Acid Bath

Purple haze
Blue world
Psychotic daze
Confusion
A dream
Of immortality
Sent spinning
A fall from grace
To Shangri La
Justice sank
Into a maze
Fatal sin
Carnal desire
Where Death begins
To propagate
Entering a realm
Of forbidden tastes
Take in a new view
Of Fantasia
Welcome to my world
Of mysteries
My private sanctuary
Waterfall of eruption
Into seas of time
This is were
All the divine
Find peace
And begin to Breathe
Inside the mind of A Phantom
My demons
Are chasing me
Into a cage
Of my own silent
RAGE

Broken Soldier

When you look at me
What do you see
Who am I
Or who you want me to be
You should always know I'm Not always who I seem
I could be anything

I'm not chained by your ways
Your rules or your dreams
I'm not yours to control
I'm not your slave or your clone
I'm not your responsibility
You think you can change me
It's just another fantasy

I just don't understand
Why you play this game
You always seem to lose
It's such a damn shame
I'm just another toy to you
So let's play,
I'm a broken soldier,
Or so you say

I'm so much stronger
Then you give me credit for I'll be here long after you're gone
But you're still singing that same old song
You want me to be just like you
Any better wouldn't do

I'm just another
Broken soldier to you
But as your days grow longer
Mine will be new
When your nights are cold,
And you have nothing to do
I'll be sitting by this fire

Smiling down at you

You say I will change
But you're not strong enough
Long after you're in your grave
I'll still be in the sun
You say you've won the battle
But the war has just begun

I'm just another toy
A poor broken soldier to you
Even broken I'm still a soldier
And I'm a lot stronger than you
I'll still be fighting
Long after you've died
You know it's the truth
You say you're gonna change me
I don't know why you try
I like being a broken soldier
Nothing less would do

Caught In A Web Of Madness

Echoing in my head
Memories of words once said
Can't understand what happening to me
Seems like a nightmare meant only for me
Deadly bite, poisoned for all eternity

So what happened to yesterday
And my dreams that I thought
Would never fade away
Now I'm caught in a web of madness
Trapped by the pain and sadness

Just a false façade
Slips upon me with each dawn
Just a mask that hides the truth
Behind my eyes
The only thing that keeps me alive
I'm hiding behind a disguise

So what do you say
When dreams slip away
What do you do when
No one cares about you
Close your eyes
Hope to die
And pray

Caught in a web of madness

Dance With Death

Consecrated cold earth
There is no dignity
Sworn to die from birth
Here to lie for eternity

So is there glory in death
Never again to feel warm
Or see the light of day
Is death the prize for life

I've got the stench of death
On my hands
I just buried a friend
Dance with Death

I saved his life
To put him in the ground
Such a high price
Can't break the chains, I'm bound

I have a fire inside me
Feels like I'm from hell
What else could it be
Death has me in its spell

I have to say good bye
It would be much better
But I keep seeing his eyes
I know I'll see them forever

I've gotta let him go
I need to end the pain
But I don't know how
Seems I'm caught in this game

I have the stench of death
On my hands
Dance with Death

I'm in that dance
The waltz of endings
The horrid trance
Of new beginnings
I've got a dance with death
Swing to his song
Take your last breath
It won't be long

You've gotta move to the beat

Dance with death

Play his song for me

Dance with death

Deceptive Love

Feels so cold in this bed alone
It chills me down to the bone
It's been so long since I have felt your touch
It's been so long since I've felt the love

I don't know if I can make it on my own
This pain I feel deep inside you'd never know
Don't know why you left me
Now I must set you free

See me now, cold steel in my hand
So comforting, now I understand
But now I know the truth
The only one who's been deceived is you

So sweet, naïve, innocent you
Thought of me
But you were blind
To blind to see

Deception, my only friend
So your life, I must end
No one could love you like I could
But you didn't love me like you should

Now I'm in control
Now it's time for you to pay with your soul
Through your eyes, I saw the mind
Plot of destruction, the loving kind

See me now, cold steel in my hand
So comforting, yes I understand
Time for you to die too
Cold steel, death in my hands
Don't you understand?
I did it all for you

Decipals Of The Glass God

Your God has lied to you
And you can't see the truth
Try to compromise
But you know you're hearing lies
So strong is your faith in him
You're fighting a battle you just can't win

