Katniss Everdeen(18th July 1996)

I chose the name Katniss Everdeen because I believe that she and I are not only alike in views, but also in personality. She is strong willed, feisty, and someone I aspire to be.

A Deadly Disease

There is no disease
More heartbreaking, more destroying.
It makes people go crazy
Some people die from it
But, if you know how to take it properly
And how to give it
It can be the best thing in the world.
Some people die happy with it
Some people die without it
There is no disease
Than Love.

All I'M Trying To Say

I still watch you from across the room
I watch you every single day
I still wish that it was different
I miss you, is all I'm trying to say

I still remember your embrace
And how you made everything okay
I want it to go back to before
I miss you, is all I'm trying to say

I remember how we used to dance
To the music; how we'd sway
You spun me round in ecstasy
I miss you is all I'm trying to say

But most of all I remember
The way I told you to go away
I watched you through blurred eyes
I want you back, is all I'm trying to say

Anorexic

Dear Diary,

So, there's this guy
His name, I can not tell
We are close, oh so close
But he puts me through hell

We have a few problems
He has this girlfriend, see?
They are real close too
And she hates me.

I hate her too though
Cause of one thing she said
All she said was that one thing,
But soon, he will be dead

I really don't like this girl
His thoughts, she made sick
And now, he's anorexic

I have tried to help him
I have cried over him at night
But he refuses to listen to me,
Wont go down without a fight

He doesn't care
How much I cry over him
All he cares about now
Is being really thin

Can he not tell,
How much this hurts me?
I'd give everything to see him okay,
For him to listen to my plea

When we cuddle up

I can feel his ribs, his bones
All because he is anorexic

Oh, and that one thing
That she said, in her voice so flat?
I can't be seen with you
Cause your ever so fat

Bang Your Beat Into My Heart

Play your beat
Please don't quit
Bang those drums
I must admit
That your quite good
You play with soul
Hit the drums
And take control
Just know, though
You'll always be a part
Of me, of my future
As you bang your beat into my heart

Beach

Crystal clear waves
Consume soft, moonlit sand
As it awakens my smell, taste and sight

You're sitting real close,
Holding me near
In the darkness of the night

I watch the blue waves
Come rolling in Staring at the deep midnight sea

You kiss me once
Then twice, then more
There is no place I'd rather be

The moon shines bright,
It's a shocking contrast
From the light sun that burns just like fire

As your fingertips trace
The skin on my wrist
You awaken my desire

The moonlight glows
Off the waves in the sea
Making an impossible hue

There is not one place
I would rather be
Than right here, right now, with you

Beautiful Disaster

I watch the rain
Dripping down the window
It reflects how I feel inside
Each drop, another blow
On my heart inside
As I remember long ago
How you left me for someone else
I feel tears start to flow

You did that to everyone
Can you not see,
That your more transparent than glass?
There is no need to worry now
Our love is in the past
But you, you just moved on
So very fast

I think about the happy times
And the tears start to flow faster
You left me for another girl
I remember all the tears and the laughter
We shared when we were together
And even after,
I still loved you,
I still loved a beautiful disaster

Beauty

Walking down the street
Everybody stops and stares
He don't know what's happening
He is unaware

He wonders why people are looking
When we sit down in the cafe
But what he doesn't realise is
He gets more beautiful with each day

He doesn't believe me
Thinks I am trying to lie
About why everybody is looking

Before

I'm sat in my room
And cold to the core
Thinking about what you said
When we were happy. Before.

I remember what I said
How I promised not to cry
But the tears are a small comfort
Like a mother's lullaby

Why wasn't I good enough?
Why would you let me go?
There are so many questions in my head
I just have to know.

I'm the shoulder for my friends
The rock on which they lean
But why are none of my friends here now,
Trying to comfort me?

Who's there to save the hero
When she's alone and she's crying
She's tired of being a soldier
She's slowly dying

My heart is freezing over
My feelings are going numb
My head is pounding from the tears
Beating like a drum

The world starts to spin
There's nothing I can do
It's because I miss what we used to be
It's because I miss you

I'm sat in my room
When we were happy. Before.

Breast Cancer

Aunties very ill
Goes away
Has some tests
And is made to stay

Mum says she sick
She might not make it through
I don't know what's wrong with her
I have no freaking clue

Watching the TV
Sitting alone
Are her two kids
Wondering, if their mum is coming home

Friday night
Visiting hour
We bring chocolates
And a bunch of flowers

Aunties lying in the bed
She doesn't look alive
Now, even I'm not sure
If she's going to survive

Mum goes out
To buy some drinks
I get close to my auntie
She doesn't even blink

'What is happening to you? ' I say
'I demand to know an answer! '
She looks at me with eyes so sad and says
'I'm dying of breast cancer'

This poem is for my auntie who managed to survive this killer disease. Thankfully now, she is healthy and fit. It is also to all the unluckier ones, who couldn't beat the disease. I'm sorry.

