dripping heart('89)

thoughts from my heart and my mind expressed through meanings and messages as writing.....

A Broad Horizon

So here I stand....
A blade of grass in a prairie
My time has finally come to show the world who I am My whole life I questioned
my presence in this place
It all makes so much sense now....
All those days wondering
All those tears dropping
All those questions pondering
I finally see the light that has been shed upon me
I promise to not let you down thy father, for I am the chosen one

dripping heart

A Familiar Cascade

A familiar cascade, your life remains meaningless
But the man above has hope for you....
All he asks is that you believe.
Trust that he will come to your pain.
Haunted by the sins among your shadows.
He will forgive the past...
He will forgive infamy....
It won't be long until you scream for his grace.
That's the only hope you have to survive in this place.
Fear no more, you will be praised with salvation
Raise your head up to the sky now, your days of shame will be forgotten.... just call for his name
Your savior awaits

dripping heart

All That Remains

It will be eternity until you reach your way up....
The hill is steep and you're tumbling down this mess you call your life.....

Living for the wrong reasons you're about to witness hell Wrap up all the darkness you hide and tie it to the bottom of the ocean where it can blend in with the shadows of all that remains.
A plague in which only few escape from I see your future meaningless.....It's all inside your head you just don't have the will to fight it. You don't have the will to resist deception.
Just like all the rest, you will become too scared to realize the truth. The truth about what this world has become.
So what have you become? Even your conscience doesn't know anymore....

The time has come where all that lies ahead has disappeared with all that lies in you....
But how can I expect you to believe me? ....
How can I explain that what lies ahead isn't what you were meant to see....

dripping heart

Always And Forever

Your words put my heart in a state of bliss
So take my hand, and welcome my kiss
Ill be here waiting for you until the end
Just jump into my arms and I promise to mend
I need you like life needs love
Come at once and we shall sail far above
To have you to hold, my limbs I would sever
My one and only.....
Always and forever

dripping heart

An Honest Reflection

You want the truth about yourself?
A reflection is probably your best bet.
Looking into your own eyes isn't always easy but sometimes you just need to accept who you are.
Wish you saw someone else?
Most people do....
But your days are numbered here
unless you plan to believe the truth.
Not everyone gets to see perfection look back at them...You have to make the best of what you have or else this world will get the best of you.
Feel alive, but most of all trust that you will find the happiness thats hidden inside all of us.

dripping heart

As All Hope Dies

As all hope dies, I look deep into your eyes
I try to seek out the pain....
I try to uncover these tears you hide...
But you have yet to find promise you have yet to regain pride....

A heart born sad and broken...
There has been no escape from agony only sorrow that continues to soaken...
What you've lived could barely be called a life....
How can one be so beautiful and have to resort to the knife?

The only source of life is in your darkened eyes and pale flesh...But what ever happened to your desire?
All you need is someone to care for you.....
Someone there to ignite the inner fire...

So promise me you will do one thing...
Promise to never let that heart die....
because hope will not abandon you and neither will I....

Axes Speak Louder Than Words

I should have known this wouldn't last....

It was only a matter of time until I'd break away from your curse and cast a spell of my own...

How oblivious you were to love blindsided by your own affliction...

This is my redemption...

Your puddles of blood and tears represent all these withered years....

dripping heart

Because Of You

With just a moments glance at you my knees become weak.

You paralyze me.....

But how could I crumble so easily?

How could you cause such bliss?

Must be the way you look at me with that heartbreaking smile.....

I believe that God made you so boys like me will fall to pieces with just one glimpse of your face. Because of you my mind has buried all other thoughts.

So tell me, how does it feel to be my whole world?

dripping heart

Blonde Hair, Blue Lies

I must have died a thousand times because everytime I see you smile I go breathless
So I fell for you, big deal...I'll be the one laughing when you fall for me and I leave your heart drowning in a pool of tears and memories.
I hope it's me that makes your body tremble at night

When will you realize what your doing to yourself?
you're doomed unless you pull yourself together you fell for my trap now time only tells how long I'll leave you in despair...Foolish mistakes will lead you to make believe love and a tragic ending.
But I feel I'm lost in a dream world when I look into your eyes

Congratulations you made me suffer.... but it's your heart that will forfeit this game

dripping heart

Blue Like The Ocean

Oh how your eyes prove this life is worth living.
I swear there was a glimpse of the promise land while I got lost in your gaze. It's a blue that reminds me of the calm ocean waters. If only we could make eye contact forever..... You have to be the one. I know you are the one.

dripping heart

Braveheart

Please dont smile. Please dont breathe
If only your feelings were'nt make believe.... you put me through so much pain
now theres only pieces of me that remain because of you things will never be right
I hope it's me thats keeping you up at night.

dripping heart

Brilliant Universe

Out of all the stars that make up your eyes could there be any shining because of me?
With just one blink my dreams of being a part of your galaxy could be gone forever...
But it's me who seeks your never ending sky.
It's me who craves your brilliant universe...
I want to journey through your grace and explore your never ending beauty
The countdown is near and I'm aiming for bliss Gravity won't stop me from loving you
So open up the gates to your world and grant me access to your heart

dripping heart

Caving In As One

With nothing left to prove, theres nothing left to gain
All thats left is the ones that you love....

