' Wise One Is Only an Evolved Fool'

Truth is beyond reach of man with ego.
when ego at center as bright as star, planets revolving around it are desire, anger, pride, jealousy and envy!

Narrow will be mind, visions and words distorted, unless intelligence and reasoning balanced.
The seeker of truth bold to turn all stones with faith.
Logic and 'Viveka', ability to separate false and truth!

Kindness and love follows viveka as ethics.
when one sheds off ego, never care critics, His reasoning points its finger towards himself he finds nothing as truth, in search of own self!

Infinitesimal life span of one's body and mind, Eternal life span of universe in contrast, brings knowledge of oneness of life every kind, love and kindness flow out of his heart at last, Knowing that a ' wise one is only an evolved fool' he can bear with (or accept) other's foolishness.

A Scientist and A Poet!

Strange are these men, people can enjoy their work, one can't compare these, but let us try and enjoy!

Scientist and Poet,
One studies the worlds,
And another studies words,
Both can be above human mind,
One play with his logic and another plays word magic!

Both scientists and Poets, Meditate,
One upon his experiments,
And another upon mind,
One studies cause and effect in this world,
Another studies love and affectation of world!

One take pains work for some purpose, Another can lie under the nose,
Both stumble on luck,
Scientist discovers a truth,
Poet always plays with so many of them!

A Song of Einstein!

No one is absolute,
No one can predict what is truth,
All theories are obsolete when new one come,
Theories after theories,
What they add to our knowledge,
Only possibilities of truth, Faulty or erroneous,
Only keep interest and enthusiasm alive!

Theories are the logical and reasoning to predict what we can't think!

But how a theory can be built without a thought,
And a single wave of thought is enough to spoil all!
Like the pickle get spoilt with single dropp of impurity!

Any theory to be put into test,
By intellects and fools alike,
When fools scream something,
Intellects become deaf or act as wise deaf,
When intellect say something,
Their voice is misunderstood, Faith and belief are such a cheat,
Which can poison any mind!

What is use of all theories,
What will going to change,
If not man understand, theories are made for men,
And not for any living being,
One who knew how to live,
Why to live and what is purpose of life,
All theories are waste,
Just one more to add to the junk scrap,
And wondering monkey mind to play with!

'Stupidity in men and universe are infinite, but I doubt the universe! '

Surely infinite is stupidity in men,
They never thought of me, whether this Einstein is one among them,
Or something different?
If they start think in right way, they find they are stupid children playing with pebbles when heap of pearls and diamonds hidden by Lord in man's own heart, Under the veil of stupidity and idiocy,
There lies the treasure, Theories are not,
but the infinite pleasure,
I know this for sure!

Accept what You can't Change!

If sun is too hot, accept it,
It is summer, drink water when thirsty, one can at most keep himself cool, Not the entire world!

If it is raining heavy,
Either open your umbrella,
Or just move under roof, One can't spread umbrella,
Over whole world!

If it is chilling cold of winter,
Falling snow make you sure,
Wear a coat or move near fireplace, One can't burn whole towns or forest to keep whole world warm!
learn limits of temporal soul, bear it, accept it and live, Happy with your own, Hurricanes and storms, Tempests or drought, one has to transcend, Transforming his own,
May whatever fight one has to fight, Greatest is that fight, fight against own,
Greatest fight ever fought!

May it to fight for living, may it to change something,
Or may to accept things,
The fight is always on, Fight of Self against non self, fight of sense against nonsense,
If one wants to live fightless, Live to learn to find sense in nonsense, nonsense or sense that all is in you, Chose to fight or to surrender,
One has to pay for what willfully done,
Need not pay for what is natural!

Action in Inaction, understand Inaction in Action

Alas..
My own difference and lack of confidence,
Or may be unwillingness,
May be negligence or may be indifference, Accompanied with laziness says..
I Won't Do it or I can't do it..!!!`

My own necessities,
My own requirements,
my own thoughts and motives compel me to say,
I Want to Do It` :

My own self assessment,
My own speculations,
My own gained confidence, Shaken by unknown fears, or expectations of unknown consequences say,
I Can't Do It`

My own jovial and casual nature, Mixed with curiosity and self interest,
My own desire to survive say,
I Will Try To Do It` :

My own ignorance,
My own insufficient knowledge, Insufficient experience Incompetent attitude say,
How Do I Do It`

My own self,
my own interests,
My own confidence
My love and necessities say,
I Can Do It..
My own determination,
My own will power,
My own arrogance,
My own decision My own preparedness
say,
I Will Do It..

And the result is...
Yes.. I Did It..!!!

Each day If I move towards,
Infinite self or the bigger self in me,
The gigantic and potential selfless doer in me, I love Him and believe in his guidance, no need of those steps above mentioned, Only work without ambitions, Action in inaction,

Inaction in action is understood well!

Ah, Sun of Knowledge, Never Sets!

The Sun rises on my place will Shine, but gives way to darkness on someothers place, Earth when moves one face to get daylight, Another face she moves into darkness

Rised Sun has to set,
And set Sun has to rise.

But rise of Sun brings light, Gives way to darkness when set!

Sun of knowledge rise in one heart Will never set,
Simply glow here bright,
And pass from one heart to another,
Just as love radiated, Never emptied in one heart, but fills other hearts too!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

All Creations Are Bigot Of Astral Fluid!

Look at creations, that found temporal,
All Creation Is Begot Of Astral-Fluid,
That fluid which is superfine, Thinner than vacuum, Brilliant than all brilliance put together!
Stand still filling universe,
And Super wise to supervise,
That I or you are bigot of that fluid!

Let learned learn to understand,
Let him learn something,
Learning has no end,
Each word learnt is a dropp of that fluid,
I am that superfine, super wise fluid,
Never flow, but supervise the wave,
The wave of own thought and deed in that still fluid!

That story of Astral fluid written by itself, Written on itself,
Distorted it looks with every wave!
Same thought is represented indifferent language, Causes interference,
Some may understand and some cannot,
Most dangerous are those who understand more, but with their own colour and distorted design!
It would be better to resign, than spoil divine design!

How for the sure God is there,
But one when raises his self,
God will ask him 'what is your chisel, What is the material which,
how you like to carve, What are your desires dear,
I will write your fate as you wish! '

But more clever is that man who sees,
His ego first through which he see The GOD!

He says to God, 'Thanks dear, Stop cheating yourself,
I know for sure I and you are one,
I have to pay for my wish,
You write my fate, but on which slate,
It is my ego on which you write,
Cause and effect will strike and writes another part,
What ever you wish to write, thou art my self that has to face the fate!

My friend sang...

Alas..! Then the learned would learn to behave.

My writings, in certitude of forte at mind' MINE` are beautiful source of text, an imponderable hymn, deliverance of a polymathic understanding in rhythm, imbuing inner'self to realize a Knowledge' DIVINE` Knowledge is Being of God... what I call 'Astral-Fluid' Indeed what science calls it... a fluid SUPERFINE`

Ramdas Bhandarkar

All Depends on Mind!

A small dust in one's eye can hide whole world, Every impression depends on how clear one's eyes are,
And how clear the line of vision is, Because even a small leaf near eye can hide even the distant Sun! A feeble voice nearest to ears can hide a distant loud voice! Life is the record of impressions and expressions,
More than that is,
Way of communication and confrontations with connotations, Encounters of truth and false!
Blinding our eyes with our own dust,
Or by covering eyes with our own colour, eyes are helpless, as helpless as any useful device, misused!
Senses are independent of one another,
Yet they are confederate,
Mind is the the governor,
Soul is the king!
May these senses obey or conspire, Impressions on the mind, Expressions of mind,
Misunderstanding is far dangerous than not understanding, Reports of Governor are decisive, lead or mislead the King,
But the raise and fall, Depends on how able the king is!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

All Is Fool's Paradise Here!

Life is journey in fools paradise,
Some may identify and look up, while most of us busy in playing, these withdraw to solitude, Search and gain ground!

Men here enjoy with pebbles and shells, find a mare's nest,
Than leave no stone upturned, Adventurous only hold the field,
And reach top!

Rather than hold water, most escape,
Only few take the test,
And win time tested Truths!

We have men of business here, some have their own business, some have laziness, Indifference makes lot of difference!

Danger of slipping into hell is more,
Walking along the path of life,
Keeping an on world and another on heaven,
But it may be a hard thing to achieve, Nothing is impossible to men of courage and talent!

Look how short lived our happiness is,
However strong and comfortable may be,
This world is momentary,
we are in illusions, Allusion will show nothing is real, Sustainable things not found here!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Almighty, Please Give Me Beautiful Heart!

When I look into your eyes, Reflected image of my being,
there I found my eyes,
My eyes found themselves in yours!

When your eyes shine,
How can I believe myself,
When my image is so small,
What growth may make me, great in your eyes?

I imagine what may be my size, if that small lens capture half world, Is image large when you are so near, your image cover whole world,
I can't see anything but you,
My eyes are blind to world!

But you look at the world, how much I can be In Your eyes dear?
I was able to lose myself,
Trying to find myself in you,
Is it love or simply a madness,
Am I mad with my own desire?

Your eyes captured my image,
But with eyes you captured my soul,
By being is lame,
It can't walk,
Only sit where it is,
Absorbed in own calculations, Absorbed in dreams and expectations,
My soul is not where it should be,
Gone out of my body,
It goes wherever you go,
Trying to measure your footsteps!

Strange enough, you are unmoved by me, Moved my soul, like unmoved mover of souls,
Is it love? If it is, then what is use of this love,
Is it only to make me feel strain?
is it only to add more pain?
Why can't Almighty, Give that beautiful heart,
Which can see and feel beloved within?
Please, Almighty, give me a beautiful heart!

Ambition of a Flower.

Flower tells to gardener:

'I need not be a flower in vase or jewel in crown,

Nor I want to be in bouquet presented to lover.

I need not be in hands of celebrities and stars those shine.

Throw me on street where bold dedicated men march to die for saving life, kind men busy in uplifting humanity! '

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Angels come as birds to Say Goodmorning!

An angel came as bird,
Sat wings folded, singing 'look it is time wake up.
it is morning that opens,
You are lawful inhabitant of this world, good,
you evolved as terrestrial, that life Confined to water as only aquatic,
Be not satisfied terrestrial, work like an ant,
But not confine and be satisfied to be an ant, just enjoy multidimensional universe, Look at space and stars and galaxies, Think about home celestial, breathing air, wandering and wondering here, Look at the distant goal!

Cleaning garbage of narrow thoughts, Filling heart with Ever growing love,
Come fly with me,
Find imagination and intelligence,
Wings that help and make you fly!

Found yourself in heart, Own and all hearts you see, billions of worlds living in own heart!

Come on let us fly to divine, Never you are limited Nothing can confine.
It is all easy,
if efforts are determined!

As You Look And As You Like it!

World is wonderful
and so are you,
If world is not wonderful,
Then so are you!

World is beautiful,
and so are you,
If world is not beautiful,
Then so are you!

World is mysterious
and so are you,
If world is not mysterious,
Then so are you,

World around is great
and so are you,
If not world around is great,
Then so are you,

World is full of desires
and so are you
If world is not full of desires,
And so are you.

World is full of love,
And So are you,
If world is not full of love,
Then so are you!

World is not stationary,
and so are you,
If World is not changing,
And so are you,

World is full of happiness,
And so are you,
If not it is full of happiness,
Then so are you!

Whatever you find in the world, so are you,

World smiles at you,
If you smile at it,
World finds you, if you find it, World likes you, if you like it And everything looks like
As you look and as you like it!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Ballarina's Soliloquy!

Lifting hands up and body stretched to full, balancing on tip of toe, Mind remaining still;
on own axis like Earth, spinning like a top, Looking at my tip of hands, I never like to stop!

Whenever mind sings, and heart dance,
I like to spin whenever I have a chance, Charging and discharging aurora of colorful light, by spin, diffusing tensions and generating beauty, charm as its twin!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Be a Guide of Innocent Child in Yourself

What we look at, and see what we are,
In my awakened awareness,
I saw the lotus and said, beautiful, Beautiful it became,
Looking at stone I said it is beautiful diamond,
And it looked beautiful,
Looking at Sun and universe, Looked as I found them in my mind!

When I was happy,
I found happiness everywhere,
When I am in pain,
I saw pain everywhere,
Life, nature and universe taught me,
They are my trinity of Gurus!
Be innocent in heart as innocent as learning kid!
but not an ignorant as ignorant as a fool!

Be full of kindness and mercy, but not open the gates of your heart, Beware of theft and deception,

Be a brave full of courage and valour,
But think about consequences,
Be humble and not a ruthless butcher!

This world helped you a lot,
Be helpful to needy,
But beware of greedy!

Learn from sages,
Renounce everything in own heart,
But never withdraw from social mainstream, Renunciation is mental process,
Not for the gimics and show Let in and out look alike, stay calm and cool!

Save wealth, health and morals,
Work more, plan well to earn more,
Be calculative, not being a miser, save more!

Be polite, know where to bend,
Where one should be flexible,
Never be slave to anything!
Be rigid but not brittle!

Make profit and let your profit be not loss to others,
Let profits never corrupt the mind!

Serve all, be a servant of none other than your own virtues,
Be selfless but not selfish!

Spend not for unnecessary, Money spent for good purpose is money earned! whatever that helps your progress is good purpose!

Help others without discrimination and reserve,
Only keep away from selfish people!

God has given senses and faculties, Use them well,
Intellect and reasoning,
Truth ascertained,
Think well, but never worry,
Talk well and good to all,
Yet be careful,
Never fall into traps and illusive words!

Be faithful and trust, but only after confirming Trustworthiness!

Self and awareness are so clear,
Only has to go through phases of life,
Safe journey needs precautions and preparations,
You may grow but not the child in you,
Guide it and be a better guide, know well about nature and world around!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Be Bold!

Be Bold!

Baked in the galactic furnace, projected with high velocity, through fire and lightning, crossing every field you are now here!

Thousand years of rain, withstanding hard tests, enduring action and reactions, floods and storms you are now here!

O formless one, passing through tunnel of death, nay, you are the input, you are the output setting recycling process units, on a mission you are now here!

raising and falling, recycled countless times, cycle after cycle, witnessed evolution of nature, it is not you evolved, but as reason for evolution, to help nature to evolve you are here now!

Look into your own written dairy, birth-less deathless are energy and matter, how can be death be there to their creator?
to fill breath into nature you are now here!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Be Ready Anytime To Receive Your Divine Guest!

To live one must take life, but to smile, need no one's tears, wide open heart is enough, no need of intoxication or blood to be happy, need only love and compassion.

One can swim across the oceans, but not across a dropp of one's tears, Believe not in curse, but believe in grace, keep heart clean and pure, fill it with trust
be ready anytime to receive your divine guest!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Be wise O, man!

O Man, think once again, be wise, whatever the change takes place, unless energy spent indiscriminately, neither reversible nor altered, once this Earth become hot Venus, no one can make it green again!

Isn't thy body and mind whatever raised from soil by light, uses light within,
before gets exhausted of precious resource, return to the source of light and become light!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Beautiful Are Eyes!

Sure, sure, it is true, eyes are windows,
Windows that opens the heart, mind and Soul,
To world around!

Beautiful eyes that see pain around,
And within see that pain, Enchanting peace of soul,
That eyes which see the Self Everywhere,
The eyes that are beautiful,
Only windows that bring the fresh air!

Eyes are beautiful that can see beyond,
And see beyond the world,
The world beyond heaven and hell hello hello namaste to all, Smiling lips add to its beauty,
That can keep it smile in all worlds!

Eyes that are beautiful,
That can see beloved everywhere,
The formless beloved in all forms, nicely packed in ugly or attractive packets,
Our beloved tests us,
Let the beautiful eyes show us the truth!
Eyes are beautiful not when they attract others,
But attracts with highest wisdom and knowledge, Eyes are beautiful when they radiate love and compassion!

Eyes are beautiful which shines with truth, Glow with cosmic intelligence, that has Infinite ocean of Self behind, The eyes that bornblind Surdas, Helen Keller, Louis Brail and many such had!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Beautiful Life, Beautiful!

Beautiful is life, beautiful,
So beautiful it will be,
With beloved share smile and laugh
When the one share his own,
Seeing and feeling not alone,
Not only sharing sorrow and happiness, Everything they feel and think,
But also sharing everything they eat and drink!

Sharing the same cloth,
Sharing all weight and burden,
Sharing the same umbrella,
In hot Sun and rain!

Sharing the weight of bag and luggage, Smiling together like kids of tender age!

Beautiful is life, beautiful,
When both stay together,
Lay together on Same cot, Drink from same pot, same room if they share,
Same eyes to look at things,
Same ears to listen to music,
Same taste in all and Everything,
Beautiful life, beautiful,

How beautiful mind is,
When heart sees sweet heart, we feel our beloved share Everything with, pain and sorrow,
But not the pain of heart, as we are so feeble that, we can't share his grief and sorrow
One day we will be with him and share his burden with ever lasting smile!

Beautiful life, beautiful will be, Beautiful days will be when I grow up to share his pain!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Beautiful Woman!

Beautiful like fresh flower, Beautiful with rainbows in eyes, Beautiful with shyness and smile,
beautiful woman!

Beautiful are the star like eyes Deeper than deepest ocean, Ocean of feelings and love, Beautiful is that motherly heart!

Beautiful woman thy beauty is thy compassion, Thy beauty is in patience and knowledge,
Thy beauty lies in flowerless lips with precious smile,

Beautiful woman, most abstract beauty,
Not that beauty felt by eyes Nor that skin or hair,
Not that grace or style, beautiful woman, you are the beauty!

Beautiful woman!
thy beauty shines
Moon in star studded sky, Thy beauty flashes with every turn of your neck to the call of child, like plant swing with perfumed flower in the garden

When that beauty of heart beautifully expressed!
Where her beauty lies,
Is it in her body or mind,
Or is it in her heart soft and kind?
Who wants to get stick or bind,
That's why women race fast leaving wondering men behind!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Beauty Of Eternal Truth!

Beauty radiated from eternal Truth, reflected in beholder's eyes, Beholder's eyes are eyes of eternal,
Empyrean looking at corporeal beauty,
Through mortal eyes, Creator appreciating His creation through,
Another creation,
Without which beauty has no admirer!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Beauty of God's Love!

The love of God is indefinable in beauty, no imperfections, perfectly perfect,
That enters heart,
Washes all grease of desires,
Cleans the mirror and lenses,
The radiation of Gods love tranmutate all,
Flows through the blood,
Enters all cells and corners of mind,
Light and love make a body feel light!

Then who cares for name and fame,
Where is world,
Where are words, shy and shame,
The name of Lord sung in every cell, Cell cells of body resonating AUM AUM,
The fragrance of divine love spread in the world,
Beauty of heart felt, opens thousand petal Lotus,
On which seated is billion Sun's bright, Radiating all over love's light!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Behind Every Gross Appearance Has Invisible Subtle!

Isn't it true neither moon nor universe, not even I or you are visible without the invisible in us.
Visible all are, only because of that more invisible in us! Behind every visible gross appearance, there is more invisible subtle appearance,
When we look at the picture,
We usually forget the canvas, When watching a TV program, usually we can't see how invisible electrons produce the image.

I cannot see my own face, just as God hides his face to us...
Therefore, could it be that we have one and the same face?

our face is one of His face, Yet as he can look at his other faces using one that he can't see,
We are looking at our other faces using this one, That we can't see,
This is the truth that The God uses this face to look at other faces! Yet we visible to that invisible, And we are visible only due to that invisible ground on which whole world play, World itself is visible face of that invisible face, Every life become visible only because of that who hides is face behind beauty and ugly faces alike!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Believe Me I Am Not Crying!

Like pearls pushed to shore by waves, tears appear at the corner of eyes,
They come up from unknown depth, When upward flow of emotions raise,
On the deep space of eyes,
Like stars they shine, Emptying inner space,
Like rain drops from clouds of love, They show up rainbow of feeling,
I am not crying,
Believe me, I am not crying,
It is thy love melted frozen feeling, Overwhelming joy make way through eyes,
Believe me, I am not crying, Only love eternal my heart is enjoying!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Between Birth and Death!

Between two shores, Birth and death,
Ignorance and knowledge,
Turmoil and peace,
Mortality and immortality,
There is the ocean of dualities!

The world of dualities,
It is the ocean with waves and tides, life is found there,
When energy and matter play, Soul is the player, stage is mind one is full of confusion!

Identification is what we need,
The world full of life, light eaters and life eaters, Autotrophs and Hetrotrophs, Life eating life,
are parasites or saprophytes, O, man what are we?
Listen to call of Drummer,
Who sent his ambassadors,
Listen to them,
You can cross the shores,
Take deep breath and stop,
See the spinning wheel at head's top,
Let silence be the meditation, Drum beats may pacify all!

Listen the eternal music,
The heart sing in you,
The lovely melody of love, that melody subside all dualities of ego!

Then with in you will ask yourself Hunger and thirst,
Desires and lust,
Needs and greeds,
Love and hate,
Is that all the life?

Your own mind answers you,
You have come a long way,
Look back, dream is over,
You had been there over and over,

You yourself made poorer and poorer,
You moved away from your throne on which you were not there long since!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Beware Of Soliloquy!

Try, try until Every practices become routine,
try, try until,
Every act becomes your Life style, fully digested, Assimilated, Runs with every heartbeat, Circulated as your own blood,
Let your blood lose all colour,
All odour and become distilled water, Boiled over furnace of indifference! Then comes a day, All that practices pay, All become inaction in action, Man with no soliloquy!
soliloquy is an act of ego, Ego is that stain of blood, That can't be wiped with blood itself, Be a thoughtless, Mindless ego,
Let it die!
yet mindful existence as nothing,
One remain,
No thoughts no soliloquy, Never even wish before, Grand silence of ego's death,
Never even celebrate or mourn, Let ego die without food and shelter,
Ego is shelter of ego itself, Never think words are mine and comments are yours,
Think your own voice recochet, Or bounces back as own echo!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Blind Is One, Who Said Love Is Blind!

Love is such great,
They say love is blind,
One who believe this, is a blind for sure As Love sees something, Which mortal eyes fail to see!

Love can see great things,
Where even wise fail to find,
Love is eternal and is infinite,
And it is boon from infinite, Love knows to give smile, and not to take, great is that love which sacrifice, Even Love for love's sake!

Love says,
' go my love, here you suffer,
Can't see your face dried by gloom, Go somewhere,
where you can bloom, or else I go somewhere to save our love '!

Love is that great, always grateful to love,
Great to be loved,
Even The Almighty,
bow before that love,
Which can flow as pure as mountain ice melt!

Great poet sang,
'With the Beloved's water of life, no illness remains

In the Beloved's rose garden of union, no thorn remains.

They say there is a window from one heart to another

How can there be a window where no wall remains? '

And inspired heart sings,
No water required,
As nothing can dry,
The roses of love,
And love is the bed of rose,
To that pair two bodies, one in love, one wipes the pain of another!

Souls union makes everything possible, it may look like perfume bed of roses, even if full of thorns

Rose is that heart,
Which even swallows pains,
When two souls become one,
All walls fall, all pains fail,

Fair their heart feel,
When two pair of hands wipe tears of one another!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Bonaparte Raise On Heap Of Bones Apart!

One NAPOLEON BONAPARTE, Raise above all,
Shattering million people's bones apart!

One Hitler can raise above all,
On foolishness of millions of butlers

One Christ can raise above all, If can raise above million thrusts of hunger, lust and thirst!

One Buddha can raise,
If he can remain completely Shuddha

One Ashoka can raise to become Ashoka, only on The heap of million HEART'S shoka!

One love symbol Taj Mahal can raise only on tombless graves millions of love!

One Shankara can raise, Killing one's Ahankara!

One Vivekananda can raise,
Finding the roots of Viveka and Ananda!

One SOUL can raise,
Only if can raise above
All that is untrue and thoughts that are foul!

AUM AUM AUM

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Bow Ramdas, Bow, Before Rainbow Of Truth!

Bow Ramdas bow,
Bow like a bow,
bow before Truth,
Bow before its rainbow,
Bow before the beauty of heart!

Bow before Truth,
Bow before wisdom's rainbow, Bow before beauty of self!

Bow Ramdas bow,
Bow before nature,
May be temporal or devine, Wherever Truth shine,
May in the eyes of a child,
Or rainbow in eyes of a lover, Bow before all life,
Where eternal Truth shines!

Bow Ramdas, bow,
May be you are wise,
Or may be you fool,
That doesn't matter when you bow, Bow before Truth!

Bow Ramdas, bow,
You are the truth,
Yet not an absolute,
you needn't bow before anyone,
If bow with patience to duties, Bow now and then,
strong will be your Own neck and waist, they can bear you head weight,
Or support Your head well!

Bow Ramdas, bow,
bow before mindful thoughts, Mindfulness is carefullness, Mindedness is not carelessness,
May be your carelessness, Cause absent mindedness!

Bow Ramdas, bow,
Life is God's rainbow,
May be people standing in row,
Or may be a boatman, his boat and row,
May be river or lake,
May be sea or ocean,
May be cloudless sky,
In Sun or moon,
May be in stars and planets,

Bow before that truth,

You have The arrow, that can strike,
But arrogance will strike you alone,
The pain or happiness, given to others,
Come back some day to you,
And you alone
So learn to bow,
Bow Ramdas bow
Bow before that truth,
Shining in every heart!

Bubble Of Life Floats and Flies!

I am that bubble
On that infinite ocean, I know I am eternal, except that fills the bubble!

I am that infinite
One of infinite thoughts of the infinite!
Infinite filled breath into infinite bubbles, I am one of these

Each day he transcends on Earth!
He is her great lover,
She is his fertile wife,
More fertile ones he has.

Everyday she becomes pregnant,
Everyday she breeds billion bubbles of billion species,

Some with brain and some without,
Some with hearts and some without,

But every bubble she breed, are with stomach, hunger and thirst
Anger and lust

This was mechanical Till they decided to breed which are their own copy,
With all capacity to understand parents,

Then that came the species of bubbles Which can see back!
And more than understand,

This lovely child stared weeping on arrival, Making others happy!
when bubble grew up, Understood parents,
Sister bubbles
Brother bubbles Dictating mother,

But not the father,
Mother is soft and caring,
Felt for children and fad them with the best,

When sons Grew, sometimes taller Than Father,
Started to say I know mother,
I don't know, whether I have father,
Since father was hiding in everyone, who filled his own breath inside these bubbles,

He was helpless when ignorant bubble say there is no ocean,

When bubble learns,
All is his,
Understand what is what,

But for that bubble, jumping and dancing,
With that nuclear arms in his arms, when adam had Eve in his arms, Eve had serpent to seduce, Man made parents stay apart!
the stay apart, still not divorced,
When the divorce, bubble bursts,
But bubble when tries,
To live, it may burst,
When it wants to burst it may live,
This is what we enjoy
And call as life

Can One Live Without Inner Light?

Can one here live without Light?
some soil bacteria and worms can Live, Still they need somehow that energy,
But all higher forms need light, Constantly like to move in light,
Even the blind men too have inner Light!

Love and faith,
and those truths,
Emanated from self luminous, Or reflected by nonluminous, Partly absorbed and modified, light that obstruct light's own path, causing fictitious forms!

Is Life illusion like Forms created by Laser light in vacuum?

If one has no meaning in man's eternal quest, Let him chose his own path, each one liberal and can travel alone!

Can one have no light within, Might have probably not seen it,
May be light is dim or may be hidden by own cloud,
Or one may be in state of eclipse!

Let him see it before talk about outer light and colour imparted by other self luminous ones!

Can't See The One Who See through Me!

My eyes are camera, just as a web camera, Connected to computer,
And the is my brian!

I can see the hardware,
And sometime can learn the software,
But not the seer or the user of this computer!
Ha Ha, I laugh, it is I am,
None other than me is the user!

Ah! I fail to find myself, even before mirror,
Or mirrorlike friend,
Only I can see half of the plane, from where I see,
O, not having eyes behind,
Neither my eyes can see my own back,
Nor my hands can scratch!

There is some thing formless behind my form,
The ocean of which I am a wave,
What I see is seen by eyes, Processed by mind,
Presented to self,
The self I have seen as my light,
Which lights even my darkest path!

What ever I see, it never cares, Whatever it sees, I can't see at all!

I see this,
while that does not,
What that see,
I can't see that,
I foolishly think
I can see everything,
But electromagnetic spectrum breaks arrogance of my eyes, infrasonics and ultrasonics make me faint, My skin can't boast, I can't touch air, Unless air moves as wind to touch me,
My tongue can't taste sweetness of coffee, after eating sweet chocolate!
How can I believe these,
my senses misdirect my mind and intellect!
I can see your face, trees, fruits, also flowers and butterflies,
See the nonexistent sky too,
Can see that mountains and clouds,
But can't see billions of bacteria on my skin!
I think I can see everything, But Cant see from where I see,

this and that I can see,
But not the one who see through me,
He the one behind all these billion forms, Assumes any form,
Yet remain formless,
What I can see is true,
But what I can't see hides the Truth!

Childhood Memories Are Always Green!

Our childhood memories are like heavenly story, Evergreen in every heart, not bothering what one have,
Even piece of wood can be a car,
Or a stick can be a horse, Even a mat can be one's aeroplane. When all pains were only momentary,
All strains are happily forgotten,
Green will be that memory, evergreen, when that stone aimed at green mango, Brought it down into dust,
And dust is rubbed against the edge of shirt,
That sour mango was sweet than any other! That first correct answer given to how many fingers I have,
And that when mother said I am correct in pointing at nose! When I learnt first to write zero, Wonderful, it was wonderful, how quick was I to write that!
Now all difficulties now I feel to understand that zero encircling all universe!

Children at Play, God is at coherent Display!

Life itself is a journey,
Enjoy it like kid,
Being a child with Children Being one of them is Spirit ` Beingfulness,
Not look at the road and traffic only like a driver, Know every inch of the route,
Just as kid enjoying nature around,
No hurry in reaching the destination,
Only enjoy beauty around,
Take sufficient time to learn, Learning new things, good and updated,
Learning and enjoying like a kid,
Healing all of Self in Essence, ` Happiness in heart and spreading it around..! ! !

Beauty of nature watched with clear vision and wide eyes,
Beauty of life around,
Appreciating whole heartedly,
Just absorb the beauty into heart,
Let it bloom like beautiful flower!

Find Joy in work,
Perform duties joyfully,
Completion of job will bring blissful satisfaction!
Children are flowers in God's garden,
They at innocent Play look beautiful, and thier smile shine the smile of the God, their innocence is where one can learn philosophy of life, Isn't it God at coherent Display?

Journey in a journey,
Dream in a dream,
Is essence of a dream life,
It is your own, enjoy everything in righteous way,
Using brain and listening to heart, Balance between,
Emotions and intelligence,
Great will be experience with kids, I one play with them like a kid!

We enjoy company of one another just like children in this journey unknown!
Never bothering about destination!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Child's Plea....!

I am that kid,
Sometimes wise,
Sometime innocently foolish,
But remaining ever curious to learn,
Anyone including you,
Be my teachers,
Clouds and rain, rainbow and trees, Rivers and mountains, fishes and lakes,
Kingfisher and woodpecker,
Even birds and flowers too!

I wonder at this dream world,
Wonderful stars shining in eyes,
Please be kind enough,
Let my child and its grand child, Also wonder at beauty of this world, Please kill not colourful animals and birds, Spill not the nature's gift, this beautiful world is always beautiful with colours of life shining everywhere!
You may create beautiful glass tree,
No bird will nest on it,
No bird can sing happily and perch its beak its beak on it,
You may create artificial flowers, Never liked by bees and butterfly, you may create toy butterfly, but that can't bring me thrill, Come out to garden,
Let us play,
Promise me,
no life you ever try to slay.

