Dr subhendu kar

I am Dr.subhendu kar born in a state of orissa, India, basically an environmental consultant under the INSTITUTE OF ENVIRONMENT, by profession and my fascination is poetry but depth of affiliation to the world of poetry is yet unknown to me, interestingly something from within always impulses me to scribble about my feelings looking to the world around me- the soothing blue sky and its smooching whisperings to the moon by the rainbow across the vast void. I behold the blue mountain by the beauty of its divine grace, the ocean in its ravishing waves of blue thrill and the jingling cornfield across the grin of the green that promise me to smile all along while trudging through the path of my journey in the midst of eternal stream of my time and space in this universe. At times tears glean in eyes by the sorrow or heart swells by the joy and happiness in a most intrigue manner baffling me by my existence across the known and unknown crowd and my mother taught me the alphabets and the abacus to know the curve of this world. with hope of love and peace unto the last dreg of my communion...

as I do exist nonexistantly upon this earth with all my belongings, the men and matters, I have tried to express my self being roasted by the emotions extruding from me within and those are in the process of print as my footprint to the posterity. I do have half dozen of English anthologies of poetry and few in my own language of Oriya, apart from that I edit a literary journal called- IMAGE for constant communication with the people around me....

Eternity of ocean is what by tide and ebb rave of mystery dissipates waves in between path absolute is cycle of crest and trough razzles are rungs of color along the course haste inebriates beholding rise of resonance sky looks emblazoned by grace of moon illusion overwhelms by mirth in obsession quest redounds to joy by glory of knowns stillness still suffers being restless lone lurid decadence muffles by sunken flow sobriety of stance rides over deep longing hope ravishes by speckling whites to blue

!!  LOVE OF OWN GOD**!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

at a summer evening in a tribal home dream incarnates into a semblance by flute youth of the blood shines bright lest symphony of breath entreats upon dazzling milestone for weary traveler

Yet it expands into rhythm idyllic void shadow beneath a tree saunters in grin Sweating rancor by call from iffy vale soul respire by own reason yet bequeathing walk is when hardly hurried felt or over heard apprehension riles on fire yet needing to inflame eternity rills on reasons never be wrought I simply embark upon their flux of smiles lest hope may floss by truth as intoned

Mirth ramifies to its room of reason anchoring Yet dew stumbles upon night's dream Knowing reason of survival sovereign Looking to the door lest the sky above

they swear and smear the earthly dusts Upon their forehead of their minions knowing everything yet has its own god
voices when myth by their own god as voices slowly expends into mist of falling !! EVOLUTION**!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

and then there we see spectrum of white and still vibgyor hides in guise to behold are we not seven by wave of length beyond? as rungs illusive spins through scarlet wine clouds trudge through wind onto dripping, summer may meet rain being bestirred is not green of pine ripples in winter snow thunder still reels through storm ripping void things changes in space and time by necessity. as evolution reeves through colors of creation metamorphosis tolls the bell yet unheard truth is what we don't know beyond and beneath?

!! GIFT OF HEAVEN**!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Gift of goodness refreshes soul yet eyes behold very text of colors love alone enlightens soul to soar as golden eagle spreads dappled wings lofty innocence resonates in heaven! earth sways wonders by beauty of florescence! ripples of breeze mellows seaside cascading Does love impale sorrow pounding to redeem?

firmament redounds to no fear of falling sun radiates with light of warmth to engross passion regales as seeing within yet attuned I do remember beams of moon drinking darkness

Whites of stars guide to eternity yonder black hole retains gravity in unison rhythm infinite reels through universe reality resounds in vale of inevitability.

Dr subhendu kar

!! WISH YOU ALL-"MERRY CHRISTMAS"!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

May God bless you all by new days ahead As heart needs to revel by blood in red Warmth is gloss by life's beauty beyond and within as soul awaits to redeem in garden of heaven.

as we know age is seeping out of stark truth? yet gleams of light guides to heal up sorrow bliss pounds pain into speckles of joy with glow we need to trudge path of journey onto finale yet stance within still ruffles in silhouette friends amidst crowd redound to deliverance even a day by eternity reels through afresh newness brims blue even by saddles of burdens moment glides through on spumes of eternity inevitability reeves along path of grace divine vision enlightens to know mystreies of universe as goodness shambles reeling on rungs of wishes

!! ARROGANCE OF INTEMPERANCE!!!

walk hitches on its way wriggling eyes suffers vision when demented, are we lost in maddened world? psych mollycoddles as new fangled dawn rollicks to follies of man, night is blind being sunless spirit is subdued in soul of grave as arrogance of intemperance reigns transcendence seems to befuddle mortality is inevitable as at finale as journey ends in empty hands, did they commit any wrong by their ways?

sky is seamless even by spumes of blue. yet room of repose never ruffles in void Don't ever we exist non existentially? over a time and space by art of living

!! SHAMBLING SOUL BY ETERNITY!!!!

dew falling from leaf tip yet serenades dawn earth never feels love unrequited till sun wakes to enliven universe redemption is the last rung of truth absolute.

heaven may bestows shelters sanity nature redefines evolving laws of justice selection is mere revelation of fact within necessity of vectorial relevance framework abounds florescence immortal graveyard resounds like thundering hallucination is never a psychic reality as dream steps forward on path of carving slosh of breeze inflames ocean to rip off dune sparkling spumes to cause spin of earth in addiction obsolescence slowly swerves to etching black hole assonance cascades by audacity of symphony eons after eons i may see you there calling me to brace up force of gravity by legacy of soul as weaved across eternity to wrest quest subterfuging to enliven stone carrying message yet from Cambrian coast

!! CRY OF JOY**

Cry of joy sates as color ruffles in graffiti Equally obtrusive intoning in blue anchors deep into eluding clouds Yet code undeciphered by myth of mystery silence haies within and beyond cooing along skin of blood cooing never still extinct or endangered afar as pledges by genesis flaking from green

In men and women of flawless diversity Unity is thy name of own god intrinsic do we measure distance in-between by ocean's rave and whites of moon?

Night miffs up yet muffles in blue Voice stashed up falling by instinct to grey As heart huttles to home by light of dawn like dropp of dew healing blades of grass

Scruples of innocence redeem day by day yet condescending truth of kneeling snow Across immortality of irrelevance rebutting heart when lays beck hanging upon still in red

!!  LIGHT OF LONGING**!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

caravan slithers floating over spumes of waves weariness by soul seems milling on lap of love time dissipates truth from mystery of mirage audacity of hope respites by light of longing.

gleams of light enlightens sky of blue vast ripping darkness by sheath of night in void dream comes as moon waxes by full to brim breath of thirst denounces drowning in wine moon looks iridescent by beams of white ocean promises to rave up as when shinned. green in leaf winks deep by dazzles of rain warmth smooches grace by gleams of glow in eyes

!!  SONGS OF CASURINA IN AUTUMN.II!!

embracing pearls of sweetened cadence green soaked in rain bestirs of grin without on bay of eternity be the mine mingling in me yet passion enlightens soul of yore infinite heart never roars in home of repose and blood reels throuh in vein mortal vale resounds by tunes of symphony engrossing upon to weave pages onshore cry seems to serenades on lap of innocence dew when redeems by golden beams of dawn entirety redounds to joy by immortal song enticing upon mirth of ocean`s surge i look to sky to see satiny whites of moon luminous glow overpowers me being attired in glass i do remember songs of casurina in autumn.

!! BRIM OF BLUE**!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
!!!!!!

divine Wishes of love avow deep in heart light by life in unison to wrest sorrow soul needs to respire on furrows of pain spumes of white when floats to brim of blue blood needs strength on rungs of red lily on pond bespeaks of beauty on its head root when anchored into paragon of endearment lest bliss be not shaken in dungeon of darkness alacrity engrosses upon swayng onto finale dew when feels spark by rise of sun on east warmth slowly reels through gloss of kiss I do remember rain slowly falling from clouds lo behold! sparking dew redeems on rune of truth yet blushes of grin spreads up its wing dappled grass may feel greener by rain dazzling eternity may adore on shore of mortality

!! BY THE CRY**!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

to drill in peering shadow life flecks by span of waves blood surges in spell of vein passion is just a dream of heaven do we ever know truth tomorrow? time is when fact finder of mystery as heart recoils at rills of grimace clarity trembles by fear of bubbles just a thin film of yes or no moment of space blots guilt love of grace fills in resonance bondage loses strength being discordant life when cries being voiceless miffed up soul needs to wax blunter yet slowly reeve a rope smiles reeve to revel even in sorrow

!! DUSTS BY BLISS DIVINE**!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

And i do remember raves of ocean seeing beaming whites of moon infinite yet ever expanding into limitless thirst rolling upon dunes long accrued upon as dazzled by riffs of razzles out of unison since inception by eternity into blue sky still exists by vastness of void blue being reflected upon by stars and meteors portraying very art of love onto infinity as immortality reels through mortal soul let reminiscence be mirror time tossed crooning upon dehiscent pores of florensce lest flowers blooming out of obscurity dissipate all across fossils by oblivion yet blinking beneath and beyond dusts by bliss divine

!! PROMISE OF LAST NIGHT**!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

hope springs up reshinning over lurid lone soul redeems as light guides to trudge on path resonance shambles by flutes of green luminous wending its way by crowds of time unknown as blue awes transcending being enlightened newness descends against precipice of upthrust love and peace by soul of universe reels through eyes meanders into window steeped up beyond as divinity resonates by promise of hope tomorrow

!! GRAVE OF SOUL!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

In midst of my universe I stand upon void by silence Breath calls upon lone voice To see my love deep within Warmth seems swooning quest at altar of your askance of your black eyes And my splintered body cries by pain disinterring grave of my soul as I meet you there again love when seemingly unrequited darkness dispels illusion as you embrace me I feel disillusioned.

!! BRAZEN CUP OF SORROW**!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Silence ruffles as heart dapples grey Warmth when loses gloss as lurid sunset And night ruefully loses eyes of light Does world cries by adieu of sun?

night gleans tears in frosty eyes dew sobs deep on reef of darkness Passion slumbers by slandered arm of tonight Unto last dregs mist rused to clouds

Yet sun may rise in the east to west Waking universe from pangs of shadow Nature smiles by flames of delight Do we ever know reason of reasons as betides?

Earthly dusts breath again by unison unearthly rolling stream is limitless by brim of eternity a mortal may be ephemeral by time and space as emptiness of wine by a brazen cup of sorrow

And I do remember lofty days halcyon being cradled on lap of innocence luminous yester I am as I am- a manifestation of moments Immortal grace of love as ethereal is yet untold

!! GLOSS OF KISS..II *****!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

In deep of night by dream I hear swash of breeze
As I open door of blue I see moment slushing me of yonder beauty billowing whites of moon entices me to temptation gloss of kisses endears swooning my pangs of grief into obscurity mirth reaches me to enlighten darkness by spark of freshness renewed as I search coffin of sorrow Yet it seemed sloshing by eyes

!! GREEN IN ITS ECSTASY**!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Oh light of resplendence I do swear by haven's bliss Rainbow endears blue Delight wishes of moon emblazoned Lightening rips through rain

To delve deep into razzles of delighted ocean a cloned iridescence in universe redounding to streams of joy curving trenchant towards eternity entirety redeems in amalgamation rising sun on earth to absolve transcending creation, microcosmic tranquility glows in luminosity blazing across glory of green in ecstasy.

!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! LOVE IRIDESCENT -PROSCENIUM**!!!!!!!!!!!!

beauty awes by gleams of light dissipating earth even riles through ruined faces of crowd as ruminating gathered hearts ever decadent, sorrow seems to redounds to joy of heaven do we ever know dappled wings of love? as heart serenades by promethean flames mortal being sates rambling over colors of bliss as whispers of smile mingle into vesper vernal fire reels through radiating aura of innocence immortality enlightens spirit in iridescence even if not frigid by elastic spumes of blue soul enshrines by promise of ocean raving holly pilgrimage yet portrays art ancestral as immersed through cherubim knowledge pervading beyond thresh-hold of time and space proscenium interprets rungs of continuity of miracle

!! OH THE LOVE OF LIGHT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

eyes emblazon by gleams of light, path seems to smear dust of gold, green ripples in shadow of thirst, grin slowly descends to rungs of rain, love inebriates over lips obsessiveness, eternity serenades in the arms of infinity, universe sates by velocity of cosmic whispers, yet i know metamorphosis who moves all across nature changes by illusion to truth yet inalienable from time to space relative elation jingles by florence of corn yet by vibes of verdant fragrance intoned yet i do remember beads of abacus in nursery to count spin of earth in its path stream passes off in haste by love of light riding over riff of spaces all beyond and within

!! EYES HALF VEILED!!

As the symphony reels through on rungs of colors by dappled skin rainbow sneaks into vibes of blue eyes seems to bestirs by green of wild wave cascades to touch onshore.

rapture oscillates in vale of tune by the octets of flute betiding across the jingles of Florence beneath musky mango grove Oh it is incoming of spring virile.! heart encores in tunes of rhythm who knows quantum grin within when wine ramifies through vein I do remember murky eyes half veiled at the thresh hold of my doorway.

!! CORONATION**!!

earth adores warmth of light crowning of sun light reels through hues of cascade spuming heart seeps red touching universe of own silence by sky disperses innocence of blue time and again green looks on to its vastness to make me feel a tiniest entity yet unknown, as love and peace be path of walk by dream lest be not lost into hoary shackles of obscurity dulcet spring enlivens to conquer world unseen intruding into untold story of journey across gleams of light carries my dreams and desire sledding across riff of reasons and reality together glow of starry night whispers me of my being ripples of river smooches me by sultry rhythm zephyr blown across entices to tune to florescence as moon dissipates calmness swiping whites of lily soul seems to sip vector eternal heart when seeps red from white wishing for veracity of immortal glow.

day sparkles on velocity of space moments in ages and eons reels on ahead mortality still apprehends illusion green ruffles in darkness within and without..

light gleams according rays by eternity as silence is text of solitude true love approximates completeness universality is thy name of god intrinsic eyes beams into to glow of beauty divine pangs of pain slowly melds as in game do we know proximity in between grief and joy? let dawn sates its share of time onto whisper of twilight

!! GREEN WHEN AWAITS RAIN *****!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

green awaits rain to sway and swaddle yet swaggering of glow to earth beneath thirst crunches being bereft of winy drunk as sky is glorified being shinned of blue dawn awes by blooming sun at its side darkness melts as rays burns blacks of night mirth sees its face on mirror of sparkling dew moment is me and mine as i conquer crown lily stealthily sates by glow of stars blinking whites on petals reverberate by gloss of kiss yet it beckons its head preening over gleams divinity by unity is thy name of God onshore yet tear riles upon time silhouetted in sorrow heart when feels miffed up griping reeks of pain.

snow falters to fill earth with warmth in need as rain guides green to respire brimming blue red reverberates in vein of rhythm sparkling does world suffer darkness by sun in setting?

night feel s glory by proximity of moon in spin spuming white is ultimate rung of mortal rave peace still quests on by sanity of love entuned God is truth absolute in path of journey onto finale

!! SOLILOQUY OF SORROW**!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

heart yet knows truth gliding own reason just as soothing breeze may be from heaven by the quest of soul yet knowingly unknown as we remember gleams of grace untold breath seems to swoon by grace of rose time is never dispassionate even by falling of snow night still remembers wine splashing in glass eyes looks cloudy by pangs of tears heaving shore passion leaps up to whites of moon shining lest glow by night may embrace glimpse hope of tomorrow may hide in dark furrows yet whisper forsakes grimacing shadow distance measures depth of silence as parting slowly peels up skin of gleams ocean stays away by the ebb in stance yet soul oscillates as when bereft of glow

!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! SPARKS IN DEW *****!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
!!!!!!

kindness and care redound to swoon sky in its vastness frilling blue blue heart spruces up by thrills of white as red enshrines deep by glow of hope rigidity in skin loses frigidity of fear humanity is lost in crowd of cruels yet love whispers milling through snow night when remembers grace of silence heart mellows to croon from heaven at altar of freshness rejoicing like a dawn sating in golden spark s in dew warmth reels through splashing spumes light cascades on rungs of colors as joy serenades chilled wall of sky soul of heaven transcends earth luminous speckles of newness sobs in iridescence.....

!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! *TRUTH OF DEW**!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

octet of musical tones entwines symphony redounds by flow of flute completeness rejoices by a flower as redemption of soul is inevitable earth serenades shattering darkness bespeckling captivity to hued blue yet i do remember grief of green pine is saddened by frost of pain miffed moment loses to notch of night do we ever delve truth of genesis? as sparkling dew redeems by light love diminishes bereft of harmony being curtained of its lithe of peace yet fragrance never gets veiled in space as truth needs no veracity of fact water is stubbornly hasty by its way

!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!  CRY OF INNOCENCE *****!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

sparkling dew cries over blade of grass redeeming slowly by rays golden mystery shrouds over green of garden as dawn remembers art of last night query ripples by nature of resonance precision happens to happen by bliss sweetness refluxes by newness of world soul awes by eclectic cry of innocence joy resounds mingling into spumes in void quest lays back into eternity by askance is there love lost to reason of murky ravine? as beauty of grace reels up by dreams onshore soul knows truth of trust by reason implicit greenness smooches by eyes of grin surmised heart yet needs warmth of love by craving moment when chilled by snow in indulgence

yet moment makes history in ages and eons embracing breaths of love and hatred entwined into the furrows of days and night intemperate still we smacks of love resolute in adherence gleans of love streams in as yet not hurt! !

enlighten soul by divine glory of love sanguine as quest dies then there by the rain sizzling like bubbles of queries mingling into obscurity.

truth is what we don't know beyond and beneath?

!! GLIMPSE BY DELIVERANCE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! pride seems to dance conquering queries waves blue by deep sea unleash captivity yet unveils mirth in its core brimming bracing up glaze with beauty of gleams joy promises hope on the vale of tunes ever meandering into quest instilling paradise of dream extols innocence as florence never fades off falling blushing touch yet embraces onto infinity even breath of breeze all when divine eternity engraves gracious gale of soul beneath veil of musky whispers crooning

yet dream comes on rune of untold void on beach of bitten surf slowly rolls upon thirst of dune clogs up imperceptible in buried brook of oblivion transcending lest cry of illusion may bewilder deep on the window of latticed iridescence to be or not to be ever after oblong spumes of universe ingrains yet within reality dispelling darkness rejoices dawn awaits sun to spot out creases dew of night cleaves furrows of cliff clipping sheath of shadow slithering tangent chord of scruples assails askance flames when lucked up in lurid silence, lest jingle may ramble from mango grove to etch rhythm in each speckle of blood.

desire covertly slither on lips of kisses mirth croons in joy to float speechless as frills of spumes reels across the gloss quest seems to peek into room of repose horizon silhouettes in midst of solitude when silence whispers over rune of hue sky aspires to obsess with mists of blue. quest of spumes bespeaks of moonshine !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! MOTHER UNIVERSAL**!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

On sweet memory, Dispelling darkness by motherhood posterity reborn once again To kiss holy dust divine as Great Ganges flows yet offering source and resource of living Greens of grins to vine by humanity Humility of sweet and nectar by refulgence

To Clones primordial ever and ever after Life extends deep gratitude in prostration by genuflection to crown of mothering

Oh holy mother –the genesis of universe Coalescing frigid blue from reverie of slumber from deep dream into semblance of truth reality glorifies descends of stream continual assonance of voice of quivering lips under half opened veil tears and smiles reel in her eyes milling under half backed bone of love and I do remember her pain thrust innocence suffused with care and comforts of words wisdom yet ever pervading beyond excellence of heaven.

eyes meanders wending into horizon along pasion enlightens to embrace spring to behold waves of ocean rip through sands to awake spark as soul sees semblance in mirror surfing in blue heart serenades untold by the gleams of love passion blossoms into rune of dream unrestrained as the brims of stream entunes by haste to flow warmth engrosses onto gleams in revelation oh the light of love let me bow down by glaze glow awaits to redeem by rays of hope tomorrow earth yet bewilders in night by dew of darkness does tear still flows to encounter lurid solitude?