Busy

I know I keep you busy
You keep me busy too
While your busy looking out for me
I'm busy loving you

Katniss Everdeen

Candlelight

All alone in my room
Trying to pretend
That the flickering of the candlelight
Is not my only friend

But alas, it is true,
That it is my only ally
There is nothing wrong with the candlelight
It comforts me when I cry

When I am angry,
Or really, really sad,
I just light the candle
And things don't seem so bad

That one little candle flame
Dancing, with pride and joy
Can be gentle, loving warming
Or it can destroy

I always see that candle
Listening like it has ears
Keeping my body warm
And drying all my tears

Always there when I need it
The flame is always bright
It has done more for me than you ever will
That one, tiny peice of light

So next time you make fun of me,
Just remember this one thing
Fire can destroy, as well as console
And fire can sting

So, fire may be nice to me
But he wont be the same for you
Because you are a big mean bully
And to his friends, fire is true

Care

You tell me that you no longer care
And that in itself is sad
But what's even worse than that
Is the fact I never had

Crying Tears Of Blood

I drag the blade
Across my wrist
It's a temporary haven
A moment of bliss

Kissed by the blade
Again and again
I don't like this anymore
I just want it to end

The blood falls down
From the slice on my hand
As I'm crying tears of blood
That no one would understand

The tears on my wrist
Are a compromise
For the salty tears
I refuse to let fall from my eyes

You say I need help
You say I want attention
But I don't need anything
I just want to relieve my tension

These wounds are self inflicted
I am addicted

There's nothing you can do
You haven't got a clue
About what I go through
If only you knew...

Darkness

What is this darkness,
Creeping up on my soul?
Moulding me into what it wants,
Into what everybody else is.
I don't want to do these things,
But the darkness is making me do them.
My morals no longer exist.
I can't think for myself any longer
It may be too late for me
But it's not too late for you though,
Just remember,
It is everywhere you go
You cant escape it
So don't even try
It dwells in the shadows
There are shadows everywhere
Try as you might, It will always come for you
All you have to do to survive,
Just say NO to Peer Pressure

Katniss Everdeen

Deception

You look at me
With those big blue eyes
You say you love me
But I know it's all lies

As soon as you walk
Right out of the door
I stop pretending
I curl up on the floor

Because I know where you go
When your out so late
You not at the pub
Your on a date

Why can't you tell me
Why can't you be true?
Why can't you love me?
When all I love is you

Katniss Everdeen

Disguised Love

He drops the bomb
You know it's wrong
You lean in; give him a kiss
But you know something's amiss
He's your best friend
Until the end
But now he is blue
And it's all because of you
He tells you he's in love
You look to the sky above
You can't pretend,
Not with your best friend
But he's in love with you
You must bid him adieu
A bond broken
Through words unspoken
A good friend lost
A good friend crossed
He took a leap
Right into the deep
Only to be chastised
Forced to make his love disguised

Katniss Everdeen

Do I Love You?

Do I love you?
You are so nice to me,
You make me feel special
Make me feel loved, make me feel free

I want to see you
You fight away my fears
You will always be there for me, and I for you
Drying away each others tears

You are the only boy,
Who I get urges to protect
Who gets urges to protect me
And who gives me no disrespect

You look out for me
When your around, I am never blue
And I love you in every way
But am I IN love with you?

Katniss Everdeen

Familliar Face, Alien Heart

Familiar face, and yet an alien heart
The embodiment of my one true flame
It ended in tears, devastation, defeat
Not one of us taking the blame

Violet kisses, tender wars
The stereotypes; we broke them all
I built up protection; wasn't gonna get hurt
But somehow you got over my walls

It was insane, it was ludicrous,
But we thought we'd beat the names
It was passion, it was heated
And then, it snuffed the flame

We're still the best of friends
But now; something's amiss
We can laugh and joke all we want
But we both know it wasn't meant to end like this

Katniss Everdeen

Feel Your Lips

Sitting in my room
Tears dropping on the floor
As I wish on each and every tear
To feel your lips once more

Katniss Everdeen

Fight

You carry my heart on your sleeve
I carry your words in my heart
My eyes are crying waterfalls
I'm about to fall apart

Twisted words of anger
Which, by now, should be dismissed
I try to diminish my quick growing anger
But still, these feelings persist

It seems strange to wonder
How one petty fight
Can destroy the bond we held so close
Tell me, Is this right?

