I am actually a young poet just writing poems and yes these are my poems and that is my real name. My mom really thinks my poems are good so she told me to put them on the internet and WAPOW! here they are. I do it for fun though and to let my feelings bleed.

Live In The Present

As I lie here
I think about the past
It was lonesome and horrific
Everything was black
But then a change
A spark of something
I wake up and tell myself
'I do NOT live in the past,
I live in the present! '
That's when I realize
My life is better
All because I am living in the present.

Nothing

Grief sigh
Horrified
Hurt and sorrow
No hope of tomorrow
Questions surrounding my head
Dread
Not happy or good
I'm not understood
Why why I ask? ? ?
At last...
NO NO too fast
Go slow
I don't understand
I stand, waiting
And waiting
Nothing, wait something
No nothing