Whats happened to this world we live in?
It's the future that has become our fear
Making this the best you can is the only way out...
Clarity has become my constant tear

The meaning of this can only be that whatever brings us joy, brings us hope....

dripping heart

Convicted Smile

The goddess of smile. Queen of beauty.
You are the reason for so many mended hearts.
Do you see what I see when you look in the mirror?
Please dont laugh for long this time because I stop breathing everytime you smile.....

dripping heart

Despairing Tears

You stare into puddles of rain looking into your own reflection.
Woeful tears stream down your face. What is making you so sad?
Is it the rain? Or is it because your looking into your own eyes?
With this storm brings you hope.....Your tears of joy come and go but your tears of sadness rarely miss the forecast.
Even when the skies are clear the clouds above your eyes pour down in vain. There are some days where you look outside and thank god for such a beautiful day, such a beautiful place.
I just hope tomorrow brings the only thing left you have to live for.

dripping heart

Far From Defeat

So you've reached rock bottom...
At least your mind will tell you that Patience is a virtue dear,
I promise your time will come

You feel lost and unworthy in this world but you possess great power.
The only question is are you willing to use it?

We have never met before, but I believe in you.....
As long as you believe in yourself.
No one ever asked to be born,
but who you are is the meaning of life.

Terror grips at your ankles while confusion is embedded in your mind, but deep down inside of you there lies the courage to overcome this.....

How do you want to be remembered?

dripping heart

Fool's Paradise

Think I'm crazy for being crazy about you?
One look at your eyes is like an array of fireworks...
How could one be so beautiful?
You're more than the girl of my dreams...
What I would give to spend one night with you.
Am I just another boy to you? I pray for one moment in your mind just to say you once thought of me....To have you as my own is a fantasy that plays over and over in my head.
It's you that I want in this castle in the sky.
So will this be a story book ending?
Or are the pages torn out after the beginning....

dripping heart

Fourletterlie

Leave all these hearts ripped and broken....
You will soon be frightened by all the blood stains...

So just hand me the rope and I'll slip the knot....
I've mistaken you for hope and this blades all I've got....
The archer of lies your arrows have pierced deep...
A foolish knight without his armor left helpless on love's battlefield to weep...
Stab wounds left from nights
watching you look into his eyes...

Trails of blood leading to your doorstep...
I guess this wouldn't be the first time you've walked all over my insides...

From Above

Pictures bring back your delicate smile.
What I wouldn't give to see it one more time.
Your life was set out to be so promising.
Why did you have to go? You never deserved this.
Although you will always remain deep in my heart
a new life awaits for you as an angel from above.

dripping heart

God's Acre

Surrounded by stones.
Who would of thought this is where it ends? I walk alone on it's quiet grounds realizing with each step I take lies a life long story. As their bodies lay beneath me
I wonder..... what happens to their souls?
I hope they go to heaven.

In one acre of land hides so many secrets, so many unanswered questions.
If I could ask these bodies anything
I'd ask is life worth living?

How could it be? A place with this many people shouldn't be this quiet.....
The silence sure speaks for all of us

dripping heart

Gone But Not Forgotten.....

Your scars to prove the suffering they fill me with guilt....
Why couldn't I be there to save you?
The thought of you in pain resembles my heart in a blender
I wished I could have made you strong when you were weak...and I wish I could have cured your eyes so they wouldn't leak...
Your past will always leave a bitter taste in my mouth
I know you've been through the shadows of darkness
but I am here now to show you the light...to show you joy Grab my hand and we shall take flight into a new life
A life filled with hope, A life without misery
So deeply do I want to be here for you....
Just trust that there is a hero that lies within me

dripping heart

Heart Shaped Mystery

Secrets aside, who do you really love?
I used to think disguising hearts never existed...
So it shall be me who will watch you from above...
The clues are buried so deep in your chest
how will I ever see the truth
how will I ever put this case to rest....
I just wish that your eyes were near
So I could see right through them
But what a fascinating silhouette you have A portrait hearts desire...
It is your beauty that I yearn for
It is your spirit that burns like fire...
You have become the phantom of my dreams
the heart shaped mystery
You have to be the one for me, as though it seems....

So tell me now that my heart has become as heavy as lead
Should I tell you I love you, or save my breath instead?

dripping heart

His Final Collapse

This is it. If you don't get up you'll be a casualty forever.
It's time you gave up on her now. The more you think of her the more pain you will suffer. Understand that your dream of you and her together is just false advertising. What happened to your ambition?
You must regain confidence. Believe in yourself....