It never used to bother us
But now we're growing apart
This constant distance between us
Is ruining my heart

My Nanna used to tell me
That when your friend is drifting away
You shouldn't do anything at all
To try and make them stay

Because if they really cared They'd reconstruct your alliance
If they don't even make an attempt
You meet them with defiance

So I guess there's no room left for me
In your new family, new wife
But just remember one thing
You will always be my life.

Katniss Everdeen

Fire

Every night I dream
About slow, burning fire
Igniting my heart
And awakening my desire

An eternal flame
That will burn forever bright
It gives me the strength
In which to fight

But fire destroys
And love does too
I don't understand any of this
To me, it's too new

Is this feeling good?
Or is this feeling bad?
This is so much confusion
That I have never had

I feel the desire
Inside, burning bright
But even I don't know
If these feelings are right

Katniss Everdeen

Forbidden Love

This shouldn't be happening
It is taboo
But I have a guilty pleasure
I can't stay away from you
I know I have to though
This forbidden love is through

We both have lives
This is just a bit of fun
And yet, still, I am drawn to you
But I am bound to another one
My one true love
This forbidden love is done

Stay away from me
The temptation is too great
This is just lust
I cannot bear the judgement weight
We do not belong together
This forbidden love, I hate

We both chose to betray
But it was once, not twice, or more
I cannot bear this burden
I can't take it anymore
I need to get out of this place
This forbidden love is causing war

I must confess, tell the truth
I cannot live with this lie
I am torn between two hearts
This burden makes me want to lash out and cry
I can only live with the truth
This forbidden love is killing me inside

I need to get out
I can't deal with this load
All this pressure on my heart
I cannot travel down this road

I will not do it anymore
This forbidden love will make my head explode

I have to go, abandon this town
Leave and never return
I pack my things, get ready to go
Who cares if I raise concern?
I need to move temptation away
This forbidden love will burn

This forbidden love is dumb

This forbidden love is leaving me tied

This forbidden love will never return
This forbidden love will help me learn
This forbidden love makes my heart turn

Go

Why Do I Bother Making Excuses For You
Everytime You Let My Friends Down Too
I Don't Care If You Treat Me Bad
But Let Me Tell You, You Make My Friends Mad
And You Will Be Starting A Pretty Big War
Cause We Wont Put Up With Your Games Anymore
So You Should Just Go, Before I Snap
You Should Just Go And Never Come Back

Goddess

Goddess, are you up there?
Are you listening to me?
I ask that you listen
And hear my only plea

Goddess, are you up there?
Can you hear my silent cries?
My 'friends' want me to do these 'things'
And they want me to lie

Goddess, are you up there?
Tell me what to do
I want to be popular
Please give me a clue

Goddess, are you up there?
Shall I do these things
Because, if I annoy these girls,
They are sure to sting

Yes, child I am up here
And I am listening to you
But in order for you to do the right thing
I can't tell you what to do

You have to learn from mistakes
I cannot help you out
You have to get yourself out of this
Oh, child do not pout

You have to choose your own path
My greatest gift is free will
So people can choose whether to do right or wrong
Life is a rollercoaster, and taking chances is the thrill

Katniss Everdeen

Goodbye

Is it love?
Or just lust
Because I must Figure out
What to do
With my life
And with you
Shall I stay?
Or shall I go
Do you love me?
I need to know
If the answer
Is no
Tell me straight
I can't stay
Living a lie
So, if you don't love me,
I guess it's goodbye...

Happiness

Happiness

It is just like a butterfly

Chase it, you will never reach it

Hold it too tight, and you will crush it

Hold it too loose, it will fly away

But if you forget,

Happiness,

Will come and perch on your shoulder

Only if,

You know how to handle it properly

Katniss Everdeen

Hide And Seek

I can feel my heart
Pounding in my chest
As I keep running
From the one I detest

I'm scared for my life
And nearly out of breath
But still, I keep running
Away from my death

I can not let him catch me
I can not let him see
How scared I am of him
I will not let him find me

It's a game of hide and seek
It's all I can do
Just got to keep running
If not, I will lose

Katniss Everdeen

I Am Drawn To You

I am drawn to you
Like a moth to a flame
Your undeniable beauty
Is all I need
To keep me happy
If only, I could see you now
See your bright, shining eyes
I wouldn't be in this bad place

Katniss Everdeen

I Don'T Love Him

I want him
But he is not interested,
Says he already has a girlfriend
And he doesn't want me
If anyone were to know
What I felt
It would cause so much trouble
I love him
But I shouldn't
It is against the rules
So I try to live on Every day
Trying to convince
Not only you,
But also myself
That I don't love him

Katniss Everdeen

I Love...

