Soul Mate

I wonder what you saw in me
When looking at myself, I feel lucky to have you
I would stare at you from sunrise to sunset
Very short tempered but you have a heart of gold

I look above and thank God Through thick and thin, you are all I got
It is a long road
We always live on hope

You always say, with God we will cope
We fought but the trust was never lost
Our relationship was never broken
I Thank God

Your beauty is beyond the word itself
Your smile makes me smile
Your presence makes me feel safe
Through your eyes I can see true love

I will always love you
I thank God for he has given me you as my soul mate.

A Hero

As I opened my history book, began to read a familiar name came into view. One as a child I had heard my father speak of so often.

Herman Andimba Toivo ya Toivo

A Namibian politician who was active in the independence movement

Born 22 August 1924

In Omangundu in Oshana region

Herman was a Revolutionary War Hero fought for the allied forces during world war II

Arrested in 1966 because of his political activities in support of his country

Sentenced by a Pretorian court to 20 years imprisonment

Incarcerated at Robben Island

He did all this because of the love he had for his country

That's why I call him my hero

He was released on 1 March 1984

He continued working hard, became the secretary general

Of the South West Africa People's Organization (SWAPO) from 1984-1991

Became a member of the national assembly & also Minister of mines & Energy

Until his appointment as Minister of Labour on 26 March 1999

As a hero, he never to see his people suffering

He donated food and other items to member of the sun community

And vulnerable residents in Omuthiya & Onayena constituencies

Handing over the donation to 16 beneficiaries in Omuthiya

He is a hero

that risked his life for our freedom

He is a hero

That feels the pain when we are in pain

He is a hero

that cries, tough doesn't give up someone that protects

Have the strength a mind of a fighter

He is a hero
that see things we don't Did something we won't Someone that follows command and doesn't complain
He is a strong hero
a Soldier, Marine, Sailors, Airman, leader and Coast Guard
A Hero deserves a thank you
God Bless You

Thank You!

The Woman You Married

You got married because of love
The women you met long time ago is not the women you are married to now
The love you married for has disappeared

The women you married is very beautiful
Nobody knew what was hidden under her beauty
Love is for two,
You loved her a lot

You met her in high school
You grew up together
She said you were the best man in the world you now regret being that man

You were warned, and you never listened Help was offered and you turned away you said too many cooks spoil the broth
Not knowing that beauty is only skin deep

You knew about her past
She convinced you,
She told you that history never repeats itself
You believed and put all your trust in her

You had the confidence and introduced her to your parents you told them good things about her, and they warned you not to count your chickens before they are hatched
Mom said 'all that glitters is not gold'
In your mind, your heart & soul, your woman was just the best

She was accepted
So her parents did to you
It all went well as you expected
Finally you got married

It's too late to regret
You just found out about the woman you married
She is the opposite of what you thought

Who do you blame? you now want a divorce

You've made your bed, so lay on it

You wish you listened

Now you know that a leopard cannot change it's spots

Is now the end of the world? This are questions in your mind

Its just the beginning

Every cloud has a silver lining

Love is blind

Once hi-ten, twice shy!

The Creator's Creation

Hear the sound of wind blowing

Feel the fresh air that you can't see inhale in the oxygen to survive

Can you create something invisible?

How can one know it?

It is the creator's creations

It is life to people.

Visit the ocean

Observe the flow of water

Stair at the waves

See the living things surviving under water

It's all the creator's creations.

visit the forest

Hear the beautiful sounds of birds singing

Experience the love of trees welcoming you

They are never selfish

They'll always give you the oxygen you need for life without asking for it.

It is the creator's creations

In the forest, you will see different kind of living organisms

Some you don't know or heard before

Some that are very beautiful and strange

Capable of taking your life

It's all the creator's creations.

Including you and I,

What we eat, drink for life and the earth we live in,

The creator is full of love,

He doesn't discriminate, empty of hatred the creator of all what 's in heaven and earth

The creator is God! ! ! !

A Friendly Warning

If you are not proud of nobody than at least be proud of yourself
If you can't do it for anyone than do it for yourself
If if don't need help than get it done by yourself
I can't judge you nor you can judge yourself
You still exist because God wants you to accomplish your duties on earth
People be proud of the life you are living
In our religion we don't believe in evil
Careful with the things you are believing
This is not a threat, but its a friendly warning
Don't be greedy of having more money
If money is the root of evil than the devil is the stem
And if you worship the devil than you are one of its branches cut yourself out and be saved
I speak nothing but the truth
If lies can't save you than let the truth save you believe in yourself and make sure you do what is right Nobody will change you
Change your way of living now
And you shall be saved

From Ashes To Ashes And Dust To Dust

It comes out of darkness
It do not give signals
It is uncontrollable
It is strange, invisible and Fame. It is 'DEARTH'

We are filled with sadness when it is among us, we do not know why it is one of us,
Only It, knows why one of us have to go with it it leaves the flesh with us and go with the spirit.

It was in the night when it took one of mine Where is he taken?
to Heaven or Hell
I kept on asking myself,

Only him the creator of creations knows
He take his creations any time he wishes
Who is that?
May be the question in your mind

When one you love has left you,
You need not to cry, as you don't know why it happened
The creator would not want you to see him/her suffering. It is wise for him to go rest.

We mourn everyday,
teary eyed every year
We say it is the worst moments of our lives.
Yes it is,

Some times it goes through people to get who it wants,
How?
We here people killing each other
Why?
This are reasons we know, mostly because of money and love

Regrets could come if he still existed
Only the creator will know about his future

When Your mission is accomplished, Death will lead you where he wants,
'Hell or Heaven'

We are left behind with his flesh and characters behind
We bury the flesh but not the characters,
It is forever in Our mouth
It is forever in our hearts
It becomes hard to forget It

We are always encouraged to be strong
Of-cos we do,
But it take some years
You wish you could accompany him

But only him the creator knows why you are left behind Complete your mission
And your vision will be accomplished
Where will you go when its your time?

Ask yourself
Don't pretend you don't care when you really cares
Do What is right than you will be fear free, we have fear because we do not know our destinations

Death Is everywhere around the world
You do not see it coming, nor to feel it coming, If blows like wind.
Do what is right and you'll be ready to welcome it
