Alluring Avenues

Alluring avenues of luxurious coffee are like wine to my Neophyte lips as the sensual, fresh carriages of innocent, crisp glass dazzle and dip the strips of light filling my azure mind

Heather Moreton

Cabbalistic Fingers

Cabbalistic fingers stepping through the glass waiting for the white boat of life stopping but to pass

Heather Moreton

Carriages

Sensual, fresh carriages, Innocent, crisp fresh grass dazzles with coffee strips of light filling this azure mind.....
Waves of crumbling spherules, initiated by lengthened fingers riding on an ice-white boulevard, lined by soaked, maroon velvet clouds

Heather Moreton

Crests Of Crumbling Spherules

Crests of crumbling Spherules, initiated by your crisp, azure laden eys ride along the ice white boulevard lined by crushed, maroon red velvet

Dancing With The Fairies Wings

fluttering in the breeze I dream of Summer moods and of blades of green underneath

Heather Moreton

Delicate Prints Of Your Love

let me walk beside them dancing on the beaches of Saturn, dreaming about forever

Heather Moreton

I Swim Around Inside Your Head

I swim around inside your head
following the tide
I then drift onto Lilac flowers growing in the light

Heather Moreton

I Will Hold You Forever

I could hold you forever, close to my heart
I could kiss you forever, our lips, never to part....
I will follow your footsteps up to the stars,
close to my heart.

Heather Moreton

Innocent Spherical Thoughts

born fresh in a fragile world moistened by capsules of love

Heather Moreton

Jet Bestrewen Fluid

Jet bestrewen fluid
emanates from inside my veins Slicing through my thoughts, like a razor filled with screams.....
Crimson blades of fear skate around my head, leaving tormented lacerations carved on all my dreams.

Heather Moreton

Loneliness

Loneliness envelops me, wrapping me in its grasp, sinking deeper amongst my thoughts...
My fingers clutch at hope as I stumble along this path

Manhattan Morning

Moving slowly up the river, the sun sliding gradually upwards, I looked back at this glorious sight I saw along the streets the lights, the people
the Yellow Cabs
the first, fresh stirrings of a Manhattan morning I wanted to fly right into the centre of it, calling out "I'm here, I'm home" It looked so beautiful, so sleepy so surreal, for a second, I thought how glorious it would be just to dive right down there, into the harbour, to immerse myself, completely within this wonderous, New York dream.....

Heather Moreton

Moonrocks And Holes

fill every nook, they cushion a way for flames which Mars had mistook... dancing waltzes on the Moon, bringing us together, as we circle the great white rock on our way to Heaven

Heather Moreton

My Summer Breeze

I swim around inside your head,
following the tide
growing in the light,
You are my breath of life as we kiss on the summer breeze flying all around the Earth landing among the trees.

Heather Moreton

Raven Coloured Spiders

crawl inside my eyes, fingering my thoughts, with their black, extended legs....
Searching for a mind a mind full of webs, confusion and emptiness.

Heather Moreton

Sail On

As we sail on past the Earth, amber dreams caress our minds, We find ourselves in the Sapphire Sea
.....found at the edge of time

Heather Moreton

Secrets

Speak with the fairy blue her voice will reach your mind she will tell you all she knows even the secrets of mankind

Heather Moreton

Sheets Of Moons

Sheets of Moons orbit my fingers wrapping them in fragile Stars encrusted with sleepy, golden steps

Heather Moreton

Silver Sprinkled Fingers

dance amongst the snow....
Luminous flakes glissade around, wonderous at the show..
The fairies instruct the fingers on how to do their dance, intertwining around the branches, trusting not to chance.

Heather Moreton

Sipping Amber Nectar Dreams

riding on your mind Pegasus lands inside us drinking in all time

Heather Moreton

Strawberry Love

Summer envelops me like a tangerine dream...
Lemon tasting drops fall onto my lips, disguised as Autumn rain, trickling inside my mind, forming pools of dreams, dreams full of hopes and Strawberry love.

Heather Moreton

Summertime

Throughout the Summertime, the wonder of your love softens my every step, as my thoughts drift down..... sleepily unable to forget

Heather Moreton

Test Your Wings And Come To Me

Test your wings and come to me
flying past the Stars.....
I will meet you on the Moon floating over Mars

Heather Moreton

The Blue Flame Flickers

The blue flame flickers
on the Moon, a guide to all who pass, pale pink Moonbeams gather round, showing you the path

Heather Moreton

The Moon Departs Alone

the yellow light awakens
the Stars long ago said goodbye and we are one once more

Heather Moreton

The Saxifrage Grows On The Moon

caring not of time the fairies dance on past the Earth, altering your mind

Heather Moreton

This Lake Of Woods

As we travel through this lake of woods, the calmness of your love cools and caresses the deep, dappled pockets of my soul, as I need to be wrapped forever within your love

Heather Moreton

We Cycled To The Stars And Further

we swam to the Moon and beyond falling into pink clouds of dreams but did we ever return?

Heather Moreton

We Think Of Pale Yellow

of dancing past the Earth We hear its song mellow for the one it gave birth
