Accept Me

All I want is me.. just me
But it would never happen
It's always about the cute guy
Or the good looking guy
Not the simple guy
Or you call it the average guy
But NO! !
Did you ever look that guy you call average
NO! ! ! !
Always the cute guy
The cute guy who always plays around
You judge me on my looks Nothing but that
Accept me for who I am
The simple guy
Not who I have to be?
Trying hard something I'm not
I'm just average guy or just me
I'm happy right now
Just being me

Childhood

why so hard to say goodbye its just a word goodbye.
we always say the that they said im running away that's im good about it running away running away my problem i been running away all my life it just the way i'am i always put my happy face even dip inside i'm hearting really i always hide it i was bottle up since when was young i cried all time every night my aunts and my uncle this destroy my childhood they make me clean there house wake me up early morning to buy some grocery in four oclock in morning but all there kids sleeping didnt i complain cuz i'm just there nephew i feel like they own my soul when my dad ask what's wrong?
i said there's not wrong dad with a smile even though my body is ache with the pain i wanna tell him but i cant cuz he to much going on rising us four kids doing two job a father and a mom making sure where doing ok that's way i always

Dream Alone

I woke up with tears in my eyes
And i remember the dream i had
I saw myself standing the middle the road Looking at poeple where fasting by
And stand there waiting for someone talk to or ask me
But no one came
I felt so alone
I felt i dont exsist in this world i felt pain in my heart like thousand needle poking my heart
Its was so cold
The rain keep foring and foring
I stayed at the same place
I was soaking wet
No one i been bother ask me
Are you ok? ?
Do you need umbrella? ? ?
I was alone in a cold dark weather
I cried and i cried no heard me
I yell and yell then people can hear me
No one stop
No one care
No one bother

I

I still I need you
I still love you
I still I like you
I still I care for you
I still want you
I still remember how happy we are back then
I still remember how I love you back then I still remember how your lips left back then I still remember how you look at me back then I still remember how you love me back then I still remember how you smile to me back then Until I still remember it
I try a lot of things to get over you
I still can't
Everytime I wake up in middle of night there tears in my eyes
All remember it's you
I can't explain why there tears at my eyes when i wake up
The only thing I can recall it's your face
I don't want this
These feelings that I felt Regrets, pain, loneliness, emptiness
It's been a year when we both when down to our separate way
I until now your still here in my heart
Sometimes think about if were still together
Maybe will never felt this
There's nothing I can't do Just move on Move on my life
But there's always be apart of me
Will look back and wanted to be with him

I Hate You

Hate you
Hate you whenever you say hi to me
Hate you whenever you try to makes me smile
Hate you whenever you're around me
Hate you whenever I'm sad you always makes me laugh
Hate you whenever you pretend nothing happen
Hate you whenever you here for me
When I needed you
You know the most hate is me
Because letting you go
The person I care
Seeing him with someone he cares
It's hard
That's why hate you

I Saw You

The moment I saw you
I felt something different
I felt nervous
I felt there's a butterfly in my stomach
But felt so good
That I never felt before
Knowing that fact maybe your right person
That I was looking for a long time
When you look me in the eyes I felt special
When you kiss me so felt good
Like I'am melting like an ice cream
In the sun
That s I felt with you

I Still

I don't know why he still here in my heart

Maybe I'm still hoping or looking for away

Maybe to get back to you

I think about the days that we had

I never felt this way before until I meet you

I felt so content

I felt so happy

I felt so lived

And it felt so good

I loved you with all my heart

But now you're gone

The memories we had I will cherish it always

It seem just yesterday that were together

But were not

Ten month's we been together the most happiest day of my life

When I said, if you go, don't come back

Can you not see in my eyes?

That I don't want you to go

But you took your bag and pack you stuff

And walk away there's nothing to can't I say

But to say no

No don't go

But I didn't

When I heard you slam the front door shot

I thought I will get through

I try get over you but until now your still here

Now I'm picking up the pieces

Putting my heart back together

You had me on my best

You had me on my worst

But most of all you broke my heart

It took me to realize

Until now

I still do love you

I Think I Have Crush On You

I think I have crush on you
Oh My God
First time saw I already have crush on you
I saw you at the GYM playing volleyball
Your wearing a glasses and that so cute
I look at you and you look at me and you look away
I was to shy my face so red
Its ok at list he notice me
I like his smile
I like his body
I like his love handle
I like his eyes
I like the way he hit the ball and he jump
I don't know
If I should tell him or not
It's ok
Its better not tell him
And hide my feeling to him
Maybe someday
Some how he will see me maybe someday he will notice me

Because of you I learn to be alone
Because of you I learn to stand on my own
Because of you I learn to smile

My Final Goodbye

My Final Goodbye

Did you ever loose someone you cared for?

I did. My Grandpa, or I called him Tatay.

I was not there to say goodbye to him,

Or

Give him a last kiss, a last hug,

Or a last goodbye.

I remember, when i was a child,

He always carried me and gave kisses and I hated it,

But deep inside I did like it, and it felt good.

Now he's gone and it will never be the same without him.

He will be missed.

I will miss him when I wake up early in the morning.

I will miss him when he wakes me up in early morning.

I will miss him.

I didn't know how to react when I heard the news that he had died.

At that moment I wanted to cry and shout,

But I couldn't because I was shocked.

After I hung up the phone I cried.

My tears fell like a waterfall.

And I remembered what he said to me,

'Death is not the end. It's a new beginning for the people who got left behind'

He was my Hero, my Teacher, my Grandpa.

And he will always be.

To my Grandpa,

May the Road Rise to meet you.

May the Wind always be on your back.

May the Sunshine warm your face.

May the rains fall soft on you feet.

Until we meet again.

May God always hold you in his hand.

May your Soul Rest In Peace.

Grandpa who died 01/25/08

The Guy At Pizza Place

I always go at the pizza place near at my work
Just to see you even though I already ate
You're a White guy
Have a brown hair short
Around six feet 160lbs
You're wearing a glasses cute
I'm the guy always buy the two slice pizza
I always ask you stupid question
You always answer with a smile
Sometimes always ask myself are you gay? ?
But I'm scary to ask you
Sometimes caught you look at me
I saw your face when red I don't know why? ?
But that's hot LOL
One time I'm short of money to buy a coke
But you said
Its ok the coke his on me
And said OK thank you
My face when red and I smile
I always pray that you're gay
But know you what
I'm happy to see you every day

The Mask

The mask
Behind happiness
Behind laughter
There's sadness that people can't see or feel You're wearing a mask
Mask made not plaster or pain
But a mask fashioned
Out of superficial deceit
Where there is a smile
There should be a frown
Why

The Mirror

The mirror
Every morning
We look at our self on the mirror
Think who the person is.
The reflection
The person we see on the reflection
Is happy and content Trying to pretend that we want to
but were not sometimes ask myself
who's that person
In our reflection

Winter Moonlight

Winter moonlight

The snow, so peaceful and serene caressed

By the soft moonlight,

Gave magical feeling to the night

The soft blue glow the lovers' word that

Then did flow our lips closer and closer

Until locked in the throes of a passionate embrace,

I decided to express my feelings,

To keep you safe

I whispered softly,

My words like music in your ear,

"? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? "

You Make Me Smile

You make me smile
You make me smile whenever I see you
You make me smile whenever I hear your voice
You make me smile whenever you kiss me or cuddle me
I felt warm and comfort just knowing you are on my side
Every time I think of our memories it makes me smile
Even though I have few
That's why I smile
