Louie Gonzalez(9-22-87)

My motivation for writing poetry are the feelings that I experience.

I am usually a modest person but most people wouldn't say I am. I tend not to talk about my feelings which leaves poetry as my way to talk about it.

I honestly don't tell anyone that I write poetry because I am genuinely scared of people's opinions.

I would refer to post my poems on the internet because if someone doesn't like it, I don't have to see them. Ha.

I would like to thank everyone and anyone who has supported/commented or messaged me on my poems. I wouldn't say I am a great writer but I do greatly enjoy seeing that people can relate to me in some way.

It has been a while since my last write and yet I have still gotten supporters.

Thank you everyone. I really appreciate it.

Alone

I've been pushed down so many times
I feel this time will be the last
As I lay here fading

All my strength is drained,
With nothing left to give.
Drowning in the depths of sorrow

Too much time to remember the past
And to wish things could be different.

I cry until it wears me out
Until my thoughts start to drift out
Drift out of my thoughts and into my dreams

This is too much for my heart to carry
Carry around until I cant stand and fall
Until this knife gets dull in my hand
My hand that slashes at my wrists from every bad thought on my mind

Cut to the bone and let myself drown
Let all the blood carry me down

It's easier for me to distance myself, than it is to trust that you won't hurt me.
It's easier for me to die,
than it is for me to face life's challenges.

There's no greater pain than
To be hurt by the person you love
Abandoned in my darkest hour by the one who said she cared.

These things I dread in my messed up world
Explained by all the blood on this knife
This knife that I cant control
When everything seems so cold

When I am alone I seem to drown
Drown in this sea of pain

A silent voice and distant eyes
That no one hears or sees.

The tears that hurt the most
Are the ones that don't fall

All alone I feel
Alone once again
My heart feels empty

So I can finally go to sleep
Go to sleep in my bed
My eyes will no longer be red
Red as the blood on my shirt

Into the darkness
I walk all alone
No one with me,
No one following me,
No one even turning their head,
I'm gone and no one even turned to see.

Falling

Heart shattered
Feelings torn apart
Shrouded in darkness

No escape from the thoughts that creep into my mind
No escape from the sadness

Every night I wake alone
Alone
Alone I am

I have no one
No one
Forgotten

I have forgotten what it feels like to be happy
Seems so far away
I try to grasp as it evades me every time

Time and time again I try to cry
But nothing comes out

Losing my grasp
Falling
Fast

Shaking
It wont stop
The unbearable agony of being betrayed

No one cares
I stand alone against my demons
Losing the fight

Dreams of the past
Past
The past was a dream

I woke up

Woke up and saw reality
Reality is to be alone

No one loves you
You
No one can love you

To have hope is to be let down
Hope
No hope for me

Suffer I was made to feel Suffer I shall

I try
It isn't enough
No matter what I do
Never enough

A failure I was meant to be Failure
That's why nothing works

Death
Such a simple word
A word that brings peace to my soul

Thoughts of dying never elude me
Always with me

I wanted to give you the world
The world
My world was taken from me

Love is like a sweet rose
When you get the rose
You notice that you have been stabbed by all of its thorns

Stabbed
In the heart

Almost there
So close

No friends
Lost them
Lost them to the rose with thorns

The rose with thorns
Poison
Dying

When it comes I will embrace it
Openly without fear
Finally I shall smile

Goodbye world
I know I will not be missed
I am the forgotten

Forgotten Love

My heart reaches out
It finds nothing in the emptiness
My body is cold
Trying to find warmth

I cry in silence for no one cares
I scream out to someone
But nobody listens
My heart is aching
But not a cry I make

I look for someone to help me up
But nobody glances toward me
The pain and sorrow grow
As I fall and stumble on to What my future hold

For now I walk alone
Solitude is always at my side
Its all i know
All I want to know
Need to know

This torment hurts
I feel it
Its real
Lasting a life time

You who let me down
Shattered my heart
Tossed me aside
Left me alone to die

Now my mind is in turmoil
My heart is split in two
My tears reach for you
Alone once agian
Its here I stand
Until my dying day

My love will be forgotten

Me

I have never felt this way before
Crying replaces laughter
Frowns replace smiles

I am not happy anymore
A distant memory that I cannot seem to recall

Depression is my happiness
Sadness finds every corner in my head
Torment shelters my cries

