I Am Always There With You!

Do not feel sad nor down for I am not gone from you we are only apart for a while this is just farewell not goodbye I am still very much alive.
I am there in the wind that blows in the rain, in the winter snows, in the sunshine each day brings, in the stars and moon, each bird that sings.
In each song we sang and heard, in each memory, each word, when you wake up with a smile each night, every heavenly flight.
I am forever near as long as you'll keep me there in your thoughts, in your mind in memories and in dreams in your every day's mischieves imprinted in your heart and soul forever yours - warm, dear and close!
