k khaing saw lwin(17-7-1989)

I m a young doctor. I like to write poems whenever I feel upset or happy.
I wish my poems to represent somebody or someone feelings.
feel free to comment n vote the poems.
thank u all for sharing my feelings

Blind Heart

Now i know that what she wants
She's planning at the start.
I was thinking she was the one Who I am very lucky to have.
As the time passed and i know what I ve been blinded all my life.
I want to say her don't worry
Cos I ll give her what she need.

Cheer Up

Walking under the bright sun
Holding an umbrella
And little sweat come out from body
Well, I think it's cheer me up.
Sometimes life seems like the sun
And we are holding our umbrella called hopes
There is no sweat but little appreciation
That's make us go through our life
So, let's make our world filled with inspiration Carry on U, me and we :)

Don'T

Don't think about the sorrow of the past
Don't think about the worry of the future
You are here, at the present
Need not seek the happiness,
Just realize it, admit it
Then, your present fills with happiness

Faith

looking through the sky walking across a mile
I feel that one close to mine, through the wind
through the sun
yeah,
I will never lose my faith oneday, I ll get what I wish

Feelings

Hiding all the feelings inside,
Crying heartily inside,
Smiling each day to give u strength,
Thinking u will be alright,
Want to tell u how much i hurt
Want to hate u deep from my heart
Girl, it's enough let it be
I promise u to start a new life, more meaningful, happier but keeping u inside my heart.

Feelings Deep Inside

I feel like crying. everybody thinks i'm happy. but....

I want someone to share my feeling. But this only just an imagination.

Shall I need to be strong?

What are those tears meant for?

Are they an answer, are they a prayer.

I remembered those free days when I'm feeling like a feather.

I dreamed of those golden days when I'll be an emperor.

But I m now in today, filling with pain and something that falls down from my eyes like the rain

Feelings3

I'm looking for the something, but i'm lost in my way.

Walking back to once I've standing, it's been changed.

Can it be mend or is it broken?

My head is buzzed with questioning.

The world is rotating, as like beginning.

But today are not the same, as the time passing away.

Oh, mother world Let's me be strong, Let's me be kind,

Give me strength to my bright day.

What makes the new strength, to pass those different todays.

Just A Glance

Just a glance,
I first know you love me
Just a glance,
We make a happy moment
Just a glance,
We need to say goodbye
It's a short glance
We have got
Oh, this is just a glance

Love

Look at me, look into my eyes
Do u see the love seal for you?
Listen please, listen to my words
Do u hear they are revealing my love for you?
Can u feel my love
For you but no other one
Will u be touched by the things I did for u?
Yeah, yeah,
I really want to know
Nothing but your mind
I really want to hear something that I mean so much of u

Love 2

I may not say u
How much I feel
I may not show you
How many tears (fallen down)
I may not let u know
How hard I struggle

I ll make u think
I m free and ok
This I make just to set u free from me

Mother World And Son Human 2

Dear Son,
Please look around u, what u see?
I see the broken tree that will never appear,
I see the flooded field, what makes me fear,
I feel the victim faces, which are filled with tears.
What do u feel my dear
I feel afraid my mama
I feel so hurt and I never forget these faces
What can u do for them
We can make them tears goes by
We can plants again to give shade
We can rebuilt to make safe
I don't think it can destroy us
I don't think it can blow away our believe
I'm sure we'll recover later

Plz Smile Cuttie

She said she hated the word 'End',
Don't be like that my little one.
You can't make a day start
Before you've ended your night.
You can't be the today right
If you don't let yesterday ends.
Don't stick to the feelings that 'End' will make u unease.
U now believe my little one
There will be good things after 'ends'.
To my little friend, hope u be happy and smiling each n everyday.
You deserve ur happiness.
Smile :))

Rain

The whole world is filled with rain
Same, my mind is filled with pain
I miss the one who is with me
When it's raining
I remember the word
She is saying to me in the rain
The footsteps of us in the muddy field
I wonder if they still remain
Like she still remain in my mind
The rain drops accompany
As my tears run down from my cheek
The rain cheer
Don't be fear
If I'm here
Oneday she'll be near

Sound From Heart

Please don't tell me 'it's enough ',
You know Girl
It would make me hurt.
I know I've done
So far apart,
But I just want you
To think again for that.
Oh! Boy, You've made me hurt
But now you request to start it back,
I don't want to use that word
I also hate to say 'it's enough'.
We've lived for something what
It's a thing so called is 'love',
Something make us close to each
Something make our lives complete.
I don't know how long can we be So I promise not to hurt you. Girl are u smiling now again?

There's A Girl

There's a girl name JULY
She looks just an ordinary one
But when you know about her
You will surely get something in mind
She said she ll make the world smile
She just want is nothing
But peaceful mind
She admitted she is no one
She is the little girl
That she try to make u smile

Voice Of Silent

quiet, yes we have never used to be silent, when do this start?
voices, where are they?
can feel yesterday where the whole world is filled with your voices stay in today attaching with voices of silence.

Waiting Towards Dawn

It's just a memory
Will it be faded away?
Or just run in history
To stick in me.
Not knowing now
I m feeling how
Oh oh
Wish just a dream
But not a shadow
I m waiting toward the dawn.

What She Hates

She hates u being hurt
She hates u being drunk
She hates being neglected by u
She hates being your enemy
Do u know who is she?
Do u care what she hates?

Wish

Wishing today full of joy
Hoping fill with smile
Leaving all the sadness of the past
Neglecting all the worries of future
I m smiling
You are smiling
Yes, we are smiling