!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! RAIN OF TEARS *****!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

still i do remember those nursery days asking the postman passing by my home do I have any letter please in my name? he turns his face, my heart rejoices like peacock dancing to clouds of hope..... if he runs straight ignoring saddened voice of quest my pain reverberates by his feeble rejoinder of negation heart knows its resonance by emptiness of soul redolence seems to fear of lone uncanny utterance rill reels through blood by deep silence of sun setting whom should i ask rune of sorrow when reneged light when slowly settles in rucks of darkness earth apprehends of falling snow losing warmth do we ever know beats of riffling heart beneath quest? as wrinkles engulf portrayal of art by rain of tears

!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! RHYTHM OF HEAVEN**!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

symphony of blue sees rain mingling gleams of green redounds to joy is this rendezvous by iridescence? as silence seems to croon on rune of void quest bewilders in shadow of darkness cry still tolls bell ringing on earth eclipse of sun radiates whole universe lest resonance may find rhythm of heaven do we ever mean rust in rungs that cascades? as colors of dream mill through nightmare and we call upon quest on verge on shore light of love when dapples by art of craving dusts beneath and beyond feels eternity each precipitates of blue enlightens soul dew of night still dazzles by distant rays moments when ruffles by dearth by falling state of apprehension racks up prevailing upon voluptuous are our way of thinking hedonistic at times bereft of rationale in niche of ruin varying degrees of habitations do exist notwithstanding may be crux of matter meant materials vituperating with feelings of strata of skins endearing high alas! survival is the fittest not by creed and color are we not all same in ages and years before? as same redness of blood and gene replication in the order of descend /descent with modification – where words of Darwin come coupling in between do we assuage in rungs of color by distinction in white, black or brown of varying phenotypes? effect of super sensitivity never swoons humanity genotypes by gene in helix twitters in homosapiens natural selection peeks in periods of evolution but by little changes retrogressive or progressive lineage simulates to need of hours by mutation utility of expansion of human lays back by eternity civilization heaps up healing so and so forth don't we visualize whole gamut of development heaving crest of socialization ever and years after? there comes human feelings as crooning steep drowsiness of drunken silence inebriates would you not get up and worship God!

as we all need blessings against this time just begging for a day in its bowl of silky fate alms to breathless breeze of desolation lest apprehension may not haunts again hour dismayed reels off by vagaries moment still spews facts dismayed fate lest be rocked up as wrecked Titanic in deep dead sea of hidden apparitions who knows, terrors might be there hiding as dreams forsake its wings out of insinuation gallows of unkindness wrapped in pains as gauntlet of bayonet riffles from bullets cries unheard resounds in midst of sorrow.. are love and hatred the curves of psychic clouds? .

grin of the green never ruffles along cornfield dream goes on galloping unto the goal won as hope saddles strength by mighty desire creativity blooms only through freedom.. look at an orchid and its color bewitching florencence of fragrance expends into air as reality wakes us from deep slumber.

breath comes out enlightening soul genesis of newness adheres to world, . that is what our quest eternal onward seemingly resonant being riffled in blue furrows and cliffs of borrowed time eying all through the raves by news yesterday is something different today morning is never same by the evening yet in between there lies history unknown night never knows very freshness of sun rising pyramid stands by its elusive strangeness lest owes of tears slogs onto eternity whom should we bespeaks of rune of mystery? time when slowly slithers to edge of kisses do their love smolder wilting ethereal? as of lost planets shuffling in black-holes universe fails to measure their quantum forces rigidity of all dimensions when loses its strength beauty yet never dies by a blooming flower heart remembers fragrant petals of soigne rose cloud never hides grace of love by attrition yet love may be illusive by sultry vision.

art of silence reasons to flecks of falling snow yet buried beneath deep oblivion engrossed love stays away to delve truth unspelt moon hides beyond the shadow of clouds beauty resolves to glow by sorrow intoned hours if night serenades by setting of sun blue never weeps by whispers of rainbow sky is torn by the dappled blue spumes light when lies low by mystery of black yet door of upstream latches on to march ahead glory of evolution entreats being enlightened continuity of stream parades unanswered so long betiding unabated unidirectional gleams of inevitability seems to befuddle belief of atheism or theism yet rebuffs divine necessity of moment precipitates unfazed flower bloomed in the era of old as of now by its grace of beauty too is it not same flower by zest of aroma? beauty of grace besmeared with divinity does today smack of tomorrow? hope and despair twins of truancy history yet never heaves eternity just wind blows across passage of time does innocence past reflects upon perpetuity? just as right and wrong perpetrate by moments when spectra dynamics resolve depth of silence mist seemingly awaits redemption by sun rays

RUNE OF SHADOW

at this dead of night, rain sizzles it seems pitch darkness all around storm on the niche of the mirth where is the glee lucked in shadows Elysian deep blue awaits with glow eyes of crunching heart meanders deep gloom of canvas stings over the sorrow pangs of pain runs all through vein blood oozes out from its anchor redolence of love ripples in dearth grin dies beneath green of swing.

history yet records reels of fire.

where are those tiding whelms from hide speckles ocean pierce into air unfailing whispering dew of roses basking in glow moon seemingly snored in valley of obscurity mystery may uncover the flings of sorrow night when chilled being chiseled of snow do we ever know the eternity by reality? rainbow is ephemeral by voyage to void heavenly wishes reason to glow yet in between, lie cliff and chasm for truth as it needs blessing divine heart sneaks slowly into whispers of hope to smear dream over the soul to smooch and i keep golden shadow stifling beneath let your blessing by hope of tomorrow transcends within myth of blindness yet they still read moment swirls by winds unfolding dreams moon seems to be here on top of hill whispers allays sorrow by voices where is the time lost to living, life when reasoned to grip of wine as desire mills through green of wild.

light still burns shadow even in eclipse semblance swaddles across dwarfism grace eclectic rumbles by grimace as thought elastic ambles in green ocean stoops over blue being deep frog still resounds grin beneath green beauty of love entices upon blue I or you call me always hello, hello.....!!!

!!!!!!!!!!!! PILGRIMS!!!!!!!!!!!!

Eyes behold all around us images of places and time delivered across hours of light and dark in continuum still life wades through mystery

through matrices of dynamics as when we meet together heart shares sorrow and joy at time we differ by reasons even if rain conquers dusts of earth storm by winds and rain leaves rush to grey and dry mist of green dehisces from meadow we talk of story of yesterday wind time we meet repeats history don't we talk same even as untold?

don't we smile in same way facts scratching from fossils are we not the same primates as long before as pilgrims

still we smack of love resolute in adherence

passion never finds distinction of strangers resilience needs musk of grace as ocean by full moon tide promises thrill as beguiled from blue beam redounds falling over ocean's skin currency of attraction mills through breath unknown becomes known blazing glory of own as known seems to be stranger by pretension as I am known but stranger by audacity of desire love serenades heart without discrimination do we ever know metaphysics of matrices as nature putting a show of indigo sky gleam radiates to earth to flow mirth sprinkles on ocean spreading across moon beacons from distance falling over

Hello ness dissolves the clouds Impales rage by subtle words as sun cleans darkness from night clipping slowly edges of blackness.

does light enquires upon night's peek dream pegs out in mind by tizzy feel lest passion may design the desire queries yet unanswered by the quest.

do we ever feel to be fine always? worry when niggles calmness within is that crux of matter to delve out exact way of wading path around?

do we know the path of redemption? life spins through plexus of mysteries when and how, what comes in-between quintessence lays back by complex dynamics.

as objects hold on helix of time and space as entwined by torque of turns opposite light and darkness clone shadow and beyond! happiness pairs sadness, love as hatred.

if we ever pull well by both sides of coin it begins well that ends well by existence I still never remember spell of queasiness how is then life by magic of ethereal squeak?

!!! CURVE OF SILENCE!!!

cloud may rain by apprehension there may be luscious green in the garden of motley heaven as the grin ripples by the river we wish earthly craving in undertone by the musty dream from within the own garden of passion or beyond to decipher the curve of earthly code to decode the earthly curve? do we ever mean what meant to be by the mute smile of mottled mist over the lips of tipsy desire the gentle whisper of blue mountain the mystery by the oceanic wave the speechless frigid words of snow all when silent in their own ways rage, revenge and rivalry all when die faster by the gleams of love.

soul finds the room of repose

Dr subhendu kar

!!! I AM IN A TIME INFINITESIMAL!!!

I am and this is time of my own universe as when mine is truncated by the guiles by the crowd yet known or unknown own ness is the desire of the soul own earth still divides into cells infinitesimal onto the dusts, even by years and hours divisible by the flex of moments in second in detraction when inflicted upon by the reeks of vagaries.

the galloping inevitable the flux yet unspecified dream when bridles in the hands of unknown embarking upon need of hours on the sands in the desert never when asserts its home room of ownership ruffles through the soul the legacy of love when rocked up by the blue laid over the hatred of the minion demand curve of meaning meandering forward intoned time when unrestrained by the infringement if you love me I may not be with you absolute still I follow the chilled snow heath as abandoned even the breath of fire when flounced upon glow boat still moves trudging path by the truth along depth less sojourn of uncertainty as despised looking to the deathless journey ahead of timeless death I may disappear from the dust but the raved up tones

!!! INTO THE MEMOIRS OF NIGHT!!!

Oh it is dazzling here again in lone night I come away in heartbeats to see sky tearing blue as if total void snaps in its rune by the blue voices passion ingenious flows onto the yonder pond like rain water into the memoirs of the night

the moist darkness over the green leaves the rain drops sleeks away from the leaf tips yet it bestirs the clenching hand to bow down the green meadow smooches with raining shadow

I still remember the childhood days hanging over swings of the memoirs blazing the glory of rain by the songs from core the gleams of love overshadows the moon hiding all the clouds from the plumes of desire

truth untold by the history of eternity sharpened sword impales dusty darkness crystals of wisdom oscillates as spume heart serenades by spark of symphony

As the deep youth of night avowes by the sultry dream of the betiding sea the ripples of wild stream rip through the awe free and fancied thought over powers apprehension outstretching in the room of worldly complex the resurgence of snow from the frigid wall tears of mirth gleams to the pond eternal as the sun wishes its warmth to the earth the shadow of blue rill through the bone the myth happens to bristle by the mystery over the murky meadow of the desire the crystals of wisdom when wrought by the glory the light still moves fastest across the waves the soul seems to glow by gleams of passion the nature glows ecstatic by the sizzling mist smiles full moon inspires inkling the sea brook flows streaming by the running rain the whisper slowly half muffles from the veil shadow fobs the cusp of stashing musk

autumn yet comes back again to tune your askance be the reason of true love rage of ruin smacks the rune of anger sorrow when slowly outbids the smile intoned rain still promises the rainbow to rave up blue by the art of green word as wordless twitching the lips winds yet grimace by the shadow of dream

passion seems to suffer pain in its own way by texture of mind at times tear comes by nightmare into eyes like rain in torrent pain ripples through dark night the rune of wounds allays shadow thirst when bestirs on sand dunes by the dream of love betiding are we not too small

Green grins through earthly eyes, heart muffles into ocean blue, dust inflames by the fire in the forest night stashes in hide from the gleams across the mystery of the jingle tone moment streams through when eternal dream comes true on the lips thirsty summer desire reels through by the passion.

the mist of morning bristles ecstatic over the warmth of seeping tea cup and I do remember song of silhouette heaving across the rungs of the quest.

!!! SULTRY DREAM!!!

yet a letter from the heaven carrying the message of hope of yearning intuiting the blue universe on the other side dream yet not bloomed by the craving rain has expired from the blue sky, seemingly sultry dry across flames of desire hanging in the hinges of scarlet void moon may no fall to the ground elsewhere no fear of falling like rain lest may be spoiled by the dust the earthly embrace intoning blue rose loses it`s beauty when touched upon the strength of obsessive illusion ruffles dream entices upon by the heavenly bliss mind still drifts in the vale of seamless insinuation waking me from the sleep under rugged silence

!!! TERRORS IN THE CROWD!!!

A nation when burns by the terrors in the crowd
By the bloody serial blasts by the killer goons Yesterday in Bangalore, alas! Today in Ahmedabad
The whole country seems rocked by the horrors

The blood flows across the city and citadel Tears drizzles all though the innocence of love Death tolls as it roars by the apprehension Nobody knows yet tomorrow be a black day

To whom should we tell our woes of living Under the shadow dark tinted frozen glass Light splits by the brazen`s teeth by the cruelty God knows when wrought by these hooligans

Still I hear the fretful cry under the sunset glow Night devours the light by the darkness Leaf loses its green by the gusty fires Flower refuses to bloom by the captive of soul

Will you stand for a while with the stick of anger in your hand?
To lash the maddened wilds along their own recurrence Night blinks faster standing aghast on the corridor Of fear and anguish with their hands together upon the fire

!!! THE CANOPY OF BLUE !!!

New morn bestows bliss by the sizzles of rain the soul overwhelms by the oceanic blue drizzling splashes the thirst of the sultry night the mirth within bestirs into the thrust milling deep the sun awakes sea from the stillness of slumber sunset glows in deep scarlet red of shindig azure twilight whispers the passion by the speckles of desire the starry night bedecks the sky cradling the moon colors of rainbow fluff up weaving the anchor breath shimmies into the forest of green aspiring the glimpse of grace on window of dream cloud spreads its carpet over the shadow unfazed the art of love precipitates over the canopy of lips love of Lilly when intense by the gleams of moon passion sparkles like eyes of the desire in the hide swaggering the brims of delight by embrace of the blue

!!! THE FAITH OF TOMORROW!!!

The sky blue how lovely to earth green tales by the grin is it not gleams of hope by the urgency of dream you showed me the light in the molten dark of cruised passion days I remember the rising sun diffuses over dew of dawn warmth still stashed in its room of reason unknown snow when stares into the room I may not share age may not fall by its own wishes dehiscing the blue reeks of shadow turn to pieces impaling the clouds by rain clear sky ever opens its door of deliverance by transparency of truth the desire when metamorphosed by the heavenly bliss the path when scrupled by the blessing in desire as ahead dregs of whispers promise a semblance of love unknown before rose when holds on latching on to the dreams of new day even in storm as the vivid flash of thunder yet livid over the green cornfield earth still tautens its buoyancy of confidence breaking the shadow yet hope of vision on shore braces up tempting the faith of tomorrow.

!!! THE GLIMPSE OF SHADOW!!!

The wind is silent by the solitary scape word when wordless swooning the rapture yet across the furrows of the cliff extended shadow when falling upon the glimpse of moon yet the dread be despised by the reeks of pain green still croons by the yonder cornfield breath of anger redoubts the gleams of snow night when fluffs color over rungs of blue breath swaddles fast in the mango grove by the wet fragrance of the earthly shine Florence when shatters umbra by the eclipse fragrance slowly conquers the art of love silence be vanquished into captive undertones the sands of time flecks away by the storm shadow flies into the room of resonance wind may not fall rootless time be staggering Lilly still etches the gleams of moon even alone

!!! THE GLOW OF THE GREEN!!!

Grace unequalled in my earthly eyes, dream when snuffles into ocean blue, dust inflames, as fire stashes in the hide across the mystery of the jingle's brim.

warmth cradles the glow of the green voices when curves the shape of grin heart revels by the words of whisper night never refrained of gentle breath.

moments expense in gleams of light scarlet rose shelters in room of repose passion wades through reeks of lone void the blue yet flecks into the plumes afloat....' breeze flows trudging through the riffs reeks may intone assailing the flow yet the sultry dream serenades the cliff as the wild stream brooks by the eternity.

The same blue as of the sea and the skies the legacy of love all ruffle in blue divine eyes rave up by the setting sun over the hill the dream yet mellows by the twilight slush wind wanders through the air and the fire whispers your body with gleams of the moon delight still laps your desire healing the wounds passion still drills over the vastness of the void fragrance of summer's rain smooches the dust sultry breeze satiates the thirst of the dry skin time flows in its own way flecking your sorrows. new leaf may come with renewed hope of tomorrow hope never dies abrupt even unanchored root of the wind when sticking to the desire, rain may come from the cloud of flames whisper wakes the deep sleep of the blue as the summer breeze never tells its sorrow

!!! THE LONE VOID!!!

tears yet ruffle faster unrestrained in the reeks of lone void may be returning bird breathless yet not baffled by the storm in the nest fear shelters in darkness by apprehension shadow still hides beneath the light post cry of hunger prongs up into the silhouette fire when flecks up by the graveyard.

Some questions seemingly unanswered clouds baffle the truth by deception painful voices wake tears by the eyes heart yet resonant by the mystery of love

!!! VOICES OVER THE BLACK BOARD!!! the pangs of pan freckled being thrust by the rage of fire out of uncertainty of the time still in dark side of unknown what may happen tomorrow yet latching on to the dream and desire across the time and space yet not precipitated passion flies from the dust of the ground onto the top of blue dust intoned hovering across the void vastness of the sky expanded twitchy bird flies in quest of breath keeping all its earthly desire hotshot folding across its flapping wings storm may come on its way flecking all its bated fear along by the heath of each speckle of hope the thirst for living of heartland frozen under deep shadow of tomorrow yet it returns back in a heartbeats for its waiting kids hanging over the tree the wind may thrash them down along the rain drops yet it counts the abacus of life across the blurred voices over black board,

!!! WHISPERS TANGLE THE WEB IN HIDE!!! the whispers still tangle the web in hide across the green of the deep cornfield waking the upkeep by the voices over the years jingling tone on the rungs of awful grin yet heard night when dying deep by the rain of silence wordless words of innocence never be despised Pretext of love yet reasons all the blue entwined hiding all the clouds averred from the purple plume

Oh it is dazzling here again in long night I come away in a heartbeat thought ingenious flows onto the yonder pane

the rain drops sleeks away from the leaf tip

the green meadow smooches with the wet shadow I still remember the gone bye days hanging over swing sky when blazes the glory of rain by the songs from core the gleams of love overshadow the morn intoned

!!! WILD STREAM BY THE ETERNITY!!!

