Dernell Antoine(31-08-89)

I was born and raised in Trinidad. Ever since i could remember writing poems was my hobbie. I also like love songs and going to the gym. To you poets out there once you have love you can write anything that comes to your mine or the feelings in your heart.

These poems are to make you see how special your love truly is. In these poems you will see it is a wonderful gift inside these words.

It will show deep hidden feelings you always try to hide inside.

Poems will show love is beautiful especially if you are in love and then you will feel and understand the to say i am in LOVE with superman because of his powers so i belive that i am the lover version of him i am the body savior.

A Glimps

It was like a knife to my chest with feelings so intense i still cannot believe it was your beauty i have seen

You are to beautiful to be real and with that smile you make my heart shine and your eyes are so sexy i can't stop thinking of you next to me

It's that voice you have your words sounds like a melody that came right out your soul which makes it so lovely.

Dernell Antoine

A Message

You are in the beautiful moon light i will try to reach you with all my might.

My life is like a non stop dream and you look sweeter than coconut ice-cream.

This is a message to you but i haven't got a clue if loving you is real or is it one of my sweet dreams.

Trying to explain how i feel inside emotions so strong cannot hide... i am writing a message for you to show... that i will love you now and forever more.

Dernell Antoine

A Stranger

I remember a day like no other day, I saw something in the distance, with a bright light blocking an image, of the most beautiful something.

It was no longer a something as it passed,
I saw the most wonderful girl at once my love grew strong for her and I almost felt her hand touch my heart.

Who would have ever thought the stranger would love me 100% stronger and can make me feel so good inside just by standing by my side who would have thought the stranger would be you.

Dernell Antoine

A Thing

It is your greatest joy when sad your stress releaver when times get hard the only feeling of comfort when alone and the reason you always have to pick up the phone.

With out this thing you cannot live, to really know what life is about... you must stand up tall and brave, and if you know it's real do not dout.

It's like the air you breath how hard you cannot do with out it if it does find you, you will feel your body being lift to a strange feeling you always need.

That thing the only thing can make you feel this way is love.

Dernell Antoine

A Woman's Love

Something you need most in your life
To guide you thought you light Strong and precious like gold Waiting for your heart to unfold

A woman has what we need most of Because of it's precious value
And it's seeing sight of caring That gives us another meaning of living

A woman gives us a taste of something sweet Making our hearts have one more beat Her love feels so wonderful and amazing
I must have to say it feels like dreaming

A woman love is seen as a mother
The one who can love you like no other But if you have her as a lover And you will be the one to have her flower

It needs to be respected Because a woman gives all that is expected Just for you to feel emotional Or she can mentally break you down

Dernell Antoine

All I Want

The kind words you say, to me each and every day...
along with your lovely smile... that makes me walk that extra mile.

Your pure loving ways and your special touch that i love so much I need all of my days.

But all i want is you... to hold and love you right true, the quiet and still night... and our life will be all right.

Dernell Antoine

Bad Habbits

There are some things you should know, I love me My ways I have and my thoughts run free
This heart of mines is only yours
So take care of it especially with all its flaws

Bad habits take over like a roaring sleep And it feels so good when I give in Like shopping for excitement in big heap Liming in your mind seeing all your dirty sin

I can't get enough of certain things While fighting this fight up to a certain time Then just going to let go and enjoy what's mines Then blame habits and joy it brings

One of my bad habits I love the most Are you pulling my hair making my toes curl Kisses on my neck having my body twirl

Can't get enough that's just best of the worst

Dernell Antoine

Beauty

My journey to love you seems to be blocked by a wall but we can brake it down because my love for you is real even in my dreams and still i cannot resist your beauty.

You are like a real sweet rose beautiful and easy to understand.
O how my love for you is filled, with Tenderness and Comfort.

Dernell Antoine

Biting On Your Buttom Lip

Why you got to do that and doing it so well don't you know that 's a spell that tregers emotions up that just fell.

