A Bad Dream

I saw in the last night
I was walking alone in a road
Two roads already set in front of me Confused where I have to go
That's when the black cloud first seemed to descend upon me.
I felt different, I felt sad.
I came home and locking myself in my room and collapsing into a state of tears.
That's when the evil began.
I realized that I could not move
Because I tried to get right up
And all I could do was move my head
I 'freaked out'
I thought I was going to die
I felt that I was paralyzed
I was actually too tired to focus on anything except my dream or my aim which was dying in front of me
I never blamed God for what has happened / had happened to me Because I know that He does everything for a reason.
He will not put you through something that you cannot handle.
I don't know whether he blessed me or not Or he will bless me or not in future
I can't begin to thank Him enough.
sometimes i don't worry what people say or think about me
I make myself strong by saying Don't worry about others around you
And what they are doing.
Yes, challenge yourself by going up against What they think
But everybody has their own area(s) in which they excel.
So, focus on being the best that they can be At doing something even Though they may not be the best at that particular objective.
I am happy as I have got a blessed life
I laugh like idiot
I find my happiness through struggle, sorrow & defeat Which few people can get That's why I am unique & I love it

A Beautiful Poem on Children's' Day

A child is blessed every day
A child is innocent
A child is beautiful gift of god
So never ever hate them for who they are or how they are

They wanna to fulfill their dreams and & overcome hopes and fears.
So never ever Hit them or shove them around Never ever kick them blossoming dreams to ground.

They waana to remind the adults to dry their tears,
From hearts and minds, Spirits and souls,
They love each other with no strings,

So never ever trick them into living with so many pains.
never treat them like dirt and without respect, never cheat them and abuse their innocence, never stop them from being a hero tomorrow, never crop out them talents for a petty win, never hide them from the truth that you fear,

So pray that all of us hold
To one another's hands and together sing.
They are our hope.
They are our future.
They are the ones who will change our fate.
They are everything but without our help,
They are the children, have no day to celebrate Today in this land and all around the world,
I hold in my heart the hopes and wishes,
With hugs and love

To let them know that this is 'Children's day.'

A DAY OF MY LIFE

Like everyday one day I wake up early in the morning, Smile at the rising sunrays some little birds were sitting on my window step, & started to sing a beautiful song in their language
It was the starting phase of my day
I wanna make my day more beautiful with beautiful thoughts.
That's why I take water first feels the water tastes like sweet Then jumped in the water & wanna to stay drunk all the time then I took some food & started my writing according to my mood
I saw the sky, it was sunny day
Some thoughts came across in my mind then my pen start writing
I wanna sing my heart out to the wide open spaces
I wanna sing my heart out to the infinite sea
I wanna sing my vision to the sky-high mountains
I wanna sing my song to the free.
I wanna bathe with in the deep blue sea
I wanna stay happy like this forever
Then suddenly some thoughts came across in my mind
Then I stop writing for some time
The Bitter sweet Memories
Which I wanna say to Good-bye.
I'm so afraid to love someone, but more afraid to lose once there was a darkness, deep & endless night someone gave me everything he had Yeah he gave me light & I will remember that However everything was fake I've been trying to get down to the heart of the matter however my hearts gets weak
My thoughts seem to scatter it's difficult to forgive but I have to Even if he don't love me anymore.
But I can do one thing
Forgive & forget that matter for forever
If I'll live I would only be in my way
If my future's looking dark
I the ones who have to shine
If there's no one to control me
I the ones who draw the line
Though I know that time has wings
I the ones who have to fly alone then my eyes fall on the endless sky
It was covered by black cloud at the evening
Then one thing comes across in my mind
Our life is like this nature
Sometimes it's sunny & sometimes it's cloudy & it inspired me to look at life from both sides now from up and down
Still somehow life is full of illusions
I really don't know life at all.

Some thoughts still make me worry
Is this the real life
No escape from reality
Life it seems, will fade away
Drifting further every day
I feel I m Getting lost within myself Nothing matters no one else
I have lost the will to live Simply nothing more to give
There is nothing more for me
Some thoughts further delight me Whenever I think my about my mother & father Which give me hope to live further?
Which show me light in my dark mind?
I have to open my eyes
Look up to the sky
I'm just a simple girl
&
I need no sympathy because I'm easy come, easy go Little high, little low anyway the struggle doesn't really matter to me
&
I have to show the world
That I also could do anything better Then people gonna treat me better
I am gonna find, yes I'll My day came to end
&
I promised to myself
My thought & my principle will never be changed
I may be simple & not soft
I may be poor but hunger of money not
I may be helpless but I can help anyone who wants I may be in pain but I never give other the feel what I got I'll be kind, soft, helpful which is my principle Which I have to keep till my last

Then I slept with this thought

A DREAM

A dream almost real I see it with open eyes i feel you by my side u are like a burning light in a cold winter night these thoughts calls me many a times Me & your endless journey
I wonder why
I was there in cool cool night
As I was afraid of that However still I wanted to be there
As u were with me side by side U Isolated from world
Hide me inside your heart
I love that look In your eyes sometimes these pictures etched in my eyes
These are some real things
some imagination as well

A DREAMLESS SLEEP

A dreamless sleep is all I see Peaceful as it may be
This lovely high, I feel so right
With thoughtful eyes
The pain I've forgotten
I wanna see the positive point of each side
My heart says
Forget it all what mistakes you have made Forget the all the pain what you have got Slip into a dreamless sleep
I am walking, roaming the empty street
I feel Tired
Still my feet wanna to walk one step a head
As I believe some good thing may happen
Some good things reflect in my eyes
& I flush all the bad & negative thoughts from my mind & heart
I wanna need one more chance to show myself
All the worst days I burn
Only ashes remains
Which I already float in the river
One question come to life
Of premature daydreams
Whether it will come true or not
Or whether I am roaming in a false road
Which has no end?
A thousand heartbeats in the chest
The final moment of my life
I have to take it serious
No words enough to share my thoughts
Sometimes I wanna stay silent
The heart accepts what the mind knows
This is a dreamless sleep is all I see Peaceful as it may be

A girl like me

Do you ever think a girl like me?
Who always dependent on others

Irritate too much
Do you think I really believe in love?
That I could be the girl of your dream
I m not so much emotional
How much you think It's not too easy to love a stone Because everything is not what it seems It's hard loving a girl
a girl like me
you need to think about it Because it's for your whole life
U Can't believe everything you see It's hard loving a girl like me oh dear don't mind Do you think that I can make you real happy Just don't get me wrong my loving is so strong
But I can't trust everyone
Just common choose another one U came to my world & leave your foot print on my heart
I'll remember it till my last However it's not too easy to win over my heart Specially a girl like me

A Letter To My Lord

Which is for help?

Oh my lord
Are you really blind?
Then how could you see the crime
We all well known Mother & mother land is greater than heaven
Then how could we kill a innocent woman

Oh my lord
Replay me please
I need to hear your silent voice
A voice which silently support the criminals People say
We the best creature of lord
However I believe we the worst one

A person having no humanity
Is well known as evil spirit
Who come this world to destroy it

Oh my lord
Can you hear it Or are you deaf for a while Open your eyes Punish them how much you can Because they deserve it

If you can't Then I'll believe
That you don't exist

SWETA LEENA PANDA

A Little Bird's Wish

A cold wind blowing over my head
I feel peace after a long day
I feel like flying in the blue blue sky
I cut the clouds & flew away
The cold dropp water sprinkle on my body
I flew away & away
I dunno
Where shall I go?
What shall I do?
However my mind says
My god is within me
Who will show me the right way
I listen a whispering sound
Above from the sky
Everything goanna be fine
Don't worry you just fly
Keep your mind in your way

A LITTLE FEAR INSIDE ME

Oh my lord
Oh my lord
A little fear inside me
Can you fulfill my one dream?
I wanna to fly
With my own wing
Can you give me please?
I know you are listening
Then why you are not responding
I know u are laughing
After listening this Did you forget your promise?
You told me to stay with me
In my every wish & every dream
Sometimes I have doubt on you Are you kidding me?
Still I have believe you
As you told me
To turn my face in front of sun
So that my shadow will be in my behind
I keep your wordings
& I will do it
But why you don't keep your promise
I know you are mightier than all
You have supernatural power
I know the good reason behind my every problem
You wanna to see me as a good person & I am trying & I will keep trying
As I promise you
However for that you have to give me one thing
That is wing
I wanna to fly everywhere
To spread love & care
Which is my one dream?
I think you also told me that thing
How can you forget this?
What you taught me
World is like our family & we should love each other & we all should help each other
To get the peace
Just remember
Your Nobel words
What you shared with me
You told me
Like a dove bird
& I am also trying However one confusion inside me
Am I able to do thing
That's why a little fear inside me

Can I fulfill my dream?
If yes
Than how & when
Can you give me some hint?
I am here to listen you
I need your support & love
Just pour your blessings on me
So that I can reach at my destination

A SAD STORY OF A LITTLE GIRL

I saw a Tiny little girl, Sad and all alone
Was sitting at in front of a gate
She was a small little girl

Nearly seven to eight years old
I found she was crying
I asked the reason in a very weak tone she gave me answer
No one else in my home
Tears fall from her two beautiful eye
Then she wiped away the tears & tried to act as strong
She didn't wanna show her pain, & as she afraid to anyone I heard a noise from that home lock the door and let her out for forever
We don't wanna see her face further here
I could not understand what was happening there & she also didn't tell anything to anyone a lady came from that house she looked up at her
'oh my master'
I will never ever do the same mistake further
I saw a some kind of deep Pain in her eyes
In a very load voice that lady told 'We couldn't give you another chance further'
She looked down at her feet, and quietly says 'Ok.'
What's wrong with me?
Why you punish me
I didn't do any mistakes further & I need money for my sister's surgery
I can't live without work
As I really need
I felt a lots of responsibility little girl have then I left that place

When I saw her further
I saw she was trembling in cold & crying silently
As tears ran down her face Rain pounded down on the ground
Her heart pounded in her ears
As the thunder clashed Fear rushed in her veins
As her father rushed her
She felt pain throb
As glass pierced her skin
No one came to help even if no one there for her care
To stop the Evening Storm of her life
I could not understand How God could hear her cry

After saw her I could understand her condition

As I knew I couldn't help her more
I sat & asked her condition
What was really happening with her?
After hearing this
I couldn't bear her story
Tear drops fall from my eyes
Is she a girl or a nonliving material?
How the people become so much cruel
I could understand how the people use the small poor girls
It's really very painful
Some condition is very poor
Which you couldn't imagine
It breaks my heart into no of pieces
I wish everyone should open their eyes
To see the crimes happening with girls
Is the girls are the only martial for sex

Oh no
If you think then you are really wrong
Now the world is changing
We will all be together to break you
&
kill you into a number of pieces
&
we can give you the capital punishment
Be aware of girls
They are not your living toys
Even if you can't make them too at least fear the Lord government & people may become blind not the my powerful God, he knows everything God surely punish you badly when your time will come

A SOLDIER

A soldier is the true & brave son of our nation
Who left his old beloved father and mother Who left behind his sisters and brothers Leaving his beloved children and wife
To fight for those whose freedom you granted
He crosses the sea, to fight the foe man
A soldier serves his country first and his life is left behind
He never passes a cry for help
Though at times he shook with fear
And sometimes he pray to God to forgive him
As he has wept unmanly tears
He never think about his life
He fight for his brothers & sisters safety
When fight over, he either come back home
Or become a memorable person in everyone's mind
Many heart cries for this holy sprite
Specially his old mother & father
Who are eagerly waiting to see their beloved son
They never believe as their son died
They take it as he is sick
His wife & children become helpless
The tears falling from my eyes
Whenever I listen a life history of a soldier's life
With a hand upon my heart, I feel the pride and respect
As our flag waves above you, in her glory and grace.
Freedom was the gift that he gives us Pain and death was the price that he ultimately paid.
Every day, I pray for these soldiers
Who had fought to defend our nation?

A Special Friend Like You

When the roses lose their fragrance, and the world seems at an end, when i don't find you side by my side

There's not a day that passes by when I don't stop and wonder why-Why was I blessed with a friend like you, even after what I've put you through

Heaven sends a gift each morn, of a bright new day to spend,
What a joy it is to share it with,
God's greatest gift..

when i ask God for a gift,
Be thankful that he sends,
Not diamonds, pearls, or riches,
But the love of a real, true friend like you.

