Angels

I asked the angels to look over you
To shield you with their wings
Like a dying rose withers and a sinner has sinned
Both entering the darkness... both beginning an end
So then I asked the angels to shield you with their wings

I prayed to the heavens to stop your tears of pain
Like a silent warrior they cannot be seen
Your tears are flowing like rain
You've tried to cover them with laughter
So then I asked the angels to please
Please shield you with their wings
And to take away your pain

I wished on the stars to keep you safe
Away for the darkness devouring life, away from evil
Corruption and hate
Your soul pure and your heart more beautiful
Than when an angel sings
Once again I asked the angels to shield
You with their wings

Now there will come a time when you feel
The presence of nothing
There will come a time when you feel that you're falling
There will come a time that you feel your angel has fallen
Fallen from broken wings

I will not ask the heavens and I will not ask upon the stars
But never fear an angel will not be far
Do not fear the darkness nor solitude when it sings
For I will be your angel and I will shield you with my wings

Someone once said to me,
"I never felt the presence of an angel"
Look into the heart and soul of your true friends
And there you will find angels shielding
You with their wings

You were there when I needed a mate. You were there when I needed a shoulder to cry on. You were there when I was making mistakes. You were there when we were having good and bad times. You were there when I needed to be told I was going wrong. You were there when I needed help. You were there when I needed the light to go the right way. You were there when I needed someone to talk to. You were there when I needed advice on how to be a good mate and to you and others. You were there when I had to talk about things that no one would understand my difficulty. You were there when I needed some gossip. You were there when we can look back on, things and laugh at our mistakes together. You were there when I regretted the mistakes I made in the past. You were that's and all I needed and hopefully we'll stand together, as strong as each day, goes on. Lets keep it that way, from now until the time is though.

Can't let go

Your right, I cant let go of you. Even though I try with my heart and its love it has for you, it wont let me. I try so badly it hurts, its not fair. Its not my fault my heart skips a few beats when I think or see you! ! I act like a right fool when I'm round you, dont I? ! I do, try to be normal, but its so hard when a 5 letter word gets whispered into my ear. My emotions react differently when they hear your voice. I see your blue eyes and I feel like I've fallen back in the 'sea of love.' I hate a 'crush' on you, maybe you should have one and maybe you'll know what I mean! ? Every night I see you in my dreams, its the only time I can smile. I'm laying here and picture you in my mind. I can smell and taste you but, I cant touch you as if I knew I would be dreaming. You seem so close but yet so far. My heart and mind has numbed my feelings towards you, sorry if you dont get this!

Friends forever

FRIENDS are like balloons once you let them go, you can't ever bring them back. That's why I'll tie you tight to my HEART, because you're too precious to lose.

Whenever you need a friend. To always lend a helping hand, when you're feeling lonely, when you're feeling down. Just remember we can turn your world around.

Have you ever had a friend that never lets you down right by your side? Every night and day, always hear you calling or catch when you're falling. Or have them show you the way.

True friends are made for a lifetime, true friends last forever. There was never any doubt through the night, now its time to get things right. Together you and I will go far, you'll always been here in my heart. Friends like you are hard to find that's why I'm glad you're mine.

You ask me, who's life is better mine or yours? I reply mine, you walk away not knowing, you're the most important thing in my life.

Another summer, another winter, another day, another week and another year too. But there will never been another you.

Gone

I wish that I could talk to you,
and tell you how I feel.
I wish that this never happened,
because I still cannot seem to deal.

We were best friends forever,
Betty and Wilma is what they said,
but how does that duo continue,
if half of the whole is dead?

Who is supposed to laugh with me, at all of our little jokes?
Who is supposed to cry with me, at all of my broken hopes?

Who is supposed to understand,
all of my ups and downs?
Who is supposed to know,
when to leave or stick around?

I will always remember you,
and the good times that we had.
So rest in peace forever,
and be happy don't be sad.

Be happy cause I will see you,
when it's my time to go.
As I place a flower on your grave,
a reminder to let you know.