And adding a sexual vibe which makes you look so hot knowing i willget burn if i touch your body still you send my feelings to the top

Biting on your buttom lip realy good if you were a stripper i will give you a tip but baby do not trip because i just love to see what you do with your lip

Give me a chance to see if i can do it like you even if i know one can do it like you but while you do the buttom mine if i work the top

Dernell Antoine

Bonanza

As i unwrap the tight cloths of your body touching every basic part of your sweet tender smooth skin makes it so special.

Special when i make you feel like O Yes... as i nibble the chocolate of your body and liking you all over having you biting your lips.

Then i slowly caress you and rubbing you down with honey then kiss you in the center right above your sexy nable.

You are truly a bonanza just because you are so sweet and makes my heart skip a beat.

Dernell Antoine

Butterfly Kisses

Butterfly fisses with a touch of love you give me an idea of what your hearts'mabe of then i look in your eyes and what i see is all the sweet ways you want t love me,

I never felt this way about any one before almost feels like your kiss finds the key for my heart's door and when we make love i get all excited inside telling me i am everything you need when your hands on me

Sometimes i dream of sweet wishes but i only want to continue getting your butterfly kisses that stays on my lips like a rose in my soul just because your beauty is priceless and special like gold

The time stop when i am with my pearl wonderful person, to me is nothing more than my world you stand by me and always being there giving me stars in my body with butterfly kisses everywhere.

Dernell Antoine

Chocolate Love

Dark and sweet feelings Inside my heart is having From your creamy soft touch
And tasting of your love is so delicious

You fill my life with flavor Every time I get to kiss your lips Making my feelings for you greater And when I see you my inside makes flips

I put my heart in your hands
When my chocolate love needs romance Started when your beauty I saw Wanted you and nothing more

The coating on your skin Looks just like rich caramel bar
Then I look deep into your eyes Seeing all of the wonderful love, you have inside.

Dernell Antoine

Count On Me

I am your every need just call, I'll be there because you know I care

Any time any day just say and I'll stay especially if you need loving I am already waiting

To turn you on all night long to make you relax driving your body to the max.

Dernell Antoine

Devine

You should be for love see in my heart with that outstanding beauty i never seen anything so sweet thinking of your body as a pleasureable treat,

Just want you so close to me because when in my arms every part of me feels this is where you needs to be want you in my heart deeper than the sea

And it feels good when is you i can see when i close my eyes emotions bright like every sun rise giving me every reason to never tell you lies,

Special days and in every way you in my life i want you to stay for my heart will not continue on because your love is what makes me so strong.

Dernell Antoine

Do I Ever Cross Your Mind?

We had what we call a chocolate love
However, when you left the sweetness had dissolve Searching for love we had I can never find Therefore, I have to ask do I ever cross your mind

Do you see my face in the stars when you are sad?
Or you feel my body so close to you, you smile Thinking of me holding you at that same time And I am crying to get back what we once had

I miss the smile on your face when I kiss you Even the shivers on our body when I touch you Dying because I miss the way we make love Feeling the warmth of your lips, I crave to have

Do I ever cross your mind?
Like you forgot something valuable Well you did it was me Now your mind cannot go free.

Dernell Antoine

Don'T Say No

You are starting to enjoy your self i can tell by how you touch your self and you are holding me tight like if you want to make a love fight

I can see you are liking what i do don't say no because i already know by the way you lick your lips and i can feel goose bumps on your hips

Don 't say no i am not done yet for i haven't make you drip sweat and do not forget i am the only one who can make you lost breath

Now i know what gets you weak the places i touch when you say no and when i love you i give my best but i can't understand why your no mean yes.

Dernell Antoine

Dreaming

Someday like today i had a dream
A person who would make my life wonderful.

Who would make my years excited, and joyful to be with someone like you.

To make me feel to fly high,
of pride when you say you love me.

But it will never happen, because i was only dreaming.

Dernell Antoine

Dreams

Dreaming of you tonight and ill be holding you tight giving you love with all my might and in my dreams there is no such light.

With beauty you carry I must be chosen for you because there is nothing i will not do if you do not want me to.

Dreaming of you tonight
to the warm feelings you leave me with the comfort the materialism they fit in the part of my heart your beauty hit.

Nothing compares to you even in my quiet dreams to me you are soft and sweet like ice-cream and only i know what your heart means.