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Clearer is better than Clever!

Wonderful is that mind,
One with the heart where Purest among pure shines, Knowledge gained is mere reflection,
Knowledge is that mud under the lake,
Where the lotus of wisdom has its roots,
Raising above the polluted mind, Raising above the pollution of surroundings, Reflecting the eternal;
The eternal beauty of eternal Truth,
The long evolution of that nothing blowing itself, Blooming into everything,
Developing eyes to heart,
May be seeing world through compassionate and loving heart!

Vission to mind, setting ideals and goals,
Mastering the mind and body,
By well trained and disciplined mind,
Winning mind by mind itself!

Intelligence and wit,
Guided by virtues,
Love and compassion,
Seeing same Truth shining everywhere, Shining in everyone!

Nothing I am unless I keep myself clean and clear, Healthy, worthy and wealthy
All are good for one who is good,
Every vission is clear if one's mind and heart are clear,
When knowledge purified by selflessnes, Words, deeds integrate with thought,
Thought is the root of Lotus of good words,
Where in the seeds of deeds develop!

Born as nothing out of nothing,
One who adopts good virtues,
Senses bloom with fragrance of sensibility, Sensibility becomes worship, Reflected in work,
When work become worship,
Deeds become selfless,
More and more sensibility polishes intelligence, Intelligence shine with knowledge, Knowledge glows as wisdom,
And wisdom adorned by love and compassion, Self Glorified into eternal Beauty, Sathyam, Shivam, Sundaram!

Correctitude Amid Vicissitude

Correctitude
Amid Vicissitude,
Let us learn it from musicians and singers,
Dancers and actors, Politicians and artists,
Or all worldly successful people,
They have good ability! Correctitude amid vicissitude, May it be Tendulkar,
Or may be Dravid,
May be Ronaldo or Dhanchand,
All have perfected themselves, Practice and perseverance, Presence of mind and playing with cool! Everything becomes Unconsciously done, May be Manamohan Singh or Obama, Great are them never fear to lightning and storms, Strains and fatigues never discourage these men!

Pick one good from one, Shed one bad, just like, snake shed its skin to grow! Be cool and be right on the path, Know you are already that,
Only you have to shed ignorance, Stay in wisdom of Soul!

May our journey is alone, Help others and you will be helped,
Love others,
You will be loved,
Give what you have to others, Almighty gives it back!

Everything has to go to the pool, Everything comes from that pool! No one is poor here, almighty look after good and bad, Self is self all pervading,
Every obstacle is a test,
Be cool, every thing will pass,
You will pass the test too, independence is Self's nature, Be independent yet compassionate enough,
You will be paid with reward, Will be right into heart of The Truth! This is what great scriptures say, If can't walk on the rope, Just walk like a man on the ground,
Or fly above all hurdles,

Be a sportsman race over all hurdles,
To touch the rope!
Be cool, no competitor can push you back,
You are sure to get your reward!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Correctitude Amid Vicissitude in Soul's transcendence!

In transcendence of Self's journey,
Correctitude Amid Vicissitude,
Of life and trifles,

Patience, perseverance, Wisdom and knowledge, Love and affection, reflections and satisfaction, all may lead us,
As Guru within Guide us!

The one knows all, is in one's heart,
Listen the voice your heart,
Use the brain to think,
Obey inner voice,
Be ready to face,
Let smile glow on your face,
Not even feeling pain's trace!

Namaste relatives and,
Namaste friends,
I am one among you,
Still balancing on rope,
Below is fire of pain,
Swords and spears of desires, Alligators and sharks of selfish motives, Above is our abode, thin rope that is tied from here to there!

Give a hand of help when some fall,
Even though you are still balancing,
If not you can,
Please never laugh,
On others fall!
walk with care,
have an eye on others,
If they can't help you,
Be sure they will not make you fall!

Correctitude Amid Vicissitude,
be a good actor, practice and perform disciplined, Work out problems and hurdles, Practice makes one perfect, When consciousness and unconscious are one,
When knowledge and action coordinate,
The Guru smile and Guide, Manifesting himself as Intelligence and wit,
Wait for deliverance,
Get free!

Cream Of Life Is One Dream For Which You Live!

Dreams are cream of life,
Dream always and never stop dreaming, Dreaming ability, ability to materialize dreams, can make one unique,
When the dreamer breaths dreams,
Dreaming is not bad,
One Right dream, one right effort, Remember all successful dreamers were full of enthusiasm and curiosity, Being curious about facts, Cures all ignorance,
Enthusiasm opens all possibilities,
A careful and mindful dreamer shines like a star in this world of fast sleepers,
And when awake are action packed heroes!

Eat a little, sleep little, sing the saga of success with successful dreams, No matter one's contribution to humanity may be so little Make one here free,
When dues settle Cream of one's dream For which he live Meditation is that life itself,
Who works every instant for that dream!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Dance, Dance Everywhere!

Dance, Dance Dance
everywhere,
When I look at the sky,
I see the clouds dance Into steps of winds
My heart dance when I watch clouds dance!
How it can make me dance?

Without any tune or beats,
Its own beats me my heart dance.
Some strange tune it sings in silence and dance!

When I see at shore of ocean waves that dance,
Some birds in sky fly and dance,
On the waves boats that to the tune of waves, dance,

My mind sing lyricless music to which it dance!

When I walk along the beach,
The headless crown of palm trees with wide open hands dance, Watching them dance trees start their dance!

When I on countryside, green paddy fields dance, Looking at them, the bird on the branch dance!

When walk along, trees with fruits dance,
And to its own rustling music, leaves dance!

When I walk in the park, Plants with flowers dance!
Looking at the graceful dance flowerless dance,

When I move on street, hope and hap dance, Seeing at them even hopeless an hapless to dance!
Smile on faces with hope dance,
Wrinkles on the forehead of hapless dance!

When I look at people in them mind dance,
In some happiness dance,
In some sorrowfulness dance,

Some I found with desperation dance
In some their laziness dance,
In some saintliness dance,
Most of the time wickedness dance,
And in some other dreams that dance!

Success that dance with some,
Distress that in unsuccessful dance,

In some hearts mercy that dance

Together with love and kindness dance!

Some where cookedness dance,
And some where innocence dance,

In every nation either hunger dance,
Or in people's mind anger that dance,

Either corruption in corrupt mind dance,
Or those systems on the heart of people dance!

Dance, dance, dance everywhere,
It is time for my soulful dance,
If you see somewhere some other type of dance Just sing it dance and let no other see the pain in your heart dance Hide it with that unfailable lips on which smile may dance Dance, Dance, dance,
Tune your steps with eternal dance!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Dews make Grass and Leaves to Weep!

Neither I am Bruce lee,
I got only bruises fully,
I am not Tiger Woods,
Just fear to Tiger and woods, I am not the Ronaldo who score goal after goal,
Only I suffer a lot to achieve a goal,
I am not Jordan or Jackson,
Not even can sprint or jump,
Not I am Tagore or Gibran, Not even like kayyam or Rumi, Not my feelings or words can make others feel,
Not I am Alexander, the great,
Not That Chengez or Ghazni,
Nor that Ashoka the great, Still dogs and cats, Trees and birds,
Sun and stars,
Moon and clouds,
Rainbows and flowers Fruit trees love me,
As they know how innocently I love them,
Some day raining clouds may call
me,
the light in that lightning may take me to my beloved!
Birds may sing farewell, flowers may say good bye,
The morning on which I will not be on earth, At least, the morning dews make grass and leaves to shed tears for me!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Differentiated Disappear, Undifferentiated no felt!

Oh, that small spring of love,
When started to flow, Met other streams on the way, now is a vast river, and about to reach the ocean!
And that ocean of wine,
I learnt to drink and live like a fish in ocean of divine,
One who hasn't tasted it, how can understand,
How I learned to live and die, Intoxicated by that love and knowledge,
I saw only light!

And that a ray of light,
With love and hope,
When radiated out of my heart,
Got reflected, refracted, Dispersed and travelled in space,
Long and wide in this universe, Sometimes absorbed,
Sometimes became monochromatic laser,
Now able to pierce through obstacles,
Went deep into space!

Alas! At the edge of universe I was as a photon, Beyond which I can't go,
I became old, lost energy,
Died their as a photon!
Ah! I was far away from all,
Who else can know that I died?
Only I knew it,
and Ah! I knew that I died!
No one to sigh, no one to cry,
I was now enjoying universe as whole, Undifferentiated and look like an apple,
I differentiated all, I felt all,
And I am the light,
Who felt pain,
Trapped in stars and blackhole, and when I die in myself,
Then only I feel I am whole!
Differentiated world disappear, Undifferentiated is not felt!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Diverse Is Life Here, Is Only to Die worse?

Diverse this world looks,
Look at the green forests, Look at the animals,
Diverse is living, world,
Only comes into life, to Die worse!

Are men too, their diverse races, Diverse thoughts,
Diverse nationality,
Diverse mentality,
Are this only to Die worse?

Some are selfish and ignorants,
Some are fantastic and fanatics,
Some are psychiatrists and some are their patients,
Some are physicians,
Some are with diseases,
Diverse is this world,
Only here all have to Die worse!

Some are good husbands
Some are good housewives,
Some quarrel and make worse,
And divorce,
Only to Die worse some day!
Some are sages,
Some work for wages,
Some dance and sing well on stages,
Some are teachers, some are pupils,
Diverse is this world,
All have to Die worse!

This earth is green and blue planet,
Not has any celestial danger yet,
Still men born here were half scientists,
The worked for some,
Yet nature reacted to all,
Diverse is science, only made,
Life better temporary
But truth is one has to live and die worse here,

Some are sages and buddhas,
Some are Lao Tzu and Taoist,
Some are communists, Marxist or Maoists,
Some or artists or some Are critics
Some are atheists,
Some are monoethists Or polyethists,
Diverse is nature of men,
All have do die worse!

Some are missionaries,
Some are visionaries
Some are revolutionaries,
Some are ordinaries
Some are extra ordinaries,
All has die worse!

Some are innocents
Some are militants
Some are mutants
Some are scholars,
Some are school goers,
Diverse is nature all die here,
Some will try and live,
Yet they have to die,
But not die worse!
All are not alike only some strive hard, refuse to Die Worse, Live well and die well,
Only to dwell in the eternal truth!

Do Something!

Buddu Ramdas sings

The only holy book that can take one to safe end is his own life book!
Keep it always Holy

God is the greatest liar, Uses millions tongues to lie in million ways, He thinks in million ways using millions of brains, God advises in millions of ways using millions of mouths! God plays millions of games in millions of ways using millions of toy players, Buddu Ramdas, stop thinking, you are just that puppet on chain, Chained by destiny and made to play by unknown hands!

Either let this Egoless hollow shell, Sail on the sea at Gods will
'I am on this shore,
My friend is on the other, Wind favourably blows cool and gentle,
Open the sail and reach the friend!

Or find the way out,
The root of all Is based in you. Explore the base To reach the essence There is that short tunnel, Light the torch of knowledge,
Drink the wine of love,
Eat the bread of concentration, Blast that stony door of ignorance, Move on to reach the other shore, Be not busy in picking stones and pebbles,
Or that shells, World is that biggest lie of the greatest liar, Go out of lies of MAYA, Let all see how zero can cross the infinite ocean to shine, shining one,
one with infinite,

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Don't Give Up!

" Nature knows your value; she sees your potential.
You may not understand everything, which is essential,
But hold your head up high, fill heart with virtues,
God is in control, have faith, search not for clues!

He/She has a great plan, know the purpose for your life.
all your dreams are not your goals, time unfolds life, just go on, walk on, where there is path, crawl, swim, Keep flower of hope ever fresh in heart, keep mind trim.

God's way is better and higher and smother than our way, it is your love, kindness, virtues, hope and faith will pay, even when every path ends, there shines the inner light, something within you fills with peace, useless is your fight.

whoever may reject you, reject not the self, it always accepts you, God stands with you, with arms open wide, never allow you slide, always confirms your value. give up fear, desires envy and pride,
You are prized possession, no matter you wear rags or remain naked.

No matter what you go through in life, at times you slip, feel shame, disappointments you suffer, your value in always remains the same;
You will always be the apple of God's eye, lovely child, clean you up will never give up on you, love and like yourself; so don't give up!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Don't Seek the Truth, Just Give up untruth!

Why you go round and round,
May it be around earth,
Or may be around universe,
You will not find the Truth,
It is neither in earth or in sky,
It is neither in ocean, nor in mountains,
wherever you go Truth follows you, Yet you are unable to follow Truth!

If you see your shadow,
You are walking away from light,
But others only can see your shadow, when you are towards light!

Truth can not be found anywhere,
Learn from the still lake,
When water is pure and clear,
When ripples are waves subside,
One can see both reflection of world,
And bottom of the lake in which your own face glow!

Only its image can be found in mirror of your heart, Only path to the Pathless land is to cleanse the mirror, cleanse the vision,
clear all senses, Give up untruth!
Mind and action,
Make them free of memories and expectations,
Leave behind corpse of past burnt,
Look not at unborn future,
Only then you see in you and around the image of Truth, Find truth shine in you and everywhere!

Dreamers.... Dream walkers!

'Better late than never' half of mankind awakened at last, at least to sound positive still half sleeping

Even those sound positive neither strongly positive nor thinking selflessly creative only not dumb, but still negative.

Dreams filled eyes, aspiring hearts mocked at mild natural dwellers
'sleeping animals, dreamless creatures'
The dreams remain dream, lazy rogues'

Sensual and intoxicated crushing humanity eradicated life forms brushing aside civilizations proud of their own creations rubbing eyes, listening screams some still not out of sleep or dreams beasts in human disguise, so called humans Now scream 'save Earth' from ocean of own follies

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Dreams of Green, Can only keep Your Dreams Green!

Life is in seeds, who can say plants are not intelligent, They use many ways,
They use many animals and birds,
Even water and air for their propagation, Sensing the availability of agency, they dream and tune themselves, Plan strategy to make use of birds beasts and man.... They sow the seeds of dream in the eyes of farmer, They fill his eyes with dream of every possible comforts, Calling him to sow and nurture them! Seeds carry dreams of plants and carry dreams for farmer, In his dream green waves sing a song,
Dancing with nature's song,
In the golden crop farmer dreams of his golden dreams, His breath, his love, his dreams feed millions of stomach, So that they are free to dream in this dream world!
Just look at farmer's dreams, They never get wet,
They never get dry, His evergreen dreams sustain the world,
Never his dreams and the dreams of plant allow dreams in you dry!

Easy To Know, Difficult To Practice!

We are nothing,
It is truth of Truth that We are nothing, when compared to infinite wisdom around, Infinite mass, infinite energy, infinite phenomena, infinite number of infinite knowledge on infinite topics around, we were that puppets play on the stage,
Are we puppets and helpless, lifeless puppets?
No we are living puppets!

Puppets in the hands of destiny,
Is it true?
Nay, we are puppets in hands of our own desires and deeds,
Our own brilliance and folly!

If man's soul is in nature, then he has to protect it from danger,
But a mind polluted by careless and reckless ego,
How can he keep environment clean?

If trees are cut recklessly, man will build his own cross!

If man's soul is in nature he has to conserve it, Mountains and trees are his soul that bring the rain and abundance of life!

Harvest that, what one sow, Cause and affect that follow, one who think he is deep, somewhere he is shallow, Somehow time will prove where he is hollow!

Knowing that he is nothing, the baseless ego,
Useless he exist as a worm,
Sometimes as helpless as chained dog we lament,
As baseless as moving shadow,

One is free to act, but not free from effects,
So let us use this Freewill to know ourselves and live upto that,
Knowing oneself is easy and effortless,
But live accordingly is difficult,
Let us first eat for our life and not live to eat!

Let us become carefull in action, Cautious, yet casual steps, Save us from fall, save us all,
with our green friends, we live long!

Nothing is not that nothing, but is Everything!

we learn to live as we are,

Without desires or expectation,
Not in the memory of past,
Not in anticipation of unborn future,
Let us live as if we are angels,
Lord of the universe dwell in us,
We live and work for him,
Knowing our nonexistent ego,
Get to the base of truth,
Let us be gods existing,
Representative of Almighty God, Serene, kind, ever loving,
Honest and punctual,
Knowing our duties, performing well, Rightfully exercising our right and might!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Ego When Gets kicks of Karma and Sting of Fate!

Nothing can be given or taken away;
where rules of mathematics and physics fail, we need biology and psychology, when that too fail and sluggish seems progress, we find and learn, there is no change, nothing has been added or subtracted!

By a man's birth or death nothing increased or diminished.
We stand on the same shore before the same mighty ocean.
The ocean of love, ocean of wisdom,
There it is - in perpetuum.

As much in a broken blossom, the wind of illusions and life spreading sails, the sound of a waterfall, or roar of waves the swoop of a carrion bird, or chirping of birds, as in the warrior's thunderous triumphet, or in the thunderous words of the prophet.

We move with eyes shut and ears stopped; more a time follow logic of own like robot we smash heads to walls of our heart, where doors wait to open by love's touch!

We struggle for ladders, and find climbing ropes, forgetting that we have wings;
we pray as if God were deaf and blind, with more desires and greed we slide, as if God were in a space in hide,

Where angels in our midst go unrecognized.
One day it will be our pleasant ego, gets kicks of karma and sting of fate mind opens up to remember these things."

Ever Pure Is Love!

Love is that great feeling, no one can deny,
to love is thrilling, to be loved is more pleasing, living with heart ever loving, only wisdom of self remain ever shining!

Every love is felt mortal in company of desires,
Just as immortal self felt mortal,
In company of mortal things, river that flood during rain, and drain in summer,
Surely dry some day,
But the river that keeps on flowing full,
Ever pure has origin in melting snow of icy mountains, Love having origin in heart where snow heap of pure Love melts, Never can dry,
Never be impure,
Unless polluted by human desires, selfish motives!

When body felt light, filling more energy in wings, wisdom gained by experience, courage in heart make faith strong,
Look for the Truth alone, one can soar high, see deep into space to see the Sun never sets, the ever flowing river of life as whole

Every Day Is Festival!

Every dawn is decorated,
as if an auspicious day,
As if everyday is festival,
On the treetops shining bulbs of dews, like golden beads and bulbs,
Every leaf of grass bent with dew drops weight,
As if bowing to welcome the Sun, fields look like green lakes, wave of breeze,
on the mountain peak, Clouds dancing around,
Golden rays piercing darkness,
Shining globules of dews, Shining like decorative light bulbs, Reflecting face of nature, Bathed fresh, look like a woman just excited to welcome Sun, her eternal Love!

Busy birds flying above, Singing their own song,
Every heart has a song,
Busy, yet hearts kept cool by morning breeze!

In the flow of river,
Or in the sound of waterfalls,
The mantra that chanted,
With bells of temples and churches,
Call for prayer from mosques heard,
But call of love in every heart is strongly heard, than any sound

Light of love, melts hearts, Melts negative feelings, Bathing in beauty,
Every day is festival,
O mother, you are divine,
Washed by morning dews,
You make everyone to bathe in thy beauty, just like mother calls children,
When father returns home,
Earth welcomes Sun,
With her children,
Shining whole nature as one!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Everything Is Nothing!

Everything is nothing,
Nothing is everything,
Everything is Truth and Truth is everything,

All come from a pool and remain in the pool, fool is that Truth which identifies itself with some fool, When fool is grown enough to know the pool,
And can see beyond,
He sees he is that,
He is that, he is that nothing Thinking on nothing!
Nothing can exist as it is!

Remain in the pool,
Coming and going is that illusion!
Raising and falling as waves of unidentifiable formless energy, Taking forms with different blends of its own forms, Truth is that which bestows an atom to absorb the ocean
And Truth is that truth fools itself with wrong identification!

Then every breath is meditation, Stopping train of thoughts,
Seeing all in true colour,
Remains as everything and nothing in his own nature!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Facing monsoon.

Many things come to mind, Like Monsoon bringing rain. umbrella of cloud hiding Sun's face, Umbrellas hiding people's faces.
Like a bride look whole nature, seeds sprouting, plantlets raising, when clouds of memories openup their umbrellas, tears fall like raindrops, occasionally rays of smiles shine,
the world of memories though look green, chirping of birds in mind go unheard, sound of falling drops, roar of thunder become loud, butterflies and bees suffer like my mind.
Nature is happy, plants are happy,
So I should be.
Green looks Earth, so should my smile be.

Feeling and Failing To Feel What Is Love

Is that love a fluid, they say it flows out of heart,
Is love a stream, they say it flow form one heart to another,

Is love a beam of light,
That when flashes, makes one blind,
Is that love glue or rasin,
That binds two heart,
Commit them to eat that apple,
Is all that love can do?
They say love is blind,
Is that blind serpent,
That showed beauty of Eden to Eve?

Is love that gas inflates or deflates Hearts?
Is it the laughing gas or that can act anesthesia against pain Is love a dreadful disease, Having medicine in love alone,

No matter whether ugly or beautiful, cruel or tyrant,
Love has no barrier,
Not national, but international,
Is not rational, is not even irrational!

Love is that having Midas touch, Turns everything to gold,
Sometimes lovers heart too to useless solid gold,
That gold only shines and glitters,
And heart loses its rythem and beats..

God is love, God is universal,
And only one god exists,
If someone believes in Him,
Then his love becomes universal and exceptionally infinite and universal, Otherwise both God and love remains only a personal, full of imperfections and limitations, God reduces to a limited one,
As that human, limits love and God

No one can say how it attacks, Is love a clever hunter, hunts human hearts
With ease,

Is that love cruel and blood thirsty,
Love enters one heart and takes out blood from several at once!
Pages of history are written in red, Wherever love is misdirected,
May it be love for a person,
May it for love of nation.
May it be love for riches or power,

Love looks like that hunger,
Which eats up love and life of others!

They say God is love, but when it enters human heart,
Most of the time acts like demon!
Love is not blind, but the heart may become blind in the blaze of that light!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Flattening Bubble...

I am neither,
a living or a nonliving,
Neither born nor die,
Where can I find and see,
Sea and sky
Men and woman,

Everywhere the same Fatherless, motherless, Brotherless, Sisterless,
Friendless,
Formless,
Nameless, Truth shines;

The father
The mother,
The brother,
The sister,
the friend of all,
Truth shines;

Everywhere? Anywhere?
Now and then?
Whenever I need Wherever I call,
Wherever I forget
My ego and limitations,

No, I am that infinitesimal bubble, Floating with infinite number of infinite number of infinitesimal bubbles
On that fathomless bottomless ocean!

But when that air of ego that fills the bubble less and less,
The bubble that flatten and touches the ocean to become one with that!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Flowers, Beautiful Flowers

Life is that precious and divine, Souls journey as per schedule, Visit places and people, smile and laugh,
Weep and cry together,
Come alone and go alone,
Nothing brought, nothing taken!

Just it is like flower, Blossom and spread its fragrance,
Put a signature on several hearts,
Gone flower, never come,
Memory of its beauty,
Aura remains all the time everywhere
In hearts of those who had seen it!

People too are like flowers,
That flowers in the garden of divine,
Some are beautiful,
Some by their wisdom and knowledge,
Some with deeds and virtues,
Flowers, beautiful flowers of God's Garden!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Fool That Happy To Find Greater Fool!

Oh creator of worlds,
You kept yourself busy in creating worlds, Never thought of creating worlds for you, Oh builder of homes for all, I never thought you may be more foolish than dervish having no home of own, Having not built home for yourself,
You created too many needs and too many things which lure human mind and greed, So that you have to hide behind his foolish mind for shelter!
Oh creator, this fool is happy to find,
Infinite fool, Seeing the fool, foolishly in search of own!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Forgiveness!

Forgiveness is the sweet fruit a tree giveth, Forgiveness is that energy, a fruit to its eater giveth, Forgiveness is the milk a cow giveth, Forgiveness is the light, that burning candle giveth, Forgiveness is the life, the world giveth, Forgiveness is rain that the clouds giveth, Forgiveness is that natural, the one understood nature giveth, Forgiveness is the perfume of selflessness in one spreadeth, Like sunlight in winter, like moonlight in dark,
Like cool breeze in summer,
Like oasis in a desert,
Like spring of pure love, from a pure heart forever springeth!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Friendship; Thy Glory is In Simplicity!

All Glorious friendship blossom in simple hearts,
The heart that free of fear,
Full of understanding,
Simple, yet full of love,
Colourless it shines, absorbing all goodness of friend!

Glory of Friendship is in its simplicity, No complications, no anger,
No rejections, Accepts friend's weakness as it is,
Goodness of all sort, in sharing the pain,
Just like channel to share flooding feelings!

Friendship is as simple as a plane mirror, Showing friend his perfect image, Neither concave, nor convex,
No blind spots!

Friendship is as white and fragrant as fresh jasmine,
Or may be like a lotus,
Raising above all weakness, Friendship is streamlined flow,
No eddies, neither rocks nor cliff, Friendship flows like river, valley of life green, between mountains of bitterness of life!

Shine with daffodils sweet Of feelings, wavy of smile and brows arching upward, Glittering eyes, light will those hearts feel,
Friends are not like the pairs, lilly and Moon, Sunflower and Sun!
It is like river and its banks, Ocean and its shore,
One move another like clouds and wind,
One smile at other, as innocent as a child, No sympathy, only great tune of Love symphony of understanding hearts,
As simple as blue sky without clouds!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

God Is The Law!

God is law, o Soul listen,
God is behind, that beauty around,
His presence makes flowers beautiful,
His presence brings Fragrance to it,
Nature is green and full of life, because he dwells there!

God is the one behind beauty of children,
God is present in beauty of woman,
God fills the strength in arms and chest of a man,
God's presence, makes the nightingale sing,
God is the Law who makes peacock dance,
God is the Law who make every one fight or work, God is the Law who makes write read and sing, as a law make everyone strong and good and talented!

Look at the death of a man,
He dies in three stages,
One when is limbs and legs become cold,
And then the tongue fails to say some thing,
Eyes that tries to see some one,
Ears to hear somthing from someone,
Finally with deep sigh God in him withdraws his last breath!
All animals and plant take birth and die as God is that law!

God is the Law, bring one into life,
God is the Law who make one enjoy and smile,
God is the Law of life or death,
God is law of love and likes,
God is law of mortal journey, God is the Law of happiness, God is that immortal law,
God is full of immortal ideals and knowledge,
God is the Law of cause and effect,
God is that immortal law of all existence!
Ah! God is that grand law of all subtle laws and gross ones!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

God Is Word; Knowledge Full of Love!

EVERYTHING in this nature, Naturally change,
 busy in exchange,
Everybody change,
One exchange something with other!

Nature itself change,
And natural changes bring,
Nature ever new beauty,
And nature knows it well!

Man can boast,
'I never change'
'But, is it true'? , his conscience may ask!

Change in an individual can induce change in some,
But change, powered by restraints can appeal more!

Change of individuals can change the whole,
Some individual's strong morale, Powered by the knowledge, Strengthened by sacrifice,
Ego Stuffed with humbleness, Yet determination beyond space,
Change the whole!

When Self knowledge, Shines with love,
Instincts killed by restraints,
Perfected can change,
When exchange stop, equilibrium in all thoughts and actions,
In the midst of trifles and pains, one who changes so great, Knowing all of Self, living as shadowless Self,
Is Knowing that Truth, all about God, nature and creations` Each soul is immortal, has to under go changes, From ignorance to knowledge,
Self is colourless and without attributes!

The one bringeth that change, Shows and proves,
Goodness` at self` is` Godliness` Raising above pain to gain this!

One's Sapiency for Understanding extols..

Homo Sapien, when full of sapience, Realization is Crest of Knowledge with an Acme called Love' that enshrines Goodness at self as Godliness..! ! !

UNDERSTANDING At Its CREST Is Being Of REALIZATION` REALIZATION At Its ACME Is Being In True State Of LOVE, LOVE Is The SUBLIMITY Of One's UNDERSTANDING` KNOWLEDGE Is The Fundamental Of All UNDERSTANDING`
Radiance Of GOD As Word Unto Us Is KNOWLEDGE full of LOVE` !

Ramdas Bhandarkar

God!

I never knew who is He/she/it?
Yet the love that rained and my heart was the field where someone sow Love seeds, seed that sprout and bloomed, Brushing aside weeds,
Purifying my thoughts and deeds!

Ah! never I worried to nourish plant of Love or feed it with manure, But too fast it became mature,
Now shines with glory and eyes become one to see His Grandeur, No worry about gender, only one
Only one true wonder!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Grand is Love Of Grand Truth!

Love is seed of grand love, Love Grows into Truth,
When grows to love of Truth,
Opens its infinite number of petals,
Love maketh one look all different,
Love bringeth beauty to one's life,
The purpose of life fulfilled with love of Truth!

May it be thine garden plants,
May it be thine pets,
May they are own kiths and kins,
Love showered not goes into Vain, Though love is showered on beauty, Nature's beauty or natural one, all found in and end in pain!

The flow of natural feelings,
Love when found in other heart,
Thine heart leaps, that leaps beyond what they call reality, Reality is different,
Love takes from falsehood to grand Truth,
It is From mortal to immortal, Darkness to the light Infinitesimal to infinite!
But Love of Truth that painful Labour always,
It delivers beauty sense,
That greatest feeling - Relieves from all pains!

Thy heart lighten with more light, Thine existence when testify the love,
Nay, Love that testify thy existence!

Bliss is that state all frozen things in heart melt, Love floweth like river, Frozen Himalayan ice melts, Floweth like Sacred Ganges or Indus, Mother of civilisation floweth as love!

This is the real baptism of soul,
Holy spirit activated,
Showers of wisdom rays,
Melts all good and bad,
Both right and foul,
When doer knows divine torch glows, Every sin is burnt with,
The ego finding no ground,
Ground reality independent of all!

Love of Truth is that great LOVE, which Carries ocean into tiny heart,
Not the dropp flows to ocean, but ocean flows into drop!

No thing can match,
Nothing to feel,
No thing remains unknown,
Everyone and everything, here are nothing,
When truth shineth, with billion suns glory,
In that light all creation and all worlds merge,
The creator, sustainer and destroyer of world, all vanish!
Nothing is greater than that grand Nothing equals everything.

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Great is The Heart permeated with Love, A treat is Life!

Pale are both eyes and world,
Only look like empty sketches, Without love and emotions, Just like Dariya saheb told!

A heart full with love,
Has that magical paint brush,
Which makes entire world blush,
No hate, no anguish, Only sees lover even in plants and bush Ocean waves look like Kissing the shore, Clouds dance encircling mountains, shedding tears of love as rain!

Bees heard singing to flower, To one without Love,
The path is full of scraps and garbage,

But for a lovers eye,
It is flower bed spread by nature, strange Full of apple and grape!

Life is that garden,
Bodies are beautiful plants, Heart filled with love are fragrant flowers, Mind and emotions Are colourful petals, Thought and deeds are fragrance, wisdom and knowledge are gracious fruits,

When all hearts are full of love, eyes permeated with love,
Sees love permeate all around, Is home of that cosmic visitor, Sometimes weary may he look, Rest a while here and seeker become one with seeked Life it self is a treat when love permeates through the devine garden Great is that life Permeate and radiate Love!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Great learning!

my life and death of others taught me to think beyond both, living when awake and dead in sleep, Death is that deep sleep, no one can disturb.
life is too a sleep frequently disturbed!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Guru, Where Is Guru?

I am neither a Guru, Nor I can be that,
The guru is within,
Sure to guide all! I am a teacher, teaching material science for living, Not like to watch a show,
not even to make a show,
Pen Only feelings of conscience that overflow!

No matter, I tell,
Not even nickel I need,
If want to beg,
I will beg with Him, Washing with tears, the steps of temple of my heart!

