Because Of Me: (

Because of me there is no today
Because of me it all happened you say
The tears that stained my heart
It stung my veins like you struck me with a dart
The words you threw at me sink in me
Where is my today?
Where will my tomorrow be?
The pain that flows through my blood
Will ache every part of me Every smile of yours was my day
The painful smile of me made you smirk
I still longed for you Yet you took away my today
You said it was because of me
There won't be a tomorrow with each other again
There isn't a today
There won't be a tomorrow anymore
And the pain you put through me will sting every bit of my life
Because of me there is no today

Dreams

i close my eyes and see what mama says things that make a fool of me pixies, and fairies fly showing there grace Unicorns finally reveal themselves to the human race my mom said your wasting your time i reply its no crime dad says let me dream and i will see

Fate

i am away from home thinking of mom and dad my bed and my toy gnome i lay awake wondering will i ever get back i remeber the velvety touch of ma and the loud growls of my pa i now lie here waiting for my fate the opening of a new gate

Is Your Love Lost?

When was that moment?
When you felt that your hopes lied under pavement?
Was the air too thick?
Was there two options and one pick?
Was there a terrifying scream?
Who ever thought that was a dream?
Happiness can all be in a nut shell!
But it cannot be cracked open Until the tears or the pleads go through the ones soul
And the ones love shall shatter you sorrows apart

Never Give Up

new is exciting at first but challenging at last like thirst mind busy
life crazy
for all i know things are to change things you find incredibly strange but not to worry my friend if you try better things will come to you at the end where will i be?

to me peace is a word that stands alone

Secrets

secrets are to be kept inside your friends your foes your secrets better hide share them with your diary or keep them in your soul if they slip out there gonna spread like burning coal freinds will always be foes and foes will never be friends keep it in your heart

Shattered Art Is Not A Broken Heart

no one knows that deep in me i hate challenging challenges i want to be free a broken heart
can not be compared to shattered art a big loss is a fragile smile one wrong slip its out by a mile light will shine hearing laughter the lucky ones stand before the alter

Maria Aleem

What Is Love?

does the heart represent love or does the Pink messenger dove is love just words of kindness or is it just acts of fairness
I DONT CARE WHAT IT MEANS from HEARTSto BEANS
it i that i love you so and my love now you know
