Dark Side

Dark side is always there whether it's a day or night Dark colour never fades it is true but we must apply this thought twice.

As to be dark we always think about bad.
But when worst couldn't happen it is nice.
It is up to you whether you utilize this darkness to fill colour in other's life or to use it as a knife..

Darkness is only a parameter we should always bear in our mind.
Dark is not always bad remember.
But darkness should not prevail at your heart or in your mind.

Failure And Success

Impossible is nothing just take a challenge.
Once you take it you will feel better.

Thinking about the failure is not worth.
Just think success is yours.

One who cannot succeed is not the end of the life.

Real warrior is who never feel he is a loser.
But make a mind and fight back to become victory's host.

Friend And Foe

Who is your friend and who is foe.
But always try to make up joy.

Friends are here and there.
But true friend are not everywhere.

Every person who shakes hand with you.
Not necessary will pray for you.

The true friend is who always thinks about you.
He never leave you alone in sea of sorrow.

How To Write Poetry At Heart

Imagination of truth with permutation and combination.

Realization of heart with simplicity without inclination.

Conservation of resources
With responsibility without favoritism.

Distillation of thoughts with refinery without pollution.

Inscription of pen with candid behavior without manipulation.

See, think, admirer and comment without any discrimination.

Journey Of Life

Man is like a tourist,
going through the journey of life.
Somewhere there is tough high upstream and somewhere a low.

Life is like a shadow somewhere darker one side and brighter at another.
A person who never sees behind is the real warrior.

Living with no aim is useless.
With confidence at the peak get up, and take the challenge.
Failures will always end in a success.

Let Us Enjoy

Thousands of dreams in eyes but none come true on the destiny chart.

Never gave up, always dream big and be smart.

Thinking is human tendency but never think so far.
Let us Enjoy this moment and collect some light moments in your memory jar.

Never try to impose your personal intensions on others.

You can't drive nature,
but should enjoy its fruitful moments together.

Enjoyment should not be relative and comparable,
with others.

Individual intensions should be judging criteria for all sisters and brothers.

Life

Life is precious life is short,
But take care life is for all.

Life is blessing life is soul,
Life is inside you never try to steal it anymore.

Life is flora life is fruit
Never try to uproot its roots.

Life is tragedy life is sorrow
Try to lend also never always borrow.

Life is reality life is truth
Never challenge it is our strength.

Life is custom life is festival
Always try to celebrate it like a carnival.

Life is blossom life is a season
If you still have query there is no reason.

Life is happiness life is sacrifice
Forgive your enemies once you will feel pride.

Permanent Is Nothing

In this large people of row,
Here there everywhere who bow.
Is the beloved of nature and god.

The tree which stand with ego tall,
Always has a fear of storm.
But the innocent grass at root,
Never has to think about air's blow.

It is the nature's rule,
first give and then take all.
If one has to gain,
he must obey this law.

In this journey of life,
permanent is nothing but all is fraud.
If one really want pleasure of life,
he should stay in thenature's law.

That Is God

Brighter than future and helps us all,
That is God, That is God.

Nobody can see, touch or smell,
but is above all lords
That is God, That is God.

Who need no explanation or evidence, but is jury of all
That is God, That is God.

Whether one is rich, black, a pauper or white,
one who sees us all with one eye
That is God, That is God.

Who gives blessing to us and strength in a brawl,
That is God, That is God.

You may call yourself Christian, Hindu or Muslim,
But who cares and look after us all
That is God, That is God.

The Mask

In this world here there everywhere, there is a fashion show.
Putting a mask on face,
has become a common game now.

The mask in itself has no identity, but when it covers someone face it seems as a reality.
Making a mask is not difficult, but hard to use it nicely.

Person who uses it for himself, is worth never.
But one who utilize this mask for others,
is clever.

Thought Of The Day

Live simple be smart, feel good at heart.

Forget the pain and strain, have rest, slow down and relax.

If all goes wrong, be strong,
don't lose heart, try not to escape but wait.

Sometime even this also fails, be stout and try to sail.

Never hurt anyone or favours bad,
if you did, feel sorry and repent.

Never support evil, life is a true gift preserves it, always try to change a bit.

Today's Life

Whether for good or for bad but time is changing without a lag.

Earlier people use to talk about wiser and truth.
Now a day they tell examples of big CORRUPT and fat.

People become subject of laugh who try to rise against the river's flow.
And truth has become a thing of show,
getting a blow.

But the society in which we live is exceptionally of morale low.
People try to outdate this truth reality and called themselves modern and beginning of a new show.