I don't understand
Why you look to the sky
Or maybe why you're
On your knees again

Deception, it seems to me
Don't know who you should be
Revelation, promise of destruction
God of all seduction
Beckons you to the light
Marks the end of your life
Promises of pearly gates call from beyond
Your soul belongs to him
Immortal rights

Go pray to your Glass God
Get on your knees
Bow before him
Pray to your Glass God
Decipals of beyond

There is no heaven
No re-birth
Hell here,
On earth
You're blind to reality
Living in your friggin' dream

Haley Revell

Fianl Line

You clipped my wings
Brought me crashing down
Stole my fantasies
Took them all away
Now I stand here
All alone

You tried to blame
Me for you again
But we know it couldn't
Have been my pain or my lies

So why don't you
Just walk away
Before time where's thin
Maybe I could just forget
Or maybe forgive

But not today
I have my own demons
To chase away
Can't sit here crying
Over painful memories

Things no one can
Seem to change
Come rushing back to lock
Me in this cage

But I wasn't to blame

Don't come after me again
Begging to try
Just one more time
Cause it seems
I wrote the Final Line
Time to say good-bye

Get Out Of My Way

I see you
Lookin at me
I am everything
A woman should be

Yeah I see you
Watchin me move
But you don't know
Just what to do

Oh yes I see it
In your eyes
One look at me
And you start to fantasize

I know that you want
To touch me
Thought I was only
A part of your dreams

I see you've Got that desire
Come and let me
Set your world on fire

Oh you just Can't deny
The way I make you
Feel inside

And you wonder
What I mean
When I say things
Aren't what they seem

You think
You got what it takes
But I'm just another
Friggin' heartache

Haley Revell

Glass God

Am I blind?
Or can you see?
Is this a disguise?
Or do you truly believe?

You're being told lies
And I don't understand
Why you look to the skies
And fall on your knees again

Pray to the Glass God
Take his hand
Pray to the Glass God
He'll understand

It seems to me
You don't know the truth
Don't know what to be
What does it mean to you?

Diaphanes, he is
His words are on your mind
Your soul belongs to him
Deception, the mortal kind

Pray to the Glass God
Get on your knees
Pray to the Glass God
He knows what you need

Promise of destruction
Marks the end of all life
Seems like seduction

Can't resist his call
Coming closer and closer
The edge of the fall
Your God is a killer

Pray to the Glass God
Hear him Laughing
Pray to the Glass God
Hear him cracking

Heavens Whore

Touch the sky
Kiss the sun
All the strings of Heaven
Were left undone
The first temptation of Eve
Turning men from Christ
Tore open her soul
Letting rebels into paradise

God screamed
God raged
For it was he
That Eve betrayed
Hell swung open its doors
Welcoming Eve

Adam bowed his head
In shame
Clinging to Eden
All in vain
He ate the fruit
That took his soul
Laid his head in the lap
Of Heavens Whore

Carnal Knowledge
Turned Eve's soul cold
Lust was born

Satan smiled
His treasure to behold
He turned Eve
Into the harvester of souls
A woman on a pale horse
The prophets knew
Eve is

Carnal knowledge
Creation of God
The serpents tongue
Caressed Eve's thought
Held evil in her hand
All the pleasures
Of the Promised Land
God denied, Satan coerced
And Eve was branded

Some say Eve fell
From the heights of Heaven
To the depths of Hell
In a dark embrace
Treason at her breast
Poison in her veins
Took man into her arms corrupted to the core
As Satan kissed the lips

Kill Me Gently

Locked inside
An endless fight
I want to live
But I wish to die
Take me now
Take me down

Take this hell from me

Take away my pain
Release me from my cell
When it will end
I can never tell
Let me die peacefully
take my life from me

Take this hell from me

Can't understand what's happening
Can't understand what they mean
Why can't they set me free?
I wish they'd let go of me
What can you do?
I'm just a child born to you

Take this hell from me

Born into this world
Silent screams unheard
No voice of my own
My pain doesn't show
They think my pain isn't real
But how do you know what I feel