Rune of passion when holds the mystery sympathy never dries empty by the reeks eloquence of love parades across the bliss the reason never seems to falter by the belief trust still reels through the hidden dream gleaming the pearl of blue emblazoned walks follows the path true by repentance enlightened by warmth as leaf rejoices in green silence yet blazes the mystery of love in hide moon still whispers the heart by the grin deep hope mingles into the blue when emancipated world wordless smiles faster by the redemption yet the hours of the dark and light as all we need clouds smacks of rain as the path of deliverance love yet never follows foot prints of narrow endings desire meanders into the wild streams by the eternity

!!! YET NO ROOM OF REEKS!!!

where is the room of reeks!
Green when laughs wild Sky is open by beauty of silence World smiles across its spumes soul never redeems by grimace ocean smiles through its waves even storm mills all through may be darkness there redounding shadow slowly melts away breeze still whispers ever again warmth enlightens room of reason as gleams of love bristles from above leaf may not stop its sway even being chilled by breath of snow

!! 1 LONE VOID !!

tears yet ruffle gleaning faster

How are you? sun winks on the east light stems slowly over the crowd mist lays heartfelt tunes yet unheard where are you? night rifles faster breeze refuges to transmute shadow bird scarcely chirrups in dark night wind seems still as dead stone rose never whispers to sorrow yet speckle of its desire intones blue huge walls of chilled snow fluffs together she stands hidden across the wall half muffled by the motley silhouette breath seems to be wordless to the eyes the silence resounds in the court room dregs of love yet not lost to tunes past last autumn still remembers its nights earth meets eclipses across its own axis moments seems to ponder onto apocalypse I may not meet you to hear story apocryphal

Dr subhendu kar

YET THE NIGHT SLEEPS# it is yet night deep I have to close my eyes now For the next day's coffee And a few spoons of dream

May be sweet or sour that happens to happen By the rucks of joy or ricks of anger till sun comes to its usual repose the patterned by the light and shadow as we do feel happiness and sorrow across the life and death spatial when day is not far off from the dark clock still reads the carvings by the path green meadow when mellowed by its beauty green on the canvas eyes when transfixed by the desire passion yet half opened by the colors night when breaths by deep wilderness, hours when slowly melt into the galore of tonight heart when unconquered by the thirst relics of mankind yet being baffled by blue where history fails to accord all portraits mystically redounding in whispers of tonight

I do remember thrills by curves of colors speckles of rainbow sprinkling over hue of blue heart seems to mills through the fragrance swaddling across mango grove in completeness jingling of Florence by the touch of breeze from other side of shore calls on buoyancy cosmic resplendence diffuses across the green over thrums of passion drinking scarlet of wine.

speckles beauty rivets on rungs of ocean`s wave solace irresistible by the gleams from heaven real gem, the rarest of all rare on earth inflaming within in one's life as enlightened love finds its own genesis from mother's womb no words, no prayer even no words of worship yet match her depth of shelter of repose divine breath looks back fastest by remembrance I still remember the halcyon days of yore starry eyes of innocence by her love virgin pierce the tears by her holy holster of hand

I am speechless to her flawless care yet by the blood of immortal caresses words sanguine of crystal wisdom unflinching support from subterranean truth as when anchored by her love epitomised trudging breath yet follows her guidance eternal morning sun awakens crowd whispers into relativity for new breath of smiles moments unveils love of beauty enticing upon to grace divine as enlightened gleams rasp over the dew of dawn thirst of nature respire by sweet secrets of inevitable calmness of sky, mountain, ocean and Greenfield across all when creep and crawl like silky shadow of dream

I simply blink to wonders all around fledging to walls of horizon hanging yonder would my breathless quest rivet to rune of awes? mystique yet saga of promise unrequited into luscious glow in condescension sways steadily pragmatized, awes by breath of brilliances across passion croon over the dream and desire clouds impregnated to rain smooching over cry of innocence I do stand with folding hands

* OF OWN GOD ****

what a gleams of light blesses soul where I am speechless by glimpse heart rejoices reaching moon top passion splashes onshore in ecstasy as dancing waves of ocean as eternal silhouette prolongs onto motley horizon yet nonplussed by wordless promise grin lest it may emerge from the blue of sea eyes never riles up by elysian blue silence of quest awaits nifty vastness wading seamless across upstream extending its wings ages and eons desire delves bliss from deep within breath of mystery persists in continuum nigger of pain mingles in air westerly to touch upon own god yet unknown

 A STORY UNTOLD YET *****

there lie many a rungs of colors the ascension yet onto the moon on the strands of love blustering clouds when all around intoning blue flower blooms from the bud as the law fragrance diffuses into the air betiding tunes flow on the rune of passion at times storm inevitable on the milieu in its own way clock when stays back the strong wind thrusts on lazing tears cuckoo no more sings the song of autumn rumpus lays its icy hand by the mystery rumpling the gloss into a rigid frame of fire tide loses its dream from the core of desire as the web of sands redoubts the splash vale of tunes seems to be rocked up the lightening splashes the fire in eyes legion's street at criss-cross rucks up i simply speechless behold the stream meandering rueful across the snowfall in furrows of love and hate yet undespised

 BITES OF DESIRE *****

I have read in eyes scarlet red as rilling through wine desire bites deep of course yes there you are.

I have felt Wetly passion by sizzles of rain like silken shadow flapping over lush green meadow.

I have looked rainbow smears spectra colors through tipsy eyes in redolence love seems to whisper in resplendent surf splashes on the beach love desiccates by shadow and beyond thirsty summer reels over sandy desert beauty seems to smite in rage of fire

 QUEST WHEN SADDENED.....

exuberance of love pierces the valets of sorrow the heart to glow by the gleams ensconced excellence conquers the flaws of arrogance mist seems to reason in hiding the truth yet silence cries across the pain of cliff should you not come back home again blackness may fear to trade by apprehension gleams of love when smacks of blue ingrained the peace is enticed upon as the white dove have you ever measure the length of lost moments by the tap of your smile as intones by enigma or by chilled cry of the innocence at some corner blurring the muses altogether by the clarity

I know you may falter by transparency of life to follow the ravening path of hunger across its foot print blazoning the truth perhaps yet with no answer now with you!

have you ever measure angles of fallen tears at the criss-cross square of the legion's street as you call me by your ambiguity acknowledged earth sobs since its inception known from the history still your pride diffuses fear as averred beneath the cloak of dream in acceptance valiant reasons still blurs into darkness hiding ruefully across the smitten tears when occasion calls to the ignorance we may disown the knowledge of all knowing the quest of saddened throes when entwines and we pledge to disappear in space and time

 THE SUMMER`S RAIN

Summer rain

From the early hours onto this rain Summer still awaits to the shower Sun when rises by the hope of the day weather of innocence still assails the cry hoping the smiles of the lilac across the summer's rain of fear sorrow yet allays to the sea. thirst of night seemingly deep by the dream let me close my eyes imbecile for this moment to dream faster as the night yet sleeps when assuaged into the depth yet not accomplished

((((((((((((((((((((RELEVANTLY IRRELEVANT)))))))))))))) ***

Nothing yet restrains to be free, does river loses mirth being wise? nature when smiles by truth of reasons dawn sways in grin by touch of rays morning descends wresting darkness fountain cascades by call of gravity mystery never defies crux inevitable weariness dissolves as when frizzle rigidity of friction yet freckles too time and space engross to be voiceless does it mean any sense being busy intense? when sky is limit by grace of irrelevance.

*SONGS OF CASURINA IN AUTUMN...11****

and blood reels through in vein mortal

engrossing upon text of life to weave pages onshore
as entirety redounds to joy by immortal song

i look to sky to see satiating whites of moon luminous glow overpowers me being attired in red
i do remember songs of casurina in autumn.

mist falling by night yet clinches moon, heart still awaits by gleams of light, love yet mills valley of miffed up lone.

image is not far away from mirror, dream is still ageless in its grace adored as ocean weaves waves of blue mirth still rolls on to sate sands onshore wine may inebriate stance to tremble, veracity of fact yet upholds wishes when warmth empwers soul to ressurect cry of joy reels in woumb by rungs of creation.

*DO I NEED TO KNOW****

words intoned empowers me to impale stillness mute tears glean in icecaps slowly warming i do remember the dreams of last night yet i falter to follow frames by obscurity ocean of blue still bestirs by blue of full moon sun when spreads its gleams all across universe dulcet dawn sates waking green from slumber dew of night redeems slowly over glass blade transcendence of love ripples slushing over cup green mellows thirst smoldering from stone universe never records games by time and space as existence oscillates between tide and ebb hope of tomorrow entunes to indulge in present rain precipitates from dark cloud to enrich earth shadow yet ripples being hurt at silhouette in solitude truth dissipates illusion from reality by lurid sunset.

CLOUD NEVER HIDES THE MOON *****

As sky waits to lap up the blue moon in its crown the shadow still expands by the rolling the clouds where each speckle of the wind mimes the blue moment of the time bespeaks in its tone of truth yet not befalling when bemoaned by the ridges even not unnerved by the rigid reeks of ruse still hope persists by its own tune as attuned the sunny day comes after the stormy night today is the truth absolute by relentless dream tomorrow becomes history by the introspection still irrelevant by the last tide yet forsaken grimace may turns the curtain by darkness grimed mirage is not true by vision as glaring upon from distance though seemingly exists as we trudge in scorching desert dreams may expire in its delusion as dying dwarf of shadows rain of tears precipitates in the furrows by the dissolution apparent darkness of night becomes non-existent relative morning when dazzles at the rising sun by the corn field all seems to be crystal clear when delved from deep within illusion by the passage would all whisk in due course

THE LEAF AND THE WIND *****

The wind blows by the leaf Leaf sways clinging to the illusion Love when smelled by the skin the half bared beauty when swells

May be by the breeze or the storm, But green glows across the grin Yet it knows one day would fall Tossing up in the air uncared beyond Senescence may ensconce the cry bristling upon by the dust universal shadow still pierces into the passion storm yet rocks up the door of desire yet the breath flusters by the appellation knowing its room when pillaged discerning the pain by apocalypse entailed the icy draft of dissolution when espoused the infinite world of silence by elusion when it looks dull and limited from distance yet not the story apocryphal by the carving dream when dismays when rucked up

AS I AM FAR AWAY**

AS I AM FAR AWAY

Yet I am far away beyond as baffled as I am silence when rocks the rune of resonance pervading the fear across the mist of agony blue still blemishes by the apprehension word when wordless whispers breaking the ice mirth slowly swaddles melting the reeks yet soul knows the reels of tune where it is but belief seems to riffle being far away askance defers the ruse even by promises trust never be befuddled by the rucks up the inevitable as thy name is truth alone I succumbed to believe as I am far away the passion lest be encircled by the dappled dew wishes refuge to breathe by the burden of bold sky ice is when clear crystal by the transparency as I am far away from a distance being discerned reason loses its breath by the drifting shadows resilience may not come again to room of dream, hope diffuses to the thin air as if miffed ashore the face seems to grimace by the rain intoned

AS QUIETNESS FLOWS ONSHORE**

in an afternoon summer still too hot heart when cries by the pain of fire let the rain come by the clouds of colors when crooning yet bestirs from long years the scarlet reds when clanks in claret in fact rain drizzles by the dream of desire earth meets the showers by the hanging thirst the wetly fragrance expands when emits sweetness of soul overwhelms by moist earth when rain rattles across the golden rays of the sun the captive quest cascades by the redemption is it the quintessence of queries longing so long? marvel when flows in unison of love and fear is it the onstage waiting from dawn to misty hours? greenness when clasps the shadow of the grin dazzling glows overlaying the opal gemstones radiating colors across the opacity of darkness rainbow bedecks blue when entreated by the sky breeze blows onshore onto the thunder quirks oneness breath faster by the earthly resolution is it the definition of love overreaching the passion yet it overpowers the earthly sojourn yet organic orifice when exalted by the moist cry by dissolution is this the way back of pegions home coming? quietness when flows onset over the quiescence.

as the day comes yet after the stormy night today is the truth absolute by the relentless effort tomorrow becomes the history by the introspection grimace may turn the curtain by the darkness dream may expire in its delusion as dying dwarf of shadows rain of tears may precipitate all the folds by the dissolution apparent haziness of night becomes truth absolute

I am really shocked to behold the pink city Blood when flows near by the green field
From the ill fatted souls of their mother's womb Tear when turns red eyes yet steeped in sorrows

Serial blasts brutals as act against humanity in this maddened world across the mankind fire when burns the love in men innocent blood when pierced into tearful sorrows peace and care when waned by evil insane should we still call them homosapiens, perhaps no unwanted rogues resourced by their own ill design society still seems wild by the doings of paranoia yet we call upon justice knocking the door of divine barbarism still plays by the laughter of wickedness slanting across the door of terrorism when befuddled as when wrought by the minds of ill born dunderheads can we not classify them in between man and killer giant still they seem to be more severe and wild by the death even more dangerous than wild and insane of the jungles the crown when worn by the heinous world of terrorism the cruelty has already infiltrated to our blood yet not the last massacre of trade centre or else where that has not yet been blotted out from our mind, still we remember that horrific moments by the death

the process of annihilation when starts sun may disappear from east or west man when counts his age by the void in darkness heart still bleats and blurs by the hope against hope and we condemns this domestic terrorism by monsters God might be feeling pity for those Frankenstein who never think of their own grave.hanging on their heads

I sill remember the inch cape rock against the storm Ralf the Rover when embraced the deadly death
I still pray God never allows these heartless worms to be here again or to grow some where lest the tears may not fall again on this earth in the furrows of remorse and sorrows as entwined

I riffle through the pages of letter Your lofty whisper creeps over my dream the fragrance of roses bedazzles the mirth eyes yet bestirs by the baited breath to behold the scarlet red in your desire blood when writes from the core blue by the sweat fed ink of dappled colors hope never broods of the mighty love reason still awaits in askance to bleed morning as awaits the early sun passion paints the art of love in redolence lest post man knocks the door in grey colors the words of silence wrought in mute voices unveil the pack of green by the riches of grin still I await the deep art of queries by the soul moon may come upon the hill top dream lest be not sneaking into silhouette passion deciphers the quest across the desire time flecks away beyond the ripples over the river

DREAM ONTO THE DOOR *****

The impulses still breath faster by the moment waves when whisper the quest cruised innate wishes seem to be galloping by the stride tryst sails in deep sea of dream by the desire mist when covers the secrets of dew of last night fear is never relished by the strife destiny when guides the ship forward hope of tomorrow never be plucked up dream when rocked by the tides of sorrow trust when assails the shadows by the light

God when favors the fortune by the prayer the nightmare yet compressed in its dark room man descends by the peace with awe of tomorrow vision still croons at thresh hold of the next shore dream slowly confirms the truth onto the new door

EYES WHEN RIFFLE**

eyes when riffle to behold the glimpse the rosette smiles cleave spree by the light the mounds of love conceal the art of colors yet green persists across the muse as unfazed dream courses upon the rune of desire yet untold by the words mimed to wane when wordless as silent spay near the beach I simply remembers the whispers of rain grace paints in scarlet red assailing the shy claret when envy upon the web laid back dream as undeciphered in the expense of blue waves lash the door of the green on the next step

GLEAM WHEN FRILLS FRO *****

heart yet never worries by the belief even if moon is not there by the sky, still blue beholds the wave of the sea, the breeze still waits on the frowsy beach hello ness when mellowed over the sands of love time yet besotted in splashing the dream mirrors slowly frisks into the shadows of green the gleams of color incessant frills fro within life still sways by the swing of the queries grin yet comes into the vale of tunes bliss when bestowed as when glimmered by glow leaf still sways by the swing of its own way grass still nods its swanky crown by the wind the bowel of green when engulfed within void still inspires its blade to hold the gleams love when running all through the colors of its beams

GOOD EVENING.....THY LOVE.....

Oh dear friend, moon is shining Waking the heart from deep slumber would you not tell me your love story by the night in its deep ecstasy still we call God by the love for blessings as moon ness bedecks by its letters of gold love is the beauty by the man enshrined love of truth thy name is God emblazoned as beauty thy love is woman ensemble bud still fails to bloom when veiled lotus still withdraw its petal as intoned warmth yet never touches the soigné encore it is the sweet love of the parent when myth to see their bloods basking in the fame life flows resplendent still glows undisguised love is immortal in the ages and eons entwined man comes and goes leaving their names enticed love yet dazzles by the glory of Taj Mahal as I call you too by your love far from behind crowd when beckons to the name as ensign love as engraved over the rock of time by history glory when blazes the name by the fame love and bliss seems to flow across the time heart when ingrains as blood flows in the vain it is the scarlet red whirling across blood enthralling

I do revel delving deep into the dream..... as query lies in-between the unknowns both flapping from one place to other if befuddled, yet soul lest be intoned yet not baffled by the mystery of alienation the dark sky shadowed by the deep clouds as the black fumes stinted from long years riffrling the ruins of millions across the agile shore as it sweeps its altar all along near the black hole wars and despairs imprint their mighty arms pride of the king brittles ruefully into the dusts beauty melts slowly as palette of red turns grey on the rune of senescence with wrinkled bone I see the sun still sneaks alone into the dark sky stars and meteors bespeak the sorrows of world tide still betides by the quirks of torque closes the eyes shedding tears of owes the plight when peeled up from gloss of bone would you not comeback home of lone heart the repose when writes by the glaze of gold.

The true story of love narrates history by the myths Time still flies into the room of its riddled archive

HOPE OF TOMORROW *****

pain still persists by the hope yet the storm on the sea deep and dark far away today oars when mired by the grief eyes tryst yet twinkle to the moon gleams when shadowed by the clouds rain my come curtaining the glow the hope of tomorrow seems to blur plume when moves hither and thither hope when homeless in its room art hanging on the wall rills on yet the frost stick upon the leaf of pine it is yet stark grey sky as cloying blue when never reneges the trust mighty belief still bestirs the warmth void seems to discern the desire... the mind flusters by the glooms cathartic blood trembles as it flows by the flux night still crawls when cawed deep heart yet rucks up being cowered

Dr subhendu kar

I AM WHAT I AM

i am what i am as leaf sways in green who can tell you what happens when? today is not what it was yesterday tomorrow is just the hope of dream.

still i need to tell you truth by reasons in fact, there may be some changes there our reach awaits to rubble by void seamless how am i to say what you need to know.

nothing is yet lost when revered by reality love of living is simply just rung of colors vision sullenly defrays wedded to illusion life mills through curves of our own shadow.

as some one so dear and near as when away from home unrequited quest still persists by the remembrance soul seems to cringe by the fall of dry leaves time when flecks blood still intones within, lightening within may flints into eyes tears glean in the pool of pupil the heart seems to surges by the storm lest be infected abrupt into vale of tunes

Eyes looks on to street meandering onto the last bit of traffic square heart breaths faster by the glooms encircling bird yet flutters into the wind when chilled the breath flows incessant yet frenzied blowing heavily by the rain of fear yet the thunder squalls in the distance shadows cover black deep by the darkness hiding the sun, stance trembles as waned by the resonance of obscurity of smiles shadow yet flickers seeming to be shuttling between home and window pane beyond blood stiffles by the unkempt thoughts fear freckles into night when snuffles deep

KEEP ON SMILING.AS EVER *****

keep on smiling even by the shadows trudging when rigged off by the ridges low yet the silence coos in the vale of sorrows storm may come with the rain oozing of tears heart seems to sigh of relief when slogged soul still finds its home grooming in peace subtle breeze may blow over the smitten look rhythm still flows again exalting saddened blue the repose when dislodged by the saddled rune slowly night comes as unveil the art of passion blood reels through rapidly the graces in dream the peace in undertone still blinks to brace time when fledges its colors smacking warmth as you slowly descend into the whole being dream comes true by the moment splashing as sea overwhelms by the breath of full moon skin spruces up again reshuffling the tunes

LOVE NEVER GROWS OLD**

It is the rain by the evening hours Shower when rocks up the walks I lie lonely amidst the chilled snow yet delicate scent riddles the crowd the flavor of the wetly flower reels off adrift trees and the leaves seem to swoon sigh thirst of summer's cry all reasoned to quip onto the day of its ecstasy rooted to bleat as I have been tingled wet by rains of blue

Still I tremble indeed by the tinge of fear Love still blemishes the fallen tears Lest be not lost into the reeks of the fire I know you may tender me by listless queries Sun when hides beyond and beneath tonight embracing the dream on the sprain of pain I love to lie low in the room of the remorse let the novels tonight be the memoir of yours dream when roars moon still hanging high love never grows old even by the ruins in smile dream as happens to happen by the passion no matter of being far away as I am by your grace arm of love when soft and subtle flows entwined over the meadow of the green bestirring by grin ins and outs of world when transmute to rain birds flutter when eyes stray from its door as half breathed bone and half transpired path when wound from love to hate roots of deep sea ruefully return home but love never be grown old even disowned

RUNE OF PASSION**

Rune of passion the expanse of the mystery
The gleam of desire raves up with eyes blue Breath yet never dries empty by the sorrow eloquence still parades across the mute stone

gleaming pearl of friendship emblazoned walks follows sympathy lest be shadowed belief cries by the rune when brazenly betrayed patience yet blazes the mystery of love sun still whispers the green over the leaf green mingles with the grin being synergized the world when smiles by the redemption yet although the dark and light as all we need darkness still blazes the path of synthesis love never follows foot prints of narrow ending all reasons meander into the vale of wild streams

RUNE OF WOUNDS**

the way we believe that happens to happen as reason courses upon in time and space belief when fails to be braced up by the trust lest we lose the love of rune by apprehension passion seems to suffer in its own way at times tear comes into eyes like rain pain ripples through the rune of wounds thirst when bestirs by the dream of love are we not too small as stream eternal springs sorrow may even pervade the vale of tunes time takes its own course to heal up the wounds hope still drives the path across the mist enshroud

RUNGS OF THE QUEST**

Green grins through earthly eyes,
heart muffles into ocean blue,

desire reels through by the passion.

heaving across the rungs of the quest.