AM I RIGHT

In which I feel my life
Which already take my nights?
Strange but it's true
I never feel any difficulty in it
As I have passed many storms in my life
I love to take challenge & I too love to fulfill it Still there is a little fear in a corner of my heart & a little space for confusion also Where & how I have to start Am I going in a right path?
I couldn't know how to fulfill it
& what will be the next
Many questions are roaming in my mind
The only thing I know 'that's I am honest'
I am honest to my duty
& I can't compromise with it People say I am selfish However nobody knows
I love to make friendship
But I too hate duplicate & lie
I am not too wise or talented
However I can read a mind in a very good way
When people say I am selfish
I just smile & I tell to myself
No one can understand me
It's my way
I love to do work as much I can That's why I wanna to busy myself
That's the only reason I can't give my time to everyone & everyday
I love to enjoy my life
However before that I have to do lots of things
I don't know how & in which way
That's why I am serious about my each day
I love everyone purely Yes I too hate being complicate
I believe everything is possible
In the same way I believe it's not too easy
In night many sounds beat in my heart & that's sound for wake up Just like Someone says
How much you sleep
Is it my inner voice Which make me restless which says me everytime
Did you forget your propose of life
Suddenly my night become sleepless Still I couldn't know how to get it Is there any way to get?
I never ever lose hope Never lose hope for the best
No doubt I face many defeat & criticizing words

Still I never ever give up People says my mind is flying Oh yes, I am laughing Because my dream is big Sometimes I laugh at me
Why I give promises if I couldn't fulfill it Is there any way to fulfill my dream?
My dream is not so big
As little as you see
But it can give smile to many faces
I can't waste my life worthless
I came this world for some proposes & some reason How can I forget it?
However my mind & heart says
How & in which way I have to get Still I am dam crazy to get it
You can tell me crazy mind
& I say I love to listen it & I admit it Because I believe nothing is impossible
Still I couldn't understand how to get it
Is there any way to get My dream is not to be RICH or touch the SKY
Don't be confuse with it
It is very small like a small flower
Just spread LOVE & CARE everywhere
I am the person who only know her duty
& I really too love it Just wait! is there something I am missing

Sometimes My heart says it That's why some confusion inside me

AN AMAZING KID I EVER SEEN

One beautiful day I wanna sharing Something cute & lovely thing I ever seen A cute appearance change my mind
Make my day full of enjoying Whenever I remind it a cute smile comes in my face
How cute that baby was His cute appearance change my mind
Strange but a true thing
One day Evening Park
I was sitting & watching my little brothers & sisters
When they were playing Suddenly my eyes fall on one kid & I can't took my eyes from him further I stare at him what he exactly doing
He was so cute & so small
His cute appearance force me to fall in love
He was trying to walk
However always falling down Again again again & again
At last I can't saw this I ran away to that place
To holding him
His cute & sweet smile touch my heart & my soul I feel how cute this small kid is I wanna help him to walk
When I hold his hand
He refused me Ohh
it's so strange
How brave this little kid is Still I was watching his appearance
I felt what a smart kid is
He was trying by its own energy
He never wanna take help from me
Every time he fall down & still he never got tired After falling further he prepared himself
To stand further & manage his two legs to start his walking further Before leaving that place
I just kissed over his face
&
said god bless u my sweetest little bro
You made my day
You are too little
Still you teach me a great lesson
What I never ever seen before
He was really amazing kid
I learn one thing

every kid is special & unique They teach you something amazing beautiful Which you never listen before
However you have to mark it
How they are behaving
Because they are innocent & soft hearten
Nothing wrong for them
That's why they teach us most of the beautiful things Which no one can teach?
For them love is everything
No religion matters, no person matters
Only matter love & affection
What is every child's basic needs
They teach you never fear for failure
It will continue till your death
Try to learn from your every mistake
&
continue your journey till your last breath Life is a learning point
You can learn from everything
It's your eyes how you look it Everyone is beautiful & everything
Try to feel it
It's really amazing

Are We Free Today

Day after day slipped away
Month after month slipped away
Year after year quickly flew away
Our Heroes, shed their blood like tears to give us freedom to achieve the Freedom and happiness to depth our fighters struggled their breath to death.
That's why now we can celebrate India won this freedom decades ago
Now we can proudly say Thanks God we are free today
Can we say this? ?
Are we all genuinely free today?
We must question this every day
India is changing day by day
One side poverty increasing day by day
Infants are suffering from undernourishment
Their lives are like a dead tree without fruit & flower
Another side corrupted people increases day bay Sometimes we cry for help & help
Finally we got no true judgment
Can we say this? ?
Are we all genuinely free today?
We must question this every day
No doubt India is changing
Is our life style changing?
Or we are going down day by day
Can we say we are truly free?
Where everyday more than ten girls raped Child labor & child abuse occurs everyday
In this situation
How can you say?
We are free today
We must question this every day
Tortured and fired for no reason
Our lives, our views are totally controlled
We feel like communist country everyday Inner freedom is chained and imprisoned
We really know about our rights
The laws behind every fight
Sometimes a powerful person
Can do everything with his power
&
A poor fear to raise his voice
Can we say this? ?
Are we all genuinely free today?
We must question this every day
But I believe everything is possible
May be late but sure
If we united together
Let us take a promise today
Construct instead of destroying Let us share & care for everyone in everyday

Let us wake up & come forward fearlessly
As we always still awakes and waits for peace
There is only One solution in every problem is To build a new country of freedom and liberty.

Attitude Is Everything

The worst truth of our life we never know the time period of our life is It shouldn't be easy to be imagine Then everything would be

It's the things you fight for

Struggle with before earning
That have the greatest worth
&
That is our attitude
The more we realize
The more impact of attitude on our life
Attitude to me is more important than any facts
It is much more important then education & money sometimes we get it from circumstances & failures & success..

we should not care what other people think or say or do
It is more important than appearance

It may make or break anything

This is a remarkable thing
That is we have a choice for every day
We cannot change our past as how we were
We cannot change the fact that people will act in a certain way
The only thing we can do we will stay with our rule
&
That is our attitude
&
Which is with you...

BE OWNER OF YOUR OWN BOAT

oh my lord
show me the way show me the path which i can cross
i am not saying give me something which i can't handle
which can't be mine
i am not saying give me something which i can't achieve through out my life still i am saying give me little hope give me little courage give me little knowledge so that i can fulfill my dream i know it's not too easy to get something some people too blessed still some live with their unfortunate when ever i think about my sorrow something come across in my mind what's about those for whom you are totally blind i am very happy as i have everything i am the happiest person in this world as if i know
oh my lord
can you do something for me can you promise me to fulfill this i wanna see my world free from noise, war & poverty i wanna see my world happy & in a beautiful way i wanna see everyone happy in their way i can't see anyone in crying face can you fulfill my this dream please i never demand for wealth i always wish for peaceful earth i never demand for, which i can't solve i always beg your help me to solve the problem, which i can i never demand for punish anyone i always demand for give them moral thoughts as now a days people are becoming so rude i never fear for anything i only fear, whether i can fulfill my dream or not that's why so much foggy thoughts comes in my mind many 'yes' & 'no' possibilities are there i know in this world no one is yours
&
you have to walk alone in the empty street everyone will support you however no one will help you you are the only sailor of your boat as i have seen sometimes big storms were coming which disturb my peace of mind i couldn't understand where i had to go as wind & my boat direction was different still i hunger for survive & reach at my destiny shore as i am the only person to handle it

&
no one was there to stand besides as people have their own boat they have different problems no one has time for yours so never expect from anything from anyone however try how much you can give from your side life is like a boat we all are busy to handle our boat many thunders & storms will come still u have to be strong
&
be prepare for the worst try to handle the situation alone
'what i learn from my life' my life is like a boat i wanna handle it alone as i don't know what will be the next whether anyone will be there or not even if i never expect from others to come up
&
help me to save me from the big storm as in my life i have passed many storm alone when i begged help alas! every time i found empty hands some times i found something wrong while solving one of my problem, i faced another problem which made me wise to take the wise step in every situation which teach me never believe anyone in this world, blindly some people love to see you in problem
&
some love to see you in worry however i can't understand why the world become so complicated
'as some people really cares about you' however most of the people love to see that you have the problems
oh my lord
can you tell me why this world is so complicated why one person can't see the success of another one why one pull another leg why one can't see another happy why one person become enemy of another one why! ! ! do you have any answer of my questions?
i don't know whether you have any answer of my question or not but it helped me a lot which makes me strong to live a life in my way that's why i never demand for help also as i know in this world getting help is very costly

&
no one will be there to stand besides you except your parents as i learn to stand alone in every storm & thunder hope now!
you can get some idea how to live a life as you are the owner of your boat you are well known how to handle it in difficult situation
life is like a boat
everyday you have to meet different situation
&
have to face some problems which will helps u to become good sailor in your future as a silent sea never makes you a skillful sailor

BE THANKFUL ALWAYS

Always be thankful that What you desire everything is not fulfilled
That's why you look forward each day
For a new beginning
That is the only reason you desire to do something What helps you develop your mind is thankful when you don't know something it's an opportunity to learn new thing Be thankful for the difficult times which helps you for maturity Be thankful for what you wish However did not get Because they give you opportunities for your improvement.
Be thankful for each new defeat & fall down in your life
Because it will build your strength and character.
Be thankful for your mistakes they will teach you new valuable lessons.
Be thankful when you're curious & weary because it means you've made a difference Which make you unique from others?
Be thankful for good as well as bad people Who teach you something new?
Their affect change your life
Be thankful to god
Whatever you he never gives That's why you try to get it
&
Which helps you to turn a negative attitude into a positive?
Find a way to tell thanks to everybody because everything comes in your life as blessings
So never feel offended to tell thanks

SWETA LEENA PANDA

Believe Your Heart

Sometimes people says don't make wrong choice
You will be forever alone
However I believe no choice make me alone Until & unless I want
No doubt my tears are dry now & it's now like river without water Still my eyes are live
Who says many things?
No doubt I hide it like the hidden treasure
No one can open it Because I lost the key of my treasure knowingly I believe if a person understands it without saying anything
He/she truly loves
Tear may fake, however eyes are true Sometimes words may fake
However heart is true
Never judge a person by their words
Judge them by their heart
Because heart is a like an open precious treasure Where you find many things which you never know Try to steal it, as it is very precious Always believe the words of your heart
Because it will never ever cheat you
It always tells love & care for everyone
However never ever take the words of everyone granted Sometimes when we really need help
These people become good spectator & listeners Start saying about you Without knowing anything about you
No person is copy if another
So how people commenting others
Stop discuss about others
If you can't help others,
At least don't pull their leg down

CAN WE APPEAL FOR PEACE

Night already fall down & sun hides himself with in a cloud Star already ready for dazzling in the sky Somehow I am still here with a broken hope Can we make some change?
Is it possible?
I ask once & twice then further I stop my mouth
We are not here for ourselves God send us for some proposes Did everyone forget this?
Then why not taking any steps
Life is full of up & hill
Still I believe nothing can alter Ur peace of mind
I believe no strome has power to beat me Until & unless I don't want by myself
My heart & mind is not separate
They both work together
Still sometimes some foggy thoughts Change me for a while I believe heart always not break for love matters
Sometimes it breaks
When something our heart couldn't accept
When it sees injustice & lie
A silence cry inside me
How much we tolerate these things
Can anyone stop this?
My heart ask a silent question to everyone & everyday
Can anyone stop this?
We wanna live
We wanna fulfill our dream
Can you give me smile?
Can you help me fight against injustice?
Can you request everyone for peace?
Can you promise me these?
It's heart of a girl who cries for get justice
Who demanded for tremendous change?
In judiciary system in a nation
We all may be different from each others
But our heart & mind is one
One cry for another
Can you come & cry with me
Or
Help me to fight against these
Which is directly proportional to peace?
Education & science are not mean for destroy or money
However it has power to triumph over wild & tremendous change to get the peace
If you properly utilize this
We all should remove the word like war from our heart & mind
As We all are altruist
We wanna see our earth a peaceful place for all
Where there is no space for evil

Can we dream for it?
How can u smile when someone is crying?
Can you do like this
If you do then I believe Humanity died for a while
I hate to see
When small kids crying for getting peace & smile & became whole life lonely without getting their parents & begging in front of you for get some food for live proposes
I hate to see
When a girl cries for justice & alas kills herself
When her toleration beyond her limit
I hate to see
When tears remains in the eyes of old days of old parents
When they saw their son dead
To save his brothers & sisters Just close your eyes for a while Imagine it with a real pic
Your heart will breakdown into a number of piece
You can't understand where you exist & thanks to lord thousand times
It's too easy to imagine & write & speak
However very difficult to be a realistic
A tremendous change will happen
When one heart cares about others & also feel for it
Can I request you all?
For a peace
Let's pray for peace & abolish cruel thoughts & violence from our mind Let's pray together before this god Whom you pray or believe Let's start our journey form today for peaceful earth & life

choose your life

We choose our life how to live
To be happy or to be worry Choose to feel great or to let things make you irritate Everyday everyone not feeling great & some people just know how to hate if wands could be waved Then the world would be cured
I wish I'll do everything
What my heart says
Therefore I choose to be happy and I choose the way which I feel great And I don't wanna let the things make me irritate

Dare to do

When a new day begins,
I dare to smile with lots of hope.
When there is darkness,
I always dare to be shine as light.
When there is injustice,
I dare to fight against it.
When something seems difficult,
I dare to do it anyway.
When I don't find any hope,
I dare to find.
When times seems to be rough & tough,
I dare to make it smooth & go across through it.
When I find a friend of mine falls,
I dare to help my friend to further stand,
Even if I hurt by someone,
I dare to help that person.
Even if I feeling tired,
I dare to keep going.
Even if I come across the paths of pain,
I dare to make myself happy.
I learn it from my life,
When u dare something,
You can achieve it,
So always dare to do something,
Because something is better than nothing

DARKNESS

The darkest past days already behind me
Which hurt me many times?
Yet danger still running behind me;
Like the loneliest rays of the moon above the sky,
I believe one thing
No longer the old world exist;
Now my life goes into new world
The world of faith, peace & work Would be always their Now I came to know live every moment,
Running after the purest form of life
Living and dying by survival.
However do your everyday work
The work which is your dream
Make them fulfill
As you enter into the new world Forget the thing, which happened in the old world Live your life with loving everyone
&
Make it worthy...