Namaste To all,
The Guru is within,
Guru is around us, Namaste To all Because He is in all!
Sadguru is One, mere his Touch or sight,
Can stop Fight in Mind,

So does Even the Grass, his feet touched,
is full with self knowledge! such is power of Sadguru, Hence entire world is full of knowledge
As almighty God and loving nature are Sadgurus!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Happiness Can Not be Extracted.

under crust and mantle there is the core,
be not content with crust, lustrous metals found in ore;
happiness cannot be extracted.
it is nature of our own core.

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Happiness, Happiness, You are that happiness!

Happiness, happiness, is it everywhere?
The mirage that life shows,
That runs away and laughs somewhere,
On those run after it,
Soiling hands by toiling with trifles, Hoping for catching flying birds, Letting those in their hands!

And that hope make it happen, Faith that makes all the difference, only a step at time can make it possible, Possible, that were looking impossible Happiness is not in running for some thing great,
When one learn nothing is great,
It will be too late to be happy!
The colourful stars not give us anything, wonderfull clouds may not give us anything, Colourful singing birds, Colourful fragment flowers,
Or trees with full of fruits, Green mountains and mountain dews, nothing they give than that strange impulses!

Some flickering thoughts makes us happy,
And some thoughts, selfish and ego centred,
Such thoughts and actions when click!

All that happiness is untrue,
It is a curse in disguise,
But sometime sorrow that brings out the best of one,
And sorrow is blessing in disguise!

Delusion of ego throws in illusion,
Most of us are schizophrenic,
And ignorant, about happiness,
Tree if swing to wind may break or fall!

Either we should be elastic, and we should be rigid,
Yet happiness is neither earned,
Happiness is not gained,
Yet can be lost easily Paradise is neither can be gained nor attained, Yet easily can be lost and slip into hell!

Soul is that in paradise and happiness reside,
Soul is that in which all sorrow and hell too reside, Self is that abode of one where no hell or no paradise lies,
But Self is paradise of paradise,
The supreme paradise is that SELF out of reach of all paradoxes

Parity and beyond all parodies!

Happiness is your another name,
As god is your another name,
Your name and shape is painted on that colourless, Vacuum,
Which is the source of all happiness.
All life and your dreams!
Look at yourself, thy nature is happiness,
And you can only make all happy,
You art that, who can be all the time happy
What ever happen anywhere,
You are that,
You are that bring all happiness,
All, all, all happiness to all!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

He Has Kept The Key In Us!

He created everything,
Yet he can't perceived by anyone,
He is behind every creations, yet no creation is immortal or eternal,
He dwells in everyone as light in every shining stars,
He is the formless gives forms to any formless,
He moves everything, remaining himself unmoved,
Not only he is creator,
But also sustainer and destroyer,
He is playing with universe,
He paints everyone with his own ideas!

He who has created everything,
Has created that fire of right knowledge,
He gave everyone the right,
To think right, work right, and live right,
Only the righteous gets the key,
That key lost in own self,
One can open the door of heaven or hell with that magic key,
When one learns the deception of senses,
And illusion of play of light, Turns to that pure bright light within,
Where he can see the love and peace for ever!

He is formless behind all forms,
He paints on vacuum,
He illuminate the forms, and lift the veil of illusions,
And show his true nature,
His presence everywhere,
He is the one who fills the breath in the toys,
Make them think and work,
He is selfless,
Yet look selfish,
Sometimes play with nature,
Sitting on that magic mat called space,
Here every one are protected,
When he feels enough, fold the sky as if we fold the mat, everything has to go into that from which they are projected!
and he himself plays his game,
We have nothing to gain or nothing to lose,
He is the one regaining, his lost glory in Us back!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Head Learned To Bow Only Before Truth!

Mad was head, mad after greed, worrying about daily corporeal need;
bowing powerlessly before power and might, virtually no end for pain and internal fight!

Philosopher's stone was within all the time, awakened by call of heart's divine bell's chime, fire of knowledge burning all ignorance, head learned to bow only before truth, at once!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Heart Can Sing The Song of Soul

' Well, Look into heart!

Well! beautiful melodies are sung in there different musical instruments play there within one's heart.

Several songs of strange lyrics

Some play in high and good and long sighs good rain of musical notes that wet eyes, some with tears of pain some with tears of overwhelming joy and Some take to ecstasy..

More and more we live, more and more wells that filled Wells that can give ample of Fresh juice of love

Mind gets quenched and happiness filled
And love is that note fills rainbow of life with many colours

Blood that come to that heart purified Blood flows like honey in body and brain

Some of the perishables are Dried and stuffed That shines with eternal light love that shines in one heart can brighten the world

Some of the rivers dry up Hearts of some get dried or mud filled,
Others are far too fast in flow for that happen.
They flow that divine love Rolling the rocks

In one rain of love, river gets flooded Eroding the earth, sorrowing the rocks
They flow to ocean taking all that sand and silt!

You have to just take a few precious cups of water,
That 'love' is literally something of yourself, something that can make you immortal
And some know this well
They understand this well.

They find only mines of gold and diamond,
When some drops of love Spill,
And it can solidify into precious stones of different colors a, shape and size..

It can grow as shining tough as a diamond And cut through that secret of life and death, cutting that hard rock cover that tunnel Your taken to the eternal beloved, Love is that spacecraft takes one to heaven

If it is lost, they way to the pathless land
Your love is that faith that takes that truth Where falcon of death hunts the faithless stand!

Should never heart be offered to the mouth of a canine or cannibal, Only can be useful and fruitful when overflowing love flows like Nile Life saving and life giving river feeding all Like Ganges, washing allies of all!

Strange love,
Only to someone Who has the valor and courage To cut pieces of their soul off with a knife of knowledge Then weave them into a shawl with loom of love
To protect you for cold and rain, thunders and lightning in life.
Because know for sure the droplets love spilt Solidify as gems.
And the single dropp that remain in pot'of love sufficient to fill all unfilled wells

There are different music play within us.
Some fill heart with each good note,
Others are far, far too melodious That can only fill heart and soul
For that can bring rain,
To flood river of life, but a single dropp of that love can fill all hearts.'

Beautiful are people who sing that song of the SOUL!
Their heart can take them to their beloved,
They fill the heart of them and others to show the eternal beloved!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Heart Pure and Wide!

Heart Should be sure,
Nothing is perpetual,
Heart should be true and pure, Neither the pain nor the happiness, every thing is of short tenure,

May it be riches
Or it may be penury,
May it be a ailment or an injury,
Whatever acquired will go,
What ever required will follow,
He pays for our needs and we have to pay for our greed!

Galore of thoughts neither save,
Nor the penance and rituals, Save us only our words and deeds!

Rhapsodical poesy or highflown behaviour can only be a harm,
Only thoughts of loving heart that flow like river the great, Feeding all along the bank, green green will be everywhere,
When fountain of love quench the thirst, wonderful and beautiful will be,
The heart that is so wide,
Heart which is without pride,
When it is having nothing to hide, Remains ever calm without waves and tide!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Heart says Love Love!

Tick tick tick
clock is ticking,

Birds fly out and return to nest,
Marking end of another day,
One more day you gone,
One more night you sleep,
one more dream yet to come, before yesterday's dream materialize, Dreams pile up like files on inefficient clerk's table,
Or as the garbage basket emptied yesterday is now full again!
Dreams are faster,
As we travel fast, dreams too move away faster!

Consumed energy is not used up well!
efficiency if matters,
Heat engine of less efficiency are out dated and useless!

Pray Lord, fix my mission, before this machine gets outdated and scraped when shape value is just more than a dollar, Consuming energy worth several dollar, how worth is this inefficient machine?
God tells move, move, Heart screams Love, Love!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Here Only Image Plays Like Puppet!

Diving deep into own, eyes learn to look into far, beyond the horizon into cosmos, matter from several galaxies, light from several stars, filtered by earth and air keep you alive here, several celestial bodies, working silently to fill breath in your life, look your form is in cosmos,
here only image plays like puppet,
for the divine unknown, working!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

How a Heartless Machine Can Feel?

No culture,
No compassion,
No one is with me when I fight for hunger,
No to understand and love,
When we are machines,
Simply machines,
Toys and puppets,
Playing with fate and destiny,
Heartless tiny creatures,
Thinking we are Lord of our own,
Where are my father and mother,
Where are my brothers,
Where are my sisters,
For this money printing machine,
Teller machine to wife and children,
Cook or servant to husband and kids, Robot for my boss where is my heart to feel,
When mind thinks of only deals,

Where is that softness left?
When tyre has to roll on rough terrain,
Any time tyre may puncture or tube may rupture,
What machine can feel,
What heartless machine can feel?

How a machine produced,
In same factory, with different size and purpose, Different shape and size, Different manufacture date,
Machines without heart,
If heart is confined to only pump blood, Know not,
father and mother,
How can call one another,
'Brothers and sisters? '

Ramdas Bhandarkar

How can I empty My Mind?

Came out that emptiness, Bored of what I was,
Looking at the atom shining somewhere in me,
I looked at wonderful world I entered,
Looking at beauties with beautiful faces,
I was only the faceless, Wished to have a face!
Result is what I am now, Facing problems of having a face,
Not seen by myself!

Some say look into mirror,
But mirror showed image which is not me,
How can live this is me looking at image?
In the path I met some one,
They said ' you suffered a lot,
Empty your mind, be happy,
But how can empty my mind,
So many fill it everyday, Hungry faces,
thirsty minds,
Needy hands fill compassion, lusty and greedy, selfish and cruel fill people fill pain,
Wise one fill wisdom,
Fools fill laughter,
Friends fill it with love and smile!

How can I empty my mind,
When beauty around,
Smiling kids, playing puppies, Jumping and running kittens, colourful fragrant flowers, Surrounded by bees and butterflies,
Green trees with wide hands full of fruits,
All call me to enjoy with them!

Tall standing trees and stubborn mountains, lakes and oceans full of life, they fill my mind as much I empty, more they fill!

I emptied mind in meditation,
But the beauty of one who filled beauty in all filled my mind,
How can empty love for that beautiful one,
Who is that beauty in all that's beautiful!
Smiling and loving people,

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Human phenomenal Human, Buddha!

Handsome men wonder, what was in you!
Never was Handsome, nor well built,
You couldn't be a male model nor equal the physique of lowest male model!
But set to billions and billions moral and model! you are legend, and your words that become sweeter than vedas!

They called you an atheist, still you became God to others!
You said it is in us to get away the pain!
You said it is within the reach of our hands, in span of our chest!
everyone ran after you, Because you are a human Phenomenally, Phenomenal human,
That's thou art!

When you walked into streets, men stood or were on their knees, women, were at your feet, taking the dust of your feet on their forehead, and children came and surrounded you like bees sit around honey!
Magic was their in your curly hair and curling lips!
The silent song that your heart sung took everyone to realms of ecstasy!
The radiant heart emanated peace and joy made every one to fly into heaven!
All I can say, the desireless nameless ocean that saw and every one wanted to swim and take bath!
It is that ocean, no one can fear of being drowned nor eaten up by sharks, crystal clear ocean your heart was bottomless still, clearly visible, clear to any depth!
Because you were human Phenomenally, Phenomenal human,
That's thou art!

People wondered, asked themselves, can a man be so divine?
You just smiled and said, 'yes, more than me, and you can be! '
What they saw in thee, they saw so much and Each one can write one veda on you!
And you became equal to billions of Truths!
In your mind no wasps were, but only honey that flowed,
You told people the secrets of life and how one can be painless!
It was your own style to reject religions, and call to people to open their wing to fly directly to the painless state, the land that even heavens too feel jealous!
Yes! You were human Phenomenally and phenomenal human,
That's thou art!

When the world saw you, Suddenly they saw the rain pouring on famine struck land! just thou was cooler and took the heat of their life and sowed the seed of nirvana, The desireless, painless, stainless path of practice than recitation of hymns!
The yajnas, yagas, and homas that they were not affording,
Never showed illusions of heaven and hell!
Only salvation, the journey to painless state was the aim!
And you showed the light, nay you are the light!
You were human Phenomenally,

Phenomenal human,
That's thou art!

Buddham sharanam Gacchami!
Sangham sharanam Gacchami!

I am Empty, But Not my cocoon where I wait for Metamorphosis!

I am empty hibernated mind, but not my cocoon,
In which I sleep waiting for metamorphosis, Waiting for coloured wings to appear! Mind that looks empty, not at all empty at any point of time,
How can it be empty,
When my beloved keeps on pouring wisdom, fills my heart with love continuously,
Unless I empty it at same rate, Distribute and spread,
Love will get overflowed,
May get spilled and flow,
Flow like stream, used up by or someone pollute with doubts, Whereafter love needs recycling, several process of purification!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

I am just a Child of Beloved nature!

I am not that,
I am not this,
I am that words can't say,
Just like unpredictable,
I Live like child of the nature,
Having sunshine in my mind,
Having cloudy sky too,

Just like a child playing with mother,
I see stars in her sky reflect in my eyes,
Those stars also brighten my dreams!
My need she fulfills,
For my questions she responds with great answers,
I am loving my mother,
I dance with her jumping with frogs and flying with butterflies, Singing with birds, mew with kittens, playing with puppy, Seeing all of them as my own,
I am the child and never like to live more than that!

Life is not real for me,
Just flow of time make me sleep, dream and awake,
Work is my play, problems are quiz,
Whole life is not a puzzle,
Only wonderful play of rainbow of colourful light, Pain or happiness are momentary,
I feel everything temporary,
Self is that playing with self alone, Self is that ever like to live like a kid,
neither born nor die,
Never aging truth beyond time is me!
I am a part of its play,
I have to play a role,
I learn to act and play my role, years after years roll,
I too roll life after life,
Yet remain as kid for ever!

I complain about my pain,
She has that ever soft hands to wipe tears!

When I am sad, she sends birds to sing for me, when I am mad, she has that teacher to correct me,
She is my beloved mother, I am her loving kid!
I am learning what I am,
She teach me well with all love!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

I Am Nothing But That Energy! ?

'With all I have lost, I found that I never had Anything.
looking at nothingness of me,
I learnt same nothingness behind everything,
And that nothingness felt not in this plane,
Here that nothingness acts as everything,
That is true in that plane,
This is true in this one!

When I depend on light,
Time and space come to existence,
Where that formless energy assumes form,
To achieve some work on its own,

I am nothing other than that energy, still something makes me, myself look different,
And different forms!

Even my or your identity seems to be Nothing,
but for me that is Everything in love, and love is the basis of all creation, when energy love to have some recreation! ! ! '

Look strange, if we put some effort to rearrange jig saw puzzle,
We definitely arrive at meaning,
And this confidence of energy makes it try to solve using different forms, This is its belief belief of energy entering the matter, Make it to move and think And arrive at the Truth!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

I Am That Glorious Nothing, In Everyone and Everything!

It is dawn for me, dawn of a life,
at dusk of my life, Neither its a new life nor its the old one,
When everything is destiny and fate, Why I have to wish and will,
If Gods gave me something,
That took back with interest, God is lovable lender of pressure as well as pleasure, Takes more than gave and one's pain and loses of freedom are the compound interest paid!
Prayer with desires and ambitions,
Succeeded only to make me prey to more desires!

Every heart is full of love,
And that it filled with Life's love,
And it make one love the life!

Life's own turns,
Depends on the path destined,
Radius of the path make all difference!

Sometimes it flows like a river, dives deep,
Or has more depth, where it flow slow, Sometimes fast where depth is low!

Life is a like river for the one who destined to flow down to ocean,
But life is not river to one has seen ocean everywhere, Life doesn't flow,
Only it is flow of energy from higher potential to lower potential,
From youth to old age,
From freedom to bondage of senses and deeds!

Think Ramdas, Think of that great Truth,
Where there is one neither born nor die,
Only dream and sigh!

From that nothingness, Nothing I brought,
To that nothingness I can't take anything, Whatever looks like this thing, that thing,
Everything is nothing
for this nothing, neither came nor go, I am neither a glacier to melt and flow, nor I am rock to stay here!

I must go before I want to know myself,
I want to die in my ownself,

Before I can live unto my own nature!

I never want win anything,
As my win is not my win,
And I have neither one to win,
Nor something to win,
As I am that everything in nothing
And that glorious nothing among everyone and everything!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

I and Imp In me!

I am not alone, an Imp lives in me,
The Imp is Impassioned Idiot, Sometime Idle,
Sometimes runs behind Ideals,
Most of them are mere Illusions, Idolum it sketches, idols it carves!

Ignominous that Imp is,
Over Imaginative and impulsive, Intuitions confused with illusions, Innocent and ignorant,
Innocent and ignorant about its own Ignorances, Impertinent and impetuous, Impinge on Implex Theories, doctrines and ideologies!

Interested always its own idyll, Roaming Isolated in illation and imagination, Falling to own Immature imaginations, Sometime Implore and sometimes explore, Impractical and Imprecate its fate!
Interested in amusements,
Interested in pleasures, Interested in expression to impress, than impressive expressions!

That implacable, impious impish, imposter finally feel tired, Looks at that Greater I in me,
And Impetrate to enter into Impervious, imperturbable, Immovable, impartial, impeccable, Inimitable And illimitable 'I'!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

I can only rest in peace with all pieces of my heart joined!

No barriers can separate hearts, no grave is deep enough to bury feelings, revolving billion times for billion years, round and round around galaxies, in that grand explosion of star, pieces of my heart spread on earth!

Finding those on this green planet,
I descended,
hoping to pick pieces of my heart, finding myself and collecting pieces, o soul-mates, without you I am helpless, with hope and faith I live here!

Neither born nor die i may be, without collecting pieces of heart, those pieces stuck in friends hearts, their thoughts are mine own!

Can I stay here long, not my home, it is their love that brought me here, someday I rest in peace when only all pieces of my heart joined together

Ramdas Bhandarkar

I like to meet our Father

Removing mask and gown, resign playing as a clown, throwing away shoe and socks, when my own spirit mocks!

I want to sprint barefoot along on sand not to play with sand or pick shells by hand:
like to walk bold and calm into the ocean waves, surf them bold, something within me saves!

Surfing waves, riding tide I move into ocean, saying myself, go on, move on... so on;
on this my strange walk no one there to talk, not fearing waves may knock me down

I laugh like a maniac at roaring waves, enjoying on high tides that look like graves; Swallowing salt water rivers brought, bearing foolishness religions taught

As the riptide try to drown me forever,
I sail like weightless bubble, so clever Pulls me out so much farther and deeper, Than I would've gone alone, I like to meet our Father

Ramdas Bhandarkar

I Listen To thy Music Everywhere!

I feel my spine is thy flute, My breath is thine,
Producing strange music,
AUM in different tone and pitch!

My heart beats like Drum and bass, when my ears able to listen, Songs you sing Everytime different and new, using different flutes!

Thy face I see in mirror of different drops of life, the rainbow of colors appear, When your light refract through drops that rain from heaven!

Thy light glows too in fire of hell, and thy beauty in colourful flowers,
Birds and butterflies,
Thy light shines in different colours, life in every species making whole world colourful!

Thy song echoed even in murmur of bees, in the flow of rivers,
Or in the voice of persons, and the noice of people alike In the roar of a lion or of ocean waves, Or in the silence of icy mountains,
I listen to thy music everywhere!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

I wait for beloved on tomb of my own memories!

Wandering through streets, peeping through eyes, faces known or unknown, behind great walls of their heart, cities of amazing design found!

Jumping into to these cities, found flowers in parks of par excellence, extravagant palace of hopes, temples of faith, library of memories, tavern of beliefs, schools of thoughts!

so many people wandering and smiling, friends and relatives; teachers and cheats pet and novelties of passion, impulses vehicles of happiness, habits and mannerism, But a place found common in every city!

That the place where memories rest in peace, may be of pain, may be of failure, may be of faults, or may be of lost-people, opportunities slipped, or loss of loved ones!

Undisclosed loves, rejected or got dejected, marks of tears, seeds of dreams not sprouted, sprouted dreams died before growth, desires beyond social limits, crushed under wheels of duties R.I.P.!

But not all of them R.I.P., haunting ghosts, phantoms, some are blood sucking vampires;
diabolic and monstrous or Frankenstein, outcome of minds own experiments!

Driven by faith, wandering here and there, to find an graveyard less Eden like mind, shaken by uncountable search meeting failure, large space in my own mind became graveyard;
I wait for beloved on tomb of my own memories!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

I Was On Cross Road!

Strange I am,
I think different,

Whatever things,
I like not,
liked by others, whatever I like,
Not liked by others!

I opened my heart,
Others then felt bad.
Open heart of them,
Looked ugly to me!

Whenever I laugh,
They felt as cough,
But for my every cough,
They enjoyed their laugh,

My every tears they enjoyed,
My enjoyment,
Made them hard.

I loved life and them,
They live forgetting love!
So I was at cross road, What to do and what not to do!

I stood where,
Four roads met,
Life -was my pet
How can I set?

One road lead to town
Another to mountain, Third one to forest,
Fourth, where dead rest!

A piece of rope,
Or loss of hope,
I stood at by a yard,
Away from road to graveyard!

I thought of solitude haunting in multitude,
I stood at road to forest,
Where I may get some rest

Looked at the mountain, I thought my life can sustain, like that lonely mountain it became inspiring fountain!

I took the way to town,
Removed masks of clown,
I stood there as lovely tree,
I kicked off idea of other three!

I built a house by side of the road,
My mind became clean and broad,
I gazed at passers on street,
My thought really is treat,

Fed of pains and sorrow,
Shed off all thoughts narrow,
Fed birds and animals and men, Started using book and pen!

I felt solitude everywhere
And carried to anywhere, Worked like a horse or ox Removed all that were hoax!

No pain, no strain, no stain of guilt!
Life full of rain and green Life full of love and compassion Happiness and bliss I felt!

Alone in company of all;
With all, when I am alone Escaped the great fall Gained lost paradise on own!

I Weave My Cocoon, Only For Own Metamorphosis!

Strangely life looks like a web, Knitted by Sunlight, Light of distant stars,
And light Reflected by moon and planets..

I could have survived and cut the web, but the web is strengthened by more layers,
May be light absorbed and reflected by me,
And bouncing back from my Kiths and kins, Mosquitoes and bugs,
My own blood relatives,
Sharing my blood or may be I am sharing thiers!
Life is like ground under fruit bearing tree,
Full of smashed fruits by its own fall,
Half eaten, half ripe, may be fully ripen and may be rotten!

Delicious and sweet fruits it bear, Sometimes by cosmic friends, parrots and bats,
May be monkeys and niebours, Test me and tease me,
My ability to access the fruits,
They have better nose and eyes than me,
They observe changes faster than me, They peck or take a bite, before I can wake up and see,
Birds are better than bats and monkeys, Birds just eat enough and fly, Monkeys and bats are horrible,
They taste one, pluck many,
Take to their friends and relatives,
And throw on their path as a route map to others, Rotten fruits smell bad,
Flies and mosquitoes, Flies spread disease, are better, Mosquitoes spread disease and feast on my blood too, Just like juice after meal!
All these knit web around!

All I have that is my own nest,
My own shining shine,
Where I weep, laugh and workout my own plans,
Which becomes my shield,
And what look like shield is my own cocoon,
Where I sleep or meditate,
Only come out completely metamorphing myself, cutting cocoon With flying colours!

I feelfree now with coloured wings, Antennae and suckers,
I fly over flowers,

But gather nectar and I help flowers to live fruitful!
But I am innocent
I sing and dance in air,
With my coloured wings
I am a flying flower Found in garden or in wild!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

I Will Raise, I Will!

I want to Rise
I want To rise from this cage
To the infinite realms
Of my own
One can't gauge,
You may write scriptures for me
Just to keep me down confined to the cage,
I learnt from history Of saints,
How you trap us into this cage With your sweet coated bitter pills, twisted lies, take us to hills, Wherein you push us to death or leave us alone at dead end!

You may put me into dirt or mist covered path
But still, like speck of eternal, I want To rise.
To stand on my own and see what is what!

Does my happiness upset you?
Why you want me in gloom? 'Cause I think, what am I,
I've got, love in my heart.
Infinitely, the infinite,
I see in myself,
Infinite wells of infinite depth
I fill with love all wells
And with all knowledge,
I threw all in it,
Even I jumped into them, to get dissolved Pumping not necessary, love overflow in my life.
Just like irrigation to gardens, And feed every plant to make them swing their head With fruits and flowers to divine song

Sun of knowledge shine,
Each and every soul is your shrine,
Why can't shed ignorance of mine,
You are mine, you are mine of knowledge,
You are mine of love in heart of mine!
When in the certainty of tides,
Just like drops of wave spring high,
Still I want To rise.

I am that, see me broken dust of that?
Bowed head and lowered eyes?
Shoulders falling down like wet dirty cloth?
Weakened by my soulful desires, and feelings Is my naughtyness offence?
can't you see your child at play, you made it awful hard

'Cause I laugh and smiled like kid I've got mines of love to bid, Diving into depth of my own.
You may test me, my words and deeds,
You may set filters,
Still I can pass as I am dissolved myself Then with your eyes,
You may ask me to see your divine fullness, But still,
like light in vacuum, I'll rise.
Let my bliss take me to you!
when it come as a surprise That I dance like I've got everything,
At the meeting of my brains I want To rest!
Out of the huts of history of long pain of longing
I want To rise
Up from a past you are my root
I want rise I'm a black ocean having Lord floting on me, sailing and smiling wide, I bear in my mind, I am only a witness to every wave and tide.
loving nights of terror
and smiling at fear I rise Into that infinite bliss wondrously clear I rise digesting all that my ancestors gave,
I am the dream,
I was the slave, to my own folly in my own dream.
I want To rise above all dreams,
I will rise my self above all I will rise to that,
I am that, I am that who don't know who I am And no one can't know what I am!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

I Wonder How Am I a Poet?

No great language skill,
No sufficient vocabulary,
No grip of grammar, Frequent spelling mistake,
no laptop or desktop,
Only I will be Sometimes on rooftop, Monkey mind jumps from rooftop to next treetop, Shaking bunches of fruits,
Only words fall from tip of leaves like dewdrops!

Winged feelings fly above clouds
What ever molten heart put words in different molds!
No resource,
only a second hand phone I use, my heart is my only source!

Dictionary predict some words for some another, I think some words to type, it types something different pot-pourri!

No poesy, no poetic skill, Whatever thought comes,
I fill the page!
I can't go beyond as I am not a sage!

All started with something melting in me, Frozen thoughts started to flow,
I am even typing very slow,
I have more poverty than poetry in heart!

My poems, are works of poetaster,
What my heart does I don't know,
Sometimes mind shines like mountain snow, Avalanche and sliding cause frequent mistakes,
I wonder whether my esteem is at stake!
I feel like some iceberg melting, Sometime with flowing thoughts,
Waste to float on lines!

I know, I am nothing,
I came here a nothing,
Living as a nothing,
But something which is everything,
Making my weakness public,
Sometime I feel ashamed of myself,
As my poems are making me more and more naked,
But I console myself,
Why you worry, you are still a kid, stone happened to to melt, or just opened eyes, wondering kid!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

If Brain controls Body, Think, who created Brain And Controls it!

Gaining control over flesh and nerves, the spirit that raised us from dust,
Is it not true that the spirit that dance, this clay toy is moved by the light within!

Closing eyes see with divine eye,
The one who created light, shine, running through nerves Her will, motion controlled by currents!

your talent is its talent, your dance is its dance,
if brain controls flesh, think, who created and controls brain!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

If HE is Not Now Here, HE is Nowhere!

Wandering here and there,
Searching for beloved,
On mountain peaks,
Nature looks beautiful with green forest and meadows covered by veil of fog and mist!
Forest and meadows full of life Looking at the mountain peak, standing in meadow the cloud of mist, covering it now!

For one spiritual minded,
World is felt under veil,
For materialistic mind spirit covered under veil, Reality is under veil of mind,
Light is more deceptive,
When light passes through veil of ignorance of mind, Creator looks like creature, How one can believe creator, his creation creature are one!

The belief and faith are so strong,
That even if creator comes and say,
'I am the creator',
We drag him to court,
Or show him way to asylum,
Because we are creators of our future, never want creator to poke his nose,
When misguided mind,
Keeps on misguiding, Misguiding its own creator!
Every flow of current,
Generate a force,
Which opposes its own origin,

So, son opposes his own father, not knowing father, mother, son are same and one!

The one not found in me or you,
Or in the space within atom,
Or not found in beauty of nature,
Beauty of life around,
How can he be in Kashi or Jerusalem or Kaaba?

If not He can understand my song of love,
How he can understand Mantra and verses?

If he can't cross the boundary of hearts,
Man made boundaries of caste and creed,
Nation and state borders,
How can I believe, He is LORD OF UNIVERSE?

The One who is not now here is surely nowhere,
One need not find him anywhere,

If he is my true beloved,
He should be here now,
With me and all the time always!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

If Nations and Religions Were Bunch of Grapes

If nations or religions are bunches of grapes, then ripe one falls off to ground, where it has its source.
Human heart is like bird with wings,
Fly high above where there are no boundaries.

The vast ocean or infinite sky or blowing wind, or birds with strong wings, or may be butterflies, may be wisdom or innocence or ego's foolishness, who can believe obey narrow human boundaries?

Ramdas Bhandarkar

if this me is not I who Am I?

If this me is I,
That appear and disappear, Knowing life and death, Feeling depressed by pain and inflated by pleasure, Fatigue by the strain and compressed by pressure, is it that I,
Colony of cells,
every instant one cell die, and one take birth? If buddha told, he is void and universe too,
Who spoke to whom?
Is it Buddha or some one more wise than Buddha spoke?
Is it to ignorant mob he spoke, Or to joblessly and meaninglessly to void? In this plane when I believe, this me is I am,
It is true at this level,
If not then I am above this plane!
Starting journey as part of universe,
Changing robe after robe, Shedding old skin acquiring new,
I grow to maturity, where drops wisdom leak from heaven, through my skull and fills brain, I grow to what I am!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

In My Dream, light plays!

Night is the time,
Sleeping in infinite nothing, becoming nothing in beloved embrace, forgetting everything! In the lap of beloved enjoy dreams,
may some come true,
Some may not,
Observing dreams one sees the light within,
Randomly light plays in my dream
At the dawn, with gentle breeze, Dreams melt, innerlight into light
of world,
Never go back to sleep,
If you sleep at dawn,
What will be there at dusk? If dustfree dawn make you sleep,
Failing to Smile and work,
If can't feel lighter in the light of dawn,
Sure the darkness covering light,
Will make you faint at dusk!

Seeds says seed of immortality is packed in mortal seed coat!
DNA sings, its immortality covered in mortality of seed, Finally Life sings, Immortality of life is packed in mortal DNA, and Self whispers, my immortality is sung by mortal life!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Isn't It True My Lord!

How you love me?
o Lord,
why you love me?
I am that naughty child,
I am that foolish one,
I am that playful, With dirt of ground,
On body and cloth! I am not lazy, but always crazy always busy on this stage and ground,
Where I play my role and where I play my game, sleep where I am, Whenever I feel tired, Never bother where I am! When I fall and get pain, now and then, I come running to you,
Just like a kid, busy in play run to its mother when it fall! How do you love me O, Lord why you love me?
You love me because I am your child,
I love you because you are my father, mother, and my all, I am one among all,
But you are unique to me!
If I love brothers and sisters and all, my love reaches your heart, and you are happy with me.
Isn't it true my Lord?

Ramdas Bhandarkar

It is true, now I wonder at beauty of his kingdom!

Fear of God is not the beginning of knowledge, Gratitude and Love that we acknowledge;
It is not true fear of parents, made me learn, my own appreciation and craving for perfection it is my own thirst to be free and happy, I yearn!

It is not a wonder if we love the most wonderful, every moment that unfold the life is beautiful; Development we enjoy, we owe to to nature, Looking around, up and down, we observe, wondering, what purpose life can serve!