SWING OF RILEY**

Having a nice day by the rosette of smile day when begins with a new leaf to life dream still drives into the room of rhyme sun yet comes to the day with colors of light life yet beams by the passage of years and hours even if cascades across the joy and sorrow bliss when bestowed noble deeds when wrought swing bedazzles by the rewards of white dove time still meets the troubles by the own moment as ill entreats the shadows enlightening the sorrow even if tears come by the cycle of its own Barriers still melts by the secrets of the valour to have the virtues blood flows by growing pain never yet grimaced even if riddled by the inadequacy riddance as needed by the riffles of the mind swing of riley still reels off in its own twill

THE SILENT SRPEE-**

As all seem to be silent spree by the drift the dark stone clings to the road side hill the dry leaves fly across as desiccated breeze never talks to the grueling oblivion moment passes bye into the furrows yester world lays back into the unknown fear marches like soldier when conquers deep darkness roars in the wild woods shadow unsays the reason of the grimace rivers still bestirs to meet the deep sea moon stays back from the glimpse stream eternal flecks its breath by the flow

.!!!!!!!!!!!!!! @... MUSTY RUNE....!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I simply stand and stare speechless by rune of awe greatness bristles intense glow enlightens the flow kindness betides as rains on river splashing onshore slaking thirst whisper awakes silence in spume speckles of dream intone by passion night remembers

starry eyes of musty rune

mist seems to bestir dawn of elysian blue light yet reels through by the gleams of resplendent

glow enlightens dew over the green

Dr subhendu kar

...!!!!!!!!!!!!ALL WHEN EPHEMERAL.....!!!!!!!!!!!! light enlightens gallows of darkness truth is stark reality by flow idyll we do exist today by non-existence tomorrow iffy dream lays back to happen by desire breeze seems to grimace for a while sun is bright with brilliant light premised does it never suffers by black clouds? yes storm ruins the calmness of wind all when ephemeral in its own way darkness fails to blanket night all time day comes with sparkling hello ness pain melts away nipping the tides time is a great healer of milling sorrows jasmine awaits night to diffuse its muse never yet stops its fragrance slogging to clouds pain is no pain by endurance, thy beauty divine

@* UNTOLD ART OF LOVE ***@

Soul rejoices by enlightened grace, virile breeze smooches passion by mirth heart touches tunes even million miles apart earthly rhythm seems to reel thorough red fear of falling never baffles grace of love as the beauty of grace overpowers sorrow when reef of reason entices upon the blue words of thirsty desire rambles bewildered fire never finds distinction of new and old as the skin of love inebriates by Midas touch today forsakes yesterday into furrows of time breath expires slowly into future uncertain yet grave fails to consume the art of love as fairy tales are the legends unto this day patience still holds on like stillness of stone halcyon meanders beyond bitten by moments

+++ BEYOND THE HILL TOP

oh what a idyll when flows by the heart bright sun shine when touches the tuft warmth still expands into the whole being rhythm innate swaddles across the cornfield breeze wakes the green from the shadow of dream hope when bestirs with gleams of besotted blue it is yet bright hours burning so brilliant sky seems to be deep blue beyond the hill top birds around chirrup by the blemishes of fear frivolity of running fountain cascades somewhere night still waits in its deep sleep yet undislodged moon may come to glimmer the rainbow juxtaposed heart when cries to meet the night in its dream fragrance diffuses yet by the thin air into the plume sea overwhelms somewhere on the beach of passion when splashes sprucing the skin by the light of desire wave of mirth still splashes by the joy of the sea heart when revels to the waving sea blood flows in scarlet red by the heart smile and joy when cascades by the life love still glows heart when walks in unison

1 HAPPY HOLI

rungs of color be sprinkled on you today is game of color by art of living love seems to flourishes brimming white yet so divine being enlightened in paints do we know path of blessing behind?

As heart awakes from within being redeemed red rhythm vociferates in to the glow of universe time passes off leaving all mortal cloaks behind joy rinses sorrows glistening on its door do you know love reeves through on its wing fluttering where is the reeks of beauty in blooming time never extends mortality beyond and within let cry of lone silence slowly sate in hues of endearment embracing wishes of holi hold your dream on cusp of light let the holi rinses your sorrow draining within love your breath of blossom brimming sullen silence slowly rip darkness of night beauty when dissipates cry of joy ingraining twilight steps into door of darkness hiding love and peace shadow may guide to see your universe emblazoned

A LEGACY OF LOVE simply a query by the desire divine as the night hides from the day by the darkness legacy when transferred by the gleams of love the clone yet fledges by the blooms again yet I know when unknowable the light as when mystical glow by the warmth of legacy as juxtaposed even besotted by the quivering jolt love eternal simply reappears by the blue trust when truth and time is the belief the love yet incarnated by the semblance jingles may reason true moment when glimmers resonance seems to be slow when disinterred never being befuddled by the grace when guiled tears may pierce the heart by the blood cry when shatters the strength when jitters light yet pattered by the rays when glued the blue never be jilted from the moon warmth still exists by the sun even in hide the deep night when reposed somewhere events yet croon by the history leading the knackered to the glimpse autumn when shadowed passion still respire clouds seem to whisper the speckles of rain earth yet transpires by the sorrow smiles when tumble by the soul yet the novels of night as tucked away tryst when leads the vanquished by the legacy of love

A FAREWELL

as when the clouds of fear cover that may take away all the smiles simply over the faith of trust as prevailed on the milieu of beauty, love and bliss as when stormed by the thunders casting the shadows by darkness leave the deep scars as coursed by blackness as when precipitates that reasons the angels when shocked to go away with eyes steeped in tears the heart yet hurtful as ruined by blemishes leaving the friends in the memory lane when embracing all the raved up smooches the thoughts of share in deep ecstasy of resonance of love and beauty as reasoned when dazzled then and there at our time when we share and the time makes us as what we are yet reasoned by wishes of God as believed yet I accord wishes though being hurtful with all gracious gestures but being rugged red while bidding farewell from a place like a home to the divine souls as when disowned by the gloom rocks up the heart with rueful grin in deterrence as few drops of tears falling when cruised but with the rain in remorse as when pained by the sorrow.

A JINGLE BY THE GREEN

Yet the golden bell when tune wakes up from the sorrow as inspiring by the hope of tomorrow the dream when jingles by the green the graceful glow when painted by the rays of rainbow when unseen into the folds of the cloud the morning as delightful by the mirror searching upon the milieu the gleeful flairs as glazed when delved out from the crowd deep as shimmering across the moon when untouched even by the rain the mute voices when besotted by the cuckoo's song the breath slithers one after the other the dream onto the hope unexhausted by the quests and queries for the musk to follow still we move by the passion pattens never seem to be of your own

Dr subhendu kar

A LOOK YET INTO THE BLUE when looking into the blue clouds when splash the door of heaven silence when festers by the glooms cry defuses into the ruse when defies and you expend slowly yet I wonder ahead of time untold as breath passes faster claws of time yet slowly eats the petals of love delving deep the nectar from within you simply outwit the desire in next door as scorned by the faded history riiggling alone on the shadow of sands the prisoner of guilt behind the glossless bone reeks when scoffing the ruins as you extend snaffling the stillness speechless pain when entreated by the tears as the cactus in sorrows niggling the shadow

A PARADIGM SHIFT

My captive will knackered so long within Exasperates me while making a new breath yet baited overwhelmingly to my stance eclectic as when stepping in to my time overpowering.

My secret search of dream in the corridor of quest quite unknown and undeciphered yet undefined to my whole being, being wishful to reason unknown while putting me into the random strokes undeterred.

A gesture unwholesome as I do feel imbecile Under the follies of someone's fear or favor fretful For a breakthrough to find a way out of helplessness Like thrilled fiction reading impassioned and unveiled.

Let the surging caravan loosely spread uncared Be well tamed and couched to their need primed Cutting down all the smooching songs of life imposed upon Be sung reveling all my impulses being hurriedly streaming

A SWEET LILY

nothing but the beauty untold curved on the sands of time the man when stood over the moon. the glory as blazed by the quest the story of the passage to new-found land rocks up the truth hinged upon the crescent belief mighty warrior unveils her love before to battle field being befuddled by the softness mutely sharpens the sword full moon descends slowly by the day of its due course and you expand when extensive beyond the vision the breath of flower when intense with fragrance A sweet lily as i stare on beyond the other side of the sea

A VALE OF RUNE

Gentle fleck runs through the novel of the night Desert yet burns desolate by the exile Breath passes through the void silence seems voiceless by the verse the resolution of the last night whispers to wake the heart surmised Cry resolves to sob saintliness When saddled with tears bemused

Still you do exist by the love of fear nettling naïve exhausted by the nerve breeze bristles by the void when quietened As quitter of the quiescent dream as inkless

Earth quivers by the quake milling around the parole of relict redeems by the rain of muse yet stateless when veiled by the glooms of passion As you slowly detract into the ruthless ruse

The stones when parse by the tranquility When riffling through the ridge of rhythm As you whines to ruffle by the gentle flow The bloods defuse to smile by the vale of rune

A VALE OF TUNES

would you sell my blood to send me the pains I would buy my universe when snaffling in hands of apprehensions the only door to defray the history as wrought by the inks of blood when unshaken by the errors hearts still melts into the air should you look at me to payback my love send me the smiles for a day tout to the moon tunes when frayed by the ashes of blisters yet fettered by deathless religion would you talk to me words bereft of all abetments yet with a song in cadence by the wonders steeped in art of love cascading on a city square garlands over the portraits unstained as needed even by the stint of pride the conviction as when flecking the bleeding to love when rued in its room over this vale of tunes when deflated

A WISH FOR HER

Let the night be in her extended arms Across seem less darkness yet expanded May hold her smooching in semblance tearing apart all her sorrows besetting and bedecking smiles rocking into her when petals of soigne rose being dazzled by the moon as the golden shadows of the dew refluxing Falling from cloud upon love divine.

fidelity of facts tosses up in all acceptances Who had her heart steeped in beauty embracing Like a clock ticking on the wall uttering time Yielding all glazes and glittering of a red rose protracing

ACROSS THE VEIL

Rain yet reasons by the clouds Tears falling when gleaned by the eyes Moon simply disappears by the shadow Breath when stunned red by the bolt from blue

Heart seems to burn across the wild veil Ocean still stalled by the waves when unnerved Terrors of fire in wild forest when blistered Love when reeled in the corridor of tunnel black

Head seems to rile by the thunders Truth never be trusted even being true Rhythm when lost to ember glow history when unveiled by the fire in the grave yard

Love when wrapped by the sorrow World still marches ahead over the tormented Red crab on the beach takes the shelter In its nest hiding from the oceanic storm

Time changes, rose fades off by the curtain Still twilight comes by the end of the day When cow boy still hears the throttling fear Voices shattered waking by the nightmare Yet the bell tolls – it is end of the day

AS I AM THE CANDLE IN THE WIND (11)

The beauty when impaled by the dagger of age When time would blame her bruised veiled As I am the candle in the wind with smiles frozen Tossing up in the rain like unstocked leaves.

her purple eyes yielding red roll upon Conjured by love impalpable yet unseen Being intruded into the void etching dusts Of smiles that may be flirting to the fire.

her vision new fangled endless not yet eternal Like a gentle sky nudging the dusty wind Rambling like rain across lightening and fire Stemming up the laughter of love intoned ever.

As she shines up on the steps in cascading steeped in love bestirred by the applause attired Beaming like a blue moon sky over fettered by stars Staining the deep darkness from the night apart.

When it never uncovers her blindfolded as yet As time would blush her bruised unearthly And I am the candle in the air tossing up in the wind May be like a rain bequeathing the smiles agile

AS REEF OF REASONS

I do expend too yet not the sun by the day snow still melts by the warmth darkness never grows stronger by rigid frame we slowly disappear by the age stunning rose fades off by the blue full moon still looks crescent in the last day of its cycle as everything has own reason of god piercing into all its secrets even red blood reasons blue heart when shadowed by the vale of rune yet to rave up by the swing when bell tolls from the church even being despised by the sorrow water still rolls into the space lying low sorrow and anger never be the texture of fineness art when painted by gleams of color red when blinks to the love by petals still clouds black never oscillates to rain

AS WHEN LOVE OVER THE PAIN smacking the conquest as over the pains each speckles of the dust tell us the depth of sorrow as we rave up the revenge yet it comes hand in hand healing all our pains when betided by the time as uncared yet undiminished in its reeks of anger yet we resounds unlike the cry in wilderness our anguish mingles by the love all our queries being besotted as when poised even yet unanswered

Dr subhendu kar

As all her love had in her in dream When stamped in rage reasoned saddened Rousing her to reek of anger into tears sweetened Tearing all her peace deterred impulse

She would come again someday Needing my love once more Like a lightning in the rain And I do feel the story of love epitome

To escape out of window quelling Beholding her beauty ravished my desire being refracted at crisscross niggling as sorrows scaffolding begin to grow bewailing.

Time may blush her bruised even black by the age As I am the candle in the wind niggardly raving When all my gestures may toss up one day Out of innocence in all acceptances

Stunning words of her admiration Falling like rain in summer to the plexus slaked When you do exist absolute unseen as yet known I am the candle in the wind exhausted beneath and beyond

AS I CLOSE MY EYES

as I close my eyes
as when retired by remorse into the deep darkness all the gestured images of my unbecoming gods rill on and you sneak to me obsessively yet all flicker beyond as when lapped by your thrills resourced as when cohered as you embrace the grace here and there or elsewhere on the milieu of earthly sojourn the storm when claps my dream down to the reeks by the dusts as I simply open the eyes I do feel the pain by the sorrow

Dr subhendu kar

AS I MAKE MY PROMISES

as I make my promises
like clouds to the rain falling as revered by the faith of love, when blessed by the love of faith as you slowly descend to the mirth I disagree to disappear from your faith.
In all my acceptances as I nod of love and belief yet angelic as you open the door of secrets love and care when sacred the friendship reasons to play making me stand to envy upon lest inspiring the legions.. to revel upon the love the kindness yet unconditional when bestowed upon by the love to touch the soul melting sorrows when I seem to be befuddled cohered by courage in conviction.....

AS I MEET YOU

When I meet you in thin air spread over a time Yet ever extending, I rock you in quest of love You sneak to me to my soul more deeper within Shimmering like an angel with magical wings

You tune to my soul razzling over my passion Engulfing me and my whole being steeped in love When you slowly swaddle across the youth Driven by the will intemperate reasoned to the swing.

Yet I do not know reason that reasoned the love That happens to happen as dew falling from night And my enchanted soul ramified for searching upon The smiles in response to my passion's light divine

AS I RAMBLE TRUE

where had you been to the query of dream leaving the night and darkness yet apart, as the leaf stripped off from its stock stillness when pervades in its room of blood as in the midst of legion's stream searching the friend yet of love but of no avail that happens to happen as when blanked by the winds of winter yet all seeming chilled even the blue yet I see the dawn in dream coming true with warmth of the day when I ramble true looking to the sun crooning to the east.

AS I RAZZLE IN RAIN

.the excellence of love As I razzle in the rain eye dazzles with tears as it was fettered long.

When cowered by sadness yet not lost but conquered as love swayed again like a fountain rolling as tears dissolved in rain when transcended by tears to joy in unison, like swaying of leaf wetting my muse,

Dr subhendu kar

AS I REMEMBER THE RAINBOW

Breath when sheathed by the web of ebbs I still remember the rainbow by the blue moon Your ripples when slither by the resonance When you flossed into the moon by the rainbow when blurs blood when turns to tears by the fire yet the thunder crakes the earth elsewhere love when falling ruefully across the dew Red of the blood yet whirls fast in the heart White when blemishes my god innate Images delve deep into your dreams as blotted when I embrace blue when unabashed Death when conquered by the dream As you slowly melted to mingle into the waves I keep on benign look to the mist when reflexed yet I am never alone even if lie lonely by your reminiscence from the truth as day when dies bereft of sun by the shadow night when cries out for the moon when alone yet deep dark night turns to the light the scar unflappable when sparks in me the outcry besotted may diffuse my quest the mute flow of the silence touches you nearer as you steeped in blue by the eyes in the evening still your song in allegiance promises me of my love.

As the speckles of your whisper touche me ever And your sparkled eyes rebound within eternal

AS I SEE YOU PAINFUL

Painful tears flowed from her eyes As subdued by the silence silhouetted And calmness overcame me saddened When snow flakes of fear passed through right across the veil from her eyes.

when whispering me the truth looking to me to my blank verse as befuddled by the tears and your smile frozen by the fears of forest as I am stunned in stillness yet bewailing.

when she leaves me lonely like a bird out of its nest in delusion bereft of muse I seemed to be spouted from her edge and I bounce upon the grimacing clouds waking to rain to get back my love slogged wallowing yet on the wane as frozen by black clay when embracing the peers seemingly ruined.

as worm of doubts gnawing with tears leaving me with the blank verse shadowed by the darkness blanketed over my resonance But I await the light to be shined as I was by the golden tears that once shackled by the fears

AS I TRAIL BEHIND THE SHADOW

Looking you standing there amidst the crowd I trailed behind your extended shadow To see the grace that haunts me ever Razz ling glaze in the grain of rain

Yet with baited breath by the beauty I went into the dream peeling all my sorrows For a moment when intense

As the rainbow across the sun Before the rain sucked twilight That happens to happen in the midst of blue I stood a while and ran to smooch me again

The moment passed like a twinkling of an eye When all my dreams spread like banyan tree Across the green meadow of the legions You simply melted into the void like mirage

AS LOVE WHEN INKLING

Boat when drifting amidst the oceanic blue woods yet float above nearer and nearer by the ripples as I embrace the sands of sorrow passion when flows intense blood seems to glow by the red across the heart through the vein the sun yet warms the earth cloud when addicted by rain breaths when blows baited as love inkling cuddles summer breeze as seeping through the attic window as I remember the frolic art of love inkling

Dr subhendu kar

AS SHADOW OF LOVE

As shadow of love yet not eternal when we slumber winking stars dream comes latching on to the love as love and laughter being coursed genial yet in our times as resourced from genesis sheltered by the heart weeing the blood as being shined as fragrant rose.

love when obsessive reasoned earthly yet clapped out ebbing the tide as demurred by the obsolescence like shadow coursed from the sun As listlessly waning from dawn to dusk

AS SNAFFLING BY THE SNOW FALL as the life a journey by the years the boat when rocked up alone the age even jolts by the air on sea shore even when jilted by ocean seemingly off shore but feeling changes yet we are as we were a shift paradigm inevitable by earthly sojourn.