I love the way you look at me
I love the way you talk
I love it when you hold my hand
When we go on our walks

I love the way you smile
And how you tell me bye
I love how you can always make me laugh
Even works when I am about to cry

I love it how you grin
At every little thing
I love the silkyness of your hair
And the softness of your skin

I love the child in you
And the way you hold me tight
I love it how you ring me up
And how we talk all night

I love it how, when I see you
My heart skips two little beats
And how every time you talk to me
You make me feel complete

I love it how you'd risk your life
Just to be with me
And how you let me cuddle up to you
When we watch TV

I love it how you'd help me out
In every way you could
And I love it how you'd lead me to
Our favourite place in the wood

I love how soft your lips feel
When you kiss me under the tree
And how you make my heart pound
Its like a silent guarantee

I love it how you cuddle up to me
Just to keep me warm
Or how you'd give me your jacket
Even when we're stuck in a storm

I love it when you tell me things
And I always know they're true
But most of all I love the way
I always have, and always will love you...

Katniss Everdeen

If Only

If only...

The two most evil words in the word

If only I had been quicker,

I could have saved his life

But let me tell you something,

What's done is done

Nothing can change that

Nothing in the world

Katniss Everdeen

It's Too Late To Cry

How could you do this?
Why me?
That was all I could think
On the day, you decided to leave

Why would you leave me?
What have I done wrong?
I wanted to voice my disbelief
But I had to stay strong

Stay strong for the baby
Our little kid
It is too late to cry now
Over all the things you did

You may left us
You may have walked away
But I have a little miracle
To brighten up my day

So next time
I feel all sad and upset
I will remember what you did
And that you did it with no regret

You will never be coming back
Not before you die
You have already left us
And, I know, it's too late to cry

Just Beyond The Rainbow

Just beyond the rainbow
Where the birds fly free,
Is a whole new world for us
A place for you and me
A place we can call home
A place that holds our destiny

Is where I will wait
For you to follow
Follow me, and our fate
Away from the cruel world
Where we can live together, as soul mates

You will find forgiveness, and peace
I will meet you
Where you'll feel your problems release
And the pain,
Oh, the pain, it starts to decrease

Is where I am waiting now
For you to join me in heaven
For the goddess to allow
You to die with me
And together, travel to a place that's... wow!

Knife

Coming back from school,
Tears streaming down my face
I run up to my room
And refuse to leave the place

Looking up I see,
The knife I used before
I thought I had given it up
I didn't do it anymore

So why am I getting these urges
To see myself in pain
To see my own blood
Shall I self harm again?

Katniss Everdeen

Leaving

You say your sorry
But it's not enough
Not anymore
Not after all that stuff
That you did to me
When the times were rough
And even through
All the lies and the bluff
I still loved you
But it wasn't good enough

How can you expect
Me to stick around
You were just
The rebound
But now
Were bound
For ever and ever
You will surround
Me, with your kicks and slaps
And the pounds,

But I have a way out
I'm leaving at dawn
I have packed my bags
And I will be gone
I am leaving you
Tomorrow morn
And I hope
You become withdrawn
You'll miss your punchbag
Me

Light Will Always Come

Our love may be dark right now
But the light will always come
The dark may seem really bad
But just remember, you will always see the sun

Darkness is not always evil
Just like light isn't always good
Don't be afraid of the dark
It sounds more scary than it should

Just wait a few hours
And you will see the first signs of light
You only have to wait a little while
Then we will be out of the night

All we have to do
Is survive the night so long
There will always be a morning after Just make it through the night and be strong

But just remember this
The light will always come
And our love will always exist

Katniss Everdeen

Listen To The Sunset

Listen to the sunset,
Hear its silent sigh
As it falls down the horizon
Warning, the moon is nigh

Listen to the sunset
Hear its silent threat
That darkness will be upon us
It makes everyone upset

Listen to the sunset
The vanity of its words
How beautiful this sunset is
With its colour, and birds

Listen to the sunset
See its pretty hue
But I can't enjoy the sunset
If I am not with you

All the pretty colours are meaningless
So are the birds, and the sounds
Because it all means nothing to me
If you are not around

Just remember this though,
Promise you won't forget,
Even if you're far away,
We'll be watching the same sunset

So listen to the sunset
Enjoy its beauty true
When you see it, think of me
And I will think of you

Love Songs

Not even one million love songs could say
How much I love you, every day

Love Story

'I promise, ' She said with cheer
'That all my cuts will disappear'
I look at her face; She seems sincere
But in her eyes, I see a tear