Take me now
Take me down

Take this hell from me
Please, Kill Me Gently

Haley Revell

Life

Live or die
Laugh or cry
What is it you're Gonna do with your life
Where you gonna go
When you get to the End of the line

Rain or shine
Peace or strife
Have you lived
Even one moment
Of your life
Will you know you're alive
Until you die

To scream or sigh
Believe or deny
What do you think
When the truth
Is so tangled
In all the lies

Do you fall to your knees
Or reach for the sky
Do you know
What's out there
Better than
What's inside

What will be your final lines
Will they be of Faith & Dreams & The Grand Design
Or will they be lost
Like so many pearls
Cast before swine

Will the tears
That fall from your eyes

Wash away the Pain and loneliness
Of all the wasted time

And what excuse
Will you use to justify
All those things
You chose to leave
So far behind
Will they bring you peace
At the end of time

And if there is no wisdom
To be gained between these lines
Will you take it upon faith
That I will live my life
Every moment I'm alive

Love

I may not see things
The way you do
Or understand
Why you are you

I may not see it
Through and through
But it's easier
When I look at you

Sometimes I wonder
Why you're so patient and kind
Or what you're thinking
When I look in your eyes

And sometimes I think
I don't deserve your love
Or anything else
You've given up

I wonder
Why you stay
When things get harder
Every day

The thought of you
Saying good-bye
Is enough
To make me cry

And I hope
When I turn around
You'll be the one
By my side

I say this
Without hesitation
I love you more
As time goes by

For this thought
I would never lie
I love you
Until the day that I die

Haley Revell

Not So Promised Land

Hey,
I bet you think I'm wrong
Hey,
I bet you think I'm not that strong
But I guess
Everyone gets a surprise every now and then
And not everybody gets along

I don't know
What happened to yesterday,
Or why we play the games we play
I guess things have to change
For nothing stays the same

I can't explain or understand
Can't reach out with a helping hand
I guess it happens that way
In the Not So Promised Land

Yeah, I guess it happens sometimes
In this Not So Promised Land

I tried to make a difference
I tried to make you see
But I guess nobody
Notices a silent plea

I've tried to make a difference
I've tried to make you understand
But I guess love doesn't last forever

Haley Revell

Remember My Name

I'm so sick of you
Putting words in my mouth
Thoughts in my head
You've been screwing with
My feelings again
And you see
I don't think
You heard me

I don't think
You understand
This mental overload's
Got me thinking crazy
And God better help you
Because no one else
Will have the chance
This is where I put my foot down
This is where I make my stand
And you see,
You never heard
A word I said
And we both know
You were never my friend

You have never been there
So you think I don't know
Or I don't care
But I remember death
In an endless stare

And you see,
You never heard me scream rage in vain
Or saw the tears when my sand castle crumbled
To a single grain
And you have a lot to learn
About the pain

And you stand tall
With pride in your eyes

Even though your life was built on nothing but lies

You look down on me
With pity and shame
But this is a part of the game
And you BETTER remember my name

Revolution

Here we are now
But where have we been Spinning across time
From original sins

To be who we are
We must kill and betray,
Are we living in hell?
Or angels have gone astray?

Hatred in men's eyes
Is all I can see,
But this is honor
Or so we are to believe

What is wrong is always right
So here we stand
Prepared to fight with Guns in our hands

Revolution, it's time to set things straight
We're not living in a fantasy land
Or standing at Heaven's gate
Revolution, it's time to stop the war,
In turn fight for a better day
That might be worth something more

You see it on T.V
Another one gunned down
Violence in cold blood,
It is the only sound.

Another rape, another crime
Another suicide
Written on page nine
Next to the late night homicide

You were born to die
And this I understand

But I don't want to be sent to my grave
By another person's hands

Prejudiced, you don't like the color of his skin,
Don't like her gender, or maybe where she's been,
But can I ask you something,
What makes you better than them?

Revolution, it's time to set things straight
We're not living in a fantasy land
Revolution, it's time to stop the war,

Revolution, it's time to stop the hate,
We're living in hell,
That will never change,
It's time for a REVOLUTION! !