DON'T CALL ME REFUGEE CHILD

Oh! Oh! Oh!
Mother where are we?
here there is no politeness, happiness, humanity only pain, sorrow, suffering Nobody is here, to love us
Nobody is here, to be honest
We are suffering without love
We are expecting polite person
We are looking for humanity alas we couldn't get it anywhere

Oh! Oh! Oh!
Mother where are we?
My mind turned East, West, South and North
I could not believe
I looked all round
I could not get any direction
Where is our actual destination?
Break your silence
Tell me mom where we are

Oh! Oh! Oh!
My mother can you give me one answer I have my own name so why other call me refugee.
My heart aches, my eyes cry, when other call me in this way
I beg before everyone
Please don't call me 'refugee'
I'm a migrant bird far away from my land
I don't know where my destination place
Still I am alive
Hope for a new beginning of my life

Oh! Oh! Oh!
Mother where is my father?
I cannot find my father
Where he is
I wanna meet him
I could not find him
Where he is
I need him my mother
Can you tell me please where he is?

Oh! Oh! Oh!
My mother
I need education
Education is my life
Buy me pen and paper
I need education

I love to study and get educated
As it is everything for my life
Please educate me
Without education my life is nothing

Oh! Oh! Oh!
My mother
When you will smile
Please break your silence
Talk with me
I need to hear me
Why you sit silently
Oh my mother can you get it

Oh! Oh! Oh!
My mother
why you are not giving me answer further Don't leave me alone
I can't walk alone further
I will not beg you anything
Please never ever leave me alone
I will not ask you any question further Please my mother
Listen me further

Oh! Oh! Oh!
Is anyone here?
To save my mother
I beg of you,
Save my mother's life
I will not come here further

Oh! Oh! Oh!
My lord saves my mother
I will not ask you anything further Help me once hope it will be my last Oh my lord saves my mother
I can't imagine a life without my mother & father

Don't Criticize Others

When you're criticizing others
And are finding the ways here and there
A fault Or a weakness you can tear
When you're blaming some one's weakness
It's time that you went out
To take a walk around yourself

There's lots of human failures
In the average all But when we think of evils we forget everything
It's time we all went out
To take a walk around ourselves.

We need so often in this life
The word that balancing of scales,
This seeing how much in us wins
And how much in us fails
But before we judge another
Just to lay him on the shelf
It would be a great plan
To understand the feelings of others Respect their ways they are

SWETA LEENA PANDA

Don't Say Goodbye

No no no no
no no no no my friend
Don't say goodbye from me
I'll be there for you

And you will be there for me

Remind the promise, you told before me you are like an angel heaven sent to me
I know you are going far away from me

Still I can feel you here within me it's not the end just a little love, big imagination
I never let you go away from me

No no no no

No no no no my friend

Don't say goodbye from me

Look for the rainbow in every storm
Find out the positive point in every problem

Love is gonna be there for you you'll always be someone's heart

Time will never change our friendship

I glad we made it strong

Don't forget me & the days

Which we spend together
I will help you help you on your way
I will help you in anyway
No no no no

No no no no my friend

Don't say goodbye

You are my strength when I am weak
You are my voice when I couldn't speak
You are my eyes when I couldn't see You saw the best there was in me
You Lift me up when I couldn't reach You give me faith Becoz you believe I'm everything I am
Because you love me

You are always there for me
A light in the dark shining your love into my life you've been my inspiration through the lies you are the truth my world is a better place because of you

Therefore never ever leave me alone

No no no no

No no no no my friend

Don't say goodbye
my life is nothing without you

SWETA LEENA PANDA

Fear To Failure

Holding a pen
I gonna to write something
Some questions which come across in my mind

Why I can't built myself further
Why I can't strong myself further
Why I can't dare to fulfill my dream

Is there something which pushes me back?
Is it the fear of my failure?
It is a silent threat, not heard only felt like the storm you see quietly but forcefully

While everyone has hopes and dreams
And wants everything that is gold.
At the same time I fear to say something about my dream
Is there the fear of my failure?
Which push me back further

While everybody wants to touch the sky
That's why they are jumping, jumping off the ground
At the same time I really all terrified to fly.
Is there the fear of my failure?

Which push me back further

While we all develop an aspiration, and say we are determined, resilient,
At the same time I fear to determine anything
Is there the fear of my failure?

Which push me back further
Many of us shy away with hesitation that Fear of failure is a fear malevolent.

SWETA LEENA PANDA

God stay with me forever

OH GOD

U are a heavenly angel for me
Due to u we all are here
You make me feel greatly when i feel poor
I feel ur hidden love with me
In case I defeat,
I find u side by side
To weep my tear
&
Help me to look forward
I will never at all heated
If you will be my side by side
My all experience will be narrated Heartily it will be accepted
I know the good reason behind the experiences which is given by you
All your given ideas carefully noted
My life become full joy
When I find your presence
And my sorrow is eliminated
As my love for you is deep-rooted
At no time you will be hated
My affection will be communicated
By my tears, my love will be denoted
My life is by your presence activated My tension and fear are eliminated
You the only person never make me feel irritated
For you my tears are by your touch evaporated Ohh God kindly protected
Your words, your presence, your feelings, your ideas, your love, your affection, Everything make me feel positively converted.

Homework

There's a place on the other side of the pain called "Homework in child hood time"
And

It was not much fun.
There was no time for watching cartoons
There was no time for playing In the field
There's not even time to eat any ice cream.

And
The worst part of all is
There was no time to dream

Arithmetic, Science and grammar
Made me headache in my brain
Sometimes I was to trying to escape myself from this pain
And

Wanted to land myself in my dream land Dream which is purely imaginary Which never comes true?
Sometimes it's very painful
When you forget to do your homework
And

Beat by your cruel teacher
Who never understand a child's heart?
What we want to do
In child hood days I feel most painful time Sacrifice all of your loving work
For doing your homework...

Time which always just slips away
and some memories will be left with yesterday
Left with the days & tears
A smile comes in my face

which making me delight for sometime
Through the time everything changed
Though we go our separate ways
However I can't forget the past days
The memories we made
"I wish you remember me & our past days"
Please remember the past days
The time we were together

Promises we made
The time was yours and mine while we were child and free
"I wish you remember me and our past days"
Goodbye is the painful word for me to say

It's sad to walk away
It's true we all will die one day
However it's a painful Goodbye
Till now I couldn't believe my eyes & ears
That you walk away
"I wish you remember me & our past days"
Some images etched in my eyes
How we were together at all situations
You were there for me

I were there for you

You always made me laugh at my painful days
&
How we share our thoughts
I stood by you & you stood by me
we wrote our names across the stone in the beaches
time passes so fast
However we still there where we were before which made me cry
I have only one wish before God
"You remember me & our past days"

How we share our thoughts
I stood by you & you stood by me
we wrote our names across the stone in the beaches
time passes so fast
which made me cry
I have only one wish before God
"You remember me & our past days"

SWETA LEENA PANDA

I WISH YOU REMEMBER ME

Time which always just slips away
A smile comes in my face
When I think of you
&
Our cheerful days
which making me delight for sometime
Through the time everything changed
Though we go our separate ways
However I can't forget the past days
The memories we made
'I wish you remember me & our past days'
Please remember the past days
The time we were together
&
Promises we made
The time was yours and mine
while we were child and free
'I wish you remember me and our past days'
Goodbye is the painful word for me to say
&
It's sad to walk away
It's true we all will die one day
However it's a painful Goodbye
Till now I couldn't believe my eyes & ears
That you walk away
'I wish you remember me & our past days'
Some images etched in my eyes
You were there for me
&
I were there for you
&
You always made me laugh at my painful days
&
How we share our thoughts
I stood by you & you stood by me
we wrote our names across the stone in the beaches
time passes so fast
which made me cry
I have only one wish before God
'You remember me & our past days'

I Wish, I Could Fly

My mood again swings with a wish that if I had wings I wish I would fly in the high and high sky
Happy and free in the clouds
Where joy knew no bounds
And make my heart feel happy and gay again
However in my head now I hear a sound
Its time to come out of the dream
That now I'm back into reality
With no clouds around and no wings
Come to this world where you present
Where you come with a little dream
A dream for others
A dream which can make smile many of us
A dream which you have to fulfill
As for humanity
However sometimes I want to free from my life
I wish to joy with myself alone
Where no one can reach
Peace, soundless world are there
I wish I had wings and I could fly
To reach at the upper high

SWETA LEENA PANDA

I, ME, MYSELF

I am not a perfect girl
Not having a pretty face for which I can proud for My hair doesn't always stay in place
I am not so talented or genius
I don't have a lot of friends to share & care.
I look like nasty and clumsy
I am just a geek
I know that I'm a freak....
When ever I look back
I feel like how stupid I was
The mistakes I had done was really like nonsense
I was a crazy & nonsense person
I could n't handle anything
I could n't understand the situations
I do n't wanna stay in my past
As it always hurt me again & again

I don't even wanna think about my future
I wanna to live as gently as I can no matter where I was & what I was I have only faith and honor on myself
To do my best and let that stand again
The record of my brain teach me again Never do same mistakes further again
I am working and hope for victory there is no secret place in my life
It's clear like a glass anyone can see it Even if I never wanna hide it there is nothing to worry for shame or sin that's why I stand alone with a hope
One day will come when everything will be fine
I wanna live a life with freedom & unafraid
No one here to stop me
I don't like to pretend to be someone which I am not I love to live like a person
Which will be my future identification?
I am Self conscious, maybe a bit
I don't care much about that I am tougher than anything, which you can't imagine
I can't give up, without even trying
I wanna fly if required, no limit
No giving up, in it to win it
I Believe in true love
I too believe on it
But I too fear to lose it
That's why my heart says "it's not easy to get it"
As many people come & leave
It's a usual process in life
However sometimes I wanna leave some simple mark behind some person to keep my having lived in their mind I didn't know whether I will get that person or not Still I believe on myself

I can love myself truly
In this world it's too difficult to get someone who truly loves you
I believe in luck & believe lucky people only get the true love & I am an unlucky girl
How can I hope for?
It's just like try to swim on the land
Still I believe on my lord
I pray in front of him either send a person who could understand me
Or don't send anyone whom I could not bear in my future
I never wanna cheat in my life
I believe love is very powerful to break you into pieces & I never wanna to put myself in that situation That's why I fear to love & fear to believe anyone
I know love is always pure & soft
It's never rude or false But you should need a person like that still i have faith on my lord he is my boss & everything in my life
He is my true love & best friend of my life
He know everything about me
He knows what is better for me
That's why I never ever worry for anything
As I believe on him
I pray before him Take care of me, just like forever
I don't have any fear to anything
I know I can Keep going alone till I finished the race in my life
If he will be with me
It doesn't mean I'll have to be in 1st place
I believe be simple, humble, kind
I won't be afraid to speak my mind
I Speak out, stand up, under control myself alone I am Strong like a mountain, ever-changing as the sea indeed that's ME
My lovely future had always been a dream clearly....I had no direction to move further...
But there's only one thing I know about myself
I want to do more than I need
And need more than I want

Yes! ! !
But what can I do? ? ?
That's the big question in my mind
Which irritate me, which breaks me?
Still I couldn't get any answer
I can do only one thing
Live a life as usual & do my work
I have to complete my journey alone
It's not easy I know
Still I can't wait
'for anyone to stay in my life & say I am here for you'
If I can't run I have to walk
As I have got a precious life only once

I have to continue my journey till my last Indeed! that's me
&
I am proud to be myself

If You Think

If you think you are beaten, you are,
If you think you dare not, you don't.
If you like to win, but you think you can't,
It is almost certain you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you're lost,
For out in the world we find,
Success begins with a fellow's will.
It's all in the state of mind.
If you think you are outclassed, you are,
You've got to think high to rise,
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.
Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man.
But soon or late the man who wins,
Is the man who thinks he can.

Is This Love

Someone is coming into my dreams every moment

Is this love, I don't know
Is this love, you tell me

I have been searching the path of love & a companion in this lonely way
I can't agree to this I love someone badly
I wanna entry into his heart
Hope he hide me in his heart
That should never have exit
How difficult it is to fall in love
Now I can understand

Is this love, I don't know
Is this love, you tell me

Fragrant shadows of the evening, melting my body and soul
How many deep and gentle colors of the evening have spread?
There is just me, there is just you

Is this love, I don't know
Is this love, you tell me

Water pours down like pearls.
The drops of this rain shower have brought that moment
Now a day someone is walking in my breaths

Is this love, I don't know
Is this love, you tell me

Journey Of Life

Our days begin with sunrise & ends with sunset
Often the days are seem useless, pointless,
We don't think they matter but they do,
Everything that happens has a reason,
The truth will be revealed in due season,
Our life is a journey that we must make,
A road, a path, which we must take,
Our course is never easy;
The stakes may be high,
We should not let our life like the leaves in winter;
Life is a poem where we write our story everyday Life is a game which we must play,
Through trouble and disaster,
We never know what we will get;
Our hand is not always get what we want,
We always learn a lesson of hearts and minds is taught However from the failure
We should not walks on a street of hopeless & blind
Sometimes we find the face with in the face
Which hurt us most of the time?
Still we always expected to act like the world is as beautiful and clean If we struggle let it be,
With hope for things we wish to see,
So in every day let's find you, knowing the world for its reality ...