Dreaming of you tonight
and feeling for you will hold throw my life in time to make you my wife.

Feelings

If love was air and i was love i will show you i care because i, you will always be breathing of

It means more to love someone if that's all you are dreaming of but to be loved in returned feelings sink at the bottom of the ocean like a stone.

This is what you do to me you take my breath away with beauty so magical left my heart broken so motional and took the pieces, lost it in the sea intentional.

Dernell Antoine

Flowers

Different colours and size all together as one looking as beautiful under the sun to the scent they carry that always bring back memories and lovely ones at that.

The unspoken sound they make... to the gentle breeze they shake... and move from side to side, looking so peaceful as the sunset.

Now they close to dream a dream to their lovely petals of unspoken sound, they sleep.

Dernell Antoine

Goodbye

It is hard to say goodbye for you, i will try not to cry and the joy you bring in my life when you're gone it's hard to survive.

I never thought i could love you so giving me feelings in my heart it's so painful to let you go because your beauty is like perfection of art.

You never know what you do to me created a pain that sting like a bee every time you pass me by your love soul lift me up high to the sky.

Goodbye to you, i wish you luck and when you're lonely watch a clock to remember the times we had together beautiful memories that will last forever.

Dernell Antoine

Happy Valentine

Today is another day we celebrate a sweet moment in our lives A moment in which my love approved to you once more at this day.

You have no idea how much the words i love you mean to me coming from you on valentine.

In time we will have so much sweet moments we will not know what day is valentine day because everyday will be like valentine with you.

Dernell Antoine

Having You Smiling

Have you smiling as the sun is rising
When I whisper in your ears Words of meaning
Like the sun set in the evening.
Never want to leave but time ticks away,
Just knowing that your body Has something to say, using touch language My hands will speak every word that drives you Crazy and my love one thing you need mostly

Here With You

Laughter sounds so much happier Days look a lot, lot brighter Love stays and enjoys every moment Here with you time smiles as it spent

Refuse to travel the world for a day Here with you is where I rather stay If I leave it will not be for long My heart misses you when I am gone

I never heard birds sing so sweetly
When I hold you in my arms so tightly Here with you makes everything all right Loving you always get easier overnight

Here with you the rest of the world do not exist
When you give me one of those wonderful kiss
I fall in love all over again when I am with you Mainly because you always have my sky blue.

Dernell Antoine

I Can Spend A Day

Walking for hours holding your hand Kissing you on the beach as we lay in the sand
I can spend my day looking into your lovely eyes Night will fall and still be amazed till next sun rise

Letting you know how beautiful you are Touching places that make you feel glowing like a star
I can spend my day making you smile Having you blushing that will stay a while

I can spend my day only thinking about you And what next I can do to surprise you Once you are at my side that's all I need And life will go in a loving speed

I want to make you have fun doing Things that will have yours in tears laughing
I can spend a day wishing that time will not end
So I can love you now and then..

Dernell Antoine

I Care

I care for you I will be there for you in good times or bad

I care for you and will always love you... and I will do so all at once so don't think I will leave your side...
I will never think about it.

I will care and love you the same way as always.

Dernell Antoine

I Fell In Love With Your Smile

I fell in love with your smile

I should let you know at this time

That I fell in love with your smile

I really did not mean to but I did

I cannot stop even if I wanted

Weakness was never felt in my body like this

After your touch and your sweet kiss

Maybe it's the touch of your lips I felt

Made my heart filled with so much welt

Never knew a smile could affect me so much

You give me something that I can clutch

Keeping it close to my heart

Because I see it like art

Seeing that you wear it with such style

Drives me crazy even in my dreams

Maybe I can't do without it, it seams

Dernell Antoine

I Love You

I love you because you love me... and all the things you do to make me smile the way you kiss and hold me tight.

I love you for all sweet words you say the tender and sweet look you have each day and when you smile there is a magic in the room.

I love you
I want to care for you, more than myself and i will always do.