This pain that I feel
It is my shell
I no longer notice that I am depressed
I just am

A smile that touches my face
Doesn't touch my eyes
A laugh that touches my face
Doesn't touch my soul

I have submitted to this state
This state of suffering

I give in to these feelings that were so weird
These feelings that are now my core
That are now me

I feel the pain
I am depressed
I am alone
And I embrace it
I expect it
It is me

Rose

Love is the sweetest rose
You cant help but bring it close to you
Taking in all its subtle pleasures
When its close to your heart
You notice all the thorns piercing your skin
All the poison slips in and everything inside of you dies from the pain you cant escape

And yet the rose is still there
As you die
The rose never dies
Waiting for the next person to bring it close

Take Me Away

I should have seen what was going to happen
I didnt
Never saw it coming

Came like a hurricane Tearing me down
Flooding me and dragging me deeper

I was blinded by love
Blinded by my happiness
Never saw it coming

I was so happy
Happier than any man

I loved her
More than life itself

There was no warning sign
None
Never saw it coming

Broke my heart
Alone

Alone she left me
Doesnt care
Stole my heart

I tried everything I could think of Everything

I gave my life to someone who never cared
I gave my heart and thought I had hers

She was my joy
My motivation
My love

Never asked for more
Should have seen it coming
Never saw it coming

I need her
Need her more than ever

She laughs as I lay her swallowed in my pain
The pain never stops Never

I thought it couldnt get worse
I was wrong
As wrong as I have ever been

I tell her I need her help
She doesnt care

Runs off with my friends
They all laugh at me

I have no one
So alone
So cold

I was used and tossed aside
Tossed aside for the dogs

Well here I am
There is nothing that can stop the pain besides my death

So here I am death
Take me home
Take me away

Time

Like a pheonix, love does not die
Even as a baby I felt the unhappiness and suffering
Scared for life
How do i make up for those unforgetable years?

You acted happy just from seeing me
Not knowing the affect you had on me
Emotions confused my heart
Shaken, stirred and beaten
For the rest of my life those years will last Until your last breath and forever until I die

The tears they fall like shimmering stars
The sleep wont even come to me
My eyes are red from looking into the abyss

Ive lost myself in my dreams
Beneath the blackest cloud
That darkens all love

With you by my side maybe it will end
Ill be waiting
Till the end of time

Louie Gonzalez

Too Late

I am broken apart
Heart shattered

I try to grab the pieces
Cant find them

She was all I had
All I wanted
All I needed

She didnt break her heart over me
Someone else
I was nothing
Not enough

Not enough to care
Not enough to love

She belonged to me
She was mine
At least I thought

Now I have nothing
Nothing
Alone

I cry by myself
Nobody to hold
Nobody to hold me
Never again

I cry to be heard
No one hears

Pain is the only thing I know
Not happiness
Not laughter
No smiles
No kisses

No hugs
Just the pain that comforts me
Till I drown myself

Everything is my fault
Always my fault

No hope for me
Hope
Hope is to let yourself down

Broken promises
Heart breaking
When I die
Thats when they'll show they care
Thats when they'll ask what they could have done
Too late now
I died and nobody was there

Louie Gonzalez

Wish

I long for a companion
Who will be my best friend
The one who I will love
I dont know where you are
But I will find you

I am beyond tired of waiting
I find it so hard to stay happy
Day after insufferable day
With nobody to go to

Too cold to speak, too warm to look
A song that has played uncountable nights
From a sunken stars mournful call
That reminds me of your face and body
Your voice, your thoughts, your love

Too dark to walk, too light to comfort
Too far to yell, too close to whisper

Let go now for the suffering
You have put me through is not fair
I care too much for you
I want to laugh, to smile
To be happy all the time
Too cold to speak, too warm to look

I wish that all my tears will stop
I wish my heart was unbreakable
But it is the most fragile thing

With all of these things I wish
I cant help but watch my tears
At night when it is dark
I look up in the sky to find an answer

As I softly close my eyes
I see my love so strong
I see your lies shatter my heart

So tonight I wish my wish
That wish upon a shimmering star
I'll wish that my suffering will end
I'll wish that love will someday find me
