Jamie Haddock(11-15-72)

When i have felt alone or brokenhearted, I have always turned to my pencil and paper. I guess tragedy has been a big motivator for me. I have lost loved ones to death and suicide, I have lost my freedom, I have lost my family and friends, have had my heart ripped right out of my chest, and I've even lost my faith. At times I didn't want to go on another day but then I'd sit down to write a poem and that seemed to really get me out of that stage. I always felt a sense of accomplishment and peace after finishing a poem. God has restored my faith and I'd like to dedicate all my work past and present to God for giving me a talent that helps me to deal. I hope you enjoy my ebook.

Anything

Have you ever made love underneath the moonlight, Wished upon a star with all your might,
Have you ever really believed in fate,
ANYTHING to ease the ache.

Have you ever been touched in just the right place,
Felt the warmth of a lovely face,
Have you ever danced nude out in the rain,
ANYTHING to ease the pain.

Have you ever layed in grass thats damp with dew,
Watched the sun come into view,
Have you ever been carressed by the scent of spring,
ANYTHING to ease the sting.

Have you ever walked barefoot in the sand,
Or maybe ran as fast as you can,
Have you ever made mud pies out of dirt,
ANYTHING to ease the hurt.

Have you ever been alone in the dark,
As you nursed a broken heart, ?
Have you felt those feelings that cut so deep,
Tell me, have you ever cried yourself to sleep? ?

Breakdown

Ya hold me down and slap my face
The pain you've caused I can't erase
Now your back and want to stay
What do you expect me to say

I've let you go and I've moved on I've turned the page, that chapters gone
I've shut the door, you cant go through
Break it down and you're gonna lose

When I was there before you
You wanted something new
Now that I've gone my way
You say your sorry and that you've paid

If only I could believe you
Because my love for you was true
But now this I have to share
I just don't care, I really don't care

I've let you go and I've moved on Ive turned the page, your chapters gone
I've shut the door, you cant go through
Break it down and you WILL lose

Cocaine

My minds been eaten up with rust
My thoughts are covered with white dust
I've got no one I can trust
I'm surrounded by all this shit
Can't turn it away
Its to hard to quit
Im on my way down,
To the devils pit! !
I can feel the heat from the blazing flames,
Its so intense it drives me insane
I'm just a prisoner
Of this deadly Cain!

Jamie Haddock

Forgive Me Lord Give Me Strength

Forgive me Lord for I am a sinner
I know the truth and yet I fall
I ask your forgiveness for I'm letting the devil drag me down
Telling me I'm not worthy of your call

Strengthen me O Lord make me strong
So I may rebuke the Devil, So I do no wrong
I am so weak, Depression has set in Give me the power to not give in Forgive me Lord perhaps I'm low in faith
I know the word but Im still at the Devils feet

Give me strength O Lord
For I am so weak

Goodbye

You told me all you wanted
Was someone to treat you right
Make Love to you
And try to treat you right
Well I gotta tell ya babe I tried
Made Love to you untill the morning light
And when I'd go down on you
You'd say thats what you like
In the dawn of the morning
You were by my side
Only me and you
There was nothing to hide
The times came for me to realize
When you told me of this someone
It wasn't me you had on your mind
Although I always knew it was just in fun
Its a funny thing how you'd say
You never wanted to say goodbye
But the jokes on me
Because I'm not the one by your side! !

Happy & Drug Free

Oh I just gotta know where the rainbow goes
Does it touch land
just not where I stand...
I just can't get it right
I've been up all night
Losing my mind
Losing time
I really dont know why I let myself go
Listen to my plea
I just wanna be
Happy & Drug Free! ! !

He Is There

I'm driving through a thunder storm.
Lightning flashes and the thunder rolls
Through the wipers I can't see ahead,
Sometimes that's life, but God Knows;

In our lives when it is raining and the sun doesn't want to shine
Jesus stands there beside me
He never leaves, Hes there all the time.

When we call out to God in pain
Wondering if the sun will shine again
Maybe we should take time to pray
That tomorrow may be a brighter day

Jesus knows the hurt we feel
With his nail scarred hands reached out
He is there and He does care
So don't you ever doubt

He Waited Patiently

Lord knows Ive lived my life in sin,
I opened the door and let the devil in.
I have committed crimes and I have done some time.
But He was there waiting patiently
He waited patiently
He waited just for me
He waited for the day that I would find my way
And as I fell upon my knees
I praised the Lord for waiting patiently.

How Much Can A Heart Take

I feel lost in a nightmare
Only I stand here awake
Listening to a mother cry
As her son was lowered into his grave

She had stood beside his open casket
Screaming out in disbelief
'Get up son, Please get up! ! !'
Were the only words she'd speak

And I wondered if he thought of her
When he picked up that gun
And took his own life
Her one and only son

before it's weak enough to break
Will we ever get past the emptiness
AFTER
The Angel of Death has taken away our laughter! ! !