Dernell Antoine

I Want You

All alone
Feeling so cold
No one to share this world
And at nights no one to hold

Why it cannot be you
To give me love so true
Why it cannot be you
To say I do

Cannot you see it in me?
To love you like you should Just give me your hearts key So I will show you that I could

Do not be afraid For giving love I am trained When you need certain pleasure
I will be your hearts desire

Dernell Antoine

I Will For You

I will for you

I'll give you flowers to see you smile

I'll take your pain so you won't cry

I'll be your dream for you to hold on to

And I give up anything just to be with you

Be there for you when no one else comes through showing how much of you I truly value

I'll be your hero to save your heart

Protect it from braking in any part

I will be your time always in your life

With sweet minutes as long as I am alive

Dernell Antoine

I Wish

I wish on this valentine to be making love many times to a person i care alot about... for my love you will not doubt.

As we lay down in the still quiet night... with strong feelings i cannot hide even if i try with all my might you always see what i hold inside.

You alone have the magic... when you gently kiss my lips you leave secret tips in my mind to play tricks.

Dernell Antoine

If This World Was Mine

If this world was mine
I will have birds sing you a song Every morning you wake
With a melody I create just for you

If this world was mine
You will be a queen at my side Even the sun will bow to you When your smile starts to shine

Your eyes will replace the stars
Your laugh will be music to my soul
In addition, your heart will be mine to hold Because it is so warm never cold

If this world was mine
I will make all pain go using your love
In addition, the world will feel what I feel
To have a angel for a queen.

Dernell Antoine

If Your Love I Can Have

If your love i can have i know i will survive with the sweet words you say to me and your mind is all i need

If your love i can have i will keep that smile on your face because that keeps me going every day and the words i need to hear you say

If your love i can have i will make love and make you feel alright holding you through the night and in your dreams i am there holding you tight.

Dernell Antoine

In Deep

I really do need the love you feed to make me feel so ever so real.

I cannot go on with out the sweet words that comes out your mouth inspiration to the soul that goes in my hear and i hold.

You are everything i want so i no longer have to hunt to get loving and caring ways that will last throw my days.

To you and me we were meant to be in love forever
so lets stay together.

Dernell Antoine

In Love

I remember that day the time, even the words you say i will never forget when we both got wet.

It was showering love that came from above and we were getting touched with love we needed so much.

I grew in love with you every day it grew more started in my heart's core and it never, i never felt so share that i am in love with you.

Infest

Love for you has infested my body nothing in the world can stop it from spreading.

You make my job of loving you easy because you love me and i will infest pure love in your heart.

Baby you make me feel good inside when i am with you and that's all i need.

It's Time

It's time for me to pay for a crime, the crime of loving you.

Lock me up and throw away the key, only if you are in the cell with me.

They say i will get a life time... because i say you look fine,

The crime they do not see,
is that i will never stop loving you.

That is a crime i will fully made.

Lately

It crowds my mind of thoughts of you Filled my imagination of all I want to do Sweet actions that make you feel special Starting with just touching you really gentle Lately all I see is me keeping a melody With the beat of your heart I hear only Creating words that make tear drops Because if only I can't talk to you it hurts Many times I stared at the wall Thinking if I have your love how would I fall.

Like A Bird

Take me away
For us to spend a day
We will open our hearts to fly
And make sweet love in the sky

Like a bird I will open my wings Protect you from all harmful things Moving free throw the air
With you at my side I shall have no fear

I will let the music that has a touching song Play till the mood turns you on To give you a wonderful time Just by loving each other here in the sky.

Dernell Antoine

Love From You

A kiss from you is a dream come true so i would like to have two.

Touch of your love seems to come from above for our destiny to solve.

A taste of your lips, makes me want sip... love from within your body.

The look in your eyes from your head to your eyes just have me memorize.

A love from you is true.

Lover

A lover is someone who loves, and will take care of you... who loves you for you.

A lover is someone who makes you, happy when your sad, who you can talk to and lover you till death.
A lover is your best friend.

Missing You

When ever you are feeling lonely i can feel the same way too, like the connection is getting stronger between me and you.

I can almost feel your hand holding me and saying it's alright when it is not for us because we are so far apart.

I can't do with out you and it's driving me crazy, going mad because i can't do without you and the love you give to me.

Maybe am being rude without you near to me, i should have ask if you are missing me like i am missing you
and i want you to know i can't live another minute without you.