We wonder at talent in artist, the great, only feeling strange peace in our heart;
More we discover, more we become grateful, Scientists can only discover creator's wisdom,
It is true, now I wonder at beauty of his kingdom!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Kill Instincts To Smile At Death!

Don't kill animals, you are more animal than human,
more and more you learn,
You find animals live in you, Kill their instincts in own your mind,

Humanity and love are that strange light, in which instincts dry and die and vanish, you need not find and kill them,
Or you need not banish!

Patience and compassion grow quick and wide,
Under them how can weeds like instinct and ego grow?

Don't kill your desires, not allow them to kill you!
be better gardner of own mind, neither prune them, nor water
Only plant good virtues and thoughts and take care of deeds, Care and nurture only love,
Like to live like peaceful dove,
Love that takes care of them remove all pests and weeds!

Don't kill the time, use it well
Some day time may bring you the death,
Do well here, living satisfied, Welcome your new friend, with a warm hand,
'Hello, my dear Death, how do you do? '
Take this body and mind and everything,
They were always yours, and you are the real owner,
I was that homeless, nameless, formless, tenant, But never I was hopeless or Faithless!
And I am that vacating, and you need not force me out!

You could see me, who I am
Unlike my past lives,
I am now not even that absolute soul of universe,
I am awoken to sleep in my awareness!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Know Thyself!

Ah! The speck of a star dust,
Filling a ray of light, Get Excited to roam here and there! The one who has neither born, nor die,
The eternal infinite singing its eternal song AUM,
Going round and round the Sun,
Along the revolving Earth, Rotating about own axis along with rotating Planet! I and you are same here, Counting the time, counting the days, Everything is natural,
Why can't I be more natural
Why can't I be neutral, All here are busy,
The Sun, the Moon,
The Earth,
The ocean and breeze,
Every cells of plants and animals busy, Look at your cells,
That too are soundlessly busy,
Why can't I and you,
Say 'I am you' to the creator, Because you too conferred same capacity, capable to create your own world,
Your own happiness and sorrow,
Your own world of life, wisdom and knowledge,
Its show of shadow play is this world!

If everything came from nothing,
And everything goes into nothing,
Nothing is smiling behind everything,
And everything showup on nothing, is it true that universe is nothing, Or one in this universe is nothing? Or is it true that the sense developed by nothing can feel everything? Creation is the result of creativity of that nothing,
For which everything is possible, Nothing is impossible to that nothing,
Which can play with everything! Remain here as nothing, Behave yourself nothing,
Someday that will be the truth, Nothing can save you from leaving everything!
Love everyone seeing this nothing which is behind everything!

More or less, my mind, dipping itself in divinity within, several times a day, Losing weight, its dirt,
dissolving its narrowness,
In the infinite vastness of Self!

More or less it is learning that knowledge and wisdom, Thirst for more and more,
Power and popularity,
All are equally dragging back to hell!

Hell is where I feel Myself finite, Yet feeling pain infinite,
Heaven is that where I feel myself light and painless, Neither senseless nor insane!

It is here itself both hell or heaven felt,
Beyond which there is reality and truth,
It is not a matter of places, Hell or heaven are,
Only a matter of planes,
Planes at with mind take me,
And beyond the plane where mind can never go,
I find the Self shining in its glory, and that plane,
No duality or trinity exist,
Only one who ever exit is not felt,
The life of an atom or life of a star begins!

Yet no star can shine,
Only that mysterious that shines which remains mysterious,
With that light which absorbs all!

Know for sure, you are that,
That truth, beyond all truth that your tongue can talk, Mind can imagine and intelligence and reasoning can go, Mystery is beyond perception, No one can penetrate this mystery as he himself is that!

God is not nothing,
But isn't it sure God is not a thing
Of perception,
How can one percept the perceptor? God is the whole being, absolute infinite,
No one to see exist other than him,

Not even mirror in which he can see himself, He himself became universe, the mirror,
In which he can see himself!
When someone come out of the absolute infinite to look back, Can only find both are relative infinite, Relative to one another,
Related to one another eternally God and nature are these eternal relatives!

Knowledge is Mother Of Life Divine!

Only of evils in own, seeing the path of Goodness and Godliness, Knowledge is not mother of fear,
But knowledge is mother of Care,
Against one's own fall or care about fall of others!

Knowledge is not mother of fear,
Knowledge is the spear,
Knowledge is spear that kills the fear,
And takes to fearless sphere!

` FEAR Is Mother Of KNOWLEDGE.
Aye or Nay, you decide!

How can one born to fear can dare, how can one see is own nature, fear, if governs his mind and thought, How one fear more,
Can open windows and door?

Fear is not the mother of love,
A child's love to its mother or father,
Is just Love And Respect, Not fear the mother of all these,
Fear only maketh one run away from Father,
Love And affection take near to Him!

Knowledge is mother of Courage,
Love, faith, belief and aspiration of oneness!

Fear is mother of Cowardice, doubts, hate, Fear is mother of all slips and fall,
Fear is the mother of ill fate!

Only Love, The love of truth, and love with True knowledge is the mother of Life Divine!

Aye or Nay you Decide!

Laugh, Laugh With All!

Laugh and the world laughs with you but when you weep you all alone and so called human world laughs at you, But not the trees and plants,
And not the flowering plants,
More over neither Earth nor the air,
Only when we weep our tears can wet only our heart,
Not even if wet's beloved God's heart,
Wipe your tears and say,
All is well and it is my own fate!

Learn Ramdas 1

Learn Ramdas,
Whether you are resting in nondual consciousness or not,
You are product of nondual love, Remember nondual love that shaped you only through duality, Nature and its products are in Self, Gratitude is crown of understanding,
That Understanding of indebtedness, Duality that come as parents, relatives and friends, all may be produce of nondual, Let SELF be duty bound, Gratitude is gratification, That never stop one from peace and spreading love!
Be grateful to all who has worked according to divine plan,
Be grateful to toys that taught what this eternal play of nondual eternal,
It is true, Ramdas has learnt that gratefulness is wakefulness, awareness of dreamful existence, yet you have so many thing to learn,
Learn Ramdas with all,
From all with love and gratitude!

Gratitude leads to love, Love that transformed every atoms of me, Transformed structure and properties,
So that He and His love, Come in my way as friends, Like rays of Sun,
Even as my enemies like dark clouds covering the Sun! Only transform me into, Precious ornament, Precious stones embedded into engraved precious metal, Nay, precious virtues, Embedded in talented loving heart! namaste to you and all! Knowing Love is knowing
God,
 Knowing God is Knowing Self, Knowing Self is Dawn of knowledge,
 Dawn of knowledge leads to wisdom infinite!

Learn Ramdas 2

Learn Ramdas,
Who else can Fill your life with happiness than yourself!

Learn Ramdas,
The mind that sees beauty everywhere in nature, Surely is naturally beautiful, Beautiful in its own nature,
It is not that innocence has to see beauty everywhere,
But also the eyes with mature mind!

Learn Ramdas,
Who can smile with your lips than yourself?
A life can bring smile to another,
Smile is contiguous,
Laugh wakes up the sleeping envious,
Because smile knows to conceal, Laugh is innocent of envy!
learn Ramdas,
Be careful, yawning and laziness are more harmful,
They are fast spreading disease, Vaccinate yourself with sense of duty and presence of mind!
Select words before lips can sound, Sound is three dimensional wave,
May get echoed from all directions,
Not only from people around,
But also by earth below your feet,
But also by sky above the head!
spread smile and gentle words, Even when you disagree with some one,
Be sure your words are more agreeable to all,

May your word breath wisdom, bring a smile in someone,
And wisdom spread with smile like Sunrays!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Learn Ramdas 3

The confusions haunt minds of people, Whether experience endorses truth,
Or Truth endorses purity of one's mind, Bringing one to that plane,
Where one more face of truth shines?

More and more face of truth get uncovered,
As one's soul gets tuned to soul of the universe, Contentment comes as fragrance,
Special veil of maya when falls off,
When heart sheds narrow emotions!

Learned one values what one has than what one must earn, Digests knowledge earned rather than,
Earn knowledge he can't digest, Like to preserve what one has than,
What strive for what others have!
Seeing pain behind all possessions, wise one renounce desires from heart!

Knowing for sure 'one bird in hand is far better than two in the bush '

'what is present with one in his present,
May be snatched by future and slips into past'

One who soars to higher plane, Wonders at infinite beauty of universe,
High flight is possible,
Free of unnecessary weight of emotions, when load is less!

One when feels like caged bird, Songs craving for freedom flows,
And freedom is independence,
One independent of even thoughts and emotions feels ever free, lives in present and learns souls independence, Feel free where he is,
Happy with what he has,
Jumping the fence of narrow trifles, Escaping himself from all bindings, Feels free to think and work for all,
Who are seen as himself in different forms, Undiffereneciated by time and space,
Look at the worlds as steps of evolution, Same truth showing its different faces!

Learn Ramdas,
Lesser the weight one carry,
Higher he can fly,
With less strain and conserving energy, storing into his reserve!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Learn Ramdas!

Learn Ramdas,
if one is either lost in the memories of past which are dead or lost in thinking about unborn future, surely one is absent in the present!
living in the present, is presence of mind, living in the past or future is absence of mind.... Just like Shakunthala lost in memories got cursed, for absence of mind!
Every moment we encounter with various forces of nature, we get cursed, for absence of mind, either by imperfect souls, or imperfect gods or demons those are one with natural forces! Presence of mind and absence of mind, let us know which is more helpful!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Learn Ramdas, learn!

Nature is the grand school,
Even sometimes demoted to lowerclass, Nature is that school,
Where knowledge and wisdom alone qualifies one to higher class, Wherein a mistake is sufficient to get sent back, See some animals, may it be a dog or a cat,
May it be a plant or tree,
All move from lower level to higher,
Every pain is a lesson,
Every helplessness leads to prayer,

Even the king of forest left alone by others at the end, but not by the ants and flies and parasites, Make him suffer a lot,
Get disgusted of own life, with the very last breath,
He wish something and it gets fulfilled!

Some animals learn quick,
Yet they wish for what they don't have,
Nature fulfils its wish,
Until self learns, all wishes that are narrow and selfish lead to pain,
This learning of 'desires are cause of pain'
Continues until one becomes free of desires!

I have seen somany people saying,
'Dogs life in wealthy man's house is far better the life of helpless poor man'
Such men may destined to come as dog in some wealthy man's house, Only to learn,
dog is only dog,
not more than that,
If one has patience,
The study of life itself shows,
Animal to man, man to animal is possible,
Till one gets free of desires, Selfless and think beyond desires and pain.

This is not a doctrine,
It is my observations of animals and plants around me!
I never ask anyone to believe this,
When entire living world is one family, Everything is possible,
learn Ramdas,
Learn,
Incarnation of unfulfilled desires is reincarnation of soul!
Just take as a food for thought,
Better not waste time on discussion,
Find the way out to become free of desires

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Let Not Pain Of Longing Be Anymore!

Earth is our carpet, Sky is our blanket,
Sun and moons are lights,
Stars are perfumed by your smell,
How can I wait for long?

Heart is that feathered bird Sometime fly high to find you!

Mind dives into ocean of thoughts, Meditating on beauty of you!

Jumping Kangaroo And its kid envy me,
I too carry your name in heart,
Leap and jump in the grassy meadow green!
Green is my love, always let it be green,

Green plants with wonderful flowers grow, Let your face in them they show, fragrant with only thine smell!

Why can't I carry thou name and memories like that,
As clouds carry rain an rainbow in their form?

My beloved thee can be only one,
Can't thou feel what I suffer here?

Let longing come to end, Let belonging go to beloved,
And beloved comes to embrace, Melt me and fuse with him,
I and he be one for ever,
Let not Pain longing be anymore!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Let Our Emotions Be Soaked in Wisdom!

Peace is our love, we love peace, Dove in every heart can enjoy its life, Peace and love make, Nightingale in us,
sing that eternal song!

Our Worth shine in, words and deeds,
Worth is our perseverance Efficiency is our force!

Love Is purifier of Conduct, agitate and stir, froth of impurity flow out,
as love stirs our heart!
Kindness and Prudence be our Action
Let our Emotions soaked in wisdom!

Affection reflect in our eyes our Feelings May Tolerate the Truth, let Be love is our worth, our Practice may be patience and excuse!

Let Wisdom shower our Innocence.
Innocence be our treasure, May Knowledge Be our Meditation
Understanding is our weapon,
Our Essence is Compassion, Noble Compassion is companion Passion is compassion, Forgiveness shine our path with temporal, Path Of Divination Because..
Global Fraternity Is Victim Of Obscuration For They Aren't Aware Of Their Doings, Deals & Deeds..
May our heart excuse and embrace all!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Let People Shed Tears or Fears!

I am a soul, I am a soul,
I am not having anything foul,
Even in my dream!

I am neither a reformer, nor that spiritual master,
I Know almighty
Is in my heart always,

If something reforms,
Let it reform naturally,
I am neither a God,
Nor that great man!

I can blind my eyes, and I can deaf my ears,
Then why can't I be dumb,
This is not your place,

You need not change anything Ramdas,
Just shed tears in prayer,
Shut the mouth, and let your mind weep before,
The almighty sitting on throne of your heart,

If you see pollution and corruption,
Sit and meditate for incarnation of Krishna, Even if krishna can't do any thing,
When his own men fell for their foolishness,

Even Jesus excused people crucified him,
Let the fools do sin and wash their body Ganges,
Not to purify them,
Just sufficient to pollute Ganga!

Let people go to temple, churches, gurudwaras, basdis and mosque,
Not to pray,
But to wash their sins,
Not to shed tears of love, Just shed fear of death just to shed their fear sin or save their faith, Who am I to ask?

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Let The Inner Light Shine!

Sometimes in dream
I see only light,
The light that shines,
But Sometimes
play different colour!

Wonderful are these,
life and dreams,
without rhyme or reason,
They swiftly turn,
Change course and colour!

Sometimes only wearer know where the shoe pinches,
And others may laugh on his walk, may it be relative or friend, Friend is that one with heart, keep aside his own pain,
May all others smile or laugh, No one to weep with, friend full of loving heart, ready to wipe tears of crying heart!

May it be life, or it may be a dream!
Dreamer only know how take dreams him far, How great or how dreadful dreams are,
One has to face it all alone!

Is one's own mind give, shape and form to his dreams, Lest they are play of shadow and light, Shade and colours mind feels!

What is that making
In my dream or life,
I only enjoy,
Or even I only suffer By unknown fear,
Everyone is busy in his own itch,
Who on this universe, has free hands to help,
Some leisure left is used to poke one's nose into others affairs,
Not to help, only to irritate and laugh?

Let inner light shine bright,
Stop inner turmoil and fight, Let all useless thoughts die, let only love shine, glory of wisdom and knowledge divine, Beyond horizon of limitations of human mind,
Every heart be true and kind!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Let Us Learn How To Play!

Life is a game,
Full of anxiety,
Full of excitement,
Who is the player?

I, you and we are players if we are all players, for what we play?
For what we have to play?
For money or name,
Or to gain some toys to feel only more pain?

We take nothing at the end, trophies and medals, will not have meaning,
why we run here and there,
Jump and hop,
laugh and weep, Why we strive to win?

We never know causes, Whose effect is this life?
We don't know our cause here,
And we talk of causes!
What cause may take us where?
Useless to think, just play your game!

Find the player who play and enjoy all alone, Creating own ground and arena,
He plays and enjoys the game, so many things bring us shame,
Our own thoughts and deeds,
Who is enemy of us greater than these?
Let him play his game, Pray him for rest,
sit and meditate at his feet,
Or get the yellow card for wrong play!
Anyway find a way to sit aside, Let others play,
let us rest a while,
Watch and learn how to play!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Let us think, Who we are?

Let us clarify ourselves,
Are we here to Earn Self?
Are we here really,
Then who are we,
From where we come here,
If we look at the evolution of life, Everycell in our body is living, Body is colony of cells,
Each cell performing its duty,
Without knowing the final result, A cell may not be knowing who is master of this body, From where it gets food, Who removes the garbage and waste, It is I am that dwelling here, Identifying myself as colony of cells,
Feeding it, using it and enjoying fruits, Happiness and pain!
isn't it clear that we are not the body?
We are not the mind that depend the capital city,
Of this colony,
The brain in the head, Still look at are we physiological and psychological wonder, Or are we wonder beyond these all?
Aren't we the root cause of all wonder, Creating these wonder out of elements? Limiting ourselves is our own fault,
We are master of our own, Yet we live like slaves of our own creation!

Look at what we call as grace of God!
Isn't it our own purity,
Our own mastery,
Or own fight against odds,
The result of battle between real and unreal is graceful than any grace?
God will look at you with neutrality,
As neutrality and impartiality are his qualities, Just He is witness to what you are!
You are the Self of universe, Everywhere you confuse yourself with time and space,
Get confused with colonies,
Just widen own consciousness,
You are that who has that capacity, Once learn that you are the lord,
See that Lord in everyone,

Every knowledge is yours,
Because same truth lies behind everything, as consciousness that lives in you as your core!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Life Has A Great Customer!

Life is having one great customer,
The Lord in disguise in every life,

Blessed is the lotus, which blooms in mudfilled lake, Golden petals lotus, in trifle suffered hearts, May it be an Einstein, or may a Gibran,
Such births take place in this pool, Filled with so many problems!

Yet the love is so great,
I love my beloved more than my life,
This life is his,
This life is for him,
Every moment I die and reborn in him,

Every sound of rustling leaves,
My beloved's call,
With every wind the fragrance of beloved cometh,

Every moving cloud shows, Different face of my beloved,
With every raise and fall of a wave,
My beloved shows up,
In every golden rays of the Morning Sun is my beloved's procession, Rooster calling, wake up see the glories procession of beloved,
Birds singing praise of the beloved,
In dewdrops his world shineth, Everyday if one rooster or bird gone,
It take the rebirth to sing his glory,
Every dew dropp evaporated appear next morning,
So am I to die every moment,
To this world I am dead,
Ever living and sleeping in beloved's heart, Whenever I want my eyes to fill his glory, I come out of his heart,
Stand aside, and look at my beloved's beautiful face!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Life Immortal!

Nothing less, nothing more,
The flash of billion Galaxies,
The glowing stars,
Revolving planets,
Roaring rainy clouds,
The Sun, The moon, the Earth, Land and oceans, Ice covered mountain to Sand covered deserts, Hot core and mantle of earth to ice covered poles,
Made of elements, Energy manifesting in different forms in different ways! One which lives has to change, One who brings every thing to life never changes That remains mysterious, as no signal can come from,
No signals can go from here, But that mysterious pervades all, dwelling inside every thing and enjoys everything without enjoying,
Moving everything without moving at all, Newton third law fails as action and reactions balanced only on this plane,
But valid on the plane where everything is only one!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Life Is Like A Number Line

Life Is Like a number Line, Between negative infinity to positive infinity,
At the middle have that zero,
All are finite numbers,
Zero stands for nothing, Infinity for everything,
But zero is some how useful,
When it is with numbers on proper side, Infinity is useless as it engulf all!

Numbers are special on their own,
Some are positives, have mirror images in negatives,
May be integers or fractions,
May be rational or irrational,
Some are real and some are imaginary,
These make number of life complex, Polynomials with complex roots,
Or with complex coefficients,
If we take them on XY plane, they act and interact with one another,
Some make us laugh, as we find the answer,
Some brings us to sober, as they remain as mystery!

But life Is not to dimensional, Multi dimensional it is,
So multidimensional space of life make it wonderful,
A wonder out of reach of all!

But modular sets can draw some with some similarities
If you want to become mathematician, Learn to play with them, bearing all headache they cause!

Otherwise either multiply all numbers by zero,
And yourself too, become zero,
Or merge all in infinity to wash your dirty hands,
If you want to know what is life,
Become a mathematician to play with numbers, Life Is nothing but interaction of real with real or real with imaginary, positive with positive,
Negative with negative,
Or positive with negative, Rational with rational, irrational with irrational, most of time a rational with irrational, But noone is perfect like zero among finite,
And no one can't say anything about the infinite!

The Soul is that space on which all numbers play according to the karma and thoughts!

Oops this interactions of numbers is life!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Life Is Like Rainbow!

Life is like a rainbow, you need both sun and rain to make it appear, and one who observe, Life is that rainbow appearing with Energy and matter, Self is the observer!

Life is like rainbow needs both Sun and rain to spread its colours, Walk along the garden path,
Or trek along mountain forest paths, Life spreads its colours,
In flowers and butterflies,
Flora and fauna!

Life spread its colours like rainbow in every ecosystem,
May green mountains,
Shining beneath surface of lake,
May be in hot deserts, or in cold polar continents!

Life is like rainbow need Life and habitat are two things to spreads its colours!
Life is like rainbow needs food and love to spread its colours!

Life is like rainbow needs love and compassion to spread it colours!

life is like Rainbow spreads colours need lover and beloved in their eyes!

Life is like rainbow that needs desires an ambitions to spread it colours!
Life is like rainbow need feelings and thoughts to spread its colours!

Life is like rainbow that needs children and parents to spread colours, Life is like rainbow that needs kids and their innocent thoughts to spread it colours, Life is like rainbow that needs wisdom and patience in elders to spread its colours!

Life is like rainbow that needs two things in teenagers energy and dreams to spread its colours!
Life is like rainbow that needs sky and observer, Some feel rainbow is illusion like mirage,

But some manage to bridge between life and soul!
Rainbow colours found in every soap bubble, bubbles grow and shine, spread colours before they burst and die, .

Strange feeling they create,
Spread their message,
Just like colours spread on their face!

For a scientist life is like rain bow that needs rain and sun,
For a philosopher,
Life is like rainbow needs illusion and misidentification,

Rainbow is illusion created by elements and light, just like life and world!
It is natural and nature's MAYA,

Nonexisting thing showup, hiding existing things, object is hidden in subject
Just like a mirage in desert or fragrance in a flower!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Life is not A question, But It is an experience!

Life is not a question that to be solved, it should be experienced!
Life is that experience of facing and solving problems, toughest is to know the one who experience.
The evolution of life itself is story of trial and error!
life itself is that greatest observer of itself!

The vision of invisible viewing through mortal eyes, hearing the silent eloquent by mortal ears, touching the one beyond touch by mortal skin, Smelling the one odourfree by mortal nose, Tasting the one who is tastefree by mortal tongue Immortal showing up as mortal!

Life is an experience between birth and death, coming here as nothing, Learning to love and hate,

Learning to work and expect fruits, developing skill to use senses and devices, Learning to use mind and intelligence, Learning and conveying message,
The message of immortal to mortal,
The truth itself in pursuit of Truth!
Life itself is that truth, looks like an experience that constantly puts its own existence on trial...

The one who had born has to die,
But one who is eternal continues his eternal play!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Life, Where Is life!

Life is always light for some Life is always fight
for some,
Life is full of light
For some Life is without light for some,
Life is search for light,

Some live a long life,
Some live for a short,
Some live for a purpose, some live for themselves,
Some live for others,

Some are good thinkers,
Some are fantastic,
Some live in fantasies,
Some are short sighted,
And live a life, full of fight,
Some or long sighted,
And always stumble!

Some are great by birth,
Some are great by thoughts,
Some are great by deeds,
some are really great,
and they have the vission, They have the strength and will, they look as a lake still,
Yet they are full of life,
They always smile
And keep worries way a mile!

some has ways open, some has to open them on own, Some Wander where life takes,
Some take life where they want,
Some are really great
Those realise, if not there is either birth or death,
Who is there to say what is life?

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Life-Time

A life-time is not what's between,
The moments of birth and death, but between my two deep breaths;

A life-time is one moment between lub-dub of heart beats, or between flip flop of eye lids... ever keen;

seeing 'n' feeling, opening 'n' closing eyes, at times time fail to limit the life.

when the present, the here, the now, That's all the life I get,
I live each moment in full,
In kindness, in peace, without regret.

when I split past, present and future, more I expect from life, than I get, anger, envy, pride and desire, regret, whole span I can't live a moment life fail to withstand time's assault !

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Lighter birds can Soar high, Heavier can only Run on Legs!

Life itself is that eternal bird, building the nest of clay,
When safety becomes its priority, Closes windows and doors,
Only to feel itself in darkness, depriving itself of fresh air!

Smaller and narrow will be its nest,
Where in, It can sing in darkness,
The song of its pain heard by no one!

Learning leads to plan its home,
With wider doors and windows,
Open to light and fresh air,
Its happy song liked by all,
Little heart full of love, Wider than world as world feels,
Still the bird want more light, Leaving the nest,
flying long and wide,
Wide will be its vision,
Wide will be space its eyes can see,
Great view of world makes it happy,
Only happy bird can sing melody,
The eternal tune of wisdom, evergreen song that every life wants to sing!

Deep into space it can see,
Vision beyond galaxies, nay, vision beyond narrow boundaries of human heart,
The bird's eye surely full of visions, Free of views and thoughts, heart has only one religion,
'soar as high as possible,
Less weight of sorrows, less light of opinions,
Higher it can soar,
With lighter and efficient heart, lighter, yet efficient Heart,
Embedded in Lighter skeleton, Less weight of head,
Strong heart make the flight easy, Heavier the skeleton, Inefficient heart,
Can only make the bird flightless,
It can only run on legs away from truth,
Never can fly, how can it soar high?

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Listen to The Song of Invisible Bird!

Listen to The Song of that invisible bird,
The Song of great singer several souls heard, Sings sitting on tree of life, hidden under every leaf,
Its song go unheard by those pretend deaf,

Ever tuned to that great music,
Everytime it sings same song,
But with different lyrics and different words, Autumn may come followed by spring, Leaves may fall to make way to new,
Each leaf has that song, the bird flies under cover of green leaf,
When old yellow one fall,
Green leaves should learn from the fall of the old!

One can wait flowers to bloom,
Or can reap all fruits mature, or remove immature buds or raw fruits,

The tree of life spread to several worlds,
One parallel to other,
Makes one world happy by another, some may cross and intersect, only to give or take life!

Come an sit near a flower,
Look at frog waiting for insects to come,
The invisible bird sings its song,
May it be heart of the flower,
It is flower for you, source of nectar to insects, place where frog gets its food!

It is cage for that bird ready to fly, enters as nectar into insect, and it enters frog as insects, and moves along food chain,
It may be invisible to these eyes,
Yet it has its flight can be seen,
Look at your heart, the same bird sing,
Who knows when and where is its next flight?

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Love Is Divine!

Love is the nature's truth,
Love is the nature's law Love is that binds all,
Love is the force behind all!

Love is pure flow from bottom of heart,
It is like river of pure water of Ganges,
That washes the sins and feed all!
But we can't purify it, only we can let it flow Unpolluted,

May be loves flow is that great force,
Some one can put a dam, channel to get dry lands irrigated,
May one get power and energy, Love is that feeds all, thirsty and hungry,
Love is love, God is love!

Love from tiny heart to infinite hearts,
Love from heart to every soul,
Love from soul to soulmates, Love from a being,
to core of existence, Love from subtle core of existence
to all forms of existence!

Beautiful, love expands, fit for this space age,
Heart expanding beyond horizon,
In fact without horizon to limitless space!

Love covers all, love is the cover for all,
Love is great and sweet,
Love that bring all the difference,
Not only bring light to pair of hearts,
But also love can light the world,
The tiny spark of love,
Tiny heart that carries it, Spread love to universe, can blaze and burn all ignorance of all!

Love is not only feeling,
But also heart's own nature,
God is love, be one with God,
Then one can be one with love!
Love is that force that bring oneness with all,
Then love is God,
God is love,
You and me and all are one, One with love and one with God!

This is the story of infant Jesus to Jesus, the son of God!
This is the story of Buddha and Krishna, This can be story of I or you, Let it be so!

Love Is Fertile Land For Great Virtues!

'Love is patient, as love of a kind hearted mother,

Not only excuses her own child, but also its pet and close friends, Dancing in mud and then come in and dance on the costly and sofa, Enjoying with pet with dirty legs and friends with shoes on!

love is kind. Kind enough to care even the screaming patient

It does not envy, even when the love hidden in heart has lost to someone,
May be better or not than the one who love

Love does not boast, as
That was in heart of third daughter of King Lear, She said she loved the King as much as dutiful daughter should be! And She proved her words were from her heart!

Love is not proud.
It knows for sure, nothing is true and eternal,
There is nothing to be proud of heartfelt feelings!
It is not rude, When the dog spilled oil of the lamp, On that Wor Newton worked for several months, the papers were ashes within minutes,
Newton was never rude, he just took care of the dog and patiently put out the fire,

When a neighbours child asked Einstein to solve some nursery maths to help it!

Love is not self-seeking, strange to see a King denying heaven, if not the dog followed him to door of heaven is denied admission!

Love is not easily angered,
As a mother patiently bears all that loss due to child or a patient father takes his child into lap and patiently answers its innocent questions!
Love keeps no record of wrongs.
How many times one child might have kicked ones chest,
How many times pets might have caused mess,
No one had kept any records
Even the God had kept no records of sins!

Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.
Whenever some People want to breakup love or friendship Truth is dried and stuffed with lies, Adding spices and flavour, But love that looks at what is what as it is and makes truth to shine!

That keeps away, people never succeed to break!

Love always protects,
This need no example than that of our own parents not fearing to face the pain to protect us!

Love always trusts, always hopes, as I trust you all and hope that you love my poem,
And I persevere for proper comments as Love is pure and soft, yet it is not brittle, rigid as Love always perseveres.'
And love always preserves warm feelings in heart!

Love Is Not Blind, Only Lovers Become Blind In Its Blaze

The problem lies in right maiden fair, whenever I fall in love with maiden fair, she just smile at my fall and say, your fall is not fair, because I have my own affair.

Life is not always fair People have their nasty affairs Attitudinal Maidens right and fair Or even dark ones that scares Say them stat....bye and bye Telling aloud...you don't care.

'Act of Almighty is only fair, people's acts are unfair, God's Love is only fair, all other are business, give and take affair!

Fair business not possible, when each think of own profits.
Love is losing to win and winning to lose game.
Love is not blind, only lovers become blind in its blaze.

But Love at first sight
With a right maiden fair With luck may happen Empirically... I say is rare!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Love Makes Crow Sing!

Love in heart Fills, Love's warmth,
when melts Frozen thoughts
Feelings hidden and covered by ice of ignorance,

When light of Truth glows, words dance in groups,
So called poetry flows.
Loves Midas touch, a fool start singing to unknown tune,
It is not true that bird sings!

But the song flows and even the crow's voice,
Tuned when its heart tunes to Truth Of love!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Love of Radha, Lord Krishna!

Radha was Krishna's Love, Nay, Radha was Krishna's part,
Krishna was Radha heart,
She came dancing to tune of flute,
She was breath of his music,
She filled his Murali with Love divine,
He made her spine his flute, Chakras become seven holes of flute, played strange notes, became her light and joy, Sitting below lean against tree, with legs stretched like kind loving mother,
She took his head in her lap,
Love talked for hours in silence,
Her face Krishna saw in his own light,
And in her eyes his own figure,
In her heart his own face, Love is that lamp glowing in her heart, light of love spread whole world, even the Sun and moon reflected Radha's love!

He became her smile,
she laughed his hearts joy,
She shed tears of his pain,
Never cared for shame and blame, Never showed shyness,
As her star like love shines Sound was there companionship, Innocent she was about his divinity,
He gave his all to her plain love without vanity!

Radha, Radha was Krishna's breath sounded, Krishna, Krishna her heart danced,
No jealousy no possessiveness, Radha was great and her love too,
No touch of selfishness, love's spotless devotion, Pure was heart without corruption,
Her love revolved around Him,
Just as Earth around the Sun,
Or moon around the earth!
Sometimes she was satellite,
Sometimes she is star or planet,
Her love shined in the sky,
Shaded clouds shy red at dawn and dusk, Golden sun rays of dawn, adorned her love, white face of high clouds shy to red,
Black low clouds shed tears when Krishna was a bit late, Cooling the burn,
to put off the fire of longing!