Just Say I Love You LYRICS

Ufff
Oh my dear I love you
Just say I love you
I love you ...I love you
You & I
Strangely we feel the same thing
As if I am searching you inside me
You were not there However you would be
I would do anything for you
To make you believe
Uff
Oh my dear I love you
Just say I love you
I love you....i love you

Once my eyes fall on your eyes
From that days my heart goes on & on
There is no way to leave you anymore
My love so profoundly
I am honest & tell you true
I am the only one good person whom god has made for you Uff
oh my dear I love you
just say I love you
I love you....i love you my love is struggling for showing myself to tell you how much I feel for you sometimes I feel as if I am within you you may not believe however I am telling true today my world is only you Uff

oh my dear I love you
just say I love you
I love you....i love you

I can capture stars only for you one day you see a big tag mahal in front of you that will be only for you my name stands as great lover in the world just wait & watch what I can do However before that, tell me just one yes!
that you love me too
Uff
oh my dear I love you
just say I love you
I love you....i love you

In life there is big space for a dream
Which is my life?
A dream, an ambition, it is all attainable,
All you need to do believe.
A hope, some faith, will find its way;
all you need is an eye, to perceive.
So always follow your dream
Whatever the situation comes in your way Sometimes life seems to change like the tide, you never know what will happen tomorrow That's why live each day fullest
As it is your last day
Live life like there is no tomorrow

Still never ever forget to keep smiling in your face Because a smile can change a day
& it has a power to change your life
It can turn your life beautiful and happy days.
Which is my only wish for my friends?
And keep smiling always

Keep Walking

Always keep walking Becoz the world want that If u stop walking
U will cry forever
Even if your heart break into pieces
Keep walking in your way Hide your tear inside your eye
Because tears makes you weak
&

Smile makes you strong
&
Gives you everything
So stay strong
Show the world you have done
The word they have told You can't However you can
So keep walking the path of live
May be one day will come Someone will come
To hold your hand

Till then
You will walk until your last breath

SWETA LEENA PANDA

Laugh

Laugh a little Laugh for a while
When you feel lost
&
Tear drops start rolling
May people cheat you, left you?
Still go on
&
Make your journey successful

May people laugh at you?
Still go on
Show them you have done

May people break your heart pieces?
Still go on
Show them you can live without them

Always laugh
&
Thanks to wrong time
To show you
Who is real for you?
Because good times shows

Life

Life is like crossroads
A decision you have to make Turn left, turn right, go back, go on Which direction should you take
We have to decide by our self Sometimes we find a sky with no moon and stars we are searching our lost bravery
At that time just Close your eyes Find your strength inside your heart like an evening sky
It cannot shine without its moon and stars so, hurry up and search for your courage and shine Bring the moon and stars back to the sky
As a human we all should care about others
It's important that we all should do Then good things will come to you will be blessed beyond belief because God knows that we were there He knows that you helped someone out and he knows that you really did care

LIFE IS? ? ?

Oh my dear listen something
Life is full of up & down
Sometimes it is exciting highs Sometimes it is depressing lows
There be plenty peaks and troughs
It's your attitude to life that determines your destination
Our attitude is like a mirror
Which reflects us back?
Our thoughts, our words , our actions
So be careful what you think & say or do
So always do your best Life of purpose that is so
Do what you want
Don't care what others say or do
As everyday is a new day for you
&
Try to remember to remain positive
Learn to ride over your sorrow Appreciate yourselves when you do best try to analyze when something wrong happens to you as it is indirect path show you to way to your destination
So be brave and do only what you can do Learn to enjoy the ride of life with its many exhilarating highs And sometimes depressing lows Life's just like that

Just say I'm not afraid

I wanna do everything

LIFE'S JOURNEY

Oh see
What a beautiful life is Hare we all need peace & love
Every day is a new beginning God pour his blessings on you Everyday & every time
We start our day by praying Praying for peaceful world & love is our basic need Everyday someone coming to this world & someone leaving us for forever
It's lovely as well as bitter truth of our life
One day we all have to face it Still we have to be strong enough To face all the situation
Something we can't change
That's the life's beginning & life's ending
That is the true thing which we all have to face
We all love each other
We all wanna to be together
Still one day we have to leave this earth alone Whatever the situation may come
We have to stay strong Frightened weak us inside
As we all are emotionally attach each other
It's a common thing as we all are human being Our heart is like a soft flower
How much you give water & care
That much it will give you pleasure Spread your love & care in everywhere
Show the meaning of love
That you feel inside your heart & soul
A man without heart
Is worthless as I think Everyone should keep this thing inside in your mind
Our heart & mind is not separate
It work together
However we have to feel it Life is a beautiful gift
Try to enjoy it Because every time has a great meaning
One should not forget it

LIVE A WORTHY LIFE

Oh my dear
It's your life, live it fullest Make every moment as happiest
There is no tomorrow
Live life as like there is no tomorrow
That's why make it worth living Give how much you can
There is nothing you can't Give your best effort in everywhere
One thing I learn from my life
That's never ever give up
Once you give up it's very difficult to stand up I remember, when I was child from that day I was very competent That's why I face many difficulties & accept many challenges
I never take myself as a girl
I always believe as if I can do everything
I remember when I got math scholarship
Many people comment me as I remembering mathematics

When I got scholarship many people are there comment like "How I got it "& show fingers towards my parents Still I never give & I accept their challenge & tried to show that i am not weak i can do everything
Yeah! there was a moment where I fail to success
I fail to achieve my main aim
Which demoralize me & brook me into pieces
My whole eighteen years labor went in vain
Which brook me inside
However that was my first step to failure
After that I never succeed seriously telling Many times I faced injustice
From drawing competition to essay competition
There was one break even point Where I decided no! it's over
I can't tolerate more
I have to raise my voice, I have to be strong
I have to show myself that i also can do better
I can't allow others to suggest me not to do something I came this world to do everything My greatest drawback of my every failure was I always care for other emotions Which always pull my leg down? now i understand except my parents & teachers
No one is my well wiser
My great mistake was i believe everyone blindly
I remember that day when I start writing , people took it competition
When I start drawing further people comments me as I do copy which made my mind confuse, what to do however now i can get my conclusion it was their planning to pull my leg down However this time I fully decided to 'never ever give up' i already set up this thing in my mind

As in my life I gave up many things I understand what is today's life is I am not saying don't care about others emotional Still be wise & take the decision in according to situation
This world is full of competition what I learnt from my life Everyone wanna be success, that's why I wanna say be strong & wise
See every situation & the words of people
I love to analyze & I learn if you analyze the words of various people
It may helps to take the future decision
A simple word tells a person's mentality
Always remember, so keep it in your mind
Life is your, that's why never give up Keep your head up & say I can't give up Make your life worthy
You never know what may happen tomorrow
So live for today, make it memorable for each day Live a life like other can take you as an example
Make it so worthy living However worthy living comes from lots of learning when I know I am right, i never listen others Even if I never do anything wrong with anyone, never hurt anyone i always hurt badly however i wanna say one thing I am trying for survive & I wanna get myself identification that's why i can't give up
That's why I wanna be expert in every field
As I don't know what will be my next That's why I am preparing myself from today
I can't forget those days "how I suffered a lot, how much I cried & I found no hand for help
& I brook down into pieces, how only failure left in my fortune
Even if I never did any mistake Still i never leave my principle what ever i the situation came in life
I may break, still never choose any wrong step What my god teach me everyday i wanna to give how much i can I always try to help others, still sometimes you have to suffer
As this world is not that much good enough they don't allow you for success One painful cry, one painful moment taught me one thing & made me strong for forever
When i begged help, i found no hand at that moment no one try to understand me & wanna to stand besides me
That day was most painful day for me That's' why I wanna thanks those people who helped me to make me strong enough Who show me my inner hidden talent? now i forget all & forgive all still i can't forget those days & the lesson i learnt As the first time I did n't understand how the world actually is However now I can get it...

 It taught me a great lesson "never ever give up"
 As no one is yours
 I lose many friends when they saw me in success
 I lose some friends when I did n't agree with their words
 As I knew why they were telling these I knew the whole world very complicated everyone play game with you to down you That's why i wanna say to you listen your inner voice it will never cheat you
 So that no one can motive you in a wrong way
 You can see a person's outer face not inner face
 Now I understand what is life actually is & how to live it Now I give emphasize on few good friends rather than more friends
 I love to learn different mind
 So that I can't face problems in my future life"
 That's why I wanna say be yourself
 As you don't know what will be the next
 So Never take my words in negative sense
 I am saying what was happening with me
 I am saying the reason of my failures
 I can't see others also face the same mistakes
 Oh my dear
 Hope you understand me
 Why I am telling these things
 I am saying because I wanna see your success
 I never wanna see the failure of anyone
 But I could n't understand why people want my failure
 Why they can't see my any success
 As I am a girl
 Or what's problem with me
 I seriously I wanna to know my problems can anyone tell me
 I know till now I never try to hurt anyone I always care for everyone is that the reason people try to hurt me Still now also I suffer, still now also I cry
 Every time I ask my lord why these thing happens with me Am I exceptional? ? ?
 After that I always get one answer This is life, it will first break u then make you
 That's why never worry for any storme
 It will pass according to time & situation
 But it's upon you how you tackle the situation Live your life fullest & make it worthy By making everyone happy this is a great lesson i learn from my life I never wanna to see other to face the same situation that's why i wanna share with whole world never take it as a negative sense please understand the concept & the reason of my failure this is my aim is to tell the whole world why i failure & i don't wanna see other also face the same situation it can be happen with anyone so be wise & take the every step in well matter it's your life

live it & show others that you can make it worthy

However any one can live in present the world with improved himself

Me

Some call I m crazy
Some say I m sick
I think it's freedom
However, it helps release the pain
That I go through every day
Feeling like everything's wrong
I want to escape from my sadness
However now I m looking forward
I no longer feel like a coward
Any challenge put before me to stand and face it Any blessing waiting for me to try and take it Although almost brought tears
However I promise I'll never cry
Even if the battle seems lost never die
Although adversity is long humanity stronger...

Merry Christmas

It's time to give praises to God,
Let us sing together in one chord,

For Christmas has come after a year,
Christmas comes now, at last,
Christmas comes, like in the past,
Christmas comes after such a long wait,

Christmas comes and it will be great Christmas is all about giving,
Christmas is all about love,
Christmas is all about peace,

Christmas is all about joy,
Closing my eyes & dreaming of a White Christmas, Forgetting the world around me, minding my own business.

Listening to the lovely sound of Christmas songs around me,

Singing and dancing to the brilliant melody.

Watching the beautiful & divine snowfall outside,
May the sadness and gloom in your life be replaced, with never ending happiness and cheer Smile my dear, for the season of Christmas has finally arrived here Lets show our love to everyone, near and dear

My Believe

I believe
That we should care for everyone as we live in a society.

I believe
That true friendship continues to grow
Same goes for true love.

I believe
That you should always leave everyone with loving words.
I believe

That it will take a long time to become the person I want to be.
Because I believe nothing is impossible.

I believe
That there is no word like Luck
It totally depends on your work.

I believe
That change only occurs
When u analyze your small small mistakes
I believe
Miracle only happens
When you understand your own fault before others.

I believe
That anyone can keep going long alone
I believe
That we are responsible for what we do or did

I believe
That heroes are the people who do work with regardless of the consequences.

I believe
That sometimes the people you expect to kick you when you're down

Still there will be the ones to help you get back up
That is loving God.

I believe
That maturity comes from different types of experiences you've had and what you've learned from from your every mistakes

I believe
That it is easy to be forgiven by others.
Sometimes you have to learn to forgive yourself.

I believe
That our background and circumstances may have influenced who we are, but we are responsible for who we become.

I believe
That great people look at the exact same thing what other see but see it something totally different.

I believe
That when a needy person cries out to you you will find the strength to help them

How much you can.
I believe winner never quit or quitter never win

I believe
That cruel & rude way on your way
Do not make you a decent human being

I believe
That we should not change our life
Life will change for us by our works

I believe
Life is a poem, so write your own story
Life is a song, so sing your own song Life is a game, so play with different tricks Life is a full of fun, so lets enjoy it.

MY DAY

I may never see tomorrow;
There's no written guarantee.
I don't seem to understand.
However I know who hold tomorrow,
The great power, which shows me light every time
I walk besides him, for he knows what is ahead.
And
Things that happened yesterday belong to history.
I cannot predict my future,
I cannot change my past,
I have just the present moment,
I must treat it as my last,
I must use this moment wisely for it soon will pass away, Every step is getting brighter as the golden stairs I climb.
Every stars getting lighter,
There the sun is always shining over my head,
So there no fear for dark,
I feel like touching the rainbow after a heavy rain,
Still I don't know about tomorrow,
It may bring poverty,
However I have faith upon someone,
The one who stands by me,
And
Path I follow & his presence always helps me to look forward,
So I thanks to God with humble heart for giving me this day,
And
His great blessing upon me

My Days

The days went like paper in the wind Everything changed in a few minute then people change
it's hard to find a life with peace & happy now a days my childhood memories come across in my mind the times when we all friends play in sand the way we used to scream and shout i can't forget the sweet days sometimes i wanna say to myself Goodbye my sweet days you push me back my innocent life i wanna stay strong with these days before the pain turns into fear sometimes my heart says don't you worry sometimes you have just got it let it ride the world is changing right before our eyes now i have found my ways the way of living if we wanna to get peace then we first should love to each other which bind us together spread love & peace your message should be like this

MY DETERMENTATION

Oh yes
Oh my lord
I have a determination
The determination should not to give up Once dream means I have to complete it
The yearning should not stop
No power is here to stop
No matter if the destination is difficult to find No matter if the shore does not seem clearly
No matter is the heart is lonely
No matter how the stony the path is No matter how the people looks at you
No matter what you will get in the end
No matter whether you will be success or not Walk & walk
&
talk & talk till reach at your destination
Even if the path is filled with difficulties & tears
We still have to walk on it & work on it Even if the evening hides the sun of happiness
The night of grief will definitely pass away
This season grief will change Determination will overcome all difficulties
There will be a new dawn
There is something inside our heart
Which is not a separate voice? which is called as kindness
If kindness will be shown to us
We shall receive sunlight even in shade
I pray to My lord
That our destination should get us
May the courage remain in every difficulty
May the promise be fulfilled
May the love live long
May it look too long way
Still continue your walk & talk Until your get the success
Oh yes
Oh my lord
This is the determination
Which i should not give up
I make a promise today
No matter what come in my life?
I will never ever forget my determination
My determination should be strong like sun light Which can diminish the power of darkness?
My determination should be like rain drop
Which can save much life?
My determination should be like dove bird
Which has power to spread the peace everywhere?
Oh my lord

Can you fulfill my one determination?
This is my one & only final
This is the determination
Which I can't give up

My dream

I don't know who I am
However I know my Patience leads to my success Even though it's not easy to cope it is an art not performed by many Constructed with wisdom and hope
It lets the bad moment's fade away
Patience is endurance and suffering
Making situations loving and caring
I want to Fly away with my dreams
Even if I think I can't cope
As my dreams my visions my destiny and my hope Live not full of dreams is like a roof lacking wall and very hard to restrain
I can't throw my dreams,
I want to catch them
And don't release as it will be my future and potential that will decrease I can't let anyone push my dreams and make them invisible Because everything is possible be firm and follow them

My Dreamland

I don't know who I am

Patience is endurance and suffering
Making situations loving and caring

MY EYES

The Eyes wanders around the world—
Cry to see the beauty behind the beautiful world God has given me two eyes Still I m blind
I can't recognize between good & evil
True & false, right & wrong
Sometimes I want to judge the world
However I became crazy
Whenever I think about it Whatever the situation may be
I have to open my eyes always Because for fight against the evil & wrong
Sometimes I feel a far distance Between the light and me Because I fail to recognize between face with in the face sometimes my heart wise to god Either Show me the beautiful world Where no corruption, no cheat, no fear will be there Or take me to the before crest (BC)
Where no such world was there
I could not see the world in proper way
So I m blind
Even if having two eyes

SWETA LEENA PANDA

MY GOD & ME

I promise to myself
Never to be discouraged, sad, or cry
I refuse my heart to be downhearted
and
You know why
I have a friend
Whose name is "God"
Who is super power and supreme
I know my friend loves me a lot
And
I am on His team.