Dernell Antoine

My Dream Dreamt

My dream dreamt
You came to me where I always see Somewhere nice but never real In my dreams you always appear With feelings magical I can wear Control than I cannot contain My dream dreamt that I kissed you Hold you like you were my life line Touched you like I was going out of time My dream dreamt that you was my first Emotional rush that I needed to breathe Holding the love to quench my thirst Making your presents nothing more than a comfort zone
What my dream dreamt felt so good inside Made my heart felt that it was on air glide

Dernell Antoine

My First Love

In front of me i saw everything i want and more and the first time i felt what it feels like for your heart to melt

With your beauty and elegance i am glad i got a chance for you to be my first love and to share love so magical

My first love you are so i will cherish everything we do together even if you are not mine any more

But all for now your smile i adore and the way you open my hearts door went in and give me love and much more

Dernell Antoine

My Needs

It is the look in your eyes that makes me shake the beautiful smile you you wear upon your face.

I just need one taste from your sugar cane lips to give me happiness to my soul when i need you to hold.

Needing you every day... and my heart knows what to say, for it ask for more and more... when your love open my hearts door.

Nice And Slow

You want to carry this all the way
In between you want a little time to play
And when you are ready just say For me to for fill your fantasy today

Nice and slow we shall start
When I enter I must feel the beat of your heart Using my hands all over your body Seeing the look on your face so sexy

Sweet feeling you starts to receive All over your body and not wanting it to leave Your hands touch me so nice In every part that feels right

Feeling a feeling that you cannot control Close your eyes and let it go slow Squeeze me close with my hand in yours it fit Telling me how wonderfully you enjoy it.

No Place

There is no place on earth for you to be loved to feel special, comfortable but in my dreams.

There's no place on earth where i would not love and take care of you but in my soul.

There's a place, a place we can go where it have slow music, slow dancing slow tender loving... we can go deep into my heart.

Dernell Antoine

One Wish

If i had one wish I'll turn back the hands of time to hear the first words you said, to me all over again.

If i had one wish that i could have meet you a little sooner to show me what love should really be.

If i had one wish,
I'll change only one thing... our love that's about to begin,
so it will never end.

If i had one wish,
i think it have came true that I'll never stop loving you and i know you feel the same too.

Dernell Antoine

Only You

Only you can have a touch that i need, the pure kindness, love you have.

Only you, have a smile and a voice of an angel, the look of a queen, that cannot make me leave your side.

Only you in this world can rock my soul.

Dernell Antoine

Open Tomorrow

Nights will fall Play a song
Open tomorrow
When our feelings has let go Receive my touch
Hold my kiss
Love is never enough
When it is first on your list
All I want is to read Is your body I need
And the passion in your eyes I see

Dernell Antoine

Over Loved

Love hurts my soul clots for your beauty
i love you truly.

My hands are shaking and its hard to breathe it feels like floating for you i need.

Thinking of you tonight for my world you turn right and when you are at my side my love will never hide.

Dernell Antoine

Read

You are like a open book that i can read clearly that of letters are in bold which spell you and me.

I do not have to read you more than once for me to understand your beauty.

I will not judge your outside but by your inside beauty which for me is so special.

You hold all the knowleage of me in your heart so you can go threw my mind and see how much i love you.

Say Yes

Yes to spots that I touch when rubbing your body nice and slowly kissing you in the place you love so much and it gets exciting because I know only.

Yes to when I hold your hand makes you feel to slow dance when you get in the mood of romance with that body noone stand a chance

Yes to when we make love all our magic come as one and when you start to moan and hold me tight makes me feel to go on whole night.

Dernell Antoine

Sex

Feeling good like it should everything else is out of sight passionate love we are having tonight with slow music and dim light

Sex with the one you totally feel for you always call and askig to get more enjoying the time when two comes one still feeling that your body is not done

When a body touch a body in some ways your mind gets crowdy filled with every thing you want to do when having sex i just know what i must do to you

Enjoyment of the other is important then i will take a little bit of the romamce turn it into a love scene i am the actor and this is your dream trance.