Lisa Harvey

Granddad

I saw you today and my mind has been away with the fairies ever since. I can't help but wonder, what if you left my life? Would I be different? Would I act the same? I think about you a lot to get and it takes a lot to get you out. You help me, when I need you the most. Thank you for everything you've done, even though we've got to know each other. You inspire me, to be the person I am today. You have shaped my life and you'll never know how much you mean to me.

Lisa Harvey

Guardian Angel

My Angel ever at my side how lovely you must be -
To leave your home in heaven,
to guard someone like me.
When I'm far away from home,
or maybe hard at work
I know you will protect me,
from harm along the way.
Your beautiful and shining face,
I see not, though you're near the sweetness of your lovely voice,
I cannot really hear.
When I pray, you're praying too,
your prayer is just for me.
But, when I sleep you never do,
you're watching over me.

Lisa Harvey

Have you ever felt like this?

Have you ever, had butterflies round that special someone? Have you ever, been lost for words when they're near? Have you ever, felt like you can touch the stars? Have you ever, felt like there's nothing you can't beat? Have you ever, felt the world is beneath your feet? Is there a special song that reminds you of them? Do you ever think what will they, feel if you told them this? Do you ever think, I wonder what they're doing? Do you ever think, I wonder what they're thinking? Do you wonder, will they feel the same back? Do you ever try to get to sleep, but you can't as they're there on your mind? Do you smile or draw a tear, when you think of them?

I know what this feeling is. As I feel it when you're near me or far away. I thought I'll write it down in a letter as I'm too shy to say to you. So how would you feel if I told you? Would you run and hide? Or would you stay?

Lisa Harvey

I'm sorry

I didn't mean to make you upset, I didn't mean to lose you, you're my best friend and I never want to lose you. I will always care for you because you treated me like I treated you, I will be there for you cuz you always there for me I will always help you through good & bad times cuz, you did the same.

The time has come for us to part but holding close sweet, happy memories of the times we shared together but no matter what you'll always be my best friend, I don't wanna lose you as a best friend I want you to be there because you was I was there for you.

I don't want to argue, fight and not talk any more I want to be friends again because I was silly in the past, I know that we might we never talk again but you have made a difference in my life and I would never change that.

You may hate me but I know deep inside that you miss as your friend but you don't want to show me because you're scared what the result will end like but I will always treat you the same but I don't wanna lose you cuz, my best friend I want to friends again but you don't.

I will never regret the day that we met & became friends because that's something I can look back on remembers & sees how much my life has changed. Please show me how to become friends again because I need some lessons on that but I will always remember that everyone needs a best friend. Sometimes it might feel like you have no friends at all, but always remember I tried to be your friend but you ignored me so I wasted my time trying to become friends again.

Lies

What does a lie actually mean? Does it mean you're not honest? Does it mean you give a wrong impression? Does it mean you lie for some attention? I don't know what a lie is, but I do we all do it for one thing or another. We all tell lies to get us out of tough situations, but what if we tell them too often and they get us into more trouble than before. You all moan at each other for lying to your so-called 'friends' but what if they lie to you. And then you tell them to stop lying and they drag up the past and the same old lies from the past. You lied far too often so I can't tell the truth from the wrong, so why cant you understand I don't want to talk to you anymore. I may have lied in the past but that's in the past but that's in the past get over it. But you're lying to my face; I can tell because you aren't even talking you're shouting the odds. 'Oh you lied about this, you lied about that. So why do you think you're so perfect?' Listen to me, yes I know I lied but it's in the past where it should stay. You don't give up with the old, boring same lies so fucking just leave the past in the past. I know aint perfect but am I complaining though? ! So now tell me again what a lie is? ! What's that I can't hear you? ! Oh, my word you cant because you've heard the truth for the first time in a long time! !