Even when frigid by the freaks of snow fall Never yet rigid by the frame of iron

The soldier attired by the time on command Marches ahead leading kindly light of old stone They shed tears by the golden memories Blood yet splashes from vein by the shadow

Birds holds it breath intense by the dead night
The fire resounds in graveyard and beholds Still I run on road as I am always busy spewing artless breath from within virtual smiles beneath and beyond beauty when veiled from the blushes refrained gloss when freaked by snaffling through snow fall the query on the window thrown in to the world

AS SWAYING BY THE SWING just the beauty of a leaf green when swaying by the own wings thrumming expanded entire within caring least to the space encircled be the stormy rain or thirsty summer time moves on by its crafty swings joy and sorrow when webbed together the very texture of flow by the man when raving upon by own space and time beckoning through chilled winds carefree or gleeful gale of fledging the fire listless but to be calm and cool by the happenings stances thrust upon yet unearthly uncontrolled the soul when glittered by the beams of love refluxed by the Godly gleams when bestowed upon by the time we pledge in acceptance the plexus of life and living by the journey the splendors of visitor to a tourist spot on the milieu of the stream of eternal flow truth of beauty finale absolute infinitesimal

As the Moon Flairs Blue as I smack of a feeling touching the sky high as deep pierced through the plume impinged to harvest the moon! in me and beyond.

when i revel upon the flair in moon as raved up by the moon in its muse when it brims still shined blue when I embark upon a thoughts as impaled by the love bestirred and I see the razzles on the leaf thrumming still green bashful yet with its time bejeweled refluxing in me as I glare innocent when winds on the shore betiding lean against the river rippling to draw a sportive art besotted on the canvas of sands resonant before it melts away by the breeze.

AS THE SPRING WAKES

Yet the spring wakes on with its band orchestra As the lovers hang on together by the muse deep of darkness slowly disappear from the night white dusts of the day as intense start biting the drum the moment seems to reflex by the heart of queen

Voices when distracts by the melody of the hours the jingling breeze mused to flow gently over the bridge lest the ripples by the river may hear the co primes when the math of quantum colors to paint the art of love hiding the shadow of fear from the petals of the rose birds still ramps on the meadow by the reminiscence of the grief as the dew curves its dream by gleams of the morning sun twilight expands its arms by the blue aesthetics raves up by the mist yet half opened of last session unflinching to the blue moon of the last night evening when mellowed to the meadows green meandering its make up into the last breath of eyes the glaze of the tunes redeems by the mirror each speckles of sorrow expends into long silence holding the hands of splendors by the bliss as school children enjoy the holidays after the exams.

AS THE WHISPERS WHEN RED

words when whisper the heart echoes in red blood when red flints to flow by the red vein as the fire obstinate still it glows in red when obsessive as the rose razzles red in its room breath eternal when resourced red the mystic red when whirls in the red wine passion intense when swaying intoned evening glows when inkling fell red lest be tweaking the lips over the red by the window of glistening red eyes yet the anger spews its reeks by the red as geometry of the dew rills betiding red mist red as happens to happen by the leaf tips as when twitched by the senses as the stepping red sun when setting lays its curtain red over the green as love mystic seems to descend red enshrined

AS TIME CHANGES

As time changes
am i not the same -me as i muse in glaze and glitters for the passions of being distracting lest i be not depriving of love in jittery with strands of interludes uplifting desire smooching my soul shoving upon the dreams beyond and beneath beckoning here or elsewhere.

the time deep and infinite etching dusts amazing like silken skin preened into beauty shimmering that opens up all the secrets of lost love shrinking in the midst of silence as yet crooning in cascading.

AS VERSE YET NOT BLANK

Verse yet not the blank blanketed by the smokes of fire as when frayed by the fangs of desire, love is not blank as verse of the heart yet not the void vile amuck as glanced inhered sovereign as the rhythm into the river as the love is yet mightier than pen as when wrought by the inkling of love as passion

Dr subhendu kar

As We Meet Our Time

as we are never alone lonesome either embarking upon our waves the pretext of time.

When all our pains in tears And joys in beauty decay and detract to the plume Like an arrow from the bow.

yet life lighted deters Flinging into the fire each day When we meet our time Slowly shoving off beyond.

AS WE MOVE ACROSS THE TIME

As we move by the time
All seem to be in its glory as past We do feel pride of our universe rejoicing when blessed by the divine

As when change happens to happen Mind meanders as the river courses upon By the wind and the depth of flow Like a dilapidate mile stone in a dead street

As we look back to our paved up path we all suffer the silence over the dust left off Love when silhouetted by the shadow Even with deep sense of gratitude when braced upon yet surreptitiously You seem to hide behind the dark clouds

The smile when suffers by the sorrow As stillness when prevails upon the flow Heart when pierced with pain by the remorse Bloods in the vain when rusted by the shadow

AS WHEN SUFFERED BY SILENCE when i suffer by silence ' as when the twilight comes to the lap of the darkness to embrace the whispers light yet in its subterfuge to smooch me for a moment befuddling me by the clouds raising its curtain to the plume river when flows by gentle breeze tears yet flow by the sorrow blood when pierced by the pain my quest of song seems as intoned

Dr subhendu kar

AS WHEN WITHIN

Until that day of reminiscence as you are ever me within Neither beyond nor yet apart Still within blotted blue ravine Just as the smokes by the fire

Thing changes even if from beyond as the tree by the seeds from within Yet as deep as clouds to the rain Night when descends to the day Breeze whispers to the bay within

Love once bloomed yet within Never yet lost even by the storm of rage Even if distanced being alone or agile As no dimension breaks yet it apart

As the beyond becomes within Like smacking of fire from the rock Time yet turns the minutes to the years As the love within is never flung far beyond

AS YET I LOVE

when I search you here and elsewhere from sky to the mountain valleys you disappear like rainbow diffusing all your colors into the clouds

Yet my quest in continuum distracting in dreams as night may draw its curtain to the wind and hour may split in to days yet you appear and sneak in to me unnoticed I rest in slumber being relieved of pain earthly.

no time and tide may keep me away and alone where my search for blue moon irrevocable that reasoned the reasons of my love in cadence and I move like winds and hours to find me in my in desire lest i may deter by the tears for my love

AS YOU MEET ME

As you yu meet me in a moment of dark deep resonance In response to your love refluxing like sky beaming blue when bestirred by the earthly quest across the moon as coursed through the beauty of goldmorh`s veil Smooching sweet when raved along the peacock`s sprite

The morning yet craving as tears cajole the soigné rose Like rain comes cloying piercing the blood by its thorn when dark clouds swoop over the promises as the desire bristles fast deferred by.the passion

When I rejoice in your silence yet secret by the promises you make in acceptance Blood trickles in me trembling through the vein As if drops of fear falling out of captive tears Rocking my desire reasoned to the stint of smiles

When you blush like mist over leaf green As of touch-me not in redolence of love bouncing upon the blemishes as suffered by the dream as your fear fledges thrilling when drunk by the peers.

you sparkle with the impression of love as I glance and you blurt and bluster steeping in love intoned cringe upon the songs of casurina shoving off the smiles When smacked by the embraces distracting in muse Waning the despair as shadowed by blemishes The verses of your love spattered yet overwhelmed.

AS YOU SPEAK OF

As you speak I hear you tendered Your words smooching sweet so your thought whistles to the grin being triggered by your dream.

to over power me in all countenances when revered by your lustful craving like swelling of the sea high splashing impinged by the tide in moonlit night.

if you cannot trust me for a while you may not see me thrumming on your lips in your dream spouting as promised by the clock tickling.

the darkness may wrap us into the emptiness keeping us veiled like dark clouds to the sun so our love in its room would be ragged to ruin like a whining bird out of its own delusion.

lest you may be riled upon your love hurting me hurtful rocking you within too as I would lambaste of my love to the wind kissing the dream yet touching your swing.

when I become dreamless in ensuing spring and your belief starts to deter you apart dithering your desire deny you of my love yet bewailing and our love happens to be a crescent moon hanging in the hinges of the sky yet defiled.

AT TIME SILHOUETTED

At time silhouetted my mood pensive wishing love the words exuded from the wind rippling ecstatic are blue and imbecile being away from all acts earthy. to my wistful desire longing for the love lodged in archive.

wings of those acrylic blues quite deep dark and stoic.
I do remember those lofty days crooning of love I get stuck into the resonance racked in the years of stint Like flapping tale of a ship waving from miles apart.

Serial blast such brutal act against humanity in this maddened world by this mankind

Ralf the Rover when embraced the deadly death
I still pray God never allows these heartless worms to be here again or to grow some where on this earth, lest the tears may not fall again in the furrows of remorse and sorrows

BELIEF WHEN BEMUSED

yet the sky blinks in silence even the flower blushes in beauty with its fragrance diffused in radiance reveled by the glance of beholders when fountain smiles in its spurs as mellowed yet in a rack of milieu a mirror invisible as I peek to the sides yet staked in blue looking into the patches of plumes abrupt alone, as clouds of dark and grey sweeping over the rainbow.

the reeks of pain as mute wakes me up from the regress the telling its woes as in sorrow yet into the depth of wee hours a time for a reason as when mellowed.

a quaint thought of repulsion as mystical when coursed by a distinction in distraction the faith of love and belief as the myth all yet blur like a weft of shadow when bemused

Dr subhendu kar

BEYOND AND BENEATH YET WITHIN

The quest when inspired by the gleams from within yet beyond and beneath of last sigh when latching on to the love hinging to dream the dazzles of the blue hanging to the high yet the all splendours beyond the hill top as always in searching along here and there the grass meadow when reveres by the green beyond and beneath preened to the clouding dark still from blood scarlet red when encircling when vale of fears lest sparkling tears blue rock when curves to glow by art of love the beauty infinitesimal when divine within as it always sways by the ways when vaunted the leaf when shining by the rays of the sun as the fountain when cascading by the echoes through the cliff of nerve insinuated milling around yet it never ebbs out by the tide of the ocean blazing blue unfettered when insisting upon glorifies the beauty innate docking darkness shadow when unveiled yet dissolves to sob a soigné red rose whacking when exotic as when glimmered by the rise of the sun onto the red deep glow of the setting sun as it slowly opens the door of blue moon.

BEYOND THE MYSTIC DEEP

the crystal blue yet mystic deep unbelievable! ! ! not by the dream I do surrender by the wonder lost even love when seems abstract still the moment reasons to be true who am I..you and me beyond and within breath when bespoken of earthly rhythms vision seems to rill by the defeat love yet splendoured by the gleams yet when befuddled and deep dark dew when resourced from the deep night still I am to understand me as I am eye still breaths bright the shadow when expires the mirth when bedazzles by the story of the love when eternal by the resonance true yet I wonder by the faith when guiles to know me within by the the blood be red or white belief when bestirred yet redeems absolved truth still descends by the despair yet to know me who am I when night is passing by deep dark sun yet to rise by the light waiting to despise the pain by dissolution

BIRTH DAY

as i remember my day with the angel by the side embracing the time unstocked as resourced from the womb with the verses by the heart well-define as i share those when mutterings yet the whispers of solemn river when curved over cravings undiscovered yet sweet words in mute undertones crystals of the glass dazzling quite breakable as nobody knows even may cruise and handle with care still it ripples from the skin from the temple's stone the birds chirrup over the tree nest when hanging by hinges of the breeze my moments of the time peeling off ravings when melting slowly by the hours i look back as the leaf falling apart from its core i look forward with anger.

BLUE MOON WHEN SHADOWED life when ripples by the breeze pains and pleasures when in stream as the two sides of a coin together yet it intones by the path when trudged both when resourced hand in hand nothing to blame by the reeks of raving when cruised by the storm in smack day yet never riles on by the storm in grief happens to happen by the bliss when blessed as the each shares the quota of quantum when limited short by the truth absolute nothing to fear stuffing the thought ill when milling around by the sorrow as the rose never befuddles by the dark deep even when chilled by the gripping snow horse when gallop by the courage patience when spins off by the grace waiting onto the rising sun by the day glow yet tunes tomorrow by its warmth searching upon the blue on the milieu of love yet feeling of bruised when gloomed smut red may not lead the scarlet to love of rose when youth of night is calling nearer by the glaze to gleam even by the shadow hope of love and peace by the living when in quest knocking at your door wait onto the moon when dazzling on hill top the rainbow when razzle by the dream of colors

BLUE STILL BESTIRS

rose when looks brilliant by the red the art of magnificence razzles in glow the beholder still stands and stares the fragrance still respire by the green the art when thought provoking by the petals sticking all its colors of love when inkling breath still expends by the blue when bestirs sky lies grey in askance wishful of last moon even when locked up by dark phase of the cycle warmth seems to flint by the fire when besotted sun yet descends into the ocean when wild yet raves up by the bedazzled blue eyes twinkles by the heart when intense thrumming in by the quake of love in ascension

BREATH OF LIGHT

quest wishes to soak into essence within vale of tune mellows like fountain cascading.

resonance embraces gloss of universe ocean meanders in darkness in ebbing soul seeps the resplendence of red love fails to feel measure of distances.

freshness of dawn flows brimming dew tweeting curve of shadow yet converging distinction newness grows like sating green in rain yet let me salute to feats of earth intoned can i hold path of metamorphosis? as evitability dispels doubts from clouds lurid decadence is the rule of mortality eternity oscillates comforting space infinite.

BY THE TUNES OF NIGHT

As you come to the folds of night the moment goes hurriedly as the wind by the tunes of the night yet fading rose when smooching to the smiles no room for fray as you feel me within would you not whisper me the blue as your glaze wake s me up again from light of the day to the we hours await may smudge the waves of love as you dazzle with your eyes in grin love when besotted redeems true night in its dark deep rambles blue sea when thunders as in resurgence

CALL OF THE TUNES

As I am here, kindly wake up by the light night has walked out of the darkness the world is in its dream by the tunes do you still wish by the moon and star? sun is yet ahead in his golden crown the fumes of the tea cup gets into the air taking the tears from the sorrows by the hours the mist when mislays the tipsy meadow by the last night embracing the arm of love on the dancing floor when all steeped in blue yet many a love stories go unheard by the whispers of love when delighted would you not sing a song for the day the cadence when splashes the heart by its own illusion onto the evening still it is long ahead by the flying bird as today is the day may be your anniversary of birth or marriage across sweet memories some of your near and dear lie elsewhere might be some assignments of importance slogging at the door of your workshop don't you remembers me as i lonely unnoticed latching on to your thought looking to your call across the cadence of ages and eons onto this day when you descend breathlessly to the playground the game of life yet not complete by the full moon still moving ahead by the decision when differed to the next fair by the festive by the crowd above the podium encircled by the clouds may be heartfelt or hurtful as you wish to have as it is yet morning, leaf saunters by its sway when the breeze cajoles you by your dream.

CODE OF ILLUSION

I came I saw Sun has left by Leaving few shadow behind Tear falls by few drops

My quest as sodden when entreated Over the image less village deity And I search upon pages after pages The asphalt dusts of divine Illusion dispels

By the narrow ending of the day The breath dispenses
By tone earthly attired

Yet I avert by the shadow When arraigned bullet or dog artless Car honks on the street in descibles

Dream when intends to curve the art By virtual paints passion overhauled
By assemblage of benign grace

Silence peeps in when bold Withholding the vastness When I find the golden rays Locked in undertones of tea cup Deciphering the code of illusion All spaces of secret identity Listlessly baling all elated dreams I simply aspire the gleams

COLORS QUANTUM

bailing the reeks of faded anger eccentric flower still blossoms by the flames of green moments roll on across the veil of tunes blinding the hours bequeathing the sorrow as each speckle of etalon festers the rune joy simply knock of on the next door rain yet deeper by the vale of ascension moments seems to defuse by the bliss vale of tunes when shimmers from all secrets the rocked up splashes of muttering night paving all secrets by the art of love intoned the quest for ocean's incessant blue vale of tunes hiding across the pine pierces into the plumes still by sky blue thrumming deeper meandering in conch shell flanging the thrill from the shadow when baffling the mystery be spoken of by the songs of cuckoo night when expends biting its arms by the dreams white lily yet basks amidst the gleams of passion

DIARY OF THE LAST NIGHT

Time still moving first by the night when blissful cool by her flapping veil reveled by her immortal mothering soul by embracing all your sorrows from you and keep you safe on her lap by the lullaby lulled of intoxication repose for the soul by her poised glaze blanketing all the dirty designs of the last hours the journey as we trudge on still it wakes you by your dream love and life when goes hand in hand breeze blithering by the river side the vale of complete obsessiness and I find you in peace by the sleep in her deeper deft of delusion expanded from the other side of sea hiding the sorrows by her darkness of wings next day breaks remembering last night you simply feel her by her softness from the last bit of her moment unveiled as bestowed upon by her mute melody as mellowed deep through your symphony..

DREAM ON THE MILIEU

breath when intense world never knows current entreats the lips to swell upon by touch of rays golden as warmth holds on by embrace night awaits to tune by melody of darkness as musky muse defers to darkness leaf sways by redemption of brightness waxing moon looks to blue of ocean waves ravishing redounds to blue where is reeks of frigidity by snow luscious flow wakes heart to glow dulcet dawn never yet frightened stance when numb with fear to move sweet whispers reasons to blaze glory of love refluxes by dream earth seems sates up by fill of sun

ECSTASY OF NIGHT`S DEPTH yet in deep ecstasy of night's depth and its smile that reasons you to paint on its wall with all flairs blue cajoling the darkness to stay away, as flowers to bloom with all its fragrance onto the light comes to its way blazing merging all its blue by the golden rays, when cuckoo may sing its song smooching as lonely bird finds its sweet smells of breath, the leaf may razzles its green yet full to the brim to the rain of mist, lest be not lost in the mystery of love, the passion may renew its reels of lust eye to eye and heart to heart redolent as shimmered by darkness that longed in its completeness in embracing the world.

EMBRACING THE DREAM

In embracing the dream as when revered by the passion of deep night as of being promised to be with its hours as suave by the each speckles of the whisper as my quest of embracing the dream is yet unconditional as when resourced by the faith of love of the golden voice as coursed by the glory of love when beckons like a showering of he rain as rambling to the green meadows as smooching as dreams comes to me as when shined

EPILOGUE OF LAST MEET

tell me the story after the last meet earth when reels round after sunset it all may be you and me by the hearts lest be some one from the crowd yet in the deep night not by the darkness a thin film of love when stuck in hide as it reels by the shadow of dark and light as you sleep for the day's rest aftermath the whispers may nudge you to wake yet not by your desire passion still drills in slumber moments yet brighter than the day even sun rises somewhere on the earth flower when razzle in blue by the warmth

And I touch upon tunes when attuned to myth by the gleams of love swinging on the star the muse when walks hand in hand across the mirth when blossoms red yet not virtual not the true by the glimpses still love do exist beyond the history when unveiled still night breaths faster festering its blackness when in tucking away by the epilogue of last meet

ETERNITY AND BEYOND

As one when smooched by the love of the truth yet being embraced as redness to the blood by the faith of the love when cohered within as the sea by the waves.

as when accepted by the truth and blessed by the bliss as the rain to the thirsty earth and the trust as being shined.

the soul when exalted yet earthly by the love as when blushed as the earth eternal by the sun sky when blazed by the moon as the trust of love dazzles blue when the love is spruced by the trust as being bestowed upon as gleams by the truth of the love as divine and the river flows as the love

ETERNITY BY OCEAN `S FLOW

hope ravishes by speckling whites to blue

EYES IN ITS ROLL

I am yet at criss- cross looking to the blooms by the mango groves the inflorescence on their heads the feeling green by the fragrance yet the breeze of ceaseless breath calls me just to see you in tunes when unveiled the waves by the passoin history when in its own tolls crooning yet raved up when snaffling through still I wait to see you stunning glows by your eyes when unveiled in its roll

Fairy Tales

The fairy tales are cowed when fallen from the crowd mucked upon the milieu of hunger as if their gods are deaf and deaden either.

