lanesha hamler (never again jones)(june 7 1990)

well i love writing i think writing is my heroe may sound crazy but writing saved me if i couldnt write i dont know where i be..I have a little issue though, i only write when im angry or sad which makes my poetry mostly feeling if depression worthlessness and sometimes suicide. i dont mean to be like that but when i write poetry when im happy it doesnt seem good to me! i guess im just an emo person but i have a good heart, spirit and mind.. TRUST ME!

...And Nothing More

Theres Nothing else to do i feel like im doing all i can do too keep you happy, sometimes i feel like im doing to much over working myself only to see at the end of the day you dont appreciate it or even notice it i feel like you disabled me from making my own self happy.

im so drawn into you and your needs you have me forgetting i even have needs

My mind is now tired of of thinking of something new to entertain you with My body is now sore from trying to be your perfect image.

my heart is now broke from not feeling loved in so long.

me as a person is now shattered from from all the broken promises i have dealt with i tell my self every day at the end it will be worth it.

but at the end of the day i find myself wondering how could i ever love someone insensative!

im left with nothing to do. im will continue giving you the best i got! And nothing More