Love hurts

I'm 17 and I've had my heart broken so many times. All the boys I've ever loved have never felt the same back. I get all loved up and then before I know it, I get left heart broken again. I've never been lucky in love, just like sand, love slips through my fingers. I can't stand having my heart broken so should I stay single for the rest of life? ! I don't like people walking past me holding hands and being in love. I pray to God that my knight in shining armour will come and rescue me from my dreams. It's killing me inside that you don't feel that you don't feel don't feel the same back. I don't love anyone but you. I'm laying here on my bed; it's so quiet I can hear my broken heart mend its self-back together again. BUT not for long as it will be broken once again. I promised myself I wouldn't cry this time, but I can't help it if it hurts. My heart has been broken so many times I cant help but cry, so forgive me if I do. My heart is 90% glue and still trying mend, I'm still here why aren't you.

Lisa Harvey

My first true love

I wish I could tell you how much you mean to me but I'm shy to say 'I love you and you're my world and you mean so much to me.' I've never had someone to love because a girl like never someone to love me. I don't wanna be on my own any more I want someone to care and love me for who I am. I'm all-alone with no-one by my side at night to hold me tight and call me theirs and love me right. You're the only one I only wanna love and care for. If only you could see how much you mean to me, you only think I'm of a friend why can't you see I do love you and why can't you see that. Every breath and step I take I realise you'll never be mine; I know one day you'll be mine and when will that day be? I need you here to help me stand tall to pick me up whenever I fall. To hold my hand when I'm feeling bad. To make me smile when I'm feeling sad. To pick me up when I'm feeling down. To be the one to turn my life around. To be there whenever I come home. To make me never feel alone. To make me feel happy when I cry. To always be there for me and never say goodbye. I need you so much and I really wish you knew. That every second of the day I'm thinking of you! Why can't you see I need you beside me and not far on the other side when you can't see me? ? When I'm ill or feeling down you're my only cure, you'll never know how much I love you I'll just stand by and watch you walk by. Have I gone crazy? I want to shout the heavens 'I love you' but everyone think I'm some crazy girl who has another crush. I never thought I could love someone - the way I love you. Your voice is the sound of peace, which everyone needs to hear. You make the world a better place and no one has anything to fear. Your voice is the sound of life everyone must have one. Without the sound of an angel the future would all be gone. And now she suffers from the loss and pain. Knowing she will never see him again. Only when she closes her eyes, she will feel the love that never dies. Maybe one day it will all come true and then she will tell you how much she's in love with you!

Lisa Harvey

Strange love

Have you ever loved someone so much it hurts? Or tried letting go of something precious? Love is such a strange thing that makes people act weird. I love you so much but you're the only one who'll never know the truth. I'm gonna draw a circle round you; I can't draw a heart because this heart can be broken but, this circle can go on forever! ! I just want to hear the three words from you to know you feel the same way about me. I know we'll never be together but in my heart and dreams we will be. You're my only cure when I'm ill and you're the only one I could ever love. I've tried so much to get over you but this heart of mine still holds on, why can't I let go? I think of you and smile you think of me as just a friend how can I hide my true feelings. How can I pretend how do you expect me to pretend that I don't love you my mind is telling me to let go but my heart its telling me not too. Seriously now this is from the heart. I don't want to lose you don't want us to be apart. I know you think I'm kidding but honestly I'm not my eyes fill up with tears my love for you... never forgot. People say a true love never dies and your meant to be that true love forever, it might of happened for them but it hasn't happened for me! ! How can I tell you what I feel for you? When I think of you my feelings twist inside as if someone's fist reached in and grabbed a few, and turned and turned them tight and tangled. I've tried somehow to say: You're the sun in my sky. The wind that takes me where I want to go. The sweet incense that makes me feels so high. That loving you seems all I need to know. But it all sticks in my throat! It sounds too cute, empty as a wrinkled paper bag. You won't believe it! Better I stay mute than offer you cliches that make you gag. Yet I wish to tell you of my love, if only love its own locks would remove!

Lisa Harvey

The truth

If God really does care and love, then why does he take our love ones? Is it 'cause it's their time to go? But what if they've not lived life? Now I've always been told to speak my mind and now I'm doing it, I'm being told to shut up 'cause you don't like the truth that I speak. If you don't like what I'm talking then why are you covering your ears for? Scared the truth will soon catch you up and hunt you down. Don't look away when I'm talking to you, yes you know I'm talking to you. Something's are better left un-said, but this needs to be told before someone else has a go at you, for not listening.