She walks with us a little more
'Till I turn 'round to see her slumped right on the floor
Her tears are running, more and more
As I see HIM and HER walking through the door

*****

'I promise' I say with cheer
'That all my cuts will disappear'
I know I'm lying, but I try to look sincere
I know in my eyes, there are tears

With my fingers crossed, unseen by him
I try to give my biggest grin
There's always gonna be slices on my skin
But now, they're going to be more hidden

I follow them round, missing him all the way
Then suddenly, I see them, I start to pray
Don't let it be them, I don't want to be betrayed
By the one I loved more and more, each day

But alas, it's true. He's with another girl
And with that, my head starts to whirl
'Round and 'round spins the world
'Till I'm down on my knees, about to hurl

I feel strong hands holding me close
As my face, I try to compose
I try to lie, but everyone knows
That I love him, I knew too, I suppose

I force a smile, and go to leave
Run back home, in order to grieve

I grab the knife, and lift up my sleeve
Everythings okay now, the pain will recede

*****
*****

I follow her home, to make sure she's okay
Make sure that she'll live another day
I love her more than words could say
But I can't think of that now, I can't be led astray

I get to her home, and climb through the window
On the floor, a pool of blood, and it grows
And in the middle, a girl with hair that flows
Around her face; A gloden halo

*****

I hear a person in my room
As I lay in my personal tomb
Suffocating in all of my gloom
As I feel death, it starts to consume

*****

A gentle kiss, placed on her lips, so blue
I hold her still, 'till her breaths come far and few
I get up, and say to her, 'I love you'

Midnight Sun

I'm looking at you,
Watching you sleep
The most beautiful thing
It makes me weep

It may be midnight
And it may be dark
But I have a bright sun
Leaving me a permanent mark

My midnight sun
My sun in the middle of night
Lighting up my world
Making my life bright

You are my midnight sun
You bright up my day
Without you, my life would be dull
You make my life okay

Now that I have met you,
And you've made my life not glum
I am addicted, like a drug
To my one, my only mignight sun

Katniss Everdeen

My Heart

My head screams at me to 'stop',
'Turn around, walk away',
My legs turn to jelly,
Trying to save me from dismay,

I try to call out,
There's nothing but a squeak,
I need find and tell you,
But my body's growing weak,

Lead fills my shoes,
My stomach ties up in knots,
My vision turns blurry,
I see little black dots,

My eyesight returns,
Though just for a while
But I see you're close
You turn around and smile

My knees give way
And I collapse on the floor
You rush over to help me
I just can't take it anymore

My brain screams in my face
My feet resist, don't tread
My stomach shrieks in my ear
As my heart whispers 'Go ahead'...

No One

I have no one to help me
I have no one to care
I have no one to just talk to
I have no one to be there

I'm surrounded by so many people
But I feel so alone
With no one to want be, or need me
Or to be there when I come home

Why do I not feel
Part of the crowd I'm in
Is it because I have no one
Or is it a problem within?

Noone Really Knows

People think I'm happy,
People think I'm cool
But that's just what I act like
When I'm with them at school

Noone really knows
Whats going on inside
How much I've got to hide

The things I have to deal with,
Sometimes they make me cry
Sometimes they make me think
Think and wonder 'Why? '

Why did the goddess choose me?
To put through so much pain,
Has it made me stronger?
These problems are insane.

There are slices up my arm
From the issues, making me stressed
They help me relieve the hurting
If not, I'd be depressed

I know this has to stop
I know the end is nigh
But is it the end of my problems,
Or the end of my life?

What am I to do,
When I am always so sad?
Shall I take the easy way out,
Would death really be that bad?

Katniss Everdeen

Nothingness...

Sitting in my room. Surrounded by Nothingness
All alone. Surrounded by Nothingness
Scared of every little thing. Surrounded by Nothingness
Jumping at the ringing phone. Surrounded by Nothingness

I look up and see a shadow. Surrounded by Nothingness
It walks towards me. Surrounded by Nothingness
It gets so close. Surrounded by Nothingness
I touch it. Then I can't see. Surrounded by Nothingness

I feel it inside. Consumed by Nothingness
I feel dark. Consumed by Nothingness
Replacing the light. Consumed by Nothingness
Leaving a permanent mark. Consumed by Nothingness

It takes over my soul. Consumed by Nothingness
And makes me do wrong. Consumed by Nothingness
I cannot fight it. Consumed by Nothingness
Its will is too strong. Consumed by Nothingness

It moulds me and shapes me. Possesed by Nothingness.
Into what it wants me to be. Possesed by Nothingness.
I try to fight it. Possesed by Nothingness.
But I give up and set him free. I am Nothingness

Only A Dream...