The patterns of living flicking down deep Seem to have gone to the dust distorted A dismal moment as I peeved back Deflecting Into their bitten tones

Still a violence against the time dishonored Reasoned and resourced yet dismayed The fossils in its dead grave flinting the fire As if quietly meditating and submerged

As they have never been quivered as before the time fallen from the crowd yet unscathed ridden by the rain as demurred beyond the vale

As if the fairy tale of raved up undertones heard in nursery days yet unraveled bleating and rasping within out of aspiration dislodged unassumingly in totality

FAITH OF THE HOURS

As we feel as bristle blue by mere bouncing upon the wings when eyes delves the truth even from dream of the moon as when glimmered by the glaze yet by the beauty unequalled to the riff of reason when blazed by the faith of hours as swayed as when accorded as the bliss when refluxed from the quest form each moment of morning onto the last depth of night and revel upon in the realm of passion in the midst of stream eternal swaying like a grass blade across the meadow as when resourced by the gleams of love when blue

Dr subhendu kar

FAITH WHEN WAKES THE GLOW

As the faith when true by the belief stare not beyond and beneath by the baffles to differ when true ship on the deep sea when sailing storm may not hold their heads on the milieu when inflicted by the shattered breath darkness when whacks out their bloods forest yet roars with the wilds by the night strife when weird never hold good reasons when rocked out by the truth dog yet barks at strangers in the street as the darkness when defused by the light heart still rants by the shadow as glimpse when diminishing trust when prevails by the truth blemishes still spout into the baiey faith when wakes the glow

FAITH OF TRUST

The trust that happens as night to the sky Looking into the darkness as the cries of the pain

Falling as the dew as tears of love And I shine in wetting as the light of faith tunes to the faith of love yet intense leading the love like a rising sun in the sky

FLAMES OF DREAM

It is yet deep night of dream flames of fire by the candles livid darkness snaffles pale scruples never hold it back eyes look limpid by the dew shadow of love tip toes into room candle overawes by its gleams brazier rays of fall cascade grace of love blushes half muffled scarlet red redounds in wine redolent full moon redoubts of elysian blue light follows path of deliverance

Dr subhendu kar

FLAMES OF FIRE

As I am honored with grace impassionate that dazzles in me and my innate grin glamoured by setting rays in the sky along the white clouds as cohered.

that boost me up like waves in the sea with all its blues when being cuddled in the spring the lap of tranquil as in moon.

when the clouds moves apart above it is the sun yet steeped in blood promising of the love as prologued as twilight descends slowly i do remember the thrills of passion as revered by the bliss of love when reckoning to the flames of fire.

Golden Dusts from the Gleams of Love all the bits of dusts golden as subsumed into the totality the dusts of bliss yet whispers the love when aspired

GOLDEN SHADOW

When the curves on the scarf of coral reef being portrayed and I do in imminence remember in my dream assiduously those pale faces- wistful, forlorn and muttered in oblivion.

When eyes unassumingly look back in anger out of redolence To those golden shadows clogged on the dusts unknown In mute grey confinement leaving me departing grimaced

The golden shadows lost by them appears to wriggle out Behind as the slyly smack blithering into the sea smudged Knocking off morning mist across its mused walls intoned And smooching thought of my universe yet undiminished..

But those echoes of the silver linings once they raved up supposedly slink into traffic square as the frozen breaths silence seems to be crooned in grimacing and veiled sine die on the spoiled plexus as if deferred by the borrowed moments.

GOLDEN VERSE

your voices of golden verse love as yet dazzles across swaying of the leaf muses over morning to rave up the night

GRATITUDE WHEN VERSED

Gratitude when curved in the heart the addiction when sways like silk the mystery of love reflexes as gleams where are my words to whisper you to tell the truth of love in gratitude the grace as mute as lightening exotic truth as reasoned sanguine by the flex where is my verse to welcome you to my realms of thought by the faith and where is my sense of ingratitude as I promise you the depth of love when resourced by the quest of the rain and where is the night when so blue to hide you in my arms of the dream as yet to delve you from the rose within the fathom as heartfelt the dream as doused as I honor you in the dream of moon to hold you in my blood as deep red I may ramble with you in resonance by the query of love when concealed

GRIMACING RAIN

It was raining and raining for hours nonstop nobody knows when to go back, As if it was grimacing in silence like dark night It may take time to talk again, for a while.

Night may break in to day, hours into minutes but those silence may not shredded to rain of tears And that hours of rain was the tears of silence that rippled into voice of grimacing - protracted.

If I asked to reason out curves of silence It may cajole to suggest inkling of love provoking-For the tears fallen in rain, of thosa unbeaten songs lest silence may censure grimacing.

Dr subhendu kar

GRIMACING SHADOW

And he would come there in silence bewailing nudging you once more needing your love again to rave in your arms like a lightening to the rain Tearing all his angers impaled by the cravings

It may never uncover him blindfolded since time would blush him bruised on the bridge Yet he is in the mind tossing up in wind as Crooning like a rain bequeathing the smiles when the moon shines stamped in light reflexing as he is in the wind in your shadows grimacing to escape out of window to bequeath the dream when desire being dispensed with the dissension when sorrows begins to grow in all its wing as he is in the wind lambasting your love lest the time may blame you muttering that would kiss the moon being besetting.

when he would be the dreamless imbecile your belief may deny him distracting that hurts him hurtful rocking from within.
Touching upon the night as in confiding.

As you shine up slowly steeped in love again Bestirred upon the praises all attired Beaming like a blue moon in starlit night Staining out the darkness from the night.

sultry weather remembers autumn's flow anger never reels through by fear of love.

softness mellows by sweet feeling silence even tells grip of sorrow night still resilient by tear as dew heart loses its rhythm riling upon wisdom abstruse stillness redeems from apprehension as truth of reason always insist upon realty.

Sorrow redounds deep in darkness in furrow Humor blurs in dearth of rippling smiles Sadness rides over the glow ingenious Do you ever measure the distance of love?

HEART WHEN WEARS THE COLORS

Smiles of the rainbow seems to dazzle

The promises of love dazzle by the heart

Each speckles of colors whisper the youth of love in all man and woman young and old all alike by their cast and creed Even no rich or poor as white or black as leveled yet befuddle When painted by the art of love as the distinction when deterred

Colors of life as worn by the spectra dusts when splendoured As it blazes the glory of love universal waking seamless Lord yet beckons by His grace to the millions when blessed Darwin yet to redefine his historic oh the survival the fittest

LOOKING INTO THE DUSTS

When eyes roll on unto tears falling from shining To see you in my love in your eyes surmised That nonplussed in effervescence as it flows in your blood piercing into me and mine life of a panoramic pavilion delightfully gleamed in our hearts in between outstretching perennial till i meet you in me across the time emblazoned a charisma lodged over embedded me encircling cries in laughter and pain in blossoming like variegated leaves of Bougainville the shadowy cadence of ways in living and shades of color in all embracing..

When I peeped you and your youth in hide across the corridor of nooky corner in guile you tossed into the air like an angel by the time but freckles led in beauty in your skin frazzled.

when i dream the zeal of fire being frenzied the essence of my love in you being glorified in to the reek of all horrors from me deterred and I pebble in to the spectrum of void absolute.

Time may toll its treasure of wishful longing where I made my sojourn from dusts infinite That once splashed me and mine over the edge Transcending all my desires driven by time agile.

LOVE DEEP YET DIVINE

Uplifting the desire revered by the moon Shoving upon the flow as raving in the breeze

Harvesting the moon braced up by its muse

Blending the love sheathing by the breath

Bedecking the glaze embedded in illusion Dropping deeper within uplifting the stance Lest it may not suffer the eclipse in totality When cruised as mystical as the shadow..

Just as past reflecting the resonance As gripped by the grief in the sorrow When bellowing the bluster of the flair just gleaning scars as happens in the sky as blushed ashes ascend into the clouds or a freak of frown flouncing into the air.

Leaf when stops its swaying into the hide As ripples cruise its arm from the dream Stone yet dumb in its reek of stillness infinite

The veil of tears makes the curtain to the blue Time as flows yet sadden true in continuum Sun when covered by the clouds of fear Love seems to be blemished form the depth of dark

The day when rebounds by the warmth of sun Nature yet bedazzled by the mirth of the white dusts The songs of birds resounds the smiles of the day And the rose as redolent by the petals of its love

LOVE WISTFUL

Love wistful as elusive hurtful Rousing to tears in the eyes When coalesces into oceanic vast of sorrow bequeathing love intoned.

It was a love that I raved up That reasoned yet unreasoned For the lust for love intense As swallowed by the reeks of loneliness

When I steeped in love inextricable That happened to happen being rocked up Like a rainbow reasons to the rain

As i promised but to take away from her The sorrows from her sweet slumber as all washed away at the dawn.

LOVE YET FLOWS ETERNAL

when love in excellence like a depth of the night riches high to touch the smile yet it ripples as the river flows.

When rueful reasoned pain tears roll as the river flows as love is a mystery as the mist. yet not lost to the reek of resent flower blooms even frozen chilled but it ever glows like etching gold rain may come the leaf yet unruffled the rolling tears as dew on petals but it never falls from its whorl when the love eternal ever flows as revered by the gleams divine reasoned to a time and space as sacred as the bliss yet divine

Dr subhendu kar

LOVE YET INFLAMED

As you love
I look your eyes Stunning blue, inflamed prised by the passion my words of love struck with awe delving deeper into the cloud as it would rain in wishing love revered by the lightening to rain.

the tears flair with joy in silence bleeding hearts in blending Piercing into its blood That blushers lips yet pristine and I start trembling fledging the golden dew.

art in your dream to rave as sunflower to the sun with the colors in hand in clarity absolute when stars in sky yet blinking to the moon.

melting shadows

When smiles shocked by the furrows yet subtle silent as when lashed as green meadows looking luminous like the waves reeling its head as genial on the dunes of debris in continuum by the sea in its side taking away shadows the darts from blood flowing through the heart in quest of love yet not lost to the thought me and guilt of mine in the dead night if ever accomplished in grey confinement seemingly yet not subterfuge even not by pretension as when crucified by the glooms as accrued as flounced from the clouds tainted dark as when beseeched upon splattering the knees yet with folded eyes pierced by the flitting pains when mirrored by the rays waking all the shadows as tears deluged as if defiled by the sorrows yet in a depth of knowing the heart as subsumed as it reels in its path from the time waking the sun precious moment as ice falling over trees when detracting the sorrows by the wishes of love. divine

MERRY CHRISTMAS (AS I WISH YOU ALL)

As I wish you all THE MERRY CHRISTMAS across your grace I still remember those icy hours and our loving progenitors Who left us here for the game of LIFE to rave up for a while as the time flows yet divine when wrought on this dust even from the days of Cambrian to Silurian as the fossils onto the day of this night eternal as of now as the living when all thronged into the folds of archive as remote past as the relics by the days and nights as the glory of Godly dusts the legion moves across the tunes by the faith of His love to the life even in the throes and smiles by the trust of love that happens to happen in the midst of eternal stream as truth as the colors when blooms when the bliss and love as needed as the strength divine once in our time and space as the glory of life in ascension.

we revel and rave up being shined by the moon and the sky dream when true as when primed by the love on this earth breath yet slithers to the smiles of pine even gleaned or chilled as we grin in warmth on the lush meadows of green by the sun and we descend slowly evolved by the time of immemorial and cherish the love of the life lest be the blue or the white as when dappled by the wishes of God when blessed upon even appalled by the walls of obscurity as apart and beyond

METAMORPHOSIS

That happens to happen by the passion eclectic in the deep youth of night as we move across obsessively the time and space as novels of the tonight as when we descend slowly into the room of its illusion from yesterdays dream knackered to today again to tomorrow, like a fragrant rose from bud to faded stance are we not the same we were by the time but with little changes not yet being befuddled to the need of our hours desire when intoned as attuned to the plexus of life and living hand in hand holding the baited breath yet intense and disillusioned as courses upon by the metamorphosis.....

MILIEU OF THE GRIN

As I ramble on the milieu of grin cared and carried by the flow green yet maimed by the love as flower to bloom as the morning waits for the sun to shine exhausted never being bemused though yet as bitter grim but sweetest still lodged out breath as few hours to outbid to reach the moon drizzling upon its gleam even in deep dark yet braced by the love when pierced even by the pricks of rose in its petals as flesh oozing the blood as blue by the moon when blinking to the sky.

MILLER OF THE DEW

As we move by the journey Spewing the breaths painful when bereft of all the gods edge when fragile by the riffs riffles by ridges of years and age as the unequalled stream by the ride when gleaned by all tears and smile rolling from the love thrust eyes beaten by the love-obsessive ricks for a long time yet of skeptical rhythm as when remembered by the night browsing through the moments past when besotted by the mortal walks the tangled foot prints out of illusion when slowly smudges by dusts time torn baling all the earthly longings attired the sun when moving fast by the head like a miller of the dew of the last dream.....

MOIST RAINBOW

She woos and coos with all her secrets Leaving all in her universe own opened sacred Through ages and eons slowly descending Like mist being swaddled across the green.

When she traversed to her edges of age Like silken spring showering over her glaze Keeping her promises like saints and seers Being curious of dives fast in the oceanic vast.

As she pounces the pear and peg of her day Peeping through her thrumming womb of love
On the bathing platform of her living a day Lovers and oomph appears impassioned.

When she jitters to be lost beyond her edge Running all her length half necked, half robed Her mysteries move like rainbow in the moist sky Caressing her newly born just crying soiled son.

MOON- HARVEST

To feel a home away from home my friend miles apart impassioned to her query from the other side of sea for love epithet tinkling sui-generis.

'when moon shines full to its brim a star sequestered in a distant horizon blinks to the soigne red rose on looking for a unsung love of being cuddled within.

whispering the petals of lovely red rose to sprinkle the songs of beauty eclectic on to the plexus of moon star & rose transcended whence the ' harvest-moon' appeals syncretism when fragrance be overwhelmed lest be not someone blemished & dying for the wishful love be epitomised foliage be stuck into the autumn for a while.'

MUSTY RUNE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

whisper awakes silence in spume

MYSTERY OF LOVE

Within the mystery of shadow embracing
As I stared into the depth of your passion When I remember you as gleams of fantasy every word you raved flitted through my eyes when swayed away by sweet dreams world of mine descends slowly heartfelt gentle mellows long into twilight bliss makes me trust and mused over my will.

as green of leaves wakes me up onto the black night looking down to the grave yard with a pangs of sorrow i clapped out by grave being enshrined..

yet the grave wears the green of mounds grown with grass and its blade drooping Flouting the smiles of those who once laid Golden voices revered by love over myth

Name Plate

it is necessary to tell my story life is when held in it as moments flecks away like waves devouring all earthly do you ever mean condescending?

all these by demeanor of benevolence sun may commit no wrong diffusing the light and warmth together have you ever seen the top of universe?

by the heath of Himalayas heart snow may feel strength in divine have we ever measure the angle between curve of desire and craving?

do we ever know angry decibels of thunder? that may burn the earth as half backed bone moon yet knows the curve of meaning blue twilight when hanging in the shadow of love and I do remember the gleams of night embracing the memoirs of time assailed by the terraced valley of the sultry rune heart chilled under pine of falling snow

Dr subhendu kar

NIGHT IN ITS WAIT

As night in its wait Rocks you in its arms Smooching deeper and deeper Promising the moon when you ask and cry in craving as your radiance would tell you The moments of flair raving the art In her heart.
When blood is reddened and redeemed And its glare stalked in clarity And totality in a crystal confined

NIGHT WHEN FLUFFS BLUE

night yet fluffs up gleaming blue silence bewilders by the darkness green when never blue by the light tear may fall onto the dream of room eyes meander mingling into the void passion still ask the heart to glue the moon moment still brims calling the blue

winds yet grimace by the shadow of dream

NIGHT WHEN RUFFLES

yet the night ruffles in its shadow when so cool being swooning the green in lap of the spring or of summer, chilled winter or all together by the autumn still the blue when blows by the passion yet honored in the gleams of love whisper when cajoles the moon and star to behold the lily in its glow by the arm the arm of embrace when chained all flairs and glares when blossom by the ripples couching upon the glimpse of musk as when stashed in the furrows bestirred of its colors when untouched inward even by the glance of meteors unnoticed the palette of hope when raining high by the souls in unison when heavenward speckle of silence reveres the blue when twitches the lips evilly in undertones in the dark by the imagery of paints when suffused by the tipsy nightcap when gleamed from a distance yet apart the solitude of midnight's spring when walking in its wider strips of tunes still swarf of shadow when curtained by the screen of lustful light by the eyes heart still robes the veil of desire by the spume even when bathed by the raining spree of spring.

sun in its scotching furore flounces the earth thrashing it bitterly rueful like hot bitumen over the pan of fire smouldering the shadow melting all blues into fumes moving upward when stressed by the reeks irresistible! the colossal mountain of endurance yet flexible by the stress of taste.in unison

NIGHTSCAPE

heart yet robes the veil by the blue even when bathed in rain of tears warmth still exists even stretching of its track gleams may swaddle slow in the distance swanky tunes yet hurtful by the resonance dragging the shuffles as the time scrolls along the narrow strip of dusts entwined blue still blue by the colors distinction when rolling down by the turn as distraught as the time is a palette of colors when whispers black still comes by its term desolate falling air when melds to the dark clouds

NOOKY DREAM I GRINNED

Noosed by nooky dream at noon by south-easterly and nonplussed, no-no being non compos mentis lest it is non committal yet.

Still nostalgia raucously recoil for no show Note worthy of no show like novella cuisine, but numb, nose-dived being nosebleed Like nosy parker.

When nudged by nubile stance Nothing nothing but only sweet nothing, of smiles of sweet songs for deep love glared In lovers eyes flared up those precipitate in the night.

NOTCH OF GESTURE

They are now snuggled past- reposed At each notch of the dust- dispossessed Their ashes bristle fast with breath of darkness.
That once thrust upon the moment- embedded.

The dusts of black infinite Refrained from rhythm reveling Those settle slowly over their coffins- refluxing And blood made patterns to sky blue - anguished.

When I wink at, in ember thought Across the little wing of fallen tears Someone slashes me to go slow To the flared fire – amuck- swooping.-

When bare smokes sizzle over sylvan meadow The misty breeze beckons with the twist and turns Into the reek of voices- interior Their extended breath raved up like sportive art That slithers with words of silver lining into the notch of gesture- achieve.