Radha was nature and she was filled with Krishna's spirit, Radha was great to make Krishna Great,
She was her Guru, she became his motherlike at times,

She was friend and guide,
Never enjoyed his downward slide,
He filled her breath in his heart and mind,
Made it wide and light,
Prepared him for his high flight
No internal fight, every thing straight and her heart was ever light Filled with eternal love's light
She taught every thing in love is always right, When only heart is light with love's innocent purity extreme!

Love, Thee Shine Like Golden Lotus

o my beloved,

Love is thy name,
Mercy and compassion are thine ornaments, Beauty and colorful rainbows decor thee,

Dark and deep are your eyes,
How deep is your heart,
Still the surface glows;

Glow with shines of diamonds, corals, pearls and pure gold known as virtues,
All that makes thee wonderful,
Love that vapors spread in air, Spreading aura of Love Everywhere!

Like lotus of thousand petals, Thee shine in every heart,
The flow of sweet rivers of Love,
Flow into you,
That drops were evaporated, Became cloud and poured rain of thy name!

Man Is Especially Special!

Man is something special,
Man has something special!
Man thinks special,
And finds something special,

His smile and laugh are special And this made him more social.

Man's heart is special,
And always feels special!
Man feels pain and happiness,
Not only of him, but also of others

Man acts and does something special!
So he learnt to fly high, live simple, Think high and dive deep

Man is potential, as he is learner,
Man is potential and can be good teacher!

Man is inventor,
Man is discoverer!
Man is developer,
And man is engineer!

Man is special, as he is a dreamer, Man is special because,
He can correct himself!

Man became more a man
As he more and more became human,
Man is special, as he is social and cultural,

Man is an artist, as he able to express Man is special, as he can understand, Man can Play, plays and games,
Man is special, as man can be sportive!

Man is special, as man can discuss Man can be channel
For flow of knowledge.

Man is special, always curious to learn,
Man is special in imaginations!

Man is special, he looked far into space,
Man is special, he looks deep into his own!

Man is special, he sets a special eye in space,

Man is special, he can open his third eye to look into own,

Man is special, he can see flaws in himself,
Man is special, as he can see with a clear vision!

Man is special, and he thinks he is specially created by God,
And idea of God seems his own imaginations!

Man is so special, his imaginations and works become true,
He guessed his creator,
And with special care he became special creation on his own,
Because he is a special,
Specially created by the creator, with a special care, Man is special and said 'Truth is a faithless land, yet all paths lead to the truth here, where Truth manifested efficiently, and blossomed with all beauty and fragrance, in Man's heart only!

The truth of all is same the consciousness, the awareness and its purpose made man Special among all creations!

Man is man Man can be human
And man can realise he is divine

Man is so special, man can be God, Man can be demon,
Man can be one with his ancestor, man can be the potentially divine!
So man is especially,
So special,
Man is extraordinarily special divine social and naturally the proud son of nature!

Master Of Mind Can only be a Master Mind!

Seeing and hearing,
Is it eye that see?
Is it ear that hear?
Eyes are windows of Mind,
Like are ears, eyes have eyelids, ears remain open!

Seeing is not perceiving, Light passes through the small camera,
Giving picture of world around,
Yet mind is the processor, Process the data,
Process the colourful image,
Sometime filling with its own colour!

But it is not vision, mind sees something itself, Seeing through the mind without the help of eyes Neither windows opened, Nor light from open windows affect!

Mind is that faculty sees something within,
And day by day the vision become clear,
When mind learns it is not the seer,
It sees everything clear,
Clearly presented to the master,
And Self is the master of Mind,
When mind is pure and clear,
Without prejudice and suspense traits,
Self perceives self in its true nature, Nothing goes bad, processed food for thought remain good for ever!

one who sees eyes as seer,
He is ignorant,
One who sees mind as a seer, Knows not,
One whose mind sees the seer is different,
Vision get purified, seer can see through the mind, Scenes seen by mind with eyes closed, when perceived by seer,
It becomes vision of life,
And that vision when becomes ambition of life,
Ambition becomes aspiration, Aspiration transforms into mission, Mission transmits wisdom and genius of self!

Self becomes master Of mind Self becomes master Mind, Master and mind becomes one,
Master Of Mind Can only be a Master Mind

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Mind Is Garuda Of Lord Mahavishnu!

mind is that bubble, Origin as a bubble,
Acquires body and brain,
Through which it grow,
Nay manifest, universal mind behind,
And mind is that which expands and expands, Grow billions of light year greater in radius than universe itself, Well controlled and well poised mind is, traveler in universe travel at infinite speed!
Mind is that which can take one to even or hell, Mind is that which can convert devil to God, Mind is that Garuda of Mahavishnu,
That take him, wherever he want to arrive to help people at distress!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Mindful and Thoughtful is better than successful!

Mindful and thoughtful,
The one understands nothing is True than one's own Self and its talent.

The meaningful life is not a dream,
It is not a life full of dreams,
Neither pleasure nor the pressure, Change him and make him playful!
One who is playful change to thoughtful,
When pain and strain going in vain, lessons learnt by playful daring kid, Balances itself between mindful deeds and Strainful roads!

Noble are those who know the nature, life is that journey, controlling senses, Mind is the tool that controls, body senses and mind itself,
Self is rider of the chariot, Control and drive it safe!

Successful life has no definition,
So many rich born,
So many became rich here,
Yet they left no foot print,
Mansions and palaces may some day fall,
They one lived for a while here,
Shined with an universal truth,
May it ne Socrates, may it be Chanakya,
May be Buddha or Ashoka
Their monumental work is their own monument,

Unlike shahajahan's Tajmahal!
Love of Radha and Krishna, Laila or Majanu.
Romeo and juliet
Was monumental,
Never they thought of any monument!

Noble are always noble,
Never think of any success,
Their own mindful action and life,
Monumental thoughts and deeds,
Always remain mindful and they chose their own path,
They ride their chariot in their own noble mindful way,
They never think of their impact,
Only pages of history notes them!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Mining For Precious!

'I keep busy in excavating mines,
Hopes and morale are high, Love and faith have lit heart of mine,
I live for the greatest ambition of mine, satisfied I will be when, take out of that mine,
That which shine on its own, in the light of which ambiguities get burnt into ash! '

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Mirrors Can Produce Images, But not The object

We all acknowledge easily, but almost forget quickly, that we are mirrors bright, if we are bright, it is due to light!

Mind suffers soul's thrust, heart if is full of trust, free from greed and lust, mirror collects no dirt!

Gates of heaven may remain open, but not one's eyes, with no grace upon, fate may be waiting to make one turn, one may get lured to pick pebbles and stones.

when mirror is plane and plain, Object and its image are at same distance, unless mirror moves towards object, object and image maintain distance!

virtual will be image in plane one or in convex one, plain man or man with less virtues and strong ego, real will be image in concave when object is beyond focus, man with less ego and more virtues with moral ethics.
But mirrors can produce image but not the object.. is the truth!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Move, Move, Keep Yourself On The Move!

In this world so busy,
May it be an electron,
Or it may be an ant,
May it be star in the sky,
Or may be planet,
All are busy in their own journey!

This world revolves so well, Polarity takes place,
Positive and negative,
May it be charges or may be human attitude!

Never judge anyone,
May you be a judge or not,
You are limited by time and space,
What stuff brought you here, Brought others also!

one may be in a hurry, may be desperate and in fury,
You are not here a jury,
Life is an oven, everyone get baked here!
No one here can walk straight, know thyself and thy fight,
Be compassionate,
Everyone is fighting with his own fate!

No one knows destiny or destination,
No one knows anyone's state,
One has to pass through several phase, everyone has his own problems to face!

World is divides into two,
One can't understand the other,
No matter on which side one may be
It doesn't matter,
One is seen and another is seer,
But can't decide, it is not one way affair,
One can't decide who is fair or unfair,
This world is like a big fair!

One who has won himself will know others!
electrons and protons,
North pole or south pole,
They have their own role!

Be a neutron, for even neutron,
To remain as neutron, It Has to move,
stationery will disintegrate,
So be neutron, move, move move on your way,
If you rest awhile, you may disintegrate,

Keep busy always and move till the end!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

My Grand ma's advice and wishes!

May you delight in light of life,
Dancing with joy may be playing Lightly With Life
Or may be feeling every burden light,
Light you will be when you are full of light, Feeling light seeing light within!

May you soar high like eagle, Having spirit on wings, high above the ignorance, Above the average life, Never minding the madness of the world.
Yet you should have an eye on ground,
Someday have to land on own legs, Finding food and nest of own, Where in you can rest a while Feeling safe!
For safety of kiths and kins!

May you always sing Melody in the Symphony of Your Life.
Yet listen to the symphony of nature,
Where you can learn various tunes,
And what music is!
May you taste good things, smell good perfumes and deodour fowl smells, and touch new heights, Plan and put effort to bring your dreams of a beautiful tomorrow true
Be ready to face shattered dreams,
Your castles well built may only prove to be built in air, proving itself of sand!

May your sun always shine during day, May moon and star shine during night, and your sky be need not forever blue, Let it be blackened sometimes bring cool rains to support all green and colorful flowers and delicious fruits,
You like to enjoy!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

My Lord, You Build Your Own Shrine!

My Lord you art soul of all scriptures,
They sing thy glory,
Thy shine is in every heart,
Thou art my Self and Self of all,
Thine ways are wonderful,
O master, master craftsman,
You are Crafting my person, Taking utmost care a craftsman can take,
Or cutting bad or weakness and grafting the best and strength!

Obstacles and obstructions,
What I think are the process you take me, Heating, melting cutting and polishing,
Just to reshape to your purpose and requirement,
You take care to bring out the best in me, Thine ways are as good,
Knowing my quality and strength, the stuff that I am made of,
Thee know well than me!

You know well, how to shape me,
The one who won himself is awfully obedient kid,
That I should be in thy hands!

Thine are ways to pass me through horror,
Make me more brave and intelligent,
You embedded wisdom and knowledge,
With wit,
gentleness studded in ideal way, Everyone would love and like!
One who passes through thine processes,
He is hidden treasure, treasure in heart where your light shine!

only some can find,
Thy hands Everywhere,
Thy glory sung in books,
Scriptures say more in more ways,
But the master you crafted is master of self,

Not yet any words can describe
him,
Only able hearts can feel him,
Only loving hearts can love him,
Love of such Soul is love of you,
Where you built your own shrine,
Beyond words your glory shine!

Obstacles and obstructions,

prove either what one is,
How sharp one should be,
and how brave one is!

How hard diamond can be shaped and polished, Thee know well, materials may be,
granite, or gold or may be iron are alloys shaped and sized!

Lord,
I never pray to give me a clean path,
Lead me through tough terrain, Give me the strength to face and come out successfully though fire, or the spinning wheel of time, being master of my own!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

My Spine is Thy Flute!

I adore you,
Not thy adornments, my heart loves thee,
And not thy attributes,
o, master poet,
The power of your words, when words flow from poet, thy powerful mind behind his thoughts, Stopping the storms, When you steer the ship,
over high waves,
I am not afraid of tidal waves,
Lightning and thunders, Sleeping under your wings, O master poet, without uttering a word, , Without writing a line, but make poets sing and joyfully write,
I love you thee, When you hold my hands,
No fear of fall, Even if I fall, fall only safe into your soft and gentle lap! My spine is thy flute, Thou blow through Chakras, AUM in different pitch and rich tone,
My life dances to your tune,
For strains of trifles and for temporal pains immune!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

My Voice Is Lost In Thier Noise.

Raising from ocean like a wave,
I am one among drops, Born with palms folded, as if I had secrets to hide!

Only a few lines I brought, both on palm and forehead, borrowing robes to hide, shaming nakedness I grew!

some day I will return, erasing a few lines, or adding more,
gathering and giving useless things!

no hope of even my footprints, But there may be huge waves, my footprints on the shore my voice is lost in their noise!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

My world is beautiful!

My world is beautiful,
My worlds are beautiful, Always it will,
Life is full of Nature's bounties My sweet mother caress and cares me,
Me and my friends, We look beautiful with what she gave us,
We make our world happy and beautiful,
Not worrying, what she didn't give! I and my friends play hide and seek,
Colourful butterfly,
Hide behind Flowers,
How thrilling to find these flying flowers, butterflies dancing to my Heart's silent song! Flowers filling perfume to air, Adding colours to life,
Shining Sun make them bright, Lonesome dove sings at dawn, Goodmorning dear,
Wake up and look at the world, sailing clouds say,
' have a nice day'
Gentle breeze keeping us cool, Plants swing to my silent song! Flowers smiling in my lap, Filling my heart with joy, Dove fly around me and sings in ears,
Look at smiling innocent flowers,
They smile at you, Though you kill them, Separating their mother,
Listen to silent cry of plants, Silent mourning of butterflies, Can't you mourn,
yes now I am mourning and my heart weeps at death of smiling flowers! Taking oath in presence of my friends,
'Never will I kill flowers '!
my days will be more happy and nice,
With playful smile of flowers!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

No One Is Orphan, If Companion Is In Hearts!

No one is orphan here,
He that may come to your door to test, Whether you are orphan without virtues,
When you have a little kindness to fellow men,
In them may certainly some fill your heart with their gratitude and love,
In that them, that Almighty smiles laughs, O my dear, why you fear,
You are never an orphan,
When I am here to take care of you!
and you one day lived upto me,
And showed that no one can be orphan, when I dwell in every heart!
And on that day,
not even,
your eyes,
but all your cells, Comes to tear, Because the happiness of his warmth we can't bear!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

No Tree Can Stand Tall Without Roots Spread!

Every seed sends roots first, Finding for soil and ground where it can stand firm and tall, stand firm and tall if roots go deep,
Spread wide to find The sap! single cell that carry life, Give life to cells and tissues, Shoot, barks, branches and leaves, feed the leaves exposing leaves to light, Visible tree stands on exposed roots, not roots visible, Man made boundaries, fence and compound,
Can't prevent or limit roots or branches,
Sometimes absorbing soil here,
Branch will extent to neighbouring house, How one can limit the nature, or confine growing tree to narrow circle drawn by man?
So is every life on Earth!
Mankind is like forest of different trees, Yet all roots of autotrophic trees deep in the soil, Only parasitic have those roots, pierce other tree's heart! Dive deep into yourself, O man! Can you survive without Your roots?
know how you are here,
Is it the mortal parent brought you here, Or your fate, Only be grateful to their love and care forever!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Not a Cage, But Stage, Where Hell or Heaven Is Built!

Each Soul is divine,
Divine journey of divine spark,
That journey as per divine plan!

Your children are not your children,
They are guests visiting you,
As scheduled by divine hands,
They are here with their own destiny and fate, who is able to state, When who is at what state?

Your friends and relatives too,
Are on their journey own,
Remember the love and affection shown!

Love and understanding are in the heart of those here rejoice,

Concentric spheres that look solid,
Just like Onions with layer after layer, Nothing found when peeled,
But, Everything when properly lived!

Solid looking spheres are not solids,
They are energy layers, waves of different pattern and kinds, Ah! Look they are of different layers,

Matter that matters us, is not the matter,
It is energy layers,
May be children or kiths and kins, What we look is that How we look,
How we look is what we are!

Our house is not our house until we own,
Our body is not ours,
Our mind is not our own,
Our soul is not ours,
Until we own and master it!

Our goal is not our goal,
Goalless we can't live,
Only goal we find here is peaceful coexistence, peaceful exit from this Life's cage, It is not the cage but the stage on which,
Hell or heaven built or felt!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Not With Swords, But With Loving Heart!

Powerful souls are birds with powerful wings, using wings of intuition and rational thinking, they soar above tempest and storms, above chill of snowfall and thrill of burning volcano!

They see deep into sky to reach beyond stars, dive deep in ocean to bring up precious pearls, they climb mountains withstanding hurling stones, souls won the world, won not with swords, but hearts with love!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Now Humanity Stands Before Own Grave!

Man was child of nature, son older some are bald, some with grey hair faster grew white beard, fast life faster death, impatient son of greener and patient mother, still young Son grown up now, faster than mother.

As usual like all young, dashing and daring, careless is cause and effect is alarm ringing on a slide due to own pride, reckless acts shocked by unseen dangers becoming facts.

Grandfathers saved for us pure air cared about older son and younger mother happy with what she gave Now humanity stands before own grave!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

O Kid, What You Meditate Upon?

O Just born infant kid,
why you sleep all the time,
Not opening your eyes, what you meditate upon?

You just not know were you are,
This world may change you,
Do you think how can you change the world,
Do you think what is around?
Do you know who brought you?

what is that you meditate on,
You are that,
yet ready to fall into MAYA,
And that you brought with your own karma and samskaras, Egoless state is beautiful, Not with ignorance,
But with all knowledge, Crossing the ocean from this shore of ignorance to other shore of knowledge, Both shores, the ocean and boat all being you!

Listen this kid,
Self is that which,
is beyond every form of energy, Yet is the infinite source of all, Beyond the stage on which every perform its show,
There is the neutral enjoyer, Who is dreaming these world, Earth is that fertile womb, Where this self entered with desires,
Desire to know the nature!
Just as one wants to love another to understand more, Or to have one to understand! Only way out is understand the nature,
And understand your own
nature,
Let nature go in its own way, let nature leave you to live in your own way,
For that understand what is Self,
Whether nature and self are one,
Or different from one another?
Without Self or nature no one can be there, If someone is there, He is that Truth which can't see and understand Himself!

You came here to conquer,
Not anything, only to conquer your own nature, Your own idiocy and foolishness!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

O Nature, I Owe You More!

O nature, My body and senses gifted by you,
I owe You More,
In your lap I learned a lot, gained to energy to soar,
High in the sky clouds roar,
Only to weep and make green friends smile!

You look full of chaos,
but below that random clouds, Midst of Storms and winds, burning Sunshine on meadows and deserts, There lies scope for flowers of life to bloom, ocean full of waves, looking horrible, Below the morbid layer of chaos,
Peaceful fishes swim, above gulls and eagles fly!

Land is that part uncovered by ocean,
Yet covered by ocean of green life,
Waiting for precious tears,
Random clouds they need to weep, Thunders roaring and flashing of lightning, Makes oxygen embrace the ever neutral nitrogen,
Just as Uma went into arms of meditating Shiva,
The creation started when carbon joined its hands,
Two handed oxygen,
three handed nitrogen,
And four handed carbon, embracing one handed handicapped Hydrogen,
And there came various star dust, Heavier ions with charges and energy, Sunlight and moonlight well balanced,
Life stood up on its legs and thought!

There lies the peaceful life, if I know that all these are natures gift,
So, every life on earth has to say,
I want to say more, yet only succeed to say,
O nature, I owe you more!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

O, My Beloved!

o, my beloved,
When in dream, I find your smiling face,
I forget what I destined to face,

When I see dark deep eyes full of compassion,
I forget all my Passion and caution!

When I dream your beautiful hand.
I forget where I stand!

When love in your heart shines,
Blazing light blinds my mind and thought!

When you are so near, my dear,
I ran here and there in this dream world,

Tired I when sit and sigh, with closed eyes,
Blink with naughty smile, and absorb me into thine eyes!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

O, My Friend, Be With Me!

O My friend, be with me,
On the path of life,
Full of stones and thorns, Breeze and storms.
walking along with you, all I feel well, fresh and light always!

You bear your pain, you fight with them,
I can't fight for you or you can't for me, but our hearts wishing good for one another, Makes all difference, well, it can make all look different!

O, My Friend, my faith in you.
And smile on your face, eyes shine when you crack joke, my mind feel light, when your teeth twinkle, between smiling lips, show my path even in dark!

I can bear my pain easily, when you are with me, neither you bear my pains and strains, nor I Ask you to, only I and you can share the beauty of life,
My burden look light when you walk along with me!

But if you are away I can't bear the weight of heart, heavy it becomes,
without breeze your smile, Or without the jokes and thoughts you share with me!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Oh dear! You are Dear To Me As You are!

oh dear, you may be cool breeze,
Or may be a storm,
You may be cool icy mountain,
Or may be a volcano,
You are dear to me as you are Let the one guide you, who made you,
Feel what you are!

Oh, dear, you are dear to me,
You may be a lotus or sunflower, may be a wild flower,
Or born in a garden!
Oh dear, you are dear to me where you are,
May you be on throne,
May be on thorn,
May be in cradle,
Or may be on death bed,
You have your own fight,
And I have my own,
We need to fight against ourselves not fight against one another, I can smile at you, Whatever pain strike my heart, though I can't laugh with you,
I can look at you, with a smiling eyes Hiding my pain!
I can see the same in the sea of your eyes,
So you are dear to me,
You are beautiful as you are,
I accept you as my own,
Whether you accept or reject me,
Some day may come,
Cloudy sky get cleared,
Winter fog and mist disappear,
You will understand how I was able to smile and wink at you, Even when I was in fight, surrounded by deadly enemies, Do or die, yet I prefer,
Not to throw my weapons,
Like a rose, not thinking of thorns,
But throw smile at all others and die!

Oh! Woman, Know yourself!

oh my dear woman.... In my life I have seen many forms of you.... you are the part of infinite and another part is man... You are assigned with duty to propagate generations and you are mother earth and provide fertile land for propagation of life! You are soft, sensual and you are the strength of man And you have the strength to make man stand or fall! You can be as pure as snow of mountains white.. You are like ocean of love where life rise and fall! You are the one who can guide all, mend all and care all! You are always sharp and you are the knowledge and you are the gauge of foolishness of man! You make the home where a man can see your skill of converting hell into heaven...
You can make a man a king, with your cool words from smiling lips and shining eyes even when he has no kingdom, no throne, has workout purse in torn out his pocket! You are the one who can induce and mesmerize the man and make yourself his goddess dwelling in his heart and him in your heart You are the one can bear the fruit, care the fruit!
And you are the fruit of man's luck! Most able you are in reform of mother,
And in her absence, sister is not less!
He is strong only when he has you as his prefix S for strength of he S for Stamina of he,
S for Shield of he and S for smile of he! You are the Goddess when you are selfless and you are the Durga when you are protector! You are Sharada when you are teacher, you are Ganga when you flow your love.. You are the Sindhu when you nurture the culture! You are the Earth when you support and you are the Goddess when you forgive with your smiling face! You are the instructor and distructor of ignorance! You are Goddess kali when you decide to teach lesson You are civilization and you are the instructor and you are the distructor! And always you are lovable like mother, the most charming and loved form in the Universe!

You are not for sale or rental and you are the goddess in the temple of men's heart!

Once I Saw My Nature!

Once I saw the light that glows my existence.
I don't need these mortal eyes! Once I touched the deepest layer of my existence,
I no more want even the topmost heaven, even if it exists! Once I breathed the airless breath,
I no longer wish to breath this polluted air! Once I smelt that fragrance of odourless perfume of self, I no longer like this nose.. Once I touched the heart of all hearts,
I no longer wish to listen this heart beat! Once I touch the toothless wonder, I don't need these skin and flesh! Once I heard That sboundless music, I don't need this ears to listen to any music! Once I found what is death, I don't want live anymore Once I become one with truth I don't need any words describing it! Once I met with the beloved I need no separation Oonce I felt that love I became love and need it anymore.. Once I am one with my beloved I am free of desires and aims Once I am bathed in by devine nectar with grace,
I don't need live for anyone except that divine.. I am here as guest and before I close my drama here, wish to thank all actors, who made my drama super hit!

One and Only One!

I am in peace
At perfect peace with God;
O what a God and peace are!

A narrow dark tunnel I crossed;
To see that vast ocean ahead, No shores not even any bright shine, shineth the self seamless and endless,
Except the galaxies shine like light worms

This, this indeed is peace.
Is it, peace bestowed on me,
Or by my own effort I attained the peace?
By nature and by practice, peace was too far,
How very far I was from God;
Yet now by grace brought right to Him,
Through faith and mediation.

So beautiful, so very beautiful is God,
I was never nearer be;
For in the person of my own,
He was always with me,
I ran away from him,
Yet, he was with me like my shadow,
May be I ran and ran like shadow of my own,
I am as near as He.
He is as near as me,
So dear, so very dear to God I and all,
More dear I cannot be as you too are dear to him;
The love wherewith His love now reflects in me and you too,

Such is His love to me and you, just a touch made me melt and one with vacuum, Flow into your heart as love divine,
And one with that bright light, all worlds are one,

Why should I ever anxious be,
Why should I be more a being,
Why should I be narrow and small,
When infinite was only one and vanished I in Him,

Since such a God is mine, O is it true, is he mine or I am his?
I am his is more true than he is mine, who has to judge when we are one,

He watches me night and day, Warns and guards

here and there and Everywhere,
Now I knew about this, he is always there,
And the fool and foolish,
I was never there

As this body and mind sent on a mission impossible, Only his grace makes,
Even every thing possible,
You are the one my God,
You are the one before infinite zeros Completing that look infinite, yet when zero adds to one,
The one remains one and only Lord!

And tells me
'Mine is thine, Thine is mine.
And all that thou possess is mine and Look you too were not only mine,
But also all are mine,
Pious and sinner alike,
Happy and pain alike,
Beauty and ugly all alike,
Drunken or mad lover all are mine!
You are my own shadow and shadow alone, Shadow of puppet with I play on,
My own light plays the shadow,
The shadow of puppet on the screen of my own mind!
Such is my God, only one always one,
One and only one!

One Born here Has to Will-nilly Live Here!

My Lord, you know me well than I myself, Every perceptive is deceptive,
I have my visions defective,
My perspective is deceptive, My own senses runlike hungry dog after sensual things!

My ego and what I call selfesteem,
Is my own lofty ego centrist thoughts!

May be thoughts rebound, strike back the source than its target, defective missiles are these thoughts, Fall down on launching
On the launch pad itself!

How can be I am lord of my own,
You made me here a tenant, where I neither can enjoy, nor can pay taxes,
I have to pay taxes and penalties,
Just because I live here as tenant in this body!
Only I suffer more, than what I can bear,
I have to bear what ever pain!
Stars in the sky seem to smile,
Sun smiles with moon,
On this painful story of men and Every life on Earth for them, nothing but,
will-o'-the-wisps,
Will-nilly one born here has to live,
Can only death save me?

One can't rely on eyes, When Imagination is out of focus!

Eyes can't lie, as they are without imagination.

When one perceives is hidden behind cloud of his own imagination,

How can a schizophrenic can recall who he is, as seen by others! Mind and intellect when has their own colours or have colour blindness,

How can feel true colours of life? When imagination outfocus senses,

When window is covered by curtains,

How can one can look clearly at the world? Room when fitted with filters and deodarants,

How can one feel the enchanting odour of soil on first rain fall?

What can be the beauty of flower, or that flying butterfly to one wearing coloured glass? When imagination fly above, losing contact of ground,

The birds eye vision may be vast,
Yet lose minute details, loses that nut and bolts which can fit everything!

Never come to conclusion about anyone,

Never allow prejudice to hold your mind back,

Let imagination dance on solid ground, Based on impartial observations!

Learn,

Every beautiful butterfly was ugly, ever hungry worm before its metamorphosis!

One Who Can Be My Lord!

Running along the coast, Climbing the mountain peaks and ghats man made towers, Walking along the unknown paths here and there in the green meadows, Searching along the stream, Raising above the clouds of trifles to look at the rainbow, I never found one,
I couldn't as there wouldn't any one!
The one with that golden feet on which my head can rest!

So many saints and so many books, some were giants and some were crooks!
They offer not only nuts that are hard to crack, But Some were most intelligents to give iron Ingots for my nuggets,
Some offered their impractical thoughts full of magots,
Some are too selfish, showed that old books half eaten by termites and silverfish!

Only thing I understood by all these,
The green forest and meadows once if become desert, no one can create that lush green meadow or forest and singing birds, Springing water, which I can drink, watch and rest Sprinting deer, dancing peacock, shining rainbow in my heart!

If some one is able to bring all these glory back,
All that was green,
He can be my Lord forever!

Onions Onions! Enjoy onions!

Every life is here,
Is like onion
Some are good some are bad,
Some are white,
Some are red,
They are alike when are peeled!

But some are chopped,
Some are cooked,
Some are eaten raw,
Some are rotten some are planted,
To yield more onions!

Look this world is full of opinion, world filled with divine Onion, no one believes in soul _God Union, THOSE WHO DARE NOT TO DIVE INTO OCEAN, EVER sit on shore and shout IN SUSPICION!

Our Parents Are Always Ours!

wonderful universe Wonderful are sky and stars Wonderful are sun and planets Wonderful are Earth and moon!

Wonderful are ocean and land Wonderful are forest and deserts Wonderful are flora and fauna, wonderful are you, me they, wonderful are body of all living beings,

Wonderful are words,
Wonderful are thoughts,
Wonderful are brain and heart!
When God has put all systems together,
One system work for another,
Or one system work for all,
All should be well and healthy!

All has to go together and what is wrong,
And who is wrong,
The one who gave thirst,
Himself created water,
The one who has created hunger,
Has created food,
The one who has created one,
Has created Everything for him!

But the thirsty is wrong if want milk alone!
one who is hungry is wrong eats for taste alone, Or Eats more than hunger need will be fulfilled, greed will be punished!
one has Everything ready here for his need,
For the greedy things ready are pain and agony!
Every senses and systems are there,
But it is left to one's choice,
How to use!

Parents work and bring things for children,
And children are good if they use and keep every thing
Good!
If not they try and play to break,
As man is doing with nature!

Ages may change, people may change,
But the absolute remain absolute,
The one started and stared in the play,
The one started his drama,
Know how to play it, Know how and when

Where and why!
Knows how to change the scene and acts!
Those who brought you are real parents of your soul,
Those who borrowed you, are your parents of body and mind!

Both parents are good and to be respected,
Those who taught what love is,
They should be loved, they are your blood running through your heart and brain,
Our parents are our parents,
They gave their all to us,
Shared our fate,
Our children may not be our children,
As they come with their own taste and fate!

If any of our child can share our pain,
And give more love, more than what it take from us,
Is greater than,
Our heart and brain!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Pain of soul can hide Behind its Satisfaction!

Life is that when,
Energy trapped in matter, Unconscious comes consciousness,
Just like bud opens on its maturity, Just like flower opens and then wither off! If life itself is busy in asking what is life,
Isn't it miraculous foolishness,
Life has to lives life, Life can be beautiful with its colours and shape, Or spread its wonderful perfume! Some flowers may not have both,
But never disappoint several life depend on it! Life is neither a punishment nor an award,
It is reward to the soul with best attitude,
Life is for learning and understanding, Even some flowers laugh when surrounded by thorns, Learn from ants, life is not a burden,
Learn from birds that can sing even summer or winter alike, Yes too much expectations, Unlimited desires,
Painful will be life, Yet nature reinforce life with right attitude.
It is finally left to attire developed by soul alone help development of individual.
But the sky is so vast,
Stars are numerous,
Pain of a star hide behind its shine, Billions straw of grass found in meadow, Pain of straw hide behind it growth of the grass,
So is the attitude can hide pain of trifles, Making life itself easy and enjoyable Pain of a soul can hide behind its satisfaction!

Parentage Is Guarding Lineage And Heritage!

your children may look your children, By you and the whole world, even the children believe this is true.

But look at the DNA in them,
It came from you, but think from where it came to you?
Isn't it True that all the neocleotides in our DNA and RNA, PROTEINS AND ALL BIOLOGICAL molecules come from plants and animals!

In this respect animals and trees are our parents,
We owe all molecule in our body to them,
Hence clearly they are real parents of our body, so we, in short can say nature and energy are our parents!