Stone Cold Heart 3

I gave him all he wanted
I tried so hard to please
But he drove this cold spike
Straight through my heart, straight through me

Why do I feel so cold
Lying here in this bed
So very much alone
Feels like a storm in my head

So eager to please
The wrong choice to make
It brought me to my knees
All this heartache

Delusional,
I thought I could make him love me
But now I know
A heart of stone cannot feel

Were you talking to me
It's an electric storm in my brain
Can't stop the ringing
It's driving me insane

What did I do wrong
Did I lie down too soon
It's the same old song
There's nothing I can do

Now tears are in my eyes
I hate myself for what I've done
Heart and soul on a shelf
Just call them gone

So many mistakes
So much pain
Still don't know why
I do it again and again

I saw a dream
In my mind
Carnal knowledge
Of mankind

Destroyed what I had left
My life is gone
I tried to be the last
That's what I did wrong

So long heart
Our time is done
Time for us to part
Cannot love another one

Hello world I've done it again
Another stupid decision
Killed my heart
Brought my life to an end

Stone Cold, I'll Never Love Again

Haley Revell

The Games You Play

Through tear filled eyes
I finally begin to realise
The things I've done to you
The friend I thought I knew

All of these sweet lies
Are bound to make you cry
By telling the brutal truth
I honestly thought I could save you

I dont understand why you're so angry
It was you that started the game
Yet still you blame me
How was I supposed to feel
When I found our love wasnt real

Don't know whats worse
The pain, the anger, the fear,
When you're so far away,
Yet you are so near

Now with jaw clenched tight
I push you away
I dont want to be part
Of the games you play

I dont know why you treated me
The way ou did
I cant change
The way it is

What was it
That I did wrong
To make you abuse me
For so long

My life is falling apart
And it all seems to start
With YOU

I dont want to believe its true

But could you please
For once answer me
What has happened
To all my dreams

I try, oh god, I try
Just to do things right
But it always ends up
In an endless fight

I stand to say
The things you would not
But the anger
Never seems to stop

I try to find my way
Through the secrets that you keep
And still your voice
Haunts me in my sleep

The knowledge
Of how much I gave
Only to be the one
Who was betrayed

Who were you
From beginning to end
Were you a foe
Or were you a friend

This I must know
I have taken the lies
Like hits
Blow after blow

Can you look in my eyes
And for once tell me the truth
Or am I even woth that to you
Stop the dream, this is reality

And with jaw clenched tight
I push you away
I dont want ot be part
Of the games you play

The Last Rose Of Summer

As I watch with tear-filled eyes
Summer's last rose fades away
Sometimes I try to fantasize
That summer's rose will stay

But like all things that must die
The rose must also decay
When I see it wilt I cry
For the rose that died on summers last day

I try to cope with the pain
Of losing the beauty of life
But I know in winter's rain
That nothing lasts till the end of time

Innocence torn from me
When I finally learn to understand
Even the blind can see
We're not living in a fantasy land

I watch the rose bloom and fall
To the ground where it lays Waiting for winter's call
The last rose of summer died today

It waits for winter's end
For spring to call its name
It will be this way forever
So when you lose a love
And your heart is filled with pain
Look for the last rose of summer
And hear it call your name

Haley Revell

The Traitor Called Death

Crimson blood won't wash away
Even when hope begins to fade
I sit now, back against the wall
Wishing someone would call
But I know in hard times
No one cares about my life

Death would be a better friend to me
Only death can hear silent screams

So many times I thought I knew
Now I only wish it were true
Where are they now? My friends,
Will they be here in the end?
When death holds hands with my dreams
Why is nothing as it seems?

Oh sweet death do you hear my call?
Will you catch me when I fall?

I feel like I've run a thousand miles
Just to see a friendly smile
But nobody turns to look at me
I thought they cared
I was deceived
Now in darkness I am blind
Looking for an answer I cannot find
But now I see clearly
It's just so hard to believe

Death let me hear you sing
Let me hear your serenade ring
Temptation, sweetest poison
Shot full of euphoric venom
Up is down, sideways is straight ahead
Deep inside I feel I'm already dead
Just put me in the ground
What I lost will not be found

Death, where are you? I've been waiting
My life is here for the taking

Death please betray me
Don't leave me to the nightmare fantasy
Even death has abandoned me
Left me to my silent screams

Haley Revell

Torn And Faded Tapestry

Another hole in my tapestry
Another life wiped away
The sky opens crying tears
Colors of my tapestry fade