NOVELS OF THE NIGHT

As I need you to make me ramble To be in the dream just as me by the novels of night as the blue should I stop: to dream yet should I be as I want to meet you across the passion as when darkness latching on to the night as when endeared by the gleams of moon seeming your grace when braced upon by the time that reasons me to be in your dream with your glaze yet great as blue rainbow when wrought by the clouds by your muses as my verse mingles in the rain rhythm of sea when shattered by the storm And every longing as seems as wistful As sailing as slow when bereft of love, as I am lonely, alone still alone in the empty room of my dream when I endure the pain in silence again, again;

Dr subhendu kar

OH THE WHISPER

oh what a lovely rhythm and rhyme I saw her by the sea side after a long time moon when shadowed by the clouds day as dark gray seemingly listless yet wetted sands promises the tunes time has made me faster than the arrow out of own resurrection breath still spews faster by the blue waking me from the dreamless nook leaf fledges by the green from repining deep blood in its own room renewed flanging from the last nightmare hope of whisper dappled by winter tonight sun when in its own glow bequeaths the warmth across the heart entwined by the sweet melody of cuckoo's song love when overwhelms by the sea side

Dr subhendu kar

OH TONIGHT

Oh tonight I still adore you by the flairs day's sweating has transpired yet almost desiccated by the thirst of summer the clock still tickles on the wall the deep darkness when worn by time yet it dazzles by the rainbow to my gleams of love by the full moon illusion slowly wears the crown falling tears by the rags of rune the raves up all earthly doings when settle in the scaffolds of desire I do remember you since early hours waked up by the dew over the green when besotted hue by the blue heaven born night still ruffles by the crooning ripples scarlet across the heart wine when red by the gloss of the lips dazing by the waves in oceanic blue yet betiding by the way side lilac the grin as the expanse of all green unexhausted and unfazed in continuum the rhythms when bestirs by the colors as when painted by the art of love yet palettes of dream razzles tonight breath when cooing innate by the evening yet it continues by all my dreams when cuddles in the arm of love yet unveiled in the vale of tunes I still remember the mystery of embrace Oh tonight I still adore you by the dream waves oceanic splash the creeping quest love still extends into the veil of dream echo seems to daze into its crescent cliff rhythms still bounce to the pride of the green as when attuned by the query in resurgence the day still awaits yet with baited plumes blinking to the blue sky by the art of colors passion still expends riling into the hide across the room of tumbling tuft of silence yet unexhausted by the beaten track as defrayed across the blue fire as unleashed the matrix of love on the sands of time yet unveiled and unfettered by the wind cleaving the belief by the hope of tomorrow queries when answered to the vale of desire

ON THE EDGES OF THE GREEN

If truth be rhymed by the trust
on the edges of the green you taught me the mathematics by abacus I listen to your tunes by the innocence

Light when penetrates into the darkness As the world blooming in brilliance And you lead me the way by your grace As the green meadow flecks by the sun

Across the time of commitments when owned by the intimacy I simply followed you like a shadow Even onto the last dregs of the night

Yet with all letters of resilience I blink to the edges of the night abiding yet frightened by the afflicted ember faith seems to fledge when intoned

As your words whisper me of the rising sun Even if grimaced by the winter chilled Still light blazes the earth by the art of creation When you stand by me by guiding agility

ON THE SANDS OF LOVE

As we search upon the milieu of sands of love bristling like moon in its brimmed blue when much we sink into sorrow defiant.

as we ride uphill in askance like wave rising over the sea razzle upon the blueness steeped rolling on to the beach ruined.

As we rave up possessing love conquer the dream when unfolded overcoming the pity and penitence much as in searching upon the love overwhelmed

OTHER SIDE OF THE SEA

the reels of distance apart when cruised to its myth by the crunch of silence to a glance into the horizon where I lie lonely desolate.

in her dream as I do exist in response to a resonance of a moment yet in mingling with tears yet glowing blue.

for a repose to a reason being poised by the glamour as always stacked within.

PAINTS OF ART

sun still comes by the morning even by the rain when unleashed by the clouds rainbow when blazes its glory by its colors even bereft of the moon by the plumes as darkness when dissolves into the puddle by the day shadow of sorrow must repulsed to the hide by the golden glow of the sun as stain must go away by the reeks the new colors.as when painted the walls as the love is the paints of art by the artist over the canvas web of blood in resilience to red oceanic waves still rave up looking into the full moon when blue even if the tide breaths faster speeding to fall knowing its ebb of webs destined to dissolve as we see the dark face of the forest in the depth of night by lightening by the rain yet the birds and tigers roar in the night by the fear yet the snow frost pine never disown its green even when chilled across its unkempt edges love yet glows unfazed as eternal flow by the vein

PASSION WHEN RECALLS moments flicker away like flints from fire many a untold stories yet heave away eyes look back meandering by reminiscence lofty ideals by desire of halcyon days slowly scale off from the skin of dream unknowingly extruded by winds of tear making almost alienated from world of dream do we make mistakes somewhere in-between while trudging path of unrequited love like one-way traffic in a hurried city passion seems to recall by memorabilia, like luscious glow left behind yet unshared

heart shares sorrows and joy

at time we differ by reasons
leaves rush to grey, dry

time we meet repeats history
don't we talk same even as untold?

PLACID BEAUTY

PLEXUS STREAMS

Words uniquely blended in enigma, Baffled with on its smiles benign the white or pale, bravely dogged, To the sunset's rosette of smiles.

I am not quite aware of its guiles As accepted as here say defiled On its latched saffron gestures Probably not circumvented within.

All that vanishes or glows either Unto the dusts or the sky across, Dark or white mouth of day and time, Being braced upon the stance agile

Only bits of its paper unwritten Thrown on irked moments riled upon The horizon of moment mystified, Melting to plexus streams ensuing.

Where I am never alone and lonely Upon the extended arms of time Bracing upon eternal flow sovereign In the midst of legion's stream divine.

PROMISE WHEN VEILED

Love is a shadow of the time As mystic as moon or the mist glistening blush of the red rose as deep and dark yet the divine.

as I promise to unveil the flairs impaling the hurtful tears whamming when reasoned to the pain inflicting as tempered by the wharf of sorrow like whining away the darkness from the clouds of black bellowing reflecting the whiteness of the sky yet blue azure as revered by the sun lest the light may touch the grimed to warm up the green flitting the glooms into the fire flaming them blustered when curved most hurtful deep down.

as love is a mystery bristling gleams like drops of dews carrying glimpse flitting stint of the moon over the sands through the hours of the night veiled yet even across the darkness in resilience

Dr subhendu kar

PROMISES OF FAITH

promises of faith as when the truth as swaying becomes brighter and bestirred the trust of stunning rune by the muse as when eclectic to the reason of acceptance melting the pain when resourced by blessing the sorrows of being yet apart from the heart

Dr subhendu kar

QUANTUM LOVE

mind when open as sky by the stars still rain in Autumn yet not be befuddled even the raves up when deterred by the ways time and space in life when seems vast love still comes to one by the time as due even if the thunder by the rain in the summer still leaf falls apart from the tree tear never swims in the eyes all along warmth when burns the tears by the glows joy bound to resource by the turn of quantum love

QUERY

how are you? it is raining blue where are you? storm may come home is sweet home in its room don't ask me such stuff yet insane bird flies fast through the wind cadence of love yet flows elsewhere

QUERY WHEN WHISPERS

besetting mother as looking blank to the crowd do I still stop to ask such silly query immaterial?

yarning diffuses by the swings as entwined askance failing into the air the wind when suffused answer when rocked up by its own riff of reason oceanic wave still dazes eternal against the wind moment when saddles into the lap of sanded swarf yet it nestles true even ruefully by the heart as glued when intense by the resonance when bewildered history still steals away the light by the events heart when hauls out of blood by the restless breath compelling the gripping thoughts as mystical dew bird when flies away from the nest by the quest love of heart when breaths fast by the tears in eyes

sorrow as melds with joy by the home love when returns back when secured gripping shadow fumes into the air wishing a cup of coffee by the long breath

QUEST AND QUERIES

As when mortal being down to the earth as I am from the dust need nothing but a handful of love even be the blue or white as when destined by the time yet onto the dust as I would carry nothing but sweet nothing yet across my time and space when I breath as always affiliate to the cult of humanism when latching on to the love universal my language when courses from the heart when I smile I love me and mine the microcosm the streams of legions as when eternal glimpse as when some of us simply slump into archives and it becomes the history of the mankind as we record the story of life and living of men in ages and eons in valleys and forests from stone ages to this day as we descend as when blessed by the love of God

QUEST ETERNAL

Reason yet unknown unspelt Putting me in your eyes reveling

Quest for love never ends either

Even it rains in winter or summer.
Rhythm ever flowing rippling

In the bondage yet unfazed and unflinching Yet unmeasured in all dimensions surmised winds of fragrance carrying message I do love thrums me and my universe to rouse my anger tossing on colors of rainbow into realm ecstatic,

REDEMPTION IN PAIN

singing a song as whisper to the lonely night as darkness baffles to the queries and call pain cuddles the stance to stay away from the glooms with little patience as locked in lattice path yet coursed blissful as poised in redemption.

Clouds may deny the rain by the wind As when spurred along the haste of anger By the flames of nightmares as never when cherished in dreams

Flower when dispossessed from the plant the traces of tears beat by its reeks edges when fragile by the earthly songs rancour yet tunes the art of love

REFLECTION

when you cajole the love to be or not to be with the universe when disowned by the delusion as when I trail behind my love.

the sound when echoes by the conk shell God when allows the man to hear the pangs

RESILIENCE OF LOVE

Love when dazzles in excellence staked in a depth as resilient as the night riches the high touching the moon yet it ripples as the blood flows in reeling

When rueful as reasoned by the pain The tears may roll on as the river flows as love is a mystery as the mist of night when true, never yet lost by the reek of resent As flower blooms even being frozen chilled when it glows like etching of the gold rain may come as light sweeping over leaf as it breaths in deep dark yet unruffled tears along eyelash as dew on the petals but it never falls from whorl of the rose.

Love yet as eternal ever flows in a stream When revered by the gleams as reveled As if being coursed from a time and space as sacred as the bliss yet resourced divine

RESURGENCE

In quest of my silence when you touch me Your sunny breath ramble over my passion in my desire as I long my earthly refinements lay

I look befuddled like a leaf when desiccated from its stock yet green and follow as winds to the rain as you resurrect by your love the resurgence by embrace over the bosoms of love cascades completeness absolute

Shadow in Fluxion

When she stands upon the sand dunes With mask of torrid waves within protracting And she cramps her feet over the moist surf To find herself sportive with raved up feelings.

Thinking of her unbridled caravan steering clear To tear her pieces of blood into all the blues That had been thrumming with all her rhythm To make the clouds to rain over her dream idyllic.

On the farthest corner of horizon I stare and adore The deep darkness of the blues pledging embracing To carry the sweet songs keeping all wide open Where the waves left with her dream unshaken.

On the floor of fears and sweats, love and beauty I ripple beyond being wistful ever unreasoned To my thought eclectic in twinge edifice undeterred Like a shaded wilderness undiminished where she croons

SILENCE WHEN INTONES

When I lie lone silence yet intones the highway when meandering trudging with the trees green each step in its shadow when braced up by the dream wakes me up still being alone the smiles yet a head rambles in blue the moon fledging behind I remember the novels of night your eyes stunned in grin for many years seeming green shadow trails behind moon still glimmers looking crescent when expired I chased beyond and within dew seems to be coalesced by the gleams fledging through days after days i stood alone on the beach of the oceanic waves yet looking alone to its blue azure

SILENCE WHEN SPEAKS

the silence still speaks of all secrets even the untold story of love in the hide when whispers being seemingly wordless webbing the hearts by the soul immortal rhythm when expands by the crooning heart still talks even being wordless never when listless by the deep silence single word even curves the art of love love still whispers by the art of silence love still rhythms triggering the impulse art when rills across the silence by the eyes even being speechless when undisclosed in its room of secret by the walls of mute veil stance yet intoxicated by the quiet nod story of love when courses upon by the blue yet the thunder talks even being wordless muse of flow relentless swing as wordless

SKY AT MY DOOR-WAY

I look to the blue sky relaxing in silence Its sun fed morning and evening showers Peppered face of rain and summer
With its folded breath in a horizon lamping as if in deep forest, over the dark and red scars.

as if spotless death and life caress each other Extending its biting arms along all apprehensions of pavements dwellers being stuck here and there all around.

All those draped across are almost dead to the tunes Of seas, mountain, meadows or of earth spun smiles The tunes of conifers soliloquy stand intoxicated In white caped wilderness of the Himalayas or somewhere

Or the galloping laughter on the beach in summer Mutilated as if being caught in fisherman's net Appears rasping on the dunes in ruthless alienation Against the time and tide of travelers monologue

The silhouetted voices of returning birds emaciatedly eluded As if to a peace procession of hungers before the temples gate where i am stuck up glaring foggy eyes of dusky sky At my door- way when the sky is hiding in darkness.

SLEEPING STONE

Sleeping stone of innocence quite ambiently stuck up in yellow cities unlike trees of nature blossomed with joys and tears together.

sleeping stone aside sunbathed in raved up bickerings nudges the pavement dwellers slumberd in their deep silence slovenly frizzled across their woes of linings.

and their naked children quite tizzy in the slum throws spotive art into their tears falling from the crowd unscathed like leaves in autumn disowned.

they supposed to live and lie like grass blade on the other side of river in connivance with sleeping stones gestures leaving all their naked gods undiminished into the expanded arms of storms, letting off all persuasive angers flared up beneath the masked up sorrows of rulling grass, like snow fed morning hanging by the hinges of the dusts.

SMILES WHEN FUSE INTO THE NIGHT ABOVE

Allusion to the love In talking together
Onto the faces frazzled Inkling of love by the fusion of smiles

World yet shines by the sunrise sharing by the early darkness. reeks of pain when spout into the air Binding graces cohesive within smiles when fuse right above the night colors when sprinkle by the gleams blissful pine when looks to the full moon bright wishing the love through the plumes of the white

Darkness when unveils the tunes Sigh of relief yet glitters by coherence Over the dew thrust dusts by the passion Silence when peeps in the dark by the evening

Talks as when all blurted blue Encore the arrogance of desire by the jingling passion by the eyes in allegiance to the lips of the dusk clouds when inspired to rain by the summer Attrition seems to jitter by the addiction As the knackered voices roasted by the fire when entwined with the promises to flow

SOLITUDE OF MID-SUMMER

As I walk into the footprints of known unconcern Concerned unknown from the legions remembering Of those golden voices in my solitude of mid-summer I stuck up for a moment with little tired bloods in hand.

when I browse through the tears of their toil wistful across the winds of days lost-achieve dispossessed The nostalgia raucously recoils over their walks And the folds of beauty of the gets embittered.

I peep into creek of reconciliation sitting by side of earthly man and matter in and around in-between I falter to follow the patterns of blood or dust together In searching summer or winter of tempered zones.

When I wish someone with little smiles in askance I wonder to see their promises and portraits hung Across the walls of silence beyond and beneath with their love and hatred perplexed and entwined.

The songs of love so deep and yet divine When dance of peacock stunning to the sky azure when passion being opened to the secrets of smile.

Your songs grimacing in silence throng upon me that makes me intense promising a world undefined that reasons out of reasons inhered within undeciphered

SORROW WHEN POISED

yet I went all through the smiles as the moment passes through the night reaching the truth in depth of silence mingling with love by the petals as beguiled when sun withdraws its warmth as in twilight heart as hurtful tearing through eyes as when rocked up by the reeks of sorrow yet it unequalled as roving by the anguish as our time yet bristles first onto the day looking to the blinking queries from within as when trudged into shadows as bubbles melt away the moments when conquered by the dreams of the night

SPECKLES OF RAINBOW

time yet flies by the shadow sun still strong by its swanky walks swampy stream yet not desiccated by the fire as i remember the last night by the passion the dream still burns me in its cruised arms and i am just half backed bone by the rays scorching sun prides beneath the lamp post night yet to come by the day when retires shadow still burns bristling by the ashes meadow when yells to dark clouds by the green breeze yet not blown by feathers swing cuckoo still in its nest by the hunger yet your whispers tells me the woes by the hope over the vale of tunes haunting the colored glow would you not come back again by the purple blue rain still in its wait by speckles of rainbow when desired

SPECTRA COLORS

soul seems to redeem by the faith as when croons by admiration in allegiance resurgence of joy rebounds in velvet the breath of blood whirls faster red the wind slithers slow to swoon by truth speed of the sound touches the blue in moon the warmth when resourced from the fire the sun in orange resurrects by the glow still indigo of stones talks even if speechless when it cringes or crinkles apart alone as when deaden being bereft of colors leaf of pine resumes chilled still by the green across the silvery snow of Alp's allegiance thrill yet crisps in yellow when alleged love yet happens to be mystic blue by the gleams of colors in the dew

SPLENDOURS O F LOVE

Transcending the desire yet revered by the mist Shoving upon the stance resourced by the moon.

The bettered breath as primed wishing the love Like a delight from a tea cup of morning winter Profusing fumes into the muse as glamoured rocking up the flow innate yet ever splendoured.

as my smiles glare upon the mist of love enshrined like swaying of leaf across its green ever entwined the gleams of love

STORM ON THE MILIEU

Tired wiles and their captive breaths scuttling Strawn upon the faces of fear on the hinge With the fear of phoenix lest be not haunted in When their bloods would turn pale and piffled

When my eyes in pity move across caravans Slovene and cloggy while slummed up Being lodged against the ensuing hurricane Over the genes and cells in unfazed clones.

Their hopes and despairs stocked in silence My feeling innate slaving pray upon God And the doctors for their smiles graceful Over the golden voices be again splurged on.

Oh the doctors let their lives be cherished Once stuck blissful upon their mother's dream Be heard once again on this dust and dawn Like the morning mists over cuckoo's song.

Where upon I wait and watch wistfully To those ill-fated tones slugged upon the extended arms of milieu unacknowledged among the restless crowds miffed in corridor

STRANGER OF NIGHTMARE

Curve of flow when dichotomized moves through the dynamics eccentric sandwiched in-between plates spatial sword hanging over the crownless head the two bodies of spirals by living stones trailing half beaten by the songs of illusion when flecks into the void by the disillusion dying pity around seems gardens of pain tears still fall across the mortal dew remembering the trembling joy behind when rocked up by the tendril of age torn beckoning beneath the fragile hedge plant love survives limpid dappled gray of dishonor the dazing echoes being cleaved by the cliff the crowd follows the upstream yet forward cadence still walks meandering by direction breeze when ambles by the mirror as quivering standing speechless across the lamp post shadow still smacks of sticking to deep night yet looking lonely into the street of milestones the age lashes out the pride on the dark corner before the luscious green of the youth unlaid feeling intense latching on to the mortal breath swooning the subtle whispers as coins antiquated dream seems listless by the square criss crossed when bitterly stung by the stranger of nightmare smiles when defrays the brutality by the sunset apprehends stranger by mid summer `s night mare

SUN SETTING IN GOLDEN BLOOD

When I see the sun setting in its golden blood The leaf, from its time agile falling from the green My surging waves, innate embarked upon my nerves Nudging me of reality in living and life in-between.

We may fall upon the crux of silence inevitable That permits for the total redemption from game Thrusting upon all the blues bestirred unto the will making entire toll sovereign into racks of flow entwined.

We smack of pride detropped in to our wings defiled In the pretext of- me and mine-all the while blustering Yet unassuming in tyranny of time to the genre on the latch Evoking of a stance dying fragile in the semblance of time.

Where I swear upon the waves of ocean beating eternal Leaving all our shadows into the reek of raved up past as on time attired that slovenly unveiled all our secrets subtle blazing all our glories genial with a graceful smile benign.