I'M Not The Person I Use To Be

I've wasted many days and nights
Searching for that all time high
Trying to get that feeling right
It didn't matter at that time
Living life was more than I could bare
So thats why I comitted my crime.
Being locked up has showed me
The things I've done were wrong
Its opened my eyes and made me see
I've been wasting my life all along.
Please believe me when I say
I am a different person now.
When I'm free I'm going to live each day
The best way I know how Nothing like it was lived before
Because now I'm totally free
I dont want that life any more
For I'm not the person I use to be.

Jamie Haddock

I've Let You Down

I know that I've screwed up
It's hard when that shits around
I feel really bad now because I've let you down

How can I let you know
I want to be so much more
All the things you deserve
Everything you've been looking for

I want to make you happy
Like a blessing from above
I want you to feel it from head to toe
Nothing but my love

I really am sorry
That I've screwed up again
I just have to keep fighting
Because I believe one day I'll win

I know I should've said NO
Turn around and walk away
I made the wrong choice
And have failed again today

I know I've really hurt you
This in turn hurts me
If only I could be stronger
And the person you want me to be

I will keep trying
Fighting the fight
Praying you don't give up on me
While I'm trying to get it right

Jail

I knew it was to late
After I'd had my court date
I don't know if it was fate
But now I'm a detainee of the state
No matter that this Jail I hate
If only I'd known my freedom was at stake
But now all I can do is sit here and wait
For the day I can exit this gate.

Jamie Haddock

King Of Kings

In the morning thou shalt hear my voice,
Our heavenly King, will I rejoice,
It is He that makes me strong,
All day long, I will sing His song.
When the world tries to trouble me.
I enter into prayer and pray unto thee,
For all things we can trust,
With God, who made us from dust.
He gave His only begotten Son,
For the sins that we have done,
Now I'm hidden In the shadow of His wings,
Jesus Christ, Lord of Lords, and King of Kings.

Lifes Hurts

Sometimes this life hurts us in so many ways.
We don't understand it but there it still lays.
Fly balls we can't catch, curve balls we can't hit.
We've just got to know we can never quit.
What goes wrong may be just today.
Tomorrow may hold an open play.
Although it hurts so much we just don't realize
If we just look up the sun still shines in the sky.

Little Sister

As I listen to that guitar scream
Sounds ring out my destiny
A stronger power grabs ahold of me
Shocks me with a volt of electricity
My intistance explodes onto the floor
Red blood begins to shadow my mind
Extacy brings out a whore
Her shattered innocence has made her blind

Dont cry little sister
I can feel your need
Youre not to blame for your indecency
Dont cry little sister
Its not your fault
That the demons within have tore your soul apart
Ill always love ya little sister
Youve done no wrong
Although the demons reach out to kiss ya
Never feel you dont belong

Lives Crumbled

Have you ever felt at the end of your rope
When everything seems lost even all hope
Your dreams fading fast makes it hard to cope
Lives crumbled and all because of dope...

I've seen it happen so many times
Knowing the cost of just one line
Not the money but in our lives
Peice by peice we are destroyed alive...

Jamie Haddock

Loner

I've never cared much
A heart too cold to touch
Separated from society
Made anger my priority
In a world where everyone's so quick to judge

I've always been alone
Surrounded by walls of stone
Blocking out the pain
An emptiness I can't explain
Loneliness is all I know

Jamie Haddock

Loser

I ponder on my thoughts
It seems the thing to do
Wondering why I've got A tendency to lose

Even though I keep walking forward
I still fall behind
No matter how hard I try
I can't better this life of mine

When did I lose my way?
Or have I been lost all along
Trying so hard to get things right
Yet everything I do is wrong

I don't even know why I try
When all I do is to no avail
Sometimes I just want to die
Because this can't be much worse than hell

Jamie Haddock

Lost Goodbyes

Have you ever searched a bookshelf for a book on lost goodbyes
Do you think maybe a deaf ear can hear our lonesome cries
What would I say now that you're gone
You've left me here alone, wishing I would've known
What to say, if I would've had a chance that day
If only I would have seen it coming
You were straying away all along
I wish I would have seen something but I was blind and now you're gone
No one knows where the lightning strikes
Until it hits the ground, just like us
When our lost goodbyes were never found
Goodbye my friend I hope someday
Lost Goodbyes will find their way

Jamie Haddock

Mother Earth

The winds are blowing colder leaves fall to the ground
Mother Earth wants us to hold her
As she screams out without a sound

Nothing stays the same time goes by and people change
Love turns into hate
As we let Mother Earth get out of range

Dont give into the Lonliness
Dont give into the hate
Lets leave all that in the past
It can never be to late

Jamie Haddock

My Brother

Sometimes I hurt and wonder why
What did I do to deserve this life
Does God hate me or is this game
The game of living, its all the same
Sometimes I think I'd be better off dead
But then again, thats what my brother said
Now he's gone, he pulled the trigger
I don't understand, who would figure
How could he go and leave us this way
Now I just take it day by day
He's now an Angel, watching over me
Keeping me going the way it has to be
He wants me to live to watch over mother
But oh how I wish, I still had my brother.