He is my well wiser and powerful.
In this world everything is changeable,
My God & my friendship will remain the same.

My God knows everything
From Beginning to the end
His presence is my comfort
He is my dearest Friend

When ever I feel weak
Or anything makes me sad & confuse,
I call upon my friend "God"

When circumstances threaten me
& I lose my peace
He supports me by giving new ideas
How to overcome my problem

When my eyes melts with tears
& my hearts feel weak
He soothes my heart and soul

My life is in His hand
As I believe him most It's in His strength I stand

I refuse to be defeated,
As he has promised to be with me
As throughout in my life

Whenever I beg for help
My prayers reaches the heart of "God"
Indirectly his love gives me strength

I want to give a big thanks to super power "GOD"
As he shows me the actual meaning of life
He shows me light as well as dark Life is like a battle field & I am sure
He'll help me to win the race.

MY JOURNEY & DREAM

It's time to say! "yes"
I can do it
I can dream for it
I'll try for it
Lots of noise at outside
&
I couldn't bear all
Oh !
It's the fact which I share here
People love to pull your leg
People love to break you inside
People love to spread bad rumors Still never give up
I lose many things because of this noise
I gave up many things because of these bad rumors
I also gave up my dream due to some negative suggestions
I learn many things than you imagine
As I cried a lot silently & feel better to stay alone
As everything you can't share what you bear in your actual life
I learn one thing believe in yourself
There is no one who really wants to see your success
So you know how to concentrate
I don't know about my future What & how I have to get
I only know i can try my best Till now whatever I dream
I didn't get
Which hurts me inside silently many times?
I cried a lot & suffered a lot
At last I learn something Just move with a smiling face
Everything gonna be ok
There is no one here to listen your inner voice
That's why most of time I became a self motivator Dream may break & people will speak Still be stick with your goal try further & believe in yourself which is my inner voice
Because nobody knows what you suffer
As no one can realize too
As god has made something different for you That's why I never worry for whatever I lose or did n't get No doubt sometimes there is a little hurt inside my heart
Where was my fault
I labor hard & tired my best Still I did n't get
&
the most important thing I learn form my life
If you can't achieve anything
People will believe you like stupid & worthless Behave you like your life is meaningless

Failure is such kind of taste Which nobody knows how much it hurts?
Everyone speak but no one is there to help Nobody will believe how much you labor
But if you dream further & fight for this Then those people will call you bitch & many more It's damn true
As it is my real experience
I was so negative at that situation
I fear to do anything
& also thought like as my life was worthless
No doubt for one thing I wanna thanks to my lord
As he has given me a great parents
Who is my great supporter?
Especially my papa
Who never worry for the world & what people talk?
As he knows me better
He never tell me to become a rich person,
He always teach me try to be a good person
Which sometimes give me great pain?
It's very easy to promise but very hard to fulfill Especially when it's come to be a good person
When I entered into my real future
I understand how the life is People are so complicated than I think
Which sometimes give me pain than you imagine?
It really hurts when people break my believes
As now I am habituated with this Now I only believe on myself
&
my goal is my life
I never fear for death as I know one day I'll die
It's the bigger & bitter true
Which no one could hide?
That's why my heart always says no need to fear
I set up my mind & heart
It's too much & I wanna do something Which is my last & final decision?
Sometimes I worry for my future
As my dream & career has no connection
Still I hope for a best future
One year left to complete my engineering career with a good grade what i always wish for Then!
I could n't decide what further step I can take for It's really very much confusion
My weak point is as I am girl & it's not easy to resist & fight
&
As I am a peace lover & I need a work for other

Still my life is wander
Where should I go & what should I do
As my career has no link with my future
I feel sometimes I choose pain for myself Still I believe without pain there is no gain
I believe I wanna live a life according to myself
As I love freedom & a independent mind
Still I love those who really inspire me
I believe in TAT FOR TAT RULE
Not for every time
My behavior depends how you behave me
Still I try my best to behave polite & in a good manner
As the world is changing
It need some changes
We have to change according to people & their cruel mind
If you don't wanna change
One day you will die as you could n't resist so I choose to be strong, courageous, truthful & honest in my way
I don't care whether people like me or not I love my rule & this is my principle
But my behavior purely depends how the person you are I really love those who truly deserve
I too hate fake & lie
That's why no one can try to hide anything from me I am not so much wise still I know how to handle the situation
I am not a perfect person but I can promise anyone can believe me blindly That much worth I am Now it's really a battle field for me
As I don't know how to reach at my destination Still I can promise I can try my best for it
This is a hidden voice inside me
I am sure my lord will surely help me
As he knows me better than other
I know one day he surely show me the path What I deserve for

My Life

I celebrate myself, and sing myself,
This soil & air are my soul mate
I, now twenty years old perfect health
My respiration and inspiration, the beating of my heart,
The passing of blood and air through my lungs,
The song of me rising from bed and meeting the sun
Hoping for best till my death.

I passed my school days
Still some memory etched in my eyes,
Which my eyes can't forget
I harbor for good or bad, I permit to speak at every hazard,
Sometimes I feel,
The atmosphere is not a perfume,
It has no taste of the distillation, it is odorless,
I'll not look through my eyes either, nor take things from me
I'll listen to all sides and filter them from myself.

Clear and sweet is my soul,
Showing my best and dividing my cheer in the worst phase, people discuss I am silent, and go bathe and admire myself.
People I meet, the effect upon me in my early life the latest discoveries, inventions, societies, authors my dinner, dress, associates, looks, compliments, the real sickness of mine created by myself,
Or ill-doing or depressions or exaltations, sometimes I do argument with my god,

And I know that the hand of God has promised me,
The spirit of God will help me
To solve my problem when I cry for help In the worst weather...

SWETA LEENA PANDA

My life is fine

I came to a river, set down on the bank.
To get the peace,
What I want to get from last some days,
I try to forget the thing
But couldn't remove it from my mind,
Many things comes in my mind.
Which upset me very soon?
I want to jump into it and give up myself,

I came up every day here
I came up twice, thrice and cried a lot
Many wrong things came across in my mind
I might've sunk and died.

However now my mind is changed,
I'm still here living',
I guess I will live on.
Some thing delight me,
&
Give me praise to further live
How I forget
How my mother gave me birth,
How my father show me the way of living.
How I tried for survive,
I can't forget the reason Why GOD send me to this world,
&
What I have to give to my mother land
I will survive & show the world
What I can give...

MY LIFE JOURNEY

Our life is a beautiful journey Journey of life is an interesting book each book contains many unique stories some books are short & some are long,
Listen more carefully and you will learn many thing Before looking others & their life
Have a look on you self
How you started your journey
Remind how you enter to this world
&
Who is the person behind of your smile & life?
Ah!
I remember
How my life begun

My life begin with something so small Innocent baby, could barely crawl.
Then I grow into a child
I passed my teenage years
Which is most romantic time <: P>
Still I was no romantic at all Then some imagination comes in my mind
What would be the next?
Hope it would be somehow like this After my teen age I reached at my adulthood
Try to find myself with in the crowd Unique experiences will be in every where Only memories left in my mind.
After someday I will become so busy
In searching my life purposes
My life will be converted into like this Sometimes it will become dizzy
After some Years go by, my continue to age
I'll approach to my final page.
The main truth of my life Death converts
&
It is the end of my life
Then my journey ends there
&
I became just like a full stop
If your life cycle would be like this Did you find any interesting?
If you are interested in making your life interesting Then mix some love & care in your daily journey
Like a flower spread your fragrance among all See the difference
We have no time for quarrel
If we are in right path
Why we care for others
What they think about us
Always remember no one is yours

This world is full of competition
You can't get any well wiser That's why Follow your heart & mind your mission is one Listen to your inner voice
Live your life, through your choice
The point is to love, what you are doing, live every moment
Excited & be delighted
Always look forward, to what is ahead
Living life to the fullest is up to you Life's too short complain all about your worries flush all sorts of negativity from your brain & negative people
&
Enjoy the present moment

My little brother

I love my little brother...

I love my little brother,
He's my eye lids, however there's one thing I don't like
Is when my brother has a cry!
He gives me a big bright smile when he see me after a long time my little brother loves me too!

Sometimes I need his shoulder for cry
Sometimes he helps me to pick me up when I fall I am your big sister and I'll never let...
Any troubles come your way
Cause I'll protect you each day
No matter how much we will fight, argue,
However I always care for you,
No doubt, I will never admit it Becoz Something I don't want to show up

SWETA LEENA PANDA

My Lord

We are this Lord's children
Lord has given eyes, hands, mind & heart
I know Lord my Lord
U helps me in everywhere
Sometimes I think
I will do it by myself
However now I know
I just can't handle it any more
Therefore with a humble heart
On bended knee, before you
I'm begging you,
Please, Help Me, I need you
I know my Lord
U can remove the chains of darkness
Show me the path
Which I meant for
I know Lord U Help me to walk
I'm tired of walking all alone.
So U promise me to give me company for forever
I know my Lord U Help me to smile
I can't make it on my own
So U make me smile everyday by different source
I know Lord my Lord
U helps me in everywhere
Sometimes I think
I will do it by myself.
However now I know
I just can't handle it any more.
Therefore with a humble heart,
On bended knee, before you
I'm begging you,
Please, Help Me, I need you.
Come down to this earth for once
For listen my heart's voice

MY LOVE

True loves means to live forever where we get our heart in the soul of their eyes it's a beautiful feeling
You never know what you want
Until he or she made you realize where you see thousand dreams for the person you love
The one and only who could make you feel special you can fly a million miles to get your love you can stand against the storm for that person
You can see his love right through your eyes like a star revolving around the sun
it's easy to say I fall in love with you
But it's too difficult to keep
Sometimes I wanna love you & trust you
However I surrender my heart my love to you is difficult because I wanna see your love shining through your eyes
however my heart says
Tell me everything and anything you want and I'll be here waiting whenever you come
I got nothing left to lose because
Now and Always I have you this love story I've started from now what happens next I don't know
The stars will shine for you they speak what's right & what's truth
this is for you and me
This life is higher than the tides the ocean brings love is like season which gives you special feelings in time to time Things may seem little different
However this feeling this heart is still the same from now to till our death

My mom & dad

ohh mom & dad
You both take care of me now
I will take care of you at your old
Every day brings back your life
Your loves covers like a protector

The sun remembers to rise
&
you are like the sun for me who show me path everyday Giving your life reason Through your eyes I see my future

Don't be sad my mom & dad
Let me be your destination one day I will hold your hand I am yours only one daughter who loves you more than her I sit besides you
I want to hear what you say
Tell me about your life
I want you to be my day
You showed me how to live

I pray others can listen too what your parents wants to say when they become old

I remember the childhood days of mine
How i repeat one question many times
&
Every time you tell me answer in a smiling face

I wish i will listen you till the last & fulfill your dream what you see for me everyday one day u will feel proud for me
As a daughter i fulfill my promise & prove myself..! ! !