Lisa Harvey

Time

I look in the mirror and wonder, where did the time go? Last time I checked I saw a little girl and now, I see a young woman getting old with each second ticking by, and its going pretty quick.

Some people treat me like the little girl I once saw. They don't tell me stuff or trusting me. Or telling me I'm immature because, I'm acting childish.

While other people are telling me, to be the young woman. Telling me what's expected at my age.

People cover my eyes and ears so I can't learn from my mistakes. So how can I learn from my right from my wrong?

Lisa Harvey

True feelings

You've been so distance, since I told you, my true feelings. I'm sorry for crying but how would you feel if someone just rejected your heart? Do you remember that promise I made you? Well, I promised that I wouldn't keep secrets from you. We need a break from each other, but how can two people who hardly talk have a break? ! It might seem like a stupid question but, it needs a serious answer! When I see you I put a lock on my heart but it still manages to escape. It goes to my throat thats why I cant talk when your around. I look forward to the days that I'm going to see you as they make me smile. I just got a text from you telling me you're sorry and you'll treat me better. How do I know your being honest with me? !

Lisa Harvey

What's happening

In this world, we all make mistakes, take wrong paths and do things that we all regret! Sometimes life only gives us one chance to make do the right decisions, so why does it feel I've made the wrong decisions? Something in heart of mine is making holding back so I cannot let go of these mistakes and things I now in life I regret is this trying to teach me something! ! Go back in time if you can and see what you did wrong if only I could, I would but still, the memories still live on. Basically what do you if you know if know something is wrong and you can't walk away! ! I walk up and down these streets, alleys and now I'm at the crossroads should I carry on, or left or right? ? Or maybe should I go back where I came from back to mistakes and back everything I did wrong? ! People say listen to the ones you love cause they're the ones to know about every mistake and wrong mistake you make but what if they are not there to see you through the wrong! ! I'm gonna move on let go of these broken promises I've hold to long inside and tell everyone what I really think of them so I don't have hold it in anymore! God created you, me and everything that lives and dies. Lately I've begin to notice that people are killing each other to stay alive or feed their addictions. There are loads of distractions in life: drugs, racism, bullies, thieves, and killers alcohol that puts peoples' life at risk. In life you can never tell your enemies from friends. There are to many two- faced bitches on the world and you can never tell who's on your side. Things can never be the same again after you find out the truth, about LIFE

Lisa Harvey

Why

I thought we would be together until the very end. But then you let go, I tried to grab your hand but it's too far. I walk away feeling like something or someone has taken away with my heart. And all I can feel is loss and pain; my eyes are sting again tonight. Now all I see is something I pretend to be, but does it show? ! If you look into my eyes you'll see a story or even a few lies to the fake smile I wear. I've tried so much to be a person I'm not and it didn't get me. Why did I pretend? Why did my heart have to go? Why did I lie? My heart has been beaten and bruised but it still tries to carry on even though it feels like there's not much hope left! I don't want to pretend to be someone I'm not, you stood behind me.

Lisa Harvey

Will

will you be there when I fall?
will you be there when I need a friend?
will you be there when I need some advice?
will you pick me up if I fall on my face?
will we be friends until the end?
will we still be friends even if we fall out?
willl you be there?

Lisa Harvey

You're important

Don't say you're not important,
It simply isn't true,
The fact that you were born,
Is proof, God has a plan for you.

The path may seem unclear right now,
But one day you will see,
That all that came before,
Was truly meant to be.

God wrote the book that is your life,
That's all you need to know.
Each day that you are living,
Was written long ago.

God only writes best sellers,
So be proud of who you are,
Your character is important,
In this book you are the 'Star.'

Enjoy the novel as it reads,
It will stand throughout the ages,
Savor each chapter as you go,
Taking time to turn the pages.