You looked into her eyes and saw it all.
She looked into yours and saw you fall.
You fell in love with her at first sight.
If only you had what she wanted.....
Will This be your final collapse?
Hold your ground, you will find your angel someday.

dripping heart

Hope Without Heart

Hoping to fall in love someday?
How will you find true love when you haven't even found true self.....
Turn back now while you have the chance or suffer the consequences of being alone.
You've yet to take the time to realize things about who you are and what you want in life. It's not all going to fall into place like you think...
Will you ever grow up?
Maybe you just don't want to believe that life is more than a game.
Snap back into reality for once and look at this from a different view.
Take the time to enjoy what this place has to offer. It takes someone with heart to realize the truth.

Does your chest prove hollow inside?

dripping heart

How Insincere.....

A deep misunderstanding.....
How could we be so blind?
What has become of our mind?
Lives remain empty....
Gone in an instant
Why does it take a death to acknowledge a life?

Your sights are set on oblivion
Yet you seem to feel warm inside
The truth hurts so it's acceptance you hide

The time is running out for you to finally understand.....
And it's all in plain sight....
It's just a matter of your eyes ever looking past deceit...
The ability to find the answer will only come to those who find the meaning in themselves

So close your eyes tight tonight....
Because lifes only a dream until it becomes a nightmare.....

dripping heart

Indian Summer.....

What a breath of fresh air you give me
Why does your presence fill me with hope?
Oh how I wish you wouldn't leave me again.
The feeling I get when ur scent fills up my lungs
The way you look on an afternoon drive
As summer dies I feel more alive then ever.

dripping heart

Just Maybe.....

I know our time has been passed
but I still see the light shining down...
Once a pair of lovers now a pair of friends.
Could it have last? Sometimes I really wish it did.
Two kids in love without knowing what lies ahead.
I put the blame on me but who says im done loving you? If only you knew how I felt.
All I ask is just one more night with you in my arms. Just maybe then you would see how deeply in love I still am with you.

dripping heart

Leaving Everything Behind

It's safe to say that your my escape....
Lets make an exit from this place
Lets watch it all come down

I'm in this for you can't you see?
We can find our way out of here....

Will keep cool while our surroundings melt around us...
Running wild together we'll leave everything behind
This was meant to be....

Grab hold and lets shoot for the stars
I can't make it without you

dripping heart

Life Jacket

He loves me, He loves me not eat your heart out or at least learn how to use it.
Don't you understand that this is just a waste of time?
Your words amount to nothing in the end....He doesn't really love you.
You've fallen in the teenage trap.
Your brain is being washed away with memories of pretend lust.
What will it take for you to snap out of this?
You're scared to enter the real world so you fill your heart with worthless emotion.
But what happens the day you realize you've spent most of your life loving for the wrong reasons?
Reality check, I suspect you'll leave yourself in despair without ever knowing about your foolish mistakes. It's safe to say you're drowning fast and it won't be long until the tide caves in on your heart.

dripping heart

Means To My Beginning

Why must you make me wait?
I know you're out there somewhere.
I just hope that while I'm thinking and dreaming of what you look like you're doing the same.....Can't I just get a glimpse of your face so I know how beautiful you really look? I hope it's love at first sight. I'm not worried that I won't find you....I'm just scared that when the time comes you'll look right past me.

dripping heart

Message In The Sky

It's like a fairy tale that was never told...
You haven't been here to have and to hold..
All these days spent looking out the window in hope your face would appear in the sky...
My minds been repeating the same question, always asking why....

Somewhere in the distance your graceful presence lies Staring out your window with those sparkling eyes...
It's times like these where I can say we were together
Looking beyond the clouds resisting the thought of never....
When I fall asleep I feel as though ur laying beside me thats because your here in my heart and that you will always be...
We don't have nights spent in each others arms...
But we do have the sky, and the clouds, and especially the stars...
So next time you look out and see all the blue....
remember theres a message from me saying I love you.....

dripping heart

Miss. Conception

You always brought out the worst in me...

So plant the bomb around your lies and ill blow your heart into pieces.....Those tears of shame you shed.
It will be truth that shreds your body this time.
This hole you've dug is reaching the crust and soon enough your hope will be melting.

Famous for backstabbing, the dagger has finally found a new home.
You'll mourn till dawn and watch as your eyes teem with tears of anguish. Theres no cure for loneliness, only nights spent in the darkness of regret. All those words I knew you'd betray, all those memories that I have burned away. These ashes are the beginning of your demise. And it's self destruction that awaits at your door.....

dripping heart

Oceans Away

Thousands of miles between us...
Your hand is out of reach but your heart has found it's place in mine...
Too soon for sweet talk?
I hope my words will be enough this time.
I'll do my best to get through to you.
You filled me with hope so now
I will fill you with happiness.
A smile from across the sea lights up my sky with enchantment,
But you deserve more than the sky
I promise I'll help show you the way....