SWETA LEENA PANDA

My mother

Lord I pray,
Fully from my heart
A small poem can't show my love
Still I want to write for my mom
For the grace to honor the glory of my mother
The beauty of the pure love that dwells in my heart
My love is more beautiful than the flowers in May My pray is only for her
As I m not with her
I wish u take care of her
Lead her and guide her and show her the way Protect her from all harm and evil
Give her all pleasure, how much she wants
I pray today, and hope to pray tomorrow
I wish I'll never cause for her sorrow Because I can't see her tear
We all must honor our mother
As they are our living Lord
My words are smaller and smaller However my love is purest & greater

SWETA LEENA PANDA

MY NEW YEAR 2013

The time has come to say good bye
A year of happiness and of sorrow Yesterdays are ghosts haunting the past by grace and forgiveness, they don't last.
Oh my lord
I would ask for a world free war
I pray the war will end soon
So we'll have a better tomorrow.
Oh my Lord,
I would ask for a holy year Spent in the perfect will Help everyone to walk in every steps
Oh my Lord,
I would ask for a trustful year
Give everyone the faith divine
Oh my Lord,
I would ask for a year of love spread love in everywhere
Oh my Lord,
I would ask for a year of prayer
Teach everyone to walk with thee
Oh my Lord,
I would ask for a year of joy
The peace, the joy divine
Be the days of shade or shine.
Oh my Lord
I ask for a year of hope
A year of joy & peace

SWETA LEENA PANDA

My New Year Resolution

I hate to repeat myself once again
Half of my year spent in black & empty
Now I already reach at the end of my year
My Life cycle flows like a wind
Which change so much in the blink of an eye?
Sometimes I wanna to catch up
However I stand alone with an empty hand
I don't wanna to repeat the same history
I need some change
Some change within me
I hope it's not too late
I don't think I will ever come back once again
Now my head & heart says

Set up your mind once again
That you have to change
You can't trash your determination It's time to make resolutions for I promise to be sincere and bring in me a revolution
I wanna take some time to think about it
Which can make me better?
My past life was tough
Because my decisions had no life
Now I wanna make a strong Resolutions
I have set up mind to do something Which may be tough?
I wanna do something for my society
There for I wanna make some resolutions according to that Which will be suitable for me & for my way?
I'll be kind
&
to a helper of mankind have my character refined
With a sound mind
I'll follow my teacher's advice

Follow my great teacher's ideology beyond doubt I'll civilize Lastly I wanna beg sorry to all Whom I hurt knowingly & unknowingly
These are my resolutions
To bring in me an evolution
To follow them I'll try my best Until then I'll not rest

MY ONLY REQUEST BEFORE MY LORD

O lord o my lord
U is merciful & kind
Thanks a lot for giving everything
There is nothing with me to give Except heartfelt respect & love
O lord o my lord
There is only request written on my face
O lord o my lord
Promise whether you can keep it or not Repair the fortune of the poor small children
They really need you
O lord o my lord
Can you hear me now?
You have given me everything
Whatever I need
I am bowing at your court, have fallen, and recovered
Please listen them & change their life
Whenever I see them
I feel you have given me everything
There is nothing to give me further
I am bowing at your court
Give them who really need you
Do you feel pleasure to give a rich person rather than a poor one?
I always believe
Whoever has come to your door?
Whoever has come to bow at your feet?
You surely listen their words
Can you keep my promise?
O lord o my lord
They are thirsty of love & care
They need your friendship
Open your eyes look at them
O lord o my lord
I am bowing at your court
I never say anything whenever you did not give me
However today I came to your court
With lots of expectations
One day you can change their life
Can you hear the crying voice of a little child?
Who lose his parents?
Can you hear the crying voice of a little girl?
Who is physically abused?
Can you hear the crying voice of a mother?
Who pray before you for her child's speedy recovery?
Can you hear the crying voice of a father?
Who pray before you for his family's safety?
How can you sit silently?
How can you bear this?
O lord o my lord
I am bowing at your court
I know one day you surely listen their voice

But when, it's already time to open your eyes
See how many people are there in front of your court
For their true judgment
Only you who knows everything
O lord o my lord
You know this is the main reason behind the crime
Many people dying
We lose our inner peace

How can you see this?
You are father of all
Then why you not rising your voice
Why you don't change their life
O lord o my lord
I am bowing my head before you
With a hope
One day you will change the life of everyperson After that there will be no crime & no war
Everyone will live in peace & will get equal importance
I know my lord you are very kind Hearten
I know you surely keep my promise
O lord o my lord
This is the only request written on my face

When I need you, you are always there for me
When something goes wrong, you are always there for support me
When I feel weak, you make me strong
When I feel unsecure, you give me security
When whole world is against me, you are always there for support me
When no one with me to weep my tear, you are always there to make me smile
You never let me down
A heartily thanks to you
For your presence in every situation in my life
&
Showing me the beautiful world

MY PURPOSE OF LIFE

My life purpose is to experience & learn from it My life goes in all of its many forms as fully and consciously as possible,
and
Wanna to bring positive change into this world.
That's why my intention is to treat myself better
So that I can be a achiever
I have to learn to love myself in all my humanity
and
To remain conscious of Who and, what I really am, why god has sent me here
May god's intention is to provide a loving, nurturing the world
It is my intention to do what is best for all I promise I will be calmer, gentler, kinder and more patient, tolerant and peaceful with each moment.
Whatever the situation comes
I will never break & band
It is my intention to experience everything that I can that should be in the way of love & smile Because these two things make my day
Whenever I see this entire big, beautiful blue planet
I smile & feel how much blessed I am
We all are so same
Suddenly something strike in my mind
Then why we are quarreling with each other
Is it the propose of our life or the way of our living Why the war is happening why people are becoming cruel
Is there any secret behind it
My intention is to find out the truth & show it to the world
Why we forget we all are one
We are only different from geography
Not by heart & mind
Why we forget we all love each other
Is there anything behind which pull our leg & change our mind
Is it religion or anything?
Which kill the humanity, which is our greatest enemy?
Which is within our heart?
People were & people are suffering from this
This is not today's case & I wanna abolish it totally My intention is to show GOD IS ONE
I wanna meet many more of our people of our Universe.
I wanna love to talk with everyone
Because I love all
I believe we are made up the same material
If all everything is same
How can we different
I love the way I am
&
No one can pull my leg
It's me & I & my mentality
My intention is to care deeply for the life force in everyone
and

Teach the people the meaning of freedom & live a life fullest Which I love most We the God's creature & no one is here to kill us or suppress us Without our decisions
I also welcome all my brother & sisters of the universe Let come to change for the good of all.

MY WISHES FOR WORLD

I wish the World will be better? for this what we have to do we have to Set a watch upon our actions,
Keep them always straight and true.
Rid our mind of selfish motives,
Let our thoughts be clean and high.
our little dash of purpose, effort made to cheer, our little more of courage, less of doubt and fear;
our little more of lifting, pulling all our weight,

I wish the World will be wiser?
Then suppose we make a start,
By accumulating wisdom
In the scrapbook of our heart.
not to waste one page on folly

Live to learn and learn to live.
let us free to spread the knowledge our a little less of leaning, and leaving it to fate.

I wish the World will be happy?
Then we have to each remember day by day,
Just to scatter seeds of kindness,
As we pass along the way.
For the pleasures of the many,
May be oft times traced to one.
As the hand that plants the acorn,
Shelters armies from the sun.
our a little splash of humor,
To brighten up the way,
A little joy to follow,
And linger through the day;
A little touch of laughter,

To cause a little mirth,
Is simply what we're needing,
To gladden this old earth
I wish the World will be better one day

Myself

I celebrate myself & sing myself
I talk with myself
Why I struggle with each word
How I'm scared of being heard sometimes I wish I could disappear for a little time let my tears to flow Sometimes, I discover myself who I'm created to be.
And
How this life really works.
Understanding how to live.
The gifts I have to give.
A mirror of mine
And
what I want be An image of mine pushing back to me.
I see all of my triumphs
And
Every single failure when I look through my eyes.
I see a girl too afraid to stand when I look through myself
Tell me O lord
Which sorrow I can't afford Still you test me, my toleration
However, I Like your Job!
But what you saw? ? ?
Did you find any wrong? ? ?
Today I will have courage
To do one thing that is new
I will be kind to another
And to myself be true
Today I will remember
The blessings that are mine
I'll live the day with confidence
And
For me the sun will shine...

NEVER EVER GIVE UP

When life goes rough & tough Still never ever give up Stop thinking about what will happen next Think about the present moment Live & laugh
&
say I will never give up never fear for shadows and out of the darkness there is no need to run and hide it's the actual life
So never give up you'll find a shining star without you Love yourself & see within you How much positive power you have You can't imagine how much blessed you are
So never give up
Life is a battle field
So never give up
Keep fighting till the end if you will fall along the way You'll get up and try again however never ever accepting the defeat
You are a hero of your life Never forget
So never give up
It's your journey
You are well known how to finish it so set goals in your life
However never let negative thought to hurt your soul
Hold yourself up when you feel down
Be courageous & be free thinker
It's your life
So you no need to give up Keep yourself around positive minded people never dwell on things in the past Bad times will come & goes
So never give up
be like a tree
Who stands on its own effort?
Its finger dug deep inside the sand
Its branches spread & try to touch the heaven
Its size is big Still it never ever fear for storm
So never ever give up Peace is possible
One day war will be ended
I hope it will be possible
So never give up
try your best everyday

oh mom

Ohh mom hii mom
How are u
I want to see u here, besides me
I want to stay with u
I want to say u allot of things
When I feel alone
I remember the days of my past
When I was in urn womb
I just listen urn sweet voice
But
when u gave me birth
I came to know how sweet u are U are sweeter then sweet
And more beautiful then flower
Ur sweet touch is just like the smell of a flower
At urn first touch
I feel some kind of love
Which is only for me
U teaches me
How to walk
How to talk
I remember the first word I have told That's maa
And
I remember the beautiful memories of my past How u cares for me
How u punish me
How u scold mom
How u were running after me for beating
How u complained about me before my papa
When I sleep how u kissed me on my for-head
I miss these things too much maa
No doubt these things delights me however after that it make me cry
When I m ill here
No one is here for care
At that time I feel u are sitting beside me
When I m unhappy
U can understand everything
Without saying u anything How much I far from u however I feel u always nearer
I feel there is a some kind of strong bonding between us Which binds between u & me
That bonding is called true love

That's only for u my maa

Your love is showing me heaven
Half of my heart's story is you

Everything is yours
Why did everything become yours?
Oh what is this happened to me?
Am I in right condition?
There is silence in the noise
Is this because of you there is slight unconsciousness that is because of you even if I try to break it, it is not breaking the bond of faith that is made with you

The house that you threw into darkness
That Was mine.

The moon that smiles in your home now
That was also mine.
These all were mine yesterday
And is for mine today

But I cannot be blamed for this theft
In every afternoon it always dies

I am become light less & beam less
I wish a sun should be upon on my forehead
&

I beg you for my sunlight.
To give me back
Ohh oh my time return me today
All my precious things
Along with the sun it is mine now

The house that you threw into darkness

These all were mine

Let me see darkness as a starry night.

ONE BAD DREAM

Oh my dear
I wanna be good.
I wanna be with you!
This is all; I can now
I confess to you.

Listen!
Stay with me!
Stay forever, if you please!
Just say yes! For me now someone's voice came in my dream

In my last night
My night became sleepless
A voice which irritate me
I wish I could forget at all Still some bad memories couldn't erase at all
There was a time
Everything went wrong that was worst time ever Harder than a silent cry
I didn't know if I was right or wrong still I believe as if I was right I remember our friendship days
How I took you as a good friend
As I had faith on you a lot

Alas you break it at last

You break your friendship on a silly matter
Which was a jock which I had told?
I remember I begged you sorry
Still you never ever forgive me at all
My heart always tried to forget all those things Which you told & which I had told
I remember the rude voice of yours
I never ever forget at all
I wish I forgive you Still I can't trust you again
Because at last I reach at the truth
Which you had never ever told
I was mad, yes I might be Still I was not fake or rude at all
Now I could not believe my eyes
How could it all change suddenly at all After passing a long time
Why you come further
When I begged for help
I find only some hands
So I care for them only
In those bad days I could understand
Who is mind who is not?
After the damaging harm my eyes says don't be apologize

Because I couldn't go back that's not how you get back to me everything went wrong all at once I don't wanna to go back further
Now there is no more memory, no way, no chance I wish I could understand however the limit is already crossed You can't be my good friend again also don't take my silence a sign of weakness the worst fact is that I don't care to any of you something is meaningless
I wonder did I give out the wrong sign or
It's you who don't like to see the red light so let's put the blame on me
&
Pretend that this fault is mine still truth is that How could you cross my line?
Even if I couldn't understand How you're so much blind should I listen to your words or what you think Becoz now your words don't get me easily motivate
I am well & happy with this life

Suddenly I listen one voice
Wake up wake up!
It's already eight o'clock Finally I understood that It was a bad dream ever

ONE DANCING TONE FOR CHEER

One dancing tone
Coming from core of my heart with lots of cheer
We all love each other
So why do we fear
It's time to cheer
Let's come enjoy the party
As we all are here together
We all are like dove bird Flying from one corner to another
To spread love & peace among each other Abrade the sine of thought
There is no reason to be abominate each other
There is a beautiful alliance between one with another
We all are alike
&
We all live for one another
So come with me to enjoy the party
As We all love each other
So why do we fear
It's time to cheer
Let's come enjoy the party
As we all are here together
Still why some people hesitate to keep this thought
In their heart
As we all wanna be together
Come on everyone
It's your time to change your thought
It's your earth
& hate is unendurable for us Think from a child's heart
You will see it's just like a circular path
As we all fully depends on each other
If you will beat one another will get pain
As we all are human Humanity is our religion
& god is one
I love my god
Who teach me the meaning of love?
& he is God for all
All are his child
& he taught me we all are one & should live for each other & love for one another
So come with me to enjoy the party
As We all love each other
So why do we fear
It's time to cheer
Let's come enjoy the party
As we all are here together
Hay!
You see this earth
How beautiful it is

My ambiguity god made this
In such a beautiful way
Flowers of different colors & fragrance
Which gives us peace & pleasure?
Green trees help for ecological balance & save us from global warming Small bird's song removes our all tension
&
We all are animal lover
& we all love each other
& can't stay one without another It's time to dance & for fun
Forget the war & forget the fear
It's time to make the cheer