'Marry me? '

You say in a soft, intense voice

'I promise to love you,

And that is my choice'

You get down on one knee

And dig deep in your jeans

Out comes a ring, as you say

'Lilli, will you be my queen? '

I scream 'Yes'

I hold out my hand

As you slip the ring on, you say

'Don't worry, it's already planned'

'Our parent's have arranged it

We are to be wedded next spring

Outside, in the gazebo

Where the bluebirds sing'

You open your mouth

To try and say more

But the whole world shatters

And I wake up, facing the door.

It was just a dream

My prince was not real

I cannot begin to describe

The pain that I feel

I open my mouth,

And start to scream

The moment I realise

It was only a dream

Poem

What is a poem?
If not a bunch of random words
Strung together and made to sound Pretty?
A meaningful paragraph
Deep and exotic
And very emotional
They don't amount to much
But still, I write them
They let me fight away the pain
And the darkness that prevails in my life
They help me express my emotions
And let everything out
They help me survive
Through my suicidal phase
Through the good
And the bad
As long as I can get my feelings out
I just know
Everything will be alright

Que Sera Sera

Travelling
Carrying
All our load
Of mistakes

Knowing
That we may die
Trying
Desperately not to cry
For it is unknown
What will become of us

Remembering
Looking
Up at the stars
Happiness
Because we know

Whatever will be, will be

Reason

I sit in my room
With a pen and a pad
Trying to think
Of more reasons to add
To my list of why I love you
So far, I have none
I have been sitting up all night
Trying to think of some
But who are we,
To question love?
It is a gift, should be cherished
I have no reason,
To love you
But, love is funny like that
And still, I do
Because love doesn't need reasons
Or questioning, or more
All it is, is wanting to spend,
Your life with the one you adore

Run Away

You ask me to wait,
By our place in the woods.
The sight of your face,
Gladdens me more than it should.

You take my hand,
Your eyes whisper a vow.
Your voice; a caress on my face,
Tells me 'come with me now'.

My mind is an immense conflict,
Of my head versus my heart.
Your embrace speaks of promises,
A new place, a new start.

My hand slips down to my stomach,
Cradling the tiny creature inside.
I want, no NEED, nothing more,
Than to be your wedded bride.

But I have a mother to look after,
And a father who loves me a lot.
Tears stream rivers down my cheeks,
In my throat, my breath is caught.

The pools of emotion in your eyes,
Reflect grief that can only be mine.
I finally find my voice.
A whisper, 'Give me time'.

One last kiss.
As you turn and walk away,
A whisper in the wind:
'Maybe I'll see you again some day'

Singing A Song

You don't love a guy for his body
Or for his money, or his mates
It's not for his sports car
Or if he pays for all your dates

It's not because you want a lover
Or, for fear of being alone
It's not because he's dangerous
Or he's really toned

You don't love a guy for his looks
Love is rarely planned
It's cause he sings a song that Only you can understand

Strumming The Strings Of My Heart

I watch you play,
Making a beautiful tune
The strings of the guitar shaking
As you sit in the light of the moon

Your plucking the strings
With great ease
Making a flowing melody
A pretty song, just for me

I continue to watch
You playing your guitar
Making me love you
While your strumming the strings of my heart

These strings will never be touched
By anyone but you
You go where no one else can Leaving a mark, like a tattoo,
Saying I LOVE YOU

Suffer In Silence

She has no one to love her
No one to care
No one to hold on to
No one to be there

No one wants to know her
No one wants to chat
So she sits there, all alone
Talking to her cat

No one will stick up for her
Or come to her defence
So she sits there, all alone
Suffering in silence

She used to suffer alone
She used to be so blue
She used to have no friends
No one even knew

About the bullies that attacked her
On that, oh so fateful, day
But now she no longer suffers in silence
Because she is no longer here today

Take My Heart

I am not rich
I can't buy you presents
But I can give you something
That will make your heart content

I can give you my love
My heart, and the key
It is irreplaceable
To a certain degree

It is all that I own
And you can't return my heart
Please be careful though
It has already been torn apart

It is all that I cherish
All that I own
It is yours to keep forever
Its yours, and yours alone

Be careful though
Help me out
Because a heart is a hard thing
To live without

Tamed My Heart

It's wild and dangerous
And sometimes torn apart
But you are the one
That tamed my heart

Katniss Everdeen

Temptation

It's a black cloud,
Creeping up on you
It's a dark angel
Whispering in your ear
It's a war
Slowly crawling into your head
Its a painful illness,
Stuck to you, never letting go
It's poverty,
Jumping out on you when you least expect it
It's a burden
Noone wants to bear
It's temptation