Lightning flashes, Conjuring memories
Faces I'll never see again
Images in my mind
Love only waltzes with the dead

Decades slip away
Another moment lost that can't be replaced
I will never have that chance again
Thought I had time, thought I could wait

Now faced with bleak reality
In dark rooms I am alone
Torn and faded tapestry
Hangs around me, I feel so cold

No bright colors on perfect cloth
No warmth coming from my saving grace
Left now as I sleep
All I see is a dead face

Eyes reflect things I see
A sad and lonely expression
So many things lost to me
Can't face my own reflection

So many times I offered my hand
Help me make my tapestry whole again
It was all I had wanted
For you to remain a friend

Hangs from walls that lock me in
I look in your eyes
Where did it end and where did it begin

Haley Revell

Truth

When i close my eyes
I see the current of time
And what flows inside
This troubled mind

No I don't know
Why we try so hard
To hide the truth
Behind our live

I don't understand
This so called Promised Land
I can't decide to take a chance
And make a stand

Or why it bothers you
Just to hear the truth
I guess what you believe
Isn't really you
Where have you been
That I haven't been too

Yet still you fail to see
The substance
Of my dreams
The strength in my beliefs
And for my pain and fear
You show no empathy

I want you by my side
My soul can't hide
This injustice you deny
And hear I feel so alone
Falling to pieces inside

Haley Revell

Understand

I tried to make you understand
To make you see it my way
But I could not make you see
Anywhere beyond yesterday

I ask myself why it ended like this
But I already know
I need to feel your kiss
But I'm the one who let you go

I did some wrong
But I did some right
I'm sad to know you're gone
As I sit alone tonight

If only I could change
What I've said and done
But I don't know how
Is there really sun

Haley Revell

Waste

So what is it,
About this great tragedy
That has rocked me
To the foundation of my being
Is it the pain and grief
Or the great suffering
Is it the realization
That this nightmare
Is what is left
Of my dreams

Is love a lie
That grows overtime
Is it a dream that
Is doomed to die
Is it
Waste of time and life
Or just an epitaph
Saved for when you die

As alone as
I can be
I ask myself
Is this what it seems
I'm not sure of what I see
Only what I want to believe
That all this time
Was not a waste
That all this pain
Is not the same
And in the end
It wasn't a game
And yet it seems
That in the end
You're just plain mean
To which I never meant anything

And now all is said and done
In the shadows

I can't feel the sun
And I wonder why
I've come undone
In the end
I only ask why
All this pain
I cannot deny
What a waste
Of my life

Haley Revell

Who?

Seems like my world
Has been torn from me
Victim of circumstances
Never meant to be
As hysteria tells the lies
In silence I scream
Behind dead eyes
Who's the one so strong
That make something seem riht
When its truthfully wrong
Who's the one
With so much power
To make this
My darkest hour?

Haley Revell

Winter Prison

Behind these icy bars
I see the world
With bitter eyes
Even the stars above
Are not within my sight
I tried so hard
I never gave up the fight

Locked inside this cell
I see white walls
Surrounding me
In this winter hell
I try to escape
No hope that I can tell
Not within my reach

Freezing cold here
No warmth inside
To comfort me
These invisible chains
Are hard to see
Wrapped so tight
I can't break free

You know I'm alone
And I have no one
Nothing to call my own
Everything I know is gone
Where I went wrong
Chilled to the bone

I've been looking at the world
Through long dead eyes
I'm still not sure
What happened to my life
Feels like everyone is watching me
I'm being chastised
For not being perfect

For not being right

Locked inside a winter prison
It's cold in here, so alone
I have nothing of my own
Locked in a Winter Prison
Freezing to the bone
Won't someone set me free
Won't someone take me home?

Haley Revell

You Dont Understand

You don't see the truth
Behind my eyes
All you see are
All the lies

You don't know
The pain like I do
Don't know the hell
I've been through

You blame me
For living in a fantasy
But you're the one
With all the dreams

You always say
You can change me
But I'm not fazed
By your blindness to reality

What is deep
Inside of you
Makes you hate
The things I do

Why can't you accept me
For whom I am
You always try to change things

Haley Revell
