jess bards(21st of august 1993) im a kiwi girl

i was raped and at the moment pregnant with the guys triplets there all girls im 15 and have had my fair share of adoptions 10 to be corrected i write poems to show how i feel and dance for the same reason i do ballet, hip hop, jazz, tap dance and a few others i had my girls one died but the other 2 are healthy there called deanne and cazna

All Alone

have you ever felt all alone in a crowd room baby all i want is you i only wanna grow old with you im dreaming baby i thought you came from out of the blue you were with me all this time its true what they say love is blind we need to make our own way of living keep out of the judgmental eyes rewind the laughter fast forward the fights pause at everytime you smile play just from there stop at the end of forever

All Love Is

love is like a earthquake unpredictable a little scary but when the hard part is over you relise how truely lucky you are

Believe In Something

Tell me your dreams, I'll tell you mine, In our hearts we'll look inside,
And see all of the colors of the rainbow, I know!

I want to see beyond my own little world, Grab your hands so we can twirl around the galaxy, see the world with clarity.

It fills the universe,
It lights the skies above,
It rescues our hearts with love,

Anyone can have a day
When their heart is on their sleeve No one wants to see it our way Can't agree to disagree You'd think it'd be easier But it feels like you just can't win But somehow we'll make it work Cause we deserve it- you know we're worth it You can't give up on friends

Choosing My Fate

why dont you let me go? why dont you walk away?
why dont you do the same thing everyone else does to me?
are you playing with my heart? or do you love me? ive heard that to many times before what are you going to do now? are you going to leave me on my own? or are you going to stay?
can i trust you?
or are you just going to hurt me? every time you leave i worry are you going to come back.

Dearly Beloved

are you listing your reading her book her pages keep on turning in her life but nothing changes it would be the perfect crime if i stole your heart and you stole mine shes just a girl take a good look she just the prototype.

jess bards

Forever

stupid butterflies in my stomach stupid wishes on dandelions stupid hearts on my paper stupid me
stupid you stupid love but with you i feel like i'll live forever all the problems i have or i had disappears stupid choices
stupid me
stupid you
why did i think you truley loved me

Hands Held High

people killin people dying children hurt and you hear them crying when the rich wage war its the poor who die you will never truly understand why they cry bleed for them cry for them live for them die for them you dont know the pain they feel inside.

I Guess Not

you see some guy in a superman t-shirt and all you want to do is shoot him in the chest and go

Is It Possible

since when did being diffrent become bad? since when did speaking your mind become offinseive? since when did asking for honesty get you lies? since when did judging become right?
since when did racsim, war and segregation appeal? since when did child abuse become normal?
and most inportantly can we reverse it?

Just Me Boy

you have her here wrapped around your finger. laughing away cause you know you going to leave her. its all a stupid game called love you play her heart strings like a harp except the sound is of hate. what could of brought her to this treibble fate. she can survive on her own shes not afraid to do it it just easier with you to help her through it.
now you've chucked her to the ground shes never trust anyone since now shes miss Independent now shes the girl that needs no help. shes in her own world she works effortlessly always makes the perfect grades. shes a boss shes made for a boss shes telling everyone to get lost. dont mess with this girl she'll take you to the ground.

My Life Im Living

this is my poem this is my song my song just to sing how it all went wrong im searching for words to beggin at the start my mind cant remeber nor can my heart where did i learn this was i born with this curse with my wisdom and age will it only get worse yet still do i wonder if this wrong is so right do i repent for my darkness or indulge in delight

My Love Is Yours

My love for you is bigger than this world, It's stronger than a man's strength, It's wider than the sky, It's deeper than ocean, It's more lasting than happiness,
And more warmer than the summer.
I know some people say We've only known each other a little while,
But it feels like forever.
You're the only one who'll see me for what I am
And not judge me.
When I act weird,
You'll laugh with me.
When I get angry,
You'll try to understand me.
When I cry,
You'll comfort me.
When I do what I want,
You'll be there to do it with me.
You are my mind,
My heart,
My soul,
My life,
My world.
When you smile,
I want to kiss you to kiss me.
When you kiss me,
I want you to hold me.
When you hold me,
I just can't let you go.
Your lips are so smooth, Your arms are so strong,
Your embrace is so safe,
Your skin is so soft,
Your voice is so comforting,
And your love is so quenching.
I can't get enough of you.
I want you.
I need you.

I love you.

Not Your Type

IM SORRY IM NOT

cute, smart, pretty, sexy beautiful, dependent, slutty dramatic, attractive, dumb popular, skinny, rich

YOUR TYPE

please dont pretend you care then crush my heart into tiny bite sized pieces with a side order of my dignity covered with self-respect sauce

jess bards

One Lonley Tear

if a teardropp is a sign of strength why is it so hurtful to cry?

Pathing The Path

dont go where the path leads instead go where theres no path and leave a trail xox

The Pain Of Life

some days it hurts to just see you some times it hurts to be near you you broke my life it to thousands of pieces i felt like we were romeo and juliet "romeo save me i feel so alone" my heart was scattered everywhere when you dropped it at my feet expecting me to pick it up my friends said that the chance of a guy like you loving a girl like me was a billion to 1 i wish i listened i wish i never cared you draged my heart across the ground in the dirt you were the letter i wished i never opened the car i never drove the life i was never living im sealing this promise with a kiss like the girl i truely am

jess bards

The Shadows

the light of day the dark of night the clouds of rain

when i thought i was alone there you were following me hiding behind me like my shadow the shadow that killed me that, the shadow that spilt my blood the marks of death you were jealous i had nothing you had everything but you still wanted what i had how could i love you for what you did to me the cold knife that layed across my neck the first cut the first bleed the first move to kill me and take the little i had you wrote your name on the bullet and aimed it at my head so you were the last thing that went throw my mind

jess bards

Waiting On You

I'm all alone
In a place that i don't know cant remember how i got here without you
And if i had my way I'd be with you all day im waiting on you to come and rescue me we're so far away and yet im making it through I'm waiting on you
On a broken down highway where does it end, I'm doing things my own way, don't care what people say I swear I'll run to you through the pouring rain in the middle of darkness you light the way i swear you stole my heart I'm waiting on you

jess bards

When Your Alone

your never alone when we are miles apart your the only thing in my heart you hold my life you hold my heart i could walk this world alone but that would never work i could end up in the arms of a jerk he would hit me then hold me he would threaten to kill me then kiss me my life would move on but the hole would gasp for something to fill it you are the trees to my forest the buzz to my bee the soul to my body the love for my life

jess bards

Why Why Why

why do you make me cry just to hold me why do you make me hate you so you can love me why do you raise your fist to make me listen why did you hurt me just to end up with me walking away why did i cry and let you hold me why did i hate you so you could love me why did i listen when you raise you fist why do i stay just to let it all replay

jess bards

Why You Left

where did you go
why did you leave
why am i being so naive

you were my dad you held my soul you left me you broke it

why did you leave

you were my mum i was in your arms you put me down lead me away let some stranger into my days

what did i do you said that you loved me but i proved you wrong

jess bards

Worth My Time

gorgeous eyes gorgeous smile

made her life worth the while broken soul broken heart

the day made her world fall apart
