Can Anyone

can anyone tell me what to do can anyone tell how every thing doing for some one i don't think so but i do know that the only person who really know is you..... can some one tell me why i still love my 1st love can some one just be there for me then tell me why i should not be with him again.... can some one just shut me up and call him and i really love him so much words cant explain how much i love him no one can tell me to move on when i cant move on because he is the only man i well love no other dude can not take he place can you tell me that no one been threw this you know that everyone in one points has been what i said....

you behind your back.....

never trust anyone that you dont really know

or don't trust your friends even though they known you for a while or your whole life and your family you never know they could be some cold blooded famliy you cant trust them you just can't trust no one or anyone

Crying Out For Help D:

im trying so hard to not cry because so many things happen to me and i just dont want to feel dumb to cry....i do so want to cry but shy to cry cause im a shame to cry front of famly member and friends i jsut dont want them to make fun of me.....

jenny sar

Dont Go Back To Someone Who Hits You

you thinks its ok to hit a woman guess what it ain't see i don't understand why womens need a man who hits them to death and they still want them i know they have babies with them but still no womens need that in theirs lives.....every womens on this earth should know that mans are dicks and they dont know what they have so yeah they beat you down get out no going back just go with your kids i know you love him but if he really love you he wouldn't hit you he would of treat like a queen

Dont Look Back

because if you do its just gonna make everything more worst then it is all ready, even though you might want to look back and you know nothing can change all you can do is don't look back just keep going forward everyone always say what if i did look back and i did something difference then i did but it would be the same thing nothing would be the same so just don't look back just go forward

jenny sar

How Can I?

How can i let go a friend that i show me how to not let things get to me how do i let go a friend that was there for me?

even though i didn't want my friend to help me but my friend was there for me matter what goes down my friend was always there when i needed someone to be there for me how can i just not talk to my friend when my friend was there for me and no one was....

i'm so confused i don't know if i should be friends with that person or should i just not be friends with that person again i know my friend did things to me that i didn't like but my friend showed me how things are and how i can i not be friends with this person?

how i can?

I Found Something

i found something that i never thought i could find in anyone or should say me because i do know im going threw so many things in my life so i thought you would understand but i guess i was just fooling my self you did say that i can ask you for anything but i cant the only person who i can relay on is me not you or anyone

jenny sar

I Love You Not

i wish i could know how other see how you treated me

AND I WOULDN'T BE SO STUCK ON YOU

NOW I'M DONE WITH YOU AND NEVER GONNA SAY I LOVE YOU TO ANYONE BECAUSE SAYING I LOVE YOU TO SOMEONE JUST MAKE YOU LOOK LIKE A FOOL and i know for now i will never say i love you to you and i know now that love is a word that everyone just threw around cause sound good to say..... like you did to me saying you really love me and i really didn't believe in love till u came along but now i'm back where i was before like i said i never will and ever gonna fall for someone who gonna hurt me like you did..... but you will always be my 1st love and last no one gonna hear me say i love you because it's hurt too much to say it to

jenny sar

MY HEART IS ACHING

Because I'm so in pain when you feel like a mile away from everything you had

Tell me why most guys just want to get in gurls pants then want to know who they are.....when guys say they like one of us we really think they like us not for our body or just our look...we gurls do want them guys to tell us gurls that were pretty but we want them to really want to be more then just gurl they want to get in our pants.....is there any guys out there who like us gurl for what we are not for our body

tell me why

Theres Is Time

there is time when you just want to end your life but really you don't because you know there more to life

then ended your life theres so many time where you think about hurting your self in time its gonna change so sit back and watch how your life gonna change in a blink eye so wen you think of ended your life just think about what gonna happen if you did that! ! remember about the ones who love you you might think theres no one who care and love you there is theres time wen you just want a new beinging of life and you can just theres is a time wen its gonna happen for ya and all i want to do is say love your self then loving me

im walking to the left to the right i am glad nothing happen between me and you because one day it went bad for me and you so let just say this show me that You realize how much you love some one when your not together and you realize that you would do anything for them you know that it hurt that you even let that person go but you had to do that just to know if that person still love you....when you realize how much you love some one you can't think straight all you can do is wait for that person to call back