ONE REQUEST BEFORE MY LORD

O lord o my lord
U is merciful & kind
Thanks a lot for giving everything
There is nothing with me to give Except he artful respect & love
O lord o my lord
There is only request written on my face
O lord o my lord
Promise whether you can keep it or not Repair the fate/fortune of the poor small children
They really need you
O lord o my lord
Can you hear me now?
You have given me everything
Whatever I need
I am bowing at your court, have fallen, and recovered
Please listen them & change their life
Whenever I saw them I feel you have given me everything
There is nothing to give me further
I am bowing at your court
Give them who really need you
Do you feel pleasure to give a rich person rather than a poor one?
I always believe
Whoever has come to your door?
Whoever has come to bow at your feet?
You surely listen their words
Can you keep my promise?
O lord o my lord
They are thirsty of love & care
They need your friendship
Open your eyes look at them
O lord o my lord
I am bowing at your court
I never say anything whenever you did not give me
However today I came to your court
With lots of expectations
One day you can change their life
Can you hear the crying voice of a little child?
Who lose his parents?
Can you hear the crying voice of a little girl?
Who is physically abused?
Can you hear the crying voice of a mother?
Who pray before you for her child's speedy recovery?
Can you hear the crying voice of a father?
Who pray before you for his family's safety?
How can you sit silently?
O lord o my lord
I am bowing at your court
I know one day you surely listen their voice
But when, it's already time open your eyes
See how many people are there in front of your court
For their true judgment

Only you who knows everything
O lord o my lord
You know this is the main reason behind the crime
Many people dying
We lose our peace
How can you see this?
You are father of all
Then why you not rising your voice
Why you don't change their life
O lord o my lord
I am bowing my head before you
With a hope
One day you will change the life of everyone
After that no crime & no war will there Everyone will live in peace & get equal importance
I know my lord you are very kind Herten
I know you surely keep my promise
O lord o my lord
This is the only request written on my face

ONE REQUEST TO MY LORD

A simple pray before my lord
Some unknown emotion inside my heart
My heart beat says
Oh my lord
Help those who really deserve
I don't know why
Still my heart always pray for those Tears fill in my eyes
Whenever I read the biography of great people Great life history
I always believe success belongs to those Who really deserve
Who really suffer a lot?
Because they know the actual meaning of life
As learning always not measure by the age
I always pray before my lord
For their success
Still I don't why
I don't know whether I will be success or not Still I confuse even if not sure Whether I am running in right path or not However I believe I will try
Some people really inspiration for others Really hats off for those How they achieve in a very early stage because God truely help them as they are truely deserve
I always believe
Mother & father is really great
Who became sleepless to change their child's future?
Who tried their best to give better education?
Who have faith on their child?
It really gives me courage to do something Whenever I read the biography
It's really amazing
How people really struggle to reach at a certain position
I bow my head before them
A heart full pray before my lord Help them how much you can I never ever worry for my future even if I am not confident also
what will be the next still i always hope for the best because i always believe What you will do that much you will get Just go on & on
I learn something beautiful After reading the biography it always not matter how early you became a great achiever
It only matters
Live your life fullest

Pain & struggle will come Stick with your destination
So just kick your problem
Smile each & every moment
Show everyone you deserve it
A life you always dream for Still be don't sure What will happen next?
Try your best everyday
In the end you will surely get your result
What my heart says
Just move on God will be always there for you Now & forever
who really deserve
this is a silent message which I wanna give to my almighty God I know my god will surely listen me as he knows everything
&
he know who really deserve hope sun shine his rays
&
moon's cooling rays affect their life now & future

SAD DAY

It's sad, today I want something.
&
It's something what I miss the most.
The thing which will never come back
The way of your sweet talks
The way of your smile
&
Made me happy as can be.
The way you made me feel the meaning of love
You were my life
I thought you will be forever with me
Now I became part of never One thing u hurtled me most You break your promise
However never ever realize
I hide my sorrow within me
&
Frankly saying
You will never understand me
That what you were mean to me

SWETA LEENA PANDA

Save Me

I wanna see the world in open eye leading myself alone to go high & wanna to touch the sky sometimes my brain says sleep for sometime However my heart says
Wake me up
I have to Wake up from inside
I have to save myself from the dark
I have to run fast for the win in life race
I can't take rest
I wanna bring my own happiness in my own hand
Ohh my god help me
All this time I can't believe I couldn't see Kept in the dark but you were there in front of me I've been sleeping a thousand years it seems got to open my eyes to see everything without a good thought Without a voice, without a success
Don't let me die here
I wanna do something more so help me to wake up from inside Save me from dark save me god save me
I m a little child crying before you

Soldier

A soldier is called to be true son
Who fight for his motherland?
Who for freedom
There is courage in the soldier's heart
You can see it in its heart
The courage is for fight for good, against for evil
We sleep eighteen hours per day, they work twenty four hours per day Still they never feel weak
A soldier sacrifice himself for its country
He can also give his life, for serve his country
We should slut them, respect them & prey for their life

STAY AWAY FROM NEGATIVE THOUGHTS

Kick your negative thoughts

Say them good bye

Shout with a cheering tone

I am enjoying with my present status

I don't wanna need your presence

I wanna say good bye

Just stay away from me

I know

Positive & negative thoughts are always bonded with us

No one can free from them

However anyone can change their way of thinking

& can avoid them from their life

It's the worst kind of suffering

Is the dark night of the soul?

Negative thoughts of the lesser self

The negative thoughts are like thrones on a beautiful path

It creeps in stealth, like a thief.

It brings the despair of hatred

And chokes out the life race

Which has power to break you inside?

Which has power to push you back to that failure days?

It's your decision what you would take

Only two option left behind Either positive & negative

Negative thoughts break you

Negative thoughts, can keep you out of all good sorts,
It can bring you down and traumatize you.

However positive thoughts has a power change poison to medicine

Shout with a cheering tone
I must take first responsibility
To change myself & defeat
The ugly inner negative thoughts affect my life
I don't wanna it any more
I wanna say good bye forever

SWETA LEENA PANDA

SUCCESS JOURNEY

Success is a not a journey
It just a part of it
Which we get by our work that's why
I never hope for a successful life
I always hope for a worthy life
A worthy life has great value than a successful life Always remember it
But sometimes success gives us a hope for best I believe sometimes 'success is behind the worthy life' when your aim is for a good cause when your aim is fulfilled you feel a peace within yourself

Which has a power to take all your all worries?
As I always don't get whatever I want this should not be the reason behind of my sorrows as life changing all time anything can be happen in anytime That's why I set onething in my mind
I have to smile any way
One smile can hide many things Which is my strong point which you can take too?
Never show your weak point before anyone
As it is the best reason of your failure anyone easily can mark your weak point so always remember this word Life is like a river flow
It never waits for anyone Anything can be happen
Always remember
But it purely depends on your work
What you have done
That's why i go along life's way
I am reaping better than i sowed
I am not a rich person
I am rich form my heart
And sometimes the going's tough.
But i've loved all around me and that makes me rich enough I thank God for his blessings, and the mercies He's bestowed I am happy what I have & I wanna get more love
I know love is a giving process
How much you give that much you get That's why I don't wanna to hurt anyone Thanks my lord for giving me everything whatever I want

I remember times when things went wrong my faith wore somewhat thin

But all at once the dark clouds broke and the sun peeped through again
Thanks my God gives me strength and courage Whenever I need & the way grows steep and rough I'll not ask for other blessings
I'm already blessed enough & may I never be too busy to help others bear their loads When I think of how many people in this world have worst life
At that tear fall from my eyes
I am lucky enough
You have given me everything
So what I will beg before you
I am not that much rapacious person
I realize just how blessed I am

THERE ARE SOME QUESTIONS FOR YOU

Oh my dear God
There are some questions for you
Why do people suffer?
Why are there war and crime and sorrow?
My parents always tell me
You have the power & you are the father of all
So why you don't stop the war

I wanna see my world full of peace & love there're things that I so dearly need,
I hope you can fulfill all.

Oh my dear God
There is another question for you
How can you allow others to suffer tragedy if you would help me get the peace
I'd be more at your call.
Some people condition is very much bad Like criminals and evil ones it seems like things are so unfair, why let it carry on?

oh my dear God
There is another question for you
Why give so much freedom, to people to those who spread such evil, through wars and greed and hatred, and actions of the devil?

oh my dear God
There is another question for you this does not seem so easy To spread peace in this world it looks like we must take Responsibility for all the choices that we make.
The price we'll have to pay,
Give up what we do not need & work and serve and pray.

Thanks my god
Now I am getting some idea How to save my world thank you my god
I love you

THERE IS NO TOMORROW

Life changes its beauty all the time
Life is a confluence of joy and grief
The time that is here may not be tomorrow
Live your life with a sing a song
It's time to enjoy forget the sorrow
Sometimes it's a shade, sometimes life is sunlight
Sometimes you must laugh, sometimes you have to cry.
Sometimes it's autumn, sometimes it's the rainy season.

So don't destroy your present by thinking about your future

Life changes its beauty all the time
Life is a confluence of joy and grief.
The time that is here may not be tomorrow
Live your life with a sing a song
It's time to enjoy forget the sorrow
Live every moment here to your heart's content
The time that is here may not be tomorrow
Taking the shadow of your eyelashes when someone comes near You try to reason with your crazy heart
Your heart just goes on beating
Why should we care everything
We even don't know what will happen tomorrow
That story may not be here tomorrow
Life changes its beauty all the time
Life is a confluence of joy and grief.
The time that is here may not be tomorrow
Live your life with a sing a song
It's time to enjoy forget the sorrow
Despair might bloom like sunshine
&

love may shower down like rain.
Sometimes there's pain & perhaps it can be soothed.
Live every moment here to your heart's content
The time that is here may not be tomorrow
Someone who close to your heart is more beautiful than all It's not the facial which attract us
It's a kind of feelings which is in between us
Which binds together & connect between us?
Listen your heart's voice you could understand
The silent tone what it wanna say to us Grab onto that person's hand
He or she may not be so gracious tomorrow
Life changes its beauty all the time
Life is a confluence of joy and grief
The time that is here may not be tomorrow
Live your life with a sing a song
It's time to enjoy forget the sorrow
Sometimes it's a shade, sometimes life is sunlight
Live every moment here to your heart's content someone who make you so special never leave that person alone world is like our own home

&
everyone is our own still we need someone who could understand us better who will be with us for forever love is not a jock it's life time resolution for live together love never sees who you are & what you are it doesn't matter which religion you belongs too it's matter only trust & little care it's like a glass once it break no one can repair if you handle with care it will reflect the beautiful image yours handle with love & care you need not to do anything further so live each day like memorable for tomorrow live your life like there is no tomorrow

Life changes its beauty all the time
Life is a confluence of joy and grief
The time that is here may not be tomorrow
Live your life with a sing a song
It's time to enjoy forget the sorrow

TIME WAITS FOR NONE

Oh time oh time
Just wait for mine
I can't run with you
Please wait for mine
I wanna go back to my child hood days
The loving memories & the loving days
Now the world is so busy schedule
I can't sit in peace for a while Many pressures are arising in my mind
Where I should go, what I should do
I wanna do a lot
However my time is short
Oh time oh time
Just wait for mine
I can't run with you
Please wait for mine
Every day I wake up with some promise
However I fail to keep it
I have to fulfill some dream
Which is my life?
Sometimes I feel time is flowing like wind However I stand like
My place is not changing
I am like what I was before
Now I wanna to change myself first Then I could do anything more
However I can't do everything in this little time
Oh time oh time
Just wait for mine
I can't run with you
Please wait for mine
I don't know when my time will be over
&
I can't see the earth further
However I can do one thing
As time is not stopping
I have to run with it
To say the world keeps walking

SWETA LEENA PANDA

Time will come again

I always see life for what it really is Life is like a newborn baby struggling to come out of its mother's womb Whenever I saw a child
I learn how many times falls & rise
My mind overworked.
I lie awake thinking
Everyday is the same Day and the nights happens
I feel I push myself along with the tide Express myself in every way,
Conquer the dreams as I lie awake
It takes many nights for a seed to become a tree.
Without a strong determination
We can never reach our destination
No matter how deep the sadness or wide the pain we have to live for a brighter day will come again.

TORTURE

No change in my life
It's just that there are more people, the old & new faces have appeared, real, imaginary, temporary, and none, sometimes I want to ask god Forgive me as my soul does have but this bitter world gets even darker make me stronger

That nothing can make me cry
I can walk through life alone on a long distant, wayward road...
I travel down a darkened path where tear is my sweetest friend
and See my peace as broken glass, still I am fearless,
and
I never ask for help
The story's told within my eyes, my lips, they long to form a smile my heart wants to rejoice
However mind Says I'll have NO LIGHT!
Sometimes, Somewhere I find light,
I'll march on ahead that place,
Weeping is the melody of a damaged soul like mine
Because I m tired of feeling this way Wasting my breath
Like someone pushing me to the death
In the end
As my eyes start drying
I will not listen to you anymore
Because I m tired of crying
I want to tell my story
To say that I'm a tortured soul
With nothing left to show.
As I'm tortured
And I'm weary,
I'm damaged,
And I'm battered,
My soul may be torn,
My peace may be shattered,
My burdens may be heavy
And I...
I'll have to crawl because I have to get the light Make my life lighted further

True fact of a girl

She's one of a kind.
No one there to guide her
She wonders how her life will be in the end.
Sometimes she goes crazy
Because situation takes her life in that way sometimes she needs perfect shoulders to cry on.
She likes to decorate her mind with lots of good memories she's a kind at heart.
When something is going in wrong.
Still she only looks forward.
She thinks Life is about taking risks.
&
Her life is full of risk
A friend is one who knows you,
But
Loves you anyway...
No matter what people take from her?
But they can't take her dignity.
She's not beautiful on the outside,
But
She is on the inside.
She's a warrior, not a princess
All she wants to feel is love.
A smile can make a person's day.
That's why she smile what ever wrong goes don't matter to her
Her attitude can alter her life.
She likes personality.
She loves making new friends.
She can be a stupid at sometimes times.
To know her is to understand her,
And
To understand her is to love her.
She wants to see the world.
She is not any drama queen.
Nature is her best friend.
Family is everything.
She's a keeper. the right moment.
She might be the one & only.
She wants to make people laugh and smile.
It's hard to look away from her smile.
Behind that smile of her
A heart full of sorrow is there She don't likes to be an experiment of someone... she believes
'A person who never makes mistakes never makes anything.
Work hard and become a leader, or be lazy and never succeed.
Success is doing ordinary things extraordinary well.
Life is a lesson; you'll learn it when you're through... you must always be different Victory is sweetest when you've known defeat.'
She likes to try new things.
She loves to have fun...