Katniss Everdeen

That Girl

She sits there all alone
Sad, and in the darkness
You did this to this girl
You broke her heart
For this, she will never forgive you
Until
She sees you sitting like that
With a broken heart
She may be broken
She may be crying
But she's confident
This is not the end
Ask me how I know
Cause she is me

Katniss Everdeen

The Black Keys

I see you walk away
Feeling so betrayed
Cause you said you'd stay
Wondering, if I will ever be the same

Colours don't mean anything no more
Not since you walked out that door
The rain starts to pour
And I notice something I haven't before

That the black-keys
Never looked so good to me
As I kneel in front of the keys
They lead me to a place I want to be

The only thing that gets me through
That helps me get over you
They lead me to a world I never knew
A colourless world, without you

Some things are better in black and white
Not everything looks better bright

Katniss Everdeen

The Creature

I look up
Into the creatures eyes
It thinks I can't see
Through it's disguise

As he looks up, he smiles
A slow, manic grin
My blood runs cold

With eyes like fire
And a heart just like ice
He screams in my face
That evil will suffice

\\his honey golden stare
Locks me in my place
As I'm still staring
At this awful creatures' face

Then suddenly she's there,
She stands tall, proud and bright
She represents everything good
She represents everything right

There is too much evil
And not enough good
But still tall and proud,
The young girl, there stood

'You may have won the battle,
But this is not the end
You may have more people
But good will always win'

And suddenly, I'm not scared
I straighten up a little more
I look him straight in the eye
Because now, I know who I'm fighting for

Katniss Everdeen

The Heart Whispers

My heart has frozen over
I promised not to cry
As I walked up to you

'I know you think you love me
But your feelings are not true
We can not be together
I do not care for you'

My words are harshly spoken
But they're words that must be said
These words make my heart feel wrong
Broken, empty, dead.

'I just don't love you any more
You're sure to soon discover
That it's really not your fault
I have just found another'

'I just can not condemn
Living this way any longer'
These words cut him like a knife
But soon, they'll make him stronger

The tears flow freely down his face
But not a single word is spoken
He's probably remembering all the promises
That I have now broken

My heart breaks
Again, again and again
I never thought I would feel
This kind of pain

I put on a brave face
And continue to hurt my love
'You're better off without me'
He looks to the sky above

'But babe, wait, please'
He begs 'We belong together'
I shake my head, more tears come
'But babe, you said 'forever'

'I lied, okay? I lied
We're not how we used to be there's no careless laughter and jokes
We're not young, wild and free'

'We're not children any more
And nothing lasts forever
There is nothing left between us
Nothing whatsoever'

I place a single kiss upon his cheek
And wipe away a tear
Five more words to break his heart
'We're over, is that clear? '

I walk away to his distant sobs
Caused by words that were untrue
My brain screams at me 'Who cares? '
But my heart whispers 'You do'

Katniss Everdeen

The Lion And The Lamb

King of the jungle
Dangerous and proud
Is the majestic Lion
Who is beautiful, bold and loud

Small and fluffy
And cute as can be
Is the little Lamb
Munching on grass, filled with glee

Both from different worlds,
Are the Lion and the Lamb
And yet, they stay together,
But they are both damned

They cannot be together
Have you ever heard the expression
'So the Lion fell in love with the Lamb'
That quote causes depression

Even though they're in love
Together, they can't be Because the whole time their together
There is no guarantee

That the Lamb will be safe
From the Lion, his hunger so vast
Even though they are in love
The Lamb might not last

It could be one small accident
One tiny little mistake
And that would be the end of the Lamb
Causing the Lion to break

Because even though he loves her,
It is in his blood
It is in his nature
To kill the one he loves

Katniss Everdeen

The Little White Pill

I can feel the pull
Surrounding, taking over me
I need to say no
But, if it gets me out of reality
Should I take it?
It can make my life better
More bearable
But, for how long?

Katniss Everdeen

The Snow

See the snow
Its a blanket, soft and white
Falling slow
Covering the world, making it bright

Hear the snow
Crunching underneath feet
Children throw
The snow in the street

Smell the snow
The freshening scent
As the steady flow
Makes my heart content

Feel the snow
Powdery, it freezes your toes
As the blanket starts to grow
And the cold wind blows

Taste the snow
The way it makes the world look clean
Still cold though,
Makes the world, a beautiful scene

Love the snow
When I see it snowing all day
I just know
That everything is going to be okay

Katniss Everdeen

Those Mean Girls...