Oh how I wish I could control my dreams at night.
For you would be the only reason I would close my eyes.....

dripping heart

Oops! I Spilled.....

I have embraced upon pure beauty....
But how far will I go to make you mine?
I've spilled my heart one too many times.
I doubt you will ever understand.
The thought of us holding hands has become a permanent daydream. I'm nothing without you.
You used to say we'd be together forever.
How the times have changed.....

dripping heart

Reason For Falling

How you used to give me butterflies
How you used to smell like angels
How I used to love you.....

What I would have done for you
What we could have been
The tables have turned now
Your regretful tears mean nothing
I've moved on without you, love
And it's time you realize you're drowning without me.

dripping heart

Restless Bodies

How unsolved these grounds lay....
The lives of many buried beneath Hidden away from the one who will be looked at in dismay
A massacre awaits....

Disgust has filled your mind....
I pray you will be layed to rest

A families heart has been shattered into a thousand pieces.....
A life of misfortune for your twisted pleasure.....
Prepare to meet the bullet aimed for your head...

Amnesty is the gun....and it's the hearts of the loved ones pulling the trigger

Lives of the innocent
now rest in distress....
The last moments of life filled with pain and torture...

dripping heart

Save Me! .....If You Want

Nights left feeling lost and broken...

You've got me on my knees asking to sweep me off my feet
I need you more than ever
I have arisen from defeat....
My spirits feel alive and I'm putting you to blame

Just let me reach out to you and spill everything I have inside...
An eruption of emotion flowing out as words....I'm the shore you're the tide.

You've committed the crime of stealing my heart
So serve the sentence inside my eyes, never apart.

This feeling inside has crashed down on me like a wave.....
Rescue me because I'm drowning in your love

dripping heart

Take My Hand.....

Your hand in mine is the only way
I can see myself breathing tonight...
So stretch as far as you can and I promise I will grab on tight....
I won't let go for a second
I won't let go for anything....
Dreams come true for those who believe.
You've seized my heart so please don't leave Lets just drift through the sky of the night into a world of neverending smiles and pure delight
Please don't fear heartache my princess...
I will love you throughout this life and the next
I will give it all for you...

dripping heart

Tragic Autumn

I sit staring out the window.
I watch trees shed life as the fall air fills the lungs of the lost and the hopeless.
I've finally found my savior.

Why must you come and go?
I'd give up everything just to keep your scent with me forever.

With every breath of you I regain hope.
If only I could put into words how much you truly mean to me....

While most praise the start of summer
I stand still wishing It would fade into the night.
I pray each morning for your arrival and lay awake at night waiting for your return.
You are my tragic autumn.

dripping heart

Treasure Eyeland

Your green eyes to die for...
The stare of a lost teenage soul
A queen indeed how could I ask for more?
Your mysterious face that lurks in my deep sleep.
You are the beholder of my smile
But I could of guessed all that about you...
With your words of inspiration and your notion for hope It's plain to see why I've fallen for you
With those eyes that see beyond you have become someone special
You have much meaning here...
With one look at your face
my world has changed
It's time I rest with ease...

dripping heart

What Lies Ahead

Dressed to kill you hide the guilt.....
Your makeup is a sign of dissolved beauty
But I guess all the crying helps wash it away.....
Under the blush lies regret
So keep telling yourself life is great keep telling yourself nothings wrong....
Sorrow hides behind your back and I've known all along..

Those who become queen of the mirror will lead a life filled with veiled terror....

dripping heart

Winter Blue Sky

We're always cold this time of year
That's even more the reason to hold you
If only I could have one chance.....
Be with me, lay with me, dream with me
While staring out at the winter blue sky
Only one thing will ever cross my mind.....
Will I ever come to your rescue?

dripping heart

Winter Green Forest

Cool air flows between your green flesh.
What a fascinating look you have.
I dream of being surrounded by your mystical presence forever. The smell of your heavenly wilderness makes me feel as though I am in a forest of dreams.
The cryptic water that environs you proves once more that this is god's work.
I praise your existence.....

dripping heart

Your Left Chest Confessions

Whats that? Your crying?
Let me guess, your lifes a disaster?
But I gave up long ago...Remember?
Plus those tears don't read truthful...
All those lies finally caught up to you.
All those memories you wish you had back.
Breaking hearts works both ways princess.
Confidence has stabbed you in the back.
And theres no one there to pull out the knife.

You can only hide sorrow for so long.....

I doubt you can sleep at night with all those nights spent in his arms haunting you.....
But everyone makes mistakes right?
Just pray that someone will sew your heart back to place
