishable light. Love is mans might, Because of love sometimes we lose sight of the truth....

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Miss And A Wish

I miss my best one I was planning to live together to the now broken ties can't be fixed with just words,
I made a wish to die today, Because all I do is cry as every day goes by without you, Is another 24 pieces of me that will fall apart.
I wish I could ask why, But I just don't want to see you cry. I miss the sheer bliss just being around you there is no sound to music. I miss the feeling when we used to kiss each other, Lost in each other's eyes and found in each other's embrace.
I wish for that moment to last forever, But it might not be here ever all I can do is hold on just for you everything inside of my shattered heart is becoming undone! ! !

dennis f. rigdon jr.

My Boo

You were my first and I prayed my last, but now this is all a distant part of my past.

I wished this feeling would last forever, but it was not worth the effort. I would travel to vast places to get what you want, but now you haunt me, because you took my heart. I hate that you had to take a part of my soul. I guess I paid the ultimate toll. It's like I crashed into a pole. I lost sight of my goal to grow old with you. Now you say we are through. I want to know what I do or was it something I didn't do or was it just you. I didn't think of us as two I thought of us as a we. As three words bonded you and me.

The words I love you, but now it's what made us come undone as I felt you slipping away.

I know I lost you and would do anything to get back with you.....my boo.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

My Purpose

All I do is give my life away to others. When all I wanted is to be loved by another.

I'm like a dove I help with the others love and no other will love me.

I want to believe it's just all a part of my destiny. The darkness is getting the best of me.

I cry myself to sleep on my looniest of nights. I see no light at the end of this tunnel.

I fell like I been abonded from above that I will never have love again. It's like a lost language

Many stories to tell but will no one to hear them. I now know I will die alone and my life

Is gone. I know this sound absurd, but I'm like alone love bird. I will keep my word to Find where I belong, but I believe now it's gone. I have lost that happy tone in my voice.

I block to all the noise of my dream and scream as I give up on my hopes and dreams.

It seems my place to be is for another person. This is my version of my story. Never to truly live again and my story has no 's no sending my soul above ad beyond, Because I know I am no longer loved. I'm like a problem never to be solved. My soul is now starting to dissolve.....

dennis f. rigdon jr.

My Soul

I gave away my soul. Now I'm taking it back with a tear in my eyes and a knife in my back. Stabbed by, my whole world. She oopulled and tore the cords of my heart. Now all she did was rip them off. End my life as it is today.i have no choice but to leave my old life behind and find a new. Who would've ever knew you could do this to me. You the one I didn't care if we were meant to be, because you're all I ever wanted to see. But you can be so heartless and so cruel.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

One Another Eachother

I dive into your sweet embrace. Our fingers lace and my heart. Starts to race and together

We'll face our future. We can't erase the past, the fire which is our love burns Wanting a moment apart from one another. We want to spend our lives together showing each other,

What we mean to be for more than, just lovers spending all their time together Getting to know one another as time goes on. No one, but you know how much we really mean

To find the time in each other's arms. Finding each other irresistible to one, Another kiss and another wish for this moment to last forever, together through the good and the bad.

The happy moments and the sad, doing our best to endure the pain we bear, but this moment there is no one else

I rather spend it with. Then her as one of a lovers

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Suffering

Suffering is when you lose your lover. You fell like you'll never have another.
Even when we use to play under the covers even, before the tears.
Because I meet my greatest fear in losing the one I hold most dear.
Tears pour down my cheek as she called my love fake and she called Me her biggest mistake. Then why did it feel like she really loved me and only me.
She didn't believe me when I told her. I loved her like no other. Even more than my mother,
Or even my little brother. Suffering is all I know today. That is all I can say. I have no joy like a boy who lost it all.
My world starts to fall apart. I call your name out with tears and fright filling my eyes as I remember our first night.
We never fought and never argued. I stayed true to you. I even wanted to marry you, because to me you will always be my boo.
I promise I will always treasure you. I hope you know it to. I always will believe in you. I truly trusted you. I even Stopped smoking for you. I'll suffer now and forever through life's storms or bad weather. I wanted us to stay Together, But all I know now is how to suffer. Suffering like a love bird without its other half. I'm starting to die there's no other way to explain this pain. You can Only see the tears as I shed the blood. I have bled as I lay dead.....

dennis f. rigdon jr.

The Mile

I love how she makes me smile for that I will walk the mile. This love is so great my hearts about to burst

At the seams. She's always been there for me; better or worst and for that I'm willing to walk the Madly in love with her there's no denial. For that, im willing to walk that long mile down the aisle.

I hope this will make you smile, like you make me every day, for that I would gladly throw my life away to keep

Her safe. That's why I'm so to throw my life away, because after the long walk down the aisle. The one that fells

Like you just walked twenty miles. I will be starting a new life. One I'm gonna be so happy to now share with my now beautiful wife.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

The Night We Wed

I will always be with you. I will stay true through the blues and all of our dues.
Me and you now and forever. Through the roughest of weather. We will be together forever.

I will never leave you. I can't deceive you. I tell you I really love you. I hope you know it too.

If you left me I would cease to believe in destiny. I do want you to be my wife all our life.

I wana be the one you spend the night with and help you through any fright.
I shiver when you're in my sight and I wana spend sunsets on the river's edge with you.

I wana fall asleep in the same bed. I can't wait till the night we wed.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

To Love

Her love is like a dove from above.

Come to save me, to be with me and to love me.

We go together like l.o.v.e. you see I always wana be with you.

cause you make me love you. With everything little thing you do. I call

Your name, my boo, my one and the two of us together forever.

We could face the most darkest of night' when we catch each other's sight.

This won't be just for tonight. Not even after you're out my sight. I love u with all my might.

Even when my soul is sent above you'll still be my love.