Dernell Antoine

Silent Words

Silent night say no more for the quietness have exit the door to my unspoken words i hope your heart will learn.

Silent words i give to you to ease the pain in my heart because you love someone and it's not me but i still crave you badly.

I am afraid to say words to you because i know not my heart will do maybe it will start to race or stop beat for you.

It is not hate i carry but the passion of loving you silent words are heard through the cries of love and sinks in my soul.

Dernell Antoine

Smile

On the face under the nose with a single line and a top and bottom row

That makes something so beautiful when it turns up that brings my spirit to the top and tingly feelings that will not stop.

It's that smile you wear that always show you care and makes me fall in love when you look like a cute cub.

Smile for me every day i hope you keep it i pray to see that light in your eyes when you smile every time i step by your side.

Dernell Antoine

Something With You

Like rain drops that fell from the sky Let our love give us the power to fly And like a sweet rose that has been gazed on, Your beauty that have kept me going on Take my heart in your vow of life And promise that one day you will be my wife Slowly comes my thoughts of you With everyone is something new ☐
You are like a song in my head
That I know every word that has been said Taking the air that I breathe Making you everything that I need

Dernell Antoine

Sometimes

Sometimes out of a day you invade my mind in a very sweet way with thoughts of you just being in my mind i can see you any time

You run in my heart like rain put emotions in the correct place and make a smile on my face simply by hearing your name onon

Sometimes i wonder if the thunder, can make me surrender the love we made and for you in my life to just fade

When i think how great life is with you i will please you in every way sometimes i wish for love for you to be seen every day.

Dernell Antoine

Sorry

It is not hard to do for me to say i love you because your beauty is alive that's why i want to make you my wife.

Seeing you every day... makes me forget what to feel,
and to taste the words you say... for me to make your broken heart heal.

Read me if i did not say sorry... for not giving you all the love you need,
and giving you comfort that i supposed to feed...
I understand now loving you is not a worry.

Dernell Antoine

Superman

I am not like other men born on this world and given powers, first my love is stronger than anything you have seen i can see through your mind and view all your erotic thoughts, i can hear your heart's cry from more than a mile, my heat vision can turn you on like a touch

Most of all when i fly into your body it will glow like a tan then hold my hand and you shall call me superman,

I am the love doctor the body's saviour i can make you feel so good in ways you never felt that you would For my name is superman even my kiss can make your pose stand and my hands on your skin feels gentle as the wind

I am weak when you are far away when at my side i get stronger in every day the gift i was given at birth is for you to never feel hurt.

Dernell Antoine

Tell Me

Tell me what to do to win your heart, to please you when night comes tell me where to touch you and how you want me to.

Tell me how to kiss you and how gently you want it upon your lips most of all tell me how to treat you because i will over do it when it comes to loving you.

Dernell Antoine

That One Touch

of your smooth skin... makes me throw my old feelings in the bin... and i hope new feelings will come in.

That one touch
cause me to quake... because of your beautiful face, then my heart starts to break.. and wondering of your love and if i could taste.

That one touch
turned my view around, and when we kiss i use my tongue... we hear the music of a still whispering sound.

Dernell Antoine

Things I Can Do

I can hear your body singing a melody
With words of what you want to do to me nothing tonight can go wrong
So come closer and sing that song

I can taste your love in my mind
And It's like joy of a priceless moment Nothing can replace the rush I felt With the sweet passion I had find

I can see your heart with my love When I saw, you are everything I had dream of Making you the best thing out of my dream Things I can do is to make this love stay real

Dernell Antoine

To The Woman In My Life

It's the simple things you do... and i see love in you you open my eyes to a new start... when i saw your compassion will not stop.

You understand me when no one can when i was weak you help me to stand i truly know your beauty because when i see you my mind go free and straight into a dream where everything is as it seam.

The love you fed is everything i need to live and to love you and comfort to carry true and feelings will always be blue.

The woman in my life I do not know how i could ever survive without you by my side and the love and understand you show i always dream for more.