Looking in the mirror
Not liking what I see
I want look like them
Don't want to look like me

I want to be those other girls
They're really pretty but mean
I am just fat, ugly and spotty
And always wearing jeans

The one thing I like
About my body, about me
Is the fact that I Am not at all that mean

They may be very pretty
And really skinny too
But people only pretend for them
Their friends are untrue

I have real friends
Who would always help me out
They like me for who I am
Not because I scream and shout

They rule their friends in fear
They're not really loved
Whereas me, I am totally different
Who cares if I get pushed and shoved

I am not like them
I am totally unique
So is everyone else
I may not be very chic

But I have friends that like me
And I am nice to you
So next time I want to be like them
I'll remember that my friends are true

Katniss Everdeen

Tick Tock

Tick tock
I'm not gonna stop
Gonna let out what's inside
Going to commit suicide

Tick tock
I shut the lock
On the bathroom door
I am not taking this any more

Tick tock
It's 5 o'clock
So much time has passed
I gotta do this fast

Tick tock
The hand moves around the clock
I take my finger and slice the skin
Hoping that my mum won't come in

Tick Tock
I hear the front door unlock
I hope mum doesn't see
She says she cares for me

Tick tock
Blood starts to drop
On the mirror, I start to write
'I thought you said it was gonna be all right'

Tick tock
Mum will get a shock
As I start to cut more
I fall on the floor

Tick tock
I hear a knock
But it's too late to be cross
I am dying, of blood loss

Tick tock
Mum breaks the lock
She stands me up straight,
But it is too late

Tick tock
She lets me drop
As a smile spreads across my face
'Your too late mum, your a disgrace'

Then it all goes black

Katniss Everdeen

Time

Time flows on Like a river
Like a flow of electricity
Never stopping
Never slowing down,
Never speeding up
As I count down the minutes
Until I can feel your lips
Lingering on mine
Once More

Katniss Everdeen

Unsaid

She remembers all the words that were left unsaid
She'd love to talk again, but now he's dead
And so she lies, broken on her bed
Preying these demons with leave her head

Katniss Everdeen

Water

The water swirls above my head
As I drift, slowly down
Soon, I will be dead
Because I will drown

The water will take me in
It will welcome me with open arms
It will slowly caress my skin
And take me away from harm

This is your fault I'm dying
This is because you lied
This is your fault I'm crying
Because YOU made me commit suicide.

Katniss Everdeen

What Is Love?

What is love?

Is it the eternal flame in your heart?

That blazes even more everytime you see them?

Or is it the butterflies in your stomach?

That turn your tummy upside down.

The way that, even when you get a glance of them,

You just know, everything is going to be okay?

Or is it all of these things, and more?

The way your heart skips a beat?

Or the way you want to spend all your time with them?

The way you feel safe with them, even in the middle of a battlefield

Is it the way you could never bring yourself to hurt them?

Or the way you could trust them

With your life?

Katniss Everdeen

When Music Touched My Heart

Your singing a beautiful tune
But it is over too soon
I need to hear more
Your singing, I adore
Up until today
I was drowned with dismay
Then I heard your song
Now, to your music, I belong
Your music has taken over my soul
I am under it's control
All because I opened up my core
Its like a drug, I need some more
Of your music, I'm now part
Ever since the day your music touched my heart

Katniss Everdeen

Why Do I Still Love You?

I look into the mirror
And try to force a smile
Walk out of the door
To pretend for a while

On my way to school
Tear drops fall from the sky
The clouds, like me
Are starting to cry

I'm glad that tears don't show
Whenever it rains
That way, no one can see
All of my pain

I get into school
And I see you there
Laughing and joking
I send a silent prayer

As I go up to confront you
You give me a big grin
You don't know that I know
My pain is about to begin

I tell you that I know
It was you who told those lies
You who slagged me off
You who made me cry

Your face drops
As I tell you we're done
I know what I say
Can not be undone

I walk away
Tears dripping on the floor
Because now I know,
I can't live with your crap anymore

My friends, they tell me
I did the right thing
But if I was so right,
Why does my heart sting?

You hurt me bad
You made up lies
So why do I still love you
With everything I have inside?

Katniss Everdeen

Wingless Angel

Insanely beautiful
And very caring
Always kind
You do no wrong
Only right
Quiet
But intense
Innocent
And Pure
Always
And forever
Is my Wingless Angel

Katniss Everdeen

You

Your finger tips
Trace my lips
As the tide rolls in and out

My hair is a mess,
But I couldn't care less
Because you, I'm not without

You Are The One

You are the one
Who kissed me first
You are the one
That forces away the worst

You are the one
That I love most
That holds me close

You are the one
Who takes away my breath
Who saved me from death

You are the one
Who will never depart
Who stole my heart
