I have a Dream

Even though you are not going to be with me i already had a dream about you and me together

A dream where i take care of you and we both are happy.

You love him so much, but do you know i die loving you each day.

Do you know that my every heartbeats thinks about you.

I will still love you even if you are not with me.

But it hurts everyday when i see you go

Even if you dont care how i feel, but i just wish you care someday, even if not today.

Time will change so many things between you, but i am afraid i cant stop loving you, please forgive me.

Its funny when i dream about you, till the dream its happy

But when i wake up, i realise i am still going to be alone

I dont have hope for me to be happy cos i know i have asked you more than i should

Wish one day you realise there was a person who love you hopelessly

And waiting for the day, counting each day with a pain in his heart.

Love you always, even if you dont love me.

Just a broken hearted man

I am not able to move on my love
Because how hard i try, i still know i am madly in love with you
I know i should not be missing you, but i end up missing you more that i think i should.
Never knew i would wake up thinking about you alone.

I know you never loved me, but i dont know why cant i teach myself not to fall for you everyday
I never knew you would be 24*7 inside my head.
I dont know why am i so stubborn to move on Its hard to take this pain everyday and everynight

I wish you could have seen how much i am into you
I wish you could tell me i love you
Its like everyday is a suicide for me loveing you more, when i know that you would be in someone's arm when you needed a shoulder
I want to fight the whole world to be with you if you could only tell me that you love me
Yet I will still stab myself everyday and take the pain just to see you happy with him, if not with me