Dernell Antoine

Turn The Page

It's time, leave him behind

Come from your knees it's time to take back you keys that you gave him to your heart,
i will give you the love you need

He's a fool and that's the truth to hurt the best thing in his life that he had turn the page and stop being sad and let us explore our feelings to come

Turn the page to me and you i know exactly what too do make up for the bad times and make them good and love you like you should.

What I Hold Inside

What i hold inside is kindness and love that was given to me from above to show you all my feelings for your heart to get healing.

In side me is happiness and i am telling you the truth that you need some of this not because you are cute.

Love for you is real, and i say this with my lips seal... and love that would not hide... that's what i hold inside.

Dernell Antoine

What If

What if love finally came my way and it brought me to you then i will find every reason for me to go down on one knee.

What if i ask you to marry me and you said yes baby i know we will try our very best to keep this love connection together as long as we can.

What if we decided to go our separate lives just for a while we will start laughing because it will never happen because we were meant to be.
What a crazy thought.

Dernell Antoine

Who Would Have Known

Every day I passed you by Words we mostly used was hi, Sometimes I stopped and look twice Because a feeling I felt I froze like ice.
Courage led me to tell you some words Unknowing my emotions let free like birds,
Who would have known we would be friends Feeling that this friendship must extend.
We talk as much as we and can as time goes by Started to notice a different look in your eyes, Now I know my dream might really come true, Telling myself who would have known I'll be with you.

Dernell Antoine

Why Me

Why me i asked myself so many times for the most beautiful person i knew so long ago...

I never thought you will love me as much as you do

Why when loving you feels like a paradise with no pain i see in your eyes no sadness in your face.

And your tender touch makes me shake that feels soft as cake.

You

You are love which i hate to even blink... to miss out on your beauty,

You are worth living for, so with out you i will only be dreaming of holding and kissing you.

With you in my life
I would never survive so now
I would like you to be my wife.

I will love you the best i can we will do alot of planning for of love to be never ending.

Dernell Antoine

You Are

What makes the sun shine
Is the passion I found in your eyes
What makes the moon glow
Is the feelings I have for you in my heart down below
And what makes me live
Is only you and feeling love so true

You are in my mind Like all the time
I see you in my eyes
When I am blind
In my dreams you are Happy with me
Even if I am not rich
But I am rich in love
So let me out of that dream
For me to love you now.

Dernell Antoine

You Are My Addiction

The first time I was, introduced to you I got hock on the first use Your love was a drug that got addict to If I did not get it, I will not know what to do

You give me an obsession to want more My heart starts to race when your beauty I saw At times, I thought I lost my mind Because the love you give to me was a different kind

My addiction has became very strong It turned from wanting to a powerful crave Now I can say that I am love's slave
So you are my mistress from night till dawn

Dernell Antoine

You Are Special

I can never forget what you are worth Most valued person on this earth Someone that always been there for me Lifted me up and kept me up like coffee

You are special to me my mother Always around like no other Thanks for this life you give with love Known it was made from the one above

Sometimes I wonder who I would I become If you wasn't by my side Thankful it was you to show me pride Determine to make so much fun.

Dernell Antoine

You Do

You do things to me... that no one else can do...
you make me feel so free, that's why i am always thinking about you.

I gave you a test... that i locked in my favorite chest, which was deep inside my heart... some how you broke it apart.

You see the feelings i try to hide, that lie inside my soul... feelings that are so old... that's why i will always stay at your side

Dernell Antoine

You Do 2

It is the sweetness of life to know someone like you and to be with, i will survive so you will turn my sky from gray to blue.

You give me the motivation i need turning my feelings into a dream just by seeing your beauty i can, i can fall in love truly.

now i with i could hold and get back the feelings that were old so my life will not go cold.

You Look

At nights your eyes look like the full moon at the lake where i first saw your face.

Your lips are so tender especially when i feel it against mine... nothing more makes me tingle inside.

That body of yours is so precious, which is so beautiful to watch... what more can i say... you are like a beautiful day.

You Make Me

You make my heart skip a beat my pores raise straight to my feet it's a feeling so strange but your beauty i will have to blame

I feel so weak you are next to me and i cannot help but saying your name then i get a seet pain when ever your beauty i see

Maybe it's me i am weak but no longer i have to seak for love anywhere else because you already have me compel.