Isn't it true that our mortal parents shared them and nurtured us and taught us, they are parents of virtues, moral and cultural values in us!

It is lineage and heritage inherited from time unknown!

your children Are not your children,
You are the care taker of that lineage!
In you if some genes are dominant or recessive,
May some are neither dominant or recessive,
That is play of dominance or incomplete dominance, Make children look alike or not!

But you are the parent and take care of children,
Be a model or idol to them,
Win them by your own patience and attitudes,
Bring them slowly into your line!

Children Are innocent flowers in divine garden,
You are the plant with roots, Feed them, look after and shape them, fill colours and fragrance of lineage!

Children Are like parrots,
They copy your words and actions,
They are innocent and true,
Like a sponge absorb your traits Think of there growth and deciding constraints!

You made a child in you,
But you have child in grown up body and mature mind,
Think of the child in child's heart,
Striving to grow in this world!

Let the mature mind control child in you first,
Then the child in your child's heart get hold on Life's virtues.

You are the painter or the sculptor of your child,
But the art work or idol becomes property of world,
One among the art pieces,
Of human culture and heritage!

Be careful in shaping children,
They are soft and brittle,
Once their mind breaks,
No one can join or reshape!

You are the link of that chain of life,
Behave as parent knowing this truth Man is above animal in this aspect!

Paths to Heavenly Lands Are Through Deserts.

With dreams one can live for long, but in dreams one can't live for long, dreams may haunt whole life itself;
Longing is useless unless there is will self!

Whether clear water of river from icy mountains, or muddy flood water of heavy rains on mountains, need no maps to flow to ocean, make way through, falling and flowing, hitting rocks, feeding folks, it walks!

Men are more cautious without routes or maps, without guide, as they never like to travel into traps;
Most of ways to green meadows are through thick forests, paths to green mountains or heavenly lands are through deserts

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Patience Pays, Impatience Costs!

Patiently Plan your life,
Or
wait patiently for Life's plan for you! In other words, Don't try to solve questions of
life,
Before you can answer one, Life can pose too many questions! Anyway isn't it true, patience pays, Impatience costs? Life is neither a riddle nor puzzle! Sometimes may Look like crossword puzzle,
When one's words cross other's, If not one learn what is silence, when and how this precious tool works, ego clash may cause hot atmosphere instead of warm one!

You are a part of nature and society,
the part depends on whole,
And whole depends on part! May it be liver or brain,
May it be heart or spleen,
One can be healthy, if all tissues and organs are healthy, All organs remain healthy, if one cares for their health!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Pay For Defection!

Someday you have to go alone, Alone you came, bear handed,
Went and came bear handed Million times,
Still that remains strange,
All that I know, everyone has to sleep alone, Wife or child, pet or flowers,
No one to sleep with,
Family or friends
No one to laugh with,
No one to talk with,
No one likes to come with!

Not even the body and mind,
Not even the intelligence and reasoning,
Not even the money or mansion,
Not even that gold or pension!

Only look at that mortal scrap of the robot,
That played with ego, useless and degradable food for worms and germs!

Alone one will be on this journey, even when one is in sleep or on walk,
One has carry his own cross,
On which one get crucified for, Thoughts and Deeds, one's own actions and Words!

That resurrect one back,
To suffer or enjoy once more!

Alone one was always,
Pushed away by waves,
Fall away ocean to shore,
Where once again that same cycle,
Playing with shells of dead mother of pearls,
Running here and there to food and shelter, Cloths for this froth,
Working for home and looking for someone!
Dreaming in ignorance,
When thread of thoughts are torn,
One will be no where, no Withered flower comes back, Everyone moves with his own backpack, Full with cause and effects, no one ever born, only born were Matter and energy,
Time and space,
cause and effect,

One has to correct his own defects
For that defection with his own Truth!

Philosophy undigested.. Random thoughts!

Philosophy undigested..

The mysteries mysterious forces,
Make both Mister
And Miss, one positive and another negative, No one knows who is what!
Only our postulates
About mystery and mysterious That always can be more mysterious,
And more are less hide axioms
And sometimes
We talk about nirvana,
Some times about,
BRAHMAN
Some times about God and demon, Mara or MAYA,
Forgetting all that is in mind,
Who is real, who is that developed sense,
Is He a non sense?
Look at the outer world,
Senses tell the reality is relativity,
And relativity is the reality,
But look at the inner world we are nothing but non existing entity,
Is it real that we are that existence, where is the God and God appeared before me to teach, Who is God, where he is?
Which is true, nondual, or dual,
Even the light is not a non dual,
Why mysteriously, mister attract a miss,
Mister wants mistress,
And mis wants to become a mistress,
Even the master needs a mistress?
Is it that we make a mistake?
Life is that mystery,
Looks mysteriously at its own mysteries!
Life is the product of nature and the product that challenges to mysterious nature and wants to see nature in its tree naked form, Life itself is schizophrenic and symptomatic and systematically nyphomanic system and the greatest maniac!
Is it true nothing is there are void is that makes all this dreams or is there any greatest Self dreaming and fooling and laughing and suffering its own folly?
If every thing is false,
Every thing is folly why can't mankind kind enough
Its mass suicide can save Earth and precious life on Earth!
Why Buddha didn't Go when he knew universe is void?
Why at last he said farewell note?
Why Sankara ran to his mother when she breathed last?
Because it is BRAHMAN SATYA!
The infinite the is still infinite when in life or without life

Something that look real is not real, some that looks at unreal is real life is a real game of the real

And that real traps itself iN unreal Playing with itself and playing its play at different level and different planes
With different plans
And according to its own grand plane

Phoenix Of Self!

In this love,
The thirst of eternal love,
The hunger for knowledge,
The aspiration of wisdom.
Made respire not the air,
But that fire of longing!
When ever burning longing in heart,
When heart can't contain, the stress,
Millions of nuclear bombs exploded!

That fire burnt all, Ashes were residue only of Desires,
greeds,
Only narrow and mean terrestrial needs remain, Start spreading in all world the perfume As fumes of good deeds and thoughts dispersed, From that ashes the phoenix of Self rose and flew high,
Covering all worlds under its wings glowing with Galactic brightness!

In flash of that blazing light,
I never found myself,
How can I be fond of myself,
The point circle,
when expanded into boundless, or may lost, circumference melted, I can't say it may be my sphere of existence, How can one imagine shape and name of boundless existence, Is this that, I was mad after in love, Or is it that was making me mad or created me and worlds?
Now madness came to end,
As time, space, thoughts, knowledge, All lost in a flash of that light of infinite wisdom!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Poem of Child 1

Wondering at the world, Feeling the soft touch of hands,
And warmth of her breast,
Smelling her fragrance,
Hearing beloved mother's voice
I opened my eyes!

Wonderful was that first sight,
Where then I found father, brothers and sisters, Where I was before these people found me?

unknown I was, may be a traveller, Or may be some charged cosmic ray,
May I am here million times,
Each time not lucky to know parents,
Sometimes came out egg breaking shells,
May Sometime breaking seedcoat, Lifting my head above ground, Germinating plant or may be as a magot in fruit,
However I am lucky this time,
Where I can know myself,
Seeing my face at least in mirror,
This time feeling more love,
More hopes,
Learning languages and knowledge of ages,
I grow with smile, smile on face of others on my thoughts and deeds, Words and thoughts,
Smile grew on Face of my parents with my growth!

Mastering senses one by one,
Mastering legs and hands, Mastering own mind step by step,
I move here with time and space,
I had to adjust with this clock and distance,
Yes each evrytime I have to adjust to the clock,
My body clock to be synchronized everytime!

Poem Of Child 2

I played with dogs and cats at home, cows and buffalo in the shed, But strange was when I played with my friends,

Animals played with me for play's sake, Enjoying game well,
But when my friends played,
Each game ended in arguments,
This made me to think,
How sincere are animals, Adjustable and loving they are,
Never care for little pain,
Unlike me and my friends,
Not playing,
only fighting to prove, superiority on one another!

In science class when teacher told,
Men too are animals, Stunned I went home weeping, complaining my mother about teacher,
My mind was not ready to agree this,
But learnt a lot,
now I weep with animals saying stories of men!

Looking at the trees and plants, Bathing with hot water, sleeping under blankets, Compassionately I thought,
Next day poured hot water on plants, Covered them with blankets at night I was satisfied with what I did when others laughed at me!

my childhood was so good, Everytime I wanted to good,
But only good enough to make others laugh listening to radio,
I wonder who sang in it,
Seeing at the light and lamp,
I imagined oil come through wires, looking at the globe and atlas,
I asked my father,
Is world look like this,
If then,
are we in a cage of Latitudes and longitudes, My questions were ridiculous, but not my curiosity to learn!

Present Compressed By Past and Future!

Once I was so enchanted,
So attracted and absorbed, Beauty of flower made me talk to it I asked what is secret, of its enchanting smile!

'O, friend', the flower talked to me,
I live in present, no compression,
by past and future,
No depression of past memories,
No anticipation unborn future,
Busy in my own present,
Living in this instant, No fear of harm,
no feeling of warm,
you look me as whole,
But, I have universe in me as a whole,
The universe works on its own,
Only I am witness for fate of my own!

No compression no depression,
Not even any absessi,
Bees affect me with their nature,
Yet no affective complexes in me!

I am born for some purpose,
Only animal magnetism run through bees and me!

I not get flattered either by your words, Nor I feel pride or fear, when bees fly at me, neither lured by the music of bee's wings, nor getting frustrated with irritating bees!

I am born for my purpose,
And may or may not I complete them my ambition are nil, inhibitions may kill my spirit, Desirefree and libidofree attitude may be secret of my smile '!

Stunned by flowers reply I felt ashamed, Man is one who lives not in present, Because memories of past, Anticipation of future,
Mistakes of the past and aspirations, Makes past and future seem infinite, compress present into an instant,
May be negligible and infinitesimal!

Process Fruits Of Meditation!

Knowing that 'Energy flows where attention flows', Attention flowing unbroken, like oil poured from one vessel to another, flowing from this mortal frame to immortal, eternal, omnipresent consciousness, from three dimensions to infinite dimensions...is meditation.

The precious fruit of meditation is processed and stabilized by attachment to Truth and Essence, detachment from false appearances. It is wonderful to come out of body and enjoy what we really are, and what existence in its true sense is!

Rainbow over Snow Mountain!

" looking back into yester-years
How sad and bad and mad it look now—
But then, how it was sweet without fears Childhood: rainbow over mountain snow!

All that was magical song of life, days gone, so now full of strife, Rainbow disappeared, snow melted, only in memories, my mind smile and settle '

Raise above Dark Frozen Fears!

Frozen fears in dark corners of mind, Mind is that vast mansion, not that we are inadequate cleanup; Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure.
And some time we infinity mess up!

It is our light, that is fearsome,
Because the colour and intensity,
That takes to hallucination, not our darkness that most frightens us.
Only we sleep healthy in it!

We ask ourselves, 'Who am I, whom I am to be brilliant, Why I look gorgeous, why I am talented, fabulously expressive? ' you are that spark, who are you? Why are you who you not to be?
You are that arc jumped in lightning, Charged to million volts potential,

You are a child of that infinite.

Your potential Soul,
If guides you and shows, infinite possibilities wait for you, Only you have to look and hold them.

playing like child does pay not serve the purpose they say,

Your stage is this world.
There is nothing Which can drown you which that makes you weak,
Is that dim light can't pierce veil of ignorance?

Be enlightened about
The energy in you,
Probe into secrets in dark corners of mind,
Let the light in your heart show the way! strike at roots of weakness Feel the span of your expansion Infinite you're, in you're plane, Infinite plane around you may cross, None match to yours,
As you are that unique,
You are you unique as unique as others are!

Let your enlightened way Fill others that other people won't feel insecure around you. We are all meant to shine, as any number of stars shine in infinite sky

Play in here as children do.
We were children of God
And when we mature we are gods Still raise up and be one with Him to manifest the glory of God in you and around that power is within us.
It's not just in some of us;
it's in everyone. And as we lit our own light and others to lit tiers Whole universe
Can shine, we show others why and how to live, people seduced to do the same. As we are our own fear,
Our own can prove we are pure our presence can liberates others from fear."

Raise Your Head Fearlessly Above Shade!

Look at the Nature around, whether trees and plants know or not,
Their roots surly know, water that quench their thirst, where they can find minerals for growth,
Are in this soil and in the Nature!

Animals live in nature's garden, birds and butterfly,
Know where they can be happy!

O man, know for sure tender plants with tender roots, Need shade and care, no tree can grow under shade of another tree,
Come out of shades and shadows, Once roots become firm, once you absorb essence wanted,
Raise your head fearlessly above shades, Breathe the fresh air Rain and sunshine, feel the heat and cold to become free,
The potential is there in you,
Open the packet of reasoning and wisdom,
Never bury it,
What Almighty had embedded in your heart!

The fountain of infinite bliss is within you, Never thereafter you feel thirsty,
More you can share the fruits,
With that sweet knowledge,
Whoever thirsty can sip it till his own roots grow,
You are done, you have done!

strange are chinese poems,
They take a bag,
Open that,
Fill some thing and stitch it!

poem 1.
I was good,
I had a good friend,
Beautiful girl sailed like titanic,
Our friendship was like iceberg, she hit and sank!

Poem2.
I had head ache
She too had head ache!
we went to doctor, Doctor was late,
She was cured, but not I, as she became my permanent headache!

Poem3.
I was handsome thought I was clever,
She was clever and thought she was a beauty,
That is a best and wonderful school, Now our children study there!

Poem 4.
He was begger on street
He saw a street dog,
There were some good biscuits,
He give them to the dog, it kissed his feet, even if he was wicked and kicked it!

Poem 5.
Someone was in park,
A begger was also in that park, Sparkling beauty entered the park,
And man gave five dollar to begger, when that beauty sparkled and blinded his eyes!

Poem 6.
He saw her, then smiled and scratched his head,
She saw him, smiled and scratched ground with toes, Marriages are arranged in heaven,

But both never found that heaven!

Poem 7

. One lost a purse full with cash, Another found it and brought gift for his girl friend!
God is great!
person lost the purse was girl's own father!

Poem 8.

A person was in Too hurry
He asked people to cancel plane ticket and give their seat to him, Fate waits for chance,
One gave his ticket, The plane crashed, hurriedly all went to heaven!

Poem 9.

He saw her, then smiled and
scratched his head,
She saw him, smiled and
scratched ground with toes,
Some love is monumental, and when his head became bald, too many scratch marks were there!

Poem 1
I have friends,
I have a song
There is beautiful singing bird
In the morning I like to sing with the bird,
'Namaste, Namaste, let Love and peace everywhere! '

Poem 2
Life is a dream,
Full of joy and pain,
Great ice cream they produce, but dreams are cream of life, sure to melt Someday, before one can enjoy!

Poem 3
Life is mystery Everyone has a story Great people were born, Their stories are full of deeds evergreen and everyone reads!

Poem 4
Children are gifts of God,
So are our pets,
There is that large heart,
For which all are pets and children of God!

Poem 5
All of we need light, we forget we are light
There are Heavier bodies emit light,
Only if you want light,
Lighten yourself discarding desires,
Be lightest to become light, Don't try to be a Hero,
As rest mass of photon is zero!

Poem 6
Life itself is a miracle, Still some try to find miraculous
There are thieves and corrupts, Miraculously they perform miracles on foolishness of men!

Funny
Poem 7

Men are of explorers of adventurous kind, women like adventurous and have more interesting geography, Life continues as they can marry due to these virtues!

Poem 8.

Thousand men were in heaven, Marlin Monroe and Mata Hari were sent there from hell, God wanted to how men work,
Both women need not return to hell
All men helped them to convert Heaven into hell!

Poem 9.

Man developed Chemistry
And worked a lot on elements and compounds,
Great work he did, Differentiated monovalent, divalent, Trivalent and penta valent but yet to differentiate Malevolent and benevolent!

Poem 10.

God was intelligent,
Man became more intelligent.
Technology improved life of men,
God created Heaven and Hell,
Man brought both to Earth!

Morning moods

Poem 1.

Nightingale sings,

Namaste, Namaste

Peacock dance to that song,

Some people are so strong,

They sleep well till 10, even if Crows sing and cocks dance on their bed!

Poem 2.

Some are good poets

Some are good writers

There are so many Good topics

Most successful are more controversial,

If there is shadow, then there is light!

Poem 3

some men have very good knowledge,

And some are highly rich,

There are some taps have block and are useless,

As useless as that men said above!

Poem 4

Honest people have high demand

As far as brilliant are there,

People use shoes and slippers,

The shoes and slippers are used by brilliant to save feet from thorns and prickly stones!

Poem 5.

There are stones useful

There are stones useless

Strangely men are used by men, useful are used as steps and pavements,

Useless are polished and use in jewels!

Poem 6.

Strange people need not remain as strangers, ones own strange behaviours can strangely convert a relative to stranger,

And a stranger to own relative,

We all relative to each other,

we all are relatively relatives, Only we can be relatively perfect that Perfect relatives!

Poem7

Some people have choice,

Live better or leave better,

There are Dogs and kittens, they live better than people! Poem 8

There lived a king in Burma, Good ruler he was and powerful so far men saw,
Destiny is that force,
His grand sons forced to draw rickshaw!

Poem9

He was a good dreamer,
In dream he was a soccer player, Goal after Goal made him richer and richer,
He married, and he found a good match, hatrick goals he scored,
Next morning his goal was to get corrected his wife's bones!

Poem10

In this house
I became guest,
A paying guest every time
I have to pay,
For every thing,
Not only for my Word and deed,
But also for Every thought,
I think!
But then my Host told me
'you can stay here free,
If you accept Whatever I give,
For that you need not pay! '

To save myself,
I have to either,
Sleep well forever!
Or just remain,
A thoughtless,
Living for the Host!

Poem 11.

Clouds float here and there in sky, Thick, low and dark are some,
and thin, high and bright are some, Strange are men and like clouds, are two types,

Like clouds they float in one's life!

Poem 12

Ocean is vast and deep, Earth too vast with mountain and valleys,
Ants are very special,
I learnt this when I heard, Ant of my house talk To ant of next house!

Poem 13

Two nightingales wanted to sing together,
One Pakistani, Mehdi Hasan,
Another is Indian Lata Mangeskar, Human boundaries separated them and no human deserved their duet, God only want to enjoy song, when they sing together!

Poem14.

No one knows whether God is in temple or not,
No one knows,
where he dwells, Great brokers demand high brokerage, Just as high priests, they demand their commission!

Poem15

Ordinary people love to race into arms of love,
There are special people who only love arms race!

Poem 16

Language is our problem
everywhere,
chinese can't talk spanish, spanish can't talk Korean, God became big failure, as he can't race with racial race of men!

Ramdas Choi Chang Poems 2

Isn't it perfect to think everyone is perfect, Everyone is perfectly fit to their own place!
The Great Engineer know which spare can fit, How to fit where to fit,
that perfect Engineer perfectly fits everything to His own purpose!

Poem2

Whoever we meet, may not be perfect,
Who ever is perfect,
We may never meet,
Life is that strange thing,
Only imperfect can fit into it, Whether may it be one or any one around!

Poem3

A flower that looks perfect, Insects surround it and spoil it,
Below that the frogs wait,
And snake can safely find its food there,
Even the eagle has an eye on perfect flower,
Where it can get some thing to eat!

So, is the story of perfected saint,
Some come to him for their own purpose,
Some start service and service turns to business,
And a saint can be food for thought,
Or he may be source or inspiration to worldly man's business!

Poem4

Men wants to praise, Woman wants to be praised,
so many write on love,
But no one yet met one's perfect love,
As perfect love is that warmth,
All are dolls made of ice,
And can only melt and flow into lap of love!

Poem5

Nothing is perfect,
No one is perfect,
Everyone can be perfect, until one continues with a perfect thought that he himself only is imperfect, As perfection is aim and only aim of all!

Poem6

Infinite particles infinite space, Infinite time,

and infinite Thoughts,

I can't find the infinite any where than in me,
When that ant climb on my legs,
Ant came to may ears and said, 'on the tip of my legs infinite bacteria lies ' Bacteria about virus and so on..
I learnt that every thing is relativistic, Even me and my death are close relatives!

Poem1

The silent song of Cool breeze, Silently enjoyed by plants and trees,
Men and women are like air,
They enjoy breeze of one another, Till some day the breeze become fast and can create Tsunami in minds!

Poem2

Oil is that gift of Allah,
That turned desert into Heaven, Oil is that curse on some civilization, and that they were squeezed and distilled to give light to us, Who knows, we may be oil for lamps of next generation!

Poem3

Something infinite is there in man, neither matter, nor energy, Dreams, feeling and love are great, All these Infinite can peacefully live with infinite stupidity!

Poem4

Body of birds are light and they can fly,
Thanks to hollow pneumatic bones,
My brain too, that can fly high, May it be light, pneumatic hollow brain that can fly without wings and strain!

Poem5

why we should call mosquitoes and bed bugs As mosquitoes and bed bugs?
Blood relatives are those who shared our blood,
mosquitoes and bugs,
share our blood
Why aren't they our real blood relatives?

Poem6

Forest is better than cities,
Where one can identify different animals with different shapes face,

Cities are wonderful,
Wonderful with gardens
Where all animals have the similar shape and Face!

Poem 7

God Created all plants and animals, Slept well and took rest,
Then he thought of creating the man and woman,
Since then man has kept God so busy and God never rested or slept again!

Poem8

What makes man think,
How great are his thought,
He made the world shrink With every trifle he fought with communication systems Global village is his achievement, But he is a threat and terror too
For earth and environment Causing damages permanent!

Poem 1

Wonderful is life,
Wonderful to live and enjoy, Enjoy stupidity of own in laughing at stupidity of others, Mr. Bean and Chaplin are great ones,
Bringing out that frozen stupidity in all of us melt and flow!

Poem2

Great was that dance
Of Michael Jackson, Great was dance of greater dancers but no one can dance on our heart like our own ignorance hand in hand with our stupidity!

Poem3

They say God is Love, God is great, as great as love, Both are great mysteries but not as great as men and woman!
They can use or misuse both God and Love, as they can use or misuse fire or knife!

Poem4

Come come my dear fountain of Love,
Come come my dear spirit, tell me please in which flavour, You are at your best, which form of spirit, Wine or divine?

Poem5

There were great men, some worked for all and some worked for Themselves,
God is that great,
as mysterious as life and universe, a few penetrated some of them, yet mystery continued as mysterious as Human, ignorance and stupidity too has that same mysterious origin as the knowledge and wisdom!

Poem 6

Lovely will be nature, you are the part of it, Lovely is too your nature,
If you know what is nature of all and what is nature in all?

Poem 1.

One has a right to judge,
What is right or what is wrong,
Adult and mature men are too wise,
They know what is right, they are mirror like,
Can prove right what is left, Left what is right!

Poem number 2

Telescopes used to see distant objects, Microscopes are used to see micro objects, A friend and a foe both use these, foe uses telescope to see at good virtues friend uses to see your faults, Man has still scope here on earth, Friend uses microscope to find good virtues but foe uses it to find faults!
Life is kelideoscope because all scopes are in our own eyes!

Poem 3

Innocence is far better Ignorance is inexcusable, Kid's smile is so beautiful Than smile of an adult, Innocence smiles in kid,
Egoless heart shines more in that smile;
Ignorance smiles in adult,
May be arrogance or ego shine more than the smile!

Poem 4.

Everyone has freedom of choice,
Every moment is matter of choice,
Some may be good,
some may be wrong,
choice of freedom is more natural than freedom of choice for some!

Poem 5.

This world has two poles,
May be called dipoles, Thin invisible line separate both,
Some times right has to go wrong,
to prove what is wrong,

But wrong need not to right to prove what is right!

Poem 6

Men and woman are always wonderful,
Some may be beautiful or good,
some may be ugly or bad,
Some flowers are beautiful,
Some are fragrant,
Rare are those who are both!

Ramdas, Start Talking With New Language!

Ramdas, start Talking with New Language,
Talk with people and every life,
That language which can take world to new dimension,
Or world shine with beauty and freshness,
Be the one among builders of new world!

Language of love and acceptance, language that comes from the depth of the heart, affectionate and humble, language that is full of gratitude, Free of doubts and fear, Language of smile and presence of mind, Mindfulness which uses silence and words well balanced, the world to new dimensions,
Make world Look like a new world in the light of wisdom!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Reach Depth Within Source Of Intuition's Fountain!

Running away from what you are;
Soiling the soul wrapping it in a foil.

Running behind senses in vain, finding only pain and unnecessary strain.

Look into drying, falling dew drop, why can't you see truth and stop?

Look at beauty of flowers, serenity of blue sky, dancing clouds.

Attain stillness of lake, serenity of mountain,
Reach depth within, source of intuition's fountain!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Satisfaction is the Key of Happiness

Entire space, not only every atoms, Space look throbbled with life,
The nature dance with joy,
The presence Of eternal her beloved Self,
Fill her heart with strange music,
Self is like that Grand space,
The stage on which nature take form, Play eternal drama with colourful Infinite role,
Just like seven basic colours make billions of shade,
Self, nature with five elements,
Bring forth the dancing billions of billions forms,
Where is the pause,
Where is the end,
When river of life can pause, Illusion remains as illusion, only blessed souls no there is no wayout from this labyrinth, Only way out is resting in Self,
Resting desireless, knowing falsity of eternal drama, Resting as a witness to nothingness in action as everything,
Or everything is that grand nothing everfree of life!

Happiness is a state of mind,
A painless state,
A desireless state,
Contented state of mind, Mindfulness attained by mindlessness, resting in true self,
What else can bring more happiness than self satisfaction, The satisfaction of successful completion of duties, Successful graduation of Self, Earned by either self mastery, Or by self surrender,
Prapatti or pratipatti, Swimming against current or swimming along it!
The satisfaction of reaching desireless state of Self's own glory,
Without getting drowned!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Say I am You!

the speck of a star dust,
Filling a ray of light,
Get Exited to roam here and there!

The one who has neither born, nor die,
The eternal infinite singing its eternal song AUM,
Going round and round the Sun,
Along the revolving Earth,
Rotating about own axis along with rotating Planet!

Night is the time,
Sleeping in infinite nothing, becoming nothing in beloved
embrace,
forgetting everything! In the lap of beloved enjoy dreams,
may some come true,
Some may not,
Observing dreams one sees the light within, At the dawn, with gentle breeze, Dreams melt, innerlight into light
of world,
Never go back to sleep,
If you sleep at dawn,
What will be there at dusk? If dustfree dawn make you sleep,
Failing to Smile and work,
If can't feel lighter in the light of
dawn,
Sure the darkness covering light,
Will make you faint at dusk!

I and you are same here,
Counting the time, counting the days,
Everything is natural,
Why can't I be more natural
Why can't I be neutral,
All here are busy,
The Sun, the Moon,
The Earth,
The ocean and breeze,
Every cells of plants and animals busy,
Look at your cells,
That too are soundlessly busy,
Why can't I and you,
Say 'I am you' to the creator,
Because you too conferred same capacity, capable to create your own world,
Your own happiness and sorrow,
Your own world of life, wisdom and knowledge,
Its show of shadow play is this world!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Self Is Grand Mother Of All!

Knowledge is mother of fear, minion of mother,
Understands what is fear,
Knowledge of pain,
Knowledge of failure, knowledge of action and reaction and when grown up, becomes minion of fears!

Soul in the growing body, knowledge becomes mother of fear,
May be pain of a fall,
Or a bite of ants or wasps, knowledge of things around us is mother of fear!

Knowledge of own capabilities and inabilities, Knowledge of bondage and faults, Old age and death,
knowledge of pain
strain, failure or insult,
knowledge of fall is mother of all fears!

Body, mind and intelligence,
When glows with knowledge of world,
Every thought and action, Orbits around unknown fear, Spinning or rotating around axis of fear, its cute pet name is carefullness!

Paradoxically,
Fear is mother of all Knowledge,
Fear of fall,
Makes one carefull on walk,
Fear of consequences,
Makes one to think right, act right or walk straight,
Fear is mother of all Knowledge,
Takes one above the plane, or takes one to man of knowledge, Make one polite and flexible, fear of death makes one to think of eternal, Fear of law, may be law of land,
Law of divine or law of nature is mother of knowledge, Everyone is comes with lesson,
Either to teach or to learn,
Every fear of consequences is mother of all Knowledge divine!

Fear of flaws of own, or flaws in human laws is mother of all Knowledge!
The best teacher never preach,
But teach to clean the knowledge that is mother of fear,

Tears off the veil of fears, Lit the lamp of knowledge of fearlessness, light the dark corners,

Fear of sin or reasons for the fall,
Replaced by knowledge of courage,
Expert is that captain of ship,
Drive to safe still water, Anchore safe,
the ship swinging in storm of fear Is safely anchored in knowledge free of fears!

Or fills with knowledge of fearless Self, can pierce the balloon of fear, Make one
Work well, live well and behave well!

And fear becomes a trait,
Knowledge is mother of fear,
Knowledge of old age,
Weakness of old age,
Or may be of body and mind at growing stage!
Experience of adverse gives rise to knowledge that is mother of fears!

But experience of love and compassion,
Fear of fall is good companion, Teaches discipline and restraint Make one daring and caring, Someday one will understand the paradox,
'Knowledge is mother of fears,
Fear is mother of all knowledge,
God is father, and Self is Grand mother of all! ! !

Set Your Own Republic!

shun all Funs
Then life itself a fun, when all pains shun yourself done!

Perusal of senses make you a slave, Be dictator of none but your own,
Tune the mind,
Rule the senses and body,

Be the body is your land,
Mind is government,
Intelligence is security force,
Wisdom is parliament,
Let your republic have no flag or emblem!

Never water desires, Let sensualities burnt in the flame
Of Sensibilities
In the furnace of indifference!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Sh.. You may be Killer Of God!

when I was kid and innocent, Often I was hanging on her waist, weeping to take me into her arms, when she was free, She gladly fulfilled my request But when she was busy,
She used give toys, When my imaginations fail to please me,
I get bored of toys and threw them away,
Then she came and told,
See god is there in toys too,
You hurt Him when you throw!
She showed Some photos and pictures, strange to me some were with four hands
One with an eye on forehead!
Some are having beautiful face,
Some with some strange face,
I asked her who are these, Why they have strange faces and too many hands and eyes?
Tell me the how I look?
Is My face is like you?
She told me several stories,
I then started playing with dolls as if they are Gods!
Strangely the toys started winking and talking with me, When in play I talked and laughed with them! Mother was telling the stories of rivers, mountains and men with fountains of extraordinary spirits, Mother was telling more and more stories Mother Wanted me to sleep, so that she can go to work!
But I was not bored of these stories, Ever I was eager to listen, even when I was in sleep! So many time when I fell asleep, She fed my food and milk, Simply I eat and drank without knowing!
Next morning I used to complain, No one cares when I am hungry, Where I sleep and why they forget me,
Later I came Mother never forgot, Only I forgot and slept! When my mother died Too young I was and never cried, Then in dreams, one day I saw the death of my father, and when that dream become true,
I never wept as I wept in dream itself! Then my brothers and sister and friends

And I boldly accepted,
As soldier in war field,
Then my son, I laughed and said strange these dolls who played with me, Fell and shattered into pieces!
Then went that Lord, elephant headed giant,
Then to the one with three eyes Then to the one with lion head, All came and played and Became one with me,
Still question came to mind is it true,
Then Buddha, then Jesus then then finally Ever smiling Krishna, All were dwelling in me with mother Goddess,
Then came that day when I called no one came,
Mad I was, went wandering..
Came and sat on a grave, I was weeping, weeping And weeping,
Oh God!
Where are you?
There came a dog,
There was a cow and donkey Suddenly came a man who looked mad,
In dirty clothes clad He sat beside me and looked into my eyes, I too looked into his Calm lakelike eyes, The stone, the tomb, the air and everything,
All around started saying I am here,
I am here,
The dog, the cow, the ant at my feet and that man and trees around me started singing, I am here, I am here,
When I saw where that man gone,
He become every thing, from, dirty shit of donkey to infinite world, Then became small and entered my heart,
See I was always with you and always everywhere, None can express me completely than that pure soul, Clean with love and kindness, Some day if you lose these virtues,
You kill me and crucifix Me and I can't resurrect in dirty heart,

And you will be Killer of God!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Shall I use sword to solve Gordian Knot when I opened my eyes to the world, Not only my mouth opened to breast of my mother, Much before that my ears were open,

And skin that sensed touch of men or woman,
Known or unknown,
Expressing that by laugh or weep,

Then slowly opened eyes to see that world,
And light entered in eyes earlier,
Now reached brain!
Then started the questions and mystery Train,
And I became as what my elders trained!

