Carey York(11-27-80)

I am a Child of God and I am married with 5 kids.

I love my family and my life with the Lord the head of it.

I love to write poems and to draw although I may not be that great at it, I still love to do it. This is how I share my feelings.

A Stranger In My House

There's a stranger in my house,
Trying to be as quiet as a mouse,
But I see the shadow on the wall,
And this stranger is very tall,
Is this a woman or a man,
What do I do, I can't even stand,
I am scared of what they might do,
So I hide waiting for you,
But you never came around,
And I will soon be found,
Tears running down my face,
Trying to leave not one little trace,
As I try to move slowly towards the door,
My foot fell through the floor,
Struggling to get it out,
The stranger found me without a doubt,
The stranger that was so tall,
Was my husband after all! ! ! ! ! =)

Far Away

Far away
My heart has went off to lay
There is uncomfortable emotions that are very strong
And now I ask myself is this where I belong
There is an emptiness that I have inside
And it's getting hard to hide

In my bed is where I want to stay
Without being so far away
Far away
Far away
Will I come home to stay
Or will I always be so far away

Happily Ever After

When you love someone so much, It may make you do crazy things,

When you love the caress of their lips upon yours, You shall have them in your dreams,

When you love the fill of their touch, What pleasure it brings,

When you love the movement in their hips, You'll want to burst out with a scream,

The look in their eyes, The beat of their heart,

The way they smile, The sweetness in their laughter,

You suddenly realize, You never want to be apart,

You will walk a million miles, To live happily ever after.

Dedicated to the one you love.....

Husband & Wife

I promise to love you,
For better, for worse,
In sickness, and in health,
For richer, for poorer,
To death do us part.

Where did the love go, after all these years,
Why does there have to be so many tears,
In sickness and in health you said you do,
But now look how untrue,

Why say these very meaningful words,
If you can't stand by them,
To death do us part,
But yet, you can't even feel then in your heart,

What about the kids that are in this too,
No one thought to ask them about what they are going thru,
Broken hearts are falling all around,
Along with a hurtful silence that is found,

Oh yes, there are many grandkids as well,
But grandpa can't see from the spell,
The spell of another,
His new lover,

Oh yes grandma there are many grandkids as well,
But you are under a different spell,
Many kinds of sickness have control over you,
And really bad depression too.

But thats ok, as long as you both are happy and loving life,
Mom you don't need your husband, and dad you don't need your wife,
Your kids are grown now,
We will try to do better some how,

I love you both with all my heart,
But you both tore our family apart,
Now I am left with no parent in my life,

But I make a good mother and one hell of a wife,

I miss you mom and dad,
At one point you were all I had,
I am no longer mad,
Just very sad,

Not one but two fathers are now gone,
Leaving my mother alone,
No matter how weak she will always act strong,
So I put her in God's hands where she belongs.

He will love her for better, or worse,
In sickness, and in health,
For richer, for poorer,
In life, and everlasting life,

Our Lord and Savior never leaves us,
Nor forsakes us,
He will carry us when we are no longer able to walk,
He knows what we think and feel even when we can't talk,

He is the HUSBAND and WE the WIFE.

I Am Safe

In the midst of the night,
I wake up in a fright,
Because of all the sweat,
My pillow has gotten wet,
I take one look beside me,
My husband is who i see,
And I lay back down,
He with my arm around,
I am safe when I am with my love,
And knowing the good Lord is watching me from above.

I Think Of You

I think of you, late in the night,
I think of you, and how you hold me tight,
I think of you, when you are away,
I think of you, every moment of the day,
I think of you, and your luscious lips,
I think of you, and the way you move your hips,
I think of you, and your warm caress,
I think of you, and how you love my breast,
I think of you, and the man that you are,
I think of you, and how together we made it far,
I think of you, because you love me the way you do,
I think of you, because I love you.

In The Dark With No Way Out

I was in the dark with no way out
I partied hard without a doubt
Nothing was going to stop me now
I was me and I was showing them all how

How to go from good girl, to apart of the world
From knowing right from wrong, but not being very strong
How to let depression get the best of me, I was to blind to see How to love my kids with all my heart yet leaving them with a broken heart

Yes that was me, I was living free
Unhappy as one could be, waiting for someone to rescue me
I tried to take my own life, cutting my arm wide open with a knife
While my two baby boys, was in the next room playing with toys

I was in the dark with no way out
Partying hard without a doubt
Nothing was going to stop me now
I was me and I was showing them all how

God had a plan for me, that's why I am still here you see
He allowed me to go through those things, so with me a testimony I would bring Having the the right people in my life, and becoming a very special mans wife
I truly am free, the darkness no longer has a hold on me

My Lord & Savior never left my side, even when I tried to hide
I now have four boys, and they are happily playing with their toys
I am now over six years clean, with many more testimonies to bring
I now live in the light, where everything is so beautiful and bright
For I have God in my heart, and we will never again be apart

No More

No more sickness,
No more pain,
No more wickedness,
Only love to gain,

Everlasting life,
Singing joyful songs,
Forever with Christ,
Where we belong,

No more tears,
No more sorrow,
No more fears,
No more tomorrow,

Only happiness we will know,
And stronger we will grow,
Faith and courage forever we will show,
Forever will be like one day that just flows,

I want to enjoy all that you have waiting for me,
So Father I am cry out to you,
Asking you to forgive me,
For all the pain I have caused you.

Remember When

Remember when,
When we fell in love,
Remember when,
We gazed into the heavens above,
Remember when,
When you told me you loved me,
Remember when,
When you left me,

I do,

We was young and crazy,
That's when we fell in love,
Looking at the shooting stars,
Is when we gazed into the heavens above,
Your head was in my lap looking up at me,
When you told me you love me,
You took your own life,
That is the day you left me,

I remember when,

I remember all the lil times we shared,
For you I cared,
Together or not you had my heart,
So we never really was apart,

Remember when,
When I cried so hard for you,
Remember when,
When I didn't know what to do,
Remember when,
When you was always in my dreams,
Remember when,
When it was your name I would scream,

I do,

It was after you left me,

I cried so hard for you,
It was after you left me,
I didn't know what to do,
It was after you left me,
You was always in my dreams,
It was after you left me,
When it was your name I would scream,

To this very day I remember,
Your voice,
Your laugh,
Your cry,
Your crazy ways,
The way you made me feel,
The way you had my heart,
The way you was to my rescue,
The way we made love,
The way we spent our time together,
The day I got the phone call,
The day I was standing at your side,
The day they put you in the ground,
Your birthday every year it comes around,
The way I cry when I think of you,
The way I miss you with all my heart,
How I will always love you,
I can not forget,
I will not forget,
I remember,
Remember when.

Soft Whisper

I was loney and scared,
Believed that no one cared,
Lost in this big world you see,
And no one ever looking for me,
My heart was broke,
And everyone thought it was a joke,
I was lost in my own sorrow,
Hoping for a brighter tomorrow,

There was a whisper in my ear,
That said I am here,
For I never left you alone,
It was me that has kept you strong,
You are my child and I love you,
I will forever see you thru,

For so many years,
I shed a lot of tears,
But it all disappeared,
When I heard the soft whisper in my ear.