By the bloody serial blasts by the killer goons
The whole country seems rocked up by the horrors

Death tolls as it roars by the apprehension Nobody knows yet tomorrow be a black day again

To whom should we tell our owes of living Under the shadow dark tinted frozen glass Light still splits by the brazens teeth by the cruelty God still knows when wrought by these hooligans

Night when devours the light by the darkness Leaf when loses its green by the gusty fires Flower when refuses to bloom by the captive of soul

To lash the maddened wilds along their own recurrence Night when blinks faster standing aghast on the corridor

the beauty yet to expand and extend is unreasoned the self into the nature divine with glimmered voices revered by the bliss of resonance as bedecking in nature as I behold to the blue void expanding as yet the invisible paragon of eternity as incomprehensible as the time endless

As nature flows yet with all its cadence of love In response to that when we pleased to smile

As bedecked by the thought of moon and stars like peacock dancing impinged by the clouds before it rains the love intense as cohered the glittering of blood wishing in her warmth

Being curious of dives fast in the oceanic vast.

On the bathing platform of her living a day

THE JOURNEY

Sun rising from the hope to despair When I move across the journey Floating from the fluids mother's divine Studded by the dusts in layer of years.

Fire may burn me with right precision one day Impaling all my bloods by the years taking its colors As of now I may suffer lest tomorrow i may flair As the past being shined when read by my heirs.

Night falls slowly with ghastly noise of the sea Deeper and deeper as of redness in the setting sun When bird's nest hanging on tree top cajoles flux Melting all the desires in a way to meet the past.

Piercing the pains with smiles swooping as elastic as rain Bending like a rainbow springing smokes into the air Wrapping all my ravings from crowd by a blanket of fears As blood stops swirling in its room trespassing the pier.

As all my harvest moons entangle in thoughts unencumbered Resting on a chair made of wood keeping my arms in an afternoon Flapping breaths running slowly between you and me confined When dreams come ruined and rumbling struck beneath the slumber.

Embodying my love and me within lustful aloft As her grace ingrained in me piercing my blood.

Yet i may be tossed up into the sky tomorrow

In tearing away all your pangs of sorrow unobtrusive out of alienation tossing smiles rocking at petals of rose dazzled beneath and beyond.

THE PROXIMITY OF SILENCE

As time moves tenderly I step into the lap of my desires yet divine as when rambled by the will eternal within yet beyond my earthly longing as prevailed upon the plexus of love as bespoke of repose when poised by the gleams of bliss as when resourced yet not besotted by the lust as I promise to rave with the smiles of rose being reveled by the faith of trust as absolute, and I beseech to the greatness to strengthen the arms yet being shined by the grace as bestowed upon me when I move across the angel's wing trudging of sun from east to west as the journey never yet deadlocked yet its wind as I come across curves in me as when the time never descends slow.

Yet the voices melodious wakes me up With its tunes in the deepest core of the night like a tendered beauty pervading in rose the inner being even when bemused by the will

THE REEKS OF SILENCE

THE REEKS OF SILENCE.....I

Silence when rocked up the tunes to inspires the love the whiteness when seizes by the reeks of the darkness ocean when being apart from the waves deferred twilight seems silhouetted by the sun as eclipsed rays when wrapped up by the seamless black clouds blood yet chilled by the sorrow across the vein by the pain tears seems to glean love when curtained stance when tossed up by the dithering wind rhythm yet lost from soul by the reeks of silence bow when debarred from the string even with the piercing arrow.

Dr subhendu kar

THE SILENCE WHEN WAKES

Silence when wakes the rills of pain as the whiteness sieges by the darkness Waves as when being apart from the sea Evening seemingly silhouetted by the shadow

Blood when chilled across the vein Tears seems to glean by the clouds dreams when tossed up by the wounds Rhythm is lost even from the arrow.

Sky when looks grey dark skull As the river ripples least by the stillness Love when frazzled by the sorrow Zeal yet transpires when disillusioned.

Swaying of the leaf as the light of the green As the gleams of the warmth by the sun The smile when the ripples of love from within Yet the glimmerings of love as revered when enshrined

Dr subhendu kar

THE SKY AT MY DOOR- WAY

I look to the blue sky relaxing
Its sun fed morning and evening showers
as if In deep forest, over the dark and red scars.

lest spotless death and life caresse each other as extending its biting arms along in all apprehensions the pavements dwellers stuck here and there all around.

All those draped across are almost dead to tunes Of seas, mountain, meadows, earth spun smiles The tunes of conifers soliloquy stands intoxicated In white caped wilderness of the Himalayas or else where.

Or the galloping laughter on the beach in summer
Mutilated as if being caught in fisherman's net

As if for a peace procession of hungers before the Temples gate glaring foggy eyes of dusky sky
At my door- way when the sky is hiding in darkness.

THE SONG IMMORTAL

your mortal voices of song immortal and the tunes textured in me mirthful along the path earthly of dusts and divine since I move on from dawn to dusk totally embracing am I not the same me as I am resourced and renewed Amidst the seamless void ever in ascension resonant even if winds of change rave up all along the path limitless as I am ever empowered and strengthened in continuity.

As I rave my review out of total acceptance in clarity I am the illusion illustrated upon the time limitless congealed and consolidated upon again there ultimate and my love being eternal dazzles all along ever protracted.

as my flames of love flints it's essence into the air all around when beaconing light in its sparkles touches me and mine yet I am the same me as I am when our love reflexes upon In ages and eons time after time I meet you again and again.

THE SPATIALITY

Spatiality when spurred At a moment blazing
And you shine like rain When earth redeemed to green.

When I play with your love Wooing and cooing in hide and seek Cajole like a rainbow to the rain.
Bristling the breaths over the lips.

Onto the love melting into fire intense The rack of passion intemperate absolute Even not ebbed by snow flakes or rain as rare as snow in to the thrumming rain.

The Streaks of Smile

Every word of earthly blues so musing Like that of mist in the morning delight Falling upon the petals of rose shining That slumps with a rhythm all reveling.

When i put a gleam drooping upon the stance whisking unto the love ageless That smooches my whole being and me Touching me and my universe distracting.

out of attrition when I search me and mine the interior being cuddled on the lap within Gesture starts faltering imbecile and unrifled Once where upon I find the genesis of smile.

From deep within though unconcerned of all Yet at its unplumbed depth evoking thoughts Nothing but love provoking of golden verse That plummets to the soul infinite without.

The moments of the days lapsed out of love That once Installed in me all the whites And promised me tuneful streaks of smile Beyond and without all tyrannies of time.

Dr subhendu kar

THE TIME DEEP AND INFINITE

The time deep and infinite across its endless wide corridor over powers all, the sky and seas being poised upon land and life.

Was it not I who made the history of love over the milieu of millennia, through the ages and eons embarking was it not u who made me hero to dance upon the dunes peeving my swords wild in deep darkness.

.where i cajoled with u for million's blood being deflected out like swings over edges of my thirsty knives,

as time changes
am i not the same -me
who muses in glaze and glitters for the passions being distracted.

lest be not depriving in jittery with strands of interludes when i smooch my soul beyond and beneath beckoning.

oh the time deep and infinite like silken skin beauty shimmering that opens up the secrets of love in the midst of silence cascading.

when i look back in anger all my dwarf shadows seem blithering into the fluxion flitting deep in to the air blubbering.

Dr subhendu kar

THE TOOLS OF LOVE

The lofty tools that opens all the secrets of love coursed in delusion Reasoned to the nursery rhymes rambling wrapped apart.

as it paps across the beauty intemperate bedecking Falling from the roof top frisky across the plume.

And art yet to flows to delve deeper into the blue moon As revered by the love in all its honors yet in blue.

Winking into the love as the eyes benumbed true As I look back in anger befuddled when disowned by the blue.

Dr subhendu kar

THE TUNES OF LOVE

As I love your tunes in my heart To make me ramble over the passion To be in the dream by your arms just as the moon in the midst of the sky.

love seems true by the novels of night just as the blue of deep sea and the sky I croon to knock the door to your dream when you whisper me the art of love.

as my thrills to be in unison with the blood through the plexus of love and bristling fire throttling across the desire as lightening when darkness latches on to the night.

when endeared by the gleams of the love as glimmered by the light of the faith the grace when braced upon by the bliss you seem to hide behind the deep clouds as night reasons me to be in your side with your glaze when sparkling like dew time as wrought by the beauty ineffable muses when shined as verse distracting

Dr subhendu kar

THE VEIL OF TUNES

wonder when descends with desire passion rarest of rare by the dreams tower when touches the sky you smile behind the veil of tunes life when brims blue by the blooming the faith of love yet reasons true moon still comes by the full moon joy yet breaths faster bailing the fears truth still stands like mile stone it is news in the next door hold on i may reach you sweet dreams when swaddles across deep night seems to swoon by the bliss dream when respire by the new born mighty soldier walks with all its arms life burns brilliant by the symphony

TIME IN ITS OWN TONE

as time moves on by the hours we are all in between the milestones the love of matrix by the dichotomy birth and death when destined as ordained in our space and time to rave up as we trudge by sun when rising onto the setting the dream's nightmare when bestirred time changes by the ages the dusts slowly settles into the oblivion simply the history in ages and eons from silurian to this day when riling we would simply be racked up heartless in its archives yet with breathless breath eternity when sways away in its own way embracing the memories by its own tone moon yet bedazzles beyond top of hill dream seems to be stunning in blue the world yet breaths slowly all through the eons as we would all mingle to the sands of time

Dr subhendu kar

TIME YET INTIMATE

let us be happy where ever you are be in the dawn or dusk even in wee hours yet be in mid hours of sun scorching even being frazzled within bit austere.

lest be covered by the waves of the sea when soiled by dusts of land flouncing even in thin air of touching the moon yet spreading over time may be detrop.

as is all the same as you believe in the faith of love rhyming the tunes yet in embracing the seeming own ness protracting seem less in your acceptance as intimate as hours thought of yours.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE

To be not to be as it would have been as on today or some other day to tell you the truth of faith yet known or unknown yet unified.

as i know you yet unreasoned that reasoned you to reason out the truth of knowing the earth might be the reek of anger in knowing or bedecked by the mystery of silence when embarked upon a dew of the night as petals smile that blooms in whorl of rose delved from deep crowd when braced up by the truth in resilience of a gleam as glamoured by the graceful glaze that yet happens to happen to know you when peppered by the beauty as razz ling in rain as to know you from a depth of crowd when coursed from the silence blue as waves of the sea splashing over flairs of moon sneaking into silhouette yet revered by wakes of new moon.

TO WHOM TO ANSWER THE QUERY

To whom to answer for the query Being eclectic & attenuated to time I emerged to a occasion irresistible When curtain would rise to their blues.

I nodded being obliged to the promise Set forth on to the stream slithering Beyond the horizon exotically toned Just because to the need of my will.

They may break up someday willfully Tempering my willy nillyl gesture imbecile When their query outweighs their will They may beat them down fiercely frown.

All their dreams when finds all in the clay A savoury unmasked that precipitates amazing To make them all lone birds blubbering To tune to my shoved off query in answering

As on time I am still alive imbecile In the hands of time yet detracting Blurted out to all the blues deflecting To my horizon once you asked for seafaring.

but to all our queries we made to each other either we all are not dead or alive together since we don't smack of being in wanderlust to the millions of questions relaxed in. prescience

As on time, we are all here within vanishings Amidst the stream ever flowing to the promise Made to each other all the while pervading When all, the dark night & white day begin to withering.

TODAY IS THE DAY! ! !

It is too late!
Tea cup on the table Yet hurried through the news headlines Is it holiday! ! yes /no Never relishes by the answer

You come across the table Searching from me from certain unknowable When promised by even the moon Somebody with their queries Drops in Yet bitterly sweet by their guiles Riling me by the brow Forget to remember the tunes in me

School time!
the musics of day to day affair Papa get ready, still I am late Ok I am there waiting you River flows by the summer Again you call me by your thought When I seem to be lost by the dreams by inner messages thrums

Time flashes and spills by the moments when undesired Evening twinkles through half opened door And you snigger by your mute lips triggered from half opened veil.

TRUIMPH OF LOVE

As I see her crooning yet in quiescence in the corridors of tears reeling roused quipping high yet stirred by the glooms of rage when cooed as veil of tears being soused when we trudge with reeks of anger as flouncing the light of love heaving apart as petals of rose roughed out from the stock yet gentle drifting apart seemingly doused, quietened as love of faith seems flossed to fear, as the faith of love never yet be bemused coursed intoned even truncated by the riff of rage as the light of smooching muses with mirth and triumph of love as quinessence when conquered

TRUST WHEN INTENSE

As when love eternal as flowing Dazzles blue by the faith of truth deeper yet ripples either And transcended by the bliss as mystery of love as the myth When yet reasoned by the rainbow as revered by the faith of God All placid into the trust Seems by the trust intense alone.

the lonely ship when floats in night in the midst of deep sea in its direction taking all its fathom by the depth reeling by the waves in its room as it happen when does as intoned fizzles by the fear when fledged in the mute corridors of silence as the eternal swing as in spring neither from impulsion it smacks nor by the compulsion it glues but by the inner whispers it blooms as latching on to the one another yet unknown to the mortal glance as reviewed from beyond and beneath As the clouds come raining the grins over the greens slushig the sorrow

TUNES OF TEAR

Sun when draws its curtain deep at the quoin silhouetted by the shattered tunes of oozing tears as when bemused across the shadow of the ruins leaf yet falling apart from the pitted green Still I hear those slogging voices of ill-fated ruefully holding their hopes by the shadow against the hanging walls of burning Hiroshima across the dirty hands of the wild flames when reeks of anger swells in them the blood when stars to defuse by the fire the man when refuses the love to blend the anguish as relative as when intoned earth still descends apprehended beyond the faith the birds in sky, the tigers in the forest yet roar by the time when disowned to their silence by the void even by the fragments of suffocation as stink ling embracing the sorrow when distraught and demurred by the hoary will as wedded to the malice of the insane of those who never thought of their own waterloo yet rebounds with tears of blood spilling over their faces as when bruised by the speechless sorrow of their innocence when pierced through their texts of lives when surmised by the pains

soul rejoices by enlightened grace,

as the skin of love inebriates by Midas touch

halcyon meanders beyond bitten by moments

VOICES BEYOND

I would not sleep a wink being succumbed to temptation And I would not hide from you Of burning inferno me within.

Fretfully I spent from crying In time deep infinite, inexhaustible Living being luminous in-between The two milestones all apart agile.

In totality, it scalloped unwholesome In a style designed evergreen, intimate When body contracts into bolus anguish moment unequalled, latching on to the voices beyond

VOICES WHEN MYTH BY OWN GOD

A summer evening in a tribal home dream when incarnated by the flute The youth of the blood shines bright text of the breath when entreated upon dazzling milestone for the weary travelers

Yet it expands into the rhythm idyll embracing the grief by leaf of reeling green Sweating rancor by the call of the iffy vale Breath respire by own reason yet bequeathed hardly when hurried felt or heard ever Fear or thrills as reasons never wrought

I simply embark upon their flux of smiles Fear when flossed by the truth as intoned

Mirth when ramifies to its room of reason Yet the dew falls by the night's dream Knowing all reasons of survival sovereign Still they love to lie low by their lone gods as voices slowly expends into mystic within

knowing everything's yet has its own god Looking to the door lest the sky above
voices when myth by their own god.

VOICES WHEN WHISPER voices still whisper waves oceanic razz ling by the warmth of the sun.

the morning delight standing on the beach looking to the golden plumes as if locked into the plexus yet the moon as dappled in white and blue sitting by lattice of your window looking to the horizon as I am betwixt of time and sea as the blue sea as waking seem to keep us yet apart from all universe's blues still revered by their gleams when I put my palm as glimmered by your smiles mingling within verses of you love beauty when delves deep with your blazing banner as the crown I simply take a bow to your gleams of love as night marches with all its mercenaries even with drizzles of black dusts onto last speckle of the whispers the moons of the moments I latch on to as the smacks of fear loom large when the promises of the tryst shine lest darkness vile of the night may whet the blue by the fire.

WHEN EYES BECKONING

Beamed beneath sunshine arrows
As I see me through the mirror I am swallowed by its scoffing silver Against the time bitterly truthful

But still I do remember my dream When you sneak to me unnoticed And my totality redeemed and rocked up Reflecting upon my soul yet unfazed.

That reflexes into my eyes rolling upon silver screen to your whole being divine.
Each speckle of your passion unveils my desire Like a fountain in to the eternal spring.

And I see you in golden shadow Dazzling over my dream steeped in mist As if to rave up my heart- universe Battered by love sweetened in acceptance.

As the sun could not shine through I stooped over my love disheveled Across the lake of my remembrance Making me detracting apart and alone.

You reach me in your quest of moon Shining in tears of laughter and joy Impaling the clouds- the pangs of pain you shine bright through when eyes beckoning.

WHEN TIME TAUGHT ME

When time taught me the quantum of zero and universe Unto my swings of stance across the wings of tears slashed Rolling to my dream gracefully high at some weird moments When my crumbling fear melts down to the mist of smiles.

As I stood with the raved up feelings in mute undertones Under the shadow of time shuddering to the stress of test On the lap of my mother's dream flapping ambiently to learn a language of living unfettered yet unveiled as yet I do not. reason out the reason of my will sullen under the soulful seafaring unfazed as I see fretfully when all my senses gathered upon for willful nectar being relished upon the notch of gesture amidst the crowd.

as I stoop upon the sacred image of my god within To quench all my unconcerned thirst ever empowered Like crystals sweet smiling falling over my muse innate Hedging upon the garden around while reading own language.

WIND WHEN BETIDES

goodbye when poignant in the valley of the tunes morning never be the wishing by the tea cup breeze when passes by the desire for trudging the top hill hope yet slakes by the swing to touch moon or the sea passion when exalts the freedom by the glow purpose never be defeated by the brave man gallant soldier still remembers his night by the home the fight yet rigid in the frame of iron across the bayonet it is not the cupboard love that you left the home near and dear ones when remember with the grimaces blood still intones by the vain never being saddled shadow yet cuts the glow by the heedless haze greens when surmise the sorrow by the mainstay I will not be the same man as I am by the flame yet the gray hair falling to the ground by the age hedge still betiding of the the hours by the tears askance glares the lamp post by bequesting the glow the curve of smile when meanders away by the mirror I will just remember the days embracing the pages History still loves the brave soldiers who fight the games

WINDOW ON THE WORLD

As in my absence you left the earthly land when I was primed with all my earthly sane when I smiled with joy across your voices cuckoo As law when truth absolute bound by the Godly frames.

as when your whispers dazzled me across grief when clasps me as you bade the finale farewell when ruefully rasping me saddened heart when remorse by the blood seeming white rose when frosted and wind when chilled yet the sorrow contradicts the faith of love truth of love when belied by the belief in trust clouds when shadowed by the warmth of sun moons when refluxing upon by the dew of the earth as you mingled into the dusts ultimate divine still I hear your voices melodious in my ear yet it reverberates as if the bloods to tear yet I didn't see your rave up on shore in repose but I do embrace the sands melting you above as I blaze the tribute to your soul eternal your semblance being cradled by blissful swings blessing when ordained by the heavenly desire as your love was true to your words sanguine even all odds and oddities resourced against your will as your belief of faith braced up by the truth absolute and you simply disappeared by His trust in truth when I opened my window on the world looking into the moonlit night yet alone flapping its wings in to the reek of rain.

lest lost to the dreams as lone looking to the hue high yet empty,