But some years later I learnt life is from womb to tomb, That made me to sit on tomb, into which I saw someone sleeping, As bone and skeleton,
With that hollow skull,

Then I learnt where one day I have to Go!
I disliked to sleep there with that hollow skull

I reached there without hollow skull,
But with brainful of painful thoughts!

If tomb is my destination,
Why came from womb,
If I can't assimilate, why should I eat,
If I can't solve the puzzle, why should bother it,
If everything is fate, how best life that I can rate?

I came to home straight and Slept in a wooden box to feel my tomb with soulful brain!

I started learning to Go where I should go, Go and sleep in that wooden tomb and slept well there and became familiar with that!

Then came my mother where I am,
When she learnt that I am in my own tomb, Called father to show where I am, Both lifted me
And laughed, Kissed me and said,
'You naughty, hiding there? '

Someday I have to throw this old used scrap in the waste box called my tomb,
If life Gordian knot,

Shall I use that sword to cut the rope,
The sword of self knowledge, which is ultimate and impatient action,
I need not go and win the world,
Only I want win myself,

Self that in me have that thrill
And the joy of solving puzzle, Within fairness of the game?

It kills the spirit in me,
And the spirit of puzzle
If I cut the rope,
And that game is over to me!

Let me play a while,
my mother is always ready,
She takes me into her lap
I will sleep in that love that is divine, Than sleeping here in this tomb,
Once I throw that baggage aside
That was useful always in this journey,
All fate goes to that bag and not it can come unto me,
I am that son of God,
And God has to guide me as he is always my elder,
And He is my Fate, and I am destined to play and sleep with him!

Silence Oceans

Oceans of life, Oceans in one's life are wonderful, Heart is one ocean Brain is another ocean, mind is the third,
Trifles are fourth, Intelligence and wit make fifth, wisdom and knowledge sixth,
God and Love are seventh!
Soul is the land,
Raised above these oceans
And look as their shore, Every instant a wave of thought hits the shore!

High tides of happiness, low tides of sorrow,
High tides of success,
Low tides of failure hit the shore!

Ego is that wind blowing, Desires and pride are changing gravity cause wave and tide!
Sometimes disappointment,
Or hurt ego,
can create storm and tsunami!

Silence in solitude, become grand solitude, Takes one to that altitude, everything is cool in love and gratitude, Peace incarnate in multitude,
In that great solitude,

When wind stops,
and become still,
When there is no movement Of Sun and Moon, When everything comes to still,

No waves, no tides, ocean meets shore, all in love,
No raising or falling tides,
No roar of chasing waves,
That is that grand silence, Silence of All oceans,
When no bird fly or sing,
When no events, they are Time's own parents,
And time give birth to Three tenses, Past and future

compress the present,
Now lose pressure,
Present expands to eternal!

All merge in present
One is present in present tense only,
Both presence and absence, Merge in that grand existence,
That is the grand silence,
That is the solitude,
Where no one to disturb,
Nothing can disturb,
Soul is immersed in the universal soul,
Mind goes out of universe and sees the grand truth, Truth is that truth, no false can never reach,
No false can never touch, Universe infinite is not even atomic, Because mind itself has grown, fantastic and gigantic,
No atlantic, no antarctic, Only ocean remains, peaceful pacific
No reason to love,
No reason to hate,
No one can touch,
No arms can harm,
Listen to that drummer,
Beats drum continuously,
AUM AUM AUM,
Now in that silence of absolute solitude,
No drum, no AUM,
No drummer,
No judge's hammer,
No eternal vibration,
As one become one's own master!

Silence Of God Does Not Imply His Absence!

Can tree survive without sunlight,
It can send its roots down,
Can absorb water and minerals,
Yet that energy it has receive as grace Air is around it, not seen, its effect and necessity felt!

God around and within like air,
Or that strange flow of energy,
That flows through cells,
That brilliance of knowledge unknown,
God can't be an object of senses,
God is the one who drives them,
God is Not in objects with forms,
The formless behind all forms,
Neither an animal, nor animated,
Yet animate all forms,
God has no space to move,
As he fills every forms, Fills universe and beyond, God is Not felt, his effects can be,
As lightwaves, or matterwaves,
As fundamental particles,
Without mass or charge,
Smaller than photon, smaller than God_particle, Subtle of subtle, friend of all,
All are his forms, the forms breath the formless!
God is that beauty, may be Himalayan ice, Flow of river, cooling wind, or may be Love, in a beautiful heart he dwell!

How can one separate God from all forms,
Can Heartless man live,
But he is Not heartless,
But only deaf and blind, to music of musings of his own heart!

Man can't bear a little pain,
A little insult, little failure in his experiments,
But God bears every thing, Ever cool he was, when his experiments failed,
Dinosaurs appeared, simply cleaned his lab, Started experiment with a new!

Sing with me, 'I am Free!'

wishing you to Sing with me,
This melody of heart,
Come dear, let us sing together, Melody, that is beat of hearts Wishing you dear, be with me.
so intense is my longing Every leaves, is the frame Every flower, is your face, Every bird sings your name
Every is sand partical In desert said,
oasis is your smile,
In the jungle, you are nightingale.
Sing with me this song!
'When
Will one be at last retire from what.....?
Into solitude alone, without knowing, who are companions that follow like shadow companions that are shadow of own!

companions, create shadow even in darkness!
without joy of getting rid of them, and live even without a single shade of sorrow, sorrow of ignorance, with only scared of seeing snake in a piece of rope, rope snake can't be seen either in brilliant blinding light, or total darkness on death of eternal satan of nonexistent ego What is sacred than Soul What is sacred than pure mind, certainty is dreamer is true,
Sure that all Labyrinth are in dream!
When in I find my desires were rags, without them I look pure, desires are unwanted guests only neglect them, if not the go away from your temple kill them by asking, who are you and why are you all here, shall I Ever retire contented with self into the mountains or Deserts?
Kill this desire of retirement with contentment and patience
When,
seeing that my body is merely a machine engaged in selfless work, sickness and crime, age
and desire run any from you where they need to starve and not even having place to hide and liberate wake at your slip, Will you be free of the thought of becoming free, fearless, desireless blissful retirement comes to the mind bring eternal sleep to end, You have to awake than retire!
You are that embracing pillar and screaming, 'Please, help me; and set me free!
O friend just take your hands and swing it free, no one had tied you to pillar!
Where to go forest or city and why?

When?
Now!
Where?
Here!
Why why why?
When you are always free oh when? '
Now! now! now!

Singing Bird, I was!

Bird, singing Bird, I am!
Got trapped myself, lured by desires and Effects of my own karma!
I found myself in cage,
Made by my own fate, who become my master!

But when I started singing, Praise of my lord, not caring my master, Softer and softer became my master's heart!
I started singing for the one who placed me here, Slowly wiping my eyes,
With my own wings, singing melodious songs
I was amusing my heart,
And singing became my integral part!
I sang because I saw smile on lips of both,
My master as well as my Lord,
And I sang because it pleaseth all!

Nought I couldn't do more,
Eat, sleep then awake,
Pat my back with my own wings then sit and sing!
I was trying to find way out,
Dashed against nuts and bolts of the Cage,
And broke my wings and legs!
My pain was doubled, soar multiplied as I tried more and more to get myself free!

Master was laughing at me but he had sympathy,
He took me out and cleansed my wounds with his divine power and told me to cool down and wait and sing than try something great and great will be the pain, if act impatient!

I sang to Lord, O! Lord, Thou hast ears to hear this painful song!
Come on and free me!
I slept exhausted of weeping Lord came in dream and said,
'Child look, bother not of wing that are mortal, Look into heart, heart has wings that never fail Wings that are ever strong,
Even heart can sing when it fly, and even it can fly where air is not, fairies that land!
They call it heaven!

Woke up and saw my cage!
Cage that allow me not,
never it allowed me to fly!
I sat like meditating on God!

Then my mind absorbed in lord,
Body was stiff like a corpse, Seeing that master opened the cage,
Lord appeared and said,
My child it is now or never!
Suddenly I got out and flew to my Lord, where my master, Karma and his cage have no entry!

I sang to Lord, 'O Lord, I praise you thee, Thy will be my will!
Thy wish be my wish!
thy mighty will is done,
That saved me, thy love and Thy mercy showed the path Thee, is my only savior!
thy merciful hands lifted me! ' AUM, AMEN AMEEN!

Singing Birds Are Endangered Species!

Singing bird's songs enjoyed,
wonderful melody, wonderful words, Rhapsodical Sometimes,
More often romantic!

A power hungry, another powerful both listen a while,
They want the bird to sing for them!

Now the bird has to stop singing,
Or should think of flying far away!
Power hungry will kill or powerful will,
Singing bird ability of throat
Is its own enemy,
Two hands are ready to squeeze,
Two blades ready to cut, Singing bird's throat often squeezed, Several died,
not even found in history, they fear even that bird's story!

For it sings only truth,
Singing birds throat is cut,
Because it can't keep its mouth shut!

Poor bird! Its talent, gifted voice became its own enemy,
Not even they are listed Though singing birds are endangered species!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Sleep Here to arise some where!

Life is a dream
only a dream
Not full of cream
Only we scream,

In Joy or pain
All that is vain,
When we lose restrain
We take too much strain, only to fall in pain!

Life is life all around,
No meaning ever found,
Only going round and round From space to ground Ground to space is another round!

Life has several crew anyone can any moment screw Everyone is captain Aim is to contain
By that restrain,
Love and life simply both teach and Train Without any strain!

So many people sigh
And say
To hell with this world,
Look into their eyes,
They live in the hell they are not well, For them nothing is well, Only like that they tell, Somewhere their feathered hat of pride fell!

Life is a dream,
And a dream Only continued indefinitely, It is dream in which We feel the difference between real and dream,
Reality is deep sleep,
And slept long before somewhere, Arise here to sleep Someday,
Only to awaken in dream!
Death is that sleep,
From this house carries only to give another house!

Song of Great Souls, Shankara and Einstein

Soul feathered with love, the Divine.. Breaking the doors of cage flew high and high.. Even above the sky, , into space..
Then able to dive like penguin, and then like a whale to depth of ocean within. Seeing the wonderful Treasure, and after finding itself is divine, Raised to the surface became enchanted bird with colourful feathers
And with sweetest possible voice, . Entered the cage and with heartful of love, Started singing.. I am the Truth!
I am the creative Truth, and I am the Love.
I am the thinker and I am the thought and My dream is this world..

I am that nature
I am that energy
I am that consciousness
I am the Father
I am the Mother
I am the brother
I am the sister
I am the space
I am the energy
I am the water
I am the air
I am the fire
I am the Earth
I am every where and in everyone's heart..

Let me sing..
I am that from every throat..
Immortal energy,
Neither born
Nor die!
I am that,
thou art that and
There is nothing unreal..
Everything is real in love
and knowledge
And I am the basis of all existence..
Say I am that, Say I am you, say you are me!
Only same existence appear relatively This was the song of Shankara!

A millennium later came that Scientist, nay, the saint in disguise,
The great truth seeker,
Albert Einstein
Who try to explain how this world is real yet unreal,
These are that great souls the world has ever seen MAYA is relativity,
And relativity
Sankara was not only a saint Einstein was not only scientist Both brought us so near to truth!

Stay Away and Go Away Pains!

stay away from me all earthly joys;
Evenly joy is mine.
Break tender ties and Knots;
Eternal joy is mine.
Dark and the wilderness,
Dove can fear and hide in its nest Earth has no resting place than own heart, God alone can bless;
Now bliss is mine. Tempting desires not in my mind my soul sail away;
moral king Is mine.
Here would I ever stay;
infinite peace is mine.
Toys and things made of clay, Born and soon worn out Solid but for a few day, Life melts and boils some day only flow but can't burn, Pass from my heart away;
Guardian is mine.

Farewell, ye dreams of day n night;
Humble Soul of mine.
Lost in this dawning bright;
Source of all light is mine.
All that my soul has tried Left but a dismal void;
Lord has satisfied;
Lord of lords is mine.

Farewell, mortal nature;
Eternal love is mine.
Welcome, eternal Truth;
Joy and smile is mine.
Welcome, O Loved and my Beloved, Welcome, sweet events of test, Welcome, sweet nectar in my breast;
all that sweetness is mine.

Story of water molecules story of water molecule!

I was ocean and I was in ocean, When my own waves brought me to surface, I was happy I got exposed..
And I was exposed to the fresh air and fresh rays of broad sunlight.

I started gaining energy... each molecule vibrated with and I too,
I was lifted up and up,
With friends and family together raising in space..

We are cloud and I am cloud away my ocean!

Alas! , air stopped lifting us and started swinging here and there and billions and billions of us were there enjoying together our swing, jolting and moving here and there, But the cool air drew our energy..
We came together as we become poorer and poorer..
We formed a group and dropp and started falling together! Some fell on hot rocks and hot land, quickly went up..
But some fell on grass and plants got absorbed and trapped there, some fell on land joined hands and became steam, We called our trapped friends to join us, but they were settled there and enjoying happiness and sorrow, making their own life, some were in trees and plants, some were in men and beasts, enjoying their life there.. We streams joined and became rivers and rolling and falling in eddies and vorticoices, we enjoyed rocks and falls... And reached ocean completing a cycle.. But still most of our friends Were back and there still enjoying their trapped life, some are in organismsms, some in lakes and ponds, some as mountain ice! Oh we are molecule yet Not differentiated in ocean! We are neither happy nor feeling pain, Some us dived deep and felt safe felt escaped the cycle... Some loved and felt bad of our friends trapped, wanted to go to call them back, remained on the surface to go and warn them we were oceans,

They were, sages, seers and prophets.. They knew they are free, yet their love, and decide to be part of eternal play..! We can now say, we are that, I am that, this and that, but who is there to listen we are all ocean we are ocean! Or we are raising, or we are in clouds or we in lakes and ponds. Trapped or free, having a duty towards us, towards others and the Ocean! I am that, think about you and feel yourself.... 'I am that '

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Strange Feelings..!

Glowing that natural Thermo nuclear reactor, Feeding all, giving light and energy,
Globe that revolving with rotation,

Having that invisible veil of Gases And that blue water covering all that is deeper useful ocean where life originated,

Who told that fishes, snakes, plants and turtles,
Come out to breath fresh air! who designed lungs and legs?
Or roots and shoots with seeds and fruit?

Wonder is that how that man evolved, After only end of tragic period end of Tyrenic rule of dinosaurs!

How this strong brain in tiny weak body survived,
When that useless and ruthless spices erased!

How strange that this Homo sapiens survived and managed, managed all dangers and problems he faced ?

Mostly that he learnt that only fittest can survive!
His fights and strains when failed

He might have wept and called oh! the Greatest of Demon, Don't you have mercy on my me Short he made Greatest Of Demon,
G.O.D.
Oh! GOD aren't you are kind enough?
Man tried to please that who haunted him the most!

Then started rituals and and hymns to please it!
Then came people who wanted probe deep,
Called people to think and raise above sheep

They are the early philosophers,
And mathematicians,
Logical thinking was their capital,
They were able to see most of the things as they are,
Still that imperfections in logic, Evolved another species, started thinking in different direction,
They didn't stay till they Got answers to selfsatisfaction, Then also some jumped and asked ' what is self, what is satisfaction?

They dived deep to see what is self,
What is the root of own existence?
What is they way for complete satisfaction,

Some are not satisfied with description,
They went in their own path,
Finally found nothing as there was nothing to explain,
As there was nothing that words can explain,
No one was there to reach Nothing was there to see or perceive,
Only that was that screen on which everything dance,
It is that God they wanted,
And people can see in them what they wanted,
And that is that,
They had the kind, loving heart,
And they were strangle soft, yet strong,
They said they saw that truth,
And Truth is beyond all words,
It is beyond all worlds,
Yet it is with in us and that's the truth, thinner than vacuum, solid than the blackhole,
And it is that which can create all, Sustain all or destroy all,
And you are a dust of that,
And that solid truth is collection of all,
Universal set of universal truth,
It is beauty, Truth, and mighty of all, and your consciousness is not apart,
But truly a part not apart of it,

And that unmoved ocean which moves all It is moving galaxies and stars at its will,
And you too are moved by it!
But it can be moved by a kind loving heart, Because tears of such heart,
Becomes tears of its own heart!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

That Peace And Silence is In your heart!

Before the birth of universe,
Before the birth of star and universe,
Before the birth of space and time, Before the eternal vibration,
there was grand silence,
And that is still in your heart!

Before the birth of Earth,
Before the birth of stars an Sun,
There was love and love brought elements,
And elements joined hands in love,
And the affinities and hinderences,
On the bass of background vibration AUM, Dance of creation and destruction,
Started with its own orchestra,
Brought the stage show called life,
And that eternal Truth,
May one call it God,
Or Almighty, is watching its own dance, Silently seated in every heart, Find in your own heart that silent witness!

Peace and silence of that truth,
Is all eloquent,
Great orator, always sit silent when others talk, Silently picking word by word,
Gross and subtle meanings of all sentences,
Look at its patience,
Patiently waiting for end of dance of desires, Speech of own ignorance,
And music of all dualities, Duet music of nature and immature souls!

That peace is not lost,
Its silence is proof of its presence,
Its presence is basis of life,
Its own nature is above,
Above all perspectives and perceptives Game of love of energy and matter! found in nature!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

The best is yet to come, body when grows old!

I show you doubt,
I can show you path, filling confidence;
to prove what faith can do.

how sad you may be how bad your state may be, mad your actions look, but when faith clears all clouds, then, how sweet it will be.

Grow old with me!
be my companion in your journey,
I show how youth hide lies,
Love when shows light in heart,
The best is yet to come, body when grows old!

The Perfume And Colour Of Flower, Is Already In The Plant!

The flower blooms on that Plant, Enchanting beauty and colour of flower, Perfume and colours were in the flowering plants,
The perfume spreads, colours shine, When every heart bloom on maturity of love and wisdom!

The fragrance of flowers allready bloomed-gives not only courage, but also hope and faith in nature's laws and Nature's plans!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

The Truth Can't be True Without Me or You!

I never care my salvation,
I never care for deliverance,
I need not bother discipline or mediation,
Why I am here,
I never like to think,
Someday I complete my mission, lost and buried in history,
I am no special, not a sapient, look just like a dropp of water, seen in like river or like in ocean, carried above to clouds, Falling back as dew dropp or raindrop, Identifying with materials,
In cycle of Recycles!

I know for sure,
I am not this, I am not that,
I am not what words can say,
Seeing me not in any world,
Only seeing world in me,
Why I need enlightenment,
As I am the light that make everything glow!

I am not the water, I am not the air,
I am not the fire,
I am not the space,
I am not the Earth, made up of minerals

Nay, origin of all, is that Truth,
And for sure that TRUTH can't be True without me or you!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

The Unmoved Mover, see who am I!

The Unmoved Mover!

The universe that moving,
The universe that is changing,
The universe that is playing,

Projecting and hiding, Playing that hide and seek,
Who is that hides and who is that seeks,

Who is that moving the infinite universe?
The one, who that can Be moved by prayers,

Does he really move,
And can He move, before He move worlds for us?

He is infinite, filling all space,
Can he move the universe, can he move it without the space Can He move it without 'Time' When He fills the space, how can he move himself or how can he move something in space?

He is the Unmoved Mover of universe,
He himself created room,
He Himself moved Himself in Himself Creating Himself the time and space,
He Himself manifested at different points
And keeping space between these points, Infinite He split himself into elements five or a few
And created particles and forces between,
That expanded matter and space, Created events,
so that the time has any meaning,

He Himself became nucleotides and cells, Joined them as building blocks,
To build house for himself,
And became homesick always,
Yet wept for his lost glory and beauty,

Wanted to have back all that lost and hide,
When He was busy in building a nest for own!

He was thinker without brain,
And He is that,
He is I am,
'I am' is he,

If you ask 'who are you thee and where are you thee? '

He replies, I am tree in this tree,
I am the stone in this stone,
I am the star in this star,
I am the air in atmosphere,
I am the water in rivers and ocean, I am the bacteria in this bacterial house,
I am the bull in this bulls body,
I am the grass at your feet,
I am you in your body,
I am that in which I feel,

When you ask me who are me,
I say I a proud Hindu,
Or I say I am a proud sikh Or I am a proud muslim Or I am proud Christian,
Or A proud Aryan But I fail to say, I am humble human,
I am like point in infinite universe, and is a child of God, all are his children, so we are brother and sisters!

And I am that infinite when I am in my own infinite glory and infinite beauty!
Look through you, I look at myself,
Look around, I look at myself from all around,
Look I am talking to myself, I am that call myself as you when I see from that point from this point of space and time, both which have no existence without my folly in wisdom or wisdom in folly!

The winner Felt Empty, Be empty to Be A Winner!

After Kalinga war, Emperor Ashoka looking at the heap of corps, Stream of blood,
Fell into well of deep thoughts,

What made civilians to fight for Kalinga king? People chose to die, never liked to live without the king!
The winner felt empty!
Even in his vast empire,
he didn't find such love of people,
This made him turn 180 degree, turn from outward to inward, from desires of world turned to desire to attain peace!
Sword lost its sharpness, Words of Buddha became his sword, To cut the roots of pain and penury of heart!
The love the king imparted, the love of people the king gained,
Were his guide! When Alexander came, Pururava taught him the Dharma,
The Lion is always lion,
King of the jungle,
Whether in jungle or in a cage, 'Treat me as king, if not let me fight till my death, Dandimas words already made his swords blunt,
The words of king made him,
Turn outward to inward, The disciple of Aristotle, Desireless he became,
Meditating on Dandimas's words, Siddhartha's journey to become Buddha,
Seeing dukha, dukha, dukha behind every sukha Why can't we see that in our life? Vardhamana's journey to Mahaveera,
Adam and apple,
Made him outward, Different story of Newton and apple, Fall of Einstein from ladder, turned them inward for answers, Venkataramana's fear of death, Turned him inward,
Maharshi Ramana emerged winning the death! Meditate on root of all causes, Not on the branches, Be Chanakya, to remove root of ignorance,
Nothing makes one free,

Than that nothingness, Empty the pot and wash,
Before fill divine in it,
Be empty, be a winner!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

There is No 'there', When One reached There! !

Running after Truth, went on pilgrimage,
From here to there,
From there to someother From one place to other,
Madurai to Tirupati, Arunachalam to Himalayan, Haridwar to Hrishikesh, Amarnath to Kedarnath, Kashi to Mathura Jeruselem to Kaba!

There to place left on Earth, which is not holy,
Each place is holy,
Made holy by caring hearts carrying the Truth!

Everywhere, may be unknown forest, valley or mountain,
Plateau or desert, shore or ocean, I saw footprints of men of God,
Air in atmosphere, water in lake and ocean,
All sanctified by his name,
Not only saw the faith in peoples heart,
But also glowing light everywhere,

May be in one or in many,
Many faces of one I saw, Everywhere it is holy,
May be in crawling earthworm,
May be in worm in gutter,
Or may be in smiling face in a mansion,
Or weeping hungry faces in huts,
May be round bright faces of cute children,
Or may be in eyes of dried skin of hungry skeleton,
I saw the light,
Light of him in their hope and faith!

I saw his face in Sun, or his image in lake,
May be in Lotus or lilly,
May be in hundred storied building,
May be in light of palace Or hut with oilless lamp, may be in power of an emperor or in helplessness of a begger, May be in a child or its toys Ah! Truth has so many path, Pathless I became!

Wandering in this woods of dark world,
Where light hides or may be blinding light made me blind, those look dark, may not be dark,

Those who look bright may not be bright!

When some how reached 'there', None was there, even I or he,
Light or dark,
In fact no one to say, this is that or this is where you intended to reach!

The mystery of mysterious remained a mystery,
But when I looked back the light appeared,
And in that light I found everyone,
The beloved waiting for loved,
The cot on which flowers spread,
Lover waiting for beloved, Weight of love being, more than heart can bear When beloved came, face of lover became one among flowers, Nay all flowers shined with love, Reflected smiling face of Truth,
Love is secret of creation,
More to say every face of life is face of beloved Lord,
The Lord in disguise is life!

There was no 'There' when I reached there,
All was here and now, and here alone his faces can be seen,
In father or mother,
Or the child which is in everyone neither born nor grow old, Never can die,
We, who have so little time, are devoted to the One who has all the time.
We search to find and be that Timeless One who is all time no other than the Deathless One He is that who feel and think,
Who has reasons and reasoning in Him!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Think! Life is that Energy plant!

The eternal dance of Energy,
That can neither be created nor be destroyed,
Only enjoys its own dance!

One type of Energy to appear and equivalent amount has to disappear!
Or if one energy disappear,
It appear in another form!

If one has to live, need energy in one form, converting it to another form Body is that dynamic system, Which Consumes one form of it one form of Energy
To covert into another!

Body is that device that consumes One form of matter to another form Oxygen into carbon dioxide,
And then the carbohydrates, Proteins, lipids, neucleotides and minerals,

Continuous conversion of one form to another is that life!

For what purpose energy dances Here on the stage of universe?
Just think and just think, think,
who is thinking for what?

It is that consciousness that thinks? ..
And unconscious is watching and noting,
And what is the use of this dance,

When sum total of all energies is constant,
What is the use of converting, one form of Energy into another form, What is that useful energy Used as useful work?

Yes there is that greatest scientist Behind all devices, the conversion engines, Silently gathering information of own, Converting that Unconscious part to consciousness, Then gathering data to analyse and finally construct the powerful device, Updating constantly, Everythought, every information,
And the purpose of the dance may be,
Conversion of useless thoughts useful ones,

Think, think, who's thinking Think think, why are you thinking,

Think, think, why are we living,
Think, think how to think,
To covert that useful,
yet laying useless,
Unconscious part of your own,
To bring forth as usefull to you and all,
Including that divine purpose of knowing more than enjoying more!

Think think, and think you are the C.E.O. your own energy conversion plant
How to improve efficiency,
To convert more and more Useless things to useful, or useful to useless, Any way you are here till that day
Of your retirement, friends and relatives only Arrange send off party in absence of you!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Thou hide thyself behind the Fabrics of life weft is Energy and matter is warp, Weaving fabric after fabric of worlds,

Filling your own breath in all, Every breath is eternal story of thy love,

thou are blind to thy own brightness, Covering yourself with colourful fabric of life, thou art that primordial existence and cause, Primordial love,
Thou art the love, ever loving lover, beloved of all life, every life is a ray of thy love,
Every life is thy love story,
You weave the web of life,
Using corporeal and Empyrean illusions, Every word is colourful and powerful,
Every life is thy love song, singing with different lyrics and tune, Under the fabric of words,
Web of every words and scriptures hide you more,
Every heart is thine hide!
The heart that one with you in love,
Only love these fabrics because of you, Behind every form of corporeal you hide more,
Thou are always naked, Behind fabrics of life,
to the one who is silent, barefooted and naked in thy love!

Tick Tick Tick....!

Tick Tick Tick Tick, Clock Ticks,
Lub dub Lub Dub heart beats, Cycle of inhaling and exhaling makes breath,
Pulses from unknown center has own lifetime, keeps time for us, clock that set in every cell schedules its life and birth! Life is light trapped in atom, excited electron has to fall back, Just like life raises up and falls back, rhythm, wavelength and frequency decide energy of light, local time may not match with clock in other region, Light travels covering space does truly decide time?
You are the medium where light is slowest, faster it is in different medium and plane, Before the internal clock stops, Sending warning alarm, Alarm thyself, you are here not only to know,
But also to the wish of the one beyond light and clock, who can fix clock even in a light photon,
can fix clock in everything, Arise and awake before chime of alarm,
No snooze is there in your clock, Never get yourself lost in yawning,
No one can stay here.
when time is up!

Namaste and thank you all before my clock ticks and buzz to say time is up!

To My Guru Swami Vivekananda..

World at this wandering monk wondered, simply the fearless empty hands unarmed;
vedanta knowledge of Viveka and Ananda, Salute to you daring, dear Vivekananda!

Sun rise in east has to spread light to west, Eastern wisdom unknown to loving longing heart, brought out the best, mighty bright star live short, thy life was short, but enough to make world bright!

Bearing the torch of Guru Ramakrishna in heart, inspiring all with glowing truth before you depart;
never worried of future nor painful past in mind, light of yoga science, pushing darkness behind!

Inspired by thy works, surpassing human boundaries, social and spiritual miracle that had to happen, so many lives flawlessly forged in thy foundries, Thy life is worth million times to study and mention!

We love you, o fearless one, representing soul of Dharma, Thy love made us fearless, clearing clouds of ignorance, purity of thoughts inspire us, divinity, and secret of Karma, always keep our heart free of aviveka, Dearest Swami Vivekananda

Truth Is More Simple...

only patience and skill, and not passion will,
more artistic are skillful acts, patience can bring forth more facts

Patience alone can't glow, kindness have to flow, moon light of patience, reflect light of Sun of love!

Truth is more simple Walls, doors and pillars will not build the temple, pure hearts are God's altars.

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Truth Of Truth!

Truth of truth is this,
Behind every heart, may be beautiful,
Or not,
There is that great truth,
We awakened from sleep of innocence, Awakened to dream
Just innocently witness cosmic play And Go back into sleep of innocence once again, this happens eternally, and now and then we awakened into dream and once again go to sleep!

The same recycled energy and matter,
The same innocent child grow and die,
Die only to get recycled some how and somewhere!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Truth Smiles In Child!

What an eternal pair they are,
God and Nature, positive and negative, God revolving freely around nature, Smiles at Nature,
And Nature smiles at God,
Smile makes one beautiful and they fell in love of beauty in one another!

Just like parents smile AT the kid, Nature says to God,
'See, This child is your Creation, you are its father, take care of it '

God smiles and says, 'Its your child, take care of this,
And this is your child '

Child smiles innocently at both,
Nature Smile at child and says,
I am your mother, He is your father,
When child smiles at father, father's heart too jumps and smiles, Father sees its beloved Nature,
And Nature sees her Beloved God in the smile of the child!

In the child both smile together, seeing at one another!

Matter smiles at energy and energy smiles at matter, and in the child both smile together,

But in their love and smile, Truth smiles,
eyes of both God, Nature shine at the smile of the Child, Never both able to see the silent smile of Truth,
It says within child, it's soliliquoy goes unheard,

' I am that,
Smiled in you,
I am the creator of both,
But God and Nature Never able to see me,
Only seeing me as their child, I smile At them,
that I kept my identity, Hidden safe in You '

Two rivers Between Mankind Live!

The history of mankind,
Two rivers flow side by side,
In the name of God and beliefs,
One flows crystal clear, colourless, faithless yet hopeful and printable knowledge, Beyond all polluting Narrow thoughts, flowing on precious ground of reasoning, embracing all creatures, everylife alike, Flow of love purified by ever pure knowledge of Self!