Jamie Haddock

My Everything

How could I ever tell you
You mean the world to me
Sometimes I dont show it
But you are my everything

How could I ever tell you
You bring meaning to my life
Your Love is so sweet
My beautiful innocent child

How could I ever tell you
That when you are away
I miss you like crazy
And wish you were here to play

How could I ever tell you
How much I really Love you
Your always in my thoughts
Your in my dreams too

I dont tell you enough
What you really mean to me
You are so very special
You ARE my everything

Jamie Haddock

Scream

As these thoughts come crowding me
Dont ya know, I just wanna scream
Ive lost my home and my family
Dont ya know, I just gotta scream

SCREAM

Now down this path I walk alone
Dont ya know, I just wanna scream
Wondering if i will ever belong
Dont ya know I just gotta scream

With nothing left but my memmories
Dont ya know, I just wanna scream
O yea, it really sucks to be me
Dont ya know I just gotta scream

SCREAM

Looking for reasons to live
Dont ya know, I just wanna scream
Because right now Id rather be dead
Dont ya know I just gotta scream

SCREAM

My ears are beginning to ring
My knees are shaking me
In this zone I can not breathe
And still, , , , ,
Ive got to SCREAM! ! ! !

Jamie Haddock

Thank You Lord

Like a stricken child
Lost in the storm
I had to find my father
I had to be reborn
He blessed me with his
Forgiving grace
My sins washed away
Without a trace
He said whatever I ask
Then it will be
But all I ask now
Is to be under His wings
Thank You Lord
For taking me in
For keeping me safe
And away from sin

The Inside

A wondering maze Lost in this place
I cant seem to find the end
A friendly face Hides any trace
Of whats lying around the bend

Maybe I didn't see My eyes beggining to bleed
Cause it didn't cross my mind
Look on the Inside
Maybe I didn't want to see Your eyes could lie to me
I guess i just forgot
Look on the Inside

Lost without a clue Never knowing what to do
And I wonder if I'll ever know
Each corner I go around I lose sight of whats to be found
And I wonder which way will I go

Maybe I didn't see My eyes beggining to bleed
Cause it didnt cross my mind
Look on the inside
Maybe I didnt want to see Your eyes lying to me
I guess I just forgot
Look on the Inside

This maze I'm beggining to learn
Each time I make a wrong turn
Go on the Inside

Theres No Way To Describe

Theres no way to describe what Im feeling inside
None of my dreams could even compare
To this Love that we share
Just seeing a smile on your face
Puts all the pieces into place
And when Im wrapped in your arms so strong
I know Ive finally found where I belong
Theres no way to describe
The way I feel when I look into your eyes
The passion that burns way down deep
Inside my soul where only youve reached
These feelings I feel to my very core
And there feelings Ive never felt or experienced before
So how could I describe
This fire I have burning inside
Flames that run from head to toe
That I feel like I could possibly explode
I cant describe the way you make me feel
I can only tell you its all so real! ! !

Time

I think back on past times
Back when we were young
It seems so long ago
When were alone having fun
Those times went by so fast
When we were lovers & we were friends
Its ironic how slow time goes by now
Because its only time till were together again
I will wait here for the time
When this time is done and we can lay here together
Our time as one! ! !

Tumbleweed

Have you ever seen a tumbleweed a'tumbling along the street and wonder how nice it'd be if that tumbleweed had a place to go

Well ya know that that tumbleweed is tumbling for a place to be and the funny thing is I can see Alot of myself in that tumbleweed

Oh tumble tumbleweed tumble for a place to be tumbling O so free
That tumbleweed is alot like me!

Whats Real Is The Pain Inside

No wishes will be granted on the stars tonight,
And the sun wont lend the moon its light.
No magic lingers in the air,
And nobody really truly cares.

It was all a fairytale you were told as a child,
What is really real is the pain inside.
Believe in your dreams and they will never die,
I actually listened and believed that lie.

You will never find gold at the end of a rainbow,
And Cupids arrow never left its bow.
Life is no sundae with a cherry on top,
Its one misery after another and it never stops.

Just dont expect wishes to come true,
Then maybe you wont hurt as bad as I do.
I use to beleive in the stars at night,
But whats real is the pain inside.

Jamie Haddock

Whats Wrong With Me?

Whats wrong with me
Was I blinded and just couldn't see
Why does it bother me
These are the questions that follow me
What was I thinking
With my head spinning
I fell in love with you
Knowing you can never love me too
Because your heart belongs to another
And in your eyes I see you love her
So I had to walk away
There were no words left to say
Now thats why I spend my time alone
Wondering what happened
What went wrong
Because you used to be my best friend
Before our time together came to an end
If only I would have known
I'd end up alone
Would I've done things differently
I just dont know! ! !