All she wants to see the peace.
She don't need a beautiful face
She always needs a person
Who will be with her now & forever?

That must be only & one in her whole life

She wants to learn she hates being judged.
She loves storms.
She has a creative personality.
She doesn't look back at her past.
She is proud of her accomplishments...
She don't like to hurt others
That's why she taste the pain everytime

Every life has a story...
May be painful may be cheerful
But she always try overcome all barrier
&
Look forward to it
&
Take her to go proceed she always do what is right
She writes how she feels.
She looks up to see the heights
She wants to make a difference in someone else's life...
She surprises herself and many other people...
She is smart, just not all the time.
Take the time to know her
And
How much you know that much you wonder she's not always sweet and innocent.
She's crazy but a lovely girl.

True love

True loves means to live forever
where we get our heart in the soul of their eyes
it's a beautiful feeling
You never know what you want
Until he or she made you realize
where you see thousand dreams for the person you love
The one and only who could make you feel special
you can fly a million miles to get your love
you can stand against the storm for that person
You can see his love right through your eyes
like a star revolving around the sun

it's easy to say I fall in love with you
But it's too difficult to keep

Sometimes I wanna love you & trust you
However I surrender my heart my love to you is difficult because I wanna see your love shining through your eyes
however my heart says
Tell me everything and anything you want
and I'll be here waiting whenever you come
Now and Always I have you
this love story I've started from now
what happens next I don't know
The stars will shine for you
they speak what's right & what's truth
this is for you and me
This life is higher than the tides the ocean brings
love is like season which gives you special feelings in time to time
Things may seem little different
However this feeling this heart is still the same
from now to till our death

U Ar My Forever Friend

I m so lucky
To have each other;
You could never be replaced
By another.
There are so many times when we don't Speak at all,
But I know you will answer...
I hated myself when i made you cry you always there to lifted me up And cheered me on You taught me
To never, ever give up.
sometimes you call me mad Arguments are wordless
&
apologies are unneeded.
New memories are made
When we come together...
Through thick and thin,
For now and even after the end,
We stand tall we always together never ever apart...!!!

UNITY IS MY STRENGTH

Time oh! My time
It's time to take the wise decision
Which is matter for me & which is not?
U are so wise
U know how to handle the situation
U know the meaning of love & unity
Rather than competition
In the battle field of my life
I myself is a self competitor
The competition is with me
It up lifts me
Rather than loosing something Competition is good thing
However here you lose something
I know the meaning of unity
I take the decision of my own
I know how to handle the situation
Unity is my power
Unity is my strength
Unity is my everything
Be united & show to this world
That you can do it
Never be hurry for win
It's the beginning of loosing yourself
Be calm & think about the situation again Rather than hungry for win
Which is better for me?
I have to choose the priority
I have to do something
I will do everything I want
However by means of love
Not by competition
I know one day I surely win
That's the win over the millions heart
Rather than loosing anyone
I know the meaning of love & unity & how to work out it Win over someone's heart is best way to win
I proud I can do it Win over million's heart is matter for me
It's the best way of win
Which is more precious than loosing?
I am wise
I know the meaning of competition
Still something I believe
It's better to give up
When it comes to a precious relation
I give more emphasize on relation than competition
My competition is with me
Which always tell me to do more work how much you can?
Because I know love & unity is better way to win over the whole world Which make me strong?

Which is my first duty?
For me the Unity is Heart full of Peace
Heart full of Harmony Attitude of Understanding
Will of Cooperation Flame of Love
Bowl of Humanity
Feelings of Equality
Smiles of Happiness
I know the meaning of unity
That's why it's my first priority

SWETA LEENA PANDA

VOICE OF A VICTIM

It is the rhythmic beating in my mind
Powerful, intense, singing louder, finding power as each day I survive
I am no longer a Victim.
The word I always hated before
I am now a Survivor.
I can't talk to nobody,
I feel like nobody understands,
I live as a Victim in fear.
I live as a Survivor endures.
I live as a Victim is weak and powerless, so I pick up some paper
And
Grab me a pen.
You see me smile, but if you only knew the things that I hold on to,
and
Just can't seem to let go.
But I don't really think that I actually do
I spoke up, no one listened.
So it continued on and I just didn't mention, the road from one to the other was a long journey, which has no end, only new beginnings.
As a Survivor has grown strong the things that went on that night I watched the Moon go down the sun came up someone was knocking at my door for help I couldn't help but cry & weep in pain
Because i was so scared
Darkness and silence,
Silence and fear,
Fear and pain,
Pain and terror,
A crack in the door, a sliver of night,
Rushes of insanity, claws of dreams sink into the mind's flesh,
Please, oh please, let this all end.
Over and over and over again.
I think about it every now and then.
Have trouble sleeping at night.
My mind & heart always says
I need Courage and peace,
Peace and support,
Support and encouragement,
Encouragement and love, that can make me the person like before Then I found a solution
Is to open up and speak,

But when I spoke
No one heard me.
No one try to understand me
When that voice in my head keeps saying, then my heart said
You wasting your time no one cares about you.
I'm just glad that God gave me a pen, paper, and the ability to write.
Because when I feel like no hears me,
I just write.
there is a rhythmic beating
in my mind
Powerful, intense, singing louder,
I wanna to strong again.
I wanna to brave again.
I wanna in love again.
I wanna loved again.
I wanna to change myself like before again

WANNA BE KID ONCE AGAIN

oh my mom
I wanna be Ur little kid once again can you pray for me before your God
Some images still etches in my eyes
How you all take my all Decisions
I was the princess for my dad & how you dress up me as i couldn't do anything by myself
There was no Race issue
No arguing or fighting about who will stand the fast in the class
No tension about Money issues
As it was always handled me whenever I want My all requirements are always fulfilled
I never feel anything empty
I hate to be growing old Sometimes i wanna stop that 'aging' issue which has only power to stop my growing tissues
&
i know it's impossible still i wish for
oh my mom
can i say something to you?
I feel like i miss something Every time a tension kills me inside
What's your future?
I wanna to go back to my childhood days
There was a magic in my daddy's hand
How I always defeated in chess game
I was tempted after that & every time i decide not to play again Nobody was prettier than u & dad.
it was really so funny
How I always waited for Saturday & Sunday morning cartoons
How the princess tales were my favorite Snow-white & cinderella & tom & jerry I watched most
&
Sunday was my happiest day of all as it tension free day
No teacher, no parents scold you for homework Still drawing class was there but I too love my drawing aunt
As she always gave me good grades in my arts Which I loved most
I remind how I couldn't control my emotions & kissed on her chick Whenever she gave me good marks
&
In return I always got two more kisses form my great drawing aunty she was really so cute & loving lady Still some cruel teachers were there who gave us heavy homework for Sunday & most of time I hate to do that I knew everything but I was so lazy to do it as homework

It was really funny how I punished & act like crying as our mind worked fast we always got different ideas how to escape from the teachers Some teacher were really very kind hearten still some were very cruel
It was so funny how we called different teachers in our unique name
That was really amazing time
How our every mistakes were always forgiven by others
No tension to world & no one matters Only matters love
oh my mom
I miss those days
I wanna go back
Now the life became a busy schedule
Now there is a great fear to do any mistake Problems in every steps
Sometimes my State of mind Wrinkles showing Life is unkind
I feel like its really full boring
Nothing to enjoying Tension for your duty & life achievements Sometimes I feel let's enjoy the life Forget it all
Now I only wish for enjoying life
I will try my best as I can
As it is very short but I always believe childhood life is best life ever As balloons & pillow were the ultimate weapon Worst fight was between your own siblings That was also so funny how we fought in a small matter Fight also converted into love in a few second your parents were your great protectors.
Really you don't have to take any tension
When I growing older
Fight meaning is changed
Which can take many lives & the main weapon is nuclear bomb
The fight is now in between two religion & two nations
This is the worst & even if silly as I think Which unnecessarily take many lives?
That's why I love my childhood day as that was the best there was no difference between us as we all were same no religion matters & no person only matters friendship & love
oh my mom
Can you give me back my childhood days
It's my only request before you & even if before my lord

As I know it's not possible
But yes I can pray for a healthy world with lots of love & mutual understanding another wish before my lord to convert the mind & heart of adult In to a child heart
Because a child is a message for love & peace That's why I would love to be a KID once again! ! !
oh my mom can you promise me to pray about this matter in front of your lord it's my great message to all the human being win vs lose

Win is difficult
However give up easily.

Win means confident on you
However lose means doubt yourself.

Win means you make the decisions and dare to do it However lose means you are never fully committing.

Win means you have enthusiasm for what you do
However lose means you are not excitable.

Win means you keep moving forward
However lose means stepping back more than forward.

Win means you take the risks
However lose means you are risk adverse.

Win means you overcome the challenges presented
However lose means you let the challenges overcome you.

Win means you demonstrate a positive attitude
However lose means you demonstrate a negative attitude.

Win means you find the opportunities
However lose means you wait for the opportunities win means you use your time efficiently and effectively However lose means you procrastinate.

Win means you set your goals you take action, you set deadlines
However lose means you think about it but never set concrete plans.

Win means you demonstrate by find solutions However lose means you can only see the problems win means in life you choose your attitude However lose means in life you lose your attitude

YOU ARE ONE

Oh my lord
Where ever I come to your place
I feel a kind of fragrance
&
I lose my control
I feel one kind of peace is there
A peaceful mind & heart
When I came to your lane
I only saw the truth
You teach me how to tell the truth
As you are idol of truth
Oh my lord
Never ever leave me alone
Now if you leave me
Then I will not be able to recover
I had asked you many things
Had seen so many dreams, had tried a lot Every time you help me by giving me hope & making me strong Whenever I come to your place
My eyes shaded away from all sorts of worries & unknown tears filled in my eyes
I don't know why
With bowing head in a second
I always say
Thank you for everything you give me
Thank you for make me strong
Thank you for your support & love
&
showing me beauty in my path Sometimes I feel I have only faith on yours
I feel you are within me
I feel you're in every breath, in every soul
I feel you're in every beginning and every end
I feel in every stare and word spoken
I feel you in every Nobel work
I feel you with in poor people
I feel you're in loved ones and in strangers one I feel you're in every part of me
You are my love, my god
Then why do we search for you
You are one
You are present in every where & everyone's heart
Still people search you I feel strange when one brother kills another brother
To show his god's power
I feel there's nothing greater than receiving your love
Only one request before my lord
Teach your sons & daughter as you are not different
You are one, so that we can get a peace

Come this world & remove all confusions
O my lord
I know one day you will give them brain
To realize this truth

YOU REMEMBER ME

Time which always just slips away
and some memories will be left with yesterday
A smile comes in my face
When I think of you
&
Our cheerful days
which making me delight for sometime
Through the time everything changed
Though we go our separate ways
However I can't forget the past days
The memories we made
"I wish you remember me & our past days"
Please remember the past days
The time we were together
&
Promises we made
The time was yours and mine
while we were child and free
"I wish you remember me and our past days"
Goodbye is the painful word for me to say
&
It's sad to walk away
It's true we all will die one day
However it's a painful Goodbye
Till now I couldn't believe my eyes & ears
That you walk away
"I wish you remember me & our past days"
Some images etched in my eyes
How we were together at all situations
You were there for me
&
I were there for you

&
You always made me laugh at my painful days
&
How we share our thoughts
I stood by you & you stood by me
we wrote our names across the stone in the beaches
time passes so fast
which made me cry
I have only one wish before God
"You remember me & our past days"

Your dream

Close your eyes for little time Close your eyes and dream you can go anywhere, can do anything, meet anyone Take one step at a time and don't settle for less,
Just continue to climb.
&
Follow your dream.
Take you on adventures never told you can fly above the mountains you can swim in the deep blue sea Often your tasks will be many,
&
More than you think you can do.
Often the road will be rugged
&
The hills insurmountable, too.
But always remember,
The hills ahead
Are never as steep as they seem you can conquer every fear
There's no need to be frightened
Just open up your mind & felt with your dream
It's a great big world around us
&
A power with us
if you trust in God's wisdom and will.
For faith is a mover of mountains,
There's nothing that God cannot do,
So, start out today with faith in your heart,
&
climb 'til your dream comes true!

Your love

You said you love me
So I care
You said you believe me
So I share
You said you love smile
So I hide my tear
However my realization comes very late
You played a game with my heart
So I let you to go
It affects me more than you
I am stuck wondering
How our love is just a game for you However my stupid heart glows more When urn thoughts come Still my heart cries & says
I can't leave without you
&
Try to find good within you