Another is narrow river full of blood, Smell of rotten corpse, Dirty genocide thoughts
In the name caste creed, thirst for power,
Hunger for comforts, wealth and fame,
All violence hidden under the bouquet of Love,
Under the name of merciful Lord, Merciless killings, Burning of huts and mansions, destruction of heritage and cultures, all this Not only in the name of God,
But also in the name of Love,
In the history of mankind,
Two rivers flow side by side,
One is pure and colourless,
Another is impure and red,
One can pollute the pure and make it red easily,
But the pure can't wash the red colour and wash the dirt of the other!

Understand For Sure, You Are Here To Learn What Understanding Is!

Can you see dear, life itself is the fountain of infinite Self,
That tiny drops of life raise from and fall into same, Rainbow of enchanting beauty,
That due to light of soul, showing its enchanting colours.
In every drops, large or tiny alike, Flora and fauna are those devices of self, rainbow looks more clear,
When tiny drops are in abundance!

Self manifesting its capabilities,
That all energies and forces too,
Change their form for the play of the formless,
Who is in eternal play appearing in various forms, Formless showing his ability to assume any form!

Life is a school, with dress code,
Uniform that the kids of self wear,
Show in which class they learn,
Showing level of evolution of mind,
Tuning to the mind of that infinite!
Look at the uniform you and me wearing, top most class in which we study, Don't engage in ragging juniors,
Look inside,
Know for sure, you have the source of fountain of life,
That eternal loving Self act through you Understand you are here to learn,
What understanding means!

Unholy Philosophy or Unholy Mind!

Most often pages of history,
Fight between mighty,
Ended in bloodshed,
Emperors sat not on throne,
But they sat on heap of corpse, Their coronation day or mourning day of Humanity!
With the blood stained hands wore crown with immoral minds!
Who dared to oppose power of swords!
A few like Ashoka or Alexander, tortured by own Conscience, Moved by horror of blood shed,
Put their swords down, bowed before words!

Most often it's fight between egos, or fight between right and wrong, Nay both are wrong,
A fight between wrong and wrong!

What is the use in fighting here, power hungry should learn,
Men with corrupt mind can't be right,
And when their hands gain might,
They will always start fight!

Frustrations and fury, love and hate,
All has source indeterminate, Unholy politics they say,
Unholy philosophy they cry,
Why can't they say,
Human mind is sporadic and stray?

Socrates made to drink Hemlock, Always differences when ended in deadlock,
One wise should give up and save life,
Someday will come, clouds disperse,
And earthshines with light of Truth,
Wise head should know, the creator,
Wants to create models here,
Each model is made to teach something,
And teach to evolving mind of humanity,
May be an emperor or a philosopher,
All has to end their story here,
Will have to go back bear handed there!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Unwise Are Wise Enough!

Wise is the one who eats to live
And live to eat;
He knows for sure he will be hungry,
And the stomach can never be filled, Keeps it half filled!

People are with head,
One fourth filled with thoughts and ideas,
One fourth by emotions and prejudice,
One fourth by desires and ambitions,
One fourth felt empty but filled with froth of ego and lies!
Some love to live, but most live to love, many like to Work and earn!
Some only dream and yearn,
Even many saints live in painted mansions, Golden shoes, cosmetics, bold and beautiful Girls on posh cot and beds, False are these,
when men and woman are lusty,
They fear God,
Godmen when are lusty,
Fear neither god or men!
Bright they are in daylight, dark and devilish, under the veil of dark or they twinkle with twinkling form stars!

Most like to live with hope, hope of love or love of hope, Falling to faiths and superstitions, no faith is better than faith in one's own Self,
Whom we call low people, Daring they are to take what fate, or the Gods may give.
They ask no question,
no time to make no prayer, No time to kiss the lips and caress the hair,
Only tired they retire!
No passion no fashion, as they greet morning Sun with busy and tense mind, ready to face flow of life and accept failure or pain as their fate,

The work hard and toil
To have that little for the day, Try to hold breath and to face trifles, they have to work with clock, in time they reach their workplace, they are ready to anything let go anything they have,
Or ready to accept Whatever come on thier way!

Wise are wise to exploit,
Unwise or not fools,
They are wise to make their own way!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Visitor to Earth?

Know one thing
No one thought Or no one fought Not in the moment my parents fought romantic thought They never thought They never brought, not been they brought Neither they designed But surely are destined I too was destined, nature reacted, to love they acted, And they wanted
And they never waned
I fell trapped in their love! The showered shared their love
I got major share! They earned and saved But more share they gave As well they ate less to save more for me! They were gods and I was god fell to their love! They went and I continued Now we are two, ours two,
But one flew after days few! We have love and we can't act love to trap one more god to visit and be event of our home!

Waiting for That Final Song of heart!

Waiting for the Final,
The grand finale of my life, Waiting for that final deliverance, the Final song to flow, melting all frozen thoughts,
In the light of opening of lotus, billion petal each glow with galactical shine!

Waiting for that intuition, Burning and evaporating everything irrelevant, all ignorance and weakness, Publication of self by self itself, Sublimation of sublime essence to spread all over,
Filling the large vacuum between religions, Blaze of light billion galaxies bright within,
Show the path of universal religion, breaking barriers of religions, cracking humanity by valley between mountainous thoughts, Let every heart know what stuff created itself!

Let Truth shine at every door step,
Man who been able to realise
The one harnessed atomic energy, Can't he find the all potential Love,
The binding energy of atoms, Manifest as binding energy of hearts,
Heart is that reactor;
This powerful energy can be harnessed, Rulers of nations rose and fell,
So many born to kill and die,
Those rulers tried to kill spirit of love!
But neither able to kill,
Nor able to take anything, the fragrant rose of love, smiled with every dawn!

O man, know the light of love,
God is that love who is binding all,
It is his unimaginable binding force, which binds every heart, Heart that know that strength, that all powerful energy, Harnessed in the heart, total submission is the that ultra device, Freewill is its another face,
Just know that faces, Life itself is that Self creator, sustainer and destroyer of universe!

This aging leaf Know some day it has to fall,
Before that fall, want to sing a ever green song,
When joyously enjoy the fall;

New green leaves may sing,
Song reverberated beyond atmosphere,
Song that sung forever by the infinite eternal!

Waiting For The End; The End Of My Waiting!

I have come through a long way, singing and dancing, falling and raising,
sleeping and dreaming!

people on my road, from this end to that end, silently waiting for end - the end of my waiting!

We Are Not Separate, We Are Connected!

Loke samsta sukhino bhavanthu, Sarve Jana sukhino bhavanthu!

It is a beautiful prayer,
When prayers become oath, Opens the path,
When love suppress hate,
Heaven opens every heart,
Its shining golden gate, We may look different,
But we are connected,
Never can live separate!

Look what speaks in us and what it speaks,

'I am the life,
Sometimes wise,
Sometimes foolish,
Sometimes meaningful,
Sometimes ridiculous!

Just like a light bulb, Flashing different shades of colours,
Of various intensity,
Depending on flow of power through me! '

Find the source of all powers,
Follow the line to reach the source!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Western Moon and Eastern Sun!

Stare I at the stars, Stairs I find in my heart,
I look at wonder at sky,
Why can't I find a new and try!

The Moon of West is romantic, wander in the garden of many rosy stars, Sun of East rose and brightened the sky and faded away both moon and stars Large and black sky, Now looked blue and small!

My mind sang with Tolkien,

"Still round the corner there may wait
A new road or a secret gate And though I oft have passed them by
A day will come at last when I Shall take the hidden paths that run West of the Moon, East of the Sun."

Than with Pablo Neruda,

"I crave your mouth, your voice, your hair.
Silent and starving, I prowl through the streets.
Bread does not nourish me, dawn disrupts me, all day I hunt for the liquid measure of your steps.
I hunger for your sleek laugh, your hands the color of a savage harvest, hunger for the pale stones of your fingernails, I want to eat your skin like a whole almond.
I want to eat the sunbeam flaring in your lovely body, the sovereign nose of your arrogant face, I want to eat the fleeting shade of your lashes,
and I pace around hungry, sniffing the twilight, hunting for you, for your hot heart,
Like a puma in the barrens of Quitratue."

Dreamed with silverstien,

"If you are a dreamer come in

If you are a dreamer a wisher a liar
A hoper a pray-er a magic-bean-buyer
If you're a pretender come sit by my fire For we have some flax golden tales to spin Come in!

Then with the Wordsworth,

'I wandered lonely as a cloud That floats on high o'er vales and hills, When all at once I saw a crowd, A host, of golden daffodils; Beside the lake, beneath the trees, Fluttering and dancing in the breeze. Continuous as the stars that shine And twinkle on the milky way, The stretched in never-ending line Along the margin of a bay: Ten thousand saw I at a glance, Tossing their heads in sprightly dance. The waves beside them danced; but they Outdid the sparkling waves in glee; A poet could not but be gay, In such a jocund company; I gazed - and gazed - but little thought What wealth to me the show had brought: For oft, when on my couch I lie In vacant or in pensive mood, They flash upon that inward eye Which is the bliss of solitude; And then my heart with pleasure fills, And dances with the daffodils.'

Then with Rumi,

' Don't look at your form, however ugly or beautiful. Look at love and at the aim of your quest.... O you whose lips are parched, keep looking for water. Those parched lips are proof that eventually you will reach the source.'

Finally with Shankaracharya

' universe is the dance of infinite, BRAHMAN is the Truth and not the Universe,
But universe is nothing but BRAHMAN,
And you are that Truth! '

And my wandering mind died and I am one with him!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

What I Have To Believe?

"What I have to believe and what I believed?
That on the whole, and by and large, to live relieved, what we need, food for fight, or peaceful life?
decency when become thread binding, indecency is cutting knife!

Man has to live properly, spirit with due attention paid, not according to what any religions and scriptures said, what seemed decent and honest inside, Self's voice heard, then it would, more or less, turn out all right, at the end,

Ramdas Bhandarkar

What is Life? What is its Meaning?

What is Life?

When mind enters the matter, matter develops the mind, Truth that splits into Three,
It is like fragile glass tree,
Three roots Father, spirit and Son, Turn that hour glass, the time starts with Fusion of gametes,
In the game of love,
Father sits on throne,
Spirit fuels thirst, hunger and desires,
One day life itself starts wondering what is Life?
When life gets kicks for its desires and deeds, Stands up and asks,
What is meaning of Life?
When metabolism shifts equilibrium,
Rate of catabolism exceeds anabolic rate,
Then starts thinks about fate!
What is the meaning of life?
The life finds answer in life itself,
Life finds answer in its question itself, Father, spirit and Son trinity,
When son is full of spirit,
Wants to eat, drink, dance and make merry, Forgets he has to cross the great ferry!
but when spirit stops fueling life, the son, Thinks of father and sits somewhere alone,
In solitude looks at and screams O, Father where are you?
When life learns neither matter, nor the mind,
But the truth that became God and satan,
The tree and the serpent,
Mind that was in confusion, Asking what is Life, Learns that life is not that,
Neither friend nor foe of life itself,
Only that confusion, like a boy went to a fair to purchase trained horse for race, but lost its money on amusement only able to purchase an old useless ass!
Life is like that,
If life rides life, life gets kicks and reach a dead end!
If life is led by life, life can live life full of bliss than full of fun and fun to other life it becomes,
When slips footing on its own shit,
Instead of flying like inter galactic space ship!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

When Demon's dance reach peak.

When morals and divinity kept away from schools and colleges, when teen agers laugh at social conduct.
where law rapes jutice, where humans humiliate humanity, knowing truth lawyers holds hands of justice where corruption kills sincerity in minds... only I have to say this pain does not go in vain.
Demon's dance when reach peak.
stage is set to the dawn of angle's songs and dance.

Ramdas Bhandarkar

When Ego Clash, Sparking and Barking start!

There is that story,
Before marriage,
He speak, she listen!
After marriage,
she speak, he listen!
and when they talk, Children weep and neighbors listen!

These is not a general rule,
It is has exceptions,
Most of the time, if he/she can act, deaf, dumb and blind to others mistakes!

Rare are those with open heart who understand each other and respect one another!

Wide hearts meet rare, When narrow heart dominate, broad one suffer more,
As rule, it is sad!

Discussions turn into arguments, or when patience breaks its silence,
When one ego hurts another, When hurt ego retaliate,
And ego Clash takes place!

When Ego clashes with ego, Clear sky covered with clouds, Lightning shine and thunders roar, Sparking and barking takes place!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

When Heart Accept Another, No Bridge Required On River Of Life!

How can people build bridges, When are busy in building houses and towers, Temples, churches
And mosques,
When belief breaks relations, But not interested in invisible bridges between hearts only some hearts weep, Hearing cry of other ones! Either are sincere,
Or reached lonely island,
When ship of life wrecked!
Only faith construct bridges, Beliefs break them and from that stones, Build walls of forts! When heart has eyes to look into another heart,
When one accept another, No bridge required on river of life!

When I Burnt Myself In Fire Of Truth!

I never grew looking up, aware of my roots are below ground,
I somehow grew absorbing best from soil, Spite of the dawn, I like to sleep, at end of the dusk i like to wake,
I am not nocturnal, but like moon,
A fortnight I spend with Sun;
another away from him!

Nature had given place to run and play,
All round to mountains, seas and Earth as whole,
With beloved's billion names to embrace, everything, light and darkness are her grace heights of sky; depth of ocean; heaps of snow on mountains now not able to steal my view; they though surprised me - I got solved it,
When I burnt myself in fire of truth!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

When Statues and Idols Can't Remain Idle

I have a message to you, you have one unread message, Open your heart's inbox and read;
God is eternal shepherd, whenever his messenger, or his son or idol insulted, neither God faints nor omnipotent one dies
He has no shortage of messengers or warriors

Unknown hands play its game, whenever hands with arms, brains and hands indulge in harms, Statues and idols no longer remain Idle, Bamiyan Buddha or Narasimha of Hampi!

Men when insult art and culture in his name, when men engage disgraceful acts, it is shame Isn't it the insult to Him, who brought men up, Victorious one can be a winner if he win Hearts Wars when end in blending of cultures, Happy God will be.

When You Were Flower, I Became A Singing Bird!

I and you were in love for ever,
When you born here as flower,
I developed wings to fly around
you, when you had that wonderful petals, I too had colourful wings, When you are fragrant,
I never developed fragrance, Because I thought you may get enchanted,
Or may faint and fall, May fall quickly and if you fall
then it is my own death
How can I live here without you!

I was not a poet, had no poesy,
Love made me to sing, Singing bird I became,
Not because I had song,
Not because I had magical or mystic thoughts,
Not because of idioms and phrases,
Not that hold on figure of speech,
Only my heart wanted to sing,
My own lyrics and words, my own tune!

Enchanted by beauty of the stars shining on your face,
And the enchanting smiling lips
The kiss of that lips, sure to take me to heaven, nay beyond heaven and to that plane, Where hell can't reach,
Nor even heaven can match!

Whenever Evolution Stops Revolution Becomes a Necessity

Nothing in the history of mankind,
If there were no beautiful woman with rusty heart, if there were no lusty and ruthless greedy guys, men running after yellow metal and coloured stones, people foolish after semi Knowledge of God, Government of strong men of crooked mind, weak in heart, terror, fear, heat and dust, love and compassion lost in lust, preventing men from mutual trust!

when knowledge fails to induce peace, when fear overshadows intelligence, When difference of opinions damage relations, when men get divided in the name of God and nations, when knowledge is misused for fulfillment of ambitions, when entire mankind is victim of addictions and seductions, history remains cyclic, repeating again and again, when people strive, thrive for meager personal gains!

The huge of spiral coil, ends connected to battery infinite,
The negatives flow towards positives; causing eternal current, when evolution stops and flow of life gets stagnate, sparks due to short circuit burning hearts of people, surges and urges, in impatient heart and goblins in mind, when soul of universe feel evolution slow or stopped, Then it cause spark from induction coil discharges in minds burns people's neutrality and positiveness causing revolution!

Who Cares for Love Failure!

I had a love,
and I was in love, Strange I am
As usual usually most Daring I was
As straight as an arrow in flight,
I told I love you!

Stunned she,
Slowly replied,
'I don't'
Ha ha ha
I laughed
'I told you that I love you, never asked you to love me, My love is always mine, your love is yours!
You will be in my heart,
I never expect I to be your part,
If not we can't be one,
You are one among my pet played and died in my presence, to be present in my heart!
Go my love,
Live and smile everyday,
I can't snatch your smile,
Let us away a mile as before,
You are my part, but not the whole,
Some one may come,
For you, and some one for me,
You are one wrong number dialed, Sorry for inconvenience caused'
I never tried to forget,
Only time did, plastic surgery, no scares,
Who cares for this loss Who Cares for failure, as failure is step towards perfection! '

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Who Hurts Whom?

Hurt, is that lesson of life,
Perfect pool of Imperfects,

A kid may get hurt Or may hurt its parents too its parents may hurt Or may hurt their kid too,

A brother may get hurt, or he may hurt brothers and sisters too, Sister gets hurt
Or she may hurt her brothers and sisters too,

Mother gets hurt or she may hurt father too.
Father may get hurt Or may hurt mother too,

A friend gets hurt
Or may hurt his friend too!
A lover get hurts, or may hurt one's lover too,

Teacher may gets hurt
Or may hurt student too
Student gets hurt Or he may hurt his teacher too,

Life is a pool of Imperfects
And only Imperfects can perfect life,
And life is that greatest class room,
Where the greatest and perfect teacher teaches perfect lessons,

But life when teaches, we just close the chapter,
'saying it is our fate! '

Is it true that one has to hurt others to make his living?
Living a life, and make a Living aren't the differ?

People are determined to build life than live a life,
Where one may hurt others,

This the story of Buddha asking kisa Gouthami ' I will save your child, but bring handful of mustard from a home where death not entered! '

This is the story,
'I will heal your hurts, if you can bring some dust of a man's feet, whoever neither got hurt nor hurt others! '

Life a that teaches and hurt is that lesson,
Which shows the one who hurts is Imperfect than who gets hurt,
Both are still imperfect,
The one got hurt is more imperfect,
And he is the one who hurts himself, by his desires and expectations,
He is the one who gives chance to others to hurt,

With his misunderstandings!
Hurt is the result of our own imperfection say those have seen and understood life in perfect!
God is that only perfect and he is out of life cycle,
And He can only be healer of all hurts!
Perfection can make us hurt free, but imperfection is the life,
Those who ant life let them adjust themself with imperfection of own first and with that of others,
What you say, is it perfect or imperfect? You please, decide and tell me!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Who Is God, Where He Is?

When I am a part of this universe, Rest of universe is my God, I feel atomic,
my complimentary is gigantic!

When I identify my complimentary is I myself, Universe and I become one!
Goal of soul is to get all experience, From prior to human,
then human to divine!

Then comes a day on which universe becomes my own part,
As I and universe can make the whole,
On that day both universe and God are my own parts,
I am the king reigning all loving hearts!

In us there two parts conscious and unconscious,
One is temporal, another eternal, O temporal Ramdas, listen to your eternal,
Your experience are mine,
My knowledge is yours,
I am the eternal drummer, Flute and keyboard synthesizer!

Listen the song of divine, Temporal is temporary,
Eternal is eternal existence, Come out of limited nature, inside there is spirit of grand nature,
Come out of own ignorance,
When the journey of temporal starts, eternal starts singing the tune, Listen crooning within own heart, forget the trifles for awhile, Ceasefire fight for a little,
o temporal one, your own nature is divine,
Be one with it who croons in you,
He is ready to crown you,
His glory is all were your own,
Yet the nonexistent ego, packed you in water of same ocean,
And you feel one among infinite bubbles,
Than infinite is your own nature!

Temporal and eternal were not two,
All the time they were together, Temporal plays with ego, no time to listen song divine,
But when tiered sleeps like a baby in its own divine!

When I am in universe and eyes of God,
I am helpless limited,
But in real I am the eternal truth in whom God and universe exist and play!

My own nature is grand beyond Description of words,
I am a form of energy and that makes the difference,
When ego learns,
I am neither energy nor matter,
Only pure existence, knowledge and bliss!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Who Is that Sing in me!

All the time listen to that great singer,
The great song, great lyrics sung with great melody, Someone sings in me and everyone,
' I am you and you are me,
Come and see, we are one! '

But how in this turbulent flow of life,
Is it true, everyone listen this?
Some say caged bird sings,
Some say it is song of soul,
Some say it has a song and it sings, some try to listen it, some say, when I have my own song how can I listen it?

Fantastic song it is, it the song of the divine, Song of a dreamer, song of the captain of life, some listen to it and forget what they are,
Some listen to it and follow the singer,
Some only try to find,
 who is the singer,
Only a few can see the singer,
Look at the singer, listen the song,
Where one will be when absorbed by that divine song,
The song that enchanted me
The song that enchant everyone,
It is the God that sings,
' Ah, come to me,
Oh my child, wakeup from dream,
In this dream you are playing,
You are thinking, that you play at things, wakeup and see, it is I am that playing!
Your sorrows are mine,
My sorrows are yours,
your body is not that cage, It is my own temple, where I am playing my own game! '

'Where you want to go,
You are not caged anytime
You only restricted yourself Building a cage, you yourself sat inside
Then closed the door of cage
And that is the foolishness separated us'

'Oh dear child open the door at least that of window of heart!
You went on sail, setting your own map,
But lured by various destinations,
One better than another, lost the plan and map, Wonder and wander here and there for millions of years,
But had you listened my eternal song,

That has all maps and information,
You would have been with me as per the schedule

Only your own fall to attraction,
You lost your bag and baggage,
Whenever you lost that, you acquired new one,
But none of the bag had no map,
This time you are with the right one,
Right map, Radio, T.V., intranet and internet, Just turn to me tuning to my station Switching to my protocol and IP address, Click at the link
You feel, all fall and pain, you find medicine outside your ego,
Just cleanse It with tears of love,
Just apply cream of faith, go to work with head phones on in your ears, Go to work which bring peace! '

'Where you are always free, Don't kill my spirit, only come and sing with me,
My eternal song, come with me,
Oh my child, I am you and you are me,
Let us be one and sing, we are one in love,
We are always were not different,
We make our voice strong and loud so that,
Captains of missing ships can listen us,
Be my relay station helping my song to reach all! '

This is that song, that eternal song, sung by Almighty in every heart!

The heart is chorus,
Is that source Where He built His temple and not a cage to keep singing bird in captivity or exile!

I am that his son now realised

I am that foolish ungrateful son put that infinite eternal well wisher, Melodious singer
My own father
Behind the bars!

Who will Burst, Bubble or World?

O, traveller, you are not at any deadend,
The world of beauty is not lost,
The paradise neither gained nor lost,
Only you are a traveller,
Busy in going here and there, Doing this and that,
Thinking changing scenes changed by you

Standing below you say Sun to Move, Clouds and birds to fly,
Sitting on the shore you order, Waves to subside,
May be you are Speck of a star, divine spark, yet look at all are same,
Who has to obey you,
Is it your body and mind obey you first,
Or the whole world?

Change yourself, watching your own,
The bubble when bursts,
Nothing going to change,
Look at the soap bubble,
All colours of rainbow found, or look at the spreading oil dropp on water,
But when time comes who will burst, bubble or the world?

Why and when prayers can't be of help!

If prayers can't develop person, and purify oneself,
If prayers can't modify the person,
If prayers can't erase inherent fear and prejudice, if prayers are unable to transcend mundane self,
If prayers can't take one to the oneness of self and God,
If not prayers show the light,
It is not the prayers that are handicapped, But the mind without love of eternal is handicapped, mind that can't walk straight, how can it leap, Without longing for beloved, How can the heartless robot can see the light,
Can a record player get deliverance, chanting mantra billion times mechanically? The failure is in his own mind, It is his own mind that is opaque, darkness felt not due to absence of light,
But due to thickness of dust on the mirror, When intense longing promotes, prayer blooming into absorption, Meditation becomes every breath,
Breath felt heavy without feeling beloved,
Then only one finds it, and feel always independant
eternal,
Unity of all creation,
As creator himself breathing in all creatures!

Winged Words Fly in Search of Poetic Heart

Poet is like a gorgeous unknown bird, not he can write always, mired-in the ashes of thought, flying into Sun, he succeeds in freeing himself,

The one who is in search of truth, but not in search of words, when mind conditioned to ecstasy,
winged words fly in search of poetic heart!

Reverberations of his own fevered pulse
He dreams of a regenerate world, Imagining the world will follow him, under the blue sky, he finds himself alone.

Alone but surrounded by his creations; like an artist, meet the supreme sacrifice.
The impossible has been achieved; unbound by time, for ages the song expands, warming hearts, penetrating all minds.

More the ever expanding circumference fades away;
At center, light of life glows like burning gaseous cloud.
In the great inner most core of the universe, soul's golden bird dance in unison, spreading wings

There it is forever dawn, forever peace, harmony and communion, practice renouncing meager mundane desires No hardships look hard to seeker of peace

Man does not look in to space in vain;
He in search of light and warmth.
not to fill the bucket which he one day will kick, but for his inner being, the spirit of space.

Burning desire is to burn with ecstasy, commerge his little flame with that of universe.
He meets the angels with wings, from them he relay messages of peace.

flying high looking at far seeing light, he murmurs like bee that drunk nectar, harmony and radiance from worlds beyond, he chants hymns of universal brotherhood

The brotherhood is not in thinking alike, nor in acting alike, but in aspiring to praise creation.
when he sheds his outer opaque appearance, the light of inner peace radiated all around!

Wish Of A Soul Is Wish Of Nature I

To wish is natural, wish of a soul is wish of soul of nature.
It is the basis of evolution of souls. But any wish limited to individual either ends in temporary happiness or pain. Wish which is limited to individual interest is binding one!
Wish for the broader interest of living being is rewarding.
But soul free of any wish is liberated.
Broad spectrum wish,
I like to call,
are surely help evolution.
Once I believe this and know,
I keep myself full of wishes, those wishes that will become boon to all worlds.
If my wish is not able to move the immovable's heart, then I am not in the way towards liberation. In my opinion liberation of soul is less important than love flowing from heart that embrace all!

Without Humbleness How Can Am I Near What I Am?

This is I am, when one talks about lifetimes, how can he be close to one beyond birth and death, having no life between!

Those who can bring closer to my attention are not different from me!

I am watching my own video running in which my face is missing!

When I learn myself Is faceless
But can smile behind any face, I can be near,
what I am.

When I can feel pain beyond my body, but in everybody, happiness in me and not anything outside me, I may be close to what I am!

when I become still and time stops and space not felt as there can't be any space beyond me, the boundless perceived, shapeless one perceived in any shape,
I can be close to I am!

Thanks for all,
thanks to all,
because without humbleness,
I am far away from what I am No how can be near what I am!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Wonderful search!

Wonderful search!

Dear, beloved,
wonderful,
Wonderful,
You are so close,
Yet so far,
Look at me,
Look in my eyes,
And say, I am you,
You are me,
We are one,
We are same,
in origin and share,
Same universe,
Sing o my dear,
How can I am Different when,
Same truth sings,
I am that,
I am that,
I am that,
In every being!

what you quest for is hidden within you,
What you weep and pray,
Is the greater self,
Of you, me and all,
Fine if you doubt,
Read me in your own heart!
not as you or
Ramdas Bhandarkar,
But find I in your heart, original formless of whom,
We are different forms!

Written In Red!

Pages of history of man kind Are written red,

Those who thought their blood,
As blue as sky or as blue as deep ocean,
Wrote the pages in Red and every page is full of bloodshed!

Hungry people weep for even glass of water,
And even for that they had blood to shed,

Innocent plants or innocent grass die,
When two elephants fight for supremacy!
They never care how many innocent may die!

Great heroes are made on the number of men they despatch to hell, Saying patriots have heaven in their fight!

They are heroes like matadors at the cost of blood of an innocent bull!
Otherwise they are as you and me except that cruelty,

Men the made several men to shed blood, in the name of woman, May it be sita, may it be Padmini Or may be Helen of Troy,

All men were treated like toys
By a that a few mad boys,
To have their woman back,
Or defend their action,

All religions have their history written in red,
May it be books that are from God,
Stained with red, God signed it with blood,
Put the rubber stamp of quality with bone and flesh,

Every nation is having its own fountain of blood shed!
power hungry need only to shed crocodile tears,

Or just present awards and reward,
Those who safeguard and died to save them!

May it be Ashoka, may it be Idi Ameen or may be Churchil, or may be Gandhi, Or may Lincoln or Changez Khan
Only they were famous due blood shed!

May it be history of continent or that sub continent
Only a story written in blood, On human skin and with bones as pens!
May it be any ' -ism ' or may Politics in Spain or Britain,

Equally dangerous are these..

Power or woman,
Ambition or nation,
Whether terrorist or counter terrorist venture

Police or politician,
Every history of massive wealth,
Or a piece of land
Religion or culture, blood is That red ink with pages of history is written only in red!

Why Can't I Rest As Witness?

I never went deep into ocean of knowledge,
Ice toy I am,
How deep can I go before I melt and become one with ocean?
Once I know what I am, That nothingness of of calmness of space in this universe, Still beyond universe I dwell,
I have nothing to do here,
No wish, no desire,
I meet with what is in my way, Never like to look at thing, I look at myself as the faceless face of universe!
What is use of words,
When I am origin of word?
What books can offer, just the y can point at me,
Even then they fail to say what I am,
Then what I get from books more than my life itself, Seeing myself in all,
I am that fool to see foolishness everywhere,
I am that wise who can see wisdom everywhere,
Why can't I rest as witness,
Is the creator or sustainer in me worried of destroyer in me become mad?

Ramdas Bhandarkar

You are the Producer and Director!

Stars and galaxies,
The meteors, comets and planets,
The sun and moon,
All look silent!

You will be one among these silent travellers,
You were not active,
The love of Earth,
you were brought on this stage.

Look silence is your own nature,
But the nature made you tour
here,
act, Sing and dance here!
Some day you feel what you were, what you are and what you will be, Nature sends you to greenroom, Then only you Remove all robes and makeups,
Sit and watch nature's play, which was your own play too,
You were the producer, director and shapes and roles,
You were that,
you were that Truth, Gave life to all,
You are that Lord of birth, life and death!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

your Blood cells Shy red, looking at me in your heart!

Someday as I dive in my own unconscious, My own mystery unfolds me for a while, billions hands of it look like,
Golden lotus of billion petals!

It is where I part from this,
Mortal remains return from where they come,
Friend, I may part from your consciousness,
And live as your part in unconscious!

you may see me not,
You may miss me,
Yet I will not miss you,
I will be very close to your heart,
Your each blood cell become red,
Feeling shy when they look at me there!

Look into yourself,
I will be smiling there,
When wind blows, I kiss your lips!
When you are in sleep,
I lay in your hug,
When you eat something,
I taste and digest it for you,
I will be within you,
When I want to see you,
I will look down from stars and smile at you!

Ramdas Bhandarkar

Your shadow is Due to own Opequeness!

Like wheels you spun round in wonder as you spoke of the mysterious mountain at the brink of heaven that stills many waters, sailing over the waves.
And a shining lamp burned in the midst of you!

Pointing,
he runs to the mountain.

-Hildegard von bingen

He who points at the mountain and runs,
The master of masters,
The prophet of prophets, Points at the root,
From where all seeds Germinate, has its roots and grow downward, from stillness to the breeze of breath, Wave of action and reaction, Impulses and thoughts! The veil is fog of own delusion, look at the image of mountain, Make your mind as bow, reasoning as an arrow, place your soul as arrow head, aiming at the mountain, Accurate shot guided by meditation,
Crosses the land of pain and agony!

Follow him or he will follow you as your shade,
What you think real is the shade,
Shadow of your opaqueness, Be transparent cleaning your heart,
what you think your shade is that real!