Together forever d + a

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Today And Yesterday

I never imagined letting you go, but no sense of clinging to a lie. No one will say I didn't try. I would've died for you and I tried so hard for us. I trusted you and you sat there. Tears in your eyes as made me let go with your lies. Even though I let you go yesterday. It still hurts every day, It's hard to just let it go. It's hard to show how I fell. It's so hard to tell what's real. Today is like yesterday. Full of pain. It's driving me insane. I lost everything now all I can do is gain. I guess this is the game they call love. I fell for you yesterday, but today I hit the ground.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Treasure

I love you more than the soft touch from the rays of the sun. I love you more than more than the glow from the moon.

I want to marry you and hopefully you'll say yes, because you are the best in me. You have truly stolen my heart from me.

I'm happy you're seeing me now for how I truly fell for you. I love you. I truly do. You are my love and you are also my boo.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

True

It's true that I love you and only you.
I would even love to marry you. Call You my boo. Cause our love is so True. I belong to you and only you.
I can't wait till we say I do. I would Even help you take off your Shoes. Because I love you. It's true
And this is not all I can do for you.
I will stay true to u and only you.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Unnknown

It would be such a feat to say no until I lose my life in defeat.

Most people are full of deceit, but they have so many unfulfilled needs.

Some people are willing to beg on their knees and some are willing to please to fulfill their needs.

I could never show anything but deceit, because no one knows the real me. How could I let this be?

as I felt my soul start to float free from me. leaving me like she left me and I couldn't believe we weren't meant to be. I couldn't conceive the belief that we are over. that's why it's so hard to stay sober or to keep together my composer. incomplete that's what I am without you. I felt like a old worn out man that past his own due. I can't even breath without you. I am truly known as a man having the blue. I felt it was special too. I should of known it was not meant to be. I lost a part of me. I am meant to be alone now and ng down my own fort through any weather. I hold no vendetta.....you are what I need amaya kallies

dennis f. rigdon jr.

We

We only means to me is you and me together going through the even toughest of weather.

For better or worse through the Corse of our life nothing will end even a if we were hit by a bus.

I would die by your side lie there and cry as I stab myself through the eyes once you died. You laid you

Said our love would never die. We defied all. Now we start to fall as it all ends. I thought you were heaven sent,

But my fate was to be bent till the darkness covers our end.....

What Love Is About

Love is commonly referred to as just a four letter word, but there so many other ways to say it.

Intoxicating to your very soul. Is another way of saying love? Brotherly love is another way of saying it.

No man is possible of taking it, but it's pretty easy to be faking it. Easily mistaken for lust for one another.

Love is learning to trust each other, but love is about understanding

dennis f. rigdon jr.

When

I miss you today. I worry every day. Take my pain away get lost in a kiss. Make a wish to have you home with me. I miss how we use to kiss every time we said goodbye.

I can never get tired of trying for you. Do you really know how I fell? ? ? Will you show me the way to be happy again? I'm tired of pain from my sins I'm tired of killing

Myself again and again

When will it my turn to be happy again. Is it now? ? ? ?

dennis f. rigdon jr.

When She Left Me

She's the reason I smiled the reason I talked the reason I breathed.

Without her my heart is not free it's full of death and I fell like I lost a part of my destiny.

I lost the fight in me. I lost my moonlight night so that means I even lost my sight.

Without my light all there is my night. I can't believe she left me I thought this was meant to be.

I lost the main part of me.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

When We Meet

I wana hug you close to me. I want this to be just you and me. I want to even carry you.

I would bleed for you. I love you and I wana pay my dues to you. I wana stay true and I

Even remember your favorite color is blue. I can't wait till the day we say I do. My soul

Is forever tied to you. As I start felling my heart becomes fond of you. I wonder if I can Call you my boo. I knew when I meet you. I wanted to marry you. Cause me without

You is no felling I wana fell. I have lost my will to you all I wana do is be with you. I pray

You fell this way too.

dennis f. rigdon jr.

Wonder

I tried so hard to be your man. You let me go I came back and try and hold your hand. You said 'I don't want you anyway'. I try to cry away the pain of yesterday and today, but now I can't even wipe away my own tears.

I need you here and where did I go wrong. With me every day. All I can say is why I let you gooooooooooooo. I wish I could show you how much you mean to me. I want us to always be. But I just can't believe u let me on and You started to see another man, beside me. Now I'm blind I can't see because all I can do is cry and you to stay, but YOU LEFT ME ANYWAY! I just wanted you to stay with me. Let me become the man u seek. Now times are bleak. This Time without me and you. I just don't know what to do to holddddddddddddd on! ! ! All that love that we have I wonder for u if it's gone. If it is then let me just sing my sad love song and cry your name againnnnnnnnnn! ! ! When will you Come back to meeeeeeeeeeeee. I can't believe in living without you here. I wish I could hold u near and u could whip away the years of tears I've cried for you to be mine againnnnnnnnnn! I don't know when this pain will stop ripping me and Tearing me apart. From the heart from the soul. I wonder when you'll come back, I wonder if that's a fact, or am I just waiting for disappointment. I tried so hard to forget the tears of today and yesterday. I wish I could say the words that'll bring you back to me! !

dennis f. rigdon jr.

You

You make me smile I must admit there's no denial.
You take my breath away whenever you say something.
There ain't nothing like the feeling I get when I talk to you.
I can imagine spending my life with you and some day I want to Marry you. I will do anything for you, because I get an amazing feeling Whenever I hold you. I want to grow old with you and settle down and Have kids with you. I will stay true always and only to you, because I'm starting To fall in love with you. I will always cherish you with all my heart. I would sooner Perish than lose the feeling I get when I'm around you. I'm even willing to give my life to you.
It's true that's how I feel about you and I hope someday we can say our vows
